A Pari modo & illud quoque, dicere inquam radiorum ſolis calorem qui in nubibus inhibetur atque detinetur, eſſe harum rerum cauſam, haudquaquam probabile exiſtit. etenim hæc ratio oſcitanter admodum reddita eſt. Nam & à tonitru & fulgetro & cæteris generis eiuſdem cauſam ſemper eſſe diſcretam atque diſtinctam, & ſic illa fieri neceſſe eſt. At illud plurimum ab hoc diſcrepat. ſimile enim eſt, atque ſi quis putet, aquam, niuem & grandinem, cùm antè in nubibus eſſent, poſtea excerni, & non fieri, quaſi ad manum faciente ſemper concretione vnumquodque eorum. nam pari ratione hæc concretiones, illa ſecretiones eſſe exiſti- B mandum eſt, Quare ſi ex hiſce altera non fiant, ſed ſint, vtriſque eadem accommodabitur ratio. Item cur caloris in nubibus interceptionem diuerſiorem eſſe dixerit quiſpiam, quàm vt in hiſce quæ denſiuſcula ſunt? Atqui aqua à ſole & igni caleſit, ſed tamen cùm rurſum coit & inalgeſcendo denſeſcit, nullam talem fieri excidentiam contingit, qualem illi prædicant. quanquam eam fieri oportuit pro magnitudinis ratione: atque ſpiritum, ignis opera in aqua genitum feruorem facere, qui vt inſit priùs nec fieri poteſt, nec illi ſonitum feruorem eſſe ſtatuunt, ſed ſtridorem. At ſtridor non niſi paruus feruor eſt. quo enim id quod incidit, dum extinguitur, euincit ac ſuperat, C hoc feruendo ſonitum edit. Sunt etiam qui fulgur, quemadmodum & Clidemus, haud eſſe dicant, ſed apparere: per ſimilitudinem dicentes, quaſi affectio ſimilis ſit, vt mare cùm virga percutitur, noctu reſplendere videtur, ſic humorem cùm in nebula flagellatur, fulgoris apparentiam (quæ non niſi fulgetrum eſt) ingerere. Verùm hi nondum verſati fuerant in opinionibus quæ de refractione ſunt, quæ quidem eiuſmodi affectionis cauſa eſſe videtur. Nam aqua dum percutitur, fulgere videtur, refracto ab ea ad quippiam lucidum aſpectu. Quamobrem noctu magis quàm interdiu fulgurat. nam interdiu non apparet, propterea quòd D maius diei lumen illud offuſcat & hebetat. Igitur hæc ſunt, quæ de tonitru & fulgetro ab aliis dicuntur. Aliis fulgetrum quidem eſſe refractionem, aliis fulgorem dicentibus: tonitru verò extinctionem ignis, non qui per ſingulas affectiones nubibus innaſcatur, ſed qui inſit. Nos autem ſuper terram ventum, in terra terræmotum, in nubibus tonitru, eandem eſſe naturam dicimus. Nam hæc omnia idem eſſentia ſunt, nempe exhalatio arida: quæ cùm modo quodam fluit: ventus exiſtit: cùm autem iſto, motus terræ facere ſolet: cùm autem in nubibus mutationem ſubiens excernitur, coeuntibus ipſis & in aquam concreſcentibus, tonitrua & fulgura, & inſuper cætera alia quæ E eiuſdem cum hiſce naturæ ſunt. Atque de tonitru & fulgure dictum iam eſt.

CAPVT I.

Ecnephiæ & typhonis cauſæ, eorúmque generatio & differentia, ac fulminum ſpecies.

DE reliquis autem ſecretionis huiuſce operibus, modo quo iam cœptum eſt, dicamus oportet. Nam flatus iſte qui excerni ſolet, cùm in parteis exiguas ſparſimque diffunditur, & ſæpe fit ac perflat, necnon ſubtilior eſt, tonitrua & fulgura edit. At ſi vniuerſus, & denſior, minùs autem ſubtilis expreſſus fuerit, procellam gignit, quæ vocatur à Græcis Ecnephias. Quo fit vt etiam vehemens exiſtat. nam excretionis celeritas robur aduehit. Cùm igitur magna & continens ſecretio fuerit conſecuta, tum profectò idem accidit, quod cùm rurſum aduerſam in partem halituum copia tenderit, euenire aſſolet. tum enim pluuia iugis multáque fit. Itaque hæc ambo in materia, potentia inſunt, & quidem cùm vtriuslibet facultatis principium factum eſt, quod è materia coëxcernitur, cuiuſcumque copia maior fuerit, abundantiùs ſubſequi aſſolet: fitque huius exhalationis pars altera imber, illius altera ecnephias. Cùm autem flatus qui in nube erat, excretus alteri incurrendo repercutitur, perinde vt cùm ex lato in anguſtum adigitur ventus in portis viiſque (nam repulſa prima corporis ad hunc modum fluentis parte, propterea quòd illa nequaquam cedant aut ob loci anguſtias, aut quòd in frontem aliquis alius offlet ſpiritus, in iſtiuſmodi locis flatus circulum vertiginémque fieri ſæpenumero accidit. ſiquidem aliud ne vlteriùs procedat arcet, aliud à tergo impellit. Quare cogitur in latus, qua nimirum parte non prohibetur ſeſe vertere: atque ita ſemper quod proximũ continuúmque eſt, quouſque vnus euadat. Hoc autem circulus eſt. cui enim figuræ vnica latio competit, eam ipſam circulum eſſe neceſſe eſt.) ob id profectò vertigines in terrà, & in nubibus ſimiliter, iuxta principium fiunt. Niſi quòd, quemadmodum cùm procella fit, ſemper nubes excernitur, atque continuus cooritur ventus: ita hic ſemper nubis continuitas ſubſequi ſolet. At ob nubis denſitatem impotens ab ipſa flatus ſecerni, in orbem primò conuertitur ob eam quam diximus cauſam. In præceps autem fertur, quia continuè nubes denſantur, qua parte calor excidit. Quare hæc affectio, ſi caloris expers fuerit, vocatur Typhon: qui quidem ventus eſt, velut ecnephias, inconcoctus. Non fit autem Aquiloniis Typhon, nec niue iacente Ecnephias: propterea quòd hæc omnia flatus exiſtunt. Flatus verò, non niſi calida ſiccáque exhalatio eſt. Igitur gelu atque frigus quia euincunt, principium ipſum cùm adhuc fit, ſtatim extinguunt. Quòd autem euincant dominenturque, palam eſt. non enim eſſet nix, neque partes ad Aquilonem poſitæ humerent: quippe cùm hæc vincente frigore accidant. Fit itaque Typhon, cùm ecnephias ſtatim ab ortu excerni è nube non poteſt.

A Eſt autem ob vertiginis obluctationem, cùm ad terram conuolutio ipſa delabitur, quæ ſecum aliquid abreptum è nube defert, à quo abſolui non poteſt. Qua autem tramite directo procedit, ea flatu agitat: atque motu in circulum facto, cuicumque rei impetu violento ingruerit, eam contorquet ſorbétque in excelſum. At ſpiritus qui è nube detrahitur, ardens accenſúſque dum fuerit, quod quidem accidit ſi tenuior efficiatur, preſter vocatur, hoc eſt, incenſio: incendit enim ſimul aërem, adeò vt ardore ipſum inficiat. Quòd ſi ex ipſa nube multus ac tenuis expreſſus fuerit flatus, is fulmen exultat. quod ſi admodum tenue fuerit, ſed B præ tenuitate non adurat, illud eſt quod Poëtæ arges, (id eſt, clarum) vocant: ſi verò minùs adurat, quod pſoloën, quaſi dicas fumidum. Nam illud ob eſſentiæ tenuitatem fertur: at ob motus celeritatem antè penetrat, quàm vt adurat, & mora facta infuſcet. hoc autem cùm ſit tardius, inficit quidem, non autem adurit, ſed penetrare anticipat. Quocirca & quæ obſiſtunt, quippiam pati ſolent: quæ minimè, nihil. verbi cauſa iam æs quo ſcutum integebatur, liquatum fuit, lignum verò nihil ſuſtinuit. Nam propter ligni raritatem, prius ſpiritus percolatus fuit atque tranſmiſſus, quàm vt lignum affici vllo pacto quiuerit. Per veſteis quoque pari modo tranſiuit, quas non adußit, ſed C protriuit. Quare hæc omnia flatus eſſe, vel ex talibus conſtat. Licet autem oculis quoque ipſis interdum contemplari, id quod nuper fecimus in templi Epheſini conflagratione. tunc enim flamma ſeorſim refulſa, multas in parteis continua ferebatur. Fumum ſpiritum eſſe ac ardere, apertum eſt, & alio loco antea dictum. Cum autem vniuerſim abſcedit, tum eſſe flatus apertè videtur. Quod igitur in paruis rogis fieri videmus, hoc idem vel tunc, multa nimirum ardente materia, longè validiùs fiebat. Ruptis itaque lignis, vnde ſpiritus origo atque initium erat, multus qua parte afflabat vniuerſim ſecedebat, & ardens in ſublime ferebatur. Quare flamma ipſa ferri, & incidere D in domos videbatur. Semper enim ſpiritum fulmina præcedere comitarique putandum eſt, ſed non cerni, quia coloris expers ſit. Ideóque quati priùs omne & afflari, quàm percuti: vtpote cùm ſpiritus ocyor fulmine ſit. Quinetiam tonitrua ſindunt diſſipántque, non ſono, ſed ſpiritu. Nam ſpiritus tam ſonum quàm ictum efficiens, vnà cum illis excernitur: qui ſi percutiat, ſindere non vrere ſolet.

DE Area autem, ſiue corona, & arcu cœleſti, & quid vtrumque ſit, & quam ob cauſam fiat, item de pareliis & bacillis dicamus: nam hæc omnia eiſdem de cauſis accidere ſolent. Primùm autem ſumamus oportet affectiones, & quæ circa vnumquodque ipſorum accidunt. Area igitur plerumque completa circuli forma cernitur, fitque circa ſolem lunámque, & ſplendida aſtra. Præterea non minùs noctu quàm interdiu, & horis ntemeridianis quàm poſtmeridianis. mane verò, c circa ſolis obitum, rariùs. At arcus cœleſtis, nec nquam circulus euadit, nec maior quam dimidia irculi forma ſectio. Et occidente & oriente, mi- mi circuli maximus ambitus: cùm autem eleua- ur magis, circuli maioris minor ambitus. Poſt au- umni æquinoctium, die decreſcente, quacunque hora fit: æſtate verò, per meridiem non cernitur. Nec vnquam plures ſimul quàm duo fiunt. Horum autem quamuis vterque tricolor ſit, atque eoſdem parique numero ac reliquus colores habeat, tamen qui in exteriore ſunt, obſcuriores habentur atque ordine contrario poſiti. Nam arcus interior, primam quæ maxima eſt, circumferentiam, puniceam geſtat: exterior, vltimam quæ minima eſt, ſed illi proxima, atque reliquas proportionabiliter. Cæterùm colores hi ſunt, quos ferè ſolos facere pictores nequeunt. Hi enim quoſdam aliorum mixtura faciũt. at puniceus, viridis & purpureus, nequaquam hoc pacto fiũt: hos autem colores arcus habet. Qui autem puniceum & viridem interiacet, is plerunque flauus apparet. Parelij autem atque virgæ ex obliquo ſemper effici ſolent, & nec ſupra ſolem, nec infra prope terram, nec è regione, nec etiam noctu, ſed ſemper circa ſolem. Præterea aut aſcendente, aut deſcendente: occidente frequentiùs: cœli vmbilicum perreptante, raro, id quod in Boſphoro aliquando accidit. Nam coorti duo parelij, ab matutino tempore durauerunt in occaſum. Quæ igitur circa eorum quodque accidunt, hæc ſunt. Horum autem omnium vna eadémque cauſa eſt. nam hæc omnia refractio ſunt. differunt tamen modis, quibus fiant: & in hoc, nempe à quibus, & quomodo refractio ſolem versùs aut aliquid aliud lucidum fiat. Item arcus interdiu quidem fit, noctu verò à luna ſcilicet, veterum quidem ſententia minimè fiebat. Hoc autem illis accidit, propter raritatem. eos enim latebat. Fit tamen, ſed rarò. Cauſa, quòd colores in tenebris lateant, quódque alia multa concurrere, eáque omnia vna die menſis, oporteat. nam plenilunio fiat, ſi futurus ſit, neceſſe eſt: atque tunc, oriente aut occidente luna. Quamobrem in annis ſupra quinquaginta, bis tantum in eum incidimus. Quòd igitur vt ab aqua, ita etiam ab aëre cæteriſque omnibus quæ ſuperficie leui conſtant, refrangatur aſpectus, ex hiſce quæ circa aſpectum demonſtrantur, ſumenda fides eſt: quódque in quibuſdam ſpeculis non modò colores, verumetiam figuræ appareant, in quibuſdam verò colores ſolùm. Eiuſmodi autem ſunt quæcunque exigua ſunt, & ſenſilem diuiſionem nullam habent. Nam fieri non poteſt vt in hiſce figura appareat. videretur enim eſſe diuiſibilis. nam figura omnis ſimul & eſſe figura & omni ex parte diuidi poſſe videtur. At cùm quippiam in illis apparere ſit neceſſum, figuram autem impoſſibile ſit, reliquũ eſt profectò vt color ſolùm appareat. Porro ſplendidorum color, interdum ſplendidus apparet: interdum verò, aut quia cum ſpeculi colore permiſcetur, aut quia aſpectus infirmus eſt, alterius coloris ingerit phantaſiam. Sed de his, in hiſce quæ de ſenſibus demonſtrantur, ſit à nobis conſideratum. Proinde ex hiſce alia dicamus, aliis vti veris vtamur.

CAPVT III.

Aream eſſe circulum, & quid denunciet.

PRimùm autem de areæ figura, & cur circulus euadat, & cur circa ſolem lunámque & conſimiliter circa aliquod aliud aſtrum cerni ſoleat, dicamus. nam omnibus eadem accommodabitur ratio. Fit igitur aſpectus refractio, cùm vapidus aër in nubem concreſcit, dummodo conſiſtens æquabilis ſit, ac partibus conſtet exiguis. Quamobrem cùm vapor conſiſtit, aquæ ſignum datur: cùm verò diſſipatur aut emarceſcit, minimè. Nam cùm

B diſſipatur, flatum: cùm verò emarceſcit, ſerenum indicat. Si enim vapor nec emarceſcat, nec diſſipetur, ſed ſuam ſortiri naturam ſinatur, merito aquæ ſignum exiſtit. Quando iam talem fieri conſiſtentiam indicat, ex qua ad aquam venire, denſatione continentiam accipiente, neceſſum ſit. Vnde etiam fit vt hi vapores omnium maximè colore atro ſint. At cùm diſſipatur, flatum portendit. (nam vaporis diductio à flatu fit, qui iam quidem eſt, nondum tamen apud nos exorrit. cuius rei indicium eſt, quòd vnde præcipua diſſipatio fit, hinc flatus accedit.) Cùm verò emarceſcit, ſerenitatem. nam ſi aër nullo pacto ita ſeſe ha-

C beat, vt quem in ſe continet calorem, euincat, & in pluuiam denſitatem veniat: conſtat exhalationis partem humentem ac frigidam, ab arida & ignea nondum eſſe ſequeſtratam, quod ſerenitatis cauſa exiſtit. Itaque quo pacto habente aëre refractio fiat, dictum eſt. Refrangitur autem aſpectus à caligine, quæ circa ſolem lunámve conſiſtit. Quocirca area non è regione, perinde vt arcus, apparet. Cùm autem æquo vndique modo refrangitur aſpectus, circulum exultare, aut certè circuli partem neceſſe eſt. Nam lineæ æquales ab eodem puncto ad idem punctum ductæ, ſemper ſupra circuli lineam frangentur. Sit enim à puncto a, versùs punctum b, fracta linea a c b, & linea a f b, &

D linea a d b, ſintque æquales inter ſe hæ, a c, a f, a d, & quæ ad b ſe conferunt, nempe c b, f b, d b, itidem inter ſe æquales, atque producatur linea a e b: quare trianguli æquales ſimiléſque ſunt, quippe qui ſuper æqualem lineam a e b cōſiſtunt. Ducantur autem ex angulis ad lineam a e b perpendiculares, ab angulo c, perpendicularis c e: ab angulo f, perpendicularis f e: ab angulo d, perpendicularis d e. Hæ itaque inter ſe æquales ſunt. nam in æqualibus triangulis, & vno in plano omnes conſtant. omnes enim ſeſe ad rectos angulos lineæ a e b, in vno puncto, ſcilicet e, iungunt. Igitur deſcripta linea circulus erit, centrum verò e. Sit autem b ſol,

E punctum a aſpectus, circumferentia c f d: nubes, à qua ſolem versùs refrangitur aſpectus. ſpecula etiam, continua intelligere oportet. Verùm ſingula ob paruitatem inuiſibilia ſunt. quod autem ex omnibus conſtat, vnum eſſe videtur: quia ita digeſta ſunt, vt vnum deinceps poſt alterum ſit collocatum. Quod autem cernitur albũ, ſol eſt, qui in vnoquoque ſpeculo per circulum cōtinenter apparet, nec vllam quæ ſenſui peruia ſit, recipit diuiſionem. Huic autem proxima continuáque ora, nigrat, ob illius alborem atrior apparens. Sed circa terram magis, quòd locus terræ vicinior magis vento careat. Nam fieri non poteſt vt flāte vento, ſtatio certa fiat. Porrò, circa lunam areæ ſæpiuſculè fiunt:

A ...ia ſol cùm ſit calidior, ocyus aëris conſtitutiones diſſoluit. Circa aſtra autem, fiunt quidem eiſdem de cauſis: non tamen ex æquo portendunt, quòd conſtitutiones prorſus exiguas, & nondum fecundas ſignificent.

CAPVT IV.

De iridis accidentibus coloribúſque, item quot eiuſdem & areæ differentiæ.

QVòd autem arcus refractio quidem ſit, iam diximus. qualis autem, & quo pacto, quáque de cauſa ſingula quæ illi accidunt, fieri ſoleant, in præſentia dicendum. Igitur ab omnibus leuibus refrangi aſpectus videtur: de quorum numero eſt tam aër quàm aqua. Fit autem refractio ab aëre, cùm denſeſcit. At ob viſus imbecillitatem, frequenter vel ſine inſpiſſatione viſum refringere idem aſſolet. Id quod cuidam molliter, non acutè videnti, aliquando accidit. dum enim ambulabat, ſemper ſimulachrum aduerſa fronte præcedere videbatur. quod illi contingebat, quoniam viſio ad ipſum reflectebatur. nam præ languore adeò imbecilla tenuíſque modis omnibus erat, vt & propinquus aër ſpeculi vicem illi, perinde vt qui remotus denſúſque eſſet, præſtaret, & ab illa repelli nequiret. Quocirca & promontoria in mari, reuulſa, & Euro ſpirante omnia maiora videntur. Item quæ in caligine poſita ſunt, vt ſol & aſtra dum oriuntur & occidunt, potiùs quàm cùm cœli medium tenent. Ab aqua autem maximè viſus refrangitur, & adhuc ab ea quæ fieri incipit, meliùs quàm ab aëre. Etenim quamlibet partium è quibus conſiſtentibus roratio fit, potiùs quàm caliginem, ſpeculum eſſe neceſſe eſt. Cùm autem & apertum ſit, & iam dictum in huiuſcemodi ſpeculis colorem duntaxat, non etiam figuram apparere: neceſſariò accidit cùm pluere incipit, & iam quidem nubium aër in mollem pluuiam concreuit, nondum tamen pluit, ſi è regione ſit ſol, aut quippiam aliud quod adeò lucidum ſit vt nubes ſpeculum reddi queat, & refractio in corpus lucidum ex aduerſo fiat, coloris non figuræ apparitionem fieri, cùm ſpeculum quodque paruum ſit atque indiuiſibile. At cùm magnitudinis continentia quæ ex illis omnibus exultat, videri queat, magnitudinem perpetuam eundem prætendere colorem neceſſe eſt. nam ſpeculum quodque, ei quod ex omnibus coaleſcit, ſuum colorem tribuit. Quare cùm hæc accidere poſſint, quoties ſol & nubes ſeſe ad hunc modum habebunt, & nos ſolem inter & nubem erimus, apparitio quædam ob refractionem fiet. Quinimò & tunc, & non aliter habentibus illis, arcus in cœlo cernitur. Patet igitur, arcum eſſe refractionem viſionis in ſolem. Quamobrem & arcus niſi ſole aduerſo, area verò niſi circa ſolem non fit. Et quidem ambo, refractiones ſunt. verùm colorum varietas alterum à reliqua diſcriminat. nam alter ab aqua atróque, & è longinquo fieri ſolet: altera ab aëre, qui ſuapte natura candidior eſt, & è propinquo. Quod autem fulgidum eſt, per atrum aut in atro (nihil enim refert) puniceum apparet. Contueri autem poſſumus, ignem qui è virentibus lignis fit, rubram flammam habere: propterea quòd ignis qui fulgidus albúſque eſt, multo fumo admiſtus eſt.

Περὶ ἴριδος, ποία τις ἀνάκλασίς ἐστι, καὶ πῶς, καὶ διὰ τί ἕκαστα γίνεται τῶν περὶ αὐτήν, οἷα χρώματα· καὶ πῶς τῆς ἅλω διαφέρει.

A Quinetiam ſol ipſe per caliginem & fumum, puniceus apparet. Quocirca arcus refractio prima, eiuſmodi colorem habere videtur, quippe cùm ea refractio, à paruis aſperginibus fiat. At areæ refractio minimè. De cæteris autem coloribus poſtea ſumus dicturi. Præterea talis conſtitutio circa ſolem ipſum permanere diu non poteſt, ſed aut pluit, aut diſſoluitur: dum tamen è contrariis aqua gignitur, tempus quoddam interuenit. Si enim illud eueniret, areæ modo arcus tinctæ forent. nunc autem integra quidem aut circularia nulla fiunt, quæ talem habeãt apparitionem, ſed exigua & per parteis: nempe qui vocantur bacilli, ſeu virgæ. Quando ſi caligo talis conſiſteret, qualis eſſet aquæ B aut cuiuſpiam alius atri, ſicuti iam diximus, arcus cœleſtis integer, perinde vt qui circa lucernas fit, appareret. Nam frequenter per hyemem flante auſtro circa lucernas fit iris: quam maximè vidẽt, qui oculos habent humidos. quoniam eorum aſpectus præ imbecillitate celeriter refrangitur. Fit autem tam ab aëris humiditate quàm à fuligine illa quæ à flamma defluit, atque cum aëre miſcetur. tũc enim ſpeculum vel propter nigrorem fieri aſſolet. Nam fuligo fumida exiſtit. at lucernæ lumen, non albũ, ſed purpureum, & flori ireos ſimile, non autem puniceũ, circulo apparet. nam & aſpectus qui refringitur, exiguus eſt: & ſpeculũ, atrum. At iris illa quæ à remis fieri ſolet qui è mari referuntur, ſitu quidẽ C eodem fit modo quo quæ in cœlo cernitur, colore tamen ſimilior ei eſt quæ circa lucernas apparet. non enim puniceum habere colorem videtur, ſed purpureum. Ipſa autem refractio à minutiſſimis quidem, ſed continuis aſperginibus fit, quæ non niſi aqua ſunt, quę iam prorſus diſcreta eſt. Fit autem etiam iris, ſi quis talem locum qui ſoli oppoſitus ſit, & hac quidem ſol faciem ſuam oſtentet, illac verò vmbram faciat, tenuibus conſpergat rorationibus. Nam in tali loco, ſi quis intrà irroret, ei qui foris ſtat, quà ſolis radij permutantur atque vmbrã efficiunt, iris apparere ſolet. Hæc autem modo locóque conſimili fit, & cauſa eadẽ qua quæ à remis efficitur. nam qui irrorat, manu vice remi vti ſolet. D Quòd autem iridis color talis ſit, ſimul & de cæterorum colorum apparitione, ex hiſce patebit. Intellexiſſe enim oportet, vti iam diximus, atq; ſuppoſuiſſe, primò quidem rem lucidam in nigro aut per nigrum, colorem efficere puniceum. Secundò, aſpectum qui ſe longè deducit, imbecilliorem minorémq; reddi. Tertiò, atrum eſſe veluti abnegationẽ. nam quia viſus deficit, atrum apparere ſolet. Quocirca quæ longè abſunt, nigriora omnia apparent, quia viſus ea minùs aſſequatur. Sed iſta ex hiſce quæ circa ſenſus accidunt, conſiderentur. nam quæ de hiſce rebus dicuntur, ad illa pertinent. nũc autem de ipſis dicamus, quantum nobis opus eſt. Hac igitur de cauſa tã quæ remota ſunt, quàm quæ in ſpeculis, nigriora minoráque ac leuiora apparẽt. E Quinetiam nubes hiſce qui in aquã, quàm qui in ipſas aſpiciũt, nigriores eſſe videntur: idque admodum inſigniter. nam aſpectu exiguo propter refractionem, ſpectantur. Nihil autẽ intereſt, cõſpectus dimoueatur, an res conſpectui obuia. fit enim ratione vtralibet vt idem eueniat. Adhæc nec id nos latere oportet: accidit enim vt nubes cùm prope ſolem fuerit, ſi quis in eam dirigat pupillæ aciem, nullo infecta colore, ſed alba appareat.

at ſi in aqua eandem ſpectet, colorem quendam arcus cœleſtis habere videatur. Patet igitur, quòd conſpectus fractus, vt præ imbecillitate quod nigrum eſt, magis nigrum, ita quod album eſt, minùs album apparere facit, atque ad nigrorem adducit. Validior igitur aſpectus, colorem album in puniceum, proximus ab illo in viridem, qui prætcrea imbecillior eſt, in purpureum, mutare aſſolet. Vltra hos autem colores nullus prætcrea apparet. ſed vt plurima quoque alia, ita & hi ternario definiti ſunt. Aliorum autem colorum mutatio, inſenſibilis eſt. Quocirca & arcus tricolor, vterque quidem, ſed oppoſito modo apparet. Primus igitur extimam ſupremámque circumferentiam puniceam habet. nam aſpectus a maxima circumferentia ſoli plurimus incurrit. extima autem, maxima eſt. Proxima verò & tertia, iuxta proportionem ſeſe habent. Quare ſi quæ de colorum apparitione diſſeruimus, probè dicta ſunt, irin & tricolorem eſſe, & hiſce ſolis coloribus tingi neceſſe eſt. Flauus autem color idcirco apparet, quia iuxtà poſiti colores ſpectantur. Nam color puniceus iuxta viridem, albus apparet. Cuius rei ſignum eſt: Nam in nube nigerrima, iris maximè pura ſinceráque fieri aſſolet. tunc enim accidit vt color puniceus flauior eſſe videatur. Flauum autem illud quod in arcu apparet, color eſt inter puniceum & viridem medius. Igitur ob nubis circunſtantis nigrorem, quicquid eius puniceum eſt, album apparet. nam puniceum ad illa, album eſt. Et rurſum emarceſcente proximè terram iride, cùm diſſoluitur puniceum, nebula alba iuxta viridem ſeſe applicans, in flauum tranſire ſolet. Hæc autem maximè indicat lunæ arcus: quippe qui albus omnino appareat. quod accidit, quia & in nube atra, & noctu ſpectari ſolet. Ergo vt ignis igni adiectus, ſic nigrum iuxta nigrum poſitum, quod remiſsè album eſt (id quod eſt puniceum) prorſus album apparere facit. Hæc autem affectio, vel in floribus perſpicua eſt. Nam in texturis & variegaturis, colores quidam iuxta alios & alios poſiti, apparitione ſupra quàm dici queat, differunt, vt purpurei in albis nigriſve lanis. prætcrea in ſplendore tali aut tali. Quocirca & qui variis filorum coloribus flores concinnant, cùm ad lucernam operantur, ſeſe frequenter errare, & imprudenter alios pro aliis accipere aiunt. Quòd igitur iris ſit tricolor, quódque hoſce colores tantummodo præferat, dictum eſt. Quæ autem ambit, ſecunda, & coloribus languidioribus eſt: quos item ſitu diuerſo atque prima, hac ipſa de cauſa habet. Nam aſpectus longiùs procurrens, vt quod remotius eſt, ita quod hîc eſt, videt. A ſuperiori igitur iride refractio imbecillior exultat: quia remotiore in loco fit. Quare cùm minor inuadat, colores apparere languidiores efficit. Item ordine conuerſo, propterea quòd ſeſe à minori ac interiori circumferentia ad ſolem maior trudit. Nam quæ viſio minùs diſtat, à propinquiſſima primæ iridi circumferentia refrangitur. minima autem exterioris iridis circumferentia propinquiſſima eſt. itaque ea puniceum colorem habebit, illi autem proxima, & tertia, iuxta proportionem. Exterior iris b, interior a: colores, c puniceus, d viridis, e purpureus. Pars autem illa quæ eſt f, flaua apparet.

CAPVT V.

Iridis proprietates aliquot.

Porrò arcum cœleſtem nec in circulum euadere poſſe, nec in portionem ſemicirculo maiorem, atque de cæteris quæ illi accidunt, ex deſcriptione fiet conſiderare volentibus apertum. Nam hemiſphærio ſupra terminantem circulum a exiſtente, centro autem κ, atque puncto quodam alio

B ceu g exoriente, ſi lineæ quæ à κ in turbinis ſpeciem procidunt, velut axem lineam g k faciant, & lineæ à k ad m productæ ab hemiſphærio ad g ſuper angulum maiorem refrangantur: lineæ profectò quæ à k egrediuntur, ſeſe circuli oræ applicabunt. atque ſi in aſtri exortu obitúve fiat refractio, dimidia circuli portio quæ ſupra terram ſit, excipi ab horizonte conſueuit. Si verò dum aſtrum ſupera in parte cœli exiſtit, refrangatur aſpectus, ſemper arcus minor dimidia circuli forma aſſumitur, minimus autem, dum illud circulum attingit meri-

C dianum. Sit enim primum in oriente g, & linea lz m in g refrangatur: atque planum e, quod à tergo trianguli g k m exiſtit, educatur. nihil enim referet, ſi quodlibet planum ex hiſce quæ ſupra lineam g k, iuxta triangulum lz m g conſiſtunt, eductum ſit. Orbis itaque ſectura circulus erit. Maximus ſit e. Lineæ igitur à punctis g lz hac ratione ductæ, haudquaquam in alio & alio, quàm ſemicirculi illius in quo e, pacto concurrent. Nam cùm & puncta g lz data ſint, & linea lz m data vtique erit, & linea m g. Quare & ratio lineæ m g ad lineam m lz. Datam igitur circumferentiam punctum m attinget. Sit itaque ea n m. quare circumferentiarũ

D ſectio data eſt. Ad aliam enim quàm n m circumferentiam ab eiſdem pũctis eadem ratio in eodem plano minimè conſiſtit. Extra deſcriptam igitur figuram linea quædam, nempe d b, ſeorſim iaceat, ſeceturque ad hunc modum, vt quomodo linea m g ad lineam m lz ſeſe habet, ita linea d ad lineã b ſeſe habeat. Maior autẽ eſt linea m g, quàm linea m lz, quandoquidem turbinis refractio ſuper maiorem angulum fit. ſub maiori enim angulo trianguli m lz g porrigitur: maior ergo eſt & linea d, linea b. Accedat igitur ad lineam b, linea f, vt quod eſt linea d ad lineã b, id linea b f ad lineã d ſit. deinde quod eſt linea f ad lineã lz g, id linea b ad aliã, puta lz q fiat, atque à puncto q ad punctum m pro-

E ducatur linea q m. Igitur punctum q circuli cui lineæ à lz profluentes ingruunt, vertex erit. Nã vt linea f ſeſe habet ad lineam lz g, & linea b ad lineã lz q, ita & linea d ad lineam q m ſeſe habebit. Ponamus enim non ita habere, ſed aut ad minorem, aut ad maiorem linea q m. Nihil enim referet, vtram dicamus. Sit ad lineam q r. Eandem igitur rationem lineæ g lz, & lz q, & q r inter ſe habebunt, quam lineæ f, b, d, habent. At lineæ f, b, d, rationum ſimilitudinem ſubeunt. nam quod eſt linea d ad lineam b, id linea f b ad lineam d. Quare ſicut ſe habet linea g q ad q r, ſic linea q r ad q lz. Si igitur à punctis g lz, ad punctum r protrahantur lineæ g r & lz r: hæ protractæ eandem ſeruabunt rationem, quam linea g q ad lineam q r.

Nam lineæ trianguli g q r, & trianguli k r q, circa eundem angulum q rationum ſimilitudinem ſubeunt. Quare & linea g r, ad lineam k r eandem habebit rationem, quam & linea g q ad lineam q r ſortita eſt. Eandem autem rationem habet linea m g, ad lineam m k, quam linea d, ad lineam b. Quare quæ à punctis g k, ducuntur, ambæ non modò apud circumferentiam m n concurrent, tametſi eandem habeant rationem, verùm etiam alibi. quod ſanè fieri nequit. Cùm igitur linea d, nec cum maiori, nec cum minori quàm q m (vtrunque enim ſimiliter oſtendetur) communem obtineat rationem, patet idem illi cum ipſa linea q m euenire. Quare quod eſt linea m q, ad lineam q k, id erit linea g q ad lineam q m. Igitur ſi circulus deſcriptus ſit qui vertice q, & interuallo q m vtatur, angulos omneis attinget, quos refractæ lineæ quæ à punctis k g prodeunt, efficere ſolent. Quod ſi non attinget, quæ alibi quàm in ſemicirculo coeunt: eandem habere rationem conſimiliter oſtendentur. quod fieri non poſſe, iam diximus. Si ergo ſemicirculum e circa diametrum g k q circumagas: quæ à punctis g k ad punctum m refrangi ſolent, omnibus in planis conſimiliter ſeſe habebunt, efficiéntque angulum æqualem, nempe k m g, & quem angulum lineæ k q & q m, ſuper lineam g k committent, ſemper æqualis erit. Igitur trianguli ſuper lineam g q conſtituti, triangulo g m q æquales ſunt. horum autem perpendicula in idem punctum lineæ g q cadent atque æqualia inter ſe erunt. cadant in o, igitur o circuli centrum exiſtit: cuius partem alteram, nempe eam quæ circa m e, horizon abſtulit. Rurſum, ſit horizon a c, ſupra quem iam ſubuectum ſit punctum g, ſitque nunc axis g q. Reliqua omnia haud ſecus atque priùs oſtendentur. Circuli enim vertex q ſub horizonte a c, eleuato puncto g erit. Vertex autem circuli & centrum tam circuli quàm eius qui nunc puncti eleuationem terminat (is enim eſt g q) in eadem linea ſunt. Cùm verò puncta k g ſupra diametrum a c ſint: circuli centrum, ſcilicet o, ſub priori terminante, nempe a c, in linea lz q erit. Quare portio quæ ſupra horizontem exiſtit, vt s t, ſole ſupra eundem eleuato, minor ſemicirculo erit. nam r s t ſemicirculus erat. nunc autem à terminante a c interſectus eſt. portio itaque r s minimè apparebit, at cùm idem in meridie exiſtit, minima. Nam quo punctum g ſuperius fuerit, eo circuli centrum & vertex inferius erunt. Cur autem ab æquinoctio autumnali die decreſcente quacunque hora fiat iris, & eo rurſus creſcente ab æquinoctio verno vſque ad alterum per meridiem non cernatur, ratio eſt, quod circulorum ſectiones quæ ab æquinoctiali ad ſeptentrionem vergere ſolent, omnes ſemicirculo maiores ſunt, atque ſubinde ſemper maiores euadunt. quod verò diſparet, paruum. Contrà quæ ab eodem ad meridiem ſpectant, minores (nam quæ ſupra terram extat, parua eſt: quæ autem infra, magna) & quæ longiùs abſunt, ſemper minores ſunt. Vnde fit vt diebus ſolſtitio æſtiuo vtrinque proximis ob ſectionis magnitudinem priuſquam punctum g

Τὰς δ' αὐτὰς αἰτίας ὑποληπτέον εἶναι περὶ παρηλίου καὶ ῥάβδων ταῖς εἰρημέναις. γίνεται γὰρ ὁ παρήλιος μὲν, ἀνακλωμένης τῆς ὄψεως πρὸς τὸν ἥλιον ἀπό τινος· ῥάβδοι δὲ, διὰ τὸ προσπίπτειν τοιαύτην οὖσαν τὴν ὄψιν, οἵαν εἴπομεν ἀεὶ γίνεσθαι, ὅταν πλησίον ὄντων τοῦ ἡλίου νεφῶν, ἀπό τινος ἀνακλασθῇ τῶν ὑγρῶν πρὸς τὸ νέφος. φαίνεται γὰρ αὐτὰ μὲν ἀχρώματα τὰ νέφη κατ' εὐθυωρίαν ἐμβλέπουσιν· ἐν δὲ τῷ ὕδατι, ῥάβδων μεστὸν τὸ νέφος· πλὴν τότε μὲν ἐν τῷ ὕδατι δοκεῖ τὸ χρῶμα τοῦ νέφους εἶναι, ἐν δὲ ταῖς ῥάβδοις ἐπ' αὐτοῦ τοῦ νέφους. γίνεται δὲ τοῦτο ὅταν ἀνώμαλος ᾖ τοῦ νέφους ἡ σύστασις, καὶ τῇ μὲν πυκνοῦ, τῇ δὲ μανοῦ· καὶ τῇ μὲν ὑδατωδεστέρου, τῇ δὲ ἧττον· ἀνακλασθείσης γὰρ τῆς ὄψεως πρὸς τὸν ἥλιον, τὸ σχῆμα μὲν τοῦ ἡλίου οὐχ ὁρᾶται διὰ τὴν σμικρότητα τῶν ἐνόπτρων· τὸ δὲ χρῶμα, διὰ τὸ ἐν ἀνωμάλῳ φαίνεσθαι λαμπρὸν καὶ λευκὸν τὸν ἥλιον, πρὸς ὃν ἀνεκλάσθη ἡ ὄψις, τὸ μὲν φοινικοῦν φαίνεται, τὸ δὲ πράσινον ἢ ξανθόν. διαφέρει γὰρ οὐθὲν, διὰ τοιούτων ὁρᾶν ἢ ἀπὸ τοιούτων ἀνακλωμένην· ἀμφοτέρως γὰρ φαίνεται τὴν χρόαν ὅμοιον· ὥστε εἰ κἀκείνως φοινικοῦν, καὶ οὕτως. αἱ μὲν οὖν ῥάβδοι γίνονται δι' ἀνωμαλίαν τοῦ ἐνόπτρου οὐ τῷ σχήματι, ἀλλὰ τῷ χρώματι· ὁ δὲ παρήλιος, ὅταν ὅτι μάλιστα ὁμαλὸς ᾖ ὁ ἀὴρ, καὶ πυκνὸς ὁμοίως· διὸ φαίνεται λευκός· ἡ μὲν γὰρ ὁμαλότης τοῦ ἐνόπτρου ποιεῖ χρόαν μίαν τῆς ἐμφάσεως· ἡ δ' ἀνάκλασις ἀθρόας τῆς ὄψεως, διὰ τὸ ἅμα προσπίπτειν πρὸς τὸν ἥλιον ἀπὸ πυκνῆς οὔσης τῆς ἀχλύος, καὶ οὔπω μὲν οὔσης ὕδωρ, ἐγγὺς δ' ὕδατος, τὸ ὑπάρχον τῷ ἡλίῳ ἐμφαίνεσθαι χρῶμα ποιεῖ, ὥσπερ ἀπὸ χαλκοῦ λείου κλωμένης διὰ τὴν πυκνότητα. ὥστ' ἐπεὶ τὸ χρῶμα τοῦ ἡλίου λευκὸν, καὶ ὁ παρήλιος φαίνεται λευκός. διὰ δὲ τὸ αὐτὸ τοῦτο μᾶλλον ὕδατος σημεῖον ὁ παρήλιος, τῶν ῥάβδων· μᾶλλον γὰρ συμβαίνει τὸν ἀέρα εὐφυῶς ἔχειν πρὸς γένεσιν ὕδατος. ὁ δὲ νότιος, τοῦ βορείου μᾶλλον, ὅτι μᾶλλον ὁ νότιος ἀὴρ εἰς ὕδωρ μεταβάλλει τοῦ πρὸς ἄρκτον. γίνονται δ' ὥσπερ εἴπομεν περί τε τὰς δυσμὰς καὶ περὶ τὰς ἀνατολὰς, καὶ οὔτ' ἄνωθεν οὔτε κάτωθεν, ἀλλ' ἐκ τῶν πλαγίων καὶ ῥάβδοι καὶ παρήλιοι· καὶ οὔτ' ἐγγὺς τοῦ ἡλίου λίαν, οὔτε πόρρω παντελῶς· ἐγγὺς μὲν γὰρ ὄντος ὁ ἥλιος διαλύει τὴν σύστασιν· πόρρω δ' ὄντος, ἡ ὄψις οὐκ ἀνακλασθήσεται· ἀπὸ γὰρ μικροῦ ἐνόπτρου πόρρω ἀποτεινομένη, ἀσθενὴς γίνεται. διὸ καὶ* αἱ ἅλω οὐ γίνονται ἐξ ἐναντίας τοῦ ἡλίου. ἄνω μὲν οὖν ἐὰν γίνηται καὶ ἐγγὺς, διαλύσει ὁ ἥλιος· ἐὰν δὲ πόρρω, ἐλάττων ἡ ὄψις οὖσα ἢ ὥστε ποιεῖν ἀνάκλασιν, οὐ προσπεσεῖται.

CAPVT VI.

Virgarum & pareliorum cauſa ac generatio.

B De geminato autem ſole (quem Græci parelium vocant) & virgis ſiue bacillis, eaſdem cum iis quas diximus cauſſas eſſe exiſtimandum eſt. Nam tum parelius fieri aſſolet, cùm ſolem versùs refrangitur aſpectus. Virgæ autem, propterea quòd aſpectus talis, qualem ſemper fieri diximus, quoties nubibus propè ſolem conſiſtentibus ab aliquo humido refrangitur, ad nubem ſeſe applicat. Nam nubes cùm per aſpectum ſpectantur, coloris expertes eſſe videntur: cùm verò in aqua, plenæ virgarum apparent. Verùm tunc, nempe cùm in aqua ſpectantur, color eſſe nubis videtur. at cùm virgæ in cælo fiunt, idem in ipſa nube apparet. Hoc autem fit, cùm nubis conſtitutio inæquabilis eſt, & nubes partim denſa, C partim rara, & vna in parte aquoſa magis, in altera minùs exiſtit. nam refracto in ſolem aſpectu, ſolis figura non cernitur, ſed color. at quia ſol lucidus & albus exiſtens, quem versùs refrangitur aſpectus, in re apparet inæquabili, aliud puniceum, aliud viride aut flauum apparet. Nihil enim refert per talia videre, an à talibus refringi aſpectum dicamus: vtroque enim modo colore ſimili apparet. Quare ſi illo modo puniceum: & hoc quoque, tale apparebit. Virgæ igitur propter ſpeculi inæquabilitatem, non figura, ſed colore fiunt. Parelius autem fit, cùm aër quam maximè æquabilis & ex æquo denſus eſt, & proinde albus apparet. Nam ſpeculi æquabilitas apparitionis colorem vnum D reddit: at aſpectus vniuerſi refractio, quòd à caligine quæ denſa eſt, & necdum quidem aqua eſt, ſed propè eſt vt aqua ſit, ad ſolem concurrat: colorem qui in ſole eſt apparere perinde facit, vt cùm ab ære leui ob eius denſitatem frangitur aſpectus. Quare cùm ſolis color albus ſit, parelius quoque apparet. Ob id ipſum autem parelius, quàm virgæ, certior aquæ futuræ index exiſtit: quippe qui aërem gignendis imbribus procliuem eſſe magis indicat. Et cùm in Auſtrina cœli regione conſtiterit, magis quàm cùm in Aquilonia: quoniam auſtrinus aër quàm ſeptentrionalis, meliùs in aquam mutari ſolet. Fiunt etiam tam parelij quàm virgæ, vti diximus, in oriente & occidente: & nec ſupra ſolem E nec infra, ſed ex lateribus: nec propè admodum, nec procul omnino. Nam ſi illa aëris concreſcentis ſoliditas propè ſit, reſoluetur à ſole: ſi procul, aſpectus refrangi non poterit: cùm enim longe de paruo ſpeculo remeet, imbecillis redditur. Quamobrem areæ quoque fieri non poſſunt è regione. Quòd ſi ſupra & in propinquo inchoëtur, à ſolis feruore diſſoluetur: ſin procul, aſpectus minor, quàm vt refractionem facere queat, ſolem haudquaquam inuadet.

Sed in latere fieri poteſt vt ſpeculum ita diſtet, vt nec ſolis feruore abſumi poſſit, & aſpectus vniuerſus recurrat. nam ſi in terram quaſi per immenſum ſparſus feratur, deuenire ad ſolem non poteſt. Sub ſole etiam fieri non poteſt. quia ſi prope terram extiterit, conſumetur feruore: ſi autem ſupra cœlo in medio, aſpectus diſtrahetur & euaneſcet. Denique nec è latere quidem effici illa poteſt, cùm ſol cœli vmbilicum perreptat. nam aſpectus nequaquam fertur in terram. Itaque exiguus ad ſpeculum venit, & refractus omnino imbecillus recedit. Quæ igitur opera in locis quæ ſupra terram ſunt, ſecretionem exhibere contingat, tot ferè numero taliaque ſunt. Quæ autem in terra ipſa, eadem in terræ partibus occluſa efficiat, dicendum. Duas enim corporum differentias, quoniam & ipſa quoque duplex eſt, ibi perinde vt in ſublimi efficere aſſolet. Nam vt halitus duo ſunt (vti diximus) alter vapidus, alter fumidus: ita & eorum quæ in terra fieri ſolent, genera duo ſunt. etenim alia foſſilia ſunt, alia metallica. Igitur exhalatio arida ſuo calore foſſilia omnia (verbi cauſa, tam illiquabilia lapidum genera, quàm ſandaracam, ochram, minium, ſulfur, cæteráque generis eiuſdem) efficit. Plurima autem foſſilium partim coloratus puluis ſunt, partim lapis è tali conſiſtentia factus, vt cinnabari. at quæcunque metallica ſunt, & aut fuſilia ſunt aut ductilia, vt ferrum, æs, aurum, ad vapidam pertinent exhalationem. Vapida autem exhalatio, cùm includitur, & in lapidibus potiſſimùm ob eorum ſiccitatem conſtringitur in arctius, denſeſcitque roris aut pruinæ modo cùm excernitur, ea omnia committit. ſed inibi, ea priùs quàm illa excernatur, gigni ſolent. Vnde fit vt partim aqua ſint, partim minimè. nam eorum materies potentia quidem aquæ erat, nondum tamen eſt. Nec ex aqua, quæ per affectionem quampiam ſaporum in morem fiat, conſtant. non enim ad hunc modum hoc æs, illud aurum euadit: ſed horum ſingula, concreta priùs exhalatione quàm ortum ſubeant, fiunt. Quocirca & terram continent in ſe, & vruntur omnia, quòd ſiccam exhalationem habeant. at aurum vnum omnium nequaquam vri ſolet. Sed de his omnibus, communiter quidem à nobis dictum eſt. propriè autem ij conſiderent oportet, qui generis cuiuſque determinationem ſuſcipiunt.

A ex inductione ſumi poteſt. nam in omnibus calor & frigus, tam quæ vnius quam quæ diuerſi ſunt generis definire, copulare, tranſmutare, humectare, areſacere, indurare, & mollificare videntur: arida verò & humida, tum ipſa per ſe, tum communia corpora quæcunque conſtant ex vtriſque, definiri, & cæteros quos diximus affectus pati. præterea & hoc quoque rationibus ipſis quibus eorum naturas definimus, perſpicuum exiſtit. Nam calidum & frigidum, vti actiua dicimus. quod enim congregandi vim habet, id velut actiuum quid exiſtit, humidum verò & aridum, paſſiua. Nam promptè & ægre terminabile, quo eorum natura quippiam ſuſtinet, dicuntur. Eſſe igitur alia actiua, alia paſſiua, in aperto eſt.) Cùm hæc inquam definita ſint, eas profectò B operationes, quas quę actiua ſunt, exhibeant, atque paſſiuorum ſpecies ſumere oportebit. Principio igitur vniuerſaliter ſimplex abſolutáque & naturalis generatio, atque ei oppoſita per naturam corruptio, ab hiſce potentiis effici aſſolent. Ipſæ ergo in plantis, animantibúſque, & eorum partibus inſunt. Eſt autem ſimplex naturaliſque generatio, tranſmutatio quæ ab hiſce fit potentiis, vbi ex ſubiecta materia ad quanque naturam rationem obtinent. ea autem ſunt paſſiuæ illæ potentiæ, quas diximus. Porrò tum calor & frigus gignere ſolent, cùm materiam euincunt: cùm verò non euincunt, particulariter quidem inquinatio & inconcoctio effici ſolet. Simplici autẽ generationi contrarium C maximè cõmune, putrefactio eſt. Omnis enim corruptio quæ natura fit, ceu ſenectus & areſactio, ad eam ducit. Nam horum omnium finis marcor eſt, niſi quid ex hiſce quæ natura conſtant, vi corrumpatur. Nam & carnem & os, & quoduis eorum cremare licet, quorum finis eius quæ natura fit corruptionis, putrefactio exiſtit. Idcirco quæ putrent, primò humida, poſtea tandem ſicca euadunt. Nam ex hiſce facta ſunt, definitúmque eſt humido ſiccum, operantibus hiſce quibus agendi facultas eſt tributa. Corruptio autem fit, cùm id quod definitur, ob id quod ambit continétque, dominantius eo fuerit quod definit. Verùm putrefactio de hiſce quæ particulatim corruptionem ſubeunt, cùm à ſua receſſerunt natura, peculiariter dici ſolet. Quo- D circa & reliqua omnia, præter ignem, putrent. etenim terra & aqua & aër putreſcunt. nam hæc omnia igni materia ſunt. Eſt autem putrefactio, proprij naturaliſque caloris in vnoquoque humido exiſtentis, ab extraria caliditate corruptio. hæc autem eſt, quæ in eo quod circunfunditur ac continet, exiſtit. Quare cùm caloris defectu patiatur frigidum omne, quatenus eiuſmodi potentiam deſiderat, ambo vtique putrefactionis cauſæ erunt, & putrefactio frigiditatis propriæ & caliditatis peregrinæ communis affectio. Ob id enim & quæ putreſiunt, ſicciora redduntur omnia, & tandem fimus ac terra fieri aſſolent. Abeunte ſiquidem ca- E lore proprio, naturalis humiditas vnà cum illo difflatur, atque euaporat, nec ampliùs id quod humorem inuehere ſolet, in ratione rerum exiſtit. Nam calor proprius trahendo, humorem inuehit adducitque. Atque in frigore minùs quàm tepore, res putreſcunt. Nam tempore hyberno, circundans aër & aqua parum caloris retinent, & ideo nullas vireis habent: æſtate verò plus. Item nec id putredinem ſentit, quod concretum eſt. Nam magis frigidum eſt, quàm calidus ſit aër. non euincitur igitur. At id quod mouet, vincit. Nec id quod feruet, aut calidum eſt. calor enim qui in aëre eſt, minor eo eſt qui in re ipſa exiſtit.

Quare nec dominatur, nec mutationem vllam committit. Simili modo & illud quod motu cietur ac fluit, minùs eo quod quietem agit, immotúmque manet, putrilagine tangitur. Nam motus ille qui ab aëris calore prouenit, imbecillior eo efficitur, qui in re ipſa etiam antè inerat. Quare facere non poteſt vt quicquam mutetur. Eadem cauſa eſt, & cur multum minùs quàm paucum putreſcere ſoleat. Nam in re maiore maior eſt caliditas propria atque frigiditas, quàm vt potentiæ quæ in circumfuſo aëre ſunt, euincant. Vnde etiam fit vt mare inparteis quidem diſtractum celeriter putreat, ſed integrum ac totum haudquaquam, & reliquæ aquæ pari modo. Quinetiam in hiſce quæ putreſiunt, animalia gigni ſolent: quòd calor, qui naturalis eſt, dum educitur, quæ ſegregata ſunt, conſiſtere faciat. Igitur quid ſit generatio, & quid corruptio, dictum eſt.

CAPVT II.

De ſpeciebus digeſtionis & indigeſtionis.

Reſtat iam dicamus conſequentes ſpecies, quas ex ſubiectis quæ natura conſtant, dictæ vires efficiunt. Eſt itaque caloris quidem concoctio, & concoctionis maturatio, elixatio, aſſatio. Frigoris verò, inconcoctio, & huius, cruditas, inquinatio, excaldatio. Hæc autem nomina haudquaquam propriè dici exiſtimandum eſt: non enim in vniuerſum rebus ſimilibus nomina poſita ſunt. Quare non has, ſed taleis eſſe ſpecies quas diximus, putare oportet. Sed quid ipſarum quæque ſit, dicamus. Concoctio igitur, perfectio eſt quæ à naturali proprióque calore ex oppoſitis fit paſſiuis, quæ ſua cuique materies exiſtunt. Nam cùm quid concoctum eſt, perfectum eſt ac genitum, atque perfectionis exordium à natiuo calore prouenit (quamuis aliquo externorum adminiculo ad calcem vſque perduci ſoleat) quomodo alimentum per balnea, & id genus alia concoquitur. Verùm principij vicem internus calor occupat. Porrò concoctionis finis aliis natura exiſtit: natura autem eſt, quam veluti formam eſſentiámque dicimus. aliis, ad quandam ſubiectam formam contendit, vbi ſcilicet humor, qui torrebatur, vel elixabatur, vel putrefiebat, vel alio quouis modo incaleſcebat, talis tantúſque euaſit. tunc enim & vtilis eſt, & concoctionem recepiſſe dicitur, vt muſtū, & quæ in tuberculis collecta ſunt, cùm ad ſuppurationem peruenere: & lacrymæ, cùm ſordes in oculis obortæ ſunt, & cætera ſimili modo. Hoc autem omnibus obtingit, cùm materies atque humiditas ipſa victa fuerit. hæc autem eſt, quæ ab ea caliditate quæ in ipſa natura eſt, definiri ſolet. nam hoc tandiu natura eſt, dum in ea ratio ipſa inſit. Quocirca & eiuſmodi & vrinæ & alui ſedimenta, & omnino corporis excrementa ſanitatis indicia ſunt, & concocta dicuntur, quòd humorem à calore vinci ſignificent. Quæ verò concoquuntur, craſſiora euadant atque calidiora eſt neceſſe. Nam ei quod concoquitur, ampliorem molem calor tribuit, & craſſius illud aridiúſque reddit. Igitur concoctio hoc exiſtit. at inconcoctio, imperfectio eſt quæ proprij caloris penuria accidit: caloris verò penuria, frigus eſt. Atque imperfectio ad oppoſita paſſiua pertinet, quæ profectò natura cuique materies exiſtunt. Hoc igitur pacto concoctio atque inconcoctio definitæ ſunt.

CAPVT III.

De maturatione, elixatione, aſſatione, & contrariis.

Maturatio verò, concoctio quædam exiſtit. Nam eius alimoniæ quæ in arborum fructibus eſt concoctio, maturatio nuncupatur. Cùm autem concoctio, perfectio quædam ſit, tunc maturatio perfecta eſt, cùm ſemina quæ in fructuum genere ſunt, aliud eiuſmodi quale ipſum eſt, efficere valent. Nam & in cæteris perfectum ita dicimus. Hæc igitur maturatio, fructus arborum eſt. at mul-
B ta quoque alia ex hiſce quæ concocta ſunt, eadem quidem forma, ſed tralatione matura dicuntur: propterea quòd nomina (quemadmodum etiam priùs dictum eſt) cuique perfectioni circa ea quæ à natiuo calore ac frigore definiri ſolent, haudquaquam indita ſunt. Tuberculorum autem, puris, & cæterorum id genus maturatio, contenti humoris concoctio, quam natiuus calor efficere aſſolet, exiſtit. nihil enim niſi præualeat ac ſuperet, determinare quicquam poteſt. Quæ igitur matureſcunt, omnia ex aëreis aquea, ex aqueis terrea conſiſtendo fiunt, & è tenuibus ſubinde craſſiora reddi aſſolent. Atque hoc pacto natura, quædam ad maturationem adducit, quædam ab ea ſubmouet repellitque. Dictum eſt igitur quid ſit maturatio.
C Huic autem cruditas aduerſatur. maturationi verò contraria eſt eiuſce alimenti, quod in arborum fructu continetur, inconcoctio. hoc autem eſt humor non definitus. Quamobrem cruditas vel aërea, vel aquea, vel eorum quæ ex vtriſque conſtant, exiſtit. Cùm autem maturatio, perfectio quædam ſit: cruditas, imperfectio erit. Imperfectio verò ob caloris naturalis defectum atque commenſum humori ad maturitatem pergenti minimè reſpondentem, fieri aſſolet. Porro nullum humidum per ſe, ſine arido maturum fit. Etenim aqua ex humidis ſola non craſſeſcit. quod ideo euenire ſolet, quia vel exiguum calorem, vel magnā humoris qui definitur, copiam habeat. Et proinde crudorum ſuccus præ-
D tenuis eſt & gelidus potiùs quàm tepidus, & eſu ac potu inutilis. Cæterùm ipſa quoque cruditas perinde vt maturatio, multifariàm dicitur. Vnde & diſtillationes & vrinæ & alui ſedimina cruda dici eadem de cauſa ſolent: ex eo nanque cruda nuncupantur omnia, quòd à calore nec vincantur, nec conſiſtant. Quòd ſi longiùs progredi velimus, & fictile & lac & multa alia cruda dicuntur, ſi cùm à calore tranſmutari ac conſiſtere poſſint, inaffecta permaneant. Quocirca elixa dicitur aqua, ſed cruda minimè, quòd craſſa non euadat. Quid igitur ſit maturatio atque cruditas: & cur vtraque ſit, dictum eſt. Elixatio autem in vniuerſum quidem, eſt inde-quando externus calor internum vincit. Quòd ſi præualeret internus, humorem ad ſe traheret profectò. Porrò non omne corpus elixabile eſt. nam neque id in quo nihil eſt humoris, ceu lapis, neque id in quo humor quidem ineſt, ſed denſitatis ratione vinci non poteſt, vt lignum, elixari poteſt. Sed è corporibus ea duntaxat elixari ſolent, quæ humiditatem habent eiuſmodi, vt ab igni, qui in humore exiſtit, pati queant. At aurum, lignum, & pleraque alia, elixari dicuntur: forma quidem non eadem, ſed tralatione. non enim differẽtiis propria indita ſunt vocabula. Liquida quoque ceu lac atque muſtum elixari dicimus: vbi circundans & forinſecus excalfaciẽs ignis ſaporem, qui in humore conſiſtit, in aliam quandam ſaporis ſpeciem tranſmutat. Quare modo quodam ſimile quippiam dictæ elixationi committit. Finem autem non eundem nacta ſunt omnia, nec quæ elixantur, nec quæ concoquuntur: ſed aliorum finis in eſitatione, aliorum in ſorbitione, aliorum in alio vſu conſiſtit: quandoquidem vel medicamenta ipſa elixari dicimus. Quare elixabilia omnia ſunt, quæcunque craſſiora vel minora, vel grauiora: aut eorum quædam eiuſmodi, quædam diuerſa fieri poſſunt, propterea quòd eorum quæ diſgregantur, alia craſſa ſunt, alia tenuia. quomodo lac in ſerum atque caſeum diſtribui aſſolet. Oleum autem ipſum per ſe non elixatur, quòd horum nihil ſubeat. Igitur concoctio ea quæ elixatio nuncupatur, id eſt: nihilque intereſt, inſtrumentis arte an natura paratis fiat: eadem enim de cauſa fient omnia. Inquinatio autem inconcoctio quidem, at elixationi aduerſa exiſtit. Fuerit autem, cùm ei qua de priore loco diſſeruimus, aduerſari dicatur, inconcoctio infiniti in corpore exiſtentis, quam caloris humoris circumfuſi penuria committit. Quod autem caloris penuria frigus habeat ammiſtum, dictum eſt. per alium tamen quàm frigus, motum fieri ſolet. nam calor ille, cui coquendi officium delegatum eſt, depellitur ac offuſcatur. Atque penuria illa, copia frigoris in humore circumiacente, vel eo quod elixatur exiſtentis, prouenire ſolet. Tunc enim euenit vt calor qui eſt in humore, amplior ſit quàm vt non moueat, ſed minor quàm vt æquabilitatem afferre atque concoquere poſſit. Vnde fit vt inquinata, elixis duriora ſint, & humida ſiccentibus magis definita. Quid igitur & cur elixatio ſit, atque inquinatio, dictum eſt. Aſſatio verò concoctio eſt, quæ ab arido & alieno calore efficitur. Ea de cauſa cùm quis elixare quippiam nititur, ſi id non ab humoris caliditate, ſed ab igneo calore mutari ac concoqui faciat: vbi perfectum eſt, aſſum fit non elixum, & exuperantia inſuper aduſtum eſſe dicitur. Vbi autem perfectum ſiccius euadit, à calore ſicco fit. Quo fit vt partes extimæ, intimis fiant aridiores. id quod in elixis contrà euenit. Atque in hiſce quæ manuum beneficio confici ſolent, plus aſſatio negotij quàm elixatio inuehere ſolet. quippe cùm ſummas & internas rei partes æquabiliter excalfacere, perarduum ſit. nam quæ igni viciniores ſunt, ſemper ocyus ſiccent, quare & impenſiùs. Cùm igitur foramina illa quæ extrà prominent, coeunt adductantúrque, contentus humor exprimi non poteſt, ſed intercluditur, vbi meatus conniuent. Igitur aſſatio & elixatio, arte quidem efficiuntur, ſed & natura quoque, ſicut dicimus, ſpecies vniuerſaliter eædem fiunt. Nam affectus qui fieri aſſolent, tametſi nomine careant, haudquaquam tamen diſſimiles exiſtunt, cùm ars naturæ æmula ſit.
E finiti in humore exiſtentis concoctio ab humido calore facta. Sed vocabulum de elixis ſolùm propriè dici ſolet. Hoc autem, nempe quod indefinitū eſt, aëreum, vti diximus, vel aqueúm eſſe poteſt. Fit autem elixatio ab igni, qui in humore eſt. Quod enim in ſartagine igni admouetur, torreri aſſolet. nam ab externo calore patitur: humorem autem illum in quo eſt, pleniùs aridum ad ſe trahendo reddit. quod autem elixatur, contrà efficit. Nam calor quem externus humor habet, ab eo humorem foras pellit. Quamobrem elixa, aſſis aridiora ſunt. nō enim quæ elixantur, ad ſe humorem attrahunt:

A Quandoquidem & cibi in corpore concoctio elixationi perſimilis habetur. (quippe cùm in calido & humido à corporis calore fiat) & inconcoctio inquinationi. Nec in ipſa concoctione naſcuntur vermes, ſicuti quidam aiunt, ſed in excrementis quæ in aluo putrent inferiore, geniti, in ſublime poſtea ſeſe attollunt. Nam in ſuperiore ventriculo, concoctio effici ſolita eſt: at quod ſecreuit natura, id in inferiore putreſcit. quam autem ob cauſam, dictum aliàs eſt. Inquinatio igitur elixationi aduerſatur. At ei concoctioni quæ aſſatio vocitatur, quippiam oppoſitum pari modo exiſtit: ſed eiuſmodi vt difficiliùs ſibi quàm illa nomenclaturam inueniat. Fuerit autem perinde, vt ſi excaldatio B fiat, non aſſatio, propter caloris indigentiam, quæ ſanè aut exterioris ignis paucitate, aut in re aſſanda humoris diluti copia accidere poteſt. Nam calor tum maior eſt, quàm vt motum non exciter: minor, quàm vt concoquere queat.

CAPVT IV.

Paſsionum, humidorum & ſiccorum, ſpecies.

C PAſſiuorum autem, aridi inquam & humidi, ſpecies dicamus oportet. Sunt autem paſſiua corporum primordia, humidum atque ſiccum, cætera verò ex hiſce temperata quidem ſunt, ſed magis huius per naturam ſunt, ex quo largiùs. verbi gratia: alia magis ſicci, alia humidi. Hæc autem omnia partim actu erunt, partim potentia, quæ actui aduerſatur. quo pacto eliquatio & eliquabile ſeſe habent. Cùm autem humidum facilè, & ſiccum ægrè definiantur, haud aliter ſeſe quàm obſonium & condimenta viciſſim habent. Nam humidum arido, vt definiatur, cauſa eſt: & alterutrum alteri glutinis inſtar exiſtit. id quod & ipſe quoque Empedocles in naturalibus aſſeruit, farinam aqua agglutinans. Et ea de cauſa definitum corpus vtro- D que conſtat. Porro ex omni elementorum genere peculiariſſimè terræ quidem ſiccum, aquæ autem humidum tribuitur. Eam ob rem omnia iſta definita corpora, non ſine terra & aqua conſiſtunt. ſed potentia quodque huius eſſe videtur, cuius plus habuerit. Quinetiam animantes in terra & aqua ſolùm ſunt, in aere autem & igni minimè: propterea quòd terra & aqua, corporum materies exiſtunt. Ex corporeis autem affectibus hi, duritia inquam aut mollities, primi definitæ rei competant, eſt neceſſe. Nam quod ex arido conſtat & humido, durum aut molle neceſſariò euadit. Eſt autem durum, quod per ſumma in ſeſe non refugit: molle verò, quod in ſeſe non obluctando refugit: aqua nam- E que haudquaquam mollis eſt. quippe cuius pars ſumma compreſſu intro minimè cedat, ſed circum obſiſtat. Igitur abſolutè durum aut molle eſt, quod abſolutè eſt eiuſmodi: ad aliud verò durum aut molle, quod reſpectu illius tale eſt. Hæc ergo inter ſeſe viciſſim collata, indefinita ſunt: quòd magis atque minùs dura molliáve ſint. Sed cùm ſenſilia cuncta ſenſu diiudicentur, nos tam durum quàm molle ſimpliciter tactu eodem, veluti mediocritate quadam vtentes, definiuiſſe conſtat. Quocirca rem omnem quæ tactum edomat, duram: quæ verò ſubterfugit, mollem eſſe dicimus.

CAPVT V.

De corpore terminato, & aliis.

CORpus autem omne ſuo definitum termino, durum ſit aut molle neceſſe eſt. nam aut in ſeſe cedit, aut nequaquam. Adhæc concretum ſit oportet. hac enim re definitur. Quare cùm res omnis definita atque conſiſtens, vel mollis vel dura ſit, concretioniſque opera euadat eiuſmodi: nulla profectò compoſita definitaque corpora, ſine concretione eſſe queunt. ergo de concretione diſſerendum. Duæ itaque ſunt cauſæ quæ circa materiam verſari ſolent, id inquam quod agendi facultatem obtinet, & affectus ipſe. hic, vt ſpecies, ac forma: illud, vt id a quo proficiſcitur pendetque motus. Quare & concretionis & diſſolutionis & aſſiccationis & humectationis cauſæ totidem erunt. Porrò ipſum agens duplici potentia agit, & patiens duabus itidem patitur affectionibus, vti dictum eſt. nam agens calore agit atque frigore: at caloris frigoriſve præſentia aut abſentia, paſſionem fieri conſtat. Sed cum concretio, fermè aſſiccatio ſit, de hac priùs dicamus. Quod itaque patitur, aut humidum aut aridum, aut ex vtroque conflatum exiſtit. Atque aquam, humidi: terram, ſicci corpus eſſe ſtatuimus. quippe quæ inter humida & ſicca maximè paſſiua ſint. Quocirca & frigus, paſſiuorum magis exiſtit: in his enim eſt: quandoquidem terram & aquã frigere ſupponimus. at frigus actiuum eſt, quatenus corrumpere, aut aliud quippiam per accidens efficere poteſt, quemadmodum antea eſt dictum. nam interdum & vrere & excalfacere dicitur: non tamen perinde vt calor, ſed quia calorem cogit, & in vnum contrahit, aut eidem circumobſiſtit. Quæ autem aqua & aquæ ſpecies ſunt, aut aquam ſiue aduentitiam ſiue inſitam habent, ſicceſcunt. aduentitiam eam voco, quæ in lanam ſeſe inſinuat: inſitam, quam lacteus humor habet. aquæ verò ſpecies ſunt huiuſmodi: vinum, vrina, ſerum, & omnino quæcumque nullum aut certè paucum ſedimen, nec id tenacitatis ratione habent. nam tenacitas in cauſa eſt vt quibuſdam nihil ſubſideat: id quod oleo & pici accidit. Siccent autem omnia, dum aut calefiunt aut refrigerantur: vtrumque tamen calor vel internus, vel externus committere aſſolet. Etenim quæ frigore ſiccent, perinde vt veſtis, ſi cùm humida eſt ſeorſim ipſa per ſe maneat, ab interiori calore humorem ſecum educente reſiccari ſolent, ſi humor exiguus ſit, calore ob circumfuſum frigus egrediente. Siccent igitur vniuerſa, dum vel calefiunt, vel refrigerantur. quæ omnia calore vel interno vel externo humorem ſecum educente fiunt: externo, vt elixa: interno, vt cùm humor à calore quem in ſeſe continet, reſpirante, eximitur abſumiturque. Dictum eſt igitur de aſſiccatione.

A De eliquatione autem pariter atque concretione perſpicuum euadet. Quæcumque autem concreſcunt, cùm aut ad aquam, aut ad terram & aquam ſpectent, concreſcere, idque vel frigore vel calore vel ſicco aſſolent. Quocirca & quæcumque calore vel frigore concreta ſoluuntur, contrariis ſolui ſolent. Nam quæ calore ſicco concreuere, aqua ſoluuntur, quæ humor algidus eſt: quæ verò frigore, igni, qui calidus exiſtit. At nonnulla aquæ beneficio concreſcere videntur, quod genus eſt mel decoctum: verùm id non ab aqua, ſed à frigore aquæ indito prouenit. Quæ igitur ad aquam ſpectant, feruore ignis concreſcere nequeunt: nam ab igni B ſoluuntur. Idem autem eidem ſecundùm idem contrarij cauſa non eſt. Adhæc quia calor egreditur, res concreſcere ſolent. Vnde fit vt quia ingreditur, reſolutionem fore conſtet. quare agente frigore res concreſcunt coguntúrque. Quocirca eiuſmodi omnia cùm concreſcunt, haudquaquam ſpiſſari ſolent. Nam cùm partes humidæ euaneſcunt, & ſiccæ coagmentantur, ſpiſſatio oboritur. Sola autem ex humidorum genere aqua non ſpiſſatur. At quæ telluri & aquæ communia ſunt, tam igni quàm frigore concreſcunt, atque ab vtroque ſpiſſantur: quod partim eodem modo, partim diuerſo fieri ſolet. A calore quidem, qui humorem educit. nam euaporante humore pars arida ſpiſſa-C tur atque conſiſtit. A frigore verò, quod calorem exprimit diſcutitque, quo cum, dum euaporat, ſimul humor abit. Quæcumque igitur mollia ſunt, ſed non liquida, abeunte humore non ſpiſſantur, ſed concreſcunt, vt fictile coctum. At è miſtorum numero quæcumque liquida ſunt, ceu lac, ſpiſſantur. Pleraque autem & humefiunt priùs, nimirum quæ frigus antè ſpiſſa duráve reddiderat. quemadmodum & fictile dum coquitur, primùm euaporat atque molliuſculum redditur: ob idque in furnis peruerti aſſolet. Igitur ex hiſce quæ cùm terræ & aquæ communia ſint, plus tamen terræ habeant, frigoris opera concreſcunt: quæ ideo concreſcere ſolent, quòd calor egrediatur: ea calore liquefieri, D eodem ſcilicet rurſum ingrediente, aſſolent. velvti cœnum, vbi in gelu concreuit. Quæ autem ob refrigerationem, & quia ſimul vniuerſus calor euaporauit, concreſcunt, ea ſolui non niſi caloris exuperantiâ queunt, ſed molleſcere ſolent, vt cornu atque ferrum. Liquefit autem & ipſum quoque elaboratum ferrum, adeò vt liquidum reddatur & rurſum concreſcat. Nec ſecus chalybem facere conſueuere. ferri namque fex ſubſidet, atque in imum ſecernitur. Vbi autem ſæpe defęcatum fuit, ac purum mundúmque euaſit, fit chalybs. Sed id nequaquam ſępe agunt, propterea quòd dum repurgatur, ſubſtantiæ plurimum defluit, libramentúmque E minus efficitur. At ferrum eo præſtantius eſt, quo minus habet excrementi. Item & lapillus ille quem Pyrimachum vocant, in tantum eliquari, vt ſtillet fluátque, aſſolet. Quod autem concreuerat, vbi fluxerit, rurſum dureſcere ſolet. Quinetiam lapides molares, adeò colliqueſcunt, vt diffluant. Cæterùm dum id quod concreuerat fluit: tametſi calore eſt atro, calcis tamen in modum albicat. Porrò tam tellus quàm cœnum liquefieri poſſunt. Eorum autem quæ colore arido coguntur, quædam humoris vi ſolui nequeunt, quædam queunt. Fictile igitur & nonnulla lapidum genera, qui terra feruori ignis deuſta fiunt, velvti molæ ſolutionem haudquaquam admittunt. at ſal, atque nitrum, humore ſoluuntur, non tamen quolibet, ſed algido.

Et ideo aqua & aquæ generibus omnibus, præterquam oleo eliquari conſueuere. nam calori arido frigus humidum aduerſatur.* Ergo ſi alterum coegit, reſoluet alterum. Ita enim contrariorum effectuum contrariæ erunt cauſæ.

CAPVT VII.

Salium qui aqua aut terra plurimum communicent.

QVæ igitur plus aquæ habent quàm terræ, igni ſolummodo ſpiſſari poſſunt: quæ verò terræ, concreſcere. Quocirca, nitrum, ſal, fictile, lapis ad terram potiùs quàm ad aquam ſpectãt. Olei autem natura perquam ambigua exiſtit. Nam ſi plus haberet aquæ, vt à frigore glaciei modo cogeretur, oporteret: ſin verò terræ, ab igni, perinde vt fictile. nunc autem à neutro cogi, ſed è regione ab vtroque ſpiſſari videtur. Cuius rei cauſa eſt, quòd aëre refertum ſit. Quapropter & aquæ per ſumma inſidet. etenim aër quem continet, ſurſum verſus effertur. Frigus igitur, dũ è ſpiritu qui inter oleum eſt, aquã elicit, oleũ ſpiſſeſcere facit. ſemper enim vbi aqua & oleum permiſta fuerint, quippiam vtroque ſpiſſius oriri aſſolet. Ab igni autem tractúque temporis albeſcit craſſeſcitque. albeſcit quidem, aqueo humore, ſi quis inſit, euaporante: craſſeſcit verò, quòd marceſcente calore, aër in aquæ vicem tranſeat. Vtraque igitur ex parte, atque eandem ob cauſam, verùm non eodem modo, eadem oritur affectio. Ergo operâ vtriuſque ſpiſſari aſſolet, à neutro tamen aſſiccatur. ſiquidem neque ſolis calor, neque frigus oleum aſſiccare poteſt: non modò quòd tenax lentúmque ſit, ſed etiam quòd aëreæ ſortis exiſtat. Aqua verò, ab igni nec aſſiccatur nec decoquitur: quòd tenacitatis ratione in fumum euaneſcere nequeat. Quæ autem terra temperantur & aqua, ea iuxta vtriuſque copiam nuncupentur oportet. eſt enim vini genus quoddam quod decoquitur atque concreſcit, ceu muſtum. Humor autem aqueus ab omnibus eiuſmodi, dum inareſcũt, exire ſolitus eſt. quòd autem aqua inſit, indicium eſt. nam vapor in aquam conſiſtit, ſi quis colligere velit. Quare quibuſcumque quippiam remanet, id profectò terrenę ſortis exiſtit. Porrò ex huiſce nonnulla frigoris etiam vehementia (vti diximus) craſſeſcunt, aſſiccantúrque. frigus ſiquidem non modò cogit & deſiccat, verumetiam incraſſat. nam aquam quidẽ aſſiccat: aërem autẽ cùm aquam ex eo elicit, craſſeſcere facit. Concretionem verò aſſiccationẽ quandam eſſe diximus. Quæ igitur frigore ſpiſſari nequeunt, ſed concreſcere, ad aquam potiùs ſpectant. quod genus ſunt, vinum, vrina, acetum, lixiuium, ſerũ. At eorum quæ quamuis non euaporent, feruore tamen ignis craſſeſcunt ſpiſſantúrque: quædã terrena ſunt, quædam cõmuniter ad aërem & aquam pertinent. Mel quidem ad terram: oleũ verò ad aërem & aquam. At lac & ſanguis vtrique, aquæ & terræ communia ſunt. ſed magna ex parte plus terræ continent: perinde vt & humores, illi vnde ſal atque nitrum fiunt. ex quibuſdam autẽ talibus lapides conſtitui ſolent. Quocirca ſerum niſi ſequeſtratum ſit, cùm decoctionẽ ſubit, calore ignis deuritur: terrena verò portio, ſi quis aliquantulum decoxerit, vti medici ingeſto coagulo faciũt, vi quoque coaguli in caſeũ denſari conſueuit. atque ad hunc modũ à caſeo ſerũ ſequeſtratur. Cùm verò ſequeſtratum eſt, haudquaquam præterea craſſeſcit, ſed aquæ modo deuritur.

ΠΑχύνεται μὲν οὖν ὑπὸ τοῦ πυρὸς μόνον, ὅσα ὕδατος πλέον ἔχει ἢ γῆς· πήγνυται δὲ, ὅσα γῆς. B διὸ καὶ τὸ νίτρον καὶ οἱ ἅλες γῆς εἰσὶ μᾶλλον, καὶ λίθος, καὶ κέραμος. ἀπορώτατα δ' ἔχει ἡ τοῦ ἐλαίου φύσις· εἰ μὲν γὰρ ὕδατος ἔχει πλέον, ἔδει πήγνυσθαι ὑπὸ ψυχροῦ, ὡς οἱ πάγοι· εἰ δὲ γῆς πλεῖον, ὑπὸ πυρὸς, ὡς ὁ κέραμος. νῦν δὲ πήγνυται μὲν ὑπ' οὐδετέρου· παχύνεται δὲ πάλιν ὑπ' ἀμφοῖν. αἴτιον δ' ἐστὶν, ὅτι ἀέρος ἐστὶ πλήρες. διὸ καὶ ἐν τῷ ὕδατι ἐπιπολάζει. καὶ γὰρ ὁ ἀὴρ φέρεται ἄνω. τὸ μὲν οὖν ψυχρὸν ἐκ τοῦ ἐνόντος πνεύματος ὕδωρ ποιοῦν παχύνει· ἀεὶ γὰρ, ὅταν μιχθῇ ὕδωρ καὶ ἔλαιον, ἀμφοῖν γίνεται παχύτερον. ὑπὸ δὲ πυρὸς καὶ χρόνου παχύνεται καὶ λευκαίνεται· λευκαίνεται μὲν ἐξα- C τμίζοντος εἴ τι ἐνῆν ὕδατος· παχύνεται δὲ, διὰ τὸ μαραινομένου τοῦ θερμοῦ ἐκ τοῦ ἀέρος, γίνεσθαι ὕδωρ. ἀμφοτέρως μὲν οὖν τὸ αὐτὸ γίνεται πάθος, καὶ διὰ τὸ αὐτὸ ἀλλ' οὐχ ὡσαύτως. παχύνεται μὲν οὖν ὑπ' ἀμφοτέρων· ξηραίνεται δὲ ὑπ' οὐδετέρου· οὔτε γὰρ ὁ ἥλιος, οὔτε τὸ ψῦχος ξηραίνει· οὐ μόνον διότι γλισχρὸν, ἀλλὰ καὶ διότι ἀέρος ἐστίν. οὐ ξηραίνεται δὲ * τὸ ὕδωρ, οὐδὲ ἐξέψεται ὑπὸ πυρὸς, ὅτι οὐκ ἀτμίζει διὰ γλισχρότητα. ὅσα δὲ μικτὰ ὕδατος καὶ γῆς, κατὰ τὸ πλῆθος ἑκατέρου ἄξιον λέγεσθαι· οἶνος γάρ τις καὶ πήγνυται, καὶ ἕψεται, οἷον τὸ γλεῦκος. ἀπέρχεται δὲ ἀπὸ πάντων τῶν τοιούτων ξηραι- D νομένων, τὸ ὕδωρ. σημεῖον δ' ὅτι τὸ ὕδωρ· ἡ γὰρ ἀτμὶς συνίσταται εἰς ὕδωρ, ἐάν τις βούληται συλλέγειν. ὥστε ὅσοις λείπεταί τι, τοῦτο γῆς. ἔνια δὲ τούτων καὶ ὑπὸ ψυχροῦ ὥσπερ εἴρηται, παχύνεται καὶ ξηραίνεται· τὸ γὰρ ψυχρὸν οὐ μόνον πηγνύει καὶ ξηραίνει, ἀλλὰ καὶ παχύνει· ξηραίνει μὲν τὸ ὕδωρ, παχύνει δὲ τὸν ἀέρα, ὕδωρ ποιοῦν. ἡ δὲ πῆξις εἴρηται ξηρασία τις οὖσα. ὅσα μὲν οὖν μὴ παχύνεται ὑπὸ τοῦ ψυχροῦ, ἀλλὰ πήγνυται, ὕδατος ἐστὶ μᾶλλον, οἷον οἶνος, καὶ οὖρον, καὶ ὄξος, καὶ κονία, καὶ ὀρρός. ὅσα δὲ παχύνεται, μὴ ἐξατμιζόντα ὑπὸ πυρὸς, τὰ μὲν γῆς, τὰ δὲ κοινὰ ὕδατος καὶ ἀέρος· μέλι μὲν γῆς· ἔλαιον δὲ, ἀέρος, καὶ E ὕδατος. ἔστι δὲ καὶ τὸ γάλα καὶ τὸ αἷμα, ἀμφοῖν μὲν κοινὰ καὶ ὕδατος καὶ γῆς· μᾶλλον δὲ τὰ πολλὰ, γῆς, ὥσπερ καὶ ἐξ ὅσων ὑγρῶν νίτρον γίνεται καὶ ἅλες. καὶ λίθοι δ' ἐκ τινῶν συνίστανται τοιούτων. διὸ ἐὰν μὴ χωρισθῇ ὁ ὀρρὸς, ἐκκαίεται ὑπὸ τοῦ πυρὸς ἑψόμενος. τὸ δὲ γεῶδες συνίσταται καὶ ὑπὸ τοῦ ὀποῦ, ἐάν πως ἕψῃ τις, οἷον οἱ ἰατροὶ ὀπίζοντες. οὕτω δὲ χωρίζεται ὁ ὀρρὸς καὶ ὁ τυρός. ὁ δὲ χωρισθεὶς ὀρρὸς, οὐκέτι παχύνεται, ἀλλ' ἐκκαίεται ὥσπερ ὕδωρ.

εἰ δέ τι μὴ ἔχει τυροῦ γάλα, ἢ ὀλίγον, τοῦτο μᾶλλον ὕδατος καὶ ἄτροφον. καὶ τὸ αἷμα ὁμοίως· πήγνυται γὰρ τῷ ξηραίνεσθαι ψυχόμενον. ὅσα δὲ μὴ πήγνυται, οἷον τὸ τῆς ἐλάφου, τὰ τοιαῦτα ὕδατος μᾶλλον, καὶ ψυχρότερα ταῦτα. διὸ καὶ οὐκ ἔχει ἶνας· αἱ γὰρ ἶνές εἰσι γῆς καὶ στερεόν. ὥστε καὶ ἐξαιρεθεισῶν, οὐ πήγνυται. τοῦτο δ' ἐστίν, ὅτι οὐ ξηραίνεται· ὕδωρ γὰρ τὸ λοιπόν, ὥσπερ τὸ γάλα τοῦ τυροῦ ἐξαιρεθέντος. σημεῖον δὲ καὶ ὅτι τὸ νοσῶδες αἷμα οὐ θέλει πήγνυσθαι· ἰχωροειδὲς γάρ, τοιοῦτον δὲ φλέγμα καὶ ὕδωρ, διὰ τὸ ἄπεπτον εἶναι, καὶ ἀκράτητον ὑπὸ τῆς φύσεως. ἔτι δέ, τὰ μὲν λυτά ἐστιν, οἷον νίτρον, τὰ δὲ ἄλυτα, οἷον κέραμος, καὶ λίθος. καὶ τούτων τὰ μὲν μαλακτά, οἷον κέρας· τὰ δὲ ἀμάλακτα, οἷον κέραμος καὶ λίθος. αἴτιον δέ, ὅτι τὰ ἐναντία τῶν ἐναντίων αἴτια. ὥστ' εἰ πήγνυται δυοῖν, ψυχρῷ καὶ ξηρῷ, λύεσθαι ἀνάγκη θερμῷ καὶ ὑγρῷ. διὸ πυρὶ καὶ ὕδατι· ταῦτα γὰρ ἐναντία· ὕδατι μέν, ὅσα πυρὶ μόνῳ· πυρὶ δέ, ὅσα ψυχρῷ μόνῳ· ὥστ' εἰ ὑπ' ἀμφοῖν συμβαίνει πήγνυσθαι, ταῦτα ἄλυτα μάλιστα. γίγνεται δὲ τοιαῦτα, ὅσα θερμανθέντα ἔπειτα τῷ ψυχρῷ πήγνυται· συμβαίνει γάρ, ὅταν τὸ θερμὸν ἐξικμάσῃ ἐξιόν, τὸ πλεῖστον ὑγρὸν συνθλίβεσθαι πάλιν ὑπὸ τοῦ ψυχροῦ, ὥστε μηδ' ὑγρῷ διδόναι δίοδον. καὶ διὰ ταῦτα, οὔτε τὸ θερμὸν λύει· ὅσα γὰρ ὑπὸ ψυχροῦ πήγνυται μόνου, ταῦτα λύει· οὔθ' ὑπὸ ὕδατος· ὅσα γὰρ ὑπὸ ψυχροῦ πήγνυται, οὐ λύει, ἀλλ' ὅσα ὑπὸ θερμοῦ ξηροῦ μόνον. ὁ δὲ σίδηρος τακεὶς ὑπὸ θερμοῦ, ψυχεὶς πήγνυται. ὥστε πρὸς τὴν πῆξιν ἀμφοτέρων δεῖται· διὸ ἄλυτον. τὰ δὲ ξύλα ἐστὶ γῆς καὶ ἀέρος· διὸ καυστά, καὶ οὐ τηκτά, οὐδὲ μαλακτά· καὶ ἐπὶ τῷ ὕδατι ἐπιπλεῖ, πλὴν ἐβένου. αὕτη δ' οὔ· τὰ μὲν γὰρ ἄλλα ἀέρος ἔχει πλεῖον· ἐκ δὲ τῆς ἐβένου τῆς μελαίνης διαπέπνευκεν ὁ ἀήρ· καὶ ἔστι πλεῖον ἐν αὐτῇ γῆς· κέραμος δὲ γῆς μόνης, διὰ τὸ ξηραινόμενος παγῆναι κατὰ μικρόν· οὔτε γὰρ τὸ ὕδωρ εἰσόδους ἔχει, δι' ὧν μόνον πνεῦμα ἐξῆλθεν· οὔτε πῦρ· ἔπηξε γὰρ αὐτό. τί μὲν οὖν ἐστι πῆξις, καὶ τῆξις, καὶ διὰ πόσα, καὶ ἐν πόσοις ἐστίν, εἴρηται.

A Quòd ſi lac aliquod nihil aut parum habeat caſei, ad aquam potiùs ſpectat, atque nullatenus alit. Sanguis quoque haud ſecus habere ſeſe videtur. nam quòd frigore ſicceat, cogitur. At qui cogi nequit, vt ceruorum, is ad aquam magis pertinet atque opidoquam frigidus habetur. Et iccirco fibras nullas habet: quippe cùm fibræ ad terram ſpectent, atque quod ſtabile ac firmum exiſtit. Quare ſi etiam illæ adimantur, ſanguis concreſcere non poteſt. quod ideo accidit, quia non ſiccet. quod enim ſupereſt, id perinde atque lac caſeo iam exempto, aqua exiſtit. Signum autem eſt. Nam ſanguis vitiatus concreſcere non ſolet. quippe qui ſaniem præ ſe ferat, quæ non niſi pituitoſus humor & aqueus eſt, quòd B cruda incoctáque, & à natura non victa ſit. Præterea quædam ſolubilia ſunt, vt nitrum: quædam inſolubilia, vt fictile. atque ex hiſce alia molleſcunt, ceu cornu: alia minimè, veluti fictile atque lapis. Cauſa autem eſt: quia contrariorum, contrariæ cauſæ ſunt. Quare ſi res duobus frigore ac ſiccitate concreſcant cogantúrque, calore & humore ſoluantur eſt neceſſe. Vnde fit vt igni & aqua ſoluuntur. ea enim contraria ſunt. aqua quidem quæ igni ſolo: igni verò, quæ frigore. Quare ſi qua ab ambobus cogi contingat, ea maximè inſolubilia ſunt. Talia autem euadunt, quæcunque concalfacta priùs, frigore poſtea coguntur. vſu enim euenit, vt vbi ca- C lor excundo exhauſtus eſt, rurſum humoris plurimum frigoris opera inculcetur, adeò vt ne humori quidem tranſitum frigus concedat. Atque ob eam cauſam nec calor ea ſoluit. quæ enim frigore ſolo concreſcunt, hæc calor ſoluit. Nec itidem aqua ſoluere poteſt. nam quæ frigus cogit, aqua ſoluere non poteſt, ſed quæ vi caloris aridi ſolummodo concreuere, poteſt. At ferrum caloris feruore colliquatum, frigore concreſcit. Quare vtroque vt concreſcat indigere conſpicitur. Vnde fit vt ſolui nequeat. Ligna verò, terræ ſunt & aëris. Quare colliquari aut molleſcere nequeunt, vri queunt. Item ſuper aquam innatant omnia, præterquam ebenus, D quæ minimè inuehitur. Nam cætera aëris plurimum continent. at aër ex ebeno atra reſpirauit, in qua & terræ maior quàm aëris portio ineſt. Fictile verò, ad terram ſolummodo ſpectat, quod ſiccendo paulatim concreuerit. Quare nec aqua illud ſoluit: non enim aqua ingredi per foramina illa valet, per quæ ſpiritus ſolùm exiuit. Nec itidem ignis. nam eius opera, concretio illius prouenit. Quid igitur concretio & eliquatio, quótque ob cauſas eueniant, & quibus competere poſſint, dictum eſt.

CAPVT VIII.

Ennmeratio paſſionum mixtorum perfectorum.

E Ex his autem per calorem ac frigus conſiſtere corpus omne, in aperto eſt. hæc autem, ſpiſſando & cogendo ſuo fungi munere ſolét. Atque propterea quòd ab hiſce cætera conficiuntur, omnibus in rebus calor ineſt: in quibuſdã etiam frigus, quatenus ille deficit. Quare cùm calor ac frigus quòd agant, & humor atque ariditas quòd patiantur, corporibus inſint: quæ communia ſunt, hæc omnia participant. Similaria igitur corpora, tam in plantis quàm animantibus, terra & aqua conſtant. Item metallica, ceu aurum, argentũ, & cætera id genus, tum ipſis, tum exhalatione, quæ ab vtroque dimanat, intercluſa, vt aliàs diximus, conſtant.

Porrò hæc omnia, & peculiari affectione quæ ad ſenſus pertineat, & agendi quippiam facultate inter ſe diſcrepant. Nam candidum, odorum, ſonorum, dulce, calidum & frigidum, quòd ſenſum mouere ac irritare queant, in ratione rerum ſunt. Quæ verò ex eo nomen ſortita ſunt quòd patiantur, ceu eliquabile, concretile, flexile, & reliqua id genus omnia, per alias magis peculiareis affectiones exiſtunt: cuncta namque eiuſmodi perinde atque humidum aridúmque, paſſiua ſunt. Itaque os, caro, neruus, lignum, cortex, lapis, & cætera alia corpora ſimilaria quidem, ſed naturalia, hiſce diſcrimen ſubeunt. Primò autem dicamus numerum eorum, quæ iuxta potentiam & potentiæ priuationem dici ſolent. Sunt autem hæc: Concretile, inconcretile: Eliquabile, ineliquabile: Mollificabile, immollificabile: Humectatile, inhumectatile: Flexile, inflexile: Fractile, infractile: Friabile, infriabile: Impreſſile, inimpreſſile: Formatile, informatile: Preſſatile, impreſſatile: Tractile, intractile: Ductile, inductile: Fiſſile, infiſſile: Sectile, inſectile: Tenax, remittens: Denſatile, indenſatile: Combuſtile, incombuſtile: Exhalabile, inexhalabile. Plurima igitur corporum, his fermè differunt affectibus. Quam autem quodque horum vim habeat, ediſſeramus. Igitur de concretili & inconcretili, & eliquabili, & ineliquabili, tametſi priùs generatim dictum eſt, tamen & nunc quoque dicere aggrediamur. Nam ex corporibus quæ concreſcunt atque durent, quædam feruore caloris, quædam frigore, illo quidem humorem aſſiccante, hoc verò calorem extrudente, ita affici ſolent. Quare alia humoris abſentiâ, alia caloris, hocce patiuntur: aquea quidem, caloris: terrea verò, humoris. Quæ igitur humoris abſentiâ, ea liquefacere humor poteſt: niſi adeò ſeſe collegerint coierintque, vt minora partibus aquæ, foramina relicta ſint: id quod fictili accidit. Quæcumque autem non ita coierunt, humore liquantur, ceu nitrum, ſal, terra è cœno orta. At quæ caloris priuatione, calore deliqueſcunt: vt cryſtallus, plumbum, æs. Quæ ergo ſint concretilia, & eliquabilia, & ineliquabilia, dictum eſt. Inconcretilia autem ſunt, quæcumque nec humorem habent aquoſum, nec aquæ ſortis ſunt, ſed terræ plus caloriſque continent, vti mel atque vinum paſſum: quippe quæ velvti feruentia ſint. Item, quæcumque aqua quidem ſunt, ſed aëris plus continent. perinde vt oleum, argentum viuum: & ſi quid tenax lentúmque eſt, velvti viſcum, atque pix.

CAPVT IX.

De reliquis paſſionibus.

MOllificabilia autem ſunt, quæcumque concreta non ex aqua conſtãt, vt glacies: (omnis enim glacies, aquæ eſt) ſed quæcumque ad terram potiùs ſpectant, & nec eorum humor vniuerſus, perinde vt in ſale nitróve aſſiccatus eſt, nec inæquabiliter, vt in fictili ſeſe habet, ſed tractilia ſunt & non humectatilia, aut ductilia & non aquea, atque ignis opera ac feruore mollificabilia, vt ferrum, cornu, lignum. Et eliquabilium & ineliquabilium, quædam humectatilia ſunt, quędam inhumectatilia. Verbi cauſſa, æs, inhumectatile eſt, cùm eliquabile ſit: lana verò & terra, humectatilis. nam madefieri aſſolet. Et quidem æs colliquabile eſt:

non tamen ab aqua colliquari poteſt. Sed & eorum quæ aqua liquari queunt, nonnulla inhumectatilia ſunt, ceu nitrum, atque ſal: nec enim quicquam humectatile eſt, quod cùm aqua inſpergitur, molliuſculum non fiat. Nonnulla autem, cùm humectatilia ſint, eliquabilia non ſunt: vt lana atque fructus. Cæterùm humectatilia quidem ſunt, quæ cùm terrena ſint & aqua duriora exiſtant, meatus ampliores quàm partium aquæ moles contineant. Liquabilia verò aqua, quæcumque illos per totum commeantes poſſident. Cur igitur terra humore eliquari, atque humectari: nitrum verò eliquari, non humectari poteſt? Nimirum, quòd in nitro foramina continuata totum penetrant: vnde fit vt aqua partes continuò diſpeſcat. At in terra foramina euariant, nec inter ſeſe reſpondent: quare quoquo pacto aquam exceperit, diuerſa oritur affectio. Porro corporum alia flexilia atque directilia ſunt, vt arundo ac vimen: alia inflexilia, vt fictile atque lapis. Flexilia autem atque directilia corpora ſunt, quorum lõgitudo ex ambitu in rectum, & cõtrà è recto in ambitum permutari valet. Atque flecti & dirigi, in rectum aut ambitum migrare atque tranſire exiſtit: etenim tam quod reflectitur quàm quod inflectitur, flectitur curuatúrque. Flexio igitur eſt, ad deuexitatem aut concauitatem ſeruata longitudine motio. Si enim flexio ad rectitudinem quoque tranſitio eſſet, idem ſimul flexum rectúmque foret: quod profectò, rectum inquam flexum eſſe, fieri nequit. Quòd ſi omnino vel reflexu, vel inflexu res flecti ſoleant, quorum alterum ad conuexum, alterum ad concauum, migratio eſt, flexio ſanè ad rectum profectio eſſe non poteſt: ſed aliud flexio, aliud directio exiſtit. atque hæc ſunt, flexilia & directilia, & inflexilia & indirectilia. Item alia fractilia & infriabilia, ſimul & ſeorſim exiſtunt. verbi cauſa: lignum fractile eſt, non friabile: glacies autem & lapis, friabilis, non fractilis: at fictile, & fractile, & friabile. Differunt tamen. nam fractio, in magnas partes diuiſio atque diſtractio exiſtit: friatio verò, in quaſuis ſine diſcrimine, & quæ duabus plures ſint. Quæcumque igitur ita concreuêre vt multis ſcateant foraminibus, quæ directim poſita non ſint, friabilia ſunt: hac enim fini inter ſeſe diſtant. Quæ verò longè porrecta habẽt foramina, fractilia. Quibus autem vtrumque competit, ea tam friabilia quàm fractilia ſunt. Porro alia impreſſilia ſunt, vt æs, cera: alia minimè, vt fictile, aqua. Eſt autem impreſſio, partis eius quæ per ſumma reſidet, introrſum migratio, quæ pulſione aut ictu, ſed in totum tactu accidit. Sũt autem eiuſmodi, tam mollia, ceu cera, quæ alia ſuperficiei parte immota partim ſuffugit: quàm dura, vt æs. Item quæ impreſſionem defugiunt, tum dura ſunt vt fictile (non enim ſuperficies refugit) tum liquida, velvt aqua quæ cedit, at non ſecundùm partẽ, ſed ad rei prementis latera reſilit. Impreſſiliũ verò, quæcumque facilè manu imprimi queũt, manẽntque impreſſa, ea quidẽ formacilia ſunt. at quæ difficilè lapidis more vel ligni imprimuntur, aut facilè quidẽ, ſed impreſſio ceu lanæ, aut ſpongiæ, non remanet, hęc formatilia non ſunt, ſed preſſatilia. Preſſatilia autẽ ſunt, quæ pulſa colligere ſeſe poſſunt intro recedente ſuperficie, nõ diſtracta. nec aliò demigrãte parte alia: id quod aqua facit, quippe quæ in ſublime reſilire ſoleat. Pulſio autẽ, motio eſt ab eo quod mouet, orta, quæ per tactionem efficitur. Ictus verò, quæ per delationem.

A Preſſantur autem, quæcumque cognati corporis vacuos meatus obtinent. Atque preſſatilia ea ſunt quæ in ſua coire vacua foraminave poſſunt (interdum enim foramina in quæ coeãt, inania non ſunt) idquod in madefacta ſpongia euenit. nam ſua foramina inhibito humore diſtenduntur. At ea quorum meatus corpore molliori quàm idipſum quod ſuapte natura in eos coire poteſt, referti fuerint, preſſatilia quidem ſunt: vt ſpongia, lana, cera, caro. Impreſſatilia verò, quæ pulſione in ſua coire foramina per naturam nequeunt, quòd vel nulla habeant, vel re duriore oppleta gerant. Ferrum namque, lapis, aqua, & liquidum quodcumque, impreſſatilia ſunt. Tractilia verò ſunt, quorum ſuperfi- B cies in latus porrigi poteſt. Trahi enim eſt, ſuperficiem perpetuam exiſtentem verſus idipſum porrigi, quod facultatem mouendi obtinet. Sunt autem quædam tractilia, vt pilus, lorum, neruus, maſſa triticea, viſcum: quædam intractilia, vt lapis atque aqua. Igitur quædam tractilia & preſſatilia eadem ſunt, vt lana: quædam non ſunt: verbi cauſſa: pituita preſſatilis non eſt, ſed tractilis, & ſpongia preſſatilis, ſed non tractilis. Sunt porrò etiam quædam ductilia, vt æs: quædam non ductilia, vt lapis atque lignum. Ductilia autem ſunt, quorum ſuperficies non tota in latum pariter atque profundum migrare eodem ictu poteſt: non ductilia verò, quorum nõ C poteſt. Porro ductilia omnia, etiam impreſſilia ſunt, at non omnia impreſſilia, ductilia, ceu lignum, quod tamen, vt in vniuerſum dixerim, recurrit. Sed preſſatilium quædam ductilia ſunt, quædam minimè. cera quidem atque cœnum, ductilia ſunt: lana autem atque aqua, haudquaquam. Sunt & quædam fiſſilia, ceu lignum: quædam infiſſilia, vt fictile. Eſt autem fiſſile, quod ampliorẽ quàm quæ ab eo quod diuidit fiat, diuiſionẽ ſubire poteſt. Nam cum quippiam finditur, cùm diuiſionem quam corpus diuidens adferat, maiorem admittit, atque diuiſio ipſa, quod facultatem obtinet diuidendi, anteuertit: id quod in ſectione minimè euenit. Infiſſilia verò ſunt, quæcumque iſtud pati nequeunt. Porrò fiſſile nul- D lum, molle exiſtit. de hiſce autem loquor, quæ abſolutè & non ad alia, mollia ſunt. ad hunc enim modum, vel ferrũ ipſum molle foret. Nec dura omnia, fiſſilia ſunt. ſed quæcumque nec liquida, nec impreſſilia, nec friabilia exiſtunt. Talia autem ſunt, quæcumque meatus quibus inter ſe partes cohærent, in longum porrectos, ſed non in latum, habẽt. Sectilia autem ſunt ex hiſce, quæ dura conſtant, molliáve ſunt, quæcumque nec diuiſionem neceſſariò anticipare, nec comminui cùm diuiduntur, poſſunt. Inſectilia verò, quæcumque aut eiuſmodi, aut liquida ſunt. Nonnulla autem & ſectilia & fiſſilia eadem ſunt, velvti lignum. verùm parte plurima, quod per longitudinem fiſſile eſt, per latitudinem E ſectile exiſtit. Cùm enim in plura quodque diuidatur, quo longitudines multæ vna ſunt, eo fiſſile eſt: ſed quo plures latitudines in vnam conflantur, eo ſectile exiſtit. Tenacia autem ſiue lenta ſunt, quæ cùm liquida molliáve ſint, protrahi poſſunt. Talia autem permutatione fiunt, quæcumque corpora catenarum modo componuntur. ea enim diſtendi multùm, & rurſum contrahi queunt. Quæ verò non ſunt eiuſmodi, remittentia exiſtunt. At denſatilia ſunt, quæcumque preſſatilium ſtabilem fixámque habent preſſationem. Indenſatilia verò, quæcumque vel impreſſatilia ſunt, aut preſſationem obtinent inconſtantem. Quinetiam quædam combuſtilia ſunt, quædam incombuſtilia. verbi cauſſa, lignum, oſſa, lana, cõbuſtilia ſunt: lapis atque glacies, minimè.

A Combuſtilia autem ſunt, quæcumque meatus habent eiuſmodi, vt ignem introrſum admittant, atque in hiſce meatibus qui per rectum diſpoſiti ſũt, minùs valentem quàm ignem continent humorem. At quæ nullum habent aut valentiorem, ceu glacies, & quæ vehementer virent, incombuſtilia ſunt. Exhalabilia autem ſunt quæcumque corpora humorem habent, ſic tamen habent, vt euaporare niſi ignitis addantur, non poſſint. Eſt enim vapor, ab humido in ſpiritum aërémque vi caloris vrentis facta ſecretio: quæ madefacere queat. Ea autem in aërem temporis ſpatio ſecernuntur: atque euaneſcendo, alia arida, alia terra fiunt. Sed hæc ſecretio B in hoc diſcrimen nacta eſt, quòd neque madefacit, neque ſpiritus efficitur. Eſt autem ſpiritus, fluxus aëris in longitudinem continuus. Exhalatio verò, communis ſicci & humidi ſecretio, quæ vniuerſim caloris vſtiui operâ fieri ſolet. Proindéque non madefacit, ſed calorem potiùs admouet. Eſt autem lignoſi quidem corporis exhalatio, fumus. Eodem nomine, & oſſa, & pilos, & quicquid eſt eiuſmodi appello. nam tametſi commune nomen inditum non eſt, omnia tamen ſub eodem proportionis lege comprǽhenduntur. quemadmodum & Empedocles inquit:

C Pinguis autem, fuligo, oleoſi verò, nidor. Ea de cauſa oleum nec decoquitur, nec craſſeſcit: quòd exhalabile, nõ euaporabile ſit. at aqua haudquaquam exhalabilis eſt, ſed euaporabilis. Vinum autem paſſum, vtpote quod pingue ſit, exhalat; atque idem quod oleum facit. nam frigore cogi nequit, atque deuri aſſolet. Eſt autem voce vinũ, re nequaquam. etenim eius ſapor, vini ſaporem non refert. Quocirca nec homines reddere ebrios aſſolet, vinum autem quodcumque aſſolet. Sed exhalationem habet exiguam. vnde fit, vt etiam flammam emittere queat. Combuſtilia autem eſſe videntur, quæcumque corpora in cinerem reſoluuntur. id quod omnibus obuenit, quæ vel calore, vel vtroque, calore & fri- D gore, coguntur. nam hęc ab igni euinci conſpiciuntur: at è lapillis gemma illa, quem carbunculum nuncupamus, minimè eum ſentire videtur. Porro combuſtilium alia quidem flammatilia ſunt, alia verò inflammatilia, atque horum nonnulla carbonatilia. Flammatilia igitur ſunt, quæ flammam emittere queunt. Inflãmatilia verò, quæ nequeunt. Quæ autem cùm liquida nõ ſint, exhalare poſſunt, ea flammatilia ſunt, pix tamen & oleum & cera flammatilia ſunt, ſed magis cum aliis quàm per ſe. maximè verò, cum hiſce quæ fumum eiaculantur. Carbonatilia autẽ ſunt, quæeque eiuſmodi, terræ plus quàm fumi continent. Præterea nõnulla cùm E liquabilia ſint, flammatilia non ſunt, velvti æs. nonnulla item flammatilia, non liquabilia, ceu lignum. alia vtraque, vt thus. Cuius rei cauſa eſt: nam ligna compactum & vbique continuum, ita vt deuratur, humorem gerunt. æs, per ſingulas partes diſperſum non continuum, & pauciorem, quàm vt queat flammam producere. Thus partim hoc pacto, partim illo habet. Planè exhalabilium flammatilia ea ſunt quæ iccirco colliqueſcere nequeũt, quòd ad terram magis ſpectent. partem enim aridam, cum igni habent communem. Hæc igitur pars arida, ſi calefiat, ignis oriri ſolet. Eam ob rem flamma, ſpiritus vel fumus ardens exiſtit. Verùm lignorum exhalatio fumus dicitur: ceræ verò, thuris, picis, cæterorúmque id genus, & quæ picem continent, aut quippiam eiuſmodi, fuligo:

at olei, & eorum quæ proximè ad olei naturam accedunt, quæque ſola ideò minimè ardent, quòd aridi parum habeant,per quod fit in ignem migratio, ſed cum alio celerrimè (hoc enim eſt ſiccum pingue, aut oleoſum) nidor. Ergo è liquidis, quæ exhalare queunt, ad humiditatem magis pertinent: quæ verò ardere,ad ſiccitatem.

CAPVT X.

De homæomeris ſiue ſimilaribus partibus.

HIs autem affectionibus atque differentiis ſimilaria corpora ſecundùm tactum, vti diximus, & inſuper odore, ſapore, & colore, inter ſe diſtant. Similaria dico,vt metallica, aurum inquam, æs,argentum, ſtannum, ferrum,lapides,& cætera id genus,& quæ per ſecretionem ex hiſce fiunt, necnon quæ in animantibus inſunt,vt carnem,oſſa,neruos, cutem,viſcus,pilos,fibras,venas. ex quibus tandem diſſimilaria conſtant,ceu facies,manus,pes,cæteraque generis eiuſdem. item quæ in plantis: vt lignum,corticem,frondes,radicem, & quæcumque ſunt iſtiuſmodi. Cùm autem ſimilaria alia ratione ac via,quàm quæ diſſimilium ſunt partium, conſtitui ſoleant, & ex quibus ea fiant, ſint materies quidem aridum & humidum, & proinde terra & aqua (horum enim vtrumque, vtriuſque potentiam habet euidentiſſimam) agentia verò calor atque frigus(hæc enim ex illis ſimilaria corpora conſtituunt compingúntque) ex ſimilaribus quæ terræ, quæ aquæ, quæ denique vtriuſque communes ſint ſpecies, ſumamus. Itaque è concreatis corporibus alia liquida ſunt, alia mollia, alia dura. Horum autem quæ mollia,aut dura concretionis ratione exiſtant, dictum eſt priùs. Liquidorum igitur quæcumque euaporare queunt,ad aquam ſpectant: quæ nequeunt,vel ad terram,vel ad terram & aquam communiter ſpectant, ceu lac: vel ad terram & aërem, vti mel: vel ad aquam & aërem, vt oleum. Et quæ quidem feruore caloris ſpiſſantur,communia ſunt. At inter ea quæ liquida ſunt,de vino quiſpiam ambigat. Nam & euaporare poteſt, & ſpiſſari aſſolet, vt quod recens eſt. Cauſa autem eſt,quòd vini plures ſunt ſpecies, & aliud alio habet modo. nã quod recens eſt, magis quàm quod vetus, terroſum exiſtit. Quo fit etiam vt calore potiſſimùm craſſeſcat, & frigore minùs cogatur,quoniam caloris multum ac terræ contineat. velvt Arcadicum, quod vtribus inditum fumo adeò aſſiccari ſolet, vt cùm depromitur,concreſcat. Quòd ſi vinum omne fecem habeat, pro fecis copia,vtriuslibet vel terræ vel aquæ exiſtit. Quæ autem frigore craſſeſcunt, terræ. Quæ verò vtroque, plurium communia ſunt. vt oleum, mel, prædulce vinum. Sed ex hiſce quę conſiſtunt, quæ frigore concreuere,aquæ. vt glacies,nix,grando, pruina. quæ calore terræ. vt fictile, caſeus, nitrum, ſal. quæ vtroque (cuiuſmodi ſunt, quæ refrigeratione coagulata ſunt. hæc autem ſunt,quæ priuatione vtriuſque , caloris inquam atque humoris vnà cum calore abeuntis concreuere. Nam ſal & quæ terra ſincera conſtant, ſolius humoris: glacies autem, ſolius caloris priuatione concreſcunt) ea profectò vtriuſque ſunt. Quocirca vt vtrunque ſortita ſunt,ita ab vtroque cogi aſſolent. Quorũ igitur vniuerſus humor exudauit, ea omnia terrenæ ſortis exiſtunt,ceu fictile atque ſuccinum. etenim ſuccinum & quæcunque ſibi lacrymę nomen vſurparunt,vti myrrha,thus,gummi,refrigeratione fieri ſolent.

A ἐλαίου δὲ καὶ ὅσα ἐλαιώδη, καίονται· καὶ ὅσα ἥκιστα καίεται μόνα, ὅτι ὀλίγον ξηρὸν ἔχει. ἡ δὲ μετάβασις διὰ τούτου· μετὰ δ' ἑτέρου τάχιστα· τοῦτο γάρ ἐστι τὸ πῖον ξηρὸν λιπαρόν. τὰ μὲν οὖν ἐκθυμιώμενα τῶν ὑγρῶν, ὑγροῦ μᾶλλον, ὡς ἔλαιον καὶ πίττα· τὰ δὲ καιόμενα, ξηροῦ.

A Huius autem generis ſuccinum quoque videtur eſſe, concreſcitque. nam occluſa in eo animalia conſpiciuntur. Fluminis autem rigore calor ſucci perinde egrediens, vt decocti mellis cùm in aquam fuerit demiſſum, euaporare humorẽ facit. Quin etiam quædam illiquabilia ſunt & immollificabilia, velvti ſuccinum, & lapides nonnulli, ceu porii qui in ſpeluncis gigni ſolent. etenim hi non ſecus ortum ac illa ſubeũt, nec caloris facultate efficiuntur, ſed frigoris. nam cùm calor dimanat, humor pariter cum calore qui à ſe diſcedit, egreditur. aliis autem in rebus, calor externus humorem diſcutit. At quorum non vniuerſus humor exudauit: ea terræ potiùs ſunt, ſed molleſcere valent, vt ferrum at-B que cornu. Thus tamen & eiuſmodi, perinde vt ligna euaporant. Cùm igitur liquabilia poni oporteat: quæ igni colliquantur, aquaſiora ſunt: nonnulla etiam communia, vt cera. quæ aqua, terrea: quæ neutro, aut terrea, aut ex vtroque conſtant. Si igitur vel liquida vel concreta ſunt omnia, & quæ dictis affectibus obnoxia ſint, de eorum numero ſint, nec inter ea quippiam interueniat, dicta ſunt vniuerſa: quibus terræne an aquæ vel plurium quippiam commune ſit, & an igni an frigore an vtroque conſtiterit, diiudicemus. Itaque aurum, argentum, æs, ſtannum, plumbum, vitrum, & lapides multi nomine vacãtes, aqueæ ſortis ſunt, quip-C pe cùm ea omnia feruore caloris deliqueſcere ſolita ſint, nonnulla præterea vini genera, vrina, acetum, lixiuium, ſerum, ſanies, nam frigore cuncta gelant. At ferrum, cornu, vnguis, oſſa, nerui, pili, lignum, cortex, folia, potiùs terrea ſunt. adhæc ſuccinum, myrrha, thus, omnia quæ lacrymæ nomen nacta ſunt, & porus, id eſt, tofus lapis, nec non fructus vt legumina frumentúmque. nam ex hiſce quę talia ſunt, tametſi quædam magis, quædam minùs, omnia tamen terrena exiſtunt. eorum enim, alia mollificabilia ſunt, alia exhalabilia atque frigore genita. inſuper ſal, nitrum & ea lapidum genera quæ neque rigore fiunt, neque eliquari queunt. D Sanguis verò ac genitura, ad terram, aquam & aërem communiter ſpectant. Nam ſanguis qui quaſdam velvti fibras habet, magis terrenus exiſtit. & proinde vt refrigeratione cogitur, ſic humore deliqueſcit. Qui verò nullas habet, aqueus: ideóque concreſcere neſcit. At genitura quod vnà cum tepore humor decedat, refrigeratione coagulatur.

CAPVT XI.

E Ex concretis autem liquidiſve, quænam tepida aut frigida ſint, ex hiſce quæ iã diximus, perſequi decet. Quæ igitur ad aquã pertinent, magna ex parte frigida ſunt, niſi calorem externũ habeãt, ceu lixiuiũ, vrina, vinum. Quæ ad terrã, magna ex parte calida, ob vim teporis effectricem, vt calx atque cinis. Porro quædã quantũ ad materiam attinet, perquã algida eſſe ſumamus oportet. Nam cùm ſiccũ & humidũ ſint materia (paſſiua enim ſunt) atque horum corpora maximè terra & aqua, hæc autẽ frigore definita ſint: palã eſt quòd corpora omnia, quę vtriuslibet elemẽti abſolutè fuerint, frigida magis ſunt, niſi calorem externum habeant, velvti aqua quæ efferuet, aut quæ per cinerem trãſmiſſa atque percolata fuit. etenim ea à cinere teporẽ contraxit.

nam in omnibus quæ igné ſenſere, largiùs parciúſque tepor ineſt. Quocirca & in marcidis vermes inaſci aſſolent. nam in eis tepor quidam ineſt, qui ſuum cuiuſque calorem diſperdat abſumátque. Quæ autem communia ſunt, ea calorem poſſident. plurima ſiquidem, vi caloris eiuſce qui concoctionem peregit, conſtitêre: quædam verò, ceu colliquamenta, non niſi putrefactio exiſtunt. Vnde fit vt cùm ſuam retinent naturam, calida ſint: vt ſanguis, genitale profluuium, medulla, coagulum, & reliqua id genus omnia. Cùm autem corrumpuntur, & à natura ſua recedunt, non ampliùs. etenim materies quæ terra eſt aut aqua, remanet. Quocirca vtrumque quibuſdam placet, & ea alij frigida eſſe, alij calida dicunt. quoniam ea videant cùm in ſua natura ſunt, calida eſſe: cùm autem ab ea receſſere, concreta. Æs igitur perinde omnino habet, vt definitum eſt. Nam in quibus aquæ plurimum materies eſt, ea frigida ſunt. ſiquidem aqua, igni potiſſimùm aduerſatur. in quibus verò terræ aut aëris, calidiuſcula.* Contingit autem interdum, vt eadem frigidiſſima & calidiſſima externo tepore fiant. etenim quæ maximè concreuêre, & oppidoquàm ſolida firmáque ſunt, ea vt frigida maximè euadunt, ſi ſuo priuentur calore: ita deurunt maximè, ſi ignis opera concaluerint. quomodo aqua quàm fumus, & lapis quàm aqua vehementiùs vrit.

CAPVT XII.

Homæomera ex elementis conſtare.

CVm autem de hiſce ſingulatim definitum ſit, quid caro, aut os, aut quodlibet cæterorum quæ ſimilium ſunt partium, edifferamus. Nam ex quibus ſimilarium natura conſtet, eorum genera, cuius quodque generis ſit, ex ortu ipſo colliqueſcit. Nam ex elemẽtis ſimilaria conſtant: ex ſimilaribus autem vt materia, integra naturæ opera conficiuntur. Atque omnia ſunt, vt è materia quidem, ex hiſce quæ dicta ſunt: vt autem ſecundùm eſſentiam, ratione. Hoc autem ſemper magis apertum in poſterioribus eſt, & omnino hiſce quæ vt inſtrumenta ſunt, & alicuius gratia. Nam quòd emortuus homo æquiuocè homo ſit, conſtat magis. Perinde ergo emortui hominis manus æquiuocè manus dicitur, atque ſi vel lapideæ tibiæ dicantur. nam & eæ quoque, velut inſtrumenta quædam eſſe videntur. At eiuſmodi in carne & oſſe minùs aperta ſunt, & adhuc in igne & aqua minùs. Nam vbi materiæ plurimum exiſtit, ibi id gratia cuius quippiam factum ſit, minimè conſtat. Perinde enim euenit, atque ſi extrema ſumantur. nam materies nihil aliud eſt quàm materies: eſſentia, quàm ratio. quæ inter hæc media ſunt, vt quodque prope eſt: quando & horum quodlibet, alicuius gratia exiſtit. Quin etiam non quouis modo habet, aqua aut ignis: ſicuti nec caro, nec viſcera. adhuc autem magis, manus & facies. Sed ſuo munere ac officio definita ſunt vniuerſa. nam quæ ſuo fungi munere queunt, ſingula verè ſunt: vt oculus ſi cernat. quæ verò nequeunt, æquiuocè: vt emortuus lapideúſve oculus: non enim ſerra lignea, præterquam ſerræ imago ac effigies exiſtit. Sic & caro: verùm eius officium minus quàm linguæ, dilucidum eſt. Sic & ignis: ſed adhuc forſitan minùs eius quã carnis officium naturaliter innoteſcit. Sic & plãtarum partes, & inanima, vt æs atque argentum. Cuncta namque

CAPVT I.

Præfatio ad Alexandrum de laudibus philoſophiæ, eius potiſſimùm quæ in naturæ cognitione verſatur.

MIhi quidem ſæpe diuina quædam res, Alexander, admirationeque digna viſa eſt, philoſophia: præcipuè verò ea in parte, in qua ſola ipſa ſublimè ſeſe tollens ad contēplandas rerum naturas, magno illic ſtudio contendit exiſtētem in eis veritatē pernoſcere. Et cùm cæteri quidem mortales altitudine ipſa rei, atque atque magnitudine deterriti, eo inſtituto abſceſſiſſent: dignum id inceptũ eſſe duxit philoſophia, quod intrepidè ipſa, nec dubitãter, aggrederetur. Earũ etiã rerum diſciplinam ſibi tum cognatiſſimam, tum maximè decoram arbitrata eſt. Siquidem cùm per rerũ naturã negatum hoc eſſet homini, cæleſtẽ vt in locũ corpore ſe cõferret, vtque veluti è terra peregrè proficiſcẽs, locum illũ oculis perluſtraret, id quod ſtolidi illi Aloidæ quondã facere inſtiterũt: eo factũ eſt, animus vt humanus huius viæ ducem nactus intellectũ, peregrinabundus illuc importaretur. Ex quo euênit, viam cùm inueniſſet philoſophia laſſitudinis vacuam atque laboris, res vt inter ſe ſitu longiſſimè ſeiunctas, vna intelligentia complecteretur, facile nimirum eas res noſcitans, queis cum ſibi naturalis intercedit neceſſitudo. Eadẽ etiam cùm diuino animæ oculo diuinarum rerum naturam comprehendiſſet: hominibus ſubinde eas interpretari cœpit, quasique antiſtitis officio perfungi. Id enim libens philoſophia faciẽdum ſuſceperat, vt quas res cunque præcipuæ commendationis eſſe exiſtimaſſet, eas quoad eius fieri poſſet, inter homines erogaret: quibus vtique ipſis abũdè atq; prolixè conſultũ ipſa cupiebat. Quapropter iſtos miſerari quiuis iure poſſit, vt puſilli animi ſcriptores, res quaslibet vulgóq; expoſitas ſumma admiratione proſecutos, qui nobis vnius loci naturam, aut vrbis cuiuſdam formam ſitúmque, aut magnitudinem fluminis, aut denique amœni montis aſpectũ deſcribere inſtituerũt, cùm interim magnificè de ſemetipſis ſentiant ob exilem quampiam naturæ perceptionẽ: cuiuſmodi nonnulli magno illi quidẽ ſtudio fecerũt, accurata vt dictione deſcriberẽt, hic Oſſam montẽ, ille Niſã: alij Coryceum ſpecum, alij quiduis eorum quæ inter orbis particulas cẽſentur. Id quod ideo euenit, quòd illis maiora vidiſſe non contigit: mundum ſcilicet & præcipuas eius partes. Haudquaquam enim illi tantopere quælibet admirarentur, ſi hiſce contemplandis incubuiſſent legitima contentione, omnia verò & parua & flocciſacienda duxiſſent, dumtaxat præ vt extat horum excellentia. Proinde dicere ipſi aggrediamur de iis omnibus vniuerſim collectis, quàmque fieri poteſt maximè theologica commẽtatione ediſſerere, quænam ſit cuiuſque horum natura, ſitus, motus.

Tibi verò, vtpote imperatorum præſtantiſſimo, hoc quoque decorum conſentaneúmque eſſe arbitror, cùm maximarum rerum commentationem animo conſectari, tum verò ex philoſophiæ ſtudio nihil iam non grande animo agitare: optimates etiam viros iis rebus inuitare, quibus rebus ipſi ab eadem munificè prædito eſſe contingit.

πῇ μὲν κατὰ στενοπόρους αὐχένας ἀνεστομωμένος, πῇ δὲ πάλιν πλατυνόμενος. πρῶτον μὲν οὖν λέγεται ἐγκεκολπῶσθαι ἐν δεξιᾷ εἰσπλέοντι τὰς Ἡρακλείους στήλας, διχῶς, εἰς τὰς καλουμένας Σύρτεις, ὧν τὴν μὲν, μεγάλην· τὴν δὲ μικρὰν καλοῦσιν· ἐπὶ θάτερα δὲ, οὐχ ὁμοίως ἀποκολπούμενος, τρία ποιεῖ πελάγη, τό, τε Σαρδόνιον, καὶ τὸ Γαλατικὸν καλούμενον, καὶ Ἀδρίαν. ἑξῆς δὲ τούτων, ἐγκάρσιον τὸ Σικελικὸν· μετὰ δὲ τοῦτο, τὸ Κρητικόν· συνεχὲς δὲ αὐτῷ, τῇ μὲν, τὸ Αἰγύπτιόν τε, καὶ Παμφύλιον, καὶ Σύριον· τῇ δὲ, τὸ Αἰγαῖόν τε καὶ Μυρτῷον. ἀντιπαρήκει δὲ τοῖς εἰρημένοις πολυμερέστατος ὢν ὁ Πόντος· οὗ, τὸ μὲν μυχαίτατον, Μαιῶτις καλεῖται· τὸ δὲ ἔξω πρὸς τὸν Ἑλλήσποντον, συνεστόμωται τῇ καλουμένῃ Προποντίδι. πρός γε μὴν ταῖς ἀνασχέσεσι τοῦ ἡλίου, πάλιν εἰσρέων ὁ Ὠκεανὸς, τόν Ἰνδικόν τε καὶ Περσικὸν διανοίξας κόλπον, ἀναφαίνει συνεχῆ τὴν Ἐρυθρὰν θάλασσαν διειληφώς. ἐπὶ θάτερον δὲ κέρας κατὰ στενόν τε καὶ ἐπιμήκη διήκων αὐχένα, πάλιν ἀνευρύνεται, τὴν Ὑρκανίαν τε καὶ Κασπίαν ὁρίζων· τὸ δὲ ὑπὲρ ταύτην, βαθὺν ἔχει τὸν ὑπὲρ τὴν Μαιῶτιν λίμνην τόπον. εἶτα κατ' ὀλίγον ὑπὲρ τοὺς Σκύθας καὶ Κελτικὴν, σφίγγει τὴν οἰκουμένην, πρός τε τὸν Γαλατικὸν κόλπον, καὶ τὰς προειρημένας Ἡρακλείους στήλας, ὧν ἔξω περιρρεῖ τὴν γῆν ὁ Ὠκεανός. ἐν τούτῳ γε μὴν, νῆσοι μέγισταί τε τυγχάνουσιν οὖσαι δύο, Βρεττανικαὶ λεγόμεναι, Ἀλβίον καὶ Ἰέρνη, τῶν προϊστορημένων μείζους, ὑπὲρ τοὺς Κελτοὺς κείμεναι. τούτων δὲ οὐκ ἐλάττους, ἥτε Ταπροβάνη, πέραν Ἰνδῶν, λοξὴ πρὸς τὴν οἰκουμένην, καὶ ἡ Φεβὸλ καλουμένη, κατὰ τὸν Ἀρραβικὸν κειμένη κόλπον. οὐκ ὀλίγαι δὲ μικραὶ περὶ τὰς Βρεττανικὰς καὶ τὴν Ἰβηρίαν, κύκλῳ περιεστεφάνωνται τὴν οἰκουμένην ταύτην, ἣν δὴ νῆσον εἰρήκαμεν. ἧς πλάτος μέν ἐστι κατὰ τὸ βαθύτατον τῆς ἠπείρου, βραχὺ ἀποδέον τετρακισμυρίων σταδίων, ὥς φασιν οἱ εὖ γεωγραφήσαντες· μῆκος δὲ, περὶ ἑπτακισμυρίους μάλιστα. διαιρεῖται δὲ εἴς τε Εὐρώπην, καὶ Ἀσίαν, καὶ Λιβύην.

Εὐρώπη μὲν οὖν ἐστιν, ἧς ὅροι κύκλῳ, στῆλαί τε Ἡρακλέους καὶ μυχοὶ Πόντου, θάλαττά τε Ὑρκανία, καθ' ἣν στενότατος ἰσθμὸς εἰς τὸν Πόντον διήκει. τινὲς δὲ ἀπὸ τοῦ ἰσθμοῦ Τάναϊν ποταμὸν εἰρήκασιν. Ἀσία δέ, ἐστὶ τὸ ἀπὸ τοῦ εἰρημένου ἰσθμοῦ, τοῦ τε Πόντου, καὶ τῆς Ὑρκανίας θαλάσσης, μέχρι θατέρου ἰσθμοῦ, ὃς μεταξὺ κεῖται Ἀρραβικοῦ κόλπου, καὶ τῆς ἔσω θαλάσσης, περιεχόμενος ὑπό τε ταύτης, καὶ τοῦ πέριξ Ὠκεανοῦ. τινὲς δέ, τὸ ἀπὸ Τανάιδος μέχρι Νείλου στομάτων τίθενται τὸν τῆς Ἀσίας ὅρον. Λιβύη δέ, τὸ ἀπὸ τοῦ Ἀρραβικοῦ ἰσθμοῦ, ἕως Ἡρακλέους στηλῶν· οἱ δέ, ἀπὸ τοῦ Νείλου φασὶν, ἕως ἐκείνων. τὴν δὲ Αἴγυπτον, ὑπὸ τῶν τοῦ Νείλου στομάτων περιρρεομένην, οἱ μὲν, τῇ Ἀσίᾳ· οἱ δέ, τῇ Λιβύῃ, προσάπτουσι· καὶ τὰς νήσους, οἱ μὲν, ἐξαιρέτους ποιοῦσιν· οἱ δέ, προσνέμουσι ταῖς γείτοσιν ἀεὶ μοίραις.

Γῆς μὲν δὴ καὶ θαλάττης φύσιν, καὶ θέσιν, ἣν δή τινα καλεῖν εἰώθαμεν οἰκουμένην, τοιάνδε τινὰ ἱστορήκαμεν.

CAPVT IV.

De præcipuis quibuſque quæ cùm in orbe tum circa eum exiſtere contingit.

QVas res autem tum in eo orbe tum circa eum exiſtere contingit, quibus ille rebus quodammodo afficiatur: earum ipſarum rerum, vt quæque maximè commemorandæ videbuntur, dicere porrò aggrediamur, ſummam quandam colligentes eorum quæ ſunt neceſſaria. Duas igitur exhalationes ab eo ſurſum ferri nouimus in aëra nobis impendentem: tenues illas quidem omnino, nec nobis conſpicuas: niſi ſiquid eſt huiuſcemodi ad tractus B Orientales, & prætereà quæ ex amnibus & locis irriguis ſublimia ferri videntur. Earum autem exhalationum altera ſicca eſt, in fumúmque conformata, è terra manans: altera humida, roſidæ expirationis plena, ab humida natura exhalata. Ex hac nebulæ, rores, & gelu omne genus, nubes, pluuiæ, niues & grandines oriuntur. A ſicca autem illa venti & flatuum differentiæ exoriuntur, tonitrúſque & fulgura, turbines & fulmina, aliáque his cognata. Nebula eſt expiratio quædam roſida, aquæ nequaquam genitrix: vt aëre craſſior ipſa, ſic nube rarior. Gignitur vel ex nubis primordiis rareſcentibus: vel ex reliquiis nubis. Huius aduerſaria vt eſt, ita eſſe dicitur ſerenitas, nihil aliud ipſa exiſtens, quàm aer nubibus nebu- C liſque vacuus. Ros eſt humidum quid è ſerenitate concretum, minutímque delabens. Glacies eſt aqua conferta à ſerenitate compactilis. Pruina, ros eſt concretus. Droſopachne cõpoſito nomine dicta eſt, ros ſemiconcretus, quaſi ros pruinoſus. Nubes eſt craſſamentum exhalationum conuolutum, vim habens aquæ gignendæ. Imber fit expreſſione nubis magnoperè addenſatæ: tot habens differentias, quotuplex eſt nubis compreſſio: quippe quæ remiſſa ſi fuerit, molles ſtirias diſpergat: ſin vehemens, pleniores. Hócque appellamus pluuiam, imbris contorta ſtillicidia, cùm maiuſcula ipſa, tum verò iugi tenore caſitantia. at verò nix gignitur denſitate nubium friatili: quæ ſimul ac in aquam D verti cœptæ ſunt, in minuta contunduntur, cum eo, vt illa contuſio ſpeciem ſpumæ, exactúmque candorem: humoris autem qui ineſt, concretio, quique nondum fuſus eſt, nec rarefactus, rigorem efficiat. Hæc impetu & confertim decidens, Niphetos appellatur. Quo genere volutim contorto, libramentúmque ex compreſſu capiente ad celeriorem lapſum, fit quæ grando vocatur: cùm interea pro fragmentorum magnitudine quæ abrumpuntur, tum corpuſcula maiora grandinis, tum delapſus violentiores fiant. Atque hæc quæ hactenus dicta ſunt, naturæ vi ab humida expiratione euenire comparatum eſt.

A ſicca verò tum ventus oriri ſolet, cùm à fri- E gore, ita vt fluat, illa truditur, nihil vt aliud ventus ſit niſi aer multus fluctuans & coactus, qui etiam ſpiritus appellatur; quum alioqui ſpiritus appelletur ſubſtantia animata, & genitalis in ſtirpibus atque in animantibus exiſtens, per omniáque pertinens, de qua nunc diſſerere nihil neceſſe fuit. Flatus verò qui in aere ſpirant, ventos, auras, expirationes dicimus quæ ex humore prodeunt. Venti qui è terra vliginoſa & humefacta prodeunt, Apogæi, quaſi è terra oriundi: qui è ſinibus proſiliunt, Encolpiæ, quaſi ſinuales, vocantur:

ΠΕρὶ δὲ τῶν ἀξιολογωτάτων ἐν αὐτῇ, καὶ περὶ αὐτὴν παθῶν, νῦν λέγωμεν, αὐτὰ τὰ ἀναγκαῖα ἀνακεφαλαιούμενοι. δύο γὰρ δή τινες ἀπ᾽ αὐτῆς ἀναθυμιάσεις ἀναφέρονται συνεχῶς εἰς τὸν ὑπὲρ ἡμᾶς ἀέρα, λεπτομερεῖς καὶ ἀόρατοι παντάπασιν, εἰ τι μὴ κατὰ τὰς ἑῴας ἐστὶν· αἵ τε διὰ ποταμῶν τε καὶ ναμάτων ἀναφερόμεναι θεωροῦνται. τούτων δὲ, ἡ μὲν, ἐστὶ ξηρὰ καὶ καπνώδης, ἀπὸ τῆς γῆς ἀπορρέουσα· ἡ δὲ, νοτερὰ καὶ ἀτμώδης, ἀπὸ τῆς ὑγρᾶς ἀναθυμιωμένη φύσεως. γίνονται δὲ, ἀπὸ μὲν ταύτης, ὀμίχλαι, καὶ δρόσοι, καὶ πάγων ἰδέαι, νέφη τε καὶ ὄμβροι, καὶ χιόνες, καὶ χάλαζαι· ἀπὸ δὲ τῆς ξηρᾶς, ἄνεμοί τε καὶ πνευμάτων διαφοραὶ, βρονταί τε καὶ ἀστραπαὶ, καὶ πρηστῆρες, καὶ κεραυνοὶ, καὶ τὰ ἄλλα ἃ δὴ τούτοις ἐστὶ σύμφυλα. ἔστι δὲ, ὀμίχλη μὲν, ἀτμώδης ἀναθυμίασις τις, ἄγονος ὕδατος, ἀέρος μὲν παχυτέρα, νέφους δὲ ἀραιοτέρα. γίνεται δὲ, ἤτοι ἐξ ἀρχῆς ἀραιώσεως νέφους, ἢ ἐξ ὑπολείμματος. ἀντίπαλος δὲ αὐτῇ λέγεταί τε καὶ ἐστὶν, αἰθρία, οὐδὲν ἄλλο οὖσα, πλὴν ἀὴρ ἀνέφελος καὶ ἀνόμιχλος. δρόσος δέ ἐστιν ὑγρὸν ἐξ αἰθρίας κατὰ σύστασιν λεπτὸν φερόμενον. κρύσταλλος δὲ, ἀθρόον ὕδωρ ἐξ αἰθρίας πεπηγός. πάχνη δὲ, δρόσος πεπηγυῖα. δροσοπάχνη δὲ, ἡμιπαγὴς δρόσος· νέφος δὲ, ἐστὶ πάχος ἀτμῶδες συνεστραμμένον, γόνιμον ὕδατος. ὄμβρος δὲ, γίνεται μὲν κατ᾽ ἐκπιεσμὸν νέφους εὖ μάλα πεπαχυσμένου· διαφορὰς δὲ ἴσχει τοσαύτας, ὅσας καὶ ἡ τοῦ νέφους θλίψις· ἠπία μὲν γὰρ οὖσα, μαλακὰς ψεκάδας διασπείρει· σφοδρὰ δὲ, ἀδροτέρας· καὶ τοῦτο καλοῦμεν ὑετὸν, ὄμβρου μείζω, καὶ συνεχῆ συστρέμματα ἐπὶ γῆς φερόμενα. χιὼν δὲ γίνεται κατὰ νεφῶν πεπυκνωμένων ἀποθραυσιν *περὶ τῆς εἰς ὕδωρ μεταβολῆς ἀνακοπέντων· ἐργάζεται δὲ, ἡ μὲν κοπὴ, τὸ ἀφρῶδες καὶ ἔκλευκον· ἡ δὲ σύμπηξις, τοῦ ἐνόντος ὑγροῦ τὴν ψυχρότητα οὔπω χυθέντος, οὐδὲ ἠραιωμένου. σφοδρὰ δὲ αὕτη καὶ ἀθρόα καταφερομένη, νιφετὸς ὠνόμασται. χάλαζα δὲ γίνεται, νιφετοῦ συστραφέντος, καὶ βρῖθος ἐκ πιλήματος εἰς καταφορὰν ταχυτέραν λαβόντος· παρὰ δὲ τὰ μεγέθη τῶν ἀπορρηγνυμένων θραυσμάτων, οἵ τε ὄγκοι μείζους, αἵ τε καταφοραὶ γίνονται βιαιότεραι. ταῦτα μὲν οὖν ἐκ τῆς ὑγρᾶς ἀναθυμιάσεως πέφυκε συμπίπτειν.

Ἐκ δὲ τῆς ξηρᾶς, ὑπὸ ψύχους μὲν ὠσθείσης, ὥστε ῥεῖν, ἄνεμος ἐγένετο· οὐδὲν γάρ ἐστιν οὗτος, πλὴν ἀὴρ πολὺς ῥέων καὶ ἀθρόος· ὅστις ἅμα καὶ πνεῦμα λέγεται. λέγεται δὲ καὶ ἑτέρως πνεῦμα, ἥ τε ἐν φυτοῖς, καὶ ζῴοις, καὶ διὰ πάντων διήκουσα, ἔμψυχός τε καὶ γόνιμος οὐσία, περὶ ἧς λέγειν νῦν οὐκ ἀναγκαῖον. τὰ δὲ ἐν ἀέρι πνέοντα πνεύματα, καλοῦμεν ἀνέμους· αὔρας δὲ, τὰς ἐξ ὑγροῦ φερομένας ἐκπνοάς· τῶν δ᾽ ἀνέμων, οἱ μὲν ἐκ νενοτισμένης γῆς πνέοντες, ἀπόγαιοι λέγονται· οἱ δὲ ἐκ κόλπων διεξάττοντες, ἐγκολπίαι.

Ad ſummam, eorum quæ in aëre apparent, alia ſpecie tenus exiſtunt: alia etiam habent naturæ ſubſtantiam. Specie tantùm exhibent arcus cæleſtes, & virgulæ, aliaque huiuſmodi. Arcus eſt ſpecies ſegmenti ſolaris vel lunaris, edita in nube humida, & caua & perpetua: quam velut in ſpeculo intuemur, imagine relata in ſpeciem circularis ambitus. Virga eſt arcus cæleſtis exhibitio in directum conformata. Area eſt edita imago ſidereæ claritatis vndique illuſtrata, hactenus ab arcu differens, quod ille è regione Solis ac Lunæ viſendum ſe exhibet, quum area ſidus totum ambitu cingere orbiculari ſoleat. Fulgor eſt ignis collectio, qui in aëre exarſit: per cælum ille quidem aut iaculari ſpecie tranſmeans, aut vno loco fixus. At eiaculatio, ignis eſt enatus, attritu in aëre, pernici motu inuehens, ob eámque pernicitatem oblongam formam ſimulans. Fulgor fixus eſt extenſio longè porrecta, & loco permanens, & tanquam profluuium ſideris. Quod ſi in alteram partem dilatetur, Crinita ſtella vocatur. Sæpenumero autem euenit vt fulgores tempore multo maneant: ſæpe vt confeſtim extinguantur. Complures item & aliæ rerum formæ cernuntur in cælo apparentium: vt quæ Faces, quæ Trabeculæ, quæ Dolia, quæ Scrobes nuncupantur: omnia ab earum rerum ſimilitudine appellata, vnde nomina mutuata ſunt. Eáque partim in Occidua mundi parte, partim in Oriente cernuntur: partim etiam ambiguo in vtranque partem editu: rarò vel Septentrionali, vel Auſtrino. Cæterùm omnia incerta. Quippe nihil huiuſcemodi hactenus proditum eſt memoriæ ita fuiſſe conſtabilitum raro ſitu & conſtituto, vt ſemper conſpicuum fuerit. Atque huiuſcemodi ſunt quæ in natura animabili aëriáque fiunt.

Iam verò Terra continet etiam ipſa in ſe, vt aquæ, ita ſpiritus ignisque ſcaturigines, quarum quædam ſub terra latent, oculis humanis ſubductæ, multæ ſpiracula habent, emiſſariáque vaporis: vt Lipara, vt Ætna, vt Æoliæ inſulæ, quæ quidem ſæpe & ipſæ fluminum more fluunt, ignitáſque ferri glebas euomunt. Nonnullæ verò huiuſmodi ſcatebræ ſecundùm fontes ſitæ, aquas inde manantes calefaciunt, aliquæ inde vt tepentes, efferuefactæ aliæ, quædam modicè temperatæ vt emittantur. Multis etiam in locis Orbis, exitus ſpirituum pari ratione patefacti ſunt. Quorum partim fanatico furore afficiunt homines propiùs accedenteis, partim tabifica vi abſumunt, partim fatidicos efficiunt, vt Delphici & Lebadici: ſunt & qui prorſus enecent, vt in Phrygia. Frequēter fit etiam vt congenitus ſpiritus in terra conditus, cùm aberrans, inſinuarit in abſtruſos quoſdam eius atque cæcos meatus, quaſi ſedibus ſuis erumpens, multis in locis vibrantem motum cieat. Eſt etiam, nec rarò, cùm flatus aduena, introrſus in terræ caua irrumpens, deinde exitu omni excluſus, intus ſeſe verſando, ingēti vi terram quatiat, nequicquam exitum inde quæritans: ex quo fit naturæ facinus, quod vocamus Terræmotum. Terræmotuum autem ij qui ad angulos acutos in obliquum quatiunt, Epiclintæ appellantur, quaſi in tranſuerſum ſe agentes. Surſum verò deorſumque ad angulos rectos iactantes, Braſtæ vocantur, à ſimilitudine aquæ efferueſcentis. At qui labes terræ relinquunt in caua ſubſidentis, ab hiatu Chaſmatiæ nominati ſunt: Quem hiatum ij qui vi eruptione facta patefaciunt, Rhectæ, id eſt, effractores, dicti ſunt.

A Iam horum aliqui flatum ſecum erupturum rapiunt: alij ſaxa, alij cœnum. Sunt qui fontium ſcatebras edidere, quæ antea non erant. Oſtas, id eſt, truſores, vocant, qui vno obnixu ſubuertunt quod impulerunt. Sunt etiam qui quaſſabundi, atque vtroque declinantes vibranteſque, quod mouerint, ſemper erigunt: ob id Palmatiæ, hoc eſt, vibratores, dicti: efficiúntque terræmotum tremoris non diſſimilem. appellantur etiam Mycetiæ, terræmotus qui cum mugitu quatiunt: indito ob id nomine: quanquam ſæpe terræ mugitus abſque terræmotu contigerit: id quod aſſolet, quum ſpiritus impar quatiendæ terræ fuerit, intúſque cohibitus ac conuolutus arietarit impetu vehementi. adde quòd flatus qui terram ſubierint, corroboratiores fiunt à liquoribus B terrenis, qui intus conditi ſunt.

Proportione his reſpondent ea quæ in mari eueniunt. Nam & hiatus fiunt maris, & receſſus, vndarúmque excurſiones, interdum reciprocantes, interdum eluuie retro non recurrente: id quod proditum eſt circa Buram Helicémque contigiſſe. Sæpenumero etiam in mari euaporationes ignis exiſtunt, fontes exſcaturiunt, oſtia fluuiorum aperiuntur, arbores naſcuntur, fluxiones & vortices exiſtunt, inſtar eorum habentes quæ à flatibus deſignari dictum eſt, non in medio mari modò, ſed etiam in euripis & in fretis. CAPVT V.

Tametſi extiterunt, qui ſeſe admirari addubitabundi dicerent, qui fieri tandem poſſet, ſi è D principiis contrariis mundus conſtitit, ſiccis dico & humidis, frigidis & calidis, vt iamdiu non diſſolutus fuerit atque interierit. Perinde quaſi mirari quiſquã debeat, quonam pacto ciuitas incolumis perduret, quæ è gentibus contrariis compoſita ſit, egenis inquam & diuitibus, iuuenibus & ſenio confectis, infirmis & valentibus, prauis atque innocentibus. Ignorantia eſt iſta vtique hominum, hoc eſſe in concordia ciuili non videntium longè admirabiliſſimum, quòd ex multis ipſa vnum efficit affectum, & è diſſimilibus ſimilem: omnis illa quidem naturæ ſuſceptrix & fortunæ. Atque haud ſcio an etiam contrariorum appetens ſit natura: ex E eiſque conſona, non item è ſimilibus conficiat. Sic certè ipſa marem cum fœmina coniunxit, non etiam cum ſuo horum vtrunque ſexu. Quin primam etiam concordiam per contraria, non per ſimilia deuinxit. Adde quòd ars naturæ æmulatrix hoc idem facit. Siquidem pictura, alborum nigrorúmque colorum, luteorúmque & rubrorum naturas inter ſe attemperans, effigies rerum efficit conſonas exemplaribus. Muſica acutis & grauibus ſonis, longiſque & breuibus vnà permixtis in diuerſis vocibus, vnum ex illis concentum abſolutum reddidit, Grammatica, ex elementis vocalibus & mutis inuenta temperatura artem omnem literaturæ ex illis compoſitam reliquit. Hócque nimirum illud eſt, quod apud Heraclitum legitur, (Scotinum ab obſcuritate cognominatum.) Criſpa (inquit) & minime criſpa vnà vinxeris, conſentiens & diſſentiens, conſonans & diſſonans: vnum etiam ex omnibus, omniaque ex vno.

Itaque vniuerſorum coagmentationẽ, cæli inquam & terræ, & vniuerſi mundi, cinno quodam principiorum ſummè contrariorum commodè attemperato, natura ipſa digeſſit vna eadémq; concinna cohærentia: quippe ſiccum humido, calidũ frigido, graui leue mixtum, & rectum orbiculari. Terram etiam omnẽ, omne mare, ætherem, Solem, Lunã, & poſtremò totũ cælum, vis vna per omnia pertinens, certo ordine deſcripſit, concinnéque digeſſit: è diuerſis ipſa naturis atque impermixtis, aëre, terra, igne, & aqua, mũdum architectata. Quúmq; eum etiam globoſa ſuperficie comprehendiſſet: naturas quàm maximè contrarias, veluti edicta concordia & imperata, adſtrinxit ad cõſenſum mutuúmque commercium: cuiuſmodi rerũ molitione vniuerſitati ipſi ſalutem machinata eſt. Huius autem rei cauſa eſt concordia elementorum. Concordiæ porrò cauſa eſt æquabilitas, & quòd alterum altero non plus pollet: ad æquilibrium enim adæquant grauia cum leuibus, calida cum iis quæ ipſis oppoſita ſunt: natura vtique nos docente, in maioribus, æqualitatem tutricem eſſe concordiæ & ſeruatricem, concordiam autem, mundi eſſe ſalutem, rerũ omnium parentis, ac longè omnibus præſtantis pulchritudine. Nam quæ tandem natura præſtabilior ipſo? Quam enim dixeris cunque, eius vtique ipſius mundi pars erit. Nam quicquid pulchritudine præditum eſt, id quaſi gentile mundi, habet cum eo nominis ſocietatem: adeo quod rectè atque ordine conſtitutum eſt, id à mundi nomine concinnè digeſtum Græco ſermone, conſentaneáque partium compoſitione ſpecioſum eſſe ſignificatur. Ecquidnam eſt autem ſingularum partium, quod cum eo æquiparari poſſit ordine, quo cæleſtis motus temperatus eſt & conſtitutus? Sole vtique & luna, reliquis itẽ ſideribus intra ſpatia ſe mouentibus exquiſitiſſimè emodulata à ſeculo in ſeculum alterum. age ecquæ tandem vices tam ratæ eſſe poſſunt, quàm eſt exactè cõparatus à natura tempeſtatum anni tenor in orbem redeuntium? omnium ille quidem rerum fœcunditate præditus: æſtates deinceps hyemeſque referens temporibus deſtinatis: ſimul dies & noctes inoffenſis vicibus alternantes: è quibus menſes annúſque conficitur. ac magnitudine quidem ambitum longè ſummum cõplexus, motu perniciſſimo circũagitur: claritate ſynceriſſima præditus, vi etiam potentiáque fretus exorte vt ſenij, ſic interitus. Hic omnium animantium naturas, tum aquatilium, tum pedeſtrium, tum etiam in elemento ſpirabili victitãtium, ſegregat: iiſque ſpatia vitæ ſuis admetitur motibus. Ex hoc animam ducunt omnia: ab hoc animam habent animantia: ex hoc denique miracula rerum nouarum exiſtunt, quæ ſtatis temporibus efficiuntur. Vis ventorum omniuaga in ſeipſa conflictatur: Fulmina è cœlo cadunt: Pluuiæ procelloſæ atq; ſtupẽdæ ſubitos fragores edũt. Vnde fit, vt & vi humoris expreſſa, & vi ignea difflata conſtituatur vniuerſi concordia. Iam verò terra omni genere veſtita ſtirpium fruticantium, riguiſq; exuberãs largè erũmpentibus, trita veſtigiis animãtium, quæ in ea paſſim circumferuntur: omnia tempeſtiuè proferens ex ſeſe & vegetans, hoſpitaliq; ſinu excipiens, cùm innumeras ipſas rerũ formas perferat, ab eiſq; multipliciter afficiatur, nihilo ſeciùs tamẽ naturã aſſeruat indomitã ſenectute, quãlibet ipſa motibus contremefacta, vndis ſuperfluentibus proluta, incendiis denique inflammata, modo hac modò illa parte ſui.

CAPVT VI.

De deo, ſiue cauſa quæ cunctarum rerum vim habet tutricem & continentem.

Reſtat vt ſummatim de cauſa diſſeramus, quæ cunctarum ipſa rerum vim habet tutricem & continentē: quemadmodum cætera perſtrinximus. Flagitij enim inſtar eſſet, cùm de mundo dicere inſtituerim, tractatu ſi minùs exquiſito fortaſſe, at certè qui ſit eſſe poſſit ad formulam doctrinæ craſſiorem, intactā præcipuam mundi partem principémque præterire. C Vetus igitur ſermo eſt, à maioribúſque proditus inter omnes homines, vniuerſa tū ex Deo tum per Deum conſtituta fuiſſe, atque coagmentata: nullámq; naturam ſatis inſtructam ad ſalutem eſſe poſſe, quæ citra Dei præſidium ſuæ ipſa demum tutelæ permiſſa ſit. Quocirca veterum nonnulli eouſque prouecti ſunt, vt hæc omnia dictitarent Deorum eſſe plena, hauririque eorū ſpectra ab hominibus oculis & auribus, reliquiſque ſenſibus: ſententiæ illi quidē fundamenta iacientes diuinæ fortaſſe potentiæ, non item diuinæ naturæ congruentis. Etenim cunctorū quæ rerum natura complectitur, cùm ſeruator eſt Deus: tum verò quæcunque in hoc mundo quo quo modo perficiuntur, eorum omnium idem genitor eſt: non ſic tamen D ipſe vt opificis in morem, animaliſq; laſſitudinē ſentientis, labore affici poſſit: vt qui ea facultate vtatur, quæ nulli cedat difficultati: cuius ipſe vi facultatis omnia in poteſtate continet: nec minùs etiam quæ lōgiùs ab ipſo vidētur eſſe ſummota. Summam igitur & primam ſedem mundi ſortitus, ea de cauſa Hypatus, quaſi ſupremus appellatus eſt: & (vt inquit Poëta) in ſummo culmine vniuerſi cæli ſuum habet ipſe domicilium ſitum & collocatum. Maximè verò vim eius ſentit numinéque eius ante omnia fruitur id corpus, quod proximè eum ſitum eſt: tum quod ſecundū ab hoc ſitum habet: & vnumquodq; deinceps, prout ſituum ordo ad noſtrum vſque locum natura conſtitu- E tus eſt. Quo fit vt terra & terrena omnia, quàm lōgiſſimè ab diuinitatis adminiculatione abſcedunt, tam infirmitate ſumma ſint ipſa, concinnitatiſque ſibi cōſentaneæ maximè expertia: atque ideo multo tumultu exagitata. Atqui cùm ita ſit numen diuinum natura ſua comparatum, quoquò vt versùs permeet: nimirum ea in quibus ipſi verſamur, ac nobis ſuperiora, pro eo quantus eſt acceſſus ad Deum, vel abſceſſus ab eo eius opitulationem quoque ſentiunt. Proinde id præſtabilius eſſe cenſemus, Deóque tum decētius, tum magis conſentaneum, ita de eo opinari, vt dicamus, poteſtatem illam in cœlo ſedes ſuas habentem, incolumitatis cauſam rebus vniuerſis præſtare, iis quoque quæ longiùs ab ea remota ſunt. nec illis aſſentiri, qui eam ipſam poteſtatem per omnia pertendentem, & ventitantem ad ea quoque quæ nec adire ipſam honeſtum eſt, nec dictu ſpecioſum, ſua illic opera efficere contendunt, réſque terrenas adminiſtrare.

A atqui ne ex hominũ quidẽ principum dignitate eſſe dixeris, cuilibet operi incũbere: vt (verbi gratia) exercitus ducis, aut vrbis præfecti, atque etiã domus primarij diſpenſatoris, ſi faſciculũ ſarcinariũ componere, aut viliorẽ aliquã operã obire vſu venerit vt neceſſe ſit, cuiuſmodi munera, magni Regis tempore, ne quoduis quidẽ mãcipiũ eius facilè obiuiſſet. Quippe (vt proditur) viſenda quædã ſpecies Cãbyſis, Xerxis, & Darij regnantiũ, in exquiſitũ maieſtatis faſtigiũ exornata erat, compoſitáq; magnificè, omnibúſque numeris venerationis auguſta. Et quidẽ (vt fama eſt) Suſis ipſe aut Ecbatanis ſedibus collocatis, procul hominũ cõſpectu regiã ſanè admirandã obtinebat, ambitu ſeptã auro, electro eboréque fulgẽti: cui veſtibula multa erãt atriaque cõtinentia: multæ verò ianuæ, B multorũ ſtadiorũ interſtitiis ita dimenſæ inter ſe atq; diremptæ, vt aditus æneis foribus muriſque magnis obſtructi atque muniti eſſent. Tum autem viri principes & lectiſſimi in ſtationes digeſti erãt, atque decuriati rectè atque ordine: pars munere ſtipantiũ regẽ ipſum fungentes, eique famulantium: pars cuſtodes circa ſepta regiæ appoſiti, (ianitores emiſſarióſq; appellabãt) cùm interim Rex ipſe, qui idẽ Dominus Deúſq; vocitabatur, omnia & videret & audiret. Ab his itẽ erãt alij vectigaliũ quæſtores obuentionúmque cõſtituti: alij duces tũ bellici, tũ venatores: alij coactores munerarij: alij denique munerũ reliquorũ curatores, prout vſus ratióque adminiſtrandarũ rerũ ferebat. Tũ autẽ vniuerſum Aſiæ imperiũ, Helleſpõto quidẽ ab occidentis partibus terminatũ, India autẽ ab Orientis, C tegũt pro poteſtate Prætores, Præfecti, & Reguli, ſerui regis ipſius qui magnus appellatur. Curſores etiã, exploratoréſq;, ſtatores, & cuſtodes ſtationarij, & denique ſpecularij excubitores. Quorum erat ipſorũ is apparatus, ea deſcriptæ collocationis ratio: tam rato ordine vices munerum conſtitutæ: & præſertim eorũ qui ignes edere prænũcios, & tollere è ſpeculis ſoliti ſunt, deinceps in aliam illi quidẽ ex alia dantes accipientéſque ſignũ in orbẽ: ab vſque finibus imperij adVſque Suſa & Ecbatana, quicquid rerũ nouarũ quiſquã in Aſia moliretur aut inceptaret, Rex vt ipſe vno die reſciſceret. atqui ſtatuere nos oportet, magni ipſi° Regis faſtigiũ, præ vt quidẽ eſt Dei eminẽtia, qui pro poteſtate Mundum tanquam prouinciam obtinet, tã eſſe infimũ, quàm eſſet ſummũ hoc ipſum Regis fa- D ſtigiũ, ſi cum animãte quodã viliſſimo atque infirmiſſimo componeretur. Quapropter ſi è dignitate regis haudquaquã eſſet, Xerxẽ functione propria adminiſtrare omnia & abſoluere quæcunque facta cuperet, ne ipsũ quidẽ operib° faciẽdis inſtantẽ, curatoris operũ officio perfũgi: lõgè id nimirũ minùs Deo cõuenit.

Quare auguſtius id decentiúſque exiſtimandũ eſt, Deũ ſummo in loco ita eſſe collocatũ, numinis vt tamẽ eius vis per vniuersũ mundũ pertinẽs, tũ Solẽ Lunámque moueat, tũ cœlũ omne circũagat: ſimúlque causã præbeat eorũ quæ in terra sũt, ſalutis atque incolumitatis. Neque verò illi ipſi itidẽ vt principibus E mortaliũ, op° eſt, aut artificioſa molitione, aut alieno miniſterio: quãdo ij propria infirmitate præditi, operarum decurias rebus conficiendis & numeroſas manus adhibent. Illud autem diuinitati maximè conſentaneum, vt formas rerum omnium citra difficultatem ſimplicique motu abſoluat: non ſecus atque illi machinatores ſolent, qui inſtrumento vno demittendo multos & varios effectus edunt: aut vt illi præſtigiatores faciunt, quos Neuroſpaſtas ob id appellant, quòd imagũculas animatas eſſe fidiculis ductitãdis emẽtiuntur: qui cùm funiculũ ipſi aut neruum adduxerunt, cieri ceruicem & manum quaſi animantis ſimulachri, humerúmque itidem & oculum faciunt:

Vnde fit vt cœleſtia concinno ordine digeſta, ſuas ipſa vices conſeruent perenne conſtitutas, nullique obnoxias mutationi: longè illa ſecus atque terrena, quæ ita natura comparata ſunt, ipſa in alias vt ex aliis affectiones tranſeunt, fierique identidem altera atque altera non recipiunt. Certè contigiſſe aliquando conſtat, vt terræmotus violentia, terra ipſa multis in locis diſceſſerit, ipſique hiatus extiterint, vt imbres vi maiores ruentes diluuium in terram intulerint, vt excurſiones vndarum

Vt verò ſummatim iam loquamur: quod in naui gubernator eſt, quod in curru agitator, quod in choro præcentor, quod denique lex in ciuitate, & dux in exercitu: hoc Deus eſt in mundo. Niſi ſi hactenus intereſt, quòd labor, & motus multiplex illos exercet, & curæ angunt variæ: cùm huic illaborata ſuccedant omnia, omnis moleſtiæ expertia, citráque corporis infirmitatem: quippe cui in loco ſtabili

Id autem ratione ſimili facit ille, atque lex ciuilis: quæ immobilis ipſa exiſtens in vtentium animis, regit omnia ad Remp. pertinentia. Et ciues quidem quaſi eius aſſeclæ in medium prodeunt: qui autem Principes vocantur, ad prætorium ſe conferunt: Legiſlatores ad propria tribunalia: Senatores denique, & qui Concionatores dicuntur, ad conſeſſus ſibi contributos conueniunt. Rurſus is in Prytaneũ it, cui ſcilicet id datũ eſt, in eo vt publico victu epuletur: alter rapitur ad iudicium, causã vt ibi dicat: in carcerẽ alius cõpingitur, vt ſupplicio afficiatur illic. Eius enim auſpiciis perenniter & compoſitè præeuntis, vniuerſus hic cæli ordo regitur atque adminiſtratur, numeros omnes cõcinnitatis habens: in omneis ipſe naturas partitus pro vniuerſitate ſeminum, in ea quæ hærent ſolo, atque in animantia: quæ etiam ſuis ipſa generibus formiſque diſtincta ſunt. Nam & vites ſiunt & palmæ, & perſeæ, ficúsque dulces, & oliuæ: vt inquit Poëta: Tum quæ fructus expertes, alios vſus præſtant, platani, pinus, buxi, alni, populus etiam nigra & cupreſſus odorata: Tum quæ autumni tempore fructum ſuauem fundunt, ſed conditu difficilem, pyri, punicæ, mali. At verò animantium aliæ feræ ſunt, & aliæ cicures: tum in aëre, tum humi, tum in aqua victitantes: oriunturque & inualeſcunt & deinde intereunt, legibus obtemperantes diuinis atque cedentes. CAPVT VII.

VNus porrò Deus cùm ſit, pluribus nominibus appellatus eſt: ab iis vtique ſuis omnibus affectibus denominatus, quorum ſpecimen edere ipſe ſolet. Quin & Frugipotens & cuſtos vrbium vocitatur, & Natalitius, Septitius, Cortalis, Gentilitius & Patrius: videlicet à communione quæ diuino ipſi numini iis cum rebus intercedit. Ad hæc Sodalitius & amicitiæ præſes, tum Hoſpitalis, Caſtrenſis, Trophæalis, Expiator, Sanguinarius, & ſupplex & placabilis, vt poetę loquuntur: denique Seruator dicitur & Aſſertor: &, vt ſemel omnia cõplectar, Cæleſtis & terrenus: ab omni natura ſortéque nomen adeptus, vtpote qui omniũ E rerum author ſit. Quamobrem quæ de ipſo in Orphicis carminibus dicta ſunt, haudquaquam perperam dicta ſunt. Equidem neceſſitatem ipſam etiam nihil aliud quàm Deum dici cenſuerim & intelligi: cui Anance ex eo nomen eſt, quòd natura quędam ſit immobilis. Eundémque Imarmenen, id eſt, fatum, dictum à ſerie rerum conſerta, inoffenſóque tenore procedente, quod alio nomine Pepromenen ideo appellauerunt, quòd ab eo omnia terminata ſunt, ac nihil in rerum natura infinitum eſt.

Cum in rerum honeſtarum & honorabilium numero cognitionem eſſe exiſtimemus: magis autem alteram alterà, vel quòd exquiſitior, vel quod rerum præſtantiorum & admirabiliorum ſit: propter vtraque hæc hiſtoriam de anima inter primas meritò collocare poſſumus. 2 Videtur autem & ad omnem veritatem cognitio eius magnópere conferre: præſertim ad naturam: eſt enim tamquam principium animalium. 3 Quærimus autem ſpectare & cognoſcere naturam eius & eſſentiam: deinde quæcumque circa ipſam accidunt: quorum alia propriæ affectiones ipſius animæ eſſe videntur, alia verò communia, & animalibus propter illam ineſſe. 4 Sed penitus & omnino difficillimum eſt, aliquam de ea fidem ſumere.

Cùm enim quæſtio ſit multis quoque aliis rebus A communis: quæſtio (inquam) de eſſentia & quid res ſit: fortaſſe alicui videri poſſit vna quædam eſſe methodus de iis omnibus quorum volumus eſſentiam cognoſcere: vt & propriorum accidentium vna eſt methodus, nimirum demonſtratio. quare quærenda erit hæc methodus. Sin autem non eſt vna & communis quædam methodus de quæſtione quid eſt: adhuc difficilior ſit tractatio. oportebit enim in quaque re ſumere quis ſit modus. 6 Cùm autem perſpicuum fuerit, ſitne demonſtratio quædam, an diuiſio, an aliqua alia methodus: adhuc multas dubitationes & errores hoc habet ex quibus oporteat quærere. alia namque ſunt aliarum B rerum principia: quemadmodum numerorum, & planorum. 7 Initio fortaſſe neceſſe eſt diſtinctè explicare, in quo genere, & quid ſit: vtrùm (inquam) ſit hoc aliquid & ſubſtantia, an qualitas an quantitas, an alia quæpiam ex diſtinctis categoriis. 8 Præterea vtrùm ſit in earum rerum numero, quæ poteſtate ſunt, an potiùs actus quidam. intereſt enim non parum. 9 Conſiderandum quoque eſt, vtrùm ſit partibilis, an impartibilis. 10 Et vtrùm omnis anima ſit eiuſdem ſpeciei, an non. quòd ſi non ſit eiuſdem ſpeciei, vtrùm animæ ſpecie differant, an genere. nunc enim qui loquuntur & quęrunt de anima, humanam ſolam videntur conſiderare. 11 Cæterùm cauendum eſt, C ne nos lateat; vtrùm vna ſit eius definitio, quemadmodum animalis: an in ſingulis diuerſa, vt equi, canis, hominis, Dei: animal autem, quod eſt vniuerſale, aut nihil eſt, aut poſterius. ſimiliter autem, & ſi quid aliud commune attribuatur. 12 Præterea ſi non ſunt multæ animæ, ſed partes: vtrùm oportet priùs quærere totam animam, an partes. 13 Difficile etiam eſt definire, quænam harum partium ſuapte natura inter ſe differant. 14 Et vtrùm partes quærere primùm oporteat, an opera ipſarum: vt intelligere, an intellectum: & ſentire, an ſenſitiuum. Similiter autem & in aliis. 15 Quòd ſi opera priùs ſunt quærenda: D rurſus dubitare aliquis poſſit, vtrùm obiecta priùs quàm hæc quæri debeant: velvti ſenſibile priùs quàm ſenſitiuum: & intelligibile priùs quàm intellectiuum. 16 Videtur autem non ſolùm cognitio quid eſt, vtilis eſſe ad inſpiciendas cauſas eorum quæ ſubſtantiis per ſe accidunt: vt in mathematicis cognoſcere quid ſit rectum & quid inflexum, aut quid linea & planum, confert ad vidēdum, quòd rectis anguli trianguli ſint æquales: ſed & contrà accidentia magnopere conferunt ad cognoſcendum quid eſt. cùm enim poſſumus conuenienter iis quæ apparent, ſtatuere de accidentibus aut omnibus, aut pleriſque: tunc etiam de eſſentia poterimus aliquid dicere quàm optimè. omnis enim E demonſtrationis principium eſt cognitio quid eſt. Quapropter ex quibuſcumque definitionibus non contingit accidentia notificare: immo ne quidem aliquid de ipſis facilè conicere: patet omnes dialecticè & inaniter traditas eſſe. 17 Sed & affectiones animæ dubitationem habent, vtrùm omnes ſint etiam animam habenti communes, an ſit aliqua ipſius animæ propria. hoc enim ſumere, eſt quidem neceſſarium, non tamen facile. 18 Videtur autem plurima neque pati neque facere ſine corpore, vt iraſci, confidere, cupere, & omnino ſentire. maximè autem proprium videtur intelligere. quòd ſi hoc eſt phantaſia quædam, aut non ſine phantaſia: certè neque hoc poteſt eſſe ſine corpore.

E Conſiderantes autem de anima, neceſſe eſt, vt dubitantes de iis quæ, cùm progreſſi erimus, in promptu nobis eſſe oportet, ſimul antiquorum opiniones comprehendamus, quicumque aliquid de ea pronuntiarunt: vt ea, quæ ſcitè dicta ſunt, ſumamus: ſi quid verò inſcitè, id vitemus. 2 Principium verò inquiſitionis erit ea priùs ponere, quæ maximè videntur ipſi ineſſe ſecundùm naturam. Animatum igitur ab inanimato duobus maximè differre videtur, motu & ſenſu. ferè autem à maioribus quoque accepimus duo hæc de anima. 3 Aiunt enim quidam, & maximè & primùm animam eſſe id quod mouet, putantes autem, id, quod non mouetur, non poſſe mouere alterum, ita exiſtimarunt animam eſſe aliquid eorum quæ mouentur. 4 Vnde inquit Democritus eam eſſe ignem quendam & calorem. cùm enim infinitæ ſint figuræ & atomi: eas, quæ ſunt rotundæ, ignem & animam eſſe dicit. cuiuſmodi ſunt in aëre, quæ vocantur ramenta, quæ cernuntur in radiis per feneſtras immiſſis: quorum farraginem dicit eſſe elementa totius naturæ. Similiter etiam Leucippus ſtatuit. 5 Harum autem eas quæ ſunt rotundæ, eſſe animam: quoniam huiuſmodi figuræ maximè poſſunt per vniuerſum permeare, & reliqua mouere, cùm & ipſæ moueantur. Sic ergo dixerunt Democritus & Leucippus, exiſtimantes animam eſſe, quod præbet animalibus motum. 6 Idcirco & viuendi terminum eſſe reſpirationem. cùm enim id, quod ambit, corpora comprimat, atque eas figuras elidat, quæ præbet animalibus motum, eò quòd ipſa numquam quieſcunt: opem ferri, extrinſecus ingredientibus eiuſmodi aliis, dum reſpiratur: hæc enim prohibere, quominus etiam ea quæ in animalibus inſunt, excernantur, vnà propulſantia quod comprimit & coërcet. viuere autem animalia, quandiu poſſunt hoc facere. 7 Videtur autem, & quod à Pythagoreis dicitur, eandem habere ſententiam. quidam enim eorum dicebant animam eſſe ramenta illa, quæ ſunt in aëre. alij verò, id quod hæc mouet. ac de his dictum eſt: quia videntur continenter moueri, etiam ſi ſit ſumma tranquillitas. 8 Eôdem feruntur etiam, quicumque dicunt animam eſſe id quod ſeipſum mouet. nam omnes hi videntur exiſtimaſſe, motum maximè proprium eſſe animæ, & cætera quidem omnia per animam moueri, ipſam verò à ſemetipſa: quia nihil videbant mouere, quod non & ipſum moueatur. 9 Similiter etiam Anaxagoras animam eſſe inquit eam quæ mouet. ac ſi quis alius dixit, mentem vniuerſum mouiſſe. 10 Non tamen omnino vt Democritus. is enim aſſeruit ſimpliciter idem eſſe animam & mentem. verè enim eſſe, quod videtur. Idcirco ſcitè ceciniſſe Homerum, quòd Hector iaceret inops mentis. Non ergo vtitur mente, vt facultate quadam, quæ circa veritatem verſetur: ſed idem eſſe ait animam & mentem. Anaxagoras verò minùs dilucidè de his diſſerit. ſæpe enim dicit mentem eſſe cauſam eius quod ſcitè & rectè ſe habet, alibi verò inquit idem eſſe mentem & animam: in omnibus namque eam ineſſe animalibus, tam magnis quàm paruis, tam honeſtioribus quam vilioribus. Sed non videtur mens, quæ ſecundùm prudentiam dicitur, æquè cunctis ineſſe animalibus, immo ne quidem cunctis hominibus. 11 Quicumque igitur ad motum animati reſpexerunt, hi exiſtimarunt animam eſſe id quod maximè mouendi vim habet. 12 Quicumque autem ad cognitionem & ſenſum eorum quæ ſunt, hi dicunt animam eſſe principia, alij plura principia facientes, alij vnum hoc. 13 Vt Empedocles ex elementis omnibus: eſſe autem vnumquodque horum animam, ſic inquiens,

Nam terra quidem terram videmus: aqua verò aquam:
Æthere autem æthera diuinum: ſed igne ignem exitioſum:

παρειλήφαμεν σχεδὸν δύο ταῦτα περὶ ψυχῆς. 3 Φασὶ γὰρ ἔνιοι, καὶ μάλιστα, καὶ πρώτως ψυχὴν εἶναι τὸ κινοῦν. οἰηθέντες δὲ τὸ μὴ κινούμενον αὐτὸ, μὴ ἐνδέχεσθαι κινεῖν ἕτερον, τῶν κινουμένων τι τὴν ψυχὴν ὑπέλαβον εἶναι. 4 Ὅθεν Δημόκριτος μὲν πῦρ τι καὶ θερμόν φησιν αὐτὴν εἶναι. ἀπείρων γὰρ ὄντων σχημάτων, καὶ ἀτόμων, τὰ σφαιροειδῆ πῦρ καὶ ψυχὴν λέγει, οἷον ἐν τῷ ἀέρι τὰ καλούμενα ξύσματα, ἃ φαίνεται ἐν ταῖς διὰ τῶν θυρίδων ἀκτῖσιν, ὧν τὴν πανσπερμίαν, στοιχεῖα λέγει τῆς ὅλης φύσεως. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ Λεύκιππος. 5 Τούτων δὲ τὰ σφαιροειδῆ [πῦρ καὶ] ψυχὴν, διὰ τὸ μάλιστα διὰ παντὸς δύνασθαι διαδύνειν τοὺς τοιούτους ῥυσμοὺς, καὶ κινεῖν τὰ λοιπὰ, κινούμενα καὶ αὐτὰ, ὑπολαμβάνοντες τὴν ψυχὴν εἶναι τὸ παρέχον τοῖς ζώοις τὴν κίνησιν. 6 Διὸ καὶ τοῦ ζῆν ὅρον εἶναι τὴν ἀναπνοήν· συνάγοντος γὰρ τοῦ περιέχοντος τὰ σώματα, καὶ ἐκθλίβοντος τῶν σχημάτων τὰ παρέχοντα τοῖς ζώοις τὴν κίνησιν, διὰ τὸ μηδ' αὐτὰ ἠρεμεῖν μηδέποτε, βοήθειαν γίγνεσθαι θύραθεν, ἐπεισιόντων ἄλλων τοιούτων ἐν τῷ ἀναπνεῖν· κωλύειν γὰρ ταῦτα, καὶ τὰ ἐνυπάρχοντα ἐν τοῖς ζώοις ἐκκρίνεσθαι, συνανείργοντα τὸ συνάγον καὶ πηγνύον. καὶ ζῆν δὲ ἕως ἂν δύνωνται τοῦτο ποιεῖν. 7 Ἔοικε δὲ καὶ τὸ παρὰ τῶν Πυθαγορείων λεγόμενον, τὴν αὐτὴν ἔχειν διάνοιαν. ἔφασαν γάρ τινες αὐτῶν, ψυχὴν εἶναι τὰ ἐν τῷ ἀέρι ξύσματα· οἱ δὲ, τὸ ταῦτα κινοῦν. περὶ δὲ τούτων εἴρηται, διότι συνεχῶς φαίνεται [ταῦτα] κινούμενα, κἂν ᾖ νηνεμία παντελής. 8 Ἐπὶ ταὐτὸ δὲ φέρονται καὶ ὅσοι λέγουσι τὴν ψυχὴν τὸ αὑτὸ κινοῦν· ἐοίκασι γὰρ οὗτοι πάντες ὑπειληφέναι τὴν κίνησιν οἰκειότατον εἶναι τῇ ψυχῇ· καὶ τὰ μὲν ἄλλα πάντα κινεῖσθαι διὰ τὴν ψυχήν· ταύτην δ' ὑφ' ἑαυτῆς, διὰ τὸ μηδὲν ὁρᾷν κινοῦν, ὃ μὴ καὶ αὐτὸ κινεῖται. 9 Ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ Ἀναξαγόρας ψυχὴν εἶναι λέγει τὴν κινοῦσαν, καὶ εἴ τις ἄλλος εἴρηκεν, ὡς τὸ πᾶν ἐκίνησε νοῦς. 10 Οὐ μὴν παντελῶς γε, ὥσπερ Δημόκριτος. ἐκεῖνος μὲν γὰρ ἁπλῶς ταὐτὸ ψυχὴν καὶ τὸν νοῦν· τὸ γὰρ ἀληθὲς εἶναι τὸ φαινόμενον· διὸ καλῶς ποιῆσαι τὸν Ὅμηρον, ὡς Ἕκτωρ κεῖτ' ἀλλοφρονέων. οὐ δὴ χρῆται τῷ νῷ, ὡς δυνάμει τινὶ περὶ τὴν ἀλήθειαν, ἀλλὰ ταὐτὸ λέγει ψυχὴν καὶ νοῦν. Ἀναξαγόρας δὲ, ἧττον διασαφεῖ περὶ αὐτῶν· πολλαχοῦ μὲν γὰρ τὸ αἴτιον τοῦ καλῶς καὶ ὀρθῶς, τὸν νοῦν λέγει· ἑτέρωθι δὲ, τὸν νοῦν εἶναι τὸν αὐτὸν τῇ ψυχῇ· ἐν ἅπασι γὰρ ὑπάρχειν αὐτὸν τοῖς ζώοις, καὶ μεγάλοις, καὶ μικροῖς, καὶ τιμίοις καὶ ἀτιμοτέροις. οὐ φαίνεται δὲ ὅ γε κατὰ φρόνησιν λεγόμενος νοῦς, πᾶσιν ὁμοίως ὑπάρχειν τοῖς ζώοις, ἀλλ' οὐδὲ τοῖς ἀνθρώποις πᾶσιν. 11 Ὅσοι μὲν οὖν ἐπὶ τὸ κινεῖσθαι τὸ ἔμψυχον ἀπέβλεψαν, οὗτοι τὸ κινητικώτατον ὑπέλαβον τὴν ψυχήν. 12 Ὅσοι δὲ ἐπὶ τὸ γινώσκειν, καὶ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαι τῶν ὄντων, οὗτοι δὴ λέγουσι τὴν ψυχὴν τὰς ἀρχάς, οἱ μὲν πλείους ποιοῦντες τὰς ἀρχάς, οἱ δὲ μίαν ταύτην. 13 Ὥσπερ Ἐμπεδοκλῆς μὲν ἐκ τῶν στοιχείων πάντων εἶναι δὲ καὶ ἕκαστον ψυχὴν τούτων, οὕτω λέγων,

Γαίῃ μὲν γὰρ γαῖαν ὀπώπαμεν, ὕδατι δ' ὕδωρ,

A 14 Eodem modo etiam Plato in Timæo animam ex elementis efficit. ſimile enim ſimili cognoſci, ac res ex principiis eſſe. 15 Similiter etiam in iis quæ de Philoſophia dicuntur, definitum eſt, ipſum quidem animal ex vnius idea & prima longitudine & latitudine & altitudine, cetera verò ſimili modo. 16 Præterea etiam aliter, intellectum quidem eſſe vnum: ſcientiam verò, duo: (vno enim modo eſt ad vnum) plani verò numerum eſſe opinionem: ſolidi verò numerum eſſe ſenſum. Numeri namque eſſe ipſæ formæ & principia entium dicebantur. conſtant autem ex principiis. ac res iudicantur partim intellectu, partim B ſcientiâ, partim opinione, partim ſenſu. hi verò numeri ſunt formæ rerum. 17 Quoniam autem anima videtur & habere vim mouendi, & cognoſcendi: ſic nonnulli coniunxerunt ex ambobus, pronuntiantes animam eſſe numerum qui ſe ipſum mouet. 18 Diſſentiunt autem de principiis, quænam, & quot ſint: maximè quidem qui corporea faciunt, ab iis qui incorporea: & ab his vtriſque ij qui miſcent, & ex ambobus principia ſtatuunt. diſſentiunt etiam de numero: alij namque vnum, alij plura eſſe dicunt. his verò conſequenter etiam animam explicant, quod enim ſuâ naturâ habet vim mouendi, inter prima eſſe collocandum exiſtimarunt non ſine ratione. C 19 Vnde quibuſdam videtur eſſe ignis. Etenim hoc ſubtiliſſimis partibus conſtat & eſt elementorum maximè incorporeum. præterea, & mouetur & mouet alia primùm. 20 Democritus verò elegantiùs locutus eſt, explicans quamobrem ſit horum vtrumque. animam enim & intellectum eſſe idem. hoc autem eſſe ex primis & indiuiduis corporibus, aptum autem ad mouendum propter exiguitatem partium & figuram. figurarum autem eam dicit eſſe maximè mobilem, quæ eſt rotunda: cuiuſmodi eſſe ait mentem & ignem. 21 Anaxagoras verò videtur quidem diuerſum ſtatuere animam & mentem, vt & antea diximus: vtitur tamen vtriſque, quaſi vnâ naturâ: D præterquam quòd ponit mentem maximè omnium eſſe principium. nam inter ea quæ ſunt, hanc ſolam ait eſſe ſimplicem, & non mixtam, & puram. tribuit autem vtraque eidem principio, cognitionem ſcilicet, ac motum, inquiens mentem mouiſſe vniuerſum. 22 Videtur etiam Thales ex iis quæ memorantur, exiſtimare animam eſſe quiddam ad mouendum aptum: ſiquidem dixit lapidem illum habere animam, quia ferrum mouet. 23 Diogenes autem, vt & alij nonnulli, cenſuit eſſe aërem, cùm putaret hunc eſſe omnium ſubtiliſſimum, & principium. ideóque animam cognoſcere & mouere, quatenus eſt E primum, & ex hoc reliqua cognoſcere. quatenus autem ſubtiliſſimis partibus conſtat, eſſe ad mouendum aptum. 24 Sed & Heraclitus ait animam eſſe principium: ſiquidem ait eſſe exhalationem, ex qua reliqua conſtituit. eſſe enim rem maximè incorpoream, & ſemper fluentem. quod autem mouetur, eo cognoſci quòd mouetur: entia verò eſſe in motu, & is putauit, & alij multi. 25 Pariter ac hi, videtur Alcmæon exiſtimaſſe de anima: inquit enim eam eſſe immortalem, quoniam aſſimilatur immortalibus: hoc autem ipſi ineſſe, vt pote ei quæ ſemper mouetur: moueri autem & diuina omnia continenter ac ſemper, Lunam, Solem, ſidera, & cœlum totum. 26 Eorum verò, qui ſunt magis importuni, etiam aquam nonnulli pronuntiarunt, vt Hippo.

adducti autem videntur vt id crederent, ex genitura, quia omnium genitura eſt humida. nam & eos reprehendit, qui dicunt animam eſſe ſanguinem, quia genitura non eſt ſanguis, hanc verò eſſe primam animam. 27 Alij verò ſanguinem, vt Critias, exiſtimantes ſentire maximè proprium eſſe animæ, hoc verò ineſſe propter ſanguinis naturam. 28 Omnia namque elementa ſortita ſunt aliquem à quo eligerentur, excepta terra: ſed hanc nemo ſtatuit, niſi ſi quis dixit eam eſſe ex omnibus elementis, aut omnia elementa. 29 Iam verò omnes animam tribus (penè dixerim) definiunt, motu, ſenſu, & corporis vacuitate: quorum vnumquodque refertur ad principia. 30 Quapropter & hi qui cognitione eam definiunt, eam aut elementum, aut ex elementis faciunt, ſimilia inter ſe loquentes, vno excepto. inquiunt enim, ſimile ſimili cognoſci. cùm enim anima omnia cognoſcat, eam conſtituunt ex omnibus principiis. 31 Quicumque igitur vnam aliquam cauſam & vnum elementum eſſe dicunt, ij etiam animam ponunt eſſe vnum: puta ignem, aut aërem. qui verò plura dicunt eſſe principia, animam quoque dicunt eſſe plura. 32 Solus Anaxagoras ait mentem eſſe paſſionis expertem, nec habere quicquam commune cum vlla alia re: Cùm autem talis ſit, quomodo cognoſcat, & quam ob cauſam, nec ille dixit, nec ex iis quæ dicta ſunt, perſpicuum eſt. 33 Quicumque verò contrarietates in principiis ponunt, etiam animam ex contrariis conſtituunt. alij autem alterum contrariorum ſumunt, vt calidum, aut frigidum, aut aliquid aliud tale: ac ſimiliter ponunt animam eſſe vnum quidpiam ex his. 34 Idcirco & nomina ſequuntur: alij quidem dicentes animam vocari calidum: quia propterea etiam ζῆν, id eſt, viuere, eſt nominatum: alij verò appellari frigidum, propter reſpirationem, & refrigerationem. 35 Quæ igitur tradita ſunt de anima, & quas ob cauſas ita dicunt, hæc ſunt, quæ expoſuimus.

Diſputatio contra eos qui animam per motum definiuerunt. Cap. III.

PRimùm autem conſiderandum eſt de motu. fortaſſis enim non ſolùm falſum eſt, eſſentiam eius talem eſſe, qualem aſſerunt, qui dicunt animam eſſe id quod ſe ipſum mouet, vel mouere poteſt: ſed eſt vnum ex iis quæ fieri nequeunt, vt ei motus inſit. 2 Non eſſe igitur neceſſe, vt id quod mouet, ipſum quoque moueatur, antea dictum fuit. 3 Cùm autem duobus modis moueatur quicquid mouetur: aut enim mouetur per alterum, aut per ſe (per alterum autem moueri dicimus, quæcumque ideo mouentur, quia ſunt in eo quod mouetur: vt nauigantes: non enim ſimiliter mouentur ac nauis: quoniam hæc per ſe mouetur: illi verò, quia ſunt in eo quod mouetur, quod quidem manifeſtum eſt in partibus: quandoquidem proprius motus pedum eſt inceſſus, atque hic eſt etiam hominum, ſed tum temporis non adeſt nauigantibus) cùm ergo duobus modis moueri dicatur, nunc de anima conſideramus, an per ſe moueatur, & particeps ſit motus. 4 Cùm autem quatuor motus ſint: latio, variatio, deminutio, accretio: certè aut vno horum mouebitur, aut pluribus, aut omnibus. Quòd ſi mouetur non ex accidenti, naturâ inerit ei motus.

D Ἐπισκεπτέον δὲ πρῶτον μὲν περὶ κινήσεως. ἴσως γὰρ οὐ μόνον ψεῦδός ἐστι τὸ τὴν οὐσίαν αὐτῆς τοιαύτην εἶναι, οἵαν φασὶν οἱ λέγοντες εἶναι τὴν ψυχὴν τὸ κινοῦν αὑτό, ἢ δυνάμενον κινεῖν· ἀλλ' ἕν τι τῶν ἀδυνάτων, τὸ ὑπάρχειν αὐτῇ κίνησιν. 2 Ὅτι μὲν οὖν οὐκ ἀναγκαῖον τὸ κινοῦν καὶ αὐτὸ κινεῖσθαι, πρότερον εἴρηται. 3 Διχῶς δὲ κινουμένου παντός· ἢ γὰρ καθ' ἕτερον, ἢ καθ' αὑτό· καθ' ἕτερον δὲ λέγομεν, ὅσα κινεῖται τῷ ἐν κινουμένῳ εἶναι, οἷον πλωτῆρες· οὐ γὰρ ὁμοίως κινοῦνται τῷ πλοίῳ· τὸ μὲν γὰρ καθ' αὑτὸ κινεῖται, οἱ δὲ τῷ ἐν κινουμένῳ εἶναι. δῆλον δ' ἐπὶ τῶν μορίων· οἰκεία μὲν γάρ ἐστι κίνησις, ποδῶν βάσις· αὕτη δὲ καὶ ἀνθρώπων· οὐχ ὑπάρχει δὲ τοῖς E πλωτῆρσι τότε· * διχῶς οὖν λεγομένου τοῦ κινεῖσθαι, νῦν ἐπισκοποῦμεν περὶ τῆς ψυχῆς, εἰ καθ' αὑτὴν κινεῖται, καὶ μετέχει κινήσεως. 4 Τεσσάρων δὲ κινήσεων οὐσῶν, φορᾶς, ἀλλοιώσεως, φθίσεως, αὐξήσεως, ἢ μίαν τούτων κινοῖτ' ἄν, ἢ πλείους, ἢ πάσας. εἰ δὲ κινεῖται μὴ κατὰ συμβεβηκός, φύσει ἂν ὑπάρχοι κίνησις αὐτῇ. *κ. δ. διχ.

εἰ δὲ τοῦτο, καὶ τόπος· πᾶσαι γὰρ αἱ λεχθεῖσαι κινήσεις ἐν τόπῳ. 5 Εἰ δ᾽ ἐστὶν ἡ οὐσία τῆς ψυχῆς τὸ κινεῖν ἑαυτήν, οὐ κατὰ συμβεβηκὸς τὸ κινεῖσθαι αὐτῇ ὑπάρξει, ὥσπερ τῷ λευκῷ, ἢ τῷ τριπήχει. κινεῖται γὰρ καὶ ταῦτα, ἀλλὰ κατὰ συμβεβηκός. ᾧ γὰρ ὑπάρχουσιν, ἐκεῖνο κινεῖται, τὸ σῶμα. διὸ καὶ οὐκ ἔστι τόπος αὐτῶν· τῆς δὲ ψυχῆς ἔσται, εἴπερ φύσει κινήσεως μετέχει. 6 Ἔτι δ᾽, εἰ φύσει κινεῖται, κἂν βίᾳ κινηθείη· κἂν εἰ βίᾳ, καὶ φύσει. τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον ἔχει καὶ περὶ ἠρεμίας· εἰς ὃ γὰρ κινεῖται φύσει, καὶ ἠρεμεῖ ἐν τούτῳ φύσει. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ εἰς ὃ κινεῖται βίᾳ, καὶ ἠρεμεῖ ἐν τούτῳ βίᾳ. ποῖαι δὲ βίαιοι τῆς ψυχῆς κινήσεις ἔσονται καὶ ἠρεμίαι, οὐδὲ πλάττειν βουλομένοις ῥᾴδιον ἀποδοῦναι. 7 Ἔτι δ᾽, εἰ μὲν ἄνω κινήσεται, πῦρ ἔσται· εἰ δὲ κάτω, γῆ· τούτων γὰρ τῶν σωμάτων αἱ κινήσεις αὗται. ὁ δ᾽ αὐτὸς λόγος καὶ περὶ τῶν μεταξύ. 8 Ἔτι δ᾽, ἐπεὶ φαίνεται κινοῦσα τὸ σῶμα, ταύτας εὔλογον κινεῖν τὰς κινήσεις ἃς καὶ αὐτὴ κινεῖται. εἰ δὲ τοῦτο, καὶ ἀντιστρέψασιν εἰπεῖν, ἀληθές, ὅτι ἣν τὸ σῶμα κινεῖται, ταύτην καὶ αὐτή. τὸ δὲ σῶμα κινεῖται φορᾷ· ὥστε καὶ ἡ ψυχὴ μεταβάλλοι ἂν κατὰ τὸ σῶμα καὶ αὐτή, ἢ ὅλη, ἢ κατὰ μόρια μεθισταμένη. εἰ δὲ τοῦτ᾽ ἐνδέχεται, καὶ ἐξελθοῦσαν εἰσιέναι πάλιν ἐνδέχοιτ᾽ ἄν· τούτῳ δ᾽ ἕποιτ᾽ ἂν τὸ ἀνίστασθαι τὰ τεθνεῶτα τῶν ζῴων. 9 Τὴν δὲ κατὰ συμβεβηκὸς κίνησιν, κἂν ὑφ᾽ ἑτέρου κινοῖτο· ὠσθείη γὰρ ἂν βίᾳ τὸ ζῷον. οὐ δεῖ δὲ ᾧ τὸ ὑφ᾽ ἑαυτοῦ κινεῖσθαι ἐν τῇ οὐσίᾳ, τοῦτο ὑπ᾽ ἄλλου κινεῖσθαι, πλὴν εἰ μὴ κατὰ συμβεβηκός· ὥσπερ οὐδὲ τὸ καθ᾽ αὑτὸ ἀγαθόν, ἢ δι᾽ αὑτό, τὸ μὲν δι᾽ ἄλλο εἶναι, τὸ δ᾽ ἑτέρου ἕνεκα. τὴν δὲ ψυχὴν μάλιστα φαίη τις ἂν ὑπὸ τῶν αἰσθητῶν κινεῖσθαι, εἴπερ κινεῖται. 10 Ἀλλὰ μὴν καὶ εἰ κινεῖ γε αὐτὴ ἑαυτήν, καὶ αὐτὴ κινοῖτ᾽ ἄν. ὥστε εἰ πᾶσα κίνησις ἔκστασίς ἐστι τοῦ κινουμένου ᾗ κινεῖται, καὶ ἡ ψυχὴ ἐξίσταιτο ἂν ἐκ τῆς οὐσίας, εἰ μὴ κατὰ συμβεβηκὸς αὑτὴν κινεῖ, ἀλλ᾽ ἔστιν ἡ κίνησις τῆς οὐσίας αὐτῆς καθ᾽ αὑτήν. 11 Ἔνιοι δὲ καὶ κινεῖν φασι τὴν ψυχὴν τὸ σῶμα ἐν ᾧ ἐστιν, ὡς αὐτὴ κινεῖται, οἷον Δημόκριτος, παραπλησίως λέγων Φιλίππῳ τῷ* κωμῳδοδιδασκάλῳ. φησὶ γὰρ τὸν Δαίδαλον κινουμένην ποιῆσαι τὴν ξυλίνην Ἀφροδίτην, ἐγχέαντα ἄργυρον χυτόν. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ Δημόκριτος λέγει· κινουμένας γάρ φησι τὰς ἀδιαιρέτους σφαίρας, διὰ τὸ πεφυκέναι μηδέποτε μένειν, συνεφέλκειν καὶ κινεῖν τὸ σῶμα πᾶν. ἡμεῖς δ᾽ ἐρωτήσομεν, εἰ καὶ ἠρέμησιν ποιεῖ τοῦτ᾽ αὐτό. πῶς δὲ ποιήσει τοῦτο, χαλεπόν, ἢ καὶ ἀδύνατον εἰπεῖν. ὅλως δὲ οὐχ οὕτω φαίνεται κινεῖν ἡ ψυχὴ τὸ ζῷον, ἀλλὰ διὰ προαιρέσεώς τινος καὶ νοήσεως. 12 Τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον καὶ ὁ Τίμαιος φυσιολογεῖ τὴν ψυχὴν κινεῖν τὸ σῶμα· τῷ γὰρ κινεῖσθαι αὐτήν, καὶ τὸ σῶμα κινεῖν, διὰ τὸ συμπεπλέχθαι πρὸς αὐτό. συνεστηκυῖαν γὰρ ἐκ τῶν στοιχείων, καὶ μεμερισμένην κατὰ τοὺς ἁρμονικοὺς ἀριθμούς, ὅπως αἴσθησίν τε καὶ σύμφυτον ἁρμονίαν ἔχῃ, καὶ τὸ πᾶν φέρηται συμφώνους φοράς, τὴν εὐθυωρίαν εἰς κύκλον κατέκαμψε· καὶ διελὼν ἐκ τοῦ ἑνὸς κύκλου δύο κύκλους διαχῇ συνημμένους, πάλιν τὸν ἕνα διεῖλεν εἰς ἑπτὰ κύκλους, ὡς οὔσας τὰς τοῦ οὐρανοῦ φοράς, τὰς τῆς ψυχῆς κινήσεις. 13 Πρῶτον μὲν οὖν, οὐ καλῶς τὸ λέγειν τὴν ψυχὴν μέγεθος εἶναι.

A ſin hoc, etiam locus: omnes enim motus, qui dicti ſunt, in loco fiunt. 5 Quòd ſi animæ eſſentia eſt mouere ſe ipſam: moueri, ei non inerit ex accidenti, vt albo, aut tricubitô: mouentur enim hæc quoque, ſed ex accidenti: quoniam id mouetur, cui inſunt, nempe corpus. ideóque non eſt locus ipſorum. ſed animæ locus erit, ſiquidem natura eſt motionis particeps. 6 Præterea ſi naturâ mouetur, etiam vi moueri poterit: & ſi vi, etiam naturâ. eodem modo res habet etiam de quiete. ad quod enim mouetur naturâ, etiam in eô quieſcit naturâ. Similiter etiam ad quod mouetur vi, etiam in eo quieſcit vi. quales autem erunt violenti animæ motus & quietes, ne
B quidem fingere volentibus facile eſt explicare. 7 Præterea ſi ſurſum mouebitur, ignis erit: ſi deorſum, terra. hi namque ſunt horum corporum motus. Eadem ratio eſt etiam de corporibus interiectis. 8 Præterea quia videtur mouere corpus: rationi conſentaneum eſt, eam mouere iiſdem motibus quibus & ipſa mouetur. quod ſi ita eſt, etiam conuerſione factâ verè dicetur, quo motu corpus mouetur, ipſam quoque moueri. atqui corpus mouetur latione, quare etiam anima mutabitur, perinde atque corpus, ipſa quoque hoc motus, vel tota, vel ſecundùm partes tranſlata. ſed ſi fieri hoc poteſt, fieri etiam poterit,
C vt egreſſa ingrediatur rurſus. cui conſequens erit, vt animalia mortua reſurgant. 9 Iam verò motu qui ex accidenti fit, etiam ab altero moueri poſſet: vi namque impelli poteſt animal. ſed non oportet, vt in cuius eſſentia eſt moueri à ſeipſo, id ab alio moueatur. præterquam ex accidenti: ſicuti neque quod eſt bonum per ſe, aut propter ſe, id eſt bonum propter aliud, vel alterius gratia. animam verò maximè dicere aliquis poſſit à ſenſibilibus moueri, ſi quidem mouetur. 10 At verò ſi ipſa ſemet ipſam mouet, etiam ipſa mouebitur. quare ſi omnis motus eſt receſſus eius quod mouetur quatenus mouetur: etiam anima recedet à ſua eſſentia, ſi non ex accidenti ſe
D ipſam mouet, ſed eſt motus ipſius eſſentiæ per ſe. 11 Quidam verò aiunt etiam animam mouere corpus in quo eſt, ſicut ipſa mouetur: vt Democritus, qui ſimiliter loquitur ac Philippus comicus: inquit enim Dædalum feciſſe ligneam illam Venerem, quæ moueretur, infuſo argento fuſili. ſimiliter autem & Democritus aſſerit: nam dicit indiuiduos orbes, dum mouentur, eò quòd ſunt eâ naturâ præditi vt numquam conſiſtant, ſimul trahere ac mouere corpus vniuerſum. Nos autem rogabimus, an hoc ipſum etiam quieſcere faciet. ſed quomodo hoc faciet, difficile eſt, aut etiam impoſſibile dictu. & omnino conſtat enim eum vniuerſi animam talem eſſe velle, qualis eſt qui vocatur intellectus: nõ enim qualis eſt anima ſenſitiua, nec qualis eſt concupiſcitiua: quoniam harum motus non eſt conuerſio. 14 Intellectus verò eſt vnus & continuus, quemadmodum & intellectio: intellectio vero, vt intelligibilia. atqui hæc ſunt vnum, quia deinceps ſunt, vt numerus, non vt magnitudo. quare nec intellectus eſt ita continuus: ſed aut impartibilis, aut nõ vt magnitudo aliqua continuus. 15 Nam quomodo, cùm ſit magnitudo, quâuis ſuarum partium intelliget, partium inquam aut ſecundùm magnitudinem, aut ſecundùm punctum, ſi tamen oportet etiam hoc appellare partem. Ergo ſi ſecundùm punctum, hæc verò ſunt infinita: patet, eum numquam pertranſiturum. ſin autem ſecundùm magnitudinem, ſæpius vel infinities intelliget eandem rem. ſed videtur & ſemel fieri poſſe. Si verò ſufficit tangere quauis partẽ, quid opus eſt circulo moueri, aut omnino magnitudinem habere? Καὶ ἄλλη δέ τις δόξα παραδέδοται περὶ ψυχῆς, B πιθανὴ μὲν πολλοῖς, καὶ οὐδεμιᾶς ἧττον τῶν λεγομένων· λόγους δὲ ὥσπερ εὐθύνας δεδωκυῖα καὶ ἐν τοῖς ἐν κοινῷ γινομένοις λόγοις. ἁρμονίαν γάρ τινα αὐτὴν τινὲς λέγουσι· καὶ γὰρ τὴν ἁρμονίαν, κρᾶσιν καὶ σύνθεσιν τινὰ ἐναντίων εἶναι, καὶ τὸ σῶμα συγκεῖσθαι ἐξ ἐναντίων. 2 Καί τοι γε ἡ μὲν ἁρμονία λόγος τίς ἐστι τῶν μιχθέντων ἢ σύνθεσις, τὴν δὲ ψυχὴν οὐδέτερον τούτων εἶναι οἷόν τε. 3 Ἔτι δὲ τὸ κινεῖν οὐκ ἔστιν ἁρμονίας, ψυχῇ δὲ τοῦτο ἀπονέμουσι πάντες μάλισθ' ὡς * εἰπεῖν. B Alia quoque opinio tradita eſt de anima, probabilis quidem multis, ac nulla earum quæ datæ ſunt, deterior: quæ tamen, velut ij qui magiſtratu abierunt, rationes reddidit etiam diſputationibus in communi factis. nonnulli enim aſſerunt, eam eſſe harmoniam quandam: etenim harmoniam eſſe temperationem & compoſitionem quandam contrariorum: corpus autem componi ex contrariis. 2 Atqui harmonia eſt ratio quædam mixtorum, vel compoſitio: anima verò neutrum horum eſſe poteſt. 3 Præterea mouere non eſt harmoniæ: omnes autem (penè dixerim) ma- C ximè hoc animæ attribuunt. 4 Magis autem quadrat de ſanitate dicere harmoniam, & omnino de corporeis virtutibus, quàm de anima. 5 Sed magis perſpicuum fiet, ſi quis tentauerit harmoniâ quadam explicare affectiones & opera animæ: difficile eſt enim accommodare. Præterea ſi dicamus harmoniam, ad duo reſpicientes, præcipuè quidem in iis magnitudinibus quæ motum & poſitionem habent, earum compoſitionem, cùm ita ſunt coaptatæ, vt nihil eiuſdem generis admittant: hinc verò etiam mixtorum rationem: neutro ſanè modo eſt rationi conſentaneum. Compoſitio autem partium corporis facilè admodum D refellitur: quia multæ ſunt compoſitiones partium, & multis modis. cuius igitur, aut quomodo compoſitionem eſſe, oportet exiſtimare intellectum, aut etiam ſenſitiuum, aut appetitiuum? Similiter etiam eſt abſurdum, animam eſſe rationem mixtionis: quia non habet eandem rationem mixtio elementorum, ſecundùm quam eſt caro, & ſecundùm quam eſt os. accidet igitur multas animas habere, & quidem per vniuerſum corpus: ſiquidem omnes partes ſunt ex elementis mixtis: ac mixtionis ratio eſt harmonia & anima. 7 Poſtulare autem aliquis hoc poſſit etiam ab Empedocle: E quoniam vnamquãque earum in ratione quadam eſſe ait. vtrùm igitur anima eſt ratio, an potiùs, cùm ſit aliud quiddam, membris accidit? præterea vtrùm amicitia eſt cauſa cuiuſcumque mixtionis, an eius tantùm quæ in ratione conſiſtit? & ipſa vtrùm eſt ratio quędam, an à ratione diuerſum quidpiam? Hęc igitur habẽt eiuſmodi dubitationes. 8 Quòd ſi anima eſt res diuerſa à mixtione, cur tandẽ vnà cũ eſſentia carnis & aliarũ animalis partium tollitur? Ad hæc, niſi quæque pars habet animam, ſi anima non eſt mixtionis ratio illa, quid eſt quod perit animâ abſcedente? 9 Animã igitur non poſſe harmoniã eſſe, aut in orbem ferri, patet ex iis quæ dicta ſunt. Ex accidenti autẽ moueri poteſt, vt diximus,
E anima non ita videtur mouere animal, ſed ex prælectione quadam & intellectione. 12 Eodem modo etiam Timæus de natura diſſerens, inquit animam mouere corpus: eò namque quòd ipſa moueatur, mouere etiam corpus, quia cum ipſo eſt connexa. conſtantem enim ex elementis, ac diſtinctam ſecundùm numeros harmonicos, vt ſenſum & inſitum concentum habeat, & vniuerſum feratur conſonis lationibus, rectitudinem in circulum flexit; ac diuiſione vnius circuli facta in duos circulos bifariàm coniunctos, rurſus vnum diuiſit in ſeptem circulos; tamquam animæ motus ſint cœli lationes. 13 Primùm igitur non rectè dicitur animam eſſe magnitudinem.

Animam aliis præter localem motibus non moueri. Cap. V.

PRobabiliùs autem de ea dubitare aliquis poſſit, quaſi moueatur, ad eiuſmodi argumenta reſpiciens: quia dicimus animam dolere, lætari, confidere, metuere: præterea iraſci, ſentire, ratiocinari: quæ omnia videntur eſſe motus. vnde putare aliquis poſſit eam moueri. 2 Sed hoc non eſt neceſſarium. nam ſi vel maximè dolere, aut lætari, aut ratiocinari, ſint motus, & horum vnumquodque ſit moueri: tamen moueri eſt ab anima: vt puta iraſci, vel timere, quia cor ita mouetur. ratiocinari autem aut eſt tale, aut fortaſſe aliud quiddam. 3 Horum autem alia fiunt quibuſdam ſecundùm locum motis: alia quibuſdam variatis. Qualia verò hæc ſint, & quomodo, alia diſputatio eſt. 4 Dicere autem animam iraſci, perinde eſt, ac ſi quis diceret animam texere, aut ædificare. melius enim fortaſſe eſt, non dicere animam miſereri, vel diſcere, vel ratiocinari, ſed hominem anima: idque, non quaſi in illa ſit motus, ſed aliquando vſque ad illam, quandoque ab illa: vt ſenſus eſt ab his: recordatio autem ab illa eſt ad eas motiones vel manſiones quæ ſunt in ſenſuum inſtrumentis. 5 Intellectus autem videtur accedere, cùm ſit ſubſtantia quædam, neque corrumpi. maximè enim corrumperetur ab hebetatione illa, quæ fit in ſenectute: nunc autem vt in ſenſoriis accidit: etenim ſi ſenex nanciſceretur oculum talem, videret ſanè vt iuuenis. quapropter ſenectus non eſt, quia anima aliquid patiatur, ſed quia id patitur in quo eſt anima, ſicut euenit in ebrietatibus, & morbis. Itaque intelligere, & contemplari lãgueſcit, alio quodam intus corrupto: ipſum autem eſt impatibile. ratiocinari verò, & amare, vel odiſſe, non ſunt illius affectiones, ſed huius, quod habet illud, quatenus illud habet. ideóque hoc corrupto, neque recordatur, neque amat: quia non erat illius, ſed communis, quod periit. ceterùm intellectus fortaſſe diuinius quiddam & impatibile eſt. 6 Non poſſe igitur animam moueri, perſpicuum ex his eſt. quòd ſi omnino non mouetur: patet, eam nec à ſe ipſa moueri.

Animam non eſſe numerum ſeipſum mouentem. Cap. VI.

SEd multò magis quàm ea quæ dicta ſunt, à ratione diſtat, dicere animam eſſe numerum mouentem ſemetipſum. his enim adſunt impoſſibilia, primùm quæ ex ipſo moueri eueniunt, deinde peculiaria ex eo quòd dicunt eam eſſe numerum. 2 Nam quomodo intelligere oportet vnitatem moueri? & à quo? & quomodo? cùm ſit impartibilis & indifferens? Etenim ſi eſt motiua & mobilis, eam differre oportet. 3 Præterea quoniam dicunt motam lineam efficere planum, & motum punctum efficere lineam: profecto etiam vnitatum motus erunt lineæ: quia punctum eſt vnitas poſitionem habens: animæ autem numerus iam alicubi eſt, & poſitionem habet.

A 4 Præterea ſi quis à numero detrahat numerum vel vnitatem, relinquitur alius numerus: plantæ verò & animalium pleraque ſecta viuunt, & videntur eandem ſpecie animam habere. 5 Videri autem poſſit nihil referre, ſiue vnitates dicantur, ſiue parua corpuſcula. nam & ex Democriti ſphærulis ſi fiant puncta, modo maneat quantitas, erit aliquid in ipſa quod moueat, & quod moueatur, vt in magnitudine. non enim quia magnitudine differat aut paruitate, accidit quod dictum eſt. ſed quia eſt quantum. idcirco neceſſe eſt eſſe aliquid, quod moueat vnitates. quòd ſi anima eſt id quod mouet in animali; certè etiam in numero. quapropter anima non erit id quod mouet, & quod mouetur, ſed B quod mouet dumtaxat. 6 Sed qui fieri poteſt vt ea ſit vnitas? oportet enim eſſe eius differentiam ab aliis: puncti autem monadici quænam differentia eſſe poteſt niſi poſitio? Ergo ſi vnitates vel puncta, quæ ſunt in corpore, ſunt diuerſa: vnitates in eodem erunt: quia locum puncti obtinebunt. atqui ſi in eodem ſint duo puncta, quid prohibet etiam eſſe infinita? quorum enim locus eſt indiuiduus, ipſa quoque ſunt indiuidua. 4 Sin autem puncta quæ ſunt in corpore, ſunt numerus ille animæ, vel ſi, anima eſt numerus ille punctorum quæ ſunt in corpore: cur non omnia corpora animam habebunt? quandoquidem puncta in omnibus C eſſe videntur, eaque infinita. Præterea quomodo poterunt animæ ſeparari & ſolui à corporibus, ſiquidem lineæ non diuiduntur in puncta? 7 Accidit autem, vt diximus, partim vt idem dicant, quod ij qui eam ſtatuunt eſſe corpus quoddam ex ſubtilibus partibus conſtans: partim, vt Democritus moueri ait ab anima, peculiaris abſurditas. nam ſi anima eſt in vniuerſo corpore ſentiente: neceſſe eſt in eodem eſſe duo corpora, ſi anima eſt corpus quoddam: his verò qui dicunt eſſe numerum, accidit vt in vno puncto ſint multa puncta: vel omne corpus animam habeat, niſi differens quidam nu- D merus intus fiat ac diuerſus à punctis quæ ſunt in corpore. Accidit autem moueri animal à numero, quemadmodum & Democritum diximus ipſum mouere. quid enim refert, ſiue, dicatur paruas ſphæras, ſiue, magnas vnitates, aut omnino vnitates quæ ferantur, mouere? vtroque enim modo neceſſe eſt eas mouere animal, quia ipſæ mouentur. 8 His igitur, qui ſimul coniunxerunt motum & numerum, hæc accidunt, & multa alia eiuſmodi abſurda. non ſolùm enim impoſſibile eſt definitionem animæ talem eſſe, ſed etiam accidens. quod manifeſtum fiet, ſi quis aggrediatur ex hac definitione affectiones & opera animæ explicare, veluti cogitationes, ſenſus, voluptates, dolores, & quæ- E cumque alia eiuſmodi ſunt. vt enim antea diximus, ne quidem diuinare ex his facile eſt.

Animam non conſtare ex elementis. Cap. VII.

Τριῶν δὲ τρόπων παραδεδομένων, καθ' οὓς ὁρίζονται τὴν ψυχὴν, οἱ μὲν τὸ κινητικώτατον ἀπεφήναντο, τῷ κινεῖν ἑαυτό· οἱ δὲ, σῶμα τὸ λεπτομερέστατον, ἢ τὸ ἀσωματώτατον τῶν ἄλλων. ταῦτα δὲ τίνας ἀπορίας τε καὶ ὑπεναντιώσεις ἔχει, διεληλύθαμεν σχεδόν.

Cvm autem tres modi traditi ſint, quibus animam definiunt, alij pronunciarunt eam eſſe id quod maximè vim habet mouendi, quia ſe ipſam mouet: alij verò eſſe corpus ex ſubtiliſſimis partibus conſtans, vel quod ceteris eſt magis incorporeum. Quas verò dubitationes & repugnantias hæc habeant, ferè perſecuti ſumus.

reſtat igitur, vt conſideremus, quomodo dicatur eam conſtare ex elementis. hoc enim ideo inquiunt, vt ſentiat ea quæ ſunt, & quamcumq; rem cognoſcat. 2 Neceſſe autẽ eſt huic ſententiæ accidere multa, eáque impoſſibilia. ponunt enim animam ſimili cognoſcere ſimile, perinde ac ſi animam ponerent eſſe res ipſas. atqui non ſunt hæc ſola, ſed & multa alia, immo fortaſſe infinita numero, quæ ex his conſtant. Eſto igitur animam cognoſcere ac ſentire ea ex quibus vnumquodque horum conſtat. ſed quonam totum cognoſcet, aut ſentiet? velvti quid ſit Deus, aut homo, aut caro, aut os, & ſimiliter quoduis aliud compoſitum. non enim horum vnumquodque eſt elementa quoquo modo ſe habentia, ſed ratione quadam & compoſitione, quemadmodum etiam Empedocles ait eſſe os: inquit enim,

In patulis cepit tellus fornacibus alma
Splendoris liquidi geminas ex partibus octo,
Quattuor aſt ignis: ſunt oſſa hinc candida facta.

Nihil igitur prodeſt eſſe elementa in anima, niſi inſint etiam rationes, & compoſitio: nam ſimile quamque rem cognoſcet: nihil autem cognoſcet os, aut hominem, niſi hæc inſint. ſed hoc eſſe impoſſibile, ne quidem dicere oportet. quis enim dubitet, an inſit in anima lapis, vel homo? itidemque bonum, & non bonum? Eodem modo & in aliis res habet. 3 Præterea cùm ens multis modis dicatur, (ſignificat enim partim hoc aliquid, partim quantitatem, vel qualitatem, vel aliquam aliam ex diſtinctis categoriis) vtrùm ex omnibus erit anima, an non? ſed non videntur communia omnium eſſe elementa. an igitur ex iis tantùm eſt, quæ ſunt ſubſtantiarum elementa? quomodo ergo cognoſcit etiam quamuis aliam rem? an dicent cuiuſque generis eſſe elementa & principia propria, ex quibus anima conſtet? erit igitur & quantitas, & qualitas, & ſubſtantia. ſed eſt impoſſibile, ex quantitatis elementis eſſe ſubſtantiam, & non quantitatem. Iis igitur qui ex omnibus elementis animam conſtare dicunt, hæc & huiuſmodi alia eueniunt. 4 Abſurdè etiam dicitur, ſimile non pati à ſimili, ſimile tamen ſentire id quod eſt ſimile, & ſimili cognoſcere ſimile. ſentire autem ponunt eſſe quiddam pati ac moueri. ſimilitérque intelligere, & cognoſcere.
5 Cùm autem multas dubitationes ac difficultates habeat, ſi quis dicat, vt Empedocles, corporeis elementis ſingula cognoſci, & ad ſimile: id teſtatur etiam, quod nunc dicetur: quæcunque enim inſunt in animalium corporibus, ſimpliciter terreſtria, vt oſſa, nerui, pili, nullam rem ſentire videntur. quare nec res ſimiles ſentiunt. atqui oporteret. 6 Præterea cuique principio plus inerit ignorantiæ, quàm cognitionis: vnumquodque enim rem vnam cognoſcet, multas verò ignorabit, nempe omnes alias. 7 Accidit etiam Empedocli, Deum eſſe inſipientiſſimum: quippe qui ſolus non cognoſcet vnum elementum, id eſt, contentionem: mortalia verò cognoſcunt omnia, quia vnumquodque ex omnibus conſtat. 8 Omnino autem quamobrem non omnia entia animam habent? quandoquidem quicquid eſt, aut eſt elementum, aut ex elemento vno, aut ex pluribus, vel omnibus: neceſſe enim eſt, vnum quidpiam cognoſcere, vel aliqua, vel omnia. 9 Dubitare etiam aliquis poſſit, quid tandem ſit, quod ea vnum efficiat. nã elementa aſſimilantur materiæ: illud autẽ

A maximè dominatur, quod continet, quicquid tandem illud ſit. ſed impoſſibile eſt eſſe aliquid anima præſtantius, & ei dominans: & adhuc impoſſibilius, intellectu: nam rationi eſt maximè conſentaneum, hunc eſſe antiquiſſimum & dominum ſecundùm naturam. tamen inquiunt, elementa eſſe prima entium. 10 Iam verò omnes, qui ex eo quòd anima entia cognoſcit ac ſentit, eam ex elementis conſtare dicunt: & qui eam id eſſe inquiunt, quod maximè vim habet mouendi, non de omni anima loquuntur. non enim quæcunque ſentiendi vi ſunt prædita, mouendi vim habent: quia nonnulla animalia videntur manere in eodem loco: cùm anima hoc ſolo motu videatur mouere animal. B Similiter aiunt, quicunque intellectum ac ſenſitiuum ex elementis faciunt. videntur enim plantæ viuere, cùm non ſint lationis, aut ſenſus participes: & animalium pleraque rationem non habere. 11 Quod ſi quis hæc admiſerit, ac poſuerit, intellectum eſſe quandam partem animæ, & ſimiliter ſenſitiuum: ne ſic quidem vniuerſaliter loquetur de omni anima, nec de tota, nec de vna.

Καὶ ἐν τῷ ὅλῳ δέ τινες αὐτὴν μεμῖχθαί φασιν. ὅθεν ἴσως καὶ Θαλῆς ᾠήθη πάντα πλήρη θεῶν εἶναι. 2 τοῦτο δ' ἔχει τινὰς ἀπορίας· διὰ τίνα μὲν γὰρ αἰτίαν ἐν τῷ ἀέρι ἢ ἐν τῷ πυρὶ οὖσα ἡ ψυχή, οὐ ποιεῖ ζῶον· ἐν δὲ τοῖς μικτοῖς· καὶ ταῦτα, βελτίων ἐν τούτοις εἶναι δοκοῦσα. ἐπιζητήσειε γὰρ ἄν τις, καὶ διὰ τίνα αἰτίαν ἡ ἐν τῷ ἀέρι ψυχή, τῆς ἐν τοῖς ζώοις βελτίων ἐστὶ καὶ ἀθανατωτέρα. συμβαίνει δὲ ἀμφοτέρως ἄτοπον καὶ παράλογον· καὶ γὰρ τὸ λέγειν ζῶον τὸ πῦρ, ἢ τὸν ἀέρα, τῶν παραλογωτέρων ἐστί· καὶ μὴ λέγειν ζῶα, ψυχῆς ἐνούσης, ἄτοπον. 3 ὑπολαβεῖν δὲ ἐοίκασι τὴν ψυχὴν εἶναι ἐν τούτοις, ὅτι τὸ ὅλον τοῖς μορίοις ὁμοειδές. ὥστ' ἀναγκαῖον αὐτοῖς λέγειν καὶ τὴν ψυχὴν ὁμοειδῆ τοῖς μορίοις εἶναι, εἰ τῷ ὑπολαβεῖν τι τοῦ περιέχοντος ἐν τοῖς ζώοις, ἔμψυχα τὰ ζῶα γίνεται. εἰ δ' ὁ μὲν ἀὴρ διασπώμενος ὁμοειδής, ἡ δὲ ψυχὴ ἀνομοιομερής, τὸ μέν τι αὐτῆς ὑπάρξει, δῆλον ὅτι, τὸ δ' οὐχ ὑπάρξει. ἀναγκαῖον οὖν αὐτὴν ἢ ὁμοιομερῆ εἶναι, ἢ μὴ ἐνυπάρχειν ἐν ὁτῳοῦν μορίῳ τοῦ παντός. 4 φανερὸν οὖν ἐκ τῶν εἰρημένων ὡς οὔτε τὸ γινώσκειν ὑπάρχει τῇ ψυχῇ διὰ τὸ ἐκ τῶν στοιχείων εἶναι, οὔτε τὸ κινεῖσθαι αὐτὴν καλῶς, οὐδ' ἀληθῶς λέγεται.

D At verò in vniuerſo quidam eam permixtam eſſe aiunt. vnde fortaſſis etiam Thales putauit omnia eſſe Deorum plena. 2 Sed hoc habet aliquas dubitationes. nam quamobrem in aëre, aut in igne ſi ſit anima, non facit animal, in mixtis autem facit? præſertim cùm præſtantior in illis eſſe videatur. Quærere etiam aliquis poſſit, quamobrem anima, quæ eſt in aëre, ſit præſtantior, & magis immortalis, quàm ea quæ eſt in animalibus. vtroque autem modo euenit abſurdum & à ratione alienum: etenim dicere, ignem aut aërem eſſe animal, maximè à ratione abhorret: ac negare hæc eſſe animalia, cùm anima inſit, abſurdum eſt. 3 Videntur autem exiſtimaſſe in his eſſe animam: quia E totum eſt eiuſdem ſpeciei, cuius ſunt partes. quare neceſſe eſt, vt dicant animam quoque eiuſdem eſſe ſpeciei, cuius ſunt partes, ſi eò quòd pars aliqua corporis ambientis decerpitur in animalibus, animalia fiunt animata. quòd ſi aër diſcerptus conſtat partibus ſimilaribus, anima verò diſſimilaribus: profectò alia eius pars inerit, alia non inerit. Neceſſe igitur eſt, vel eam conſtare ex partibus ſimilaribus, vel non ineſſe in quauis parte vniuerſi.

De animæ vnitate, & operationibus. Cap. IX.

QVia verò animæ eſt cognoſcere, & ſentire, & opinari, præterea cupere, & conſultare, & omnino appetitus, quin etiam motus ſecundùm locum fit animalibus ab anima, præterea & auctio, & ſtatus, & deminutio; vtrùm toti animæ vnumquodque horum ineſt, & vniuerſâ intelligimus ac ſentimus, & vnumquodque aliorum facimus, ac patimur, an partibus aliis alia? 2 Et viuere eſtne in harum aliqua, an pluribus, an in omnibus, an alia quædam eſt cauſa? 3 Aiunt autem nonnulli eam eſſe partibilem, & alia parte intelligere, alia cupere. 4 Quid igitur tandem continet animam, ſi ſuâ naturâ eſt partibilis: profectò non corpus: nam potiùs è contrario videtur anima continere corpus; vnde eâ egreſſâ, euaneſcit, & putreſcit. quare ſi aliud quidpiam eam vnam facit, máxime anima illud erit. oportebit autem rurſus de eo quærere, vtrùm ſit vnum, an multipertitum. nam ſiquidem vnum ſit, cur non ſtatim etiam cenſendum eſt animam eſſe vnum. ſed ſi ſit partibile, rurſus ratio quæret, quid ſit, quod illud contineat. atque ita procedit in infinitum. 5 Dubitare etiam aliquis poſſit de eius partibus, quam vim quæque habeat in corpore. nam ſi tota anima continet vniuerſum corpus: conſentaneum eſt vt etiam vna quæque pars contineat aliquam partem corporis. ſed hoc videtur impoſſibile: quam enim partem, aut quomodo intellectus continebit, etiam fingere difficile eſt. 6 Videntur etiam plantæ diſſectæ viuere, nec non animalia quædam inſecta, tamquam habeant eandem animam ſpecie, quamuis non eandem numero. vtraque igitur pars habet ſenſum, & mouetur ſecundùm locum ad aliquod tempus. 7 Quòd ſi non perſeuerant, nihil eſt abſurdi: quia non habent organa, quibus naturam ſeruent: ſed nihilominus in vtraque parte inſunt omnes partes animæ: ſúntque eiuſdem ſpeciei inter ſe, cum tota anima. inter ſe, vtpote quæ non ſunt ſeparabiles. cum tota autem anima, vt pote quæ eſt diuidua. 8 Porrò & principium quod eſt in plantis, videtur eſſe anima quædam: hoc enim ſolum commune eſt & animalibus & plantis: atque hoc quidem ſeparatur à principio ſenſitiuo, ſed nihil ſine hoc ſenſum habet.

Ἐπειδὴ δὲ τὸ γινώσκειν ψυχῆς ἐστι, καὶ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαί τε, καὶ δοξάζειν· ἔτι δὲ τὸ ἐπιθυμεῖν, καὶ βουλεύεσθαι, καὶ ὅλως ὀρέξεις· γίνεται δὲ καὶ ἡ κατὰ τόπον κίνησις τοῖς ζῴοις ὑπὸ ψυχῆς· ἔτι δὲ αὔξησίς τε, καὶ ἀκμὴ, καὶ φθίσις, πότερον ὅλῃ τῇ ψυχῇ τούτων ἕκαστον ὑπάρχει, καὶ πάσῃ νοοῦμέν τε, καὶ αἰσθανόμεθα, [καὶ κινούμεθα] καὶ τῶν ἄλλων ἕκαστον ποιοῦμέν τε καὶ πάσχομεν, ἢ μορίοις ἑτέροις ἕτερα. 2 καὶ τὸ ζῆν δὲ πότερον ἔν τινι τούτων ἐστὶν ἑνὶ, ἢ καὶ ἐν πλείοσιν, ἢ καὶ ἐν πᾶσιν, ἢ καὶ ἄλλο τι αἴτιον. 3 λέγουσι δέ τινες μεριστὴν αὐτὴν εἶναι, καὶ ἄλλῳ μὲν νοεῖν, ἄλλῳ δὲ ἐπιθυμεῖν. 4 τί οὖν δή ποτε συνέχει τὴν ψυχὴν, εἰ μεριστὴ πέφυκεν; οὐ γὰρ δὴ γε τὸ σῶμα· δοκεῖ γὰρ τοὐναντίον μᾶλλον ἡ ψυχὴ τὸ σῶμα συνέχειν. ἐξελθούσης οὖν διαπνεῖται καὶ σήπεται. εἰ οὖν ἕτερόν τι μίαν αὐτὴν ποιεῖ, ἐκεῖνο μάλιστα ἂν εἴη ἡ ψυχή. δεήσει δὲ πάλιν κἀκεῖνο ζητεῖν, πότερον ἓν, ἢ πολυμερές. εἰ μὲν γὰρ ἓν, διὰ τί οὐκ εὐθὺς καὶ τὴν ψυχὴν ἓν εἶναι; εἰ δὲ μεριστὸν, πάλιν ὁ λόγος ζητήσει, τί τὸ συνέχον ἐκεῖνο, καὶ οὕτω δὴ πρόεισιν ἐπὶ τὸ ἄπειρον. 5 ἀπορήσειε δ' ἄν τις καὶ περὶ τῶν μορίων αὐτῆς, τίνα δύναμιν ἔχει ἕκαστον ἐν τῷ σώματι· εἰ γὰρ ὅλη ἡ ψυχὴ πᾶν τὸ σῶμα συνέχει, προσήκει καὶ τῶν μορίων ἕκαστον συνέχειν τι τοῦ σώματος. τοῦτο δ' ἔοικεν ἀδυνάτῳ· ποῖον γὰρ μόριον ἢ πῶς ὁ νοῦς συνέξει, χαλεπὸν καὶ πλάσαι. 6 Φαίνεται δὲ καὶ τὰ φυτὰ διαιρούμενα ζῆν· καὶ τῶν ζῴων ἔνια τῶν ἐντόμων, ὡς τὴν αὐτὴν ἔχοντα ψυχὴν τῷ εἴδει, εἰ καὶ μὴ ἀριθμῷ. ἑκάτερον γοῦν τῶν μορίων αἴσθησιν ἔχει, καὶ κινεῖται κατὰ τόπον ἐπί τινα χρόνον. 7 Εἰ δὲ μὴ διατελοῦσιν, οὐδὲν ἄτοπον· ὄργανα γὰρ οὐκ ἔχουσιν ὥστε σώζειν τὴν φύσιν. ἀλλ' οὐδὲν ἧττον ἐν ἑκατέρῳ τῶν μορίων ἅπαντα ἐνυπάρχει τὰ μόρια τῆς ψυχῆς· καὶ ὁμοειδῆ εἰσιν ἀλλήλοις, καὶ τῇ ὅλῃ· ἀλλήλων μὲν, ὡς οὐ χωριστὰ ὄντα· τῆς δὲ ὅλης ψυχῆς, ὡς διαιρετῆς οὔσης. 8 ἔοικε δὲ καὶ ἡ ἐν τοῖς φυτοῖς ἀρχὴ ψυχή τις εἶναι. μόνης γὰρ ταύτης κοινωνεῖ καὶ ζῷα καὶ φυτά. καὶ αὕτη μὲν χωρίζεται τῆς αἰσθητικῆς ἀρχῆς· αἴσθησιν δὲ οὐδὲν ἄνευ ταύτης ἔχει.

Animæ definitio prima. Cap. I.

A Τὰ μὲν δὴ ὑπὸ τῶν προτέρων παραδεδομένα περὶ ψυχῆς εἰρήσθω. πάλιν δὲ ὥσπερ ἐξ ὑπαρχῆς ἐπανίωμεν, πειρώμενοι διορίσαι τί ἐστι ψυχή, καὶ τίς ἂν εἴη κοινότατος λόγος αὐτῆς. 2. λέγομεν δὴ ἕν τι γένος τῶν ὄντων, τὴν οὐσίαν. 3. ταύτης δὲ τὸ μὲν ὡς ὕλην, ὃ καθ' αὑτὸ μὲν οὐκ ἔστι τόδε τι· ἕτερον δὲ, μορφὴν καὶ εἶδος, καθ' ἣν ἤδη λέγεται τόδε τι· καὶ τρίτον, τὸ ἐκ τούτων· ἔστι δὲ ἡ μὲν ὕλη, δύναμις· τὸ δὲ εἶδος, ἐντελέχεια. 4. καὶ τοῦτο, διχῶς· τὸ μὲν ὡς ἐπιστήμη, τὸ δὲ ὡς τὸ θεωρεῖν. 5. οὐσίαι δὲ μάλιστα εἶναι δοκοῦσι τὰ σώματα· καὶ τούτων τὰ φυσικά· ταῦτα γὰρ τῶν ἄλλων ἀρχαί. B 6. τῶν δὲ φυσικῶν, τὰ μὲν ἔχει ζωὴν, τὰ δὲ οὐκ ἔχει· ζωὴν δὲ λέγομεν τὴν δι' αὑτοῦ τροφήν τε, καὶ αὔξησιν, καὶ φθίσιν. 7. ὥστε πᾶν σῶμα φυσικὸν μετέχον ζωῆς, οὐσία ἂν εἴη· οὐσία δὲ οὕτως ὡς συνθέτη. 8. ἐπεὶ δὲ ἐστι σῶμα τοιόνδε, ζωὴν γὰρ ἔχον· οὐκ ἂν εἴη τὸ σῶμα ψυχή· οὐ γάρ ἐστι τῶν καθ' ὑποκειμένου τὸ σῶμα· μᾶλλον δὲ ὡς ὑποκείμενον καὶ ὕλη. 9. ἀναγκαῖον ἄρα τὴν ψυχὴν οὐσίαν εἶναι, ὡς εἶδος σώματος C φυσικοῦ δυνάμει ζωὴν ἔχοντος. 10. ἡ δὲ οὐσία ἐντελέχεια. τοιούτου ἄρα σώματος ἐντελέχεια. 11 αὕτη δὲ λέγεται διχῶς· ἡ μὲν ὡς ἐπιστήμη, ἡ δὲ ὡς τὸ θεωρεῖν. φανερὸν οὖν ὅτι ὡς ἐπιστήμη· ἐν γὰρ τῷ ὑπάρχειν τὴν ψυχὴν, ὕπνος καὶ ἐγρήγορσίς ἐστιν. ἀνάλογον δ' ἡ μὲν ἐγρήγορσις τῷ θεωρεῖν· ὁ δ' ὕπνος, τῷ ἔχειν καὶ μὴ ἐνεργεῖν. προτέρα δὲ τῇ * γενέσει ἐπὶ τοῦ αὐτοῦ, ἡ ἐπιστήμη. διὸ ψυχή ἐστιν ἐντελέχεια ἡ πρώτη σώματος φυσικοῦ ζωὴν ἔχοντος δυνάμει. 12. τοιοῦτον δὲ, ὃ ἂν ᾖ ὀργανικόν. ὄργανα δὲ καὶ τὰ τῶν φυτῶν D μέρη· ἀλλὰ παντελῶς ἁπλᾶ, οἷον τὸ φύλλον περικαρπίου σκέπασμα· τὸ δὲ περικάρπιον, καρποῦ. αἱ δὲ ῥίζαι τῷ στόματι ἀνάλογον· ἄμφω γὰρ ἕλκει τὴν τροφήν. 13. Εἰ δέ τι κοινὸν ἐπὶ πάσης ψυχῆς δεῖ λέγειν, εἴη ἂν ἡ πρώτη ἐντελέχεια σώματος φυσικοῦ ὀργανικοῦ. 14. διὸ καὶ οὐ δεῖ ζητεῖν, εἰ ἓν ἡ ψυχὴ καὶ τὸ σῶμα, ὥσπερ οὐδὲ τὸν κηρὸν καὶ τὸ σχῆμα, οὐδ' ὅλως τὴν ἑκάστου ὕλην καὶ τὸ οὗ ἡ ὕλη· τὸ γὰρ ἓν καὶ τὸ εἶναι ἐπεὶ πλεοναχῶς λέγεται, τὸ κυρίως ἡ ἐντελέχειά ἐστι.

A QVÆ igitur à prioribus tradita ſunt de anima, dicta ſunto. rurſus autem tamquam ab initio reuertamur, conantes definire quid ſit anima, & quæ ſit eius maximè communis definitio. 2 Dicimus igitur ſubſtantiam eſſe vnum quoddam entium genus. 3 Huius autem aliud eſſe vt materiam, quod per ſe nō eſt hoc aliquid: aliud verò formam & ſpeciem, ex qua iam dicitur hoc aliquid: ac tertium, quod ex his conſtat. iam verò materia eſt poteſtas: forma eſt actus. 4 Atque hæc bifariàm ſumitur: partim ſcili-B cet vt ſcientia, partim vt contemplari. 5 Maximè autem corpora videntur eſſe ſubſtantiæ: & ex his, ea quæ ſunt naturalia: quoniam hæc ſunt aliorum principia. 6 Naturalium verò corporum alia vitam habent, alia non habent. vitam autem dicimus nutritionem & auctionem, & deminutionem quæ per ſe ipſum fit. 7 Quapropter omne corpus naturale vitæ particeps, erit ſubſtantia: & ita ſubſtantia, vt compoſita. 8 Quoniam autem eſt corpus tale: vitā enim habet: certè corpus non poteſt eſſe anima: quia corpus non eſt in eorum numero quæ de ſubiecto dicuntur, ſed potiùs vt ſubiectum & materia. 9 Neceſſe eſt igitur animam eſſe ſubſtantiā, C tamquam formam corporis naturalis poteſtate vitam habentis. 10 Hæc autem ſubſtantia eſt actus: talis igitur corporis actus. 11 Hic autem bifariàm dicitur: partim ſcilicet vt ſcientia, partim vt contemplari. perſpicuum igitur eſt animam eſſe vt ſcientiam. nam eò quòd ineſt anima, eſt ſomnus & vigilia: proportione verò reſpondet, vigilia contemplationi, ſomnus autem habitui ſine operatione. ſed ortu in eodem prior eſt ſcientia. proinde anima eſt actus primus corporis naturalis vitam habentis poteſtate. 12 Tale autem eſt, quod eſt organicum, ac partes quoque plantarum ſunt organa, ſed D omnino ſimplicia. vt folium eſt integumentum corticis fructum obducentis: ille autem cortex eſt integumentum fructus: radices autem ori proportione reſpondent: ambo namque trahunt alimentum. 13 Quòd ſi commune aliquid de anima dicere oportet: erit vtique primus actus corporis naturalis organici. 14 Ideóque non oportet quærere, an anima & corpus ſint vnum: quemadmodum nec quærere oportet de cera & figura, aut omnino de cuiuſque rei materia & eo cuius eſt materia. cùm enim vnum, & eſſe, multipliciter dicatur: quod propriè dicitur, actus eſt.

15 Vniuerſaliter igitur dictum eſt quid ſit anima: A eſt enim eſſentia, quæ in ratione conſiſtit. hæc vero eſt quidditas corporis eiuſmodi: quemadmodum ſi inſtrumentum aliquod eſſet corpus naturale, veluti ſecuris. etenim eſſentia ſecuris eſſet eius ſubſtantia, & anima illud ipſum eſſet. hac enim ſeparatâ, non eſſet ampliùs ſecuris, niſi homonymωs. nunc verò eſt ſecuris: quoniam anima non eſt quidditas & ratio corporis huiuſmodi, ſed corporis naturalis eiuſmodi, quod in ſe habet principium motus & ſtatus. 16 Sed in partibus quoque diſpicere oportet, quod dictum fuit. nam ſi oculus eſſet animal: vtique aſpectus eſſet eius anima: hic B enim eſt eſſentia oculi, quæ in ratione conſiſtit: oculus verò eſt materia aſpectus: quo deficiente non eſt oculus, niſi homonymωs, quemadmodum lapideus, & pictus. quod igitur in parte dictum eſt, id oportet accipere, in toto corpore viuente. proportione enim ſe habet, vt pars ad partem, ſic totus ſenſus ad totum corpus ſenſitiuum, quà tale eſt. 17 Porrò non quod animam abiecit, ſed quod habet, eſt id quod poteſtatem habet ad viuendum. ſemen autem & fructus eſt poteſtate corpus tale. 18 Vt igitur ſectio & viſio, ita etiam vi- C gilia eſt actus. vt autem aſpectus & vis organi, ita eſt anima. corpus verò eſt, quod poteſtate eſt. ſed ſicut oculus eſt pupilla & aſpectus, ita illic animal eſt anima & corpus. 19 Animam igitur non eſſe ſeparabilem à corpore, aut partes quaſdam eius, ſi ſuâ naturâ eſt partibilis, non eſt obſcurum. quarundam enim actus eſt ipſarum partium. Verumtamen quaſdam ſeparabiles eſſe, nihil prohibet, quia nullius corporis ſunt actus. Præterea incertum eſt, an anima ita ſit actus corporis, vt nauta nauis. 20 Typo igitur ſic de anima definitum ac deſcriptum eſto.

A 15. καθόλου μὲν οὖν εἴρηται τί ἐστιν ἡ ψυχή· οὐσία γὰρ ἡ κατὰ τὸν λόγον. τοῦτο δὲ τὸ τί ἦν εἶναι τῷ τοιῳδὶ σώματι, καθάπερ εἴ τι τῶν ὀργάνων φυσικὸν ἦν σῶμα, οἷον πέλεκυς· ἦν γὰρ ἂν τὸ πελέκει εἶναι ἡ οὐσία αὐτοῦ, καὶ ἡ ψυχὴ τοῦτο· χωρισθείσης γὰρ ταύτης, οὐκ ἂν ἔτι πέλεκυς ἦν, ἀλλ' ἢ ὁμωνύμως. νῦν δ' ἐστὶ πέλεκυς· οὐ γὰρ τοιούτου σώματος τὸ τί ἦν εἶναι καὶ ὁ λόγος ἡ ψυχή· ἀλλὰ φυσικοῦ τοιουδὶ ἔχοντος ἀρχὴν κινήσεως καὶ στάσεως ἐν αὐτῷ. 16. θεωρεῖν δὲ καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν μερῶν δεῖ τὸ λεχθέν. εἰ γὰρ ἦν ὁ ὀφθαλμὸς ζῶον, ψυχὴ ἂν αὐτοῦ ἦν ἡ ὄψις· αὕτη B γὰρ οὐσία ὀφθαλμοῦ ἡ κατὰ τὸν λόγον. ὁ δ' ὀφθαλμὸς, ὕλη ὄψεως· ἧς ἀπολιπούσης, οὐκ ἔστιν ὀφθαλμὸς, πλὴν ὁμωνύμως, καθάπερ ὁ λίθινος καὶ γεγραμμένος. δεῖ δὴ λαβεῖν τὸ ἐπὶ μέρους ἐφ' ὅλου τοῦ ζῶντος σώματος· ἀνάλογον γὰρ ἔχει ὡς τὸ μέρος πρὸς τὸ μέρος, ἡ ὅλη αἴσθησις πρὸς τὸ ὅλον σῶμα τὸ αἰσθητικὸν, ᾗ τοιοῦτο. 17. ἔστι δὲ οὐ τὸ ἀποβεβληκὸς τὴν ψυχὴν, τὸ δυνάμει ὂν ὥστε ζῆν, ἀλλὰ τὸ ἔχον. τὸ δὲ σπέρμα καὶ ὁ καρπὸς, τὸ δυνάμει C τοιονδὶ σῶμα. 18. ὡς μὲν οὖν ἡ τμῆσις καὶ ἡ ὅρασις, οὕτω καὶ ἡ ἐγρήγορσις, ἐντελέχεια. ὡς δὲ ἡ ὄψις καὶ ἡ δύναμις τοῦ ὀργάνου, ἡ ψυχή· τὸ δὲ σῶμα, τὸ δυνάμει ὄν. ἀλλ' ὥσπερ ὁ ὀφθαλμὸς ἡ κόρη καὶ ἡ ὄψις, κἀκεῖ ἡ ψυχὴ καὶ τὸ σῶμα, τὸ ζῶον. 19. ὅτι μὲν οὖν οὐκ ἔστιν ἡ ψυχὴ χωριστὴ τοῦ σώματος, ἢ μέρη τινὰ αὐτῆς, εἰ μεριστὴ πέφυκεν, οὐκ ἄδηλον· ἐνίων γὰρ ἡ ἐντελέχεια τῶν μερῶν ἐστιν αὐτῶν. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ' ἔνιά γε οὐθὲν κωλύει, διὰ τὸ μηθενὸς εἶναι σώματος ἐντελεχείας. ἔτι δὲ ἄδηλον, εἰ οὕτως ἐντελέχεια τοῦ σώματος ἡ ψυχὴ, ὥσπερ πλωτὴρ πλοίου. 20. τύπῳ μὲν οὖν ταύτῃ διωρίσθω καὶ ὑπογεγράφθω περὶ ψυχῆς.

QVia verò ex iis quæ ſunt quidem obſcura, D magis tamen ſunt perſpicua, efficitur quod eſt manifeſtum, & ſecundùm rationem notius: conandum rurſus eſt, ita de ea diſſerere. non ſolùm enim oportet orationem definitiuam declarare quòd ſit, vt pleræque definitiones aiunt, ſed etiam cauſam ineſſe, & in ea apparere. nunc verò orationes definitiuæ ſunt tanquam concluſiones. verbi gratiâ: quid eſt tetragoniſmus? rectangulum æquilaterum eſſe æquale ei quod eſt altera parte longius. talis autem definitio rationem habet concluſionis. ſed quæ dicit tetragoniſmum eſſe inuentionem lineæ mediæ, cauſam rei dicit. 2 Dicamus igitur, principio conſiderationis accepto, animatum ab inanimato diſtingui eo quòd viuit. 3 Cùm autem viuere multis modis dicatur: etiam ſi vnum E quidpiam horum tantùm inſit, dicimus ipſum viuere, vt intellectus, ſenſus, motus & ſtatus ſecundùm locum: præterea motus ſecundùm nutritionem & deminutionem & auctionem. 4 Idcirco & omnia quæ ex terra oriuntur, viuere videntur. nam videntur in ſe habere vim ac principium tale, per quod auctionem & deminutionem accipiunt ſecundùm locos contrarios: non enim ſurſum quidem augentur, deorſum verò minimè, ſed æquè in ambas partes, & vſquequaque aluntur, ac viuunt vſque ad finem,

D Ἐπεὶ δ' ἐκ τῶν ἀσαφῶν μὲν, φανερωτέρων δὲ [ἡμῖν] γίγνεται τὸ σαφὲς καὶ κατὰ τὸν λόγον γνωριμώτερον, πειρατέον πάλιν οὕτως ἐπελθεῖν περὶ αὐτῆς· οὐ γὰρ μόνον τὸ ὅτι δεῖ τὸν ὁριστικὸν λόγον δηλοῦν, ὥσπερ οἱ πλεῖστοι τῶν ὅρων λέγουσιν, ἀλλὰ καὶ τὴν αἰτίαν ἐνυπάρχειν καὶ ἐμφαίνεσθαι. νῦν δὲ ὥσπερ συμπεράσματα οἱ λόγοι τῶν ὅρων εἰσίν· οἷον τί ἐστι τετραγωνισμός, τὸ ἴσον ἑτερομήκει ὀρθογώνιον εἶναι ἰσόπλευρον. ὁ δὲ τοιοῦτος ὅρος λόγος τοῦ συμπεράσματος. ὁ δὲ λέγων ὅτι ἐστὶ τετραγωνισμὸς μέσης * εὕρεσις, τοῦ πράγματος λέγει τὸ αἴτιον. 2. λέγομεν οὖν ἀρχὴν λαβόντες τῆς σκέψεως, διωρίσθαι τὸ ἔμψυχον E τοῦ ἀψύχου τῷ ζῆν. 3. πλεοναχῶς δὲ τοῦ ζῆν λεγομένου, κἂν ἕν τι τούτων ὑπάρχῃ μόνον, ζῆν λέγομεν αὐτὸ, οἷον νοῦς, αἴσθησις, κίνησις, καὶ στάσις ἡ κατὰ τόπον· ἔτι δὲ κίνησις ἡ κατὰ τροφὴν, καὶ φθίσιν τε, καὶ αὔξησιν. 4 διὸ καὶ τὰ φυόμενα πάντα δοκεῖ ζῆν· φαίνεται γὰρ ἐν αὐτοῖς ἔχοντα δύναμιν καὶ ἀρχὴν τοιαύτην, δι' ἧς αὔξησίν τε καὶ φθίσιν λαμβάνουσι κατὰ τοὺς ἐναντίους τόπους· οὐ γὰρ ἄνω μὲν αὔξεται, κάτω δὲ οὔ. ἀλλ' ὁμοίως ἐπ' ἄμφω καὶ * πάντῃ ὅσα ἀεὶ τρέφεται καὶ ζῇ διὰ τέλους,

A quandiu poſſunt ſumere alimentum. 5 Separari autem hoc quidem ab aliis, eſt poſſibile: alia verò ab hoc, impoſſibile in mortalibus. quod quidem perſpicuum eſt in plantis: quia nulla eis ineſt alia facultas animæ. 6 Viuere igitur propter hoc principium ineſt omnibus viuentibus. 7 Animal autem eſt propter ſenſum primò. nam & quæ non mouentur neque mutant locum, habent tamen ſenſum, ea dicimus eſſe animalia, non ſolùm viuere. 8 Ex ſenſibus autem ineſt primùm omnibus tactus. & quemadmodum nutritiuum poteſt ſeparari à tactu, & omni ſenſu: ita etiam tactus ſeparari poteſt ab aliis ſenſibus. 9 Nutritiuum autem principium dicimus eiuſmodi partem animæ, cuius & plantæ ſunt participes. omnia verò ani-B malia videntur habere ſenſum tactus. ſed quam ob cauſam vtrumque horum eueniat, poſteriùs dicemus. nunc verò in tantum dictum eſto duntaxat: quoniam anima eſt horum quæ dicta ſunt, principium, & his definitur, nutritiuo, ſenſitiuo, dianoëtico, motu. 10 Vtrùm autem horum quodque eſt anima, an pars animæ? & ſi eſt pars, vtrùm ita eſt, vt ſit ſeparabilis ratione tantùm, an etiam loco? 11 Sanè de quibuſdam non eſt difficile videre. ſed nonnulla dubitationem habent. ſicut enim in plantis quædam diuiſa & à ſe inuicem ſeparata viuere videntur, tanquam anima, quæ in ipſis ineſt, actu quidem vna ſit in quaque planta, poteſtate verò plures: ita etiam circa alias animæ differentias videmus accidere in inſectis, C quæ inciduntur: nam vtraque pars habet ſenſum & motum ſecũdum locum. quòd ſi ſenſum habet, certè & phantaſiam & appetitum habet: vbi namque eſt ſenſus, ibi & dolor & voluptas conſequitur: & vbi hæc ſunt, neceſſariò eſt etiam cupiditas. verùm de intellectu & contemplatiua facultate nondum eſt perſpicuum: ſed videtur eſſe aliud quoddam genus animæ, atque hoc ſolùm poſſe ſeparari, quemadmodum æternum ab eo quod eſt interitui obnoxium. reliquas verò animæ partes ex his patet non eſſe ſeparabiles, vt quidam aiunt. 12 Ratione autem diuerſas eſſe apparet: quoniam ſenſitiui & opinatiui eſſentia diuerſa eſt: ſiquidem & ſentire atque opinari differunt. Itidemque v-D numquodque aliorum quæ dicta ſunt. 13 Præterea nonnullis animalibus hæc omnia inſunt, quibuſdam verò aliqua, aliis vnum tantùm. hoc autem facit differentias animalium. ſed quam ob cauſſam, conſiderandum poſteriùs erit. 14 Simile quid in ſenſibus accidit: alia namque habent omnes ſenſus, alia quoſdam, alia vnum maximè neceſſarium, nempe tactum. 15 Quia verò id quo viuimus & ſentimus, bifariàm dicitur, quemadmodum id quo ſcimus: horum autem alterum dicimus eſſe ſcientiam, alterum verò animam: (vtroque enim horum dicimus ſcire) ſimiliterque id quo ſani ſumus, partim enim ſani E ſumus ſanitate, partim aliqua parte corporis, aut etiam toto corpore: ſanè ex his ſcientia & ſanitas eſt forma & ſpecies quædam ac ratio, & tamquam actus eorum quæ ſuſcipiendi vim habent, illa ſcilicet eius quod ſcire, hæc verò eius quod ſanum eſſe poteſt. videtur enim in eo quod patitur & afficitur, eorum quæ efficiendi vim habent, actus ineſſe. 16 Anima verò eſt id quo viuimus, & ſentimus, & intelligimus primò. quocirca eſt ratio quædam & forma, non vt materia & ſubiectum. 17 Cùm enim tribus modis dicatur ſubſtãtia, ſicut diximus:

quorum aliud eſt forma, aliud materia, aliud ex vtriſque compoſitum: ex his materia eſt potentia, forma verò actus. quoniam autem quod ex vtriſque conſtat, animatum eſt: profectò non corpus eſt actus animæ, ſed ipſa corporis cuiuſdam. 18 Ideóque rectè exiſtimant, quibus videtur anima nec ſine corpore, nec aliquod corpus eſſe. non eſt enim corpus, ſed aliquid corporis. 19 Ideóque in corpore ineſt, & quidem in corpore tali, non vt priores in corpus eam aptabant: cùm nihil antea definiuiſſent in quo & quali corpore: quamuis non videatur quodlibet recipere quodlibet. ſic verò fit ſecundùm rationem: quippe natura comparatum eſt, vt cuiuſque rei actus in eo inſit quod eſt poteſtate & in propria materia. 20 Eſſe igitur actum quendam & rationem eius quod habet poteſtatem vt tale ſit, ex his eſt perſpicuum.

De facultatibus animæ. Cap. III.

FAcultates autem animæ quæ dictæ ſunt, quibuſdam inſunt omnes, vt antea diximus, quibuſdam nonnullæ earum, quibuſdam vna tantùm. facultates autem diximus, nutritiuum, ſenſitiuum, appetitiuum, motiuum ſecundùm locum, & dianoëticum. 2 Ac plantis quidem ineſt nutritiuum ſolum. 3 Aliis verò & ipſum ineſt, & ſenſitiuum. quòd ſi ſenſitiuum, certè ineſt etiam appetitiuum: appetitus enim eſt cupiditas & ira & voluntas. cuncta verò animalia vnum habent ſenſum, id est, tactum. cui autem ſenſus ineſt, ei voluptas quoque ac dolor, nec non iucundum & moleſtum ineſt: ſed quibus hæc inſunt, etiam cupiditas ineſt: quandoquidem hæc eſt appetitus iucundi. 4 Præterea alimenti ſenſum habent. nam tactus alimenti eſt ſenſus: omnia namque animalia ſiccis & humidis, nec non calidis & frigidis aluntur: horum autem ſenſus eſt tactus: aliorum verò ſenſilium eſt ex accidenti: quia nihil ad alimentum confert ſonus, neque color, neque odor. ſapor autem eſt vnum quiddam ex iis quæ ſub tactum cadunt. fames verò & ſitis eſt cupiditas: nempe fames, calidi & ſicci: ſitis autē humidi & frigidi: ſapor verò eſt veluti quoddam horum condimentum. verùm poſtea de his dilucidiùs tradendum erit. nunc eatenus definitū eſto, quòd iis animalibus quæ tactum habēt, etiam appetitus ineſt. 5 De phantaſia verò non conſtat: ſed poſteriùs conſiderandum erit. 6 Nonnullis autem præter hæc ineſt motiuum ſecundùm locū. 7 Aliis verò etiam dianoëticū & intellectus vt hominibus, & ſi quid aliud eſt tale, aut etiam præſtantius. 8 Patet igitur, eodem modo vnam eſſe poſſe definitionem animæ & figuræ. neque enim illic eſt figura præter triangulum & figuras quæ deinceps ſunt, neque hìc eſt anima præter eas quæ commemoratæ fuerunt. fieri tamen poteſt & in figuris definitio communis, quæ conueniet omnibus, nec propria erit vllius figuræ: & ſimiliter in dictis animabus. Idcirco ridiculum eſt omiſſa eiuſmodi definitione quærere cùm in his tum in aliis definitionem communem, quæ nullius entis ſit propria definitio, neque ſit ſecundùm propriam & indiuiduam ſpeciem. 9 Similiter autem res habet in figuris & in anima: ſemper enim in eo quod eſt deinceps, poteſtate illud ineſt quod eſt prius, tam in figuris, quàm in animatis:

Viuere autem, viuentibus eſt eſſe: horum autem cauſa & principium eſt anima. 5 Præterea actus eſt ratio eius quod eſt poteſtate.

A 6 Patet etiam animam eſſe cauſam vt id cuius gratiâ. ſicut enim intellectus gratiâ alicuius facit: ita etiam natura: idque eſt ipſi finis. eiuſmodi autem in animalibus anima eſt ſecundùm naturam: omnia namque corpora naturalia ſunt animæ inſtrumenta, vt corpora animalium, ſic etiam plantarum, tamquam animæ gratiâ ſint. bifariàm autem dicitur id cuius gratiâ: nempe id quod appetitur, & id cui. 7 Quinetiam anima eſt, id vnde primùm motus ſecundùm locum procedit. ſed non omnibus viuentibus ineſt hæc facultas. 8 ſed & variatio & auctio eſt ſecundùm animam. videtur enim ſenſus eſſe variatio quædam: nihil autem ſentire, quod animam non habeat. 9 Similiter autem & de auctione & de deminutione res ſe habet: nihil etiam deminuitur, aut augetur naturaliter
B quod non alatur: nihil autem alitur, quod non ſit vitæ particeps. 10 Empedocles verò non rectè hoc dixit, adiiciens auctionem, plantis accidere, deorſum quidem, dum radices emittunt, quia terra ſic fertur ſecundùm naturam, ſurſum autem propter ignem ſimili ratione. neque enim ſuperum & inferum rectè accipit: quia non eſt idem omnibus ſuperum atque inferum, & vniuerſo: ſed vt caput animalium ſe habet, ita radices plantarum, ſi oportet ex officiis inſtrumenta dicere eadem & diuerſa. 11 Ad hæc, quid eſt quod continet ignem & terram, quæ in contrarias partes feruntur? diſtrahentur enim, niſi quid fuerit quod ſit impeditu-
C rum. ſi verò fuerit, certe hoc eſt anima, & cauſa cur res augeantur & alantur. 12 Quibuſdam autem videtur ignis natura eſſe ſimpliciter cauſa alimenti, & auctionis: ipſe enim ſolus inter corpora, ſiue elementa, videtur ali & augeri. quare & in plantis & in animalibus exiſtimare aliquis poſſit hunc eſſe qui operetur. 13 Hic autem eſt quidem aliquo modo concauſa, non tamen ſimpliciter cauſa: ſed potiùs anima. nam ignis auctio in infinitum procedit, donec ſit res combuſtibilis: eorum verò quæ natura conſtant, terminus eſt & ratio magnitudinis & auctionis: atque hæc ſunt animæ, non ignis, & potiùs rationis quàm materiæ. 14 Quoniam au-D tem eadem facultas animæ eſt nutritiua & generatiua: neceſſe eſt de alimento primùm definire: hoc enim opere ſeiungitur ab aliis facultatibus.

15 Porrò alimentum eſſe videtur contrarium contrario: non tamen quoduis cuiuis, ſed quæcumque contraria non ſolùm ex ſe inuicem gignuntur, ſed etiam augentur: multa namq; ex ſe viciſſim fiunt: non tamen omnia fiunt quanta. vt ſanum ex ægrotante. quin immo ne illa quidem videntur eodem modo ſibi inuicem eſſe alimenta: ſed igni quidem aqua eſt alimentum: ignis verò non alit aquam. in ſimplicibus itaque corporibus hæc maximè eſſe videntur: hoc quidem, alimẽtum: illud verò, id quod
E alitur. 16 Exiſtit autem dubitatio: quia nonnulli inquiunt ſimile ſimili ali, quemadmodum & augeri. 17 Contrà quibuſdam videtur, vt diximus, contrarium ali contrario: tamquam ſimile non poſſit pati à ſimili: alimentum autem mutetur, & concoquatur: mutatio verò in omnibus eſt in id quod eſt oppoſitum, aut quod eſt interiectum. 18 Præterea alimentum patitur aliquid ab eo quod alitur, non hoc ab alimento: quemadmodum nec faber patitur à materia, ſed hæc ab illo. faber autem tantùm mutatur ab otio ad negotium. 19 Intereſt autem, vtrùm alimentum ſit id quod vltimũ accedit,

De ſenſu. Cap. V.

Διωρισμένων δὲ τούτων, λέγωμεν κοινῇ περὶ πάσης αἰσθήσεως. 2 ἡ δὲ αἴσθησις ἐν τῷ κινεῖσθαί τε καὶ πάσχειν συμβαίνει, καθάπερ εἴρηται· δοκεῖ γὰρ ἀλλοίωσίς τις εἶναι. 3 φασὶ δέ τινες καὶ τὸ ὅμοιον ὑπὸ τοῦ ὁμοίου πάσχειν. τοῦτο δὲ πῶς δυνατὸν ἢ ἀδύνατον, εἰρήκαμεν καὶ ἐν τοῖς καθόλου λόγοις περὶ τοῦ ποιεῖν καὶ πάσχειν. 4 ἔχει δὲ ἀπορίαν, διὰ τί οὐ καὶ τῶν αἰσθήσεων αὐτῶν γίνεται αἴσθησις, καὶ διὰ τί ἄνευ τῶν ἔξω οὐ ποιοῦσιν αἴσθησιν, ἐνόντος πυρὸς καὶ γῆς, καὶ τῶν ἄλλων στοιχείων, ὧν ἐστὶν ἡ αἴσθησις καθ' αὑτά, ἢ τὰ συμβεβηκότα τούτοις. δῆλον οὖν ὅτι τὸ αἰσθητικὸν οὐκ ἔστιν ἐνεργείᾳ, ἀλλὰ δυνάμει μόνον. διόπερ οὐκ αἰσθάνεται· καθάπερ τὸ καυστὸν οὐ καίεται αὐτὸ καθ' αὑτὸ ἄνευ τοῦ καυστικοῦ· ἔκαιε γὰρ ἂν ἑαυτό, καὶ οὐδὲν ἐδεῖτο τοῦ ἐντελεχείᾳ πυρὸς ὄντος. 5 ἐπεὶ δὲ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαι λέγομεν διχῶς· τό, τε γὰρ δυνάμει ἀκοῦον καὶ ὁρῶν, ἀκούειν καὶ ὁρᾶν λέγομεν, κἂν τύχῃ καθεῦδον· καὶ τὸ ἤδη ἐνεργοῦν· διχῶς ἂν λέγοιτο καὶ ἡ αἴσθησις· ἡ μὲν ὡς δυνάμει, ἡ δὲ ὡς ἐνεργείᾳ. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαι, τό, τε δυνάμει ὂν, καὶ τὸ ἐνεργείᾳ. 6 πρῶτον μὲν οὖν ὡς τοῦ αὐτοῦ ὄντος τοῦ πάσχειν, καὶ τοῦ κινεῖσθαι, καὶ τοῦ ἐνεργεῖν, λέγωμεν.

D HIS definitis, dicamus communiter de omni ſenſu. 2 Senſus accidit, eò quòd aliquid mouetur & patitur, ſicuti dictum fuit: videtur enim eſſe variatio quædam. 3 Inquiunt autem nonnulli etiam ſimile pati à ſimili. hoc verò quomodo ſit poſſibile, vel impoſſibile, diximus in ſermonibus vniuerſalibus de agendo & patiendo. 4 Exiſtit autem dubitatio, cur non fiat ſenſus etiam ipſorum ſenſuum, & cur ſine externis non faciant ſenſum, cùm inſit ignis, ac terra, & cetera elementa, quorum eſt ſenſus per ſe, vel per ea quæ ipſis accidunt. Patet igitur, ſenſitiuum non eſſe actu, ſed poteſtate tantum. proinde non ſentit: quemadmodum combuſtibile non comburitur ipſum per ſe ſine combuſtiuo: B combureret enim ſeipſum, nec quicquam egeret eius quod actu ſit ignis. 5 Cùm autem ſentire dicamus bifariàm: nã & quod poteſtate audit & videt: dicimus audire & videre, etiamſi fortè dormiat, & quod iam actu operatur: bifariàm quoque dicetur ſenſus: alter ſcilicet, vt poteſtate: alter, vt actu. Similiter autem dicitur & ſentire: nempe & quod eſt poteſtate, & quod actu. 6 Primùm igitur ſic loquimur, quaſi idem ſit pati ac moueri & operari.

Etenim

A Etenim motus quoque eſt actus quidam, ſed imperfectus, vt in aliis libris dictum fuit. 7 Omnia verò patiuntur & mouentur ab eo quod efficiendi vim habet & actu eſt. idcirco partim à ſimili patiūtur, partim à diſſimili, ſicuti diximus: patitur enim, quod eſt diſſimile: cùm autem paſſum eſt, ſimile eſt. 9 Diſtinguendum porrò eſt & de poteſtate, & de actu: nunc enim de his ſimpliciter loquimur. eſt enim aliquid ita ſciens, vt ſi dicamus hominem ſcientem, quoniam homo eſt in eorum numero quæ ſciūnt & habent ſcientiam: eſt præterea ſciens, ſicut iam dicimus eum ſcientē, qui nouit grammaticam. horum autem vterque non eodem modo poteſtate B ſciendi præditus eſt: ſed ille, quia tale eſt genus, & materia: hic verò, quia, cùm voluerit, contemplari poterit, niſi quid externū impediet. alius verò cùm ſit actu & propriè ſciens, iam contemplatur hoc α. ambo igitur priores poteſtate ſcientes ſunt: ſed alter per diſciplinam variatus, & ſæpius ex contrario habitu mutatus: alter verò ex eo quòd ſenſum vel grammaticam ſine operatione habeat, in operantem mutatus eſt alio modo. 9 Quin nec pati eſt ſimplex: ſed aliud eſt vt interitus quidam à contrario: aliud verò potiùs vt ſalus eius quod eſt poteſtate, ab eo quod eſt actu & ſimili, quemadmodum poteſtas ſe habet ad actum. id enim quod ſcientiam habet, contemplans euadit: quod quidem aut non C eſt variari, (quoniam acceſſio in ipſum eſt, & in actum) aut eſt alterum genus variationis. Idcirco non rectè dicitur, id quod prudentis munere fungitur, quando ſapit, variari: ſicuti nec ædificatorem, quando ædificat. quod ergo in actum ducit ex eo quod eſt poteſtate, quantum ad id, quod intelligit & prudentis munere fungitur, non doctrinam vocari, ſed aliam appellationem habere par eſt. quod autem cùm ſit poteſtate, diſcit & accipit ſcientiam ab eo quod eſt actu & docendi vim habet, vel dicendum eſt non pati, ſicut dictū fuit, vel duos eſſe modos variationis, id eſt, mutationē in priuatiuas diſpoſitiones, & mutationem in habitus ac naturam. 10 Senſitiui autem prima quidem mutatio fit à gene- D rante, cùm autem genitum fuerit, iam habet ſenſum, veluti ſcientiam. ſed & ſentire actu itidem dicitur atque contemplari. 11 Differunt autem: quoniam ea quæ hūnc (id eſt ſenſum) ad actum deducendi vim habent, extrà ſunt, vt aſpectabile, & audibile, itidémque cetera ſenſibilia. cauſa eſt: quia ſenſus qui eſt actu, ſingularium eſt: ſcientia verò eſt vniuerſalium, quæ ſunt quodammodo in ipſa anima. 12 Idcirco ipſius poteſtate eſt, vt intelligat quādo velit: ſentire autem non eſt in ipſius poteſtate, quia neceſſe eſt adeſſe rem ſenſibilem. Similiter autem hoc habet etiam in ſciētiis rerum ſenſibilium, & ob eandem cauſam, quia ſenſibilia ſunt in rerum ſingularium & externarum numero. 13 Sed de his E quidem dilucidiùs agendi occaſio iterum dabitur: nunc in tantum definita ſunto: quia cùm id quod dicitur poteſtate, non ſit ſimplex, ſed partim vt ſi dicamus puerum poſſe exercitum ducere, partim vt ſi dicamus eum qui eſt ætate idonea: ita etiam ſe habet ſenſitiuum. Quia verò eorum differentia nomine caret, expoſitúmque eſt ea eſſe diuerſa, & quomodo ſint diuerſa: neceſſe eſt igitur, his pati & variari, quaſi propriis nominibus vti. 14 Porrò ſenſitiuum, tale eſt poteſtate, quale eſt ſenſibile iam actu, quemadmodum dictum fuit. patitur ergo, cùm non ſit ſimile. cùm autem perpeſſum eſt, ſimile eſt factum, & quale eſt illud.

καὶ γάρ ἐστιν ἡ κίνησις ἐνέργειά τις, ἀτελὴς μέντοι, καθάπερ ἐν ἑτέροις εἴρηται. 7 Πάντα δὲ πάσχει καὶ κινεῖται ὑπὸ τοῦ ποιητικοῦ καὶ ἐνεργείᾳ ὄντος. διὸ ἔστι μὲν ὡς ὑπὸ τοῦ ὁμοίου πάσχει, ἔστι δὲ ὡς ὑπὸ τοῦ ἀνομοίου, καθάπερ εἴπομεν· πάσχει μὲν γὰρ τὸ ἀνόμοιον ὄν, πεπονθὸς δὲ ὅμοιόν ἐστι. 8 Διαιρετέον δὲ καὶ περὶ δυνάμεως καὶ ἐντελεχείας· νῦν γὰρ ἁπλῶς λέγομεν περὶ αὐτῶν. ἔστι μὲν γὰρ οὕτως ἐπιστῆμόν τι, ὡς ἂν εἴποιμεν ἄνθρωπον ἐπιστήμονα, ὅτι ὁ ἄνθρωπος τῶν ἐπιστημόνων καὶ τῶν ἐχόντων ἐπιστήμην. ἔστι δὲ ὡς ἤδη λέγομεν ἐπιστήμονα τὸν ἔχοντα τὴν γραμματικήν· ἑκάτερος δὲ τούτων οὐ τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον δυνατός ἐστιν· ἀλλ᾽ ὁ μὲν, ὅτι τὸ γένος τοιοῦτον καὶ ἡ ὕλη· ὁ δὲ, ὅτι βουληθεὶς δυνατὸς θεωρεῖν, ἂν μή τι κωλύσῃ τῶν ἔξωθεν. ὁ δ᾽ ἤδη θεωρῶν, ἐντελεχείᾳ ὢν καὶ κυρίως ἐπιστάμενος, τόδε τὸ α. ἀμφότεροι μὲν οὖν οἱ πρῶτοι κατὰ δύναμιν ἐπιστήμονες, ἀλλ᾽ ὁ μὲν διὰ μαθήσεως ἀλλοιωθεὶς, καὶ πολλάκις ἐξ ἐναντίας μεταβαλὼν ἕξεως· ὁ δὲ ἐκ τοῦ ἔχειν τὴν αἴσθησιν ἢ τὴν γραμματικὴν, μὴ ἐνεργεῖν δὲ, εἰς τὸ ἐνεργεῖν ἄλλον τρόπον. 9 Οὐκ ἔστι δὲ ἁπλοῦν οὐδὲ τὸ πάσχειν, ἀλλὰ τὸ μὲν φθορά τις ὑπὸ τοῦ ἐναντίου, τὸ δὲ σωτηρία μᾶλλον τοῦ δυνάμει ὄντος, ὑπὸ τοῦ ἐντελεχείᾳ ὄντος καὶ ὁμοίου, οὕτως ὡς δύναμις ἔχει πρὸς ἐντελέχειαν. θεωροῦν γὰρ γίνεται τὸ ἔχον τὴν ἐπιστήμην, ὅπερ ἢ οὐκ ἔστιν ἀλλοιοῦσθαι (εἰς αὐτὸ γὰρ ἡ ἐπίδοσις καὶ εἰς ἐντελέχειαν) ἢ ἕτερον γένος ἀλλοιώσεως. διὸ οὐ καλῶς ἔχει λέγειν τὸ φρονοῦν, ὅταν φρονῇ, ἀλλοιοῦσθαι· ὥσπερ οὐδὲ τὸν οἰκοδόμον ὅταν οἰκοδομῇ. τὸ μὲν οὖν εἰς ἐντελέχειαν ἄγον ἐκ δυνάμει ὄντος, κατὰ τὸ νοοῦν καὶ φρονοῦν, οὐ διδασκαλίαν, ἀλλ᾽ ἑτέραν ἐπωνυμίαν ἔχειν δίκαιον. τὸ δ᾽ ἐκ δυνάμει ὄντος μανθάνον καὶ λαμβάνον ἐπιστήμην ὑπὸ τοῦ ἐντελεχείᾳ ὄντος καὶ διδασκαλικοῦ, ἤτοι οὐδὲ πάσχειν φατέον, ὥσπερ εἴρηται· ἢ δύο τρόπους εἶναι ἀλλοιώσεως, τήν τε ἐπὶ τὰς στερητικὰς διαθέσεις μεταβολὴν, καὶ τὴν ἐπὶ τὰς ἕξεις καὶ τὴν φύσιν. 10 Τοῦ δὲ αἰσθητικοῦ, ἡ μὲν πρώτη μεταβολὴ γίνεται ὑπὸ τοῦ γεννῶντος. ὅταν δὲ γεννηθῇ, ἔχει ἤδη ὥσπερ ἐπιστήμην, καὶ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαι. καὶ τὸ κατ᾽ ἐνέργειαν δὲ, ὁμοίως λέγεται τῷ θεωρεῖν. 11 Διαφέρει δὲ, ὅτι τοῦ μὲν τὰ ποιητικὰ τῆς ἐνεργείας, ἔξωθεν, τὸ ὁρατὸν, καὶ τὸ ἀκουστόν· ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τὰ λοιπὰ τῶν αἰσθητῶν. αἴτιον δὲ, ὅτι τῶν καθ᾽ ἕκαστον ἡ κατ᾽ ἐνέργειαν αἴσθησις, ἡ δ᾽ ἐπιστήμη τῶν καθόλου. ταῦτα δὲ ἐν αὐτῇ πως ἐστὶ τῇ ψυχῇ. 12 Διὸ νοῆσαι μὲν ἐπ᾽ αὐτῷ, ὁπόταν βούληται· αἰσθάνεσθαι δὲ, οὐκ ἐπ᾽ αὐτῷ· ἀναγκαῖον γὰρ ὑπάρχειν τὸ αἰσθητόν. ὁμοίως δὲ τοῦτ᾽ ἔχει κἂν ταῖς ἐπιστήμαις ταῖς τῶν αἰσθητῶν, καὶ διὰ τὴν αὐτὴν αἰτίαν, ὅτι τὰ αἰσθητὰ τῶν καθ᾽ ἕκαστα καὶ τῶν ἔξωθεν. 13 Ἀλλὰ περὶ μὲν τούτων διασαφῆσαι, καιρὸς γένοιτ᾽ ἂν καὶ εἰσαῦθις. νῦν δὲ διωρίσθω τοσοῦτον, ὅτι οὐχ ἁπλοῦ ὄντος τοῦ δυνάμει λεγομένου, ἀλλὰ τοῦ μὲν, ὥσπερ ἂν εἴποιμεν τὸν παῖδα δύνασθαι στρατηγεῖν, τοῦ δὲ, ὡς τὸν ἐν ἡλικίᾳ ὄντα· οὕτως ἔχει τὸ αἰσθητικόν. ἐπεὶ δ᾽ ἀνώνυμος αὐτῶν ἡ διαφορά, διώρισται δὲ περὶ αὐτῶν ὅτι ἕτερα, καὶ πῶς ἕτερα· χρῆσθαι δ᾽ ἀναγκαῖον τῷ πάσχειν καὶ ἀλλοιοῦσθαι, ὡς κυρίοις ὀνόμασι. 14 Τὸ δ᾽ αἰσθητικὸν, δυνάμει ἐστὶν, οἷον τὸ αἰσθητὸν ἤδη ὡς ἐντελεχείᾳ, καθάπερ εἴρηται· πάσχει μὲν οὖν οὐχ ὅμοιον ὄν, πεπονθὸς δὲ ὡμοίωται, καὶ ἔστιν οἷον ἐκεῖνο.

Diſtinctio ſenſibilium. Cap. VI.

A Λεκτέον δὲ καθ' ἑκάστην αἴσθησιν περὶ τῶν αἰσθητῶν πρῶτον. 2 Λέγεται δὲ τὸ αἰσθητὸν τριχῶς, ὧν δύο μὲν καθ' αὑτά φαμεν αἰσθάνεσθαι, τὸ δὲ ἓν, κατὰ συμβεβηκός. τῶν δὲ δύο, τὸ μὲν ἴδιόν ἐστιν ἑκάστης αἰσθήσεως, τὸ δὲ κοινὸν πασῶν. 3 Λέγω δ' ἴδιον μὲν, ὃ μὴ ἐνδέχεται ἑτέρᾳ αἰσθήσει αἰσθάνεσθαι, καὶ περὶ ὃ μὴ ἐνδέχεται ἀπατηθῆναι, οἷον ὄψις χρώματος, καὶ ἀκοὴ ψόφου, καὶ γεῦσις χυμοῦ. ἡ δ' ἁφὴ, πλείους μὲν ἔχει διαφοράς· ἀλλ' ἑκάστη γε κρίνει περὶ τούτων, καὶ οὐκ ἀπατᾶται ὅτι χρῶμα, οὐδ' ὅτι ψόφος, ἀλλὰ τί τὸ κεχρωσμένον, ἢ ποῦ, ἢ τί τὸ ψοφοῦν, ἢ ποῦ. τὰ μὲν οὖν τοιαῦτα λέγεται B ἴδια ἑκάστου. 4 Κοινὰ δὲ, κίνησις, ἠρεμία, ἀριθμὸς, σχῆμα, μέγεθος· τὰ γὰρ τοιαῦτα οὐδεμιᾶς ἐστιν ἴδια, ἀλλὰ κοινὰ πάσαις· καὶ γὰρ καὶ ἁφῇ κίνησίς ἐστί τις αἰσθητὴ, καὶ ὄψει. καθ' αὑτὰ μὲν οὖν ἐστιν αἰσθητὰ ταῦτα. 5 Κατὰ συμβεβηκὸς δὲ λέγεται αἰσθητὸν, οἷον εἰ τὸ λευκὸν* εἴη Διάρους υἱός· κατὰ συμβεβηκὸς γὰρ τούτου αἰσθάνεται, ὅτι τῷ λευκῷ συμβέβηκε τοῦτο οὗ αἰσθάνεται. 6 Διὸ καὶ οὐδὲν πάσχει ᾗ τοιοῦτον ὑπὸ τοῦ αἰσθητοῦ. τῶν δὲ καθ' αὑτὰ αἰσθητῶν, τὰ ἴδια κυρίως ἐστὶν αἰσθητὰ, καὶ πρὸς ἃ ἡ οὐσία πέφυκεν ἑκάστης αἰσθήσεως.

A Dicendum autem eſt in vnoquoque ſenſu primùm de ſenſibilibus. 2 Dicitur autem ſenſibile tribus modis: quorum duo dicimus per ſe ſentiri, vnum ex accidenti. illorum autem duorum alterum eſt proprium cuiuſque ſenſus, alterũ commune omnibus. 3 Proprium appello quod non poteſt alio ſenſu ſentiri, & circa quod non contingit decipi: vt aſpectus eſt coloris: & auditus, ſoni: & guſtus, ſaporis: tactus verò plures habet differentias. ſed vnuſquiſque ſenſus de his iudicat: nec decipitur, quòd ſit color, vel quòd ſit ſonus: ſed quid ſit, quod eſt coloratum, vel vbi ſit: aut quid ſit quod ſonat, vel vbi ſit. Quæ igitur ſunt eiuſmodi, dicun- B tur propria cuiuſque ſenſus. 4 Communia verò ſunt, motus, quies, numerus, figura, magnitudo. nam quæ ſunt eiuſmodi, nullius ſenſus ſunt propria, ſed communia omnibus. Etenim tactu quoque motus aliquis eſt ſenſibilis, & aſpectu: hæc igitur ſunt per ſe ſenſibilia. 5 Ex accidenti autem ſenſibili dicitur: veluti ſi album ſit Diaris filius: ex accidenti enim hoc ſentimus, quoniam albo, quod ſentimus, hoc accidit. 6 Ideóque nihil patitur à ſenſibili, quatenus eſt tale. Inter ea verò quæ ſunt per ſe ſenſibilia, ea propriè ſunt ſenſibilia, quæ propria ſunt, & ad quæ eſſentia cuiuſque ſenſus ſuapte naturâ refertur.

ΟΥ μὲν οὖν ἐστιν ἡ ὄψις, τοῦτ' ἐστὶν ὁρατόν· ὁρατὸν C δ' ἐστὶ, χρῶμά τε, καὶ ὃ λόγῳ μέν ἐστιν εἰπεῖν, ἀνώνυμον δὲ τυγχάνει ὄν. δῆλον δὲ ἔσται ὃ λέγομεν προελθοῦσι μάλιστα. 3 Τὸ γὰρ ὁρατὸν ὃ λεγόμενον, ἐστι χρῶμα. τοῦτο δὲ ἐστι τὸ ἐπὶ τοῦ καθ' αὑτὸ ὁρατοῦ· καθ' αὑτὸ δὲ, οὐ τῷ λόγῳ, ἀλλ' ὅτι ἐν ἑαυτῷ ἔχει τὸ αἴτιον τοῦ εἶναι ὁρατόν. 4 Πᾶν δὲ χρῶμα κινητικόν ἐστι τοῦ κατ' ἐνέργειαν διαφανοῦς. καὶ τοῦτ' ἐστιν αὐτοῦ ἡ φύσις. 5 Διόπερ οὐχ ὁρατὸν ἄνευ φωτὸς, ἀλλὰ πάντως ἕκαστον χρῶμα ἐν φωτὶ ὁρατόν. 6 Διὸ περὶ φωτὸς πρῶτον λεκτέον τί ἐστιν. 7 Ἔστι δή τι διαφανές. 8 Διαφανὲς δὲ λέγω, ὃ ἐστι μὲν ὁρατὸν, οὐ καθ' αὑτὸ δὲ ὁρατὸν, ὡς ἁπλῶς εἰπεῖν, D ἀλλὰ δι' ἀλλότριον χρῶμα. 9 Τοιοῦτον δέ ἐστιν ἀὴρ, καὶ ὕδωρ, καὶ πολλὰ τῶν στερεῶν. οὐ γὰρ ᾗ ὕδωρ, οὐδ' ᾗ ἀὴρ, διαφανές· ἀλλ' ὅτι ἐστὶ φύσις ἐνυπάρχουσα ἡ αὐτὴ ἐν τούτοις ἀμφοτέροις, καὶ ἐν τῷ ἀϊδίῳ τῷ ἄνω σώματι. 10 Φῶς δέ ἐστιν ἡ τούτου ἐνέργεια τοῦ διαφανοῦς ᾗ διαφανές. 11 Δυνάμει δὲ ἐν οἷς τοῦτό ἐστι, καὶ τὸ σκότος. 12 Τὸ δὲ φῶς, οἷον χρῶμά ἐστι τοῦ διαφανοῦς, ὅταν ᾖ ἐντελεχείᾳ διαφανὲς ὑπὸ πυρὸς, ἢ τοιούτου, οἷον τὸ ἄνω σῶμα. καὶ γὰρ τούτῳ τι ὑπάρχει ἓν καὶ ταὐτόν. 13 Τί μὲν οὖν τὸ διαφανὲς, καὶ τί τὸ φῶς, εἴρηται· ὅτι οὔτε πῦρ, οὔθ' ὅλως σῶμα, οὔτε ἀποῤῥοὴ σώματος οὐδενός· εἴη γὰρ ἂν σῶμά τι καὶ οὕτως· ἀλλὰ πυρὸς ἢ τοιούτου τινὸς παρουσία ἐν τῷ διαφανεῖ·

C Cuius igitur eſt aſpectus, id eſt aſpectabile. 2 Aſpectabile autem eſt & color, & quod oratione quidem dici poteſt, ſed nomine vacat. verùm in ſermonis progreſſu manifeſtũ maximè erit, quod dicimus. 3 Aſpectabile enim quod dicimus, eſt color. hic autẽ eſt, qui in eo ineſt, quod per ſe eſt aſpectabile: per ſe autem dico, non ratione, ſed quia in ſe ipſo habet cauſam cur ſit aſpectabile. Omnis autẽ color eſt motiuus eius quod actu eſt perlucidũ. atque hæc eſt eius natura. 5 Idcirco non eſt aſpectabilis ſine lumine, ſed omnino quilibet color in lumine cerni poteſt. 6 Quare priùs dicendum eſt quid ſit lumen. 7 Eſt igitur aliquid perlucidum. 8 Perlucidum autem voco, quod eſt quidem aſpe- D ctabile. verùm, vt ſimpliciter dicam, nõ eſt aſpectabile per ſe, ſed per alienum colorem. 9 Eiuſmodi verò eſt aër, & aqua, & ſolidorum complura. non enim perlucidum eſt, quatenus eſt aqua, nec quatenus eſt aër: ſed quia natura quædam in his vtriſque eadem ineſt, & in æterno illo ſupero corpore. 10 Lumen autem eſt huius actus, nimirum perlucidi, quatenus eſt perlucidum. 11 Poteſtate autem in quibus hoc ineſt, etiam tenebræ inſunt. 12 Porrò lumen eſt quaſi color perlucidi, quãdo eſt actu perlucidum ab igne, aut eiuſmodi alio, quale eſt ſuperũ corpus: nam huic quoque aliquid ineſt vnum & idem. 11 Quid igitur ſit perlucidum, & quid lumẽ, dictum eſt: quia nec eſt ignis, nec omnino corpus, nec effluxio corporis alicuius: quandoquidem ſic quoque eſſet corpus quiddam: verùm eſt ignis vel talis cuiuſpiã præsẽtia in eo quod eſt perlucidũ.

Etenim eſt impoſſibile duo corpora ſimul in eodem eſſe. 14 Iam verò lumen videtur eſſe contrarium tenebris. ſunt autem tenebræ, priuatio eiuſmodi habitus abſentis à corpore perlucido: Quocirca manifeſtum eſt, huius habitus præſentiam eſſe lumen. 15 Nec rectè Empedocles, aut ſi quis alius ita locutus eſt, quaſi lumen feratur & protendatur aliquando inter terram & cælum ambiens, nos autem lateat. hoc enim eſt præter rationis veritatem, & præter ea quæ apparent. in paruo enim interuallo latere poſſet: ſed ab ortu ad occaſum latere, magnum admodum eſt poſtulatum. 16 Eſt autem coloris ſuſceptiuum, id quod colore vacat: & ſoni, quod ſono caret. colore autem vacat perlucidum, & quod videri nequit, aut quod vix cernitur, cuiuſmodi videtur, quod eſt tenebroſum. tale autem eſt quidem, quod eſt perlucidum, non tamen quando eſt actu perlucidum, ſed quando eſt poteſtate. nam eadem natura modò eſt tenebræ, modò lumen. 17 Non omnia verò in lumine cerni poſſunt, ſed tantùm cuiuſque rei proprius color. quædam enim in lumine non videntur, in tenebris autem efficiunt ſenſum: velvti quæ ignea videntur & ſplendent, hæc autem vno communi nomine carent: vt fungus, cornu, capita piſcium, & ſquammæ, & oculi: ſed harum rerum proprius color nõ cernitur. Quam igitur ob cauſam hæc videantur, alia eſt diſputatio: nunc hactenus perſpicuum eſt, id, quod in lumine cernitur, eſſe colorem. 18 Idcirco nec videtur ſine lumine: hæc enim erat eſſentia coloris, motiuum eſſe eius quod eſt actu perlucidum: actus autem eius quod eſt perlucidum, eſt lumen. 19 Huius rei ſignum perſpicuum eſt. ſi quis enim id quod colorem habet, in aſpectum ponat, non videbit. ſed color mouet perlucidum, vt aërem: ab hoc autem quod eſt continuum, mouetur ſenſorium. 20 Non enim ſcitè hoc inquit Democritus, putans, ſi id, quod eſt interiectum, fieret inane, exquiſitè viſum iri: etiam ſi formica in cœlo eſſet. nam hoc eſt impoſſibile: quia ſenſorio patiente, aſpectus fit. atqui impoſſibile eſt, vt ſenſitiuum patiatur à colore qui cernitur: ſed relinquitur vt patiatur ab intermedio. quare neceſſe eſt, eſſe aliquid interiectum. quod ſi inane fieret, non modò non exquiſitè, ſed omnino nihil videretur. 21 Quam igitur ob cauſam neceſſe eſt colorem in lumine videri, dictum eſt. 22 Ignis autem in vtriſque cernitur, & tenebris, & in lumine: idque neceſſariò: quia perlucidum ab hoc fit perlucidum. 23 Eadem ratio eſt de ſono, & odore: nihil enim horum, tangendo ſenſorium, efficit ſenſum: ſed ab odore & ſono intermedium mouetur: ab hoc autem vtrumque ſenſorium. ſi quis autem in ipſum ſenſorium imponat id quod ſonat, vel olet, nullum ſenſum faciat. 24 De tactu autem & guſtu res quidem ſimiliter habet, non tamẽ apparet. quam verò ob cauſam, poſteriùs erit manifeſtum. 25 Intermedium verò ſoni quidem eſt aër: odoris autem, quiddam nomine vacans. eſt enim communis quædam affectio in aëre & aqua. vt igitur colori, perſpicuum: ita habenti odorem, id interiectum eſt, quod in his vtriſque ineſt. videntur enim animalia quoque aquatilia habere ſenſum odoris, ſed homo, & quæcumque terreſtria reſpirant, nequeunt olfacere, niſi reſpirant. ac de his quoque cauſa poſteriùs reddetur.

οὐδὲ γὰρ δύο σώματα ἅμα δυνατὸν ἐν τῷ αὐτῷ εἶναι. 14 Δοκεῖ δὲ τὸ φῶς ἐναντίον εἶναι τῷ σκότει· ἔστι δὲ ὁ σκότος, στέρησις τῆς τοιαύτης ἕξεως ἐκ διαφανοῦς. ὥστε δῆλον, ὅτι καὶ ἡ τούτου παρουσία τὸ φῶς ἐστί. 15 Καὶ οὐκ ὀρθῶς Ἐμπεδοκλῆς, οὐδ᾽ εἴ τις ἄλλος οὕτως εἴρηκεν, ὡς φερομένου τοῦ φωτὸς, καὶ * γιγνομένου ποτὲ μεταξὺ τῆς γῆς καὶ τοῦ περιέχοντος, ἡμᾶς δὲ λανθάνοντος· τοῦτο γάρ ἐστι καὶ παρὰ τὴν ἐν τῷ λόγῳ ἀλήθειαν, καὶ παρὰ τὰ φαινόμενα. ἐν μικρῷ μὲν γὰρ διαστήματι λάθοι ἄν· ἀπ᾽ ἀνατολῆς δὲ ἐπὶ δυσμὰς, τὸ λανθάνειν μέγα λίαν τὸ αἴτημα. 16 Ἔστι δὲ χρώματος μὲν δεκτικὸν τὸ ἄχρουν, ψόφου δὲ τὸ ἄψοφον. ἄχρουν δὲ ἐστι τὸ διαφανὲς, καὶ τὸ ἀόρατον, ἢ τὸ μόλις ὁρώμενον, οἷον δοκεῖ τὸ σκοτεινόν. τοιοῦτον δὲ τὸ διαφανὲς μὲν, ἀλλ᾽ οὐχ ὅταν ᾖ ἐντελεχείᾳ διαφανὲς, ἀλλ᾽ ὅταν δυνάμει. ἡ γὰρ αὐτὴ φύσις, ὁτὲ μὲν σκότος, ὁτὲ δὲ φῶς ἐστιν. 17 Οὐ πάντα δὲ ὁρατὰ ἐν φωτί ἐστιν, ἀλλὰ μόνον ἑκάστου τὸ οἰκεῖον χρῶμα. ἔνια γὰρ ἐν μὲν τῷ φωτὶ οὐχ ὁρᾶται, ἐν δὲ τῷ σκότει ποιεῖ αἴσθησιν· οἷον τὰ πυρώδη φαινόμενα καὶ λάμποντα· ἀνώνυμα δέ ἐστι ταῦτα ἑνὶ ὀνόματι, οἷον μύκης, κέρας, κεφαλαὶ ἰχθύων, καὶ λεπίδες, καὶ ὀφθαλμοί· ἀλλ᾽ οὐδενὸς ὁρᾶται τούτων τὸ οἰκεῖον χρῶμα. δι᾽ ἣν μὲν οὖν αἰτίαν ταῦτα ὁρᾶται, ἄλλος λόγος. νῦν δὲ ἐπὶ τοσοῦτον φανερόν ἐστιν, ὅτι τὸ μὲν ἐν φωτὶ ὁρώμενον, χρῶμα. 18 Διὸ καὶ οὐχ ὁρᾶται ἄνευ φωτός· τοῦτο γὰρ ἦν αὐτῷ τὸ χρώματι εἶναι, τὸ κινητικῷ εἶναι τοῦ κατ᾽ ἐνέργειαν διαφανοῦς· ἡ δ᾽ ἐντελέχεια τοῦ διαφανοῦς φῶς ἐστί. 19 Σημεῖον δὲ τούτου φανερόν· ἐὰν γάρ τις θῇ, τὸ ἔχον χρῶμα ἐπ᾽ αὐτὴν τὴν ὄψιν, οὐκ ὄψεται· ἀλλὰ τὸ μὲν χρῶμα κινεῖ τὸ διαφανὲς, οἷον τὸν ἀέρα· ὑπὸ τούτου δὲ συνεχοῦς ὄντος, κινεῖται τὸ αἰσθητήριον. 20 Οὐ γὰρ καλῶς τοῦτο λέγει Δημόκριτος, οἰόμενος, εἰ γένοιτο κενὸν τὸ μεταξὺ, ὁρᾶσθαι ἂν ἀκριβῶς, καὶ εἰ μύρμηξ ἐν τῷ οὐρανῷ εἴη· τοῦτο γάρ ἐστιν ἀδύνατον· πάσχοντος γὰρ τοῦ αἰσθητικοῦ γίνεται τὸ ὁρᾶν. ὑπ᾽ αὐτοῦ μὲν οὖν τοῦ ὁρωμένου χρώματος, ἀδύνατον. λείπεται δὲ ὑπὸ τοῦ μεταξύ. ὥστ᾽ ἀναγκαῖόν τι εἶναι μεταξύ. κενοῦ δὲ γενομένου, οὐχ ὅτι ἀκριβῶς, ἀλλ᾽ ὅλως οὐδὲν ὀφθήσεται. 21 Δι᾽ ἣν μὲν οὖν αἰτίαν τὸ χρῶμα ἀναγκαῖον ἐν φωτὶ ὁρᾶσθαι, εἴρηται. 22 Πῦρ δὲ ἐν ἀμφοῖν ὁρᾶται, καὶ ἐν σκότει, καὶ ἐν φωτί· καὶ τοῦτο ἐξ ἀνάγκης. τὸ γὰρ διαφανὲς ὑπὸ τούτου γίνεται διαφανές. 23 Ὁ δ᾽ αὐτὸς λόγος καὶ περὶ ψόφου καὶ ὀσμῆς ἐστιν· οὐθὲν γὰρ αὐτῶν ἁπτόμενον τοῦ αἰσθητηρίου ποιεῖ τὴν αἴσθησιν, ἀλλ᾽ ὑπὸ μὲν ὀσμῆς καὶ ψόφου τὸ μεταξὺ κινεῖται, ὑπὸ δὲ τούτου τῶν αἰσθητηρίων ἑκάτερον. ὅταν δὲ ἐπ᾽ αὐτό τις ἐπιθῇ τὸ αἰσθητήριον τὸ ψοφοῦν ἢ τὸ ὄζον, οὐδεμίαν αἴσθησιν ποιήσει. 24 Περὶ δὲ ἁφῆς καὶ γεύσεως, ἔχει μὲν ὁμοίως, οὐ φαίνεται δέ. δι᾽ ἣν δ᾽ αἰτίαν, ὕστερον ἔσται δῆλον. 25 Τὸ δὲ μεταξὺ, ψόφων μὲν, ἀήρ· ὀσμῆς δὲ, ἀνώνυμον· κοινὸν γὰρ δή τι πάθος ἐπ᾽ ἀέρος καὶ ὕδατός ἐστιν. ὥσπερ τὸ διαφανὲς χρώματι, οὕτω τῷ ἔχοντι ὀσμὴν ὃ ἐν ἀμφοτέροις ὑπάρχει τούτοις. φαίνεται γὰρ καὶ τὰ ἔνυδρα τῶν ζώων ἔχειν αἴσθησιν ὀσμῆς. ἀλλ᾽ ὁ μὲν ἄνθρωπος καὶ τῶν πεζῶν ὅσα ἀναπνεῖ, ἀδυνατεῖ ὀσμᾶσθαι μὴ ἀναπνέοντα. ἡ δ᾽ αἰτία καὶ περὶ τούτων ὕστερον λεχθήσεται.

Νῦν δὲ πρῶτον περὶ ψόφου καὶ ἀκοῆς διορίσωμεν. 2 Ἔστι δὲ διττὸς ὁ ψόφος· ὁ μὲν γὰρ* ἐνέργειά τις, ὁ δὲ, δύναμις· τὰ μὲν γὰρ οὔ φαμεν ἔχειν ψόφον, οἷον σπόγγον, ἔρια· τὰ δ' ἔχειν, οἷον* χαλκὸν, καὶ ὅσα στερεὰ, καὶ λεῖα, ὅτι δύναται ψοφῆσαι. τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶν αὐτοῦ μεταξὺ καὶ τῆς ἀκοῆς, ἐμποιῆσαι ψόφον ἐνεργείᾳ. 3 Γίνεται δὲ ὁ κατ' ἐνέργειαν ψόφος, ἀεί τινος πρός τι καὶ ἔν τινι· πληγὴ γάρ ἐστιν ἡ ποιοῦσα. διὸ καὶ ἀδύνατον ἑνὸς ὄντος γενέσθαι ψόφον· ἕτερον γὰρ τὸ τύπτον, καὶ τὸ τυπτόμενον· ὥστε τὸ ψοφοῦν πρός τι ψοφεῖ. πληγὴ δ' οὐ γίνεται ἄνευ φορᾶς. 4 Ὥσπερ δ' εἴπομεν, οὐ τῶν τυχόντων πληγὴ ὁ ψόφος· οὐθένα γὰρ ψόφον ποιεῖ ἔρια παταχθέντα ἢ πλῆγμα, ἀλλὰ χαλκὸς, καὶ ὅσα λεῖα καὶ κοῖλα· ὁ μὲν χαλκὸς, ὅτι λεῖος· τὰ δὲ κοῖλα, τῇ ἀνακλάσει πολλὰς ποιεῖ πληγὰς μετὰ τὴν πρώτην, ἀδυνατοῦντος ἐξελθεῖν τοῦ κινηθέντος. 5 Ἔτι ἀκούεται ἐν ἀέρι καὶ ὕδατι, ἀλλ' ἧττον. οὐκ ἔστι δὲ ψόφου κύριος ὁ ἀὴρ, οὐδὲ τὸ ὕδωρ· ἀλλὰ δεῖ στερεῶν πληγὴν γενέσθαι πρὸς ἄλληλα, καὶ πρὸς τὸν ἀέρα. 6 Τοῦτο δὲ γίνεται, ὅταν ὑπομένῃ πληγεὶς ὁ ἀὴρ, καὶ μὴ* διαχυθῇ. διὸ ἐὰν ταχέως καὶ σφοδρῶς πληγῇ, ψοφεῖ· δεῖ γὰρ φθάσαι τὴν κίνησιν τοῦ ῥαπίζοντος τὴν θρύψιν τοῦ ἀέρος, ὥσπερ ἂν εἰ σωρὸν ἢ ὁρμαθὸν ψάμμου τύπτοι τις φερόμενον ταχύ. 7 Ἠχὼ δὲ γίνεται, ὅταν ἀπὸ τοῦ ἀέρος ἑνὸς γενομένου διὰ τὸ ἀγγεῖον τὸ διορίσαν καὶ κωλῦσαν θρυφθῆναι, πάλιν ὁ ἀὴρ ἀπωσθῇ, ὥσπερ σφαῖρα. 8 Ἔοικε δὲ ἀεὶ γίνεσθαι ἠχὼ, ἀλλ' οὐ σαφής· ἐπεὶ συμβαίνει γε ἐπὶ τοῦ ψόφου, καθάπερ καὶ ἐπὶ τοῦ φωτός· καὶ γὰρ τὸ φῶς ἀεὶ ἀνακλᾶται· οὐ γὰρ ἂν ἐγίνετο πάντῃ φῶς, ἀλλὰ σκότος ἔξω τοῦ ἡλιουμένου· ἀλλ' οὐχ οὕτως ἀνακλᾶται, ὥσπερ ἀφ' ὕδατος, ἢ χαλκοῦ, ἢ καί τινος ἄλλου τῶν λείων, ὥστε σκιὰν ποιεῖν, ᾗ τὸ φῶς ὁρίζομεν. 9 Τὸ δὲ κενὸν ὀρθῶς λέγεται κύριον τοῦ ἀκούειν. δοκεῖ γὰρ εἶναι κενὸν ὁ ἀήρ. οὗτος δέ ἐστιν ὁ ποιῶν ἀκούειν, ὅταν κινηθῇ συνεχὴς καὶ εἷς. ἀλλὰ διὰ τὸ ψαθυρὸς εἶναι, οὐ γεγωνεῖ, ἂν μὴ λεῖον ᾖ τὸ πληγέν. τότε δὲ εἷς γίνεται ἅμα, διὰ τὸ ἐπίπεδον· ἓν γὰρ τὸ τοῦ λείου ἐπίπεδον. 10 Ψοφητικὸν μὲν οὖν, τὸ κινητικὸν ἑνὸς ἀέρος συνεχείᾳ μέχρις ἀκοῆς· ἀκοῇ δὲ συμφυὴς ἀέρι· διὰ δὲ τὸ ἐν ἀέρι εἶναι, κινουμένου τοῦ ἔξω, τὸ εἴσω* κινεῖ. 11 Διόπερ οὐ πάντῃ τὸ ζῷον ἀκούει, οὐδὲ πάντῃ διέρχεται ὁ ἀήρ· οὐ γὰρ πάντῃ ἔχει ἀέρα τὸ κινησόμενον μέρος καὶ ἔμψυχον, ὥσπερ ἡ κόρη τὸ ὑγρόν. 12 Αὐτὸ μὲν δὴ ἄψοφον ὁ ἀήρ, διὰ τὸ εὔθρυπτον. ὅταν δὲ κωλυθῇ θρύπτεσθαι, ἡ τούτου κίνησις ψόφος. 13 Ὁ δ' ἐν τοῖς ὠσὶν ἐγκατῳκοδόμηται πρὸς τὸ ἀκίνητος εἶναι, ὅπως ἀκριβῶς αἰσθάνηται πάσας τὰς διαφορὰς τῆς κινήσεως. 14 Διὰ ταῦτα δὲ καὶ ἐν ὕδατι ἀκούομεν, ὅτι οὐκ εἰσέρχεται πρὸς αὐτὸν τὸν συμφυῆ ἀέρα· ἀλλ' οὐδὲ εἰς τὸ οὖς, διὰ τὰς ἕλικας. ὅταν δὲ τοῦτο συμβῇ, οὐκ ἀκούει. 15 Οὐδ' ἂν ἡ μῆνιγξ κάμῃ, ὥσπερ τὸ ἐπὶ τῇ κόρῃ δέρμα, ὅταν κάμῃ. 16 Ἀλλὰ καὶ σημεῖον τοῦ ἀκούειν ἢ μὴ, τὸ ἠχεῖν ἀεὶ τὸ οὖς ὥσπερ τὸ κέρας· ἀεὶ γὰρ οἰκείαν τινὰ κίνησιν κινεῖται ὁ ἀὴρ, ὁ ἐν τοῖς ὠσίν· ἀλλ' ὁ ψόφος ἀλλότριος καὶ οὐκ ἴδιος.

Cap. VIII.

A Nvnc definiamus primùm de ſono atque auditu. 2 Duplex autem eſt ſonus: alter enim eſt actus quidam: alter, poteſtas. nam alia dicimus non habere ſonum, vt ſpongiam, lanas: alia verò habere, vt æs, & quæcumque ſunt ſolida ac læuia, quia poſſunt ſonum edere. hoc autem eſt, inter ipſum & auditum efficere ſonum actu. 3 Sonus porrò, qui eſt actu, fit ſemper alicuius, ad aliquid, & in aliquo. etenim ictus eſt, qui facit ſonum. ideóque cùm vnum eſt, ſonus fieri nequit: quippe diuerſum eſt, quod verberat, & quod verberatur. quare quod ſonat, ad aliquid ſonat. ictus autem non fit ſine latione. 4 Vt autem diximus, ſonus non eſt ictus quorumcumque corporum: quia B nullum ſonum edunt lanæ ſiue percutientes, ſiue percuſſæ: ſed æs, & quæcumque ſunt læuia & concaua: æs quidem, quia eſt læue: concaua autem refractione multos ictus poſt primum efficiunt, cùm id, quod motum eſt, non poſſit exire. 5 Præterea auditur in aëre, & in aqua, ſed minùs. nõ eſt autem ſoni poteſtas penes aërem, vel aquam, ſed oportet ictum fieri ſolidorum inter ſe, & erga aërem. 6 Hoc autem fit, quando aër percuſſus permanet, nec diſſipatur. idcirco ſi celeriter & vehementer percutiatur, ſonum edit, nam opus eſt, vt motus percutientis anticipet diſſipationem aëris, perinde ac ſi quis aceruum ſeu cumulum arenæ delatum celeriter C percutiat. 7 Echo autem fit, quando ab aëre, qui propter vas terminans ac friari prohibens, vnus effectus eſt, rurſus aër repellitur quaſi pila. 8 Videtur autem ſemper fieri echo, quamuis non perſpicua, quia contingit in ſono, vt etiam in lumine. etenim lumẽ ſemper reflectitur, alioquin non fieret vbique lumen, ſed eſſent tenebræ extra locum à Sole illuſtratum, ſed non ita reflectitur, vt ab aqua, aut ære, aut aliquo alio corpore læui. quocirca facit vmbram, qua lumen terminamus. 9 Rectè autem dicitur penes inane eſſe poteſtatem audiendi, aër namque videtur eſſe inane, atque hic eſt, qui audire facit, quando mouetur continuus & vnus. ſed quia friabilis eſt, non perſonat, niſi læue ſit quod percutitur. tunc D autem fit vnus ſimul propter planitiem, quoniam vna eſt planities rei læuis. 10 vim igitur ſonandi habet, quod habet vim impellendi aërem vnum continuatione vſque ad auditum. auditui verò eſt natiuus aër. & quia in aëre eſt, moto externo mouetur internum. 11 Quare non omni parte animal audit, nec quouis permeat aër. quia non vbique habet aërem pars mota & animata, quemadmodum pupilla humorem. 12 Ipſe igitur aër ſoni eſt expers, quia facilè diſſipatur. cùm autem diſſipari prohibetur, eius motus eſt ſonus. 13 Hic autem in auribus conditus eſt, ad hoc vt ſit immobilis, vt exquiſitè ſentiat omnes differentias motus. 14 Propterea & E in aqua audimus, quia nõ ingreditur ad ipſum connaturalem aërem, immo nec in aurem, propter anfractus. cùm autẽ hoc acciderit, non audit. 15 Nec ſi membrana ægrotauerit, quemadmodum non videtur, cùm pellis quæ eſt in pupilla, ægrotauerit. 16 Quin etiam ſignum audiendi vel non audiendi eſt, cùm auris ſonat vt cornu. ſemper enim proprio quodam motu mouetur aër, qui eſt in auribus, ſed ſonus eſt motus alienus non proprius.

Ideóque aiunt nos audire inani & eo quod ſonat, quoniam audimus eo quod habet terminatum aërem. vtrùm autem ſonat, quod percutitur, an quod percutit? an vtrumque, ſed diuerſo modo? ſonus enim eſt motus eius quod poteſt moueri eo modo, quo mouentur ea quæ reſiliunt à læuibus corporibus, cùm aliquis impulerit. 19 Vt igitur dictum fuit, non quiduis percuſſum & percutiens ſonat: velvti ſi acus acum percuſſerit: ſed oportet, id quod percutitur, planum eſſe, vt aër confertim reſiliat & quatiatur. 20 Differentiæ verò eorum quæ ſonant, in ſono, qui actu eſt, patefiunt. vt enim ſine lumine colores non cernuntur, ita ſine ſono acutum & graue non percipitur. 21 Hæc autem dicuntur per translationem ab iis quæ ſub tactum cadunt. acutum enim breui tempore multùm mouet ſenſum: graue autem longo tempore parum. non igitur acutum eſt velox: & graue, tardum: ſed illius propter celeritatem fit motus talis: huius autem, propter tarditatem. ac videntur proportione reſpondere acuto & obtuſo, quod in tactu cernitur. acutū enim quaſi pungit: obtuſum verò quaſi pellit: quoniam alterum breui, alterum longo tempore mouet. vnde fit, vt alterum ſit velox, alterum tardū. 22 De ſono igitur hæc definita ſunto. 23 Vox autem eſt ſonus quidam animati. nullum enim inanimatum vocem emittit: ſed per ſimilitudinem dicitur vocem edere, vt tibia, & lyra, & quęcumque alia inanimata extenſionem habent & melos & locutionem: ſic enim videtur, quia & vox hæc habet. 24 Sed multa animalia non edunt vocem: vt exſanguia, & inter ſanguine prædita piſces. idque rationi eſt conſentaneum: ſiquidem ſonus eſt motus aëris. 25 Sed qui dicuntur vocem edere, vt piſces in Acheloo flumine, branchiis ſonum faciunt, aut alio aliquo eiuſmodi organo: vox autem eſt ſonus animalis, & quidem non quauis parte factus. ſed quia quoduis ſonum edit percutiente aliquo, & aliquid, & in aliquo: hoc autem eſt aër: meritò hæc ſola vocem emittunt, quæ aërem ſuſcipiunt. 26 Iam enim ſpiritus abutitur natura ad duo officia, quemadmodum lingua ad guſtum & locutionem: quorum quidem guſtus eſt res neceſſaria: ideóque pluribus ineſt: interpretatio verò vt bene ſit. ita etiam ſpiritu ad calorem internum vtitur tamquam rem neceſſariam, (cauſſa verò in aliis libris dicetur) & ad vocem, vt bene ſit. 27 Inſtrumentum autem reſpirationis eſt guttur, cuius verò cauſſa eſt etiam hæc pars, id eſt, pulmo: hac enim parte animalia terreſtria plurimum caloris habent præ ceteris. eget etiam reſpiratione locus qui primus eſt circa cor. idcirco neceſſe eſt, intus reſpirante animali ingredi aërem. 28 Quapropter ictus aëris per reſpirationem ducti, factus ab anima quæ in his eſt partibus, ad eam quæ vocatur arteria, hic (inquam) ictus eſt vox. non enim quiuis animalis ſonus eſt vox, quemadmodum diximus: licet enim lingua ſonum edere, vt qui tuſſiunt: ſed oportet animatum eſſe id quod percutit. & cum phantaſia quadam: nam vox eſt ſonus quidam ſignificandi vim habens. 29 Nec eſt aëris ſpiritu ducti, vt tuſſis: ſed hoc aërem qui eſt in arteria, ad ipſam percutit. cuius rei ſignum eſt, quòd nemo poteſt vocem emittere, dum ſpiritum ducit, aut reddit, ſed dum continet: hoc enim mouet, qui continet.

A 17 Καὶ διὰ τοῦτό φασιν ἀκούειν τῷ κενῷ καὶ ἠχοῦντι, ὅτι ἀκούομεν τῷ ἔχοντι ὡρισμένον τὸν ἀέρα. 18 Πότερον δὲ ψοφεῖ τὸ τυπτόμενον, ἢ τὸ τύπτον, ἢ καὶ ἄμφω, τρόπον δ' ἑτέρως; ἔστι γὰρ ὁ ψόφος κίνησις τοῦ δυναμένου κινεῖσθαι τὸν τρόπον τοῦτον, ὅνπερ τὰ ἀφαλλόμενα ἀπὸ τῶν λείων, ὅταν τις κρούσῃ. 19 Οὐ δὴ πᾶν, ὥσπερ εἴρηται, ψοφεῖ τυπτόμενον καὶ τύπτον, οἷον ἐὰν πατάξῃ βελόνη βελόνην· ἀλλὰ δεῖ τὸ τυπτόμενον ὁμαλὸν εἶναι, ὥστε τὸν ἀέρα ἀθροῦν ἀφάλλεσθαι καὶ σείεσθαι. 20 Αἱ δὲ διαφοραὶ τῶν ψοφούντων, ἐν τῷ κατ' ἐνέργειαν ψόφῳ δηλοῦνται. ὥσπερ γὰρ ἄνευ φωτὸς οὐχ ὁρᾶται τὰ χρώματα, B οὕτως οὐδ' ἄνευ ψόφου τὸ ὀξὺ καὶ τὸ βαρύ. 21 Ταῦτα δὲ λέγεται κατὰ μεταφορὰν, ἀπὸ τῶν ἁπτῶν. τὸ μὲν γὰρ ὀξὺ κινεῖ τὴν αἴσθησιν ἐν ὀλίγῳ χρόνῳ ἐπὶ πολύ· τὸ δὲ βαρὺ, ἐν πολλῷ ἐπ' ὀλίγον. καὶ οὐ δὴ ταχὺ τὸ ὀξὺ, τὸ δὲ βαρὺ βραδὺ, ἀλλὰ γίνεται τοῦ μὲν, διὰ τὸ τάχος ἡ κίνησις τοιαύτη· τοῦ δὲ, διὰ βραδυτῆτα. καὶ ἔοικεν ἀνάλογον ἔχειν τῷ περὶ τὴν ἁφὴν ὀξεῖ καὶ ἀμβλεῖ. τὸ μὲν γὰρ ὀξὺ οἷον κεντεῖ, τὸ δ' ἀμβλὺ οἷον ὠθεῖ, διὰ τὸ κινεῖν, τὸ μὲν ἐν ὀλίγῳ, τὸ δὲ ἐν πολλῷ. ὥστε συμβαίνει τὸ μὲν ταχὺ, τὸ δὲ βραδὺ εἶναι. 22 Περὶ μὲν οὖν ψόφου, ταύτῃ διωρίσθω. 23 Ἡ δὲ φωνὴ ψόφος τίς ἐστιν ἐμψύχου· τῶν γὰρ C ἀψύχων οὐθὲν φωνεῖ, ἀλλὰ καθ' ὁμοιότητα λέγεται φωνεῖν, οἷον αὐλὸς, καὶ λύρα, καὶ ὅσα ἄλλα τῶν ἀψύχων, ἀπότασιν ἔχει, καὶ μέλος, καὶ διάλεκτον· ἔοικε γὰρ ὅτι καὶ ἡ φωνὴ ταῦτα ἔχει. 24 Πολλὰ δὲ τῶν ζῴων οὐκ ἔχουσι φωνὴν, οἷον τά τε ἄναιμα, καὶ τῶν ἐναίμων, οἱ ἰχθύες. καὶ τοῦτ' εὐλόγως, εἴπερ ἀέρος κίνησίς ἐστιν ὁ ψόφος. 25 Ἀλλ' οἱ λεγόμενοι φωνεῖν, οἷον ἐν τῷ Ἀχελῴῳ ἰχθύες, ψοφοῦσι τοῖς βραγχίοις, ἢ τινι ἑτέρῳ τοιούτῳ. φωνὴ δέ ἐστι ζῴου ψόφος, καὶ οὐ τῷ τυχόντι μορίῳ. ἀλλ' ἐπεὶ πᾶν ψοφεῖ τύπτοντός τινος, καὶ τί, καὶ ἔν τινι· τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶν ἀήρ· εὐλόγως ἂν φωνοίη ταῦτα μόνα ὅσα δέχεται τὸν ἀέρα. 26 Ἤδη γὰρ D τῷ ἀναπνεομένῳ καταχρῆται ἡ φύσις ἐπὶ δύο ἔργα, καθάπερ τῇ γλώττῃ ἐπὶ τὴν γεῦσιν καὶ τὴν διάλεκτον· ὧν ἡ μὲν γεῦσις ἀναγκαῖον· διὸ καὶ πλείοσιν ὑπάρχει· ἡ δ' ἑρμηνεία ἕνεκα τοῦ εὖ. οὕτω καὶ τῷ πνεύματι, πρός τε τὴν θερμότητα τὴν ἐντὸς, ὡς ἀναγκαῖον. τὸ δ' αἴτιον ἐν ἑτέροις εἰρήσεται· καὶ πρὸς τὴν φωνὴν, ὅπως ὑπάρχῃ τὸ εὖ. 27 Ὄργανον δὲ τῇ ἀναπνοῇ, ὁ φάρυγξ· οὗ δ' ἕνεκα καὶ τὸ μόριον ἐστι τοῦτο, πνεύμων· τούτῳ γὰρ τῷ μορίῳ πλεῖστον ἔχει τὸ θερμὸν τὰ πεζὰ τῶν ἄλλων. δεῖται δὲ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς καὶ ὁ περὶ τὴν καρδίαν τόπος πρῶτος. διὸ ἀναγκαῖον εἴσω ἀναπνεομένου, εἰσιέναι τὸν ἀέρα. 28 Ὥστε ἡ E πληγὴ τοῦ ἀναπνεομένου ἀέρος ὑπὸ τῆς ἐν τούτοις τοῖς μορίοις ψυχῆς πρὸς τὴν καλουμένην ἀρτηρίαν, φωνή ἐστιν. οὐ γὰρ πᾶς ζῴου ψόφος, φωνὴ, καθάπερ εἴπομεν· ἔστι γὰρ τῇ γλώττῃ ψοφεῖν, ὥσπερ οἱ βήττοντες· ἀλλὰ δεῖ ἔμψυχόν τε εἶναι τὸ τύπτον, καὶ μετὰ φαντασίας τινός· σημαντικὸς γάρ τις ψόφος ἐστὶν ἡ φωνή. 29 Καὶ οὐ τοῦ ἀναπνεομένου ἀέρος, ὥσπερ ἡ βήξ· ἀλλὰ τούτῳ τύπτει τὸν ἐν τῇ ἀρτηρίᾳ πρὸς αὐτήν. σημεῖον δὲ, τὸ μὴ δύνασθαι φωνεῖν ἀναπνέοντα, μηδ' ἐκπνέοντα, ἀλλὰ κατέχοντα· κινεῖ γὰρ τοῦτο ὁ κατέχων. 30 Φανερὸν δὲ καὶ διότι οἱ ἰχθύες ἄφωνοι· οὐ γὰρ ἔχουσι φάρυγγα. τοῦτο δὲ τὸ μόριον οὐκ ἔχουσιν, ὅτι οὐ δέχονται τὸν ἀέρα, οὐδ' ἀναπνέουσιν. ἀλλ' οἱ λέγοντες, ὅτι [illegible] οἱ ἰχθύες, διαμαρτάνουσιν. δι' ἣν μὲν οὖν αἰτίαν, ἕτερός ἐστι λόγος.

De odore, & odorabili. Cap. IX.

B Περὶ δὲ ὀσμῆς καὶ ὀσφραντοῦ, ἧττον εὐδιόριστόν ἐστι τῶν εἰρημένων· οὐ γὰρ δῆλον, ποῖόν τι ἐστὶν ὀσμή, οὕτως ὡς ὁ ψόφος, ἢ τὸ φῶς, ἢ τὸ χρῶμα. αἴτιον δ', ὅτι τὴν αἴσθησιν ταύτην οὐκ ἔχομεν ἀκριβῆ, ἀλλὰ χείρω πολλῶν ζῴων· φαύλως γὰρ ἄνθρωπος ὀσμᾶται, καὶ οὐθενὸς * αἰσθάνεται τῶν ὀσφραντῶν, ἄνευ τοῦ λυπηροῦ ἢ τοῦ ἡδέος, * οὐκ ὄντος ἀκριβοῦς τοῦ αἰσθητηρίου. 2 Εὔλογον δ' οὕτω καὶ τὰ σκληρόφθαλμα τῶν χρωμάτων αἰσθάνεσθαι, καὶ μὴ διαδήλους αὐτοῖς εἶναι τὰς διαφορὰς τῶν χρωμάτων, πλὴν τῷ φοβερῷ καὶ ἀφόβῳ. οὕτω δὲ καὶ τὰς ὀσμὰς τὸ τῶν ἀνθρώπων γένος. 3 Ἔοικε γὰρ ἀνάλογον ἔχειν πρὸς τὴν γεῦσιν καὶ ὁμοίως τὰ εἴδη τῶν χυμῶν τοῖς τῆς ὀσμῆς. ἀλλ' C ἀκριβεστέραν ἔχομεν τὴν γεῦσιν, διὰ τὸ αὐτὴν εἶναι ἁφήν τινα. ταύτην δὲ ἔχειν τὴν αἴσθησιν τὸν ἄνθρωπον ἀκριβεστάτην. ἐν μὲν γὰρ ταῖς ἄλλαις λείπεται πολλῶν τῶν ζῴων, κατὰ δὲ τὴν ἁφὴν, πολλῷ τῶν ἄλλων διαφερόντως ἀκριβοῖ. διὸ καὶ φρονιμώτατόν ἐστι τῶν ζῴων. σημεῖον δὲ τὸ καὶ ἐν τῷ γένει τῶν ἀνθρώπων παρὰ τὸ αἰσθητήριον τοῦτο εἶναι εὐφυεῖς καὶ ἀφυεῖς, παρ' ἄλλο δὲ μηδέν· οἱ μὲν γὰρ σκληρόσαρκοι, ἀφυεῖς τὴν διάνοιαν· οἱ δὲ μαλακόσαρκοι, εὐφυεῖς. 4 Ἔστι δ' ὥσπερ χυμός, ὁ μὲν γλυκύς, ὁ δὲ πικρός, οὕτω καὶ ὀσμαί. ἀλλὰ τὰ μὲν ἔχουσι τὴν ἀνάλογον ὀσμὴν, καὶ χυμόν, τὰ δὲ τοὐναντίον· λέγω δέ, οἷον γλυκεῖαν ὀσμὴν καὶ γλυκὺν χυμόν. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ δριμεῖα, καὶ αὐστηρὰ καὶ ὀξεῖα, D καὶ λιπαρά ἐστιν ὀσμή. ἀλλ' ὥσπερ εἴπομεν, διὰ τὸ μὴ σφόδρα διαδήλους εἶναι τὰς ὀσμάς, ὥσπερ τοὺς χυμούς, ἀπὸ τούτων * εἴληφε τὰ ὀνόματα καθ' ὁμοιότητα τῶν πραγμάτων· ἡ μὲν γὰρ γλυκεῖα, ἀπὸ τοῦ κρόκου καὶ τοῦ μέλιτος· ἡ δὲ δριμεῖα, ἀπὸ τοῦ θύμου καὶ τῶν τοιούτων· τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν ἄλλων. 5 Ἔτι δ', ὥσπερ ἀκοὴ καὶ ἑκάστη τῶν αἰσθήσεων, ἡ μὲν τοῦ ἀκουστοῦ καὶ ἀνηκούστου, ἡ δὲ τοῦ ὁρατοῦ καὶ ἀοράτου· καὶ ἡ ὄσφρησις, τοῦ ὀσφραντοῦ καὶ ἀνοσφράντου. 6 Ἀνόσφραντον δέ, τὸ μὲν παρὰ τὸ ὅλως ἔχειν ἀδύνατον ὀσμήν· τὸ δέ, μικρὰν ἔχον καὶ φαύλην. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τὸ γευστὸν καὶ τὸ ἄγευστον λέγεται. 7 Ἔστι δὲ καὶ ἡ ὄσφρησις διὰ τοῦ μεταξύ, οἷον ἀέρος ἢ ὕδατος· καὶ γὰρ E τὰ ἔνυδρα δοκοῦσιν ὀσμῆς αἰσθάνεσθαι. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τὰ ἔναιμα, καὶ τὰ ἄναιμα, ὥσπερ καὶ τὰ ἐν τῷ ἀέρι· καὶ γὰρ τούτων ἔνια πόρρωθεν ἀπαντᾷ πρὸς τὴν τροφὴν ὕποσμα γινόμενα. 8 Διὸ καὶ ἄπορον φαίνεται, εἰ πάντα μὲν ὁμοίως ὀσμᾶται· ὁ δὲ ἄνθρωπος ἀναπνέων μέν, μὴ ἀναπνέων δέ, ἀλλ' ἐκπνέων, ἢ κατέχων τὸ πνεῦμα, οὐκ ὀσμᾶται, οὔτε πόρρωθεν, οὔτε ἐγγύθεν, οὐδ' ἂν ἐπὶ τοῦ μυκτῆρος ἐντὸς τεθῇ. καὶ τὸ μὲν ἐπ' αὐτῷ τιθέμενον τῷ αἰσθητηρίῳ, ἀναίσθητον εἶναι, κοινὸν πάντων· ἀλλὰ τὸ ἄνευ τοῦ ἀναπνεῖν μὴ αἰσθάνεσθαι, ἴδιον ἐπὶ τῶν ἀνθρώπων· δῆλον δὲ πειρωμένοις. ὥστε τὰ ἄναιμα, ἐπεὶ οὐκ ἀναπνέουσιν, ἑτέραν ἄν τινα αἴσθησιν ἔχει παρὰ τὰς λεγομένας. ἀλλὰ ἀδύνατον, εἴπερ τῆς ὀσμῆς αἰσθάνεται· ἡ γὰρ τοῦ ὀσφραντοῦ αἴσθησις,

B De odore autem & odorabili difficilius eſt definire, quàm de iis quæ dicta ſunt: quia non conſtat, quale quid ſit odor, ſicuti ſonus, aut lumen, aut color. cauſſa eſt: quia hunc ſenſum non habemus exquiſitum, ſed deteriorem quàm multa animalia: exiliter enim homo olfacit, & nihil odorabile ſentit ſine dolore, aut voluptate, quia exquiſitum non eſt hoc ſenſorium. 2 Rationi autem eſt conſentaneum, etiam animalia duris oculis prædita colores ita ſentire, nec manifeſtas eis fieri differentias colorum, niſi cum metu, & metus vacuitate: ſicque hominum genus ſentire odores. 3 Enimverò ſaporum ſpecies proportione ac ſimiliter videntur ſe habere ad guſtum, vt ſpecies odoris ad odoratum. ſed exquiſitiorem habemus guſtum: quo- C niam eſt tactus quidam: nunc verò ſenſum homo habet exquiſitiſſimum: nam aliis ſuperatur à multis animalibus: quod verò ad tactum, longè præſtantiùs quàm cætera, ſuo munere fungitur. ideóque eſt animalium prudentiſſimum. argumento eſt: quia & in hominum genere propter hoc ſenſorium ſunt ingenioſi, & tardo ingenio, nec ob vllum aliud. nam qui duras habent carnes, ſunt obtuſo ingenio: qui verò molles, ingenioſi. 4 Vt autem ſapor alius eſt dulcis, alius amarus: ita etiam odores. ſed alia habent proportionalem odorem & ſaporem, verbi gratia, dulcem odorem & dulcem ſaporem: alia contrà. Similiter etiam eſt acer & auſterus, & acidus, & pinguis odor. Sed, vt di- D ximus, quia odores non ſunt admodum manifeſti vt ſapores, idcirco ab his ſumpta ſunt illorum nomina ſecundùm rerum ſimilitudinem: dulcis nimirum à croco & melle: acer autem à thymo, ac talibus: & eodem modo in ceteris. 5 Præterea ſicvt auditus & quilibet ſenſus eſt, ille quidem rei audibilis & inaudibilis, alius verò rei viſibilis & inuiſibilis: ita etiam odoratus eſt rei odorabilis & inodorabilis. 6 Inodorabile autem dicitur, aliud, quia omnino habere odorem non poteſt: aliud, quod exiguum & malum odorem habet. ſimiliter etiam guſtabile & inguſtabile dicitur. 7 Porrò etiam olfactus fit per medium interiectum, vt aërem, vel aquam. nam & aquatilia animalia videntur odorem ſentire: pariterque ſanguine E prædita, & exſanguia: ſicut & ea, quæ in aëre degunt: nam & eorum nonnulla è longinquo accurrunt ad cibum, odore illecta. 8 Ideóque dubitatio exiſtit, an omnia ſimiliter olfaciant. homo quidem reſpirans olfacit: cùm autem non reſpirat, ſed reddit, aut cohibet ſpiritum, non olfacit, nec è longinquo, nec è propinquo, ne quidem ſi intra nares odorabile ponatur. ac ipſi quidem ſenſorio obiectum appoſitum ſentiri non poſſe, commune eſt omnium: ſed abſque reſpiratione non ſentire, proprium eſt in hominibus: quod experiendo perſpicuum fit. Quapropter exſanguia, cùm non reſpirent, alium quendam ſenſum habent præter eos qui commemorantur. ſed hoc eſt impoſſibile, ſiquidē ſentiunt odorem. nam ſenſus rei odorabilis, tam fœtidæ quàm bene olentis, eſt odoratus. præ- A terea & corrumpi videntur à vehemẽtibus odoribus, à quibus homo corrumpitur: vt bituminis & ſulphuris, & aliarum eiuſmodi rerum. odorari igitur neceſſe eſt, ſed non reſpirando. 9 Videtur autem in hominibus differre hoc ſenſorium à ſenſoriis aliorum animalium: ſicut oculi differunt ab oculis eorum quæ eos duros habent: illi namque ſeptum habent & quaſi velamen, nimirum palpebras: quas qui non mouerit, nec aperuerit, non ridet: animalia verò duris oculis prædita nihil tale habent, ſed illico vident quæ fiunt in perlucido. ſic igitur & odoratiuum ſenſorium in aliis videtur eſſe detectum, vt oculus: in iis autem quæ aërem ſuſcipiunt, habere B operimentum, quod in reſpirantibus detegitur, dilatatis venulis & meatibus. 10 Idcirco ea quæ reſpirant, non olfaciunt in humido: quia neceſſe eſt vt olfaciant, reſpirando: quod in humido fieri nequit. 11 Odor autem eſt ſicci, ſicut ſapor eſt humidi. odoratiuum autem ſenſorium, poteſtate eſt tale.

GVſtabile verò eſt tactile quiddam. atque hæc C eſt cauſſa cur non ſit ſenſibile per intermedium, quod ſit alienum corpus: quia nec tactus eſt talis. 2 Et corpus guſtabile, in quo eſt ſapor, conſiſtit in humido tamquam materia. hoc autem eſt tactile quiddam. 3 Ideóque ſi in aqua eſſemus, ſentiremus dulce aliquid iniectum: nec eſſet nobis ſenſus per intermediũ, ſed quia dulce miſceretur humido, quemadmodum in potione. color autem non ita cernitur, nempe quia miſceatur, nec effluxionibus. Nihil igitur eſt tamquam intermedium: ſed vt aſpectabile eſt color, ita guſtabile eſt ſapor. 4 Nihil autem facit ſenſum ſaporis ſine humiditate: ſed habet actu vel poteſtate humiditatem: vt ſalſum, quod & facilè liquefieri poteſt, & colliquefacien- D dæ linguæ vim habet. 5 Sicut autem aſpectus eſt rei viſibilis, & inuiſibilis: (nam tenebræ ſunt inuiſibiles: & has quoque diiudicat aſpectus) prætereà eius quod eſt valde ſplendidum: (nam hoc quoque eſt inuiſibile, ſed alio modo quàm tenebræ: & ſimiliter auditus eſt ſoni & ſilentij (quorum alterum eſt audibile: alterum, non audibile) & magni ſoni, quemadmodum aſpectus rei ſplendidæ: (vt enim paruus ſonus eſt inaudibilis aliquo modo, ita etiam magnus, & violentus. Inuiſibile autem dicitur partim omnino, vt & in aliis, quod eſt impoſſibile: partim quod cùm naturâ habere poſſit, non habet, aut malè habet: ſicut ἄπουν & ἀπύρηνον, quaſi dicas expes, & ex- E nucleũ id eſt, quod pedibus, vel nucleo caret. ſic igitur & guſtus dicitur & rei guſtabilis, & inguſtabilis. hæc autem eſt, quæ exiguum & exilem ſaporem habet, aut vim habet corrumpendi guſtus. 6 videtur autem potabile & impotabile eſſe principium. nam vtrumque eſt guſtus quidam: ſed alterum eſt principium prauum & habens vim corrumpendi guſtus: alterum verò eſt ſecundùm naturam. Porrò potabile eſt obiectum commune tactus & guſtus. 7 Quoniam autem guſtabile eſt humidum: neceſſe eſt, vt ſenſorium eius nec ſit humidum actu, nec impoſſibile vt humectetur. patitur enim aliquid guſtus à guſtabili, quatenus eſt guſtabile. ergo neceſſe eſt humectari, quod poteſt humectari, ita vt ſeruetur, non tamẽ eſt humidum, videlicet guſtatiuũ illud ſenſorium.

C ΤΟ δὲ γευστόν ἐστιν ἁπτόν τι· καὶ τοῦτ' αἴτιον τοῦ μὴ εἶναι αἰσθητὸν διὰ τοῦ μεταξὺ ἀλλοτρίου ὄντος σώματος· οὐδὲ γὰρ ἡ ἁφή. 2 Καὶ τὸ σῶμα δέ, ἐν ᾧ ὁ χυμός, τὸ γευστὸν ἐν ὑγρῷ ὡς ὕλῃ· τοῦτο δ' ἁπτόν τι. 3 Διὸ κἂν εἰ ἐν ὕδατι ἦμεν, ᾐσθανόμεθα ἂν ἐμβληθέντος τοῦ γλυκέος· οὐκ ἦν δ' ἂν ἡ αἴσθησις ἡμῖν διὰ τοῦ μεταξύ, ἀλλὰ τῷ μιχθῆναι τῷ ὑγρῷ, καθάπερ ἐπὶ τοῦ ποτοῦ. τὸ δὲ χρῶμα οὐχ οὕτως ὁρᾶται τῷ μίγνυσθαι, οὐδὲ ταῖς ἀπορροίαις. ὡς μὲν οὖν τὸ μεταξύ, οὐδέν ἐστιν· ὡς δὲ χρῶμα τὸ ὁρατόν, οὕτω τὸ γευστὸν ὁ χυμός. 4 Οὐθὲν δὲ ποιεῖ αἴσθησιν χυμοῦ ἄνευ ὑγρότητος, ἀλλ' ἔχει ἐνεργείᾳ ἢ δυνάμει ὑγρότητα· οἷον, τὸ D ἁλμυρόν· εὔτηκτόν τε γὰρ αὐτὸ καὶ συντηκτικὸν γλώσσης. 5 Ὥσπερ δὲ καὶ ἡ ὄψις ἐστὶ τοῦ τε ὁρατοῦ, καὶ τοῦ ἀοράτου (τὸ γὰρ σκότος ἀόρατον, κρίνει δὲ καὶ τοῦτο ἡ ὄψις) ἔτι τε τοῦ λίαν λαμπροῦ· καὶ γὰρ τοῦτο ἀόρατον· ἄλλον δὲ τρόπον τοῦ σκότους. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ ἡ ἀκοὴ ψόφου τε καὶ σιγῆς, ὧν τὸ μὲν ἀκουστόν, τὸ δὲ οὐκ ἀκουστὸν καὶ μεγάλου ψόφου, καθάπερ ἡ ὄψις τοῦ λαμπροῦ· ὥσπερ γὰρ ὁ μικρὸς ψόφος ἀνήκουστος τρόπον τινά, καὶ ὁ μέγας τε καὶ ὁ βίαιος. ἀόρατον δὲ τὸ μὲν ὅλως λέγεται, ὥσπερ καὶ ἐπ' ἄλλων τὸ ἀδύνατον· τὸ δ', ἐὰν πεφυκὸς μὴ ἔχῃ, ἢ φαύλως, ὥσπερ τὸ ἄπουν, καὶ τὸ ἀπύρηνον· οὕτω δὴ καὶ ἡ γεῦσις τοῦ γευστοῦ τε καὶ ἀγεύστου· τοῦτο E δὲ τὸ μικρὸν καὶ φαῦλον ἔχον χυμόν, ἢ φθαρτικὸν τῆς γεύσεως. 6 Δοκεῖ δ' εἶναι ἀρχὴ τὸ ποτὸν καὶ ἄποτον· γεῦσις γάρ τις ἀμφότερα· ἀλλὰ τὸ μὲν φαύλη καὶ φθαρτικὴ τῆς γεύσεως, τὸ δὲ κατὰ φύσιν. ἔστι δὲ κοινὸν ἁφῆς καὶ γεύσεως τὸ ποτόν. 7 Ἐπεὶ δ' ὑγρὸν τὸ γευστόν, ἀνάγκη τὸ αἰσθητήριον αὐτοῦ μήτε ὑγρὸν εἶναι ἐντελεχείᾳ, μήτε ἀδύνατον ὑγραίνεσθαι· πάσχει γάρ τι ἡ γεῦσις ὑπὸ τοῦ γευστοῦ, ᾗ γευστόν. ἀναγκαῖον ἄρα ὑγρανθῆναι τὸ δυνάμενον ὑγραίνεσθαι σωζόμενον, μὴ ὑγρὸν δέ, τὸ γευστικὸν αἰσθητήριον.

A 8 Σημεῖον δὲ, τὸ μήτε κατάξηρον οὖσαν τὴν γλῶτταν αἰσθάνεσθαι, μήτε λίαν ὑγράν· αὕτη γὰρ ἁφὴ γίνεται τοῦ πρώτου ὑγροῦ, ὥσπερ ὅταν προγευματίσας τις ἰσχυροῦ χυμοῦ, γεύηται ἑτέρου· καὶ οἷον τοῖς κάμνουσι πικρὰ πάντα φαίνεται, διὰ τὸ τὴν γλῶτταν πλήρη τοιαύτης ὑγρότητος αἰσθάνεσθαι. 9 Τὰ δὲ εἴδη τῶν χυμῶν, ὥσπερ καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν χρωμάτων, ἁπλᾶ μὲν τἀναντία, τὸ γλυκὺ καὶ τὸ πικρόν· ἐχόμενα δὲ, τοῦ μὲν τὸ λιπαρὸν, τοῦ δὲ τὸ ἁλμυρόν· μεταξὺ δὲ τούτων, τό, τε δριμὺ καὶ αὐστηρὸν, στρυφνὸν καὶ ὀξύ· σχεδὸν γὰρ αὗται δοκοῦσιν εἶναι διαφοραὶ χυμῶν. ὥστε τὸ γευστικόν ἐστι, τὸ δυνάμει τοιοῦτον· γευστὸν δὲ, τὸ ποιητικὸν ἐντελεχείᾳ αὐτοῦ.

B Περὶ δὲ τοῦ ἁπτοῦ καὶ ἁφῆς ὁ αὐτὸς λόγος· εἰ γὰρ ἡ ἁφὴ μὴ μία ἐστὶν αἴσθησις, ἀλλὰ πλείους, ἀναγκαῖον καὶ τὰ ἁπτὰ πλείω αἰσθητὰ εἶναι. ἔχει δ' ἀπορίαν, πότερον πλείους εἰσὶν, ἢ μία, καὶ τί τὸ αἰσθητήριον τὸ τοῦ ἁπτοῦ ἁπτικὸν, πότερον ἡ σὰρξ καὶ ἐν τοῖς ἄλλοις τὸ ἀνάλογον, ἢ οὔ. ἀλλὰ τοῦτο μὲν ἐστὶ τὸ μεταξύ· τὸ δὲ πρῶτον αἰσθητήριον ἄλλο τι ἐστὶν ἐντός. 2 Πᾶσά τε γὰρ αἴσθησις, μιᾶς ἐναντιώσεως εἶναι δοκεῖ, οἷον ὄψις, λευκοῦ καὶ μέλανος· καὶ ἡ ἀκοὴ, ὀξέος καὶ βαρέος· καὶ γεῦσις, πικροῦ καὶ γλυκέος. ἐν δὲ τῷ ἁπτῷ πολλαί εἰσιν ἐναντιώσεις, θερμὸν ψυχρὸν, ξηρὸν ὑγρὸν, σκληρὸν μαλακὸν, καὶ τῶν ἄλλων ὅσα τοιαῦτα. 3 Ἔχει δέ τινα λύσιν C πρός γε ταύτην τὴν ἀπορίαν, ὅτι καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν ἄλλων αἰσθήσεων εἰσὶν ἐναντιώσεις πλείους, οἷον ἐν φωνῇ οὐ μόνον ὀξύτης καὶ βαρύτης, ἀλλὰ καὶ μέγεθος καὶ μικρότης, καὶ λειότης καὶ τραχύτης φωνῆς, καὶ τοιαῦθ' ἕτερα. εἰσὶ δὲ καὶ περὶ χρῶμα διαφοραὶ τοιαῦται ἕτεραι. 4 Ἀλλὰ τί τὸ ὑποκείμενον, ὥσπερ ἀκοῇ ψόφος, οὕτω τῇ ἁφῇ, οὐκ ἔστιν ἔνδηλον. 5 Πότερον δ' ἐστὶ τὸ αἰσθητήριον ἐντὸς, ἢ οὔ, ἀλλ' εὐθέως ἡ σὰρξ, οὐδὲν δοκεῖ σημεῖον εἶναι, τὸ γίνεσθαι τὴν αἴσθησιν ἅμα θιγγανομένων. καὶ γὰρ εἴ τις περὶ τὴν σάρκα περιτείνειεν, οἷον ὑμένα ποιήσας, ὁμοίως τὴν αἴσθησιν εὐθέως ἁψάμενος D ἂν ἐνσημαίνοι· καίτοι δῆλον, ὡς οὐκ ἔστιν ἐν τούτῳ τὸ αἰσθητήριον· εἰ δὲ καὶ συμφυὲς γένοιτο, θᾶττον ἔτι διικνοῖτ' ἂν ἡ αἴσθησις. 6 Διὸ καὶ τὸ τοιοῦτον μόριον τοῦ σώματος ἔχειν οὕτως ἔοικεν, ὥσπερ ἂν εἰ κύκλῳ ἡμῖν περιεπεφύκει ὁ ἀήρ· ἐδοκοῦμεν γὰρ ἂν ἑνί τινι αἰσθάνεσθαι καὶ ψόφου, καὶ χρώματος, καὶ ὀσμῆς· καὶ μία τις αἴσθησις εἶναι ὄψις καὶ ἀκοὴ καὶ ὄσφρησις. νῦν δὲ διὰ τὸ διωρίσθαι δι' οὗ γίνονται αἱ κινήσεις, φανερὰ τὰ εἰρημένα αἰσθητήρια ἕτερα ὄντα. ἐπὶ δὲ τῆς ἁφῆς τοῦτο νῦν ἄδηλον· ἐξ ἀέρος μὲν γὰρ ἢ ὕδατος, ἀδύνατον συστῆναι τὸ ἔμψυχον σῶμα· δεῖ γάρ τι στερεὸν εἶναι. λείπεται δὴ μικτὸν ἐκ γῆς καὶ τούτων εἶναι, οἷον βούλεται ἡ σὰρξ καὶ τὸ ἀνάλογον· [* ἡ γὰρ πᾶσα αἴσθησις διὰ τοῦ μεταξὺ καὶ ἡ ἁφή.] ὥστε ἀναγκαῖον καὶ τὸ σῶμα εἶναι μεταξὺ τοῦ ἁπτικοῦ προσπεφυκὸς, δι' οὗ γίνονται αἱ αἰσθήσεις πλείους οὖσαι. 7 Δηλοῖ δ' ὅτι πλείους ἡ ἐπὶ τῆς γλώττης ἁφή· ἁπάντων γὰρ τῶν ἁπτῶν αἰσθάνεται, κατὰ τὸ αὐτὸ μόριον, καὶ χυμοῦ. εἰ μὲν οὖν ἡ ἄλλη σὰρξ ᾐσθάνετο τοῦ χυμοῦ, ἐδόκει ἂν ἡ αὐτὴ καὶ μία εἶναι αἴσθησις ἡ γεῦσις καὶ ἡ ἁφή·

DE tactili autem ac tactu eadem eſt ratio. nam ſi tactus non eſt vnus ſenſus, ſed plures: neceſſe eſt, etiam tactilia eſſe plura ſenſibilia: ſed eſt dubitatio vtrùm ſint plures, an vnus: & quod*nam* ſit ſenſorium, quod habet vim tangendi rem tactilem: vtrùm ſit caro, & in aliis id quod ei proportione reſpondet: annon: ſed hoc eſt intermedium: primum verò ſenſorium eſt aliud quiddam internum. 2 Omnis enim ſenſus vnius contrarietatis eſſe videtur: vt aſpectus, albi & nigri: & auditus, acuti & grauis: & guſtus, amari & dulcis: in tactili verò multæ ſunt contrarietates, calidum frigidum, ſiccum humidum, durum molle, & quæcumque alia ſunt eiuſmodi. 3 Eſt autem ſolutio quædam huius dubitationis: quia & in aliis ſenſibus ſunt plures contrarietates: vt in voce non ſolùm eſt acumen & grauitas, ſed etiam magnitudo & paruitas, necnon lenitas & aſperitas vocis, & eiuſmodi alia. in colore quoque ſunt aliæ tales differentiæ. 4 Sed quid ſit ſubiectum, vt auditui ſonus, ita etiam tactui, non eſt manifeſtum. 5 vtrùm autem ſenſorium ſit internum, an non, ſed protinus ſit caro, nullo videtur argumento eſſe, quòd ſenſus fit, ſimulatque res tanguntur. nam & ſi quis ad carnem aliquid in ſpeciem membranæ extendat: ſimiliter re tacta confeſtim imprimet ſenſum. atqui patet, in hoc non eſſe ſenſorium. ſi verò hoc etiam coaleſceret, vtique celeriùs ſenſus penetraret. 6 Ideóque eiuſmodi pars corporis ita ſe habere videtur, vt ſi vndique aër eſſet nobis connatus: videremur enim vno quodam ſenſorio ſentire & ſonum, & colorem, & odorem: atque aſpectus & auditus & odoratus eſſe vnus quidam ſenſus. nunc verò, quia ſeiunctum eſt id per quod fiunt motus, apparet, ea ſenſoria, quæ commemorata ſunt, eſſe diuerſa. ſed in tactu hoc eſt nunc obſcurum: quoniam ex aëre aut aqua corpus animatum conſtare nequit: quandoquidem oportet eſſe ſolidum quiddam. relinquitur ergo vt mixtum ex terra & his ſit, cuiuſmodi debet eſſe caro, & quod ei proportione reſpondet. nam ſi omnis ſenſus ſit per intermedium, etiam tactus ita ſit: quare neceſſe eſt, etiam tactiuo interiectum eſſe corpus connatum, per quod fiunt ſenſus, cùm plures ſint. 7 Plures autem eſſe indicat tactus qui in lingua fit: quoniam hac parte ſentit omnia tactilia, & ſaporem. itaque ſi alia caro ſentiret ſaporem, guſtus & tactus viderētur vnus & idem ſenſus:

nunc verò duo apparent, quia non reciprocantur. 8 Dubitare autem quiſpiam poſſit, ſi omne corpus altitudinem habet: atque hæc eſt tertia magnitudo: quibus autem duobus corporibus interiectum eſt corpus aliquod, fieri nequit vt hæc ſe mutuò tangant: humidum autem non eſt ſine corpore, neque madidum: ſed neceſſe eſt eſſe aquam, vel habere aquam: quæ verò ſe inuicem in aqua tangunt, cùm extremitates non ſint ſiccæ, neceſſe eſt habere aquam interiectam, qua extremitates ſunt plenæ. quod ſi verum eſt, impoſſibile eſt vt aliud ab alio tangatur in aqua. Eodémque modo in aëre: æquè enim ſe habet aër ad ea quæ in ipſo ſunt, & aqua ad ea quæ ſunt in ipſa aqua: ſed magis nos latet: ſicut latet animalia quæ ſunt in aqua, an madidum à madido tangatur. 9 Vtrùm igitur omnium ſimiliter eſt ſenſus, an aliarum rerum aliter, quemadmodum nunc videtur? guſtus enim & tactus ſiunt eo quòd res tanguntur: alij verò ſenſus è longinquo. ſed hoc non ita eſt: verùm & durum, & molle per alia ſentimus: vt & quod ſonandi vim habet, & aſpectabile, & odorabile. 10 Sed alia eminus, alia cominus ſentiuntur. idcirco latet: cùm ſentiamus omnia per medium, ſed in his lateat. Atqui, quemadmodum & ſuperiùs diximus, etiamſi per membranam ſentiremus omnia tactilia, ignorantes eam dirimere, ſimiliter affecti eſſemus, vt & nunc in aqua & aëre: videmur enim ipſas res tangere, & nihil eſſe in medio.

4 Τὰ δ' ἀλλήλων ἴδια κατὰ συμβεβηκὸς αἰσθάνονται αἱ αἰσθήσεις, οὐχ ᾗ αἱ αὐταί, ἀλλ' ᾗ μία, ὅταν ἅμα ἡ αἴσθησις ἐπὶ τοῦ αὐτοῦ γένηται εἶναι, ὅτι ἡ χολὴ πικρὰ καὶ ξανθή· οὐ γὰρ δὴ ἑτέρας γε τὸ εἰπεῖν, ὅτι ἄμφω ἕν· διὸ καὶ ἀπατᾶται, καὶ ἐὰν ᾖ ξανθόν, χολὴν οἴεται εἶναι. 5 Ζητήσειε δ' ἄν τις, τίνος ἕνεκα πλείους ἔχομεν αἰσθήσεις, ἀλλ' οὐ μίαν μόνην. ἢ ὅπως μὴ λανθάνῃ τὰ ἀκολουθοῦντα καὶ κοινά, οἷον κίνησις, καὶ μέγεθος, καὶ ἀριθμός; εἰ γὰρ ἦν ὄψις μόνη, καὶ αὕτη λευκοῦ, ἐλάνθανεν ἂν μᾶλλον, κἂν ἐδόκει ταὐτὸ εἶναι πάντα, διὰ τὸ ἀκολουθεῖν ἀλλήλοις ἅμα χρῶμα καὶ μέγεθος. νῦν δ' ἐπεὶ ἐν ἑτέρῳ αἰσθητῷ τὰ κοινὰ ὑπάρχει, δῆλον ποιεῖ ὅτι ἄλλο τι ἕκαστον αὐτῶν. 6 Ἐπεὶ δ' αἰσθανόμεθα ὅτι ὁρῶμεν καὶ ἀκούομεν, ἀνάγκη ἢ τῇ ὄψει αἰσθάνεσθαι ὅτι ὁρᾷ, ἢ ἑτέρᾳ. 7 Ἀλλὰ καὶ ἡ αὐτὴ ἔσται τῆς ὄψεως, καὶ τοῦ ὑποκειμένου χρώματος. ὥστε ἂν δύο τοῦ αὐτοῦ ἔσονται, ἢ αὐτὴ αὑτῆς. 8 Ἔτι δ', εἰ καὶ ἑτέρα εἴη τῆς ὄψεως αἴσθησις, ἢ εἰς ἄπειρον εἶσιν, ἢ αὐτή τις ἔσται αὑτῆς. ὥστε ἐπὶ τῆς πρώτης τοῦτο ποιητέον. 9 Ἔχει δ' ἀπορίαν· εἰ γὰρ τὸ τῇ ὄψει αἰσθάνεσθαί ἐστιν ὁρᾶν, ὁρᾶται δὲ χρῶμα ἢ τὸ ἔχον, εἰ ὄψεταί τις τὸ ὁρῶν, καὶ χρῶμα ἕξει τὸ ὁρῶν πρῶτον. 10 Φανερὸν τοίνυν, ὅτι οὐχ ἓν τὸ τῇ ὄψει αἰσθάνεσθαι· καὶ γὰρ ὅταν μὴ ὁρῶμεν, τῇ ὄψει κρίνομεν καὶ τὸ σκότος καὶ τὸ φῶς, ἀλλ' οὐχ ὡσαύτως. 11 Ἔτι δὲ καὶ τὸ ὁρῶν ἐστιν ὡς κεχρωμάτισται· τὸ γὰρ αἰσθητήριον, δεκτικὸν τοῦ αἰσθητοῦ ἄνευ τῆς ὕλης ἕκαστον. διὸ καὶ ἀπελθόντων τῶν αἰσθητῶν, ἔνεισιν αἱ αἰσθήσεις καὶ φαντασίαι ἐν τοῖς αἰσθητηρίοις. 12 Ἡ δὲ τοῦ αἰσθητοῦ ἐνέργεια καὶ τῆς αἰσθήσεως, ἡ αὐτὴ μέν ἐστι καὶ μία· τὸ δὲ εἶναι αὐταῖς οὐ ταὐτόν. λέγω δέ, οἷον ψόφος ὁ κατ' ἐνέργειαν, καὶ ἀκοὴ ἡ κατ' ἐνέργειαν· ἔστι γὰρ ἀκοὴν ἔχοντα μὴ ἀκούειν· καὶ τὸ ἔχον ψόφον, οὐκ ἀεὶ * ψοφεῖν. ὅταν δ' ἐνεργῇ τὸ δυνάμενον ἀκούειν, καὶ ψοφῇ τὸ δυνάμενον ψοφεῖν, τότε ἡ κατ' ἐνέργειαν ἀκοὴ ἅμα γίνεται καὶ ὁ κατ' ἐνέργειαν ψόφος. ὥστε καὶ φήσειεν ἄν τις, τὸ μὲν εἶναι ἄκουσιν, τὸ δὲ ψόφησιν. 13 Εἰ δὲ ἔστιν ἡ κίνησις καὶ ἡ ποίησις καὶ τὸ πάθος ἐν τῷ ποιουμένῳ, ἀνάγκη καὶ τὸν ψόφον καὶ τὴν ἀκοὴν τὴν κατ' ἐνέργειαν, ἐν τῇ κατὰ δύναμιν εἶναι. ἡ γὰρ τοῦ ποιητικοῦ καὶ κινητικοῦ ἐνέργεια ἐν τῷ πάσχοντι ἐγγίνεται. διὸ οὐκ ἀνάγκη τὸ κινοῦν κινεῖσθαι. ἡ μὲν οὖν τοῦ ψοφητικοῦ ἐνέργεια, ἐστὶ ψόφος, ἢ ψόφησις· ἡ δὲ τοῦ ἀκουστικοῦ, ἀκοή, ἢ ἄκουσις· διττὴ γὰρ ἡ ἀκοή, καὶ διττὸς ὁ ψόφος. 14 Ὁ δ' αὐτὸς λόγος καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν ἄλλων αἰσθήσεων καὶ αἰσθητῶν. ὥσπερ γὰρ ἡ ποίησις καὶ ἡ πάθησις ἐν τῷ πάσχοντι, καὶ οὐκ ἐν τῷ ποιοῦντι, οὕτω καὶ ἡ τοῦ αἰσθητοῦ ἐνέργεια ἐν τῷ αἰσθητικῷ. 15 Ἀλλ' ἐπ' ἐνίων μὲν ὠνόμασται, οἷον ἡ ψόφησις καὶ ἡ ἄκουσις. ἐπὶ δ' ἐνίων ἀνώνυμον θάτερον· ὅρασις γὰρ λέγεται ἡ τῆς ὄψεως ἐνέργεια, ἡ δὲ τοῦ χρώματος, ἀνώνυμος· καὶ γεῦσις, ἡ τοῦ γευστικοῦ·

alioquin nullo modo ſentimus niſi ex accidenti: vt Cleonis filium, non quòd ſit Cleonis filius, ſed quòd ſit albus: huic autem accidit, vt ſit filius Cleonis. atqui communium iam habemus ſenſum communem non ex accidenti. non eſt igitur ſenſus proprius: quia nullo modo ſentiremus, niſi vt dictum eſt nos videre Cleonis filium. 4 Ex accidenti autem ſenſus ſentiunt alter alterius propria obiecta, non quatenus ipſi, ſed quatenus vnus, quando ſimul in eodem ſit ſenſus: veluti bilem eſſe amaram & flauam. non enim alterius eſt dicere ambo eſſe vnum. ideóque decipitur, &, ſi ſit flauum, bilem eſſe putat. 5 Iam verò quærere quiſpiam poſſit, cuius gratia plures habeamus ſenſus, non vnum tantùm. An ne lateant ea quæ ſunt conſequentia, & communia, vt motus, & magnitudo, & numerus? nam ſi eſſet tantùm aſpectus, atque hic eſſet candoris, magis nos latere poſſent, ac videri idem eſſe omnia: quia ſe mutuò conſequuntur ſimul color & magnitudo. nunc verò quia communia inſunt in alio ſenſibili, hoc indicat vnumquodque ipſorum eſſe quiddam diuerſum.

6 Quia verò ſentimus nos videre & audire: neceſſe eſt vt vel aſpectu ſentiamus ipſum aſpectum videre, vel alio ſenſu. 7 Sed idem erit ſenſus & ipſius aſpectus & ſubiecti coloris. quare vel duo erunt ſenſus eiuſdem obiecti, vel idem erit ſenſus ſui ipſius. 8 Præterea ſi & alius ſit ſenſus ipſius aſpectus, aut in infinitum res abibit, aut aliquis ſenſus erit idem ſui ipſius. quapropter hoc & in primo eſt faciendum. 9 Eſt autem dubitatio. nam ſi aſpectu ſentire eſt videre: videtur autem color, aut quod habet colorem: certè ſi viderit quiſpiam id quod videt, etiam colorem habebit id quod primum videt. 10 Perſpicuum igitur eſt, non vnum eſſe quod dicitur aſpectu ſentire. nam & quando non videmus, tamen aſpectu diiudicamus & tenebras & lucem, non tamen eodem modo. 11 Præterea quod videt, quodammodo coloratur. nam vnumquodque ſenſorium vim habet ſuſcipiendi ſenſibilis ſine materia: ideóque abſcedentibus ſenſilibus inſunt ſenſus & phantaſiæ in ſenſoriis. 12 Iam verò actus ipſius ſenſibilis & ipſius ſenſns eſt quidem vnus & idem: ſed eorum eſſentia non eſt eadem: verbi gratia, ſonus qui eſt actu, & auditus qui eſt actu. nam fieri poteſt vt habens auditum non audiat: & quod habet ſonum, non ſemper ſonat. cùm autem operatur quod poteſt audire, & ſonat quod poteſt ſonare: tunc ſimul fit actu auditus & actu ſonus: adeo vt dicere aliquis poſſit alterum eſſe auditionem: alterum ſonationem. 13 Quòd ſi motus & effectio & paſſio ſunt in eo quod fit: neceſſe eſt, etiam ſonum & auditum qui eſt actu, eſſe in eo quod eſt poteſtate. nam actus eius quod efficiendi & mouendi vim habet, in eo fit quod patitur. quare non eſt neceſſe vt mouens moueatur. actus igitur eius quod ſonandi vim habet, eſt ſonus vel ſonatio: actus verò eius quod audiendi vim habet, eſt auditus vel auditio. nam duplex eſt auditus, & duplex ſonus. 14 Eadem ratio eſt etiam in aliis ſenſibus, & ſenſilibus. ſicut enim effectio & paſſio eſt in eo quod patitur, non in eo quod efficit: ita etiam actus ipſius ſenſibilis eſt in ſenſitiuo. 15 Sed in quibuſdam quidem etiam nomina poſita ſunt, vt ſonatio & auditio: in quibuſdam verò alterum nomine caret. nam actus ipſius viſus dicitur viſio: actus autem coloris nomine vacat: & actus guſtatiui appellatur guſtus:

ſed actus ſaporis nomine caret. 16 Quoniam autem viſus eſt actus tam ſenſibilis quàm ſenſitiui, eſſentia verò eſt diuerſa: neceſſe eſt vt auditus & ſonus ita accepti ſimul intereant & ſeruentur. ſic igitur & ſapor & guſtus, & reliqua ſimiliter. Quæ verò ſecundùm poteſtatem dicuntur, non eſt neceſſe vt ſimul intereant vel conſeruentur. Sed veteres qui de natura diſſeruerunt, hoc non rectè dixerunt, exiſtimantes nihil eſſe aut album aut nigrum ſine aſpectu, nec eſſe ſaporem ſine guſtu. partim enim rectè dixerunt, partim non rectè. quia cùm duobus modis dicatur ſenſus & ſenſibile, id eſt, alia poteſtate, alia actu: in his quidem accidit quod dictum eſt, in aliis verò non accidit. ſed illi B ſimpliciter locuti ſunt de iis quæ non ſimpliciter dicuntur. 17 Quòd ſi concentus eſt vox quædam, vox autem & auditus partim eſt vnum, partim non vnum, ſeu non idem: conceptus verò eſt ratio: certè neceſſe eſt, vt etiam auditus ſit ratio quædam.

D VNuſquiſque igitur ſenſus eſt ſubiecti ſenſibilis, cùm ſit in ſenſorio quà eſt ſenſorium: ac diſcernit ſubiecti ſenſibilis differentias: vt album & nigrum aſpectus: dulce autem & amarum guſtus. ſimiliter autem hoc ſe habet etiam in aliis. 2 Quoniam autem & album & dulce & quodlibet ſenſibile cum quolibet comparamus, aliquo autem etiam ſentimus hæc differre neceſſe, eſt igitur hoc fieri ſenſu: quia ſunt ſenſibilia. 3 Quare manifeſtum eſt carnem non eſſe vltimum ſenſorium: quia neceſſe eſſet vt id quod diſcerneret obiectum, tangendo ipſum diſcerneret. 4 Fieri ergo non poteſt, vt ſeparatis diiudicetur eſſe diuerſum dulce ab albo; (ſed oportet vni alicui eſſe vtraque manifeſta.) nam ſi ita eſſet, profectò etiamſi alterum ego, alterum tu ſentires, conſtare poſſet ea eſſe inter ſe diuerſa. ſed opus eſt, vt vnum dicat eſſe diuerſum: diuerſum enim eſt dulce ab albo. C CVm autem duabus differentiis maximè definiãt animam, motu ſcilicet ſecundùm locum, & eo quod intelligit & prudentis munere fungitur & ſentit: vtique tam intelligere quàm prudentis munere fungi, videtur eſſe vt ſentire quiddam: his enim vtriſque anima iudicat & cognoſcit entium aliquid. 2 Ac veteres idem eſſe inquiunt prudentis munere fungi, ac ſentire: ſicut & Empedocles ait,

– vnde ipſis ſemper
Etiam prudentis munere fungi, varia exhibet.

D Hoc idem ſibi vult etiam illud Homeri,

Talis eſt mens terreſtrium hominum,
Qualem in dies tribuit pater hominumque deorumque.

Hi namque omnes exiſtimant, intelligere eſſe corporeum, vt & ſentire: ac quemque ſimile ſimili ſentire & ſapere, vt & in primis ſermonibus definiuimus. 3 Atqui oportebat ſimul etiam de deceptione eos dicere: quia magis eſt propria animalibus, & plus temporis in his verſatur anima. 4 Idcirco neceſſe eſt, vel (vt nonnulli dicunt) omnia quæ videntur, eſſe vera, vel diſſimilis E tactum, eſſe deceptionem. hoc enim eſt contrarium ei cognitioni, quâ ſimile ſimili cognoſcitur. 5 Videtur autem & deceptio & ſcientia, contrariorum eadem eſſe. 6 Ergo non eſſe idem ſentire & prudentis munere fungi, perſpicuum eſt. nam alterum omnia, alterum pauca animalia participant. 7 Sed neque intelligere, in quo ineſt rectitudo & non rectitudo (quod enim rectè percipit, eſt prudentia, & ſcientia, & opinio vera. quod verò non rectè, his contraria) neque hoc, inquam, eſt idem quod ſentire: quia ſenſus propriorum obiectorum ſemper eſt verus, & omnibus ineſt animalibus: ratiocinari verò contingit etiam falsò, nec vlli ineſt, cui non inſit etiam ratio.

8 Phantaſia namque eſt res diuerſa & à ſenſu & à ratiocinatione. 9 Atque hæc non fit ſine ſenſu: & ſine hac non eſt exiſtimatio. 10 Non eſſe autem eandem, phantaſiam & exiſtimationem, perſpicuum eſt: hæc enim affectio in nobis eſt, quando volumus: licet enim ob oculos ponere, vt ij faciunt qui in memoriæ locis collocant & imagines faciunt: opinari autem non eſt in nobis, quia neceſſe eſt aut verè aut falsò opinari. 11 Præterea cùm opinamur aliquid moleſtum vel terribile, confeſtim ſimul patimur: itidémque ſi ſit aliquid quod fiduciam afferat: ſed quod ad phantaſiam, eodem modo affecti ſumus, quo ij qui in pictura aſpiciunt res moleſtas & fiduciam afferentes. 12 Sunt porrò & ipſius exiſtimationis hæ differentiæ, ſcientia, & opinio, & prudentia, & quæ ſunt his contraria: de quorum diſcrimine alia erit diſputatio.

A 8 φαντασία γὰρ ἕτερον καὶ αἰσθήσεως καὶ διανοίας. 9 αὕτη τε οὐ γίγνεται ἄνευ αἰσθήσεως, καὶ ἄνευ ταύτης οὐκ ἔστιν ὑπόληψις. 10 ὅτι δ' οὐκ ἔστιν ἡ αὐτὴ φαντασία καὶ ὑπόληψις, φανερόν· τοῦτο μὲν γὰρ τὸ πάθος ἐφ' ἡμῖν ἐστιν, ὅταν βουλώμεθα· πρὸ ὀμμάτων γὰρ ἔστι ποιήσασθαι, ὥσπερ οἱ ἐν τοῖς μνημονικοῖς τιθέμενοι καὶ εἰδωλοποιοῦντες. δοξάζειν δ' οὐκ ἐφ' ἡμῖν· ἀνάγκη γὰρ ἢ ψεύδεσθαι, ἢ ἀληθεύειν. 11 ἔτι δὲ, ὅταν μὲν δοξάσωμεν δεινόν τι ἢ φοβερὸν, εὐθὺς συμπάσχομεν, ὁμοίως δὲ κἂν ᾖ θαρραλέον. κατὰ δὲ τὴν φαντασίαν ὡσαύτως ἔχομεν, ὥσπερ ἂν οἱ θεώμενοι ἐν γραφῇ τὰ δεινὰ ἢ θαρραλέα. 12 Εἰσὶ δὲ καὶ αὐτῆς τῆς ὑπολήψεως διαφοραὶ, ἐπιστήμη, καὶ δόξα, καὶ φρόνησις, καὶ τὰ ἐναντία B τούτων, περὶ ὧν τῆς διαφορᾶς ἕτερος ἔστω λόγος.

QVod verò ad intelligere: quoniam eſt aliud quàm ſentire: & partim videtur eſſe phantaſia, partim exiſtimatio: cùm de imaginatione definiuerimus, ſic de altero dicendum erit. 2 Ergo ſi phantaſia eſt, ſecundùm quam dicimus in nobis fieri aliquod phantaſma, non ſi quid per tranſlationem dicimus: eſtne vna aliqua facultas vel habitus ex his quibus diſcernimus, ac verum vel falſum percipimus? hæc autem ſunt, ſenſus, opinio, intellectus, & ſcientia. 3 Phantaſiam igitur non eſſe ſenſum, ex his patet: quia ſenſus vel eſt poteſtas, vel actus; vt viſus & viſio: aliquid autem phantaſiæ videtur, etiam cùm neutrum horum ineſt, vt ea quæ in ſomnis videntur. 4 Deinde ſenſus quidem ſemper adeſt: phantaſia verò minimè. 5 Quòd ſi actu idem eſſet, omnibus beſtiis phantaſia ineſſe poſſet: videtur autem non ineſſe omnibus, vt formicæ, aut api, aut vermi. 6 Deinde illi quidem ſunt ſemper veri: phantaſiæ verò pleræque fiunt falſæ. 7 Deinde cùm exquiſitè operamur circa ſenſile, non dicimus nobis videri hoc eſſe hominem: ſed potiùs quando non euidenter ſentimus, túncque ſenſus eſt aut verus aut falſus. 8 Et quod antea dicebamus, etiam clauſis oculis ipſi phantaſiæ videntur res aſpectabiles. 9 At verò nec eſt aliquid ex iis quæ ſemper verum percipiunt, vt ſcientia, vel intellectus: eſt enim phantaſia etiam falſa. 10 Reſtat ergo vt videamus, an ſit opinio. fit enim opinio & vera & falſa. 11 Sed opinioni conſequens eſt fides: quia fieri nequit vt aliquis non habeat fidem iis quæ opinatur: nulli autem beſtiæ fides ineſt, ſed phantaſia multis. 12 Præterea omnem opinionem conſequitur fides, fidem autem conſequitur eſſe perſuaſum, perſuadet autem ratio: ſed quibuſdam beſtiis phantaſia ineſt, ratio verò non ineſt. 13 Perſpicuum igitur eſt, neque opinionem cum ſenſu, neque per ſenſum, neque coniunctionem opinionis & ſenſus, eſſe poſſe phantaſiam: idque propter hæc quæ dicta fuerant, eſt perſpicuum. 14 Et manifeſtum eſt, non eſſe aliam quandam opinionem, ſed eſſe eius, cuius eſt etiam ſenſus. verbi gratiâ connexio ex albi opinione & ſenſu eſt phantaſia. non eſt enim ex opinione boni, & ſenſu albi. Itaque phantaſiæ videri, eſt opinari id quod ſentit, non ex accidenti. 15 Porrò videntur etiam falſa, de quibus ſimul exiſtimationem veram aliquis habet:

A vt puta videtur Sol eſſe vnius pedis: ſed perſuaſum eſt, eum eſſe orbe terrarum maiorem. accidit igitur, vt vel abiecerit ſuam opinionem, quam veram habebat, ſalua re, non oblitus, nec diſſuaſus: vel ſi adhuc habet, neceſſe eſt eandem opinionem eſſe veram & falſam. ſed falſa fit, cùm res mutata latuerit. ergo phantaſia nec eſt vnum quiddam horum, nec ex his. 16 Sed cùm hoc moto poſſit alterum ab hoc moueri: phantaſia verò videatur eſſe motus quidam, & ſine ſenſu non fieri, ſed ſentientibus, & quarum rerum ſenſus ſunt: poſſit autem fieri motus ab actu ſenſus: & neceſſe ſit hunc motum eſſe ſimilem ſenſui: profectò hic motus nec poteſt eſſe ſine ſenſu, nec ineſſe iis quæ non ſentiunt. 17 Et hinc fit vt quod eum habet, multa B ſecundùm eum & faciat & patiatur. 18 Et vt ſit & verus & falſus. hoc autem propter hæc accidit: Senſus propriorum quidem obiectorum eſt verus, aut quàm minimum habet falſitatis. ſecundò autem ſenſus eſt eius cui hæc accidunt: atque hic iam poteſt eſſe falſus. nam quòd album ſit, non fallitur: ſed vtrùm album illud, ſit hoc, an aliud quidpiam, fallitur. tertiò eſt communium & conſequentium accidentia, quibus inſunt propria. verbi gratia, motus & magnitudo accidunt rebus ſenſibilibus, in quibus iam maximè fit deceptio ſecundùm ſenſum. 19 Iam verò motus qui ab actu fit, id eſt ab his tribus ſenſibus, differt à ſenſu. & primus quidem præſente ſenſu eſt verus: alij au-C tem eo & præſente & abſente poſſunt eſſe falſi, maximè cùm ſenſibile eſt procul. 20 Si igitur nihil aliud habet ea quæ dicta ſunt, quàm phantaſia: hoc autem eſt quod dictum fuit: phantaſia vtique erit motus factus à ſenſu qui eſt ſecundùm actum. 21 Quoniam autem aſpectus eſt maximè ſenſus, etiam nomen phantaſia ſumſit ἀπὸ τοῦ φάους, id eſt, à lumine, quia ſine lumine non poteſt videri. 22 Et quia immanent & ſimiles ſunt ſenſibus, multa ſecundùm eas agunt animalia: alia quidem, quia non habent intellectum, vt beſtiæ, alia verò, quia intellectus interdum obruitur perturbatione, aut morbo, aut ſomno, vt homines. 23 Itaque de phantaſia, quid ſit, & quamobrem ſit, hactenus di-D ctum eſto.

Περὶ δὲ τοῦ μορίου τοῦ τῆς ψυχῆς, ᾧ γινώσκει τε ἡ ψυχὴ καὶ φρονεῖ, εἴτε χωριστοῦ ὄντος, εἴτε καὶ μὴ χωριστοῦ κατὰ μέγεθος, ἀλλὰ κατὰ λόγον, σκεπτέον τίν' ἔχει διαφορὰν, καὶ πῶς ποτὲ γίνεται τὸ νοεῖν. 23 εἰ δή ἐστι τὸ νοεῖν ὥσπερ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαι, ἢ πάσχειν τι ἂν εἴη E ὑπὸ τοῦ νοητοῦ, ἤ τι τοιοῦτον ἕτερον. 3 ἀπαθὲς ἄρα δεῖ εἶναι, δεκτικὸν δὲ τοῦ εἴδους, καὶ δυνάμει τοιοῦτον· ἀλλὰ μὴ τοῦτο· καὶ ὁμοίως ἔχειν, ὥσπερ τὸ αἰσθητικὸν πρὸς τὰ αἰσθητὰ, οὕτω τὸν νοῦν πρὸς τὰ νοητά. 4 ἀνάγκη ἄρα, ἐπεὶ πάντα νοεῖ, ἀμιγῆ εἶναι, ὥσπερ φησὶν Ἀναξαγόρας, ἵνα κρατῇ· τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶν, ἵνα γνωρίζῃ· παρεμφαινόμενον γὰρ κωλύει τὸ ἀλλότριον, καὶ ἀντιφράττει. 5 ὥστε μηδ' αὐτοῦ εἶναι φύσιν τινὰ μηδεμίαν, ἀλλ' ἢ ταύτην, ὅτι δυνατόν. ὁ ἄρα καλούμενος τῆς ψυχῆς νοῦς·

De parte autem animæ, qua cognoſcit anima & prudentis munere fungitur, ſiue ſeparabilis ſit, ſiue non ſeparabilis magnitudine, ſed ratione, conſiderandum eſt quam habeat differentiam, & quonam modo fiat, intelligere. 2 Ergo ſi intelligere eſt vt ſentire: aut pati quiddam fuerit ab E intelligibili, aut aliquid aliud eiuſmodi. 3 Impatibile igitur eſſe oportet, ſed aptum ad recipiendam ſpeciem: & poteſtate tale, non tamen hoc: & ſimiliter habere, vt ſenſitiuum ad ſenſibilia, ita intellectum ad intelligibilia. 4 Neceſſe eſt igitur, eum quia omnia intelligit, eſſe non mixtum, ſicut ait Anaxagoras, vt ſuperet: hoc autem eſt, vt cognoſcat. quod enim intus apparet, prohibet alienum, atque obſtruit. 5 Adeo vt non ſit eius vlla alia natura, quàm hæc, vt ſit poſſibilis. Qui igitur vocatur animæ intellectus,

De intellectu agente. Cap. VI.

A ἘΠεὶ δ' ὥσπερ ἐν ἁπάσῃ τῇ φύσει ἐστί τι, τὸ μὲν ὕλη ἑκάστῳ γένει· τοῦτο δέ, ὅτι πάντα, δυνάμει ἐκεῖνα· ἕτερον δὲ τὸ αἴτιον καὶ ποιητικόν, τῷ ποιεῖν πάντα, οἷον ἡ τέχνη πρὸς τὴν ὕλην πέπονθεν, ἀνάγκη καὶ ἐν τῇ ψυχῇ ὑπάρχειν ταύτας τὰς διαφοράς· καὶ ἔστιν ὁ μὲν τοιοῦτος νοῦς, τῷ πάντα γίνεσθαι· ὁ δέ, τῷ πάντα ποιεῖν, ὡς ἕξις τις, οἷον τὸ φῶς· τρόπον γάρ τινα καὶ τὸ φῶς ποιεῖ τὰ δυνάμει ὄντα χρώματα ἐνεργείᾳ χρώματα. 2 καὶ οὗτος ὁ νοῦς χωριστός, καὶ ἀμιγής, καὶ ἀπαθὴς τῇ οὐσίᾳ ὢν ἐνεργείᾳ. ἀεὶ γὰρ τιμιώτερον τὸ ποιοῦν τοῦ πάσχοντος, καὶ ἡ ἀρχὴ τῆς ὕλης. B 3 τὸ αὐτὸ δέ ἐστιν ἡ κατ' ἐνέργειαν ἐπιστήμη τῷ πράγματι· ἡ δὲ κατὰ δύναμιν, χρόνῳ προτέρα ἐν τῷ ἑνί. ὅλως δέ, οὐδὲ χρόνῳ· ἀλλ' οὐχ ὁτὲ μὲν νοεῖ, ὁτὲ δὲ οὐ νοεῖ. 4 χωρισθεὶς δέ ἐστι μόνον τοῦθ' ὅπερ ἐστί, καὶ τοῦτο μόνον ἀθάνατον καὶ ἀΐδιον. 5 οὐ μνημονεύομεν δέ, ὅτι τοῦτο μὲν ἀπαθές, ὁ δὲ παθητικὸς νοῦς, φθαρτός, καὶ ἄνευ τούτου οὐθὲν νοεῖ.

QVoniã autẽ vt in vniuerſa natura eſt aliquid, quod eſt materia cuique generi ſubiecta, (idque quia poteſtate eſt omnia illa) alterum verò, quod eſt cauſſa, & vim habet efficiendi, quia facit omnia (vt ars ad materiam affecta eſt) neceſſe eſt etiam in anima ineſſe has differentias. atque alter eſt talis intellectus, quia omnia fit: alter, quia omnia facit, tamquam habitus quidam, velut lumen: nam quodammodo etiam lumen eos qui ſunt poteſtate colores, facit actu colores. 2 Atque hic intellectus eſt ſeparabilis, & non mixtus, & impatibilis, cùm eſſentialiter ſit actus. ſemper enim præſtantius eſt efficiens patiente, & principium materia. 3 Porrò idem eſt ſcientia actu, quod res. ſcientia verò quæ eſt poteſtate, tempore prior in vno eſt: omnino autem ne quidem tempore, ſed non quandoque intelligit, quandoque non intelligit. 4 Separatus autem eſt, ſolùm hoc ipſum quod eſt. & hoc ſolùm eſt immortale & æternum. 5 Non recordamur autem: quoniam hoc eſt quidem impatibile: ſed patibilis intellectus eſt interitui obnoxius, ac ſine hoc nihil intelligit.

C ἩΜὲν οὖν τῶν ἀδιαιρέτων νόησις ἐν τούτοις, περὶ ἃ οὐκ ἔστι τὸ ψεῦδος· ἐν οἷς δὲ τὸ ψεῦδος καὶ τὸ ἀληθές, σύνθεσίς τις ἤδη νοημάτων, ὥσπερ ἓν ὄντων. 2 καθάπερ Ἐμπεδοκλῆς ἔφη,

ᾗ πολλῶν μὲν κόρσαι ἀναύχενες ἐβλάστησαν·

ἔπειτα συντίθεσθαι τῇ φιλίᾳ· οὕτω καὶ ταῦτα κεχωρισμένα συντίθεται, οἷον τὸ ἀσύμμετρον, καὶ ἡ διάμετρος. 3 ἂν δὲ γενομένων ἢ ἐσομένων, τὸν χρόνον προσεννοῶν, καὶ συντιθείς· τὸ γὰρ ψεῦδος ἐν συνθέσει ἀεί· καὶ γὰρ ἂν τὸ λευκὸν μὴ λευκόν, τὸ μὴ λευκὸν συνέθηκεν. ἐνδέχεται δὲ καὶ διαίρεσιν φάναι πάντα. ἀλλ' οὖν ἔστι γε οὐ μόνον τὸ ψεῦδος ἢ ἀληθές, ὅτι λευκὸς Κλέων ἐστίν, ἀλλὰ καὶ D ὅτι ἦν, ἢ ἔσται. τὸ δὲ ἓν ποιοῦν, τοῦτο ὁ νοῦς ἕκαστον.

INdiuiduorum igitur intellectio in iis ſpectatur, in quibus non eſt falſitas. in quibus autem eſt falſitas & veritas, iam eſt compoſitio quædam conceptuum, quaſi vnum ſint. 2 Quemadmodum Empedocles ait, deinde componi amicitia: ita etiam hæc ſeparata componuntur, vt aſymmetrum & diameter.

Certè multorum capita ſine ceruicibus pullularunt,

3 Quòd ſi præteritorum aut futurorum intellectio ſit, tempus inſuper intelligit & componit. falſitas enim ſemper in compoſitione conſiſtit. nam & ſi aſſerat album non eſſe album, illud non album compoſuit. licet autem & diuiſionem omnia dicere. verum enimvero non ſolùm falſum aut verum eſt, Cleonem eſſe album, ſed etiam fuiſſe, aut fore. quod verò quæque vnum facit, id eſt intellectus.
4 Indiuiduum autem cùm bifariàm dicatur, id eſt, vel poteſtate vel actu: nihil prohibet quominus intellectus intelligat indiuiduum, quando intelligit longitudinem. quoniam eſt indiuiduum actu: & in tempore indiuiduo, quia ſimiliter tempus eſt diuiduum & indiuiduum, vt longitudo. non licet igitur dicere, quid in vtraque dimidia parte intelligat: quandoquidem ſi non diuidatur, non eſt niſi poteſtate. ſeparatim verò cùm vtrumque dimidium intelligit, ſimul etiam diuidit tempus: ſed tunc intelligit quaſi longitudines. quòd ſi intelligat quaſi compoſitum ex vtriſque, profectò intelliget etiam eo tempore quod eſt in vtriſque. 5 Quod autem eſt indiuiduum, non quantitate, ſed forma, intelligit in indiuiduo tempore, & indiuiduâ parte animæ. 6 Ex accidenti autem: nec quatenus ea ſunt diuidua, quod intelligit, & quo tempore; ſed quatenus indiuidua. ineſt enim etiam in his aliquid indiuiduum, ſed fortaſſe non ſeparabile, quod efficit vt tempus ſit vnum, & longitudo vna.

atque hoc ſimiliter eſt in omni continuo & tempore & longitudine. 7 Punctum verò, & omnis diuiſio, & quod ita eſt indiuiduum, notificatur vt priuatio. ſimilisque ratio eſt in aliis: veluti quomodo malum cognoſcit aut nigrum: nam contrario quodammodo cognoſcit. 8 Oportet autem, vt id quod cognoſcit, poteſtate ſit, & vnum ſit in ipſo. ſi cui verò non eſt contrarium in cauſſa, ipſum ſe ipſum cognoſcit & actu eſt, atque ſeparabile. 9 Porrò dictio eſt aliquid de aliquo, vt affirmatio: & omnis eſt vera aut falſa. intellectus autem non omnis, ſed intellectus ipſius quid eſt, ſecundùm quidditatem eſt verus, non aliquid de aliquo. ſed vt aſpectus proprij obiecti eſt verus: an autem album illud ſit homo nec ne, non eſt ſemper verus: ita etiam ſe habent, quæcumque materia vacant.

IAm verò ſcientia quæ eſt actu, idem eſt quod res. ſed quæ eſt poteſtate, tempore prior eſt in vno. omnino autem ne quidem tempore: nam quæcumque fiunt, ex eo ſunt quod eſt actu.* 2 Apparet autem, ſenſibile ex eo quod poteſtate eſt ſenſitiuum, efficere actu ſenſitiuum: non enim patitur, nec variatur. quapropter hæc eſt alia ſpecies motus: quandoquidem motus erat actus imperfecti: actus verò qui ſimpliciter eſt, alius eſt, nempe is qui eſt perfecti. 3 Ergo ſentire eſt ſimile dictioni ſoli, & intellectioni. cùm autem iucundum aut moleſtum percepit; quaſi affirmaſſet aut negaſſet, perſequitur vel fugit. 4 Ac voluptate & dolore affici nihil aliud eſt, quàm operari ſenſitiua medietate erga bonum vel malum, quà ſunt talia. & fuga igitur & appetitio quæ eſt actu, hoc ipſum eſt: nec diuerſa ſunt appetitiuum & fugitiuum, nec inter ſe, nec à ſenſitiuo: ſed eſſentia alia eſt. 5 Animæ verò dianoëticæ phantaſmata ſunt, veluti ſenſibilia. cùm autem malum aut bonum affirmarit vel negarit, fugit aut perſequitur. Quapropter numquam hæc anima intelligit ſine phantaſmate. 6 Porrò ſicut aër pupillam talem fecit, hæc verò aliud: ſic etiam auditus. vltimum verò eſt vnum, & vna medietas: ſed eſſentia ipſius eſt plura. quo autem diſcernit, quatenus differant dulce & calidum, dictum quidem & antea fuit, ſed nunc quoque dicendum eſt. nam eſt vnum quiddam, ſic autem vt terminus. 7 Atque hæc ſunt vnum proportione & numero, quem habent ad vtrumque, vt illa inter ſe. quid enim refert hoc dubitare, quomodo homogenea iudicat, ſeu contraria, vt album & nigrum? Eſto igitur vt α, id eſt album, ad β id eſt nigrum, ita γ ad δ, vt (inquam) illa inter ſe. quapropter etiam commutato ordine. ſi igitur γ δ vni inſint: ita ea habebit vnum & idem, vt α β: ſed eſſentia non eſt eadem. & illud ſimiliter. Eadem ratio eſt, etiam ſi α ſit dulce, ac β album. 8 Species igitur intellectiuum in phantaſmatibus intelligit. & vt in illis definitum ei eſt, quod eſt perſequendum & fugiendum, etiam quod eſt extra ſenſum, quando eſt in phantaſmatibus, mouetur. vt ſentiens facem, ſenſu communi cognoſcit eſſe ignem: & videns eam moueri, cognoſcit eſſe hoſtem. quandoque verò in phantaſmatibus ſeu conceptibus qui ſunt in anima, quaſi cernens, ratiocinatur & conſultat de futuris, reſpiciens ad præſentia. & cùm dixerit: vt illic eſt iucundum aut moleſtum, ita hîc fugit aut perſequitur, & omnino in actione eſt.

B Νῦν δὲ περὶ ψυχῆς τὰ λεχθέντα συγκεφαλαιώσαντες, εἴπωμεν πάλιν, ὅτι ἡ ψυχὴ τὰ ὄντα πώς ἐστι πάντα· ἢ γὰρ αἰσθητὰ τὰ ὄντα, ἢ νοητά. ἔστι δ' ἡ ἐπιστήμη μὲν, τὰ ἐπιστητά πως· ἡ δ' αἴσθησις, τὰ αἰσθητά. 2 πῶς δὲ τοῦτο, δεῖ ζητεῖν. τέμνεται οὖν ἡ ἐπιστήμη καὶ ἡ αἴσθησις εἰς τὰ πράγματα, ἡ μὲν δυνάμει εἰς τὰ δυνάμει· ἡ δ' ἐντελεχεία, εἰς τὰ ἐντελεχεία. τῆς δὲ ψυχῆς τὸ αἰσθητικὸν, καὶ τὸ ἐπιστημονικὸν, δυνάμει ταῦτά ἐστι, τὸ μὲν ἐπιστητὸν, τὸ δὲ αἰσθητόν· ἀνάγκη δ' ἢ αὐτὰ, ἢ τὰ εἴδη εἶναι· αὐτὰ μὲν γὰρ δὴ οὔ· οὐ γὰρ ὁ λίθος ἐν τῇ ψυχῇ, ἀλλὰ τὸ εἶδος· ὥστε ἡ ψυχὴ ὥσπερ ἡ χείρ ἐστι· C καὶ γὰρ ἡ χεὶρ ὄργανόν ἐστιν ὀργάνων· καὶ ὁ νοῦς δὲ, εἶδος εἰδῶν· καὶ ἡ αἴσθησις, εἶδος αἰσθητῶν. 3 ἐπεὶ δὲ οὐδὲ πρᾶγμα οὐθέν ἐστι παρὰ τὰ μεγέθη, ὡς δοκεῖ, τὰ αἰσθητὰ, κεχωρισμένον, ἐν τοῖς εἴδεσι τοῖς αἰσθητοῖς τὰ νοητά ἐστι, τά τε ἐν ἀφαιρέσει λεγόμενα, καὶ ὅσα τῶν αἰσθητῶν, ἕξεις καὶ πάθη· καὶ διὰ τοῦτο οὔτε μὴ αἰσθανόμενος μηθὲν, οὐθὲν ἂν μάθοι, οὐδὲ ξυνίοι. 4 ὅταν δὲ θεωρῇ, ἀνάγκη ἅμα φάντασμά τι θεωρεῖν· τὰ γὰρ φαντάσματα, ὥσπερ αἰσθήματά ἐστι, πλὴν ἄνευ ὕλης. 5 ἔστι δ' ἡ φαντασία, ἕτερον φάσεως καὶ ἀποφάσεως· συμπλοκὴ γάρ ἐστι νοημάτων τὸ ἀληθὲς ἢ ψεῦδος. 6 τὰ δὲ πρῶτα νοήματα, τίνι διοίσει τοῦ μὴ D φαντάσματα εἶναι; ἢ οὐδὲ τἆλλα φαντάσματα, ἀλλ' οὐκ ἄνευ φαντασμάτων;

Nunc autem ea quæ de anima dicta ſunt, ſummatim complectentes, dicamus rurſus, animam quodammodo eſſe omnia entia. nam entia vel ſunt ſenſibilia vel intelligibilia: ac ſcientia quidē eſt quodāmodo ſcibilia: ſenſus verò, ſenſibilia. 2 Quomodo autem hoc ſit, oportet quærere. ſecatur igitur ſciētia & ſenſus in res: nempe qui quæ ve eſt poteſtate, in ea quæ ſunt poteſtate: qui quæve eſt actu, in ea quæ ſunt actu. animæ autem pars ſenſitiua, & pars ſcientialis poteſtate eſt hæc: id eſt, altera, ſcibile: altera, ſenſibile. iam verò neceſſe eſt vel eſſe res ipſas, vel ſpecies. atqui non ſunt ipſæ res: quoniam lapis non eſt in anima, ſed ſpecies. Quapropter anima eſt veluti manus. etenim manus eſt inſtrumentum inſtrumentorum: & intellectus eſt speciēs ſpecierum: & ſenſus eſt ſpecies ſenſibilium. 3 Quia verò res nulla eſt præter magnitudines (vt videtur) ſenſibiles, ſeparata: in ſpeciebus ſenſibilibus ſunt intelligibilia, tam ea quæ in abiunctione dicuntur, quàm ea quæ ſunt ſenſibilium habitus & affectiones. ideóque is qui nihil ſentit, nihil diſcere aut intelligere poteſt. 4 Cùm autem contemplatur, neceſſe eſt ſimul phantaſma aliquod contemplari. nam phantaſmata ſunt vt ſenſibilia, prætterquam quòd ſunt ſine materia. 5 Porrò phantaſia differt ab affirmatione & negatione. nam verum aut falſum eſt complexio mentis conceptuum. 6 Primi autem mentis conceptus quo different, vt non ſint phantaſmata? an ne hæc quidem ſunt phantaſmata, ſed non ſunt ſine phantaſmatibus?

Ἐπεὶ δὲ ἡ ψυχὴ κατὰ δύο ὥρισται δυνάμεις, ἡ τῶν ζῴων, τῷ τε κριτικῷ, (ὃ διανοίας ἔργον ἐστὶ καὶ αἰσθήσεως·) καὶ ἔτι τῷ κινεῖν τὴν κατὰ τόπον κίνησιν, περὶ μὲν αἰσθήσεως καὶ νοῦ, διωρίσθω τοσαῦτα. E περὶ δὲ τοῦ κινοῦντος τί ποτέ ἐστι τῆς ψυχῆς, σκεπτέον, πότερον ἕν τι μόριον αὐτῆς χωριστὸν ὂν, ἢ μεγέθει, ἢ λόγῳ· ἢ πᾶσα ἡ ψυχή· κἂν εἰ [ἢ] μόριόν τι, πότερον ἴδιόν τι παρὰ τὰ εἰωθότα λέγεσθαι, καὶ τὰ εἰρημένα, ἢ τούτων ἕν τι. 2 ἔχει δὲ ἀπορίαν εὐθὺς, πῶς τε δεῖ μόρια ψυχῆς λέγειν, καὶ πόσα. τρόπον γάρ τινα ἄπειρα φαίνεται, καὶ οὐ μόνον ἅ τινες λέγουσι,

Cvm autem animalium anima duabus poteſtatibus definita ſit, nempe iudicandi, (quod eſt munus dianœæ, & ſenſus) & præterea loco mouendi: de ſenſu quidē & intellectu tot expoſita ſunto: de facultate autem mouente, quid tandem ſit animæ, conſiderandum eſt: vtrùm ſit vna quædam eius pars ſeparata vel magnitudine vel ratione, an ſit tota anima: & ſi ſit pars quædam, vtrùm ſit propria quædam pars, præter eas quæ dici ſolent, & quæ commemoratæ ſunt, an harum vna quæpiam. 2 Sed oritur ſtatim dubitatio, quomodo dicere oporteat partes animæ, & quot. nam quodāmodo infinitæ videntur: nec ſolùm quas nonnulli dicunt, diſtinguentes facultatem ratiocinandi & iraſcendi & cupiendi: alij verò, ratione præditam & rationis expertem. etenim ſecundùm differentias, per quas ſeiungunt has partes, etiam aliæ partes videntur his de quibus & nunc dictum fuit, magis diſtantes: nimirum & nutritiua, (quæ tam plantis ineſt, quàm omnibus animalibus) & ſenſitiua: (quam nec vt rationis expertem, nec vt rationis participem, ponere aliquis facilè poſſit) inſuper phantaſtica: (quæ quidem eſſentiâ differt ab omnibus: ſed cum qua harum ſit eadem, vel diuerſa, magna eſt dubitatio, ſi quis partes animæ ſeparatas poſuerit) ad hæc, appetitiua: (quæ & ratione & poteſtate videri poteſt ab omnibus diuerſa: & abſurdum eſt eam diuellere: quoniam & in facultate ratiocinandi fit voluntas, & in facultate rationis experte cupiditas & ira. quòd ſi anima eſt tria, in vnoquoque erit appetitus) item ea, de qua nunc diſputatio eſt inſtituta, videlicet quid ſit quod loco mouet animal.

4 Non eſſe igitur facultatem nutritiuam quæ moueat, manifeſtum eſt: quia ſemper hic motus eſt alicuius gratiâ: & vel cum phantaſia, vel cum appetitu: nihil enim, quod non appetat aut fugiat, mouetur, niſi vi. 5 Præterea etiam plantæ hoc motu eſſent præditæ, & haberent aliquam partem organicam ad hunc motum ciendum. 6 Similiter nec ſenſitiuum. multa enim ſunt animalia, quæ ſenſum quidem habent, ſed ſtabilia ſunt, & immutabilia perpetuò. 7 Si igitur natura nec facit quicquam fruſtra, nec omittit aliquid neceſſarium, niſi in iis quæ ſunt mutila & imperfecta: eiuſmodi verò animalia ſunt perfecta, non mutila: (cuius rei ſignum eſt, quòd gignendi vim, & ætatis florem ſeu ſtatum habent ac decrementum) haberent igitur etiam organicas partes inceſſus. 8 Quin ne ratiocinatiua quidem pars & qui vocatur intellectus, eſt qui mouet. nam contemplatiuus nihil intelligit quod ſub actionem cadat, nec aliquid dicit de fugiendo & de perſequendo: hic verò motus ſemper eſt aut fugientis aliquid aut perſequentis. 9 Sed neque cùm tale aliquid contemplatur, iam iubet aliquid fugere aut perſequi. vt putà ſæpe intelligit aliquid formidoloſum aut iucundum: non tamen iubet metuere: ſed cor mouetur. ſi verò eſt iucundum: alia quædam pars mouetur. 10 Præterea etiam iubente intellectu & monente dianœa fugere aliquid aut perſequi, tamen non mouetur, ſed ſecundùm cupiditatem agit, vt faciunt incontinentes. 11 Denique videmus eum qui medicinam tenet, non mederi, tamquàm penes aliud quiddam ſit poteſtas ſecundùm ſcientiam agendi, non penes ſcientiam.

Cap. XI.

A Videntur autem hæc duo mouentia eſſe, vel appetitus, vel intellectus, ſi quis phantaſiam ponat tanquam intellectionem quandam. in multis enim poſthabitâ ſcientiâ ſequuntur phantaſias: & in aliis animalibus non eſt intellectio nec ratio, ſed phantaſia. ambo igitur hæc vim loco mouendi habent, nimirum intellectus & appetitus. 2 Intellectus, inquam, qui alicuius cauſſa ratiocinatur, & qui eſt actiuus, fine autem differt à contemplatiuo. & appetitus omnis eſt alicuius gratiâ. 3 Cuius enim eſt appetitus, id principium eſt actiui intellectus. quod autem eſt poſtremum, eſt principium actionis. Quapropter meritò duo hæc mouentia videntur, appetitus, & dianœa actiua. etenim appe-B titiuum mouet. ideóque dianœa mouet: quia quod eſt appetibile, eſt huius principium. quinetiam phantaſia, quando mouet, non mouet ſine appetitu. 4 Vnum igitur quiddam eſt, quod mouet primò, nempe appetibile. nam ſi duo, videlicet intellectus & appetitus, mouerent, ſecundùm communem aliquam formam mouerent. nunc autem intellectus quidem non videtur mouere ſine appetitu (nam voluntas eſt appetitus: cùm autem ratione mouetur, etiam voluntate mouetur) ſed appetitus mouet ſine ratione: quoniam cupiditas eſt appetitus quidam. 5 Omnis igitur intellectus eſt rectus: appetitus autem & phantaſia ſunt & recta & non recta. idcircò ſemper quidem appetibile C mouet: ſed hoc eſt vel bonum vel quod videtur bonum: non tamen omne bonum, ſed quod ſub actionem cadit. ſub actionem verò cadit bonum, quod poteſt etiam aliter ſe habere. huiuſmodi igitur animæ facultatem mouere, quæ vocatur appetitus, perſpicuum eſt. 6 Iis autem qui diuidunt partes animæ, ſi ſecundùm poteſtates diuidant ac ſeparent, permultæ fiunt, videlicet nutritiua, ſenſitiua, intellectiua, deliberatiua, præterea etiam appetitiua. hæ namque magis differunt inter ſe, quàm vis cupiendi & vis iraſcendi. 7 Cùm autem appetitus fiant inter ſe contrarij (quod quidem accidit, cùm ratio & cupiditas contrarij appetitus ſunt: ac fit in iis, quæ temporis ſenſum habent: intelle-D ctus enim propter id quod eſt futurum, reluctari iubet: cupiditas autem eſt propter id quod iam eſt: quia quod iam eſt iucundum, videtur & ſimpliciter iucundum, & ſimpliciter bonum, propterea quòd non videt quod eſt futurum) ſpecie quidem vnum fuerit id quod mouet, id eſt appetitiuum, quatenus eſt appetitiuum: primum vero omnium eſt appetibile: (hoc enim mouet non motum, quia intellectu vel phantaſia apprehenditur) numero autem plura ſunt, quæ mouent. 8 Cùm autem tria ſint: vnum, quod mouet: ſecundum, quo mouet: & præterea tertium, id quod mouetur: quod autem mouet duplex ſit, alterum immobile, alterum mouens & motum: immobile quidem eſt bonum illud E quod ſub actionem cadit: mouens verò & motum eſt ipſum appetitiuum: (mouetur enim, quod appetit, quatenus appetit: & appetitus eſt motus quidam, quatenus eſt actus) quod verò mouetur, eſt animal: quo autem organo appetitus mouet, hoc iam corporeum eſt. idcirco in communibus corporis & animæ muneribus diſpiciendum de his eſt. nunc verò vt ſummatim dicamus, illud eſt quod mouet organicè, vbi idem eſt principium & finis: veluti cardo: hic enim conuexum & concauum, alterum finis,alterum principium eſt. vnde alterum quieſcit, A alterum mouetur: cùm ratione quidem differant, ſed magnitudine non ſeparentur. omnia namque pulſu ac tractu mouentur. proinde oportet, vt in circulo, aliquid manere, & inde motum incipere. 9 Omnino igitur (vt dictum eſt) animal quatenus eſt appetitiuum, eatenus eſt ſui motiuum, appetitiuum autem non eſt ſine phantaſia. omnis verò phantaſia vel eſt ratiocinatiua, vel ſenſitiua: atque hanc etiam reliqua animalia participant. 10 Conſiderandũ autem eſt etiã de animalibus imperfectis, quid ſit quod ea mouet, quibus ſenſus tactus tãtùm ineſt, vtrùm fieri poſſit vt phantaſia & cupiditas iis inſint, an non. 11 Videtur enim dolor & voluptas iis ineſſe. quòd ſi hæc inſunt, neceſſe eſt ineſſe etiam B cupiditatẽ. 12 Phantaſia verò quomodo ineſſe poteſt? an ſicuti mouentur indefinitè, ita etiã hæc ipſis inſunt quidem, ſed indefinitè inſunt? 13 Ergo ſenſitiua phantaſia (ſicuti dictum eſt) etiam brutis animalibus ineſt: deliberatiua autem in iis dumtaxat, quæ ſunt ratione prædita. vtrùm enim faciet hoc an hoc, rationis iam eſt munus. 14 Ac neceſſe eſt ſemper vno metiri: perſequitur enim quod eſt maius. Quapropter poteſt vnum ex multis phantaſmatibus facere. 15 Atque hæc eſt cauſſa, cur appetitus non videatur habere opinionẽ: quia ſcilicet eam non habet, quæ ex ſyllogiſmo proficiſcitur. hæc autẽ illũ habet. 16 Idcirco deliberãdi vim appetitus non habet. vincit autem interdũ ac mouet voluntatem: quandoque autem illa hunc, ſicuti ſphæra, C appetitus ſcilicet appetitum, quando incontinentia fit. naturaliter verò ſemper facultas ſuperior eſt potior & mouet. adeo vt tribus lationibus iam moueatur. 17 Scientiale verò non mouet, ſed permanet. 18 Quia verò altera eſt exiſtimatio & ratio rei vniuerſalis, altera rei ſingularis: (illa enim inquit opus eſſe, vt qui eſt talis, hoc tale faciat: hæc verò ait hoc eſſe tale, & me eſſe talem) iam hæc opinio mouet, non illa vniuerſalis: aut ambo mouent, ſed illa magis quieſcens, hæc verò minimè.

vel corpori: nunc verò neutrum eſt: illa namque non magis intelliget: hoc verò ob id non magis erit. nullum igitur corpus non ſtabile habet animam ſine ſenſu. 6 At verò ſi ſenſum habeat, neceſſe eſt vt corpus ſit vel ſimplex vel mixtum: ſed fieri nequit, vt ſit ſimplex: quoniam tactum non habebit: neceſſe autem eſt hunc habere.

8 Idcirco & guſtus eſt veluti tactus quidam: quoniam eſt alimenti: alimentum verò eſt corpus tactile. ſonus autem & color & odor non alit, nec efficit vel auctionem vel deminutionem. Quapropter & guſtum neceſſe eſt eſſe tactum quendam: quia eſt ſenſus rei tactilis & nutritiuæ. Ergo hi ſenſus neceſſarij ſunt animali: ac perſpicuum eſt non poſſe ſine tactu eſſe animal. 9 Alij verò ſenſus inſunt, vt bene ſit: ac neceſſe eſt vt inſint generi animalium, non cuiuis, ſed quibuſdam, vt ei quod vim habet incedendi. etenim ſi futurum eſt vt conſeruetur, non ſolum opus eſt, vt cùm tangit, ſentiat, ſed etiam eminus: hoc autem erit, ſi vim ſentiendi habeat per intermedium, eo quòd illud à ſenſibili patitur ac mouetur, ipſum autem ab illo. 10 Sic vt enim quod loco mouet, vſque ad aliquid mutationem facit: & pellens alterum, facit vt illud pellat: ac per medium eſt motus: & primùm quidem mouens pellit non pulſum: vltimum autem tantùm pellitur, cùm ipſum non pellat: medium verò vtraque: multa autem media eſſe poſſunt: ita etiam in variatione res habet, præterquam quòd manentia in eodem loco variant. 11 Veluti ſi quis in ceram mergat aliquid, eò vſque mota eſt, quò vſque merſit: lapis autem nihil mouetur: ſed aqua ad longiorem diſtantiam. aër verò ad maximam diſtantiam mouetur, & facit ac patitur, ſi maneat & vnus ſit.

12 Quocirca & de refractione rectiùs, quàm aſpectum egredientem reflecti, dicitur aërem pati à colore & figura, quò vſque vnus eſt, in læui autem eſt vnus. idcóque rurſus hic aſpectum mouet, perinde ac ſi in cera ſigillum tranſmitteretur vſque ad extremum terminum. 13 Porrò fieri non poſſe vt corpus animalis ſit ſimplex, perſpicuum eſt: verbi gratia, igneum, aut aëreum. quoniam ſine tactu nullus alius ſenſus haberi poteſt: omne enim corpus animatum habet vim tangendi, vt dictum fuit. reliqua autem elementa, præter terram, poſſunt quidem fieri ſenſoria, ſed omnia, quia per aliud ſentitur, efficiunt ſenſum, ac per intermedia. tactus verò eſt, eo quòd ipſa obiecta tãgit: vnde etiam hoc nomen habet. Atqui etiam alia ſenſoria tactu ſentiunt: ſed per alia: hic verò ſolus per ſe. Quare nullum eiuſmodi elementum poteſt eſſe corpus animalis. 14 Nec terreſtre: quia tactus eſt omnium tactilium, vt pote mediocritas: ac ſenſorium ſuſcipere poteſt non ſolùm quaſcunque differentias terræ, ſed etiam calidi & frigidi, & omnium aliorum tactilium. 15 Idcóque oſſibus, & pilis, & eiuſmodi partibus non ſentimus, quia ex terra conſtant. 16 Plantæ quoque propterea nullũ habent ſenſum, quia terreſtres ſunt.

CAPVT I.

De animæ & corpori communibus, primúmque de viſu.

CVm de anima in ſe, & de ſingulis eius potentiis, particulatim definitum iam ſit, proximum eſt vt de cunctis tã animantibus quàm hiſce quæ vitam ſortita ſunt, quænam actiones eorum propriæ ſint, & quæ- B nam communes, conſideremus. Igitur ſuppoſitis hiſce quæ de anima dicta ſunt: de reliquis, exorſi à primis, ediſſeramus. Planè tam communia quàm propria animantibus ceu ſenſus, memoria, ira, cupiditas, denique appetitus, & inſuper voluptas & dolor (etenim hæc animantibus ferè omnibus competunt) promiſcua corpori & animæ maximè videntur eſſe. Ad hæc quædam omnibus quæ vita participant, communia ſunt: quædam, animantium nonnullis. Horum autem copulæ quatuor numero præcipuè exiſtunt: nempe vigilia & ſomnus, iuuentus & ſenectus, reſpiratio & expiratio, vita & C mors. De quibus contemplari oportet, & quidnam eorum quodque ſit, & quibus de cauſis eueniant. Cæterùm ad naturalem quoque ſpectat, prima ſanitatis & ægritudinis principia cognoſcere. etenim fieri non poteſt vt quæ vita deſtituta ſunt, ſana ſint & ægra. Iccirco ferè tam naturalium plurimi, quàm medicorum ii qui doctiuſculè artem ipſam perſequi ac tractare ſtudent, alteri, in iis quæ ad artem medicinalem pertinent, ſuæ conſiderationi finem imponunt: alteri ab iis quæ ad contemplationem naturæ ſpectant, medendi ſcientiam auſpicantur. Quòd autem ea omnia quæ D diximus, ad corpus & animam communiter attineant, haud obſcurum eſſe videtur. Nam ex eis quædam cum ſenſu eueniunt, quædã per ſenſum. Item alia affectus eiuſdem ſunt, habitus alia: alia porrò tutelæ atque conſeruationes, alia corruptiones atque priuantiæ. Senſum verò per corpus animæ competere, per rationem & abſque ratione conſtat. Ipſis autem animalibus ſenſum ineſſe, qua nimirũ ratione quodque animal eſt, neceſſe eſt. nã hoc ipſo, eſſe animal, & non eſſe, definimus. Verùm de ſenſu & ſentiẽdo quis ſit, & cur hęc affectio animantibus accidat, in libris de Anima diximus.

Nunc autem priuatim de ſingulis ſenſibus agendum eſt. Tactus & guſtus animalia omnia neceſſariò comitantur. tactus, ob eam quam in libris de Anima explicauimus, cauſam: guſtus, ob alimentum. nam guſtus, quòd voluptate afficit, quódque dolore in alimento diſcernit ac diiudicat, adeò vt hoc fugiat, illud perſequatur: atque omnino ſapor, partis altricis affectio exiſtit. At ſenſus illi, qui intercedente aliquo extrinſecus medio fiunt, olfactus, inquam, auditus & viſus, ex animātium numero inceſſilibus omnibus, eos quidem habentibus, tutelæ ac ſalutis gratia adiuncti ſunt: vt præſentientes alimentum perſequantur, & quæ praua ſunt atque exitialia, fugiant. Sed iis quæ prudentiæ quoque participes ſunt, gratia cuiuſpiā commodi melioris acceſſere. nā auditus & viſus multas adnunciāt differētias, quibus rerū tam intellectiliū quàm quę ſub actionē cadere ſolent, peritia comparetur. Horum ipſorum ad ea quæ vitæ neceſſaria ſunt magis, vel per ſe, viſus conducit: ad cultum ingenij capeſſendum, per accidens auditus. Nam viſus complures variáſque differētias aduehit, quòd corpora omnia colore participent. Quare & hoc ſenſu maximè communia ſentimus. Communia dico, figuram, magnitudinem, motum, ſtatum, numerum. At auditus ſoni tantummodo diſcrimina, paucis etiam vocis renuntiat. Sed per accidens magnum adfert adiumentum ad acquirendam ſapientiam prudentiámque. nam ſermo, cùm ſit audibilis, diſciplinæ cauſa non per ſe, ſed per accidens exiſtit. conſtat enim ex nominibus. ſingula autem nomina quarumdam notionum ſymbola ſunt. Quamobrem ex iis qui iam inde ab ortu naturæ vtroque ſenſu priuati ſunt, qui cæci ſunt, hiſce qui muti ſurdíque ſunt, ſapientiores euadunt atque prudentiores. De virtute igitur ac facultate, quam quiſque ſenſuum habeat, diximus.

CAPVT II.

De ſenſuum organis, & quòd oculus ſit aqueus.

Corporea autem ſenſoria, in quibus iidem fieri apti ſunt, nonnulli quidem iuxta elementa corporum diſquirunt atque inueſtigant: ſed cùm nequeant quinque ſenſus ad quatuor elementa reducere, cui quintus accommodari debeat, hæſitant. Omnes autem viſum igni tribuunt, quòd cuiuſdam affectionis cauſam ignorent. nam preſſo agitatóque oculo, igneus fulgor apparet. At hoc in tenebris euenire natum eſt, aut cùm palpebræ oculos integunt. nam tum quoque tenebræ oboriri ſolent. Habet autem hoc aliam quoque dubitationem. Nam cùm fieri non poſſit vt quempiam lateat ſe ſentire ac videre rem quampiam conſpectui obuiam, neceſſum eſt, vt oculus ipſe ſeipſum videat. cur igitur idipſum quieſcenti oculo non euenit? Cauſa huiuſce & dubitationis, & denique quamobrem viſus ex igni conſtare videatur, hinc ſumenda eſt. Nam quæ leuia ſunt, fulgere in tenebris, non tamen illuſtrare inſitum habent. oculi autem pars nigra mediáque leuis eſt. Ea verò cùm mouetur oculus, apparet. propterea quòd tum accidit vt res vna vt duæ ſit. id quod motionis celeritas efficit. adeò vt aliud eſſe videatur id quod videt: & aliud id quod videtur. Iccirco etiam non fit, niſi celeriter, & in tenebris oculi motio fiat. nam quod leue eſt, in tenebris ſuapte natura collucet, ceu quorumdam piſcium capita, ὁτὲ μὲν οὖν οὕτως ὁρᾶν φησιν· ὁτὲ δὲ ταῖς ἀπορροίαις ταῖς ἀπὸ τῶν ὁρωμένων. Δημόκριτος δὲ ὅτι μὲν ὕδωρ εἶναι φησι, λέγει καλῶς· ὅτι δ' οἴεται τὸ ὁρᾶν εἶναι τὴν ἔμφασιν, οὐ καλῶς· τοῦτο γὰρ συμβαίνει, ὅτι τὸ μὲν ὄμμα λεῖον, καὶ ἔστιν οὐκ ἐν ἐκείνῳ, ἀλλ' ἐν τῷ ὁρῶντι· ἀνάκλασις γὰρ τὸ πάθος. ἀλλὰ καθόλου περὶ τῶν ἐμφαινομένων καὶ ἀνακλάσεως, οὐδέπω δῆλον ἦν αὐτῷ, ὡς ἔοικεν. ἄτοπον δὲ καὶ τὸ μὴ ἐπελθεῖν αὐτῷ ἀπορῆσαι, διὰ τί ὁ ὀφθαλμὸς ὁρᾷ μόνον, τῶν δὲ ἄλλων οὐδέν, ἐν οἷς ἐμφαίνονται τὰ εἴδωλα. τὸ μὲν οὖν τὴν ὄψιν εἶναι ὕδατος, ἀληθὲς μέν· οὐ μέντοι συμβαίνει τὸ ὁρᾶν ᾗ ὕδωρ, ἀλλ' ᾗ διαφανές· ὃ καὶ ἐπὶ τοῦ ἀέρος κοινόν ἐστιν. ἀλλ' εὐφυλακτότερον καὶ εὐπιλητότερον τὸ ὕδωρ τοῦ ἀέρος· διόπερ ἡ κόρη καὶ τὸ ὄμμα ὕδατός ἐστι. τοῦτο δὲ καὶ ἐπ' αὐτῶν τῶν ἔργων δῆλον· φαίνεται γὰρ ὕδωρ τὸ ἐκρέον διαφθειρομένων τῶν ὀφθαλμῶν· καὶ ἔν γε τοῖς πάμπαν ἐμβρύοις, τῇ λαμπρότητι ὑπερβάλλον ἐστί, καὶ τῇ στιλπνότητι· καὶ τὸ λευκὸν τοῦ ὄμματος ἐν τοῖς ἔχουσιν αἷμα, πῖον καὶ λιπαρόν· ὅπερ διὰ τοῦτό ἐστι, πρὸς τὸ διαμένειν τὸ ὑγρὸν ἄπηκτον. καὶ διὰ τοῦτο τοῦ σώματος ἀρριγότατον ὁ ὀφθαλμός ἐστιν. οὐδεὶς γάρ πω τὸ ἐντὸς τῶν βλεφάρων ἐρρίγωσε. τῶν δὲ ἀναίμων σκληρόδερμοι οἱ ὀφθαλμοί εἰσι· καὶ τοῦτο ποιεῖ τὴν σκέπην. ἄλογον δὲ ὅλως τὸ ἐξιόντι τινὶ τὴν ὄψιν ὁρᾶν, καὶ ἀποτείνεσθαι μέχρι τῶν ἄστρων, ἢ μέχρι τινὸς ἐξιοῦσαν συμφύεσθαι, καθάπερ λέγουσί τινες. τούτου μὲν γὰρ βέλτιον τὸ ἐν ἀρχῇ συμφύεσθαι τοῦ ὄμματος· ἀλλὰ καὶ τοῦτο εὔηθες· τί γὰρ συμφύεσθαι τί ἐστι φωτὶ πρὸς φῶς;

A & ſepiæ atramentum. & cùm lentè commouetur oculus, nequaquam euenit vt ſimul duo eſſe videatur, quod vnum eſt: nempe videns & viſum. Illo autem modo oculus ipſe ſeipſum videt, quomodo & in refractione agitur. Nam ſi oculus conſtaret ex igni, vt Empedocli placet, & in Timæo ſcriptum eſt, acerideretque videre egrediente velvti è laterna lumine, cur non etiam in tenebris aſpectus videret? Dicere autem, viſum cùm egrediatur, in tenebris extingui, vt Timæus aſtruit, inane modis omnibus exiſtit. Quænam enim eſſe poteſt luminis extinctio? nam aut frigido extingui, aut humido aſſolet, quod calidum ſiccúmque eſt: qualis eſt & prunarum ignis, & flamma ipſa. quorum neutrum lumini B ineſſe videtur. Quòd ſi ſint quidem, ſed quia remiſsè inſunt, nos lateant, oportebat interdiu & ſuperueniente pluuia lumen extingui, ac tempore glaciali potiſſimùm tenebras fieri. nam flamma ipſa & conflagrantia corpora idipſum patiuntur. Nunc verò nihil tale lumini accidit. Empedocles autem interdum exiſtimare videtur, egrediente lumine id quod priùs diximus, nos cernere. inquit enim ad hunc modum:

Vt cum quis meditatus iter noctem per opacam,
Aſſolet ardentem faculam lychnúmve parare,
Addens laternam quæ flatus arceat omneis:
Diſſipat iſta quidem flantis ſpiramina venti:
C At lux egrediens quantum ſe fundere poſſit,
Colluſtratque viam radiis, vincitque tenebras:
Sic tunicis clauſus validis ſubtilibus ampliùs,
Ignis natiuus pupillarem impetit orbem,
Hæ magnam latices vim qui circumfluit arcent,
Diſſilit ille foras quantum ſe fundere poſſit.

Interdum inquam nos hoc pacto cernere aſſerit: interdum defluxibus & exuuiis à re conſpecta miſſis. Democritus verò, quatenus viſum eſſe aquam aſſerit, rectè dicit: quatenus viſionem eſſe emphaſin, id eſt, apparitionem, ſiue apparentiam, non rectè. Id enim euenit, quia oculus leuis eſt. Atque emphaſis nequaquam in re viſa, ſed in vidente exi-D ſtit: quippe cùm ea affectio, refractio ſit. Verùm nec dum illi quicquam (vt videtur) de apparentibus & refractione apertum erat. Abſurdum etiam & illud eſt, non ſuccurriſſe inquã ei, vt dubitaret, cur ſolus videat oculus, & cæterorum nullũ in quibus ſimulachra appareant. Conſpectũ igitur eſſe aqueũ, veritati quidem conſonũ eſt: non tamen viſio fit, vt eſt aqua, ſed vt translucet. quod & aëri commune eſt. Verùm aqua faciliùs quàm aër cõprehendit atque retineri poteſt. Idcirco pupilla & oculus ex aqua conſtãt. Quod quidẽ & experientia ipſa latè patet. nam quod ſauciatis oculis effluere aſſolet, videtur eſſe aqua. Quin & in fœtibus nuper afformatis oculi ſupramodum ſplendent, refulgéntque. Atque in E ſanguinariis albida portio oculi, opima pinguiſque ob id eſt, vt humor perſiſtat incongelabilis. Et ob id oculus minimè omniũ partium corporis, rigere ſolet. nemo enim vnquã interna parte oculi friguit. Exanguium verò oculos tunica dura ambire ſolet, quæ illos ab iniuria frigoris tuetur atque defendit. Porro illud omnino metas egreditur rationis: nempe conſpiciendi vim exeunte quopiam videre, & aut ad aſtra vſque deduci, aut cùm ad vſque certum quoddã ſpacium proceſſerit, cum lumine externo vniri, atque coniungi, ſicuti quidam aiunt. Nam iſto præſtabilius id erat, nimirũ coniunctionẽ in oculi principio fieri. Quamquã & id quoque ſtultum eſt. quid enim eſt lumen lumini coniungi?

aut quonam pacto id eſſe poteſt? non enim quoduis cuiuis ſine diſcrimine coniungitur. Item qui internum lumen externo coniungetur, cùm membrana ipſa inter illa media ſit? De hoc igitur, videlicet quòd ſine lumine non videatur, alibi diximus. Verùm ſiue lumen ſiue aër id ſit, quod oculum & rem conſpectam interiacet; motio ipſa quæ per eũ fit, viſionem efficit. Atque ratione euenit optima, vt interna oculi portio aquea ſit. nam aqua perſpicua eſt. Vt autem extrà non ſine lumine videtur, ſic & intrà. Perſpicuum ergo eſſe oculũ oportet, eundémque aquam eſſe neceſſe eſt: quando aër non eſt. non enim anima ipſa, aut animæ ſenſorium in oculi extremo, ſed in parte, vt patet, interna exiſtit. Quamobrem neceſſe eſt, vt pars oculi interior, perlucida & luminis exceptiua ſit. Atque etiam hoc ex hiſce quæ contingere ſolẽt, apertum eſt. Iam enim quidam accepto in prælio circa tempora vulnere adeò profundo, vt pori oculi & meatus fuerint excĩſi, ſeſe tenebris offundi, quaſi extincta lucerna, putarunt, propterea quòd perlucida pars oculi, & vocata pupilla, abſciſſa, ceu laterna quædam fuit. Quare ſi in hiſce perinde euenit, vt diximus, palàm eſt hoc modo aſſignare oportere, & accommodare vnumquodque ſenſorium vni elemento. Oculi enim partem cui videndi facultas data eſt, ex aqua conſtare exiſtimandum eſt: ex aëre, id quod ſonos percipit: olfactum, ex igni. nam quod olfaciendi vim obtinet, id potentia eſt, quòd olfactus, actu. ſenſile enim ſenſum agere facit. Quare neceſſe eſt eũdem ſenſum potentia priùs eſſe. Odor autem non niſi fumida quædam exhalatio exiſtit, quæ profectò ignea eſt. Quocirca & peculiare ſenſorium olfactus in cerebro ſitum eſt. nam rei frigidæ materia potentia calida eſt. Atque oculi generatio ad hunc ſeſe habet modum. nam oculus à cerebro conſtitutus eſt, quod omnium partium corporis humidiſſimum frigidiſſimúmque exiſtit. Cui autem tangendi tributa eſt autoritas, ex terra: cui guſtandi, ſpecies quædam tactus eſt. Et ob id ſenſorium eorum, guſtus inquam & tactus, haud procul à corde eſt. nam cor cerebro ex aduerſo iacet, & omnium partium corporis calidiſſimum eſt. Ac de ſenſoriis quidem corporis partibus hoc pacto definitum ſit.

CAPVT III.

Senſuum vnumquodque dupliciter dici: deque colore.

DE ſenſilibus autem cuiuſque ſenſorij, verbi cauſa, de colore, ſono, odore, ſapore, & tactili, quodnam ſit eorum munus atque officium, & quænam ſit cuiuſque ſenſorij actio, vniuerſaliter quidem in libris de Anima dictum eſt: quidnam verò ſit quodlibet eorum, ceu quid color, quid ſonus, quid odor, quid ſapor, & ſimiliter quid tactile, conſiderandum eſt. Et primò quidem de colore agendum videtur. Vnumquodque igitur bifariàm dici ſolet: actu ſcilicet & potentia. Verùm quónam pacto color & ſonus actu, ſenſibus actu, viſui ſcilicet & auditui, idem ſint & aliud, in commentariis de Anima dictum iam eſt. Quid autem exiſtens eorum quodque ſenſum actionemque faciat, nunc dicamus. Vt igitur ibi de lumine dictum eſt, quod perſpicui color per accidens ſit, ita hic quoque dicendum. nam corporis ignei præſentia in perſpicuo lumen eſt; priuatio, tenebræ. Quod autem perſpicuitatem nuncupamus, id non aëri aut aquæ aut vlli elementorum proprium eſt: ſed eſt facultas quædam & natura communis, quæ ſeparabilis quidem non eſt: ſed in illis eſt, atque cæteris corporibus, aliis plùs, aliis minùs ineſt. Quemadmodum igitur neceſſe eſt corporum aliquod eſſe extremum, ita & huius. Luminis itaque natura in perſpicuo indefinito eſt. Quòd autem perſpicuitatis corporibus inſertæ extremitas aliqua ſit, certum eſt: quòd verò ea color ſit, ex hiſce quæ eueniunt, patere poteſt. Nam color aut in termino reſidet, aut terminus eſt. Quocirca & Pythagorei ſuperficiem ipſam colorem appellabant. etenim B color in termino corporis inhabitat, ſed nequaquam terminus corporis eſt: quanquam eandem eſſe naturam quæ extra & intra coloratur, putare oportet. Porrò aër & aqua colorata apparent. etenim aura talis eſt. Cæterùm nec aër, nec mare eundem cominus & eminus colorem ſortiuntur, quòd ibi color in indefinito ſit. At in corporibus ipſis (niſi id quod ea continet ac ambit, mutationem aliquam afferat) coloris apparitio definita eſt. Idem igitur hic & illic coloris ſuſceptiuum eſſe conſtat. Ergo perſpicuitas quatenus corporibus ineſt (ineſt autem plùs & minùs) omnibus vt colore participent, in cauſa eſt. Cùm autem color in termino ſit, perſpicuitatis profectò terminus quidam C erit. Quare color perſpicuitatis in corpore definito terminus erit. Sed & perſpicuis ipſis vt aquæ, & ſi quid aliud eiuſmodi eſt, atque hiſce quæ colorem proprium habere videntur, in extremitate omnibus ſimiliter ineſt. In ipſa igitur perſpicuitate interdum id ineſt, quod in ipſo quoque aëre lux efficere ſolet: interdum non ineſt, ſed perſpicuitas eo deſtituta eſt. Ergo, quemadmodum in aëre modò lumen, modò tenebræ inſunt, ita in ipſis corporibus albor & nigror innaſci aſſolent. De cæteris autem coloribus diſtinguendo quot modis fieri poſſint, iam diſſerendum eſt. Fieri enim poſſunt hoc pacto: albo & nigro iuxta ſeſe poſitis, ita vt vtrum- D que inuiſibile ſit ob paruitatem, quod ex ambobus reſilit, viſibile reddatur. hoc enim nec album fieri, nec nigrum poteſt. At cùm neceſſe ſit colorem quendam eſſe, & neuter horum eſſe poſſit, miſtum quemdam colorem, & coloris ſpeciem quandam aliam eſſe, neceſſum eſt. Igitur plures eſſe colores, præter album & nigrum, ad hunc putes modum. Ac plurimos quidem proportione. nam fieri poteſt, vt tria ad duo, & tria ad quatuor, & ita per alios numeros iuxta ſeſe ponantur. Alios verò nulla penitus proportione, ſed exceſſu quodam ac defectu incommenſili. Atque illos eodem vtique quo concinentiæ modo ſeſe habere. Qui enim ſunt in numeris proportionis genus eximium ſeruanti- E bus, eos eſſe qui conſonantiarum modo, omnium ſuauiſſimi videntur: ceu purpureus & puniceus, atque eiuſmodi paucos eſſe, eadem qua concentus pauci ſunt cauſa. qui verò non ſunt in numeris, reliquos eſſe. At etiam colores omnes tam certos quàm incertos in numeris eſſe, atque hos ipſos cùm puri ſincerique non ſunt, quia non ſint in numeris, tales euadere. Vnus igitur generationis colorum modus hic eſt. ſecundus quando alter per alterum apparet. vt nonnunquam pictores faciunt, colorem alterum alteri clariori ſuperlinentes: ſicuti cùm facere volunt vt quippiam in aëre aut aqua eſſe videatur. & vt ſol per ſe apparet albus, per caliginem & fumum puniceus.

A Atque ita multi colores ad eundem, qui priùs dictus eſt, modum erunt. nam ratio quædam ſuperiorum ad inferiores erit: alij nulla penitus ratione conſtabunt. Porro dicere, perinde vt antiqui, colores eſſe defluuia, & tali de cauſa videri, abſurdum eſt. nam ipſis neceſſarium eſt vt attactu ſentiri omnia ſtatuant. Quare continuò præſtat dicamus, ſenſum fieri, quòd à ſenſibili medium moueatur, quàm attactu & defluxibus. In illis igitur qui iuxta ſeſe poni ſolent, vt inuiſibilem accipere magnitudinem: ita inſenſibile tempus neceſſe eſt, vt motionum acceſſiones nos fugiant: & quia ipſi ſimul apparent, vnus eſſe videantur. At in hiſce nulla neceſſitas: ſed color B ille qui in ſuperficie extat, cùm ſit immobilis, & moueatur ab eo qui ſubſternitur, motionem pariet diſſimilem. quocirca & diuerſus apparebit, & non albus aut niger. Atque iſto pacto nihil obſtat quin color quidam communis appareat iis qui procul abſunt. Quare ſi fieri nequeat vt vlla magnitudo ſit inuiſibilis, ſed omnis ex quodam ſpatio viſibilis habeatur: quænam erit hæc colorum miſtio? quòd enim nulla magnitudo ſit inuiſibilis, poſt hæc conſiderabimus. Quòd ſi corporum miſtio aliqua ſit, non ſolùm perinde ſit vt quidam putant: videlicet minimis, ſed nobis per ſenſum incognitis, iuxta ſeſe poſitis, ſed prorſus C omnino confuſis: quemadmodum in de miſtione commentario vniuerſim de omnibus diximus. Illo enim modo ea ſolùm miſcentur, quæ in minima diſtribui poſſunt, vt homines, equi, ſemina. quandoquidem hominum homo minimum eſt: equorum, equus. Quare horum iuxta poſitione compoſitorum multitudo miſta eſt: vnum autem hominem vni equo miſtum eſſe nequaquam dicimus. At quæcumque in minima diuidi nequeunt: quæ ipſa profectò vt miſceantur, aptiſſima ſunt, fieri non poteſt vt eorum miſtio ad hunc fiat modum, ſed fit quia prorſus miſceantur. quod qua via ac ratione fieri queat, dictum eſt antea, vbi de miſtione agebamus. Cæterùm qua neceſſitate D eueniat, vt cùm miſcentur illa, colores quoque miſceantur, atque hanc eſſe principem cauſam cur colores multi ſint: & non ſuperpoſitionem aut iuxta poſitionem, perſpicuum eſt. non enim è longinquo quidem, non autem in propinquo, miſtorum color vnus apparet, ſed vndelibet. At complures ideo colores erunt, quòd quæ inter ſeſe miſcentur, ea multis miſceri rationibus contingit. Atque alij in numeris: alij in exuperatione ſolùm, & cætera ad eum ipſum modum, quem in iuxta poſitis ſuperpoſitiſve coloribus dicere contingit. Ac de hiſce quidem quæ miſceantur, alibi quoque determinatum fuit. Quam autem ob E cauſam colorum ſpecies, item ſaporum ſonorúmque finitæ ſint, & non infinitæ, poſtea docebimus.

CAPVT IV.

De ſapore ac eius ſpeciebus.

A Qvid igitur ſit color, & quamobrem colores ſint multi, explicatum iam eſt. De Sono autem & voce tractauimus priùs in libris de Anima. De odore verò & ſapore nunc agendum. nam eadem fermè affectio eſt, ſed non in eiſdem vterque exiſtit. Porro ſaporum genus quàm odorum nobis euidentius eſt. Cuius cauſa eſt nos habere olfactum cæterorum animalium olfactu inferiorem, & omnium ſenſum qui in nobis ipſis ſunt ſtupidiſſimum, tactum verò ſuperiorem, & omnium exactiſſimum: guſtatum autem tactum quendam B eſſe. Igitur aqua ſuapte natura inſipida eſt. Neceſſe autem eſt aut aquam in ſe omnia ſaporum genera ob exiguitatem inſenſibilia (vti Empedocles aſſerit) continere: aut in aqua talem materiam ineſſe, quæ quaſi ſemina gignendis ſaporum generibus ſuppeditet: & omnia ex ea generari: ſed alia ex alia parte, aut ſi aqua nullam ſubeat differentiam, cauſam agentem ſoli & calori tribuere. Cæterùm ex hiſce illud eſſe falſum quod Empedocles affirmat, perquam facilè deprehendatur. Nam ſapores calore immutari videmus ſi fructus ex arbore decerpti ſoli exponantur aut igni: vt intelligatur, eoſdem non quòd ab aqua quippiam contrahant, ſed quòd in ipſis fructibus in alios vertantur, C tales effici. Item quoties cauſa temporis diluta pars exhalatur, ex dulcibus auſteros, & amaros, & omnimodos fieri, necnon vbi decoquuntur, in omnia propè dixerim ſaporum genera tranſmutari. Conſimiliter & illud, aquam eſſe materiam, quæ gignendis ſaporibus ſemina præſtet, de numero eorum eſt, quæ fieri nequeunt. videmus enim ex eadem re, ceu ex eodem cibo, ſapores diuerſos fieri. Reliquũ itaque eſt ſapores ideo permutari, quòd aqua quippiam patiatur. Sed quòd aqua non vi ſola caloris facultatem eam imbibat, quam ſaporem vocamus, hinc patere poteſt. Nam cùm aqua liquidorum omnium tenuiſſima ſit, atque ipſum etiam oleum te-D nuitate ſuperet, quanquã oleũ plus quàm aqua diſtendi poteſt, quòd oleum lentum viſcoſumque ſit, aqua verò remittens & fragilis (qua ratione fit, vt ægriùs aqua manu quàm oleum contineri ſoleat) & ea ipſa ſola dum caleſit, minimè craſſeſcere videatur: certum eſt ſopores alteram quandam cauſam habituros eſſe, quòd omnes craſſiuſculi exiſtant, cum qua calori cauſæ nuncupatio communis habeatur. Porro quotquot ſapores in fructibus ſunt, iidem in ipſa quoque terra ineſſe videntur. Quapropter & plurimi veterum naturæ interpretum dixere, talem eſſe aquam, qualis eſt terra per quã meat. Idque in aquis ſalſis maximè ſpectari poteſt. nam ſal ſpecies quædã terræ exiſtit. Quocirca E quæ per cinerem qui amarus eſt, tranſmittuntur, ſaporem ingerunt amarum: & quæ per alia, alium. Necnon è fontibus quidã ſunt amari, nonnulli acidi, alij variis aliis ſaporibus præditi. Quapropter rationi conſonum eſt vt ſaporum genus in plantis præcipuè gignatur. nam humidũ perinde vt cætera, pati à ſuo contrario natum eſt: ſiccum autem ei contrarium eſt. Vnde fit vt etiam ab igni quippiam patiatur. ſiquidem ignis natura ſiccus eſt. Quanquam calidum igni peculiare eſt, ſiccum terræ, vti in commentatione de elemẽtis diximus. Nihil itaque quatenus ignis ſit, aut aqua, aut quippiã aliud, agere aut pati natum eſt: ſed omnia, quatenus contrarietatem ſubeunt, eatenus agunt patiunturque.

Vt igitur quæ colores ſuccóſve in aqua eluunt, talem reddere aquam aſſolent: ſic ipſa quoque natura cùm in humore partem ſiccam terrenámque diluit, aut per eandem humorem percolat, & calore incoquit, humori qualitatem quampiam inſerit. Quæ non niſi ſapor eſt, id eſt, affectio, quæ à prædicto ſicco in humore genita, guſtatum qui in poteſtate ſit, ad actum demutat. nam ſentiendi vim, quæ priùs poteſtate erat, eòdem perducit: cùm ſenſio non diſciplinæ, ſed contemplationi reſpondeat. Cæterùm ſapores non cuiuſuis ſicci, ſed eius quod alere poſſit, aut affectiones eſſe aut priuationes, hinc ſumendum: quòd nec ſiccum ſine humido ſit, nec contrà humidum ſine ſicco. neutrum enim horum animantibus aut plantis ipſis cibus eſſe poteſt, ſed quod ex vtriſque miſtura conſurgit. Quin etiam in genere cibi quem animalia ingerunt, quæ è ſenſilibus tactilia ſunt, ea incrementum faciunt atque decrementum. Etenim id quod ingeritur, horum cauſa eſt, quatenus calidum eſt aut frigidum. nam calor & frigus auctionem efficiunt atque decretionem. Alit autem quatenus guſtabile eſt. omnia namque dulci aluntur, vel ſimplici vel commiſto. Sed de hiſce in libris de Generatione definiendum eſt: nunc tamen quantum neceſſe ſit, ea tangamus oportet. Nam calor, vt auget, ita etiam alimentum præparat, atque quod leue eſt, attrahit: quod verò ſalſum amarúmque, ratione ponderis relinquit. Quod itaque exterior calor in extraneis corporibus efficit, hoc idem interior in animantium plantarúmque natura efficere ſolet. Vnde fit vt ea dulci ſapore alantur. Cæteri tamen ſapores, perinde vt ſalſus & acutus, pro condimento cibis admiſceri ſolent: at iſti, vt retrahant. quia quod dulce eſt & innatat, nimiùm alit. Porro quemadmodum colores ex albo & nigro commiſtis proueniunt, ſic & ſapores permiſtione dulcis & amari exultant. Quin & ſecundùm proportionem quòd plus minúſve adſit, ſinguli producuntur, ſiue ſecundùm numeros quoſdam miſtionis & motus, ſiue etiam indefinitè. Qui verò voluptatem important demiſti hi ſoli in numeris ſunt. Pinguis igitur ſapor ſpecie dulcis eſt: ſalſus verò & amarus, idem ferè ſunt: acris, auſterus, acerbus, & acidus, intermedij. Quandoquidem ſaporum & colorum ſpecies ferè numero pares ſunt. nam vtrorumque ſpecies, ſeptem habentur: ſi quis, vti conſentaneum eſt, fuſcum colorem non alium quàm nigrum poſuerit. Reliquum enim eſt vt flauus color ad album, ſicuti ſapor dulcis ad pinguem, pertineat. Puniceus verò, purpureus, viridis, & cæruleus, album & nigrum interiacent: cæteri ex horum miſtura gignũtur. Item quemadmodum nigrum albi in diaphane, id eſt, translucido corpore, priuatio eſt: ita ſalſum & amarum, dulcis, in humore, qui alere poſſit. Vnde fit vt etiam cinis deuſtorum omnium, amarus ſentiatur: vtpote à quibus id quod potui idoneum erat, exactum ſit. At Democritus, & è naturæ interpretibus qui de ſenſu diſſeruere plurimi, abſurdiſſimum quippiam committunt. nam ſenſibilia omnia, tactilia faciunt. Quamquam ſi hoc ita ſit: certum eſt omneis alios ſenſus tactum quendam eſſe. quod fieri non poſſe, nequaquam difficile eſt internoſcere. Præterea ſenſilibus hiſce quæ ſenſibus omnibus communia ſunt, tanquam propriis vtuntur. etenim magnitudo, & figura, & aſperitas & læuor, & acuties & obtuſitas, quæ moli competit, ſenſibus communia ſunt:

A ὥσπερ οὖν οἱ ἐναποπλύνοντες ἐν τῷ ὑγρῷ τὰ χρώματα, καὶ τοὺς χυμούς, τοιοῦτον ποιοῦσιν ἔχειν τὸ ὕδωρ, οὕτω καὶ ἡ φύσις * τὸ ξηρὸν καὶ τὸ γεῶδες, καὶ διὰ τοῦ ξηροῦ καὶ τοῦ γεώδους διηθοῦσα καὶ κινοῦσα τῷ θερμῷ, ποιόν τι τὸ ὑγρὸν παρασκευάζει. καὶ ἔστι τοῦτο χυμὸς τὸ γιγνόμενον ὑπὸ τοῦ εἰρημένου ξηροῦ πάθος ἐν τῷ ὑγρῷ τῆς γεύσεως τῆς κατὰ δύναμιν ἀλλοιωτικὸν εἰς ἐνέργειαν. ἄγει γὰρ τὸ αἰσθητικὸν εἰς τοῦτο δυνάμει προϋπάρχον· οὐ γὰρ κατὰ τὸ μανθάνειν, ἀλλὰ κατὰ τὸ θεωρεῖν ἐστὶ τὸ αἰσθάνεσθαι. ὅτι δ᾽ οὐ παντὸς ξηροῦ, ἀλλὰ τοῦ τροφίμου οἱ χυμοί, ἢ πάθος εἰσίν, ἢ στέρησις, δεῖ

Περὶ ὀσμῆς καὶ ὀσφρήσεως.

Τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον δεῖ νοῆσαι καὶ περὶ τὰς ὀσμάς· ὅπερ γὰρ ποιεῖ ἐν τῷ ὑγρῷ τὸ ξηρόν, τοῦτο ποιεῖ ἐν ἄλλῳ γένει τὸ ἔγχυμον ὑγρόν, ἐν ἀέρι καὶ ὕδατι ὁμοίως. κοινὸν δὲ κατὰ τούτων νῦν μὲν λέγομεν τὸ διαφανές. ἔστι δ' ὀσφραντόν, οὐχ ᾗ διαφανές, ἀλλ' ᾗ πλυντικὸν καὶ ῥυπτικὸν ἐγχύμου ξηρότητος. οὐ γὰρ μόνον ἐν ἀέρι, ἀλλὰ καὶ ἐν ὕδατι, τὸ τῆς ὀσφρήσεώς ἐστι. δῆλον δ' ἐπὶ τῶν ἰχθύων καὶ τῶν ὀστρακοδέρμων. φαίνονται γὰρ ὀσφραινόμενοι, οὔτε ἀέρος ὄντος ἐν τῷ ὕδατι· ἐπιπολάζει γὰρ ἀήρ, ὅταν ἐγγένηται· οὔτ' αὐτοὶ ἀναπνέοντες. εἰ οὖν τις θείη καὶ τὸν ἀέρα καὶ τὸ ὕδωρ ἄμφω ὑγρά, εἴη ἂν ἡ ἐν ὑγρῷ τοῦ ἐγχύμου ξηροῦ φύσις ὀσμή, καὶ ὀσφραντὸν τὸ τοιοῦτον. ὅτι δὲ ἀπὸ ἐγχύμου ἐστὶ τὸ πάθος, δῆλον ἐκ τῶν ἐχόντων καὶ μὴ ἐχόντων ὀσμήν· τά τε γὰρ στοιχεῖα, ἄοσμα ἐστί, πῦρ, ἀήρ, ὕδωρ, γῆ, διὰ τὸ τά τε ξηρὰ αὐτῶν καὶ τὰ ὑγρὰ ἄχυμα εἶναι, ἐὰν μή τι μιγνύμενον ποιῇ. διὸ καὶ ἡ θάλαττα ἔχει ὀσμήν· ἔχει γὰρ χυμὸν καὶ ξηρότητα. καὶ ἅλες μᾶλλον νίτρου ὀσμώδεις. δηλοῖ δὲ τὸ ἐξικμαζόμενον ἐξ αὐτῶν ἔλαιον· τὸ δὲ νίτρον γῆς ἐστι μᾶλλον. ἔτι δέ, λίθος μὲν ἄοσμος· ἄχυμος γάρ. τὰ δὲ ξύλα ὀσμώδη· ἔγχυμα γάρ. καὶ τούτων τὰ ὑδατώδη ἧττον. ἔτι τῶν μεταλλευομένων, χρυσὸς ἄοσμος· ἄχυμος γάρ· ὁ δὲ χαλκὸς καὶ ὁ σίδηρος, ὀσμώδη. ὅταν δὲ ἐκκαυθῇ τὸ ὑγρόν, ἀοσμότεραι αἱ σκωρίαι γίνονται πάντων. ἄργυρος δὲ καὶ καττίτερος, τῶν μὲν μᾶλλον ὀσμώδη, τῶν δὲ ἧττον· ὑδατώδη γάρ. δοκεῖ δ' ἐνίοις ἡ καπνώδης ἀναθυμίασις εἶναι ὀσμή, οὖσα κοινὴ γῆς καὶ ἀέρος. καὶ πάντες ἐπιφέρονται ἐπὶ τοῦτο περὶ ὀσμῆς. διὸ καὶ Ἡράκλειτος οὕτως εἴρηκεν, ὡς εἰ πάντα τὰ ὄντα καπνὸς γίνοιτο, ῥῖνες ἂν διαγνοῖεν. ἐπὶ δὲ τὴν ὀσμὴν πάντες ἐπιφέρονται, οἱ μὲν ὡς ἀτμίδα, οἱ δ' ὡς ἀναθυμίασιν, οἱ δὲ καὶ ἄμφω ταῦτα.

A quòd ſi non omnibus, ſaltem tamen viſui & tactui. Quapropter & circa hæc falluntur: circa propria verò, ceu viſus circa colores, & auditus circa ſonos, nequaquam errare ſolent. Sunt etiam qui propria redigunt ad iſta, ſicuti Democritus. Is enim candorem quidem læuitatem, & nigrorem ſcabritiem eſſe affirmat: ſapores autem figuris tribuit. Atqui cognoſcere communia, aut ad nullum ſenſum, aut ad viſum potiùs ſpectat. Si ergo ad guſtum potiùs ſpectaret, cùm exactiſſimi ſenſus ſit in ſingulis generibus tenuiſſima quæque diſcernere, oporteret ſanè guſtum cùm cætera communia maximè ſentire, tum figurarum arbitrum eſſe perſpicaciſſimum. B Ad hæc ſenſilia omnia, cõtrarietatem ſortita ſunt. nam in coloribus, albus nigro contrarius eſt: in ſaporibus, dulcis amaro. Figura verò, figuræ non videtur eſſe contraria. cui enim è multangulis rotunda contraria eſt? Præterea cùm figuræ ſint innumeræ, ſapores quoque innumeros eſſe neceſſe eſt: quod eſt impoſſibile. cur enim è ſaporibus, quidam ſentiretur, quidam minimè? Ac de ſapore quidem & guſtabili diximus. cæteræ namque ſaporum affectiones, in commentatione de plantis propriam nacta ſunt conſiderationem.

CAPVT V.

C Odoris ſpecies, ac eiuſdem cum ſapore cognatio.

Eodem modo & circa odores intelligamus oportet. Quod enim ſiccitas in humido facit, hoc in alio genere itidem facit, in aëre inquam & aqua: de quibus nunc pellucidum communi ratione dicitur. Olfactile tamen eſt non quatenus pellucet, ſed quatenus ſapidæ ſiccitatis diluendæ ac diffundendæ vim ſortitur. nam non in aëre modò, ſed etiã in aqua olfactio fit. Id autẽ tam in piſcibus quàm in teſtaceo animaliũ genere palàm eſt. nam piſces olfacere videntur, quamuis nec aër in aqua ſit (nam ſimul ac aër in aqua gignitur, emergere D aſſolet) nec ipſi reſpirent. Si quis igitur vtraque, aërem ſcilicet & aquam humida poſuerit, ſaporoſæ profectò ſiccitatis natura in humido exiſtens, odor erit. & quod tale fuerit, olfactile. Quòd autem affectio ipſa, à re ſapida pẽdeat, per ea quæ odorem habent, & quę odoris expertia ſunt, patere poteſt. Ipſa etenim elementa, ceu ignis, aër, aqua, terra, inodora ſunt, propterea quòd ſuo tam ſicca quàm humida ſapore carent, niſi miſturam recipiant. Qua etiam de cauſa mare odorem habet. iam enim ſaporis & ſiccedinis quippiam imbibit. Et ſal nitro odoratior eſt: id quod oleo, quod è ſale exprimi cõſueuit, declaratur. nitrum verò terroſius. Lapides quoque inodori ſunt, quia inſipidi. Ligna contrà odora, E quia ſaporem continent. at inter hæc quæ aquoſa ſunt, ea minùs odorata ſunt. Item è genere metallico aurum inolidum eſt. nullum enim ſaporem obtinet. æs autem & ferrum olida. at vbi humor pẽr vſtionem abſumptus eſt, recrementa omnium (Græci ſcorias vocant) inodoratiora redduntur. Argentum verò & ſtannum, his quidem magis odora ſunt, illis verò minùs. aquoſa enim ſunt. Cæterùm nonnulli fumidam exhalationem quæ terræ & aëri communis eſt, odorem eſſe putant. Atque hi omnes de odore in hãc eunt ſententiam. Et ob id Heraclitus hoc dixiſſe videtur, quòd ſi omnia quæ sũt, euaderẽt in fumũ, nares ea dignoſcerent. Ad odorem autem vniuerſi accedũt, dicentes eum eſſe, alij vaporem, alij exhalationẽ, alij vtrunque.

Eſt autem vapor humiditas quædam. Fumida verò exhalatio, vti iam diximus, communis aeri & terræ eſt. Et ex illo quidem, fit aqua: ex hac verò, ſpecies quædam terræ. At neutrum horum, odor eſſe videtur. Nam vapor ad aquam pertinet, fumida exhalatio in aqua fieri nequit. Odorantur autem & quæ ſunt in aqua, vti dictum iam eſt. Præterea exhalatio perinde dicitur, atque defluxio. ſi ergo iſta non probè dicitur odor, nec illa. Quòd igitur humor tum aëris (nam & aër ſuapte natura humectus eſt) tum aquæ, recipere ac pati quippiam à ſapida ſiccitate poſſit, haud obſcurum eſt. Præterea ſi diluta quaſi ſiccitas perinde in humidis agat atque in aëre, palam eſt, oportere odores ſaporibus eſſe proportionales. Immo verò iam hoc in quibuſdam accidit. Nam odores acres ſunt, & dulces, & auſteri, & acerbi, & pingues. Quin & putidos amaris ſaporibus analogos dicas. Quocirca quemadmodum ſapores amari ægrè deglutiuntur: ita odores putidi non ſine faſtidio hauriri naribus aſſolent. Clarum itaque eſt, quod ſapor in aqua eſt, id odorem in aëre & aqua eſſe. Ob idque frigus & concretio, vt ſapores hebetant, ita odores abolent. quippe quæ calorem illum deleant, qui mouendi vim obtinet, atque creandi. Porrò olfactilis duæ ſunt ſpecies. non enim non ſunt, vt quidam aiunt, ſed ſunt. determinandum autem eſt, quomodo ſunt, & quomodo non ſunt. Nam odorum alij ſaporibus reſpondent, vt diximus, & per accidens cum oblectatione aut faſtidio ſentiuntur. nam quia ſapores ſunt affectiones partis altricis, eorum odores eſurientibus ſuaues occurrunt, repletis verò & nihil deſiderantibus, nõ ſuaues. quo tempore ne cibus quidem ille, qui odoribus differtus eſt, ſuauis habetur. Quare iſti quidẽ, vt diximus, ex accidenti commotionem voluptatis aut doloris afferunt. vnde fit vt omnibus communes animalibus ſint. Alij per ſe voluptifici ſunt: nẽpe qui è floribus ſpirantur. nihilo enim magis minúſve ad edendum prouocant, nec quicquam ad cibi cupiditatem excitandam conferunt. quin potiùs obſunt. Nam illud verum eſt, quod ait Stratis, Euripidem taxans, Ne admiſceas vnguentum, vbi lentem coquis.

At qui nũc tales facultates potionibus demiſcent, ij conſuetudine voluptatem ipſam tantiſper vrgẽt, quoad è duobus ſenſibus oblectatio quaſi vna & vno proueniens exultet. Hoc igitur olfactile homini peculiare eſt. illud verò quod ſaporum generi reſpondet, cæteris quoque animãtibus promiſcuũ, vt antè retulimus. Atque illud in ſpecies ſecundùm ſapores diuiditur, quod per accidens delectationem afferat: hoc minimè, quòd eius natura per ſe iucunda ſit, aut moleſta. Cauſa quamobrem talis odor familiaris ac proprius homini ſit, à cerebri refrigeratione petẽda eſt. Nam cùm cerebrum ſuapte natura frigidũ ſit, & ſanguis qui circa ipſum in venulis habetur, tenuis quidem & purus ſed facilè refrigerabilis ſit (qua de cauſa & cibi diuaporatio ratione loci refrigerata, fluxiones morbidas committit) hominibus auxilio, vt ſanitatem tueantur, talis ſpecies odoris exiſtit. eius enim nulla alia quàm hæc functio habetur: hanc autẽ apertè exercet. Nã cibus tã ſiccus quàm humidus delectabilis exiſtens plerumq; morbos excitat. at qui pręodore, qui per ſe bene oleat, delectabilis eſt, is vtcũq; homines habeãt, ſemper propè dixerim vtilis aduenit.

A Ob idq; ſenſus eius per reſpirationē non omnibus, ſed hominibus, & è ſanguineo genere quadrupedibus, ac iis quæ vberiùs aëris naturam participant, fieri videtur. Cùm enim odores propter leuitatem caloris qui in eis eſt, ad cerebrum aſcendunt, locus iſte incolumiùs habere ſolet: quando vis odoris per naturam calida eſt. Natura autem reſpiratione abvtitur ad duo: ex inſtituto, ad opitulandum internis partibus pectoris: præter inſtitutum, ad odores excipiendos. nam ſpirante homine, natura quaſi obiter per nares motum facit. Eiuſmodi verò odoris genus, naturæ hominis proprium eſt: quòd homo inter animantia maximum proportione cor- B poris humidiſſimumque cerebrum habeat. ob id enim & è cunctis animantibus vnus florum taliumque rerum odores ſentit & eiſdem gaudet. Nam calor eorum ac motio exuperationi humiditatis & frigiditatis loci illius commenſu quodam reſpondet: cæteris autem pulmone præditis, per reſpirationem ſenſum alterius generis odoris, natura conceſſit, vt ne duo ſenſoria faceret. vnum enim ſufficit. quandoquidem vt homines vtrumque olfactile reſpirando olfaciunt: ita hæc alterum ſolùm. Quæ verò non ſpirant, olfactilis ſenſum habere in aperto eſt. Etenim piſces totúmque inſectorum genus, exactè vel eminus, etiam ſi multùm diſtent, cibum ſibi peculiarem ſentiſcunt propter alimen- C tariam ſpeciem odoris: vt mel apes, & paruarum formicarum genus, quas quidam culices dictos muliones appellant, & è marinis, purpuræ, & pleraque alia id genus animalia, ſuum cibum propter odorem acriter ſentiunt: quo verò ſentiant, non perinde manifeſtum eſt. Quocirca dubitauerit quiſpiam quo percipiant odorem, ſi reſpirantia quidem vnico ſimplicique modo odorentur (id enim in omnibus quæ ſpirant, contingere videtur) ex illis autem nullum reſpiret, tametſi odorari ſoleant: niſi quidam alius præter illos quinque ſenſus habeatur. At hoc fieri nequit. nam ipſius olfactilis olfactus eſt. Illa verò hoc ſentiunt, ſed forſitan non eodem modo. ſed reſpirantibus quidem, ſpiritus id D quod inſtar operculi cuiuſdam ſuperpoſitum eſt, aufert. vnde fit vt quando non reſpirant, nullum odorem ſentiant. non reſpirantibus autem, hoc natura denegauit. Et quidem hac in re perinde atque in oculis euenit. nam ex animantibus quædam palpebras habent, quibus non apertis, cernere nequeũt: quædam, nempe quibus duri ſunt oculi, eiſdem carent. Quocirca nullo indigent, quod eas aperiat: ſed protinus ex quo ſpatio fieri poteſt vt videant, vident. Conſimiliter & è cæteris animantibus quodlibet, neque odorem rerum per ſe grauiter olentiũ auerſatur, niſi quid fortè occurrat, quod illi perniciem afferre poſſit. ab his autem, perinde E vt homines exanimatur. Et quemadmodum homines halitu prunarum grauedinem capitis cõtrahunt, & plerumque ſuffocantur: ita & illa vi ſulfuris bituminoſarúmque rerum fugitãt, quòd malè afficiantur, & interdũ extingui ſolẽt. Neque ipſam per ſe graueolentiã perſequitur, quãuis ſtirpes plurimæ grauiter oleant: niſi quid illi ad iritandam gulam cibúmve ſumẽdum, conferat. Videtur autem & ipſe ſenſus olfactus, cùm ſenſus numero concludantur impari, & numerus impar mediũ obtineat, eſſe medius inter eos qui tangendo ſuo munere fungũtur, quales ſunt tactus & guſtus: & eos qui intercedente aliquo ſentiunt. cuiuſmodi ſunt viſus & auditus. Quapropter & ipſum olfactile, affectio quædam nutritiuorũ eſt. hæc autem in eodem genere ſunt. quam & audibilis, & viſilis. Vnde fit vt animantia, tũ in aëre tum in aqua odorentur. Quare ipſum olfactile, his vtriſque commune quippiam exiſtit: quod & tangibili, & audibili atque perſpicuo ineſt. Quo etiam fit vt non abs re per ſimilitudinem quandam dicta ſit eſſe quaſi tinctura quædam & collutio ſiccitatis in humido & fluido. Quomodo igitur olfactilis ſpecies dicere conueniat, & quomodo non conueniat, hactenus dictum ſit. Quod autem quidam Pythagorei dicunt, aſſerentes nonnulla odoribus ali, haudquaquam rationi conſonum eſt. Nam primò quidem videmus, oportere cibum eſſe compoſitum. etenim ea quæ aluntur, ſimplicia non ſunt. Quocirca & è cibo ſuperuacanea quædam gignuntur: aut intra illa, aut extra, quomodo plantis accidit. Deinde nec aqua ipſa per ſe & incommiſta alere ſolet, cùm oporteat id quod ex aliquo conſtituatur, corpulentum eſſe. Sed & adhuc multo minùs conſentaneum eſt, aërem corporari. Præterea omnibus animalibus locus ineſt, qui cibum recipiat: à quo ipſum corpus alimoniam attrahit: at olfactilis ſenſorium in capite ſitum eſt. Item illud vnà cum ſpiritoſa exhalatione ingreditur. quare ad ſpirandi officinam commeabit. Quòd igitur olfactile, quatenus olfactile, nihil ad nutricationem conferat, certum eſt. ſed quòd ad ſanitatem, & per ſenſum, & per ea quæ diximus, pateſcit. Quare quod eſt ſapor in nutritiuo, & ad ea quæ nutriuntur: id eſt olfactile ad ſanitatem. Per ſingula igitur ſenſoria definitum ſit atque pertractatum hoc modo.

CAPVT VI.

Qualitates ſenſibiles quomodo diuiſibiles.

DVbitauerit autem quiſpiam, quærétque, ſi corpus omne in infinita diuidatur, ſenſiléſne etiam affectiones, ceu color, ſapor, odor, ſonus, grauitas, leuitas, frigiditas, caliditas, durities & mollities, in infinita diuidẽtur, an id fieri nequeat? Quoniam ſingula quæque ſenſilis affectio ſenſum facere poteſt: cùm ex eo quod pellere ſenſum irritaréque poſſit, hoc nominis ſortita ſit. Quare neceſſarium eſſet, ipſum quoque ſenſum in infinita diuidi, necnon ſenſibile omne magnitudine præditum eſſe. quandoquidem fieri non poteſt vt quis quod album quidem ſit, ſed nõ quantum, cernere queat. Nam ſi ita non ſit, continget corpus aliquod eſſe, quod neque colorem habeat, neque grauitatem, neque aliam vllam id genus affectionem; quare neque ſenſile prorſus erit. etenim illæ ſenſilia ipſa ſunt. Senſile ergo non è ſenſilibus compoſitum erit. At neceſſarium eſt, ipſum è ſenſilibus compoſitum eſſe. non enim è mathematicis componitur. Præterea qua parte agnoſcemus ea atque diiudicabimus? an mente, ſiue intellectu? At intellectilia non ſunt. non enim intellectus externa ea quæ ſub ſenſum minimè cadunt, intelligit. At ſi hæc ita ſeſe habeant, aſtipulari videntur hiſce qui magnitudines faciunt indiuiſibiles: ad hunc enim modum ratio ipſa diſſoluatur. Verùm hæc impoſſibilia ſunt, dictum eſt autem de ipſis, in diſſertatione de motu. Eorum autem ſolutio pariter emerget,

A & cur ſpecies & coloris, & ſaporis, & ſonorum, & cæterorum ſenſilium finitæ ſint. Nam quæ extrema obtinēt, eorum intranea finita ſint neceſſe eſt: ipſa porro contraria, extrema ſunt. omne [illegible] ſenſile contrarietatem poſſidet: verbi cauſa, [illegible] album & nigrum: ſapor, dulce & amarum, [illegible] qua omnia ad hunc modum. Ipſum igitur continuum in infinita quidem inæqualia, in finita verò æqualia ſecatur. quod autem non per ſe continuum eſt, in finitas ſpecies. Cùm igitur affectiones ipſæ, ſpecies appellandæ ſint, atque in hiſce continuitas ſemper inſit: ſumendum eſt, eſſe potentia & actu, differre. Ob idque decies milleſimam milij partem viſam latere, quamuis aſpectus B ſeſe applicet ad milium: & ſonum in dieſi itidem latere, quamuis auditus totum continentem modulum exaudiat. Nam interuallum illud quod ſeſe ab intermedio ad extremos porrigit, latere ſolet. Conſimiliter & in cæteris ſenſilibus illa quæ admodum exigua ſunt. vbi enim ſeparata fuerint, potentia viſibilia ſunt, actu minimè. etenim linea pedalis actu iam diuiſa, bipedali potentia ineſt. Tantillæ autem exuperantiæ ſeparatæ, ratione optima in continentia ipſa diſſoluentur, non aliter quàm ſi quis modicum ſuccum in mare effundat. Verumenimvero cùm exuperantia ſenſus nec per ſe ſenſilis ſit, nec ſeparata (ea enim in ſenſu exactiore potentia ineſt) neque tantillum ſenſile ſeparatum C ſentiri actu poterit, attamen ſenſile erit. iam enim potentia ſenſile eſt, & actu erit vbi toti acceſſerit. Nonnullas igitur magnitudines affectionéſque latere, & quam ob cauſam, item quomodo ſenſiles ſint, & quomodo non ſint, dictum eſt. Vbi verò adeo tot iam inſunt, vt actu ſenſiles ſint, & non ſolùm in ipſo toto, ſed etiam ſeorſim: & colores, & ſapores, & ſonos numero finitos eſſe neceſſe eſt. Dubitauerit porrò quiſpiam, vtrùm aut ſenſilia ipſa, aut motiones ab eis profectæ, vtrouis modo ſenſio fiat, vbi operantur, priùs ad medium deueniant. quod tam odor quàm ſonus agere videtur. qui enim in propinquo eſt, is priùs odorem ſentire ſolet: atque ſonus diutinè poſt ictum ad aureis peruenit. Num D ergo ſic de eo quod videtur & lumine ſentiendum, quemadmodum & Empedocles aſſerit: dicens, lumen quod à ſole profluit, priùs ad medium quàm ad ipſum oculum aut ad terram deuenire? id quod etiam ratione optima contingere videatur. Nam id quod cietur, alicunde aliquo cieri ſolet. Quare neceſſe eſt, tempus aliquod exultet, in quo ab altero ad alterum cieatur. at tempus omne diuiſibile eſt. Quare erat, quando nondum videbatur, ſed adhuc ferebatur in medio radius. Et quamuis omnia audiant ſimul & audierint, & omnino ſentiant & ſenſerint, atque ſenſionum nulla ſit generatio, ſed abſque generatione exiſtant: tamen nihilominus illa perinde ha- E bebunt, atque ſonus qui ictu iam facto nondum apud auditum eſt. Hoc autem & ipſa literarum afformatio declarat: quaſi latio in medio fiat. non enim audiuiſſe videmur, id quod dictum ſit, quia aër motum ſubiens afformetur. Nunquid igitur & color & lumen, hoc idem factitant? non enim ex iis quæ æquabili interuallo diſtant, alterum cernit, alterum cernitur, eo quòd modo quodam ſeſe habeāt, cùm minimè oporteat vtrunq; certo loco eſſe. quoniam in iis quæ intercapedini æquabili diſiūgūtur, nihil refert, ſiue propè, ſiue procul à ſeſe ſint.

A An ſono & odori hoc ipſum euenire conſentaneũ eſt? nam perinde vt aër & aqua, continũa quidem ſunt, ſed tamen motio vtriuſque partita eſt. Quocirca tum idem, tum non idem, primus & nouiſſimus audiunt olfaciúntque. Videtur autem quibuſdam hoc quoque difficultatem habere. Quidam enim aiunt eſſe impoſſibile, vt alius idem quod alius audiat, aut videat, olfaciátve. quandoquidem fieri non poteſt vt vnum multi & ſeorſim exiſtentes audiant, aut olfaciant. idem enim ſeiunctum à ſeſe, ſeparatúmque eſſet. An quod primò quidem mouit, ceu tintinabulum, aut thus, aut ignem, vnũ & idem numero omnes ſentiunt: quod autem iam proprium eſt, numero aliud, ſpecie verò idẽ? Quocirca plures ſimul vident, & odorantur, & audiunt. B Cæterùm hæc neque ſunt corpora, ſed affectio & motio quædam (alioqui nequaquam iſtud eueniret) neque ſine corpore. De lumine verò alia ratio eſt. nam lumen eſſentia quædam, & non motio exiſtit. In ſumma non perinde in alteratione res habet atque in latione. Nam lationes iure optimo priùs in medium perueniunt. Videtur autem ſonus eſſe motio cuiuſpiam quod lationem ſubeat. Quæ verò alterantur, neutiquam ſimiliter faciunt. contingit enim quippiam vniuerſim alterari, & non dimidium priùs: ceu aquam omnem ſimul concreſcere. Sed enim nonnunquam, dum calefit aut cõcreſcit, pars alteri proxima ab ea cui hæret, afficitur: prima verò ab ipſo alterante immutari aſſolet. C nec neceſſe eſt eam ſimul & vniuerſim alterari. Porrò ſi in humore degeremus, ſapor vt odor eſſet, & adhuc longiore interuallo antequam eum tangeremus, ſentiretur. Ratione quoque optima euenit, vt ſenſoria quæ non niſi aliquo intercedente medio functiones ſuas exercent, non ſimul patiantur: præterquam in lumine, propter id quod dictum. Idem etiam de viſione ſentiendum eſt: nam lumen ipſum viſionem efficit.

A ἢ περὶ μὲν τὸν ψόφον καὶ ὀσμὴν τοῦτο συμβαίνειν εὔλογον; ὥσπερ γὰρ ὁ ἀὴρ καὶ τὸ ὕδωρ, συνεχῆ μὲν, ἀλλ᾽ ὅμως μεμέρισται ἀμφοτέρων ἡ κίνησις. διὸ καὶ ἔστι μὲν ὡς τὸ αὐτὸ ἀκούει ὁ πρῶτος καὶ ὁ ὕστερος, καὶ ὀσφραίνεται, ἔστι δ᾽ ὡς οὔ. δοκεῖ δέ τισιν εἶναι ἀπορία καὶ περὶ τούτων· ἀδύνατον γάρ φασί τινες ἄλλον ἄλλῳ τὸ αὐτὸ ἀκούειν, ἢ ὁρᾶν καὶ ὀσφραίνεσθαι· οὐ γὰρ οἷόν τε εἶναι πολλοὺς καὶ χωρὶς ὄντας ἀκούειν καὶ ὀσφραίνεσθαι· τὸ γὰρ ἓν χωρὶς ἂν αὐτὸ αὑτοῦ ἦν. ἢ τοῦ μὲν κινήσαντος πρώτου, οἷον * τοῦ κώδωνος, ἢ λιβανωτοῦ, ἢ πυρὸς, τοῦ αὐτοῦ καὶ ἑνὸς ἀριθμῷ αἰσθάνονται πάντες· τοῦ δὲ ἤδη ἰδίου, ἑτέρου ἀριθμῷ, εἴδει B δὲ τοῦ αὐτοῦ. διὸ πολλοὶ ἅμα ὁρῶσι, καὶ ὀσμῶνται, καὶ ἀκούουσιν. ἔστι δ᾽ οὔτε σώματα ταῦτα, ἀλλὰ πάθος καὶ κίνησίς τις· οὐ γὰρ ἂν συνέβαινε τοῦτο· οὔτε ἄνευ σώματος. περὶ δὲ τοῦ φωτὸς ἄλλος λόγος· τῷ εἶναι γάρ τι φῶς ἐστιν, ἀλλ᾽ οὐ κίνησίς τις. ὅλως δὲ οὐδὲ ὁμοίως ἐπί τε ἀλλοιώσεως ἔχει καὶ φορᾶς· αἱ μὲν γὰρ φοραὶ εὐλόγως εἰς τὸ μεταξὺ πρῶτον ἀφικνοῦνται, δοκεῖ δὲ ὁ ψόφος εἶναι φερομένου τινὸς κίνησις· ὅσα δὲ ἀλλοιοῦται, οὐκέτι ὁμοίως· ἐνδέχεται γὰρ ἀθρόον ἀλλοιοῦσθαι, καὶ μὴ τὸ ἥμισυ πρότερον, οἷον τὸ ὕδωρ ἅμα πήγνυσθαι. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ᾽ ἂν ᾖ πολὺ τὸ θερμαινόμενον, ἢ πηγνύμενον, τὸ ἐχόμενον C ὑπὸ τοῦ ἐχομένου πάσχει. τὸ δὲ πρῶτον ὑπ᾽ αὐτοῦ τοῦ ἀλλοιοῦντος μεταβάλλει, καὶ οὐκ ἀνάγκη ἅμα ἀλλοιοῦσθαι καὶ ἀθρόον. ἦν δ᾽ ἂν καὶ τὸ γεύεσθαι ὥσπερ ἡ ὀσμὴ, εἰ ἐν ὑγρῷ ἦμεν πορρωτέρω. ἔτι πρὶν θιγεῖν αὐτοῦ ᾐσθανόμεθα. εὐλόγως δὲ ὧν ἐστι μεταξὺ τοῦ αἰσθητηρίου, οὐχ ἅμα πάσχει, πλὴν ἐπὶ τοῦ φωτὸς, διὰ τὸ εἰρημένον. διὰ τὸ αὐτὸ δὲ καὶ περὶ τοῦ ὁρᾶν· τὸ γὰρ φῶς ποιεῖ τὸ ὁρᾶν.

A talia autem ſint quæ diuerſis ſubiiciuntur ſenſibus: (nam ea miſceri ſolent, quorum extrema ſunt contraria. at ex albo & acuto, vnum fieri nequaquam contingit: niſi per accidens, & non vti ex acuto & graui concentus exultat) nullatenus profectò contingit ea ſimul ſentiri. Nam ſi motus ipſorum ſint æquales, mutuò ſeſe obliterabunt, cùm ex eis vnus non fiat. ſi verò inæquales, præſtantior ſenſum efficiet. Præterea anima potiùs ſimul duo, quorum vnus eſt ſenſus, ceu acutum & graue, vno ſenſu ſentiret, quia motio vnius ſenſus, eadem inquam eiuſdem, potiùs ſimul fiat: quàm duorum, ceu viſus & auditus. At fieri non poteſt vt ea vno ſenſu duo ſimul ſentiat, niſi miſta fuerint. nam mi-B ſtura ipſa, eſſe vnum aſſolet. vnius autem vnus eſt ſenſus: vnus verò ſenſus, ſimul ipſe ſit. Quare anima neceſſariò ſimul ſentit commiſta, quod ea vno ſenſu actu ſentiet. nam vnius numero quidem eſt, qui actu vnus eſt: ſpecie verò, qui potentia. Si itaque ſenſus actu vnus ſit, illa vnum dicet. neceſſe eſt igitur, ea eſſe miſta. Vbi ergo miſta non fuerint, ſenſus qui actu fiant, duo erunt. At ſecundùm vnam potentiam, & tempus impartibile, vnum eſſe actum neceſſe eſt. vnius enim potentiæ vnus eſt vſus, qui ſemel fiat, ac motus. potentia autem vna eſt. Nequaquam ergo contingit, vno ſenſu duo ſimul ſentire animam. At verò ſi quæ ſub eundem ſenſum cadunt, anima ſimul ſentire non poſſit, ſi C duo ſint: certum eſt, eam minùs poſſe ſimul ſentire, quæ ſub duos cadunt, ceu album & dulce. Etenim anima id quod numero vnum eſt, non aliter quàm ſimul, dicere videtur: quod autem ſpecie vnum eſt, iudicante ſenſu, & modo quodam. Hoc autē dico, quia fortaſſe album & nigrum quæ ſpecie differunt, idem ſenſus iudicat: & dulce & amarū idem quidem ipſe, ab illo autem alius: ſed contrariorum vtrumque diuerſo modo. Conſimiliter & quæ ſibiipſis conſocialia ſunt. nam quemadmodum guſtus dulce, ita viſus album: & contrà quemadmodum viſus nigrum, ita guſtus amarum diſcernit atque diiudicat. Præterea ſi contrariorum motiones contrariæ ſint, atque fieri non poſſit vt contra-D ria in eodem ac indiuiduo ſimul inſint, ſed ſub vno ſenſu ſint, veluti dulce & amarum: nequaquam profectò continget, contraria ſimul ſentiri. Pari quoque modo conſtat, nec ea quæ contraria non ſunt, ſimul ſentiri poſſe: quando alia ad album, ad nigrum alia pertinent. id quod etiam in cæteris ſimiliter euenit, vt in ſaporibus: quorum ad dulcem alij, alij ad amarum redigi ſolent. nec ea quæ commiſta ſunt (quippe quæ ſint rationes oppoſitorum: ceu diapaſon & diapente) niſi vt vnum ſentiantur. ſic autem extremorum ratio vna ſit, aliàs non. erunt enim ſimul altera multi ad paucum, aut imparis ad parem: altera pauci ad multum, aut paris ad imparem. Si ergo plus adhuc diſtant E inter ſe, ac differunt, quæ per conſociationem quidem ſeu coordinationem dicuntur, ſed in alio genere ſunt, quàm quæ quidem genus habent: verbi gratia, dulce & album conſociata quidem, ſiue coordinata voco: genere autem diuerſa: dulce verò plus adhuc ab atro ſpecie differt quàm ab albo: adhuc profectò minùs ea ſimul ſentiri continget, quàm quæ genere eadem ſunt. quare ſi non hæc, neque illa. Quod autem quidam ex eis qui circa conſonantias verſantur, aſſerunt, nēpe ſonos non ſimul quidē peruenire, ſed videri, ac tēpus nos latere vbi inſēſibile fuerit; probène dicitur an nō?

Fortè enim quiſpiam nunc quoque iuxta illud dicat, videri cuilibet ſe ſimul contueri aut exaudire quæpiam, quod intermedia tempora obliteſcant. An id verum non eſt: nec fieri poteſt, vt tempus vllum ſit inſenſibile, aut lateat: ſed omne ſentiri contingit? Nam ſi quando quis ſeipſum idem aut alium in continuo tempore ſentit, non contingit tunc latere ſe eſſe, eſt autem aliquid in continuo etiam tantum quantum prorſus inſenſibile eſt: certum eſt, quod tunc eundem lateret ſe eſſe, & videre, & denique ſe ſentire, et ſi ſentit. Præterea nec tempus nec res vlla erit quam quis ſentit, aut in quo ſentit, quam aut in quo non ſentiat, quod in illius aliquo aut illius aliquid videat: perinde ac ſi dicas illum totam terram videre, quòd hanc eius partem videat: & in annum ambulare, quod in hac parte eius ambulet: ſi magnitudo aliqua tum temporis, tum rei, præ exiguitate inſenſibilis omnino habeatur. Nam ſi tota die videt, ac toto eodem iugi tempore ſentit, non eo quod in huius aliquo ſentiat, auferatur portio c b in qua non ſentiat. Non igitur in huius aliquo, aut huius aliquid ſentit. At verò in parte c b nihil ſentit. Eo ergo quod in huius, puta a b, aliquo ſentit, totum ac tota ſentire dicitur. Eadem quoque ratio eſt in a c, ſemper enim in aliquo & aliquid ſentit, totum autem ſentire non contingit. Omnia igitur ſenſibilia ſunt, ſed non quanta ſunt, apparent. ſolarem enim magnitudinem quadricubitamque eminus videt: at non quanta ſit apparet, ſed interdum indiuiſibilis, videt tamen non indiuiſibilem. Huius rei cauſa in prioribus dicta eſt. Nullum igitur eſſe tempus inſenſibile, per hæc conſtat. De dubitatione verò quam prius dixi, ſcrutandum eſt: vtrùm contingat ſentire plura ſimul, necne. dico ſimul, in vno ac indiuiduo tempore inter ſe. Primùm igitur vtrùm ſic contingat, videlicet ſimul quidem, ſed alio animæ & non indiuiſibili, ſic tamen indiuiſibili, vt toto exiſtente continuo? An dicendum imprimis, quæ ſub vnum ſenſum cadunt, ceu viſum, ea ſimul ſentiri poſſe: ſi alio alium colorem ſentiat, pluresque partes habeat ſpecie eaſdem: etenim quæ ſentit, in eodem genere ſunt. At ſi quis dicat nihil prohibere, quin vt oculi duo ſunt, ita & in anima res habeat: dicendum quòd forte ex illis quidem vnum quid fit, & actus eorum vnus eſt: hic verò, ſi quod ex ambobus conſtet, vnum ſit, id quod ſentit, illud erit. ſin verò illa ſeorſum maneant, haud ſimiliter habebit. Præterea ſenſiones ipſæ plures erunt, perinde ac ſi quis ſcientias differentes dicat: quando nec actus, ſine potentia ſibi reſpondente: nec ſenſio ſine actu eſſe poteſt. Quòd ſi hæc anima in vno & indiuiduo ſentiat, palàm eſt quòd & alia ſentit. quippe cùm potius ea plura ſimul ſentire contingat, quàm quæ genere diuerſa ſunt. Itaque ſi alia parte dulce, alia album ſentiat: aut quod ex iſtis partibus reſilit, vnum eſt, aut non vnum. At neceſſe eſt eſſe vnum: quandoquidem pars ſenſitiua vnum quippiam eſt. Cuius igitur illud vnius erit? nam ex dulci & albo nullum vnum fit. Neceſſe ergo eſt, vnum quid animæ eſſe quo omnia ſentiat, quemadmodum priùs dictum eſt: ſed aliud genus, per aliud. Num igitur id quod dulce & album ſentiat, quatenus indiuiſibile quippiam actu eſt, vnum eſt: vbi verò diuiſibile actu euaſit, aliud?

A πάγχυ γὰρ ἂν φαίη τις καὶ νῦν τὸ δοκεῖν ἅμα ὁρᾶν καὶ ἀκούειν εἶναι, ὅτι οἱ μεταξὺ χρόνοι λανθάνουσιν. ἢ τοῦτ' οὐκ ἀληθές, οὐδ' ἐνδέχεται χρόνον εἶναι ἀναίσθητον οὐδένα, οὐδὲ λανθάνειν, ἀλλὰ παντὸς ἐνδέχεται αἰσθάνεσθαι; εἰ γὰρ ὅτε αὐτός τις αὑτοῦ αἰσθάνεται ἢ ἄλλου ἐν συνεχεῖ χρόνῳ, μὴ ἐνδέχεται τότε λανθάνειν ὅτι ἔστιν, ἔστι δέ τις ἐν τῷ συνεχεῖ καὶ τοσοῦτος ὥστε ὅλως ἀναίσθητος εἶναι, δῆλον ὅτι τότε λανθάνοι ἂν εἰ ἔστιν αὐτὸς αὑτόν, καὶ εἰ ὁρᾷ καὶ αἰσθάνεται· καὶ εἰ αἰσθάνεται, ἔτι οὐκ ἂν εἴη οὔτε χρόνος οὔτε πρᾶγμα οὐθέν, ὃ αἰσθάνεται, ἢ ἐν ᾧ ὁρᾷ, εἰ μὴ οὕτως, ὅτι ἐν τούτου τινί, ἢ ὅτι τούτου τι ὁρᾷ, εἴπερ ἐστί τι μέγεθος καὶ χρόνου καὶ πράγματος ἀναίσθητον ὅλως διὰ μικρότητα· εἰ γὰρ τὴν ὅλην ὁρᾷ, καὶ αἰσθάνεται τὸν ὅλον αὐτὸν συνεχῆ χρόνον, οὐχ ὅτι ἐν τούτου τινί, ἢ ὅτι τούτου τι ὁρᾷ, εἴπερ ἐστί τι μέγεθος, ἀφῃρήσθω τὸ γβ, ἐν ᾧ οὐκ ᾐσθάνετο. οὐκοῦν ἐν ταύτης τινί, ἢ ταύτης τι, ὥσπερ τὴν γῆν ὁρᾷ ὅλην, ὅτι τοδὶ αὐτῆς, καὶ ἐν τῷ ἐνιαυτῷ βαδίζει, ὅτι ἐν τῷδε τῷ μέρει αὐτοῦ. ἀλλ' ἐν μὲν τῷ βγ οὐθὲν αἰσθάνεται· τῷ ἄρα ἐν τούτου τινὶ τῆς αβ αἰσθάνεσθαι, λέγεται τὸ ὅλον αἰσθάνεσθαι καὶ τὴν ὅλην. ὁ δ' αὐτὸς λόγος καὶ ἐπὶ τῆς αγ· ἀεὶ γὰρ ἐν τινὶ καὶ τινός, ὅλου δ' οὐκ ἔστιν αἰσθάνεσθαι. ἅπαντα μὲν οὖν αἰσθητά ἐστιν, ἀλλ' οὐ φαίνεται ὅσα ἐστί. τὸ γὰρ ἡλίου μέγεθος ὁρᾷ, καὶ τὸ τετράπηχυ πόρρωθεν, ἀλλ' οὐ φαίνεται ὅσον, ἀλλ' ἐνίοτε ἀδιαίρετον, ὁρᾷ δ' οὐκ ἀδιαίρετον. ἡ δ' αἰτία εἴρηται ἐν τοῖς ἔμπροσθεν περὶ τούτου. ὅτι μὲν οὖν οὐκ ἔστι χρόνος ἀναίσθητος, ἐκ τούτων φανερόν. περὶ δὲ τῆς πρότερον λεχθείσης ἀπορίας, σκεπτέον, πότερον ἐνδέχεται ἅμα πλειόνων αἰσθάνεσθαι, ἢ οὐκ ἐνδέχεται. τὸ δ' ἅμα λέγω ἐν ἑνὶ καὶ ἀτόμῳ χρόνῳ πρὸς ἄλληλα. πρῶτον μὲν οὖν, ἆρ' ὧδ' ἐνδέχεται, ἅμα μέν, ἑτέρῳ δὲ τῆς ψυχῆς αἰσθάνεσθαι, καὶ οὐ τῷ ἀτόμῳ, ὡς ἀτόμῳ ὄντι τῷ παντὶ συνεχεῖ. ἢ ἐπὶ πρῶτον μὲν τὰ κατὰ τὴν μίαν αἴσθησιν, οἷον λέγω ὄψιν, εἰ ἑτέρῳ μὲν αἰσθάνεται ἄλλου καὶ ἄλλου χρώματος, πλείω τε μέρη ἕξει ὁμοειδῆ ταὐτά, καὶ γὰρ ἃ αἰσθάνεται, ἐν τῷ αὐτῷ γένει ἐστίν. εἰ δὲ καὶ ὅτι ὡς ὄμματα δύο φαίη τις, οὐθὲν κωλύει, οὕτω καὶ ἐν ψυχῇ, ὅτι ἴσως ἐκ μὲν τούτων ἕν τι γίνεται, καὶ μία ἡ ἐνέργεια αὐτῶν. ἐκεῖ δέ, εἰ μὲν ἕν τι τὸ ἐξ ἀμφοῖν, ἐκεῖνο τὸ αἰσθανόμενον ἔσται· εἰ δὲ χωρίς, οὐχ ὁμοίως ἕξει. ἔτι αἰσθήσεις αἱ αὐταὶ πλείους ἔσονται, ὥσπερ εἴ τις ἐπιστήμας διαφόρους φαίη· οὔτε γὰρ ἡ ἐνέργεια ἄνευ τῆς καθ' αὑτὴν ἔσται δυνάμεως, οὔτε ἄνευ ταύτης αἴσθησις ἔσται. εἰ δὲ τούτων ἐν ἑνὶ καὶ ἀτόμῳ αἰσθάνεται, δῆλον ὅτι καὶ τῶν ἄλλων· μᾶλλον γὰρ ἐνδέχεται τούτων ἅμα πλειόνων, ἢ τῶν τῷ γένει ἑτέρων. εἰ δὲ δή, ἄλλῳ μὲν γλυκέος, ἄλλῳ δὲ λευκοῦ αἰσθάνεται ἡ ψυχὴ μέρει, ἤτοι τὸ ἐκ τούτων ἕν ἐστιν, ἢ οὐχ ἕν. ἀλλὰ ἀνάγκη ἕν. ἓν γάρ τι τὸ αἰσθητικόν ἐστι μέρος. τίνος οὖν ἐκεῖνο ἑνός; οὐθὲν γὰρ ἐκ τούτων ἕν. ἀνάγκη ἄρα ἕν τι εἶναι τῆς ψυχῆς, ᾧ ἅπαντα αἰσθάνεται, καθάπερ εἴρηται πρότερον, ἄλλο δὲ γένος δι' ἄλλου. ἆρ' οὖν ᾗ μὲν ἀδιαίρετον τι κατ' ἐνέργειαν, ἕν τι ἐστὶ τὸ αἰσθητικὸν γλυκέος καὶ λευκοῦ, ὅταν δὲ διαιρετὸν γένηται κατ' ἐνέργειαν, ἕτερον;

ἢ ὥσπερ ἐπὶ τῶν πραγμάτων αὐτῶν ἐνδέχεται, οὕτω καὶ ἐπὶ τῆς ψυχῆς; τὸ γὰρ αὐτὸ καὶ ἓν ἀριθμῷ λευκὸν καὶ γλυκύ ἐστι, καὶ ἄλλα πολλά· εἰ γὰρ μὴ χωριστὰ τὰ πάθη ἀλλήλων, ἀλλὰ τὸ εἶναι ἕτερον ἑκάστῳ. ὁμοίως τοίνυν θετέον καὶ ἐπὶ τῆς ψυχῆς τὸ αὐτὸ καὶ ἓν εἶναι ἀριθμῷ τὸ αἰσθητικὸν πάντων. τῷ μέντοι εἶναι ἕτερον καὶ ἕτερον τῶν μὲν γένει, τῶν δὲ εἴδει. ὥστε καὶ αἰσθάνοιτ' ἂν ἅμα τῷ αὐτῷ καὶ ἑνί, λόγῳ δὲ οὐ τῷ αὐτῷ. ὅτι δὲ πᾶν αἰσθητὸν πᾶν ἐστι μέγεθος, καὶ οὐκ ἔστιν ἀδιαίρετον αἰσθητόν, δῆλον· ἔστι γὰρ ὅθεν μὲν οὐκ ἂν ὀφθείη, ἄπειρον τὸ ἀπόστημα· ὅθεν δὲ ὁρᾶται, πεπερασμένον. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ ὀσφραντὸν καὶ ἀκουστὸν καὶ ὅσων μὴ ἁπτόμενοι αἰσθάνονται. ἔστι δή τι ἔσχατον τοῦ ἀποστήματος ὅθεν οὐχ ὁρᾶται, καὶ πρῶτον ὅθεν ὁρᾶται. τοῦτο δὴ ἀνάγκη ἀδιαίρετον εἶναι, οὗ ἐν μὲν τῷ ἐπέκεινα οὐκ ἐνδέχεται αἰσθάνεσθαι ὄντος, ἐν δὲ τῷ ἐπὶ τάδε ἀνάγκη αἰσθάνεσθαι. εἰ δή τι ἔστιν ἀδιαίρετον αἰσθητόν, ὅταν τεθῇ ἐπὶ τῷ ἐσχάτῳ ὅθεν ἐστίν, ἔσχατον μὲν οὐκ αἰσθητόν, πρῶτον δὲ αἰσθητόν, ἅμα συμβήσεται ὁρατὸν εἶναι καὶ ἀόρατον. τοῦτο δὲ ἀδύνατον.

Περὶ μὲν οὖν τῶν αἰσθητηρίων καὶ τῶν αἰσθητῶν τίνα τρόπον ἔχει, καὶ κοινῇ, καὶ καθ' ἕκαστον αἰσθητήριον, εἴρηται. τῶν δὲ λοιπῶν πρῶτον σκεπτέον περὶ μνήμης καὶ τοῦ μνημονεύειν.

A An quemadmodum in rebus ipſis euenit (idem enim ac vacuum numero, album eſt & dulce, & pleraque alia) ita & in anima euenire cenſendum eſt: nam etſi affectiones ſeparabiles à ſeſe non ſint, ſingulis tamen ratio diuerſa competit. Conſimiliter ergo ſtatuendum eſt in ipſa quoque anima, id quod omnia ſentiat, idem eſſe ac vnum numero: rationem tamẽ aliam & aliam eſſe, horum quidem genere, illorum verò ſpecie. Quare & anima ſimul eodem ac vno ſentiet, ratione non eodem. Quòd autem omne ſenſibile magnitudine præditum ſit, nec id ſentire contingat, quod ſit indiuiſibile, hinc manifeſtum euadet. Nam vnde viſibile non videatur, infinita diſtantia eſt: vnde videatur, finita. conſimiliter de olfactili, & audibili, B & iis omnibus quæ ſine attactu ſentiuntur, dicendum eſt. Eſt itaque aliquid vltimum diſtantiæ, vnde non videtur, & primum diſtantiæ, vnde videtur. Hoc ergo indiuiſibile ſit neceſſe eſt, vltra quod quicquid iaceat, ſentire non contingit: citra verò, ſentire neceſſe eſt. Si ergo aliquod ſenſibile indiuiſibile ſit, vbi poſitum fuerit in extremo illo, vnde eſt vltimum quidem non ſenſibile, primum autem ſenſibile, accidet illud ſimul eſſe viſibile & inuiſibile, quod impoſſibile eſt.

De ſenſoriis igitur, & ſenſilibus quo pacto ſeſe habeant, & communiter, & per ſingula ſenſoria dictum eſt. Ex reliquis primò de memoria & reminiſcentia conſiderandum videtur.

CAPVT I.

Memoriam & reminiſcentiam, quemadmodum & memorari & reminiſci, non eſſe eadem.

Q VID ſit memoria & meminiſſe, quàque de cauſa fiat, & ad quam partem animæ iſthæc affectio referenda ſit, necnon quid reminiſcentia & reminiſci, explicandum eſt. Quippe cùm non iidem memoria præcellant, & facilè reminiſcantur: ſed magna ex parte qui tardo hebetique ſunt ingenio, memorioſiores ſint: qui celeri ac docili, reminiſcentiores. Ac primum quidem quæ ſint ea quæ memoriæ ſubiiciuntur, conſideremus addecet: cùm ſoleat in hoc error intercidere. Nam neque futura meminiſſe poſſumus: ſed opinari, vel ſperare, quo etiam in genere ſcientia præſagandi habetur, quam nonnulli diuinationem appellant. Neque inſtantia memoria complecti ſolemus: ſed ſenſu: nã ſenſu neque futura, neque præterita cognoſcimus, ſed duntaxat præſentia. Præterita verò mandari memoriæ queunt. Quod autem præſens eſt, cuimadeſt, vt hoc album, cùm cernitur oculis, nemo ſe meminiſſe dixerit: ſed nec quod contemplatur, cùm quid animo verſat ſpeculaturque. ſed alterum ſentire ſolùm, alterum diſcere ac meditari. At cùm ſcientiam ſenſúmve ſine actione tenet, tum demum meminiſſe quippiam creditur, ceu angulos trianguli duobus rectis pares eſſe: tum quia id aliquando ſpeculatus eſt, aut audiuit: tum quia ita accepit, aut vidit, aut cuiuſpiam ſenſus opera deprehendit: ſemper enim cùm quis aliquid meminit, ſecum dicat oportet, hoc ſe antea aliquando audiuiſſe, aut ſenſiſſe, aut denique intellexiſſe. Eſt igitur memoria, neque ſenſus, neque exiſtimatio: ſed alicuius horum habitus aut affectio, cùm iam aliquantiſper inſederit. Præſentium verò in tempore præſenti memoria non eſt, quemadmodum diximus: ſed eorundem ſenſus eſt, futurorum ſpes, præteritorum memoria. Quamobrem memoria omnis non niſi elapſo quodam temporis curriculo exultat. Hinc fit vt quæ animalia temporis ſenſum habeant, ea ſola meminiſſe poſſint: & eadem animæ particula, qua illud ſentiant. Sed cùm de imaginatione retro dictum ſit in libris de Anima, & fieri non poſſe vt ſine phantaſmate quicquam intelligatur (intelligenti enim euenit, cùm quid intelligit, quod nobis, cùm figuram quampiam delineamus. nam quamuis nullus nobis vſus ſit præfinitæ magnitudinis, deſcribimus tamen triangulum conſtituta certáque quantitate: pari quoque modo & ille, quamuis quod quantum non ſit, intelligat, quantum tamen proponit ſibi, & quaſi ſubiicit oculis, ſed non vt quantum intelligit. quòd ſi ſuapte natura quantum ſit, infinitum tamen indeterminatumque, ſibi quantum finitum quidem atque determinatum præſentat, intelligit verò vt quantum ſolùm. cæterùm quam ob cauſam quæ ſub tempore non ſunt, ſine mole & tempore intelligi non poſſint, alio quidem loco dicendum eſt. neceſſe autem eſt eadem nos amplitudinem & motum parte cognoſcere, qua & tempus. vnde conſtat, horum notitiam ad primarium illum principemque ſenſum pertinere) atque phantaſma communis ſenſus affectio ſit, memoria verò ea quæ de intellectilibus rebus eſt non, ſine phantaſmate habeatur: memoria profectò ipſa per ſe quidem in ſenſu principe conſtituenda eſt, per accidens autem in ipſo intellectu. Quo fit vt non modo hominibus, & iis animalibus quibus opinatio & prudentia tributa eſt, ſed nonnullis item aliis memoria inſit. Quod ſi in parte aliqua intellectus ſtatuenda eſſet memoria, neutiquam multis e brutorum genere contingeret, immo fortè nulli mortali. Quando ne nunc quidem omnibus ea competit, quod non omnia temporis ſenſum habeant. ſemper enim, vt etiam ante retulimus, cùm quis meminit, præterea ſentit ſe priùs id vidiſſe, aut audiuiſſe, aut didiciſſe. at prius & poſterius, in tempore ſunt. Liquet igitur, in ea parte animæ poſitam eſſe memoriam, in qua collocata imaginatio ſit: & ea per ſe memoriæ ſubiici, quæ poſſunt ſub imaginationem cadere: per accidens, quæ non poſſunt ſine imaginatione intelligi. A aut certè in parte corporis eam habente [illegible] habitum memoriam eſſe dicimus. ſiquidem [motus] ille qui fit, quandam veluti figuram ſenſionis imprimit, haud ſecus atque qui anulis ſigillant. [illegible] circa & in hiſce quos pro affectione aliq[ua] te multiplex motus exercet, memoria non [fit], motus & ſigillum in amnem profluum [incidit]: aliis vero ne impreſſio quidem afformatur, [illegible] que, ob partis quæ affectionem excipere debet, rigorem (inolgeſcit enim veterum ædificiorum more) duritiemque. Proinde tam pueri quàm ſenes immemores ſunt: propterea quod alteri ob accretionem in quodam quaſi fluxu ſunt: alteri, ob decretionem. Pari quoque modo carere memoria [videntur],

B tum qui præceleres & impendio veloces ſunt, tum qui admodum tardi ſtupidique. nam illi quidem humidiores ſunt quàm par ſit, illi vero duriores. Primi ergo, viſorum impreſſionem [illegible] ac retinere non poſſunt: alteri, recipere. At ſi memoria ſtat, ſciendum ita ſit, vtrùm huiuſce affectionis meminimus, an illius vnde hæc profecta eſt. Nam ſi huius, nihil quod abſens ſit, meminiſſe poſſumus: ſi illius, qui fieri poteſt vt hanc ſentiendo, eius meminerimus, quod non ſentimus, quódque abſtractum remotumque à nobis eſt? Item ſi ex ipſius ſenſione quaſi quædam pictura ac impreſſio in nobis hæc fit, cur eam alterius, & non huius ipſius, memoriam [eſſe dicimus]? nam qui meminit, hanc affectionem
C ſpectat ſentitque. Quonam igitur pacto meminiſſe poteſt eius, quod præſens non ſit? hoc enim modo cernere etiam & audire abſentia liceret. An fieri poteſt, vt hoc ipſum contingat, eueniatque? Vt enim animal depictum in tabula, & animal eſt & imago, & cùm vnum idemque ſit, vtrunque eſt, ſed tamen eorum ratio diuerſa exiſtit, conſiderarique poteſt & vt animal eſt & vt imago: ſic & de phantaſmate quod in nobis eſt, cenſere oportet, & ipſum quippiam in ſe, & alterius ſimulachrum eſſe. nam quatenus in ſe ſeorſumque ſpectatur, ſpectrum aut viſum eſt: quatenus vero aliud refert, imago & monimentum. Quare etiam cùm idem animum
D vellicat ac laceſſit, ſi quis ipſum in ſe, & vt ſui quippiam generis eſt, animo percipiat, quædam veluti conceptio aut viſum ſuccurriſſe videtur. ſin vero quatenus alterius eſt, & vti in pictura accidit, tanquam ſimulachrum & imitationem contempletur, cuicunque tametſi anteà nunquam Coriſcum viderit, tanquam Coriſci imaginem conſideret: tum ſanè conſiderationis huiuſce conditio atque natura longè alia eſt quàm cùm tanquam animal depictum in animo ſpectat. hic enim mera conceptio euadit: illic quod ſimulachrum alterius ſit, monimentum. Et ob id cùm ſenſio quæ præceſſit, tales motus in animo noſtro excitat, plerunque neſci-
E mus ſenſione an alia ratione idipſum proueniat, & nonnunquam hæſitamus ſi ſit memoria necne. Interdum autem euenit, vt cogitando ſcrutandoque recordemur priùs à nobis quippiam auditum, aut viſum fuiſſe. Quod euenit, quoties qui phantaſma aliquod ita conſiderabat, vt nihil præterea niſi ipſum illud in ſe contemplaretur, mutata ſententia, vt ſimulachrum alterius eſt, ſpeculatur. Eſt quando & contrà accidat: quemadmodum Antipheronti Oreitæ cęteriſque qui exceſſu mentis tentabantur, contigit. nam quę imaginabantur, tanquam facta & geſta narrabant, & ita vt qui meminiſſent. Atque hoc fit, vbi quis id quod non eſt imago, ſpeculatur vt imaginẽ. Porrò meditationes recolendo memoriam cõſeruant, incolumémque reddunt. Recolere autẽ nihil aliud eſt, quàm crebrò phantaſmata, vt imagines,non vt in ſe ſpectra ſunt, reſpicere. Dictum eſt igitur quid ſit memoria, quid meminiſſe: habitus ſcilicet phantaſmatis, vt imaginis eiuſce rei quæ imaginationi ſubditur. necnon cui earum quæ ſunt in nobis animæ partium tribui debeat: nempe illi, quæ ſibi primariam ſentiendi poteſtatem vendicat, quæque nobis ſenſum notitiámque temporis inuehit.

CAPVT II.

De reminiſcentia, & quid à memoria differat.

Reliquum eſt, vt de reminiſcentia ſiue recordatione dicamus. Primùm igitur quæ in aggreſſoriis ſermonibus vera ſunt, ea pro veris habeamus oportet: reminiſcentiam ſcilicet non eſſe reſumptionem memoriæ, neque item aſſumptioné. Nam cùm quis primùm diſcit, aut notitia rei imbuitur, neque reſumit memoriam vllam (nulla enim antegreſſa eſt) neque de integro aſſumit. quia tum demum memoria dicitur eſſe, cùm iam factus corroboratúſque fuerit habitus, aut certè affectus. Vnde fit vt memoria non ſimul cum affectu fiat. Item cùm primùm affectio facta eſt, in vltimo illo momento, affectio quidem & ſcientia (ſi tamen affectionem aut habitum ſcientiam appellare liceat) in re affecta iam ineſt, memoria verò haudquaquam. Nihil tamen vetat quominus quædam ex iis quæ ſcimus, per accidẽs meminiſſe dicamur. Quanquam meminiſſe per ſe non poſſumus, antequam ſpatium aliquod temporis interlapſum ſit. ſiquidem nunc eius rei memini, quam priùs audiui, aut vidi, aut aliquo ſenſu cognoui: & non quam nunc ſenſi, eius nunc memini. Præterea manifeſtũ eſt fieri vt qui nunc non reminiſcitur, meminerit, ſi denuo ſentiat, aut doceatur quod ſit oblitus. at quoties quam priùs tenebat ſcientiam, aut ſenſum, aut denique quoduis aliud, cuius habitum eſſe memoriam diximus, iam penè interlitum obſoletúmque recolendo inſtaurat, & quaſi poſtliminio reuerſum tractat verſátque: tum & hoc quoque alicuius eorum quæ dicta ſunt reminiſci eſt. accidit tamen vt reminiſcentiam memoria, & reminiſci meminiſſe comitetur. Neque continuò fit vt ſimpliciter illa, ſcientiam dico, ſenſum, & ſi quid eſt eiuſmodi, ſi priùs in animo fuerint, rurſus in mentem redire & inſtaurari debeant: ſed contrà, quandoque reſtituuntur animo, quandoque ab eodem perpetuò exulant. nam & vt iterum diſcat, & iterum inueniat idem eandem ſcientiam, vulgò contingere ſolet. Reminiſcentiam igitur, ab inuentione & diſciplina differre oportet: & qui reminiſcitur, maius principiũ intus habere, quàm qui diſcit aut inuenit. Fit autem reminiſcentia, cùm motus animæ ita ſe habent, vt alter ſubinde poſt alterum fieri natus ſit. nam ſi neceſſariò vnus alterum conſequio trahat, palam eſt, ſimul atque ille mouerit eam, hunc moturum. ſi verò non neceſſariò, ſed ex conſuetudine alter inſequatur, maiori ex parte mouebit. Contingitque, vt quidam ſemel permoti magis aſſueſcant, quàm alij ſæpius. Et idcirco quorundam quæ ſemel viderimus, faciliùs quàm aliorũ quæ ſæpiuſculè, meminiſſe ſolemus. Cùm ergo reminiſcimur, quibuſdam antegreſſis motibus mouemur, quouſque eo moueamur, poſt quem ille ſequi conſueuit. Quocirca & ex hoc nunc, aut alio quodam initio ſeriem ſequelámque venamur: & à ſimili, aut contrario, aut finitimo. Et ob id recordatio fieri aſſolet. motus enim quorundam ex his iidem ſunt, quorundam ſimul fiunt, quorundam alter alterius partem obtinent, connexique ſunt adeò, vt reliqua pars quæ illam ſequatur, exigua ſit. Ad hunc igitur modum inueſtigare ſolemus. Sed & interim nobis non ita inquirentibus reminiſci accidit, cùm recordatio motum alterum continuò excipit, ſubſequitúrque.

Quoties itaque reminiſci volet, id faciet: ac motus initium capere ſtudebit, quem hic, id eſt, reminiſcentia, ſequitur. Quamobrem omnis reminiſcentia ex principio pulcherrimè ac ſumma celeritate corriuatur. nam quo res inter ſe ordine diſpoſitæ ſunt, eum quoque motus earundem obtinent. B Et ea item facilè memoria continentur, quæ quodam ordine conſtant, vt Mathematica. at quæ prauè diſpoſita ſunt, ægrè cuſtodiuntur. Atque hoc intereſt inter reminiſci, & iterum diſcere: quòd qui reminiſcitur, ab ipſo ſe moueri quodammodo poteſt, ad id quod poſt principium eſt. at cùm per ſe non poteſt, ſed alterius ceu præceptoris auxilium deſiderat, non ampliùs meminiſſe videtur. Sæpe verò iam quidem reminiſci non poteſt, quærendo tamen poteſt, ac inuenit. Quod homini contingere ſolet, dum tantiſper varia mouet, quoad in motionem eam inciderit, poſt quam res ſequatur. Eſt enim meminiſſe, mouentem quandam facultatem intus poſſidere. ſed tamen eiuſmo- C di, vt animus ex ſeipſo, & motibus quos habet, moueri queat, vt dictum eſt. ac principium quidem ſumi debet. Quocirca nonnunquam videtur ex locorum diſpoſitione reminiſci. cauſa autē eſt, quòd citò ex alio in aliud veniat: vt ex lacte in candorem, ex candore in aërem, ex aëre in humorem, ex humore in autumni memoriam, cùm hanc partem anni ſatagit inuenire. Videtur autem vniuerſaliter in omni genere, quod medium eſt, vicem principij obtinere. Nam ſi non priùs, ſaltem cùm ad id quod in meditullio eſt, peruenerit, res veſtigata ſuccurret, aut nunquam prætere, nec aliunde. verbi gratia, aſcribantur literæ ſeptem a c d e D f g h, per quas mentis cogitatio itura ſit. Si enim non continuò vbi ventum eſt ad e, meminit; ſimulatque ad h appulerit, meminiſſe dicetur. nam ab e, in vtranque partem, & in d & in f diſcurrere poteſt. Quòd ſi ex his nullam diſquirat, in c profecta meminerit, ſi d aut e veſtiget: quemadmodum in g profecta meminerit, ſi g aut f perquirat. ſin minùs, in a; & ita ordine perpetuò. Cur autem ab eodem principio interim meminiſſe queat, interim nō queat, cauſa eſt, quòd ex eodem principio in multas parteis ire contingat: veluti ex e in f, aut in d. Si igitur non per vetera ſimulachra diſcurrat, ad id rapi ſolet, quod ſibi familiarius propter conſuetudinem reddidit. iam enim E conſuetudo ipſa in quandam naturam commigrauit. Quapropter quæ frequenter cogitamus, citò reminiſcimur. nam vt natura vnum alterum ſequitur, ita & operatione. quinimo frequens multúſque vſus naturam facit. Quoniam autem ſicut in naturalibus errata quædam naturæ & fortuita euenire ſolent, adhuc magis in conſuetis, quibus natura non perinde ineſt, peccata quædam intercidunt: hinc ſanè fit vt nonnunquam animus huc illuc impellatur, præſertim cùm à certo quodam initio auſpicatus, quóuis alio deuius fertur. Propterea contingere ſolet vt cùm alicuius nominis meminiſſe volumus, in alterum conſimile, non in illud, quaſi ſolœciſmum committentes, incidamus. Ad hunc igitur modum reminiſci accidit. Sed enim notitia temporis, ſiue illud certum conſtitutúmque habeatur, ſiue incertum & infinitum, quàm maximè neceſſaria exiſtit. Eſt autem aliquid, quod de pluri minorique tempore iudicamus.

conſentaneúmque eſt, vt quippiam in nobis ſit, quod ſicut magnitudines, ita & tempus internoſcat. Porro magnitudines ampliſſimas, & quæ à nobis procul abſunt, intelligere ſolet, non quòd intelligentia ipſa (Græci dianœan vocant) procedat foras, atque ad eas ſeſe applicet, quemadmodum quidam de viſu dixerunt (nam etiamſi non ſint, ex æquo tamen intelliget) ſed per motum qui proportione quadam illis reſpondeat. habet enim in ſe motus effigieſque, rebus quas intelligit, perſimiles. Quo igitur differat, cùm maiores intelligit? An quod & minores intelligat? quæcunque enim ambiuntur, interioráque ſunt, minora ſunt: & eis, quæ continent & extima ſunt, proportione quadam reſpondent. Atque fortaſſe qualis proportio inter ſimulachra ipſa, ſed adiuncto tempore, capi poteſt: talis & in ipſis quoque interuallis diſtātiiſq; reperiatur. Nā qui lineas a b & b e confecit, lineas a c & c d confeciſſe videtur: quando hæ cum illis proportionis nexu iūctæ ſunt. Sed cur potiùs lineas a c d, quàm lineas a f & f g? An ſicut refertur linea a c ad a b, ita linea κ h ad lineā κ m? Qui ergo lineam k m tranſegit, ſimul lineam k h tranſegerit oportet. Si verò intellexiſſe velit lineas a f & f g, lineas quidem a b & b e, ſimiliter intelligit: at è regione lineæ k m, lineam k l. Nam hæc ad illam ita ſeſe habet, vt lineam f a ad lineam b a ſe habere videmus. Quando igitur negotium & tempus ſimul animum inuadunt excitántque, tum meminiſſe ſolet. quòd ſi ſe coniungere vtrunque putet, non tamen coniungat, ſe meminiſſe autumat. nihil enim obſtat quin fallatur aliquis, & ſe meminiſſe, cum non meminit, putet. quanquam fieri non poteſt vt qui meminit, ſe meminiſſe non aduertat, ſed id eum lateat. nam meminiſſe, idipſum eſt. At ſi negotium abſque tempore, aut contra tempus abſque negotio iacentem animum extimularit, haudquaquam meminit. Cæterum tempus illud duplex eſt. nam interdum quis certum tempus non adhibet, vt cum ſe feciſſe non pridie, ſed aliquando meminit: interdum etiam adhibet. Verum meminiſſe dicitur, etiamſi certum tempus minimè adhibeat. nam vulgo dici ſolet, equidem memini factum, ſed quando non memini, cum de tempore facti non conſtat. Quibus præcipua ineſt memoria, non eiſdem & reminiſcentiam ineſſe eximiam, diximus ſuprà.

Diſtat verò memoria à reminiſcentia, non ſolum ratione temporis, ſed in eo quoque, quòd & complures aliæ animantes memoria participant: reminiſcentia nulli ex omnium animalium numero, quorum natura comperta exploratáque habeatur, præterquam homini conceſſa ſit. Cauſa cur ita, eſt, quòd reminiſcentia velvti ſyllogiſmus quidam, id eſt, ratiocinatio, exiſtit. nam qui reminiſcitur, quod prius audierit, viderit, aut quippiam id genus fecerit, ratiocinari aſſolet. Item quaſi diſquiſitio quædam. diſquiſitionem verò iis ſolis natura tribuit, quibus conſultandi deliberandíque ratio competit. etenim conſultatio ſiue deliberatio, ratiocinatio quædam eſt. Porro affectionem ipſam corporalem eſſe: & reminiſcentiam diſquiſitionem in tali viſo, indicium eſt, quod nonnulli obturbari ſolent, & cum reminiſci non poſſunt, & cum cogitationem reprimunt, conantúrque non vltra reminiſci, & potiſſimum quos atra bilis exercet. hos enim maximè phantaſmata mouent. Cauſa vero, cur reminiſcentia in poteſtate eorum non ſit, eſt: quod ſicut qui iaculatur emiſſum telum, non vltrà ſiſtere poteſt: ita qui reminiſci & veſtigare aliquid contendit, neſcio quid corporeum mouet, cui affectio hæc conſignatur. Maximè autem adagitari ſolent, quibus humoris copia circa ſenſoriam ſedem redundat:

CAPVT I.

De ſomno & vigilia quæ ſint quærenda ſummatim explicat: deinde ad rem aggrediens, pertinere ea ad eandem animalis partem docet: nec corpori nec animæ eſſe propria, ſed vtrique communia: omnibus animalibus commune eſſe, vt modo dormiant, modo vigilent, non aut ſemper aut nunquam. plantas nec dormire nec vigilare.

DE ſomno & vigilia hæc conſideremus oportet, primùm quòd ſint: & vtrùm animæ an corpori propria ſint, an vtriſque communia: &, ſi communia ſint, cui parti tam animæ quàm corporis credita: &, cur tributa animalibus ſint. & vtrùm vtrumque omnibus communicatum ſit: an alteris hoc, illud alteris ſolùm: an aliis neutrum, aliis vtrumque. tum etiam quid ſit inſomnium: & quamobrem dormientes modò ſomnient, modò non ſomnient:

aut ſomnient quidem ſemper ſed non meminerint.& hoc ſi fit,quam ob cauſam fiat.Item poſsintne futura præuideri, necne: & ſi poſſint, qua ratione præſentiri queant. & vtrùm ea ſolùm quæ agantur ab homine, an etiam quorum cauſa ſit Deus, & natura, fiant, temeritatéve aliqua. Ac primùm quidem illud conſtare arbitror; ad eandem animalis partem ſomnum & vigiliam pertinere: quandoquidem oppoſita inuicem ſunt, & ille vt priuatio quædam huius habetur. nam ſemper extrema tam in aliis quàm in hiſce quæ à natura dependent, in eodem recipi, & eiuſdem affectiones eſſe videntur: vt ſanitas & morbus, pulchritudo & fœditas, robur & imbecillitas, viſus & cæcitas, auditus & ſurditas. Item & ex iis quæ ſequuntur, palam fiet. nam quo vigilare aliquem cognoſcimus, eodem & dormire deprehendimus. qui enim ſentit, eundem vigilare cenſemus. Atque vigilantem omnem cognoſcimus, aut quia externum motum aliquem ſentiat, aut quia inteſtino aliquo feriatur. Si ergo vigilia ipſa in alio nullo quàm in ſentiendo conſiſtat, certum eſt, quæ vigilant ac dormiũt, eodem vigilare ac dormire, quo ſentiant. Cùm autem ſentire ipſum neque animæ neque corporis proprium ſit (nam ad idem actus & potentia pertinent. ſenſus autẽ actu, eſt motio quædam animæ, interuentu corporis proueniens) manifeſtum eſt affectionem hanc, dico ipſum vigilare, nec propriam animæ eſſe, neque item corporis, cùm corpus inanime ſentire non poſſit. Porro cùm de particulis animæ alibi iam retro definitum ſit, cúmque vegetatrix ſeiuncta à reliquis habeatur, reliquæ ſine hac ſubſiſtere non poſſint: clarum eſt, quæ augentur ſolùm & minuuntur, vt ſtirpes ac plantæ, ſomno & vigilia deſtitui ſolere, quòd ſenſu careant: ſiue ſeparabilis ille quidem ſit, ſiue non ſit. nã potentia, & ratione ſeparabilis eſt. Pari quoq; modo conſtat, nullum eſſe animal quod aut ſemper dormiat, aut ſemper vigilet, ſed vtrumque eidem tributum à natura eſſe. non enim ſi quod animal eſt ſenſu præditum, neque dormire id, neque vigilare contingit, quando vterque hic affectus circa ſenſum primi ſenſitiui accidere ſolet. Fieri autem non poteſt vt alter horum eidem ſemper inſit: verbi gratia, vt genus aliquod animalis aut ſemper dormiat, aut ſemper vigilet. Nam fieri nequit vt vllum ſemper vigilet. quando quæcumque munia aliquã naturæ obeunt, ſimul ac temporis modum exceſſerint, in quantum ſufficere operi poterant, laſſeſcant ſuccumbántque, & à muneribus quæque ſuis deſiſtant oportet: vt oculi, manus, & quicquid aliud functionem aliquam exercere ſolet. Itaque ſi quid ſentiendi officio fungatur, ſpatio exacto quo continenter gerere & adminiſtrare poteſt, fatiſcet, nec prætereà operari valebit. Cùm ergo vigilia exolutione ſenſus finiatur, & contrariorum ſi alterum adſit, alterum abeſſe oporteat: vigilia verò ſomno contraria ſit, ſitque neceſſarium cuilibet alterum ineſſe: ſequitur, vt ea dormire oporteat. Igitur ſi talis affectio ſomnus eſt, ſomnus verò impotentia, quam vigiliæ exceſſus committit; vigiliæ autem exceſſus interim ab ægritudine pendet, interim circa ægritudinem accidit: vnde fit, vt quemadmodum exolutio duplex eſt, ita & impotentia duplex haberi poſſit: neceſſarium eſt vt quicquid vigilat, dormire aliquãdo contingat, quia vt ſemper agat, fieri non poteſt. Conſimiliter fieri nequit, vt ſemper dormiat:

Somni & vigiliæ vſus ac neceſſitas.

CVr autem dormiant & vigilent, & per quem ſenſum, aut per quos, ſi per plures id eueniat, D conſiderandum eſt. Cùm animalium quibuſdam ſenſus omnes inſint, quibuſdam nõ omnes, vt viſus: ſed cunctis, tactus & guſtus, niſi quid imperfectum laceſſitúmque ſit: de quibus omnibus in libris de Anima dictum eſt: fieri autẽ ſimpliciter non poſſit, vt dormiens animal vllo ſenſu abuti queat: patet, neceſſarium eſſe in ſomno eandẽ omnia ſubire cõditionem. nam ſi partim eodem modo afficiantur, partim diuerſo: hac nimirum ratione fiet, vt per quietem animal ſentiat, id quod impoſſibile eſt. Porro cùm natura ſingulis ſenſibus proprium quid iniunxerit, & in omnes commune quid ſparſerit (proprium, vt viſui videre, auditui audire, & reliquis ad eundem modum: commune, vim quan- E dam promiſcuam, quæ omneis comitatur, qua animal & videre & audire ſe ſentit: non enim viſu ſe videre videt, nec viſu aut guſtu iudicat, iudicaréve poteſt, diſtare dulce ab albo: neque ſeorſum, neque ſimul vtroque: ſed particula quadam communi, quæ adiuncta ſenſibus omnibus ſit, nam ſenſus vnus eſt, & etiam principale ſenſorium vnum: ratio tamen ſenſioni cuiuſque generis, vt ſoni & coloris non vna, ſed alia & alia. hæc autem cum tactu maximè coniuncta eſt. nam tactus à cæteris ſenſibus diuelli poteſt, ab hoc cæteri non poſſunt. quæ omnia in commentariis de Anima explicata ſunt) hinc profectò conſtat, ſomnum & vigiliam, affectionem huius eſſe.

Ideóque animalibus cunctis ineſt. etenim tactum vnum omnia poſſident. Nam ſi ſopor irrepat, quia ſenſus omnes afficiantur, abſurdum ſanè fuerit, eos ſimul feriari & immobiles perſiſtere, quos neque neceſſe eſt neque poſſibile quodammodo ſimul in opera eſſe ac pelli, cùm magis conſentaneum videatur, vt ſimul operentur, quam vt ſimul quieſcant. Quod autem nunc de hiſce dicimus, rationi conſonum eſt. nam cùm ſenſus qui cæteris aliis præeſt, & quò cæteri ſeſe conferunt, afficitur, neceſſariò & reliqui omnes conſentiunt. at ſi quiſpiam ex iſtis elangueſcat, & impotens ſentiendi reddatur, non continuò neceſſe eſt illum flacceſcere & viribus deſtitui. Conſtat autem multis argumentis, ſomnum non ea re conſiſtere quòd otioſi ſenſus ſint, nec eis vtatur animal, quódque ſentire non poſſint. Nam cùm quis animo linquitur, tale quid euenire conſtat: quando defectus animæ, non niſi nexus quidam, & impotentia ſenſuum eſt. Idem & in deliriis quibuſdam contingere poteſt. Præterea quibus venæ iugulares apprehenduntur, aſtringunturque, eripi ſenſus aſſolent. Verùm impotentia ſentiendi, ſi non quacumque de cauſa obueniat, neq; in quouis ſenſu ſit, ſed ſicvti nuper dixi, in primo ſenſu quo animal omnia percipit, ſomnus eſt. nam cùm iſte laſſatur, neceſſariò & cęteri ſenſus actus ſuos exercere non poſſunt. Contrà, ſi quis ex illis impotens reddatur, non protinus neceſſe eſt idem huic euenire. Sed qualis affectio ſomnus ſit, & quam item ob cauſam dormire animalia contingat, dicendum eſt: quando complura haberi cauſarum genera, certum eſt. Nam & id cuius gratia quippiam ſit, & id vnde motus origo pendeat, & materiam, & rationem, cauſas appellitare ſolemus. Ac primùm quidem, cùm naturam ſemper agere gratia alicuius, id eſt, boni, dicamus, quietem verò vtilem eſſe, atque adeò neceſſariam iis omnibus quæ moueri quidem nata ſunt, ſed ſemper & continuè moueri cum voluptate nequeunt, cúmque ob veritatem ipſam translatio hæc vulgò recepta ſit, vt ſomnus quietis nomine deſignetur: ſomnus profectò ad ſalutē iunctus animalibus fuit. Vigilatio verò, rationem finis obtinet. nam ſentire & [illegible]ere, finis omnibus eſt, quibus alterum eorum cōpetit. hæc enim optima ſunt, finis autem optimus eſſe ſolet. Item ſomnus animali cuique neceſſarius eſt, non quidem ſimpliciter, ſed ex ſuppoſito & adiunctione. nam ſi animal naturam ſuam ſeruare ac tueri debeat, neceſſariò quædā adeſſe ei oportet, quibus poſitis alia ſubinde adiungēda ſunt. Poſt hæc reſtat dicendum, quo motu actionéve corporū antegreſſa, dormire animalibus obueniat, aut etiā vigilare. Planè cætera animalia, quæ nimirum ſanguine carent, eandem quam quæ prædita ſanguine ſunt, aut proportionalem cauſam ſomni habere, ſanguinea verò eam ipſam quam homines, arbitrari addecet. Quare per hæc de omnibus contemplemur oportet. Principium ſenſus eadem parte oriri, quā & principium motus, definitum ſuprà alibi eſt. hoc autem è tribus determinatis diſtinctiſque locis, in eo contineri ſolet, qui inter caput & aluum medius ſit. Principium igitur mouendi, in iis quæ ſanguinem habent, partem eam quæ circum cor eſt, obtinet. nam quæcumque ſanguinem habent, habent & cor, à quo motus ſenſuſque principis origo atque initium pendet. Motus igitur & ſpiritus, & omnino refrigerationis principium, in corde (vt patet) collocatum eſt.

A Quin & ipſa natura tam parteis eas quæ ſpirationi deſtinatæ ſunt, quàm quæ refrigerio quod ab humore peti ſolet, ad calorem partis huius ſeruandum tutandúmque concinnaſſe videtur. Sed de refrigeratione infrà ſuo dicemus volumine. Iis verò quæ carent ſanguine, & inſectis, & iis quæ ſpirare non ſolent, facultatis motricis regia in eo eſt, quod vice cordis ſubrogatur. nam ea in parte ſpiritus quidam inſitus attolli vicibus & ſubſidere cernitur, quod facilè deprehendi poteſt in totipennibus, qualia ſunt veſpæ, apes, muſcæ, & cætera generis eiuſdem. Quoniam autem animalia nec mouere quicquam, nec agere ſine intenſione virium poſ- B ſunt: intenduntur autem vires retentione ſpiritus, iis quidem quæ ſpirant, extrinſecus accerſiti, iis verò quæ non ſpirant, inſiti: hinc profectò euenit vt totipennia ipſa quoties ſe mouent, attritu ſpiritus ad ſeptum tranſuerſum offendentis, bombos illos edant. Mouentur autem omnia ſenſu quodam, ſiue familiari ſiue peregrino, in primo ſenſorio facto. Quòd ſi ſomnus & vigilia partis huius affectiones ſint, quo in loco & qua primùm particula contingere ſoleant, apertum eſt. Sunt etiam qui dormientes reſurgunt, & pleraque agunt, qualia cùm vigilant, ſolent: quod tamen ſine viſione aliqua aut ſenſu contingere non poteſt. nam ſomnium quodammodo ſenſum eſt. Sed de ſomnio, inferius C differetur. Cur autem expergefacti inſomnia meminerint, quæ verò per ſomnum quaſi vigilantes geſſerint, non meminerint, explicatum in Problematis eſt.

CAPVT III.

Somnus ac vigilia quid, & vnde.

PRoximum ab iis quæ diximus, eſt, vt quibus factis, & vnde affectionis huius origo, ſomni inquam & vigiliæ, proueniat, tractetur exponatúrque. Sanè cùm animal vbi ſenſum habet, tum primùm ali & creſcere oporteat, ſitque alimentum D nouiſſimum ſanguineis ſanguis, exanguibus quod ſanguini proportione reſpondet, atque venæ conceptacula ſanguinis ſint, venarum autem initium cor, id quod ex diſſectionibus perſpici poteſt: cibum vtique illum qui per os ingeri ſolet, in loca ſua receptum euaporari in venas, inibique mutatum in ſanguinem verti, & mox principium ipſum adire cõſtat. Quæ quamquam in libro de Alimento dicta ſunt, nunc tamen repeti oportet, ad hoc vt principia motionis contemplemur, ecquid ſuſtinente parte ſenſitiua ſomnus & vigilia contingat. Nec enim ſomnus quæcumque impotentia ſenſuum eſt, vt diximus. nam & dementia, & præ- E focatio, & animi defectus, talem impotentiam adferre poteſt. Iam verò accidit vt & quidam per forte animi deliquium quippiam imaginarentur. Hoc igitur aliquam habet controuerſiam. Nam ſi defectum animo dormire contingat, continget etiam vt imaginatio illa inſomnium ſit. Porro multa dicunt qui ita vehementer tentantur, quique extinctorum ſpeciem præferunt. De quibus omnibus eandem eſſe rationem putandum eſt. Sed enim (vti iam diximus) non omnis impotentia ſentiendi ſomnus eſt, ſed ea ſolùm, quam diſpoſitio committit alimenti. quod enim ſurſum halat, quadantenus attolli, deinde regredi ac refluere inſtar Euripi neceſſe eſt. nam animantis cuiuſque calidum in ſublime natura fertur. at vbi eò loci ſubuectum eſt, mox vniuerſum reciprocat ac deſcendit. Quamobrem ſomnus maximè poſt cibum fieri ſolet. tunc enim copioſus humor & corpulentus ſurſum commeat. Qui cùm conſiſtit, caput aggrauat, & addormiſcere facit. cùm verò iam deſcendit, & reciprocando calorem repulit: tum ſomno ſepultum iacet, dormitque animal. Hæc autem vel ſomnifica ipſa indicant. omnia enim, ſiue poculenta ſint, ſiue eſculenta, grauedinem capiti adferunt: vt papauer, mandragoras, temetum, lolium. Ad hunc item modum affecti videntur, qui ſoporantur, dormitántque: quia nec caput erigere, nec palpebras attollere queunt. Et maximè à cibis ſomnus talis extat: tunc enim multa exhalatio conficit. præterea à fatigationibus nonnullis: nam fatigatio colliquandi vim obtinet. colliquamentum autem, vicem incocti alimenti, niſi frigidum ſit, præſtare ſolet. Quidam enim morbi hoc idem faciunt qui ab humido & calido excremento proueniunt: quemadmodum in febre & lethargo euenit. Item prima ætas. nam pueri alto ſopore premuntur: quia alimentum omne ſurſum reſpirat. Cuius rei ſignum eſt, quòd per id ætatis, ſuperiora proportione inferiorum maxima ſunt, quia incrementum illo contendat. Nec alia de cauſa morbo comitiali obnoxij ſunt. is enim morbus perſimilis ſomno eſt. Et iccirco huiuſce peſtis exordium, pleriſque per quietem accidit. qui poſtea dum dormiunt, ea corripi ſolent: dum vigilant, non ſolent. Cùm enim larga ſpiritus copia in ſublime effertur, vbi ſurſum deſcendit, venas extumefacit & inflat, quibus meatum ſpirabilem comprimit atque intercludit. Hinc vinum pueris vtile non eſt, nec etiam nutricibus (nihil enim fortè intereſt, nutrices an pueri ebibãt) niſi dilutum & modicum hauriatur. nam vinum ſpiritoſum eſt, præſertim atrum. Et vſque adeò ſuperiora pueri plena cibo continẽt, vt quinque menſium ſpatio collum obuertere nequeant. quippe cùm illis, haud ſecus quàm ebriis, multus vapor ſurſum ad caput feratur. Quam affectionem, cauſam eſſe cur initiis fœtus intra matris vterum quieſcant, rationi conſonum eſt. Atque in totum ſomniculoſi ſunt, qui cõditas venas habẽt, & qui forma pumilionis, & capite prægrandi ſunt. Nam ij quorum conditæ ſunt venæ, eas graciles & anguſtas habent, adeò vt humor ægrè decidat & refluat. A quinetiam partes ſuperiores & extimæ frigēt: contrà inferiores & intimæ, vt pedes & quæ intrinſecus continentur, incaleſcunt. Quanquam cur ita, dubitabit aliquis, quòd à cibo profundiſſimus ſomnus obrepat, & vina ſoporifera ſint, & cetera quibus conſimilis caliditas adeſt. nec rationi conſonum eſſe videatur, vt ſomnus refrigeratio ſit, & cauſæ ſomni calidæ. Vtrùm igitur hoc eo accidit, quòd quemadmodum venter inanis calidus eſt, ſed cùm oppletur, motionis ratione refrigeſcit: ita meatus & loci in capite poſiti, euaporamento commeante refrigerantur? An quemadmodum aqua calida perfuſi, repentè inhorreſcimus: ita illic frigus aſcendente calore collectum, parteis eas refrigerat, & calorem naturalem debilitat, ac ſubterfugere cogit? B Præterea an quemadmodum congeſtu lignorum ignis reſtinguitur: ita multa alimonia, quam calor ſubuehit, ſuperioribus ſe immiſcente, calor naturalis elangueſcit, donec vtique illa concocta perfectáque ſit? Fit enim ſomnus, ſicuti dictum iam eſt, corpulēto quopiam vi caloris in ſublime per venas euecto: quod cùm diutius eo loci perſiſtere non poteſt, ſed copia exuperante aggrauatur; rurſum depelli, & ad ima fluere ſolet. quapropter & ipſi homines corruunt (animalium enim homo vnus erectus eſt) calore qui eleuandi munere fungebatur, ſubtracto. atque ſimul ac cor incidit, C mentem aufert, deinde imaginationes & viſa ſuggerit. An ſolutiones, quas modò dixi, cauſas continent, propter quas refrigeratio fieri poſſit, ſed tamen locus ille, qui circiter cerebrum habetur in ea re committenda principatum obtinet, vti alio loco diximus? Nam cerebrum, partium omnium corporis frigidiſſimum eſt: in iis verò quæ carent cerebro, id quod vicem eius tenet. Quemadmodum igitur cùm humor exhalat, & calore ſolis in ſublime fertur, vbi ſupernum aëris locum ſubierit, præ rigore loci refrigeratus cōſiſtit, ac denuo in aquam conuerſus in terram defluit: ita cùm calor ad cerebrum eleuatur, excrementitia diuaporatio in pituitam & ſaniem concreſcit (quamobrem & fluxiones ex capite oriri videmus) D alimentaria & non morbida conſiſtit deſcenditque, & feruorem cordis delapſa refrigerat atque moderatur. Ad refrigerationem verò & difficilem ſuſceptionem euaporationis, gracilitas & anguſtia venarum cōducit, quæ circa cerebrū ſunt. Hæc igitur cauſa eſt cur euaporatio etiam ſi immodicè caleat, refrigeretur. Expergiſcitur animal, quando abſoluta concoctio eſt, & calor qui ambientis frigoris opera ex amplo in arctum coierit, euicit, atque ſanguinem feculentum à ſyncero diſcernit. Eſt autem tenuiſſimus & puriſſimus ſanguis, qui in capite continetur: contrà craſſiſſimus & turbidiſſimus, qui partibus com- E mittitur inferioribus. Omnis autem ſanguinis origo, cor eſt: quemadmodum tum hîc tum alibi diximus. Ex tribus porro ventriculis qui habentur in corde, is qui in medio eſt, vtrique extremo communis exiſtit, atq; extremi ſpecus, ſanguinem ab vtraque vena, maiore & aorta, recipiunt: in medio autem ſinu, diſcriminatio illius fit. Sed de his aptius alio loco definitur, atque determinatur. Quoniam autem ſanguis maximè poſt ingeſtos cibos indiſcretus fit, tum ſomnus obrepit, & tandiu edurat quoad ſanguis purus ad parteis ſuperas, turbulentus ad inferas ſequeſtratus delegatuſque ſit: quo facto animantes ab onere cibi abſoluti, excitantur. Dictum eſt quæ cauſa dormiendi ſit.

A ὅτι ἡ ἀπὸ τοῦ σωματώδους τοῦ ἀναφερομένου ὑπὸ τοῦ συμφύτου θερμοῦ ἀντιπερίστασις ἀθρόως ἐπὶ τὸ πρῶτον αἰσθητήριον· καὶ τί ἐστιν ὕπνος, καὶ ὅτι τοῦ πρώτου αἰσθητηρίου κατάληψις πρὸς τὸ μὴ δύνασθαι ἐνεργεῖν, ἐξ ἀνάγκης μὲν γινόμενον (οὐ γὰρ ἐνδέχεται ζῷον εἶναι, μὴ συμβαινόντων τῶν ἀπεργαζομένων αὐτό.) ἕνεκα δὲ σωτηρίας· σώζει γὰρ ἡ ἀνάπαυσις.

CAPVT I.

Cuinam animæ parti aſciſcendum inſomnium.

Poſt hæc de inſomniis quærendum eſt: ac primò quidem, qua vi animæ percipiantur: & vtrùm hæc affectio mentis ac intellectus, an ſenſus ſit. his enim viribus vnis earum quæ in nobis ſunt cognitionem rerum notitiámque aſſequimur. Ergo ſi functio aſpectus viſio eſt, & auditus auditio, & omnino ſenſus ſenſio: communia autem ſenſilia ſunt figura, motus, magnitudo, & cætera id genus, propria verò color, ſonus, & ſapor: nec fieri poteſt vt vllum animal clauſis oculis dormienſq; cernat, aut alio ſenſu percipiat: nos in ſomnô nihil ſentire certum eſt. Vnde fit, vt inſomnia nullo ſenſu noſcantur. Sed neque opinione comprehendi illa poſſunt. nam in ſomno non equum modò & hominem eſſe id quod ad nos accedit, pronuntiamus, ſed etiam album & pulchrum: quorum nullum opinio abſque ſenſu nec verè nec falsò dixerit. At animam hoc idem facere contingit. ex æquo enim hominem & album eum eſſe qui occurrit, diſcernere videmur. Ad hæc, præter inſomnia, aliud quiddam intelligere ſolemus. Quemadmodum enim vigilando ſentientes aliquid, plerumque etiam aliud de re quæ ſenſum ferit, conſideramus, ita dormiendo, præter viſa, interdum alia quædam mens noſtra cogitat. Quod facilè patebit, ſi quis mentem ad ſomnia conuertat, & recurrere ea quoties exurgit, enitatur. Immò iam quidam inſomnia experti ſunt eiuſmodi: nimirum qui præceptionem colendæ memoriæ ſequentes, pronuntiata quibuſdam locis conſtituere ſibi videbantur: eis enim ſæpenumero accidit, vt aliud quiddam præter ſomnium, nempe viſum phãtaſmaque aliquod, in comparato diſpoſitóq; loco ante conſpectũ collocarent. liquere arbitror, non quicquid in ſomno videmus, inſomnium eſſe: & nos intelligere, quæ opinione opinamur. Porro de his omnibus illud conſtat, hoc idem quo ægri in vigilia fallimur, facere vt in ſomno decipiamur. Sed & nobis quanquam ſani ſumus, atque adeo videntes, tamen ſol pedaneus eſſe videtur. Cæterùm ſiue imaginandi vis animæ eadem ad numerum cum ſenſoria ſit, ſiue diuerſa habeatur, nihilominus hoc ſine viſione aut ſenſione aliqua non ſit. nam hallucinari & obaudire dicitur, qui verum quidem aliquid videt & audit, non tamen, id quod ſe videre & audire putat. At in ſomno poſitū eſt, neque videri quicquam, neque audiri, neq; omnino ſentiri. Num igitur quāuis nihil tunc cerni atque ſentiri verum ſit, tamē nullo modo ſenſum affici verum non eſt: ſed & viſum & cæteros ſenſus pati aliquid cōtingit? Nam ſinguli horum, in ſomno principem ſenſum haud magnopere ſecius atque in vigilia, non ſic autem vt in illa, formis ſenſilibus appetunt, feriūt, laceſſunt. Quin etiam interdum opinio ipſa, quæ viſa ſunt, ea falſa eſſe, vt in vigilia, dicit: interdum obligatur, & ſpectra quaſi vera ſint, proſequi aſſolet. Conſtat igitur, hanc affectionem quam ſomniare dicimus, neque ad opinantem, neque ad intelligentem pertinere. Sed ne ad ſentientem quidem ſimpliciter. nam alioqui videre ſimpliciter & audire eſſet. Cæterùm quomodo & qualiter ad iſtum referri queat, conſiderandum eſt. Ponamus igitur, id quod etiam clariſſimum eſt, inſomnium ſenſoriæ partis affectionem eſſe. nam & ſomnus ad eandem pertinet. nec enim animantium alteri ſomnus, inſomnium alteri, ſed eidem vtrumque competit. Cùm verò de imaginatione & phantaſia tractatum in libris de Anima ſit, & imaginandi vis eadem numero ſit cum potentia ſentiendi, quamuis eſſentia ratioréque differant, imaginatio autem ſit motio à ſenſu, actu proueniens, inſomnium verò ſpectrum quoddam & phantaſma eſſe videatur (nam viſum ipſum quod in ſomno apparet, inſomnium dicimus, ſiue illud ſimpliciter, ſiue quodammodo contingat) palam vtique eſt, inſomnia ſenſoriæ partis eſſe, ſed quatenus imaginaria eſt.

CAPVT II.

Vt doceat quid ſit inſomnium & quomodo fiant inſomnia, hypotheſes quaſdam priùs ponit ac pluribus explicat, quas mox ad inſtitutam quæſtionem accommodabit.

QVid autem ſit inſomnium, & qua ratione fiat: ex iis maximè cognoſci poteſt, quæ in ſomno accidunt. Etenim ſenſilia ipſa in nobis, per ſingula ſenſoria ſenſionem efficiunt: & affectio quam ea inuehunt, non modò in ſenſoriis ineſt, cùm ſenſus agunt, ſed etiam cùm ab opera diſceſſere. nam perinde hîc, atque in iis quæ lationem ſubeūt, euenire videtur. etenim quæ lationē ſubeunt, eo quod propulit, non ampliùs tangente, ciētur. quod enim mouendi officio functum eſt, quandam aëris particulam propulit: quæ cùm mouetur, ſubinde aliam ciet. atque hoc vtique pacto, donec quieſcant, moueri aër & aqua ſolēt. Conſimiliter & hoc quoque in alteratione fieri putandum eſt. illud enim quod calentis rei opera incaluit, quod ſibi vicinum eſt, calefacit; penetrátq; ſucceſſio hæc ad id vſque quod primum calefieri poteſt. Quare & ei cui ſentiendi facultas commiſſa eſt, hoc idem accidere neceſſe eſt: cùm ſenſum, qui in actu conſtitutus ſit, alterationem eſſe quandam conſtet. Quocirca affectio ipſa, in opificus ſenſuum, nõ modò ſentientibus illis, ſed etiam quieſcentibus, tam per ſumma quàm in imo ſeruari ſolet: id quod quoties continenter quippiã ſentimus, liquidò percipi poteſt. Nã ſi ſenſum ipſum ab eo ad aliud, vt de ſole in opacũ conuertamus, comitatur eum affectio. euenit enim vt nihil cernat: proptereà quòd commotio, quæ à lumine profecta eſt, oculos adhuc poſſideat. Item ſi quod albũ aut viride diutius aſpexerimus, ad quodcumque aſpectum noſtrum deflectamus, concolor illi videtur. Sed & ſi oculos contra ſolem, aut aliquid aliud quod fulgeat, intẽderimus, deinde conniueamus: per rectam lineam qua aſpectum cernere contingit, primùm tale obſeruantibus apparet, quale reuera eſt: tum ſe in puniceum conuertit, proximè in purpureum, donec ad atrum perueniat, exoleſcatque. Quinetiã ſi qui obtutus ſuos ab hiſce quæ mouentur: vt ab amnibus, præſertim ocyſſimè labentibus, aliò transferant: quæ ſtant, moueri videntur. Iidem porrò ab ingentibus ſonis ſurdaſtri redduntur, & ab odoribus vehementibus ægerrimè olfaciunt: atque ita in ſimilibus ſtatuendum eſt. Quæ omnia apertè hoc eueniunt modo. Quòd autem celeriter ſenſoria ipſa vel tenues differentias ſentiant, indicio eſt, id quod in ſpeculis fieri ſolet: de cuius ratione ſeorſim dicato opere, conſiderare quis & addubitare poſſit. Et inſuper ex eodem facilè conſtat, viſum vt pati, ita etiam agere aliquid ſolere. Nam cùm mulieres tempore menſium à ſpeculis admodum nitidis aliquod inſpectant, tunc ſuperficies ſpeculi quadam velyti nebula ſanguinis obducitur: atque ſi nouitium ſpeculum ſit, haud facile eſt eiuſmodi maculam abſtergere: ſin pervetus, facile. Cauſa autem eſt, ſicuti iam diximus, quòd non ſolùm ab aëre viſus quippiam patitur, ſed etiam in aërem quippiam agit, atque eundem mouet, perinde atque ſplendida. nam viſus, de genere ſplendidorum & habentium colorem eſt. Hoc igitur tempore quo menſes profluũt, eodem modo oculos, quo quamlibet aliam corporis particulam affici, ratione optima euenit. quandoquidem ſuapte natura venulenti ſunt. Quocirca tempore menſtrualis profluuij, quod commotione & inflammatione ſanguinis prouenit, diſcrimen in oculis habetur, quod quamuis nobis incuidens ſit (eſt enim natura ſeminis & menſium eadem) reuera tamen in eiſdem eſt. Ab ipſis autem menſibus qui ad oculos penetrarunt, aër mouetur & inficitur: aër infectus, alium aërem qui ſpeculo proximus eſt, ſibi hærentem inficit, & talem qualis ipſe eſt, reddit à quo poſtremùm, ſpeculo eluuiecula quædam allinitur. Nam ſpecula, haud ſecus quàm mundiſſimæ veſtes, celerrimè notam aliquam contrahunt. quod enim mundum eſt atque purum, exactè commonſtrat quicquid exceperit, & potiſſimùm minimos motus: æs verò, quod leue terſúmque ſit, qualemcumque tactum maximè ſentit. Scire autem oportet, tactum, aëris eſſe quandam veluti attritionem, deterſionémque & ablutionem, atque eundem, quantuluſcumque ſit, conſpicuum propter ſpeculi puritatem reddi. Cur verò maculæ nouis ſpeculis inductæ difficilè eluantur, cauſa eſt, quòd ea pura ſunt & terſa. nam maculæ ſeſe per talia & in profundum, & in omnes partes diffundunt. in profundum, quòd pura ſint: in omnes partes, quòd terſa. In vetuſtis autem maculæ non permanent, quia non tam altè figuntur,

ΚΕΦΑΛ. Δ.

Ὅτι οὐ μόνον ἐγρηγορότων αἱ κινήσεις αἱ ἀπὸ τῶν αἰσθημάτων γινόμεναι, ἀλλὰ καὶ ἐν ὕπνῳ φαίνονται· καὶ ὅτι διὰ σφοδρὰν ἐξ ἀναθυμιάσεως πνεύματος ἢ αἵματος κίνησιν, ἢ οὐ φαίνεται ἐνύπνιον, ἢ τεταραγμένον· ἠρεμίας δὲ οὔσης, καθαρόν. Ἔτι πῶς ἀπατῶνται διὰ τὰ ἐνύπνια οἱ καθεύδοντες. Ἐνύπνιον, τί. Διὰ τί οἱ μὲν μηδέποτε κατὰ τὸν βίον, οἱ δὲ προελθοῦσιν ἤδη τῆς ἡλικίας, οὔ ποτε πρότερον ἑωρακότες ἐνύπνια, ὁρῶσιν.

Ἐκ δὴ τούτων φανερόν, ὅτι οὐ μόνον ἐγρηγορότων αἱ κινήσεις αἱ ἀπὸ τῶν αἰσθημάτων γινόμεναι τῶν τε θύραθεν, καὶ τῶν ἐκ τοῦ σώματος ἐνυπαρχουσῶν, ἀλλὰ καὶ ὅταν γένηται τὸ πάθος τοῦτο, ὃ καλεῖται ὕπνος, καὶ μᾶλλον τότε φαίνονται. μεθ' ἡμέραν μὲν γὰρ ἐκκρούονται, ἐνεργουσῶν τῶν αἰσθήσεων καὶ τῆς διανοίας, καὶ ἀφανίζονται ὥσπερ παρὰ πολὺ πῦρ ἔλαττον καὶ λῦπαι καὶ ἡδοναὶ μικραὶ παρὰ μεγάλας. παυσαμένων δέ, ἐπιπολάζει καὶ τὰ μικρά. νύκτωρ δέ, δι' ἀργίαν τῶν κατὰ μόριον αἰσθήσεων, καὶ ἀδυναμίαν τοῦ ἐνεργεῖν,

A ſed eminentiuſculè. Tenues igitur differentias excitare, vellicaréque ſenſum, & celeriter ab eodem internoſci, item non modò pati ſenſorium quo natura colorum percipitur, ſed etiam viciſſim agere, ex hiſce conſtat. Iis quæ diximus aſtipulatur, quod circa vina & vnguenta accidere videmus. Nam oleum quod vnguento additur, celeriter odores earum rerum quæ in propinquo ſunt, ebibit. Vina quoque hoc idem faciunt: quippe quæ non modò earum rerum quæ induntur admiſcentúrque odores in ſe trahant, ſed etiam earum rerum quæ prope dolia aut locantur aut naſcuntur. Ad eam verò conſiderationem quæ nobis initio inſtituta
B eſt, vnum ſupponatur, quod & patêre poteſt ex iis quæ dicta ſunt, abeuntibus externis ſenſilibus, ſenſa quæ & ipſa quoque ſenſilia ſunt, remanere. Item facilè decipi circa ſenſus, homines in aliquo affectu poſitos, atque alios in alio, vt meticuloſum in metu, amatorem in amore, adeo vt ex tenui ſimilitudine, alter hoſtes ſe videre putet, alter quem amat. Et quo quis vtique arctiùs ipſo affectu poſſidetur, eo leuiori ſimilitudine talia ſeſe illi offerunt. Eodem modo & qui ira, & qui demum quacumque alia cupiditate rapiuntur, facilè circumſcribi ſolet: ac tanto quidem procliuiùs, quanto magis libidine ipſa ducuntur. Vnde etiam fit vt febrientes interdum animalia quædam in parietinis videre videan-
C tur, exigua ſimilitudine permoti, quam lineamenta quædam congeſta prætendunt. Atque hic error quandoque vnà cum morbo inualeſcit, ita vt cùm leuiter ægrotant, ſe falſos haberi agnoſcant: cùm verò grauiùs, minimè, ſed ipſis quoque viſis ducantur. Cauſa verò quamobrem hæc fiant, ea eſt: quòd id quod primatū obtinet, & id in quo phātaſmata fiunt, non eadem vi iudicant. Cuius rei ſignum eſt, quòd cùm ſol appareat pedalis, ſępe aliud quippiam phantaſiæ contradicit. Item perplexis digitis, quamuis quòd vnum eſt, duo appareat, tamen eſſe duo neutiquam dicimus: quia viſus, ſuperior optimatiórque tactu eſt. Quòd ſi ſolus ta-
D ctus eſſet, duo eſſe quod vnum eſt iudicaremus. Cauſa autem circumuentionis ea eſt, quoniam non tantùm quoties ſenſile mouetur, quælibet apparere ſolent: ſed etiam quoties ſenſus ipſe mouetur, ſi eodem modo moueatur quo ſolet a ſenſili moueri, ſic littus videtur nauigantibus moueri, dum viſus ab alio mouetur.

CAPVT III.

Superiores hypotheſes propoſito accommodat, & quid ſint inſomnia, quomodóque fiant, & cur aliis alii, item cur quibuſdam vel nunquam, vel prouectâ demum ætate inſomnia videantur, fuſè explicat.

EX his itaque patêre arbitror, nō modò vigilantibus nobis motiones illas quæ per eos ſenſus accipiuntur, qui foras proſpectant, & in parte corporis exteriore iacent, ſentiri ſolere, ſed etiam cùm affectio ea ſuborta eſt, quam ſomnum vocamus: atque tunc impenſiùs. Nam interdiu, operantibus quidem ſenſibus ac mente, eliduntur atque vaneſcunt: quo modo exiguus ignis apud ingētem offuſcari ſolet: & dolores voluptatéſque modicæ, acceſſu immodicarum offundi. quieſcentibus verò, minima quæque emergunt. Noctu autem quia particulares ſenſus feriuntur, & agere nequeunt,

A propterea quòd calor exteris partibus relictis in viſcera ſe condit: ad initium ſenſus originémque delabuntur, & obturbatione ſedata manifeſtæ fiunt. Porrò exiſtimare oportet, haud aliter motionem quamque fieri, quàm paruas illas vertigines per ſumma amnium decurrentes: quæ interim ſimiles euadunt, interim quòd aquæ aliò retorqueantur, in alias ſubinde formas ſoluuntur diuelluntúrque. Quamobrem ſtatim à cibo non ſomniant animalia, neque cùm edita nuperrimè in lucem ſunt, vt infantes. nam multa tum agitatio motióque eſt, propter alimentarium calorem. Quare quemadmodum humore vehementer commoto quandoque nulla redditur effigies: quandoque redditur quidem aliqua, ſed diſtorta penitus, adeò vt alia videatur eſſe quàm ſit: quieſcente verò ſemper aliqua redditur, quæ etiam nulla ex parte affecta eſt, ſed pura & expreſſa: ita & inter dormiendum interim viſa, & motiones quæ per ſenſus hauſtæ ſuperſunt, præ maiore illo motu qui dictus eſt, prorſus obliterantur exoleſcúntque: interim præpoſteræ, & monſtroſæ viſiones apparent, & ingrata ſomnia, qualia melancholicis & vinolentis & febrientibus accidunt. omnes enim iſtiuſmodi affectus, cùm ſpiritoſi ſint, commotionem & perturbationem plurimam afferunt. Simulac autem recedit & diſcretus ſanguis eſt in iis quæ ſanguinem obtinent, incolumes ſenſorum motiones quæ à ſingulis ſenſibus tranſmittuntur, grata ſomnia faciunt, & apparere quippiam, ac videri per ea quæ à viſu deferuntur, videre, per ea quæ ab auditu, audire, & pari modo per ea quæ à cæteris ſenſuum officinis mandantur, ſentire. eo enim quòd motiones à ſenſibus ad principium ſentiendi perueniunt, videri videre, audire & ſentire neceſſe eſt. Quinetiam quia conſpectus non moueri videtur, cùm tamen in motu ſit, vt dicimus, & quia tactus duos motus adnuntiat: quod vnum eſt, duo eſſe videtur. nam ſentiendi principium, quicquid à ſingulis ſenſibus afferatur, aſtruit: niſi aliqua alia virtus potior contraueniat. Semper igitur apparet: ſed non omne quod apparet, etiam videtur, niſi vis illa arbitra manus dederit, aut non moueatur motu vernaculo & ſuo. Quemadmodum verò diximus, alios ob alium affectum facilè decipi: ita & de dormientibus ſtatuendum eſt, qui propter ſomnum, & eo quòd ſenſoria ipſa moueantur, & cætera quæ per ſenſum contingunt, procliues ad labendum ſunt. Quare quod tenuem alicuius rei ſimilitudinem referat, eis ipſa planè res eſſe apparet. nam cùm dormientibus illis, plurima ſanguinis copia ad ſenſum principem delabitur, vna & motiones illæ deſcendunt, quæ in ea materia continentur, aliæ potentia, aliæ actu. Sic autem ſeſe habent, vt ex eis vna aliqua prior ſe afferat, moueatque. qua abſumpta, alia ſubinde comparet. Et perinde ſuo quæque ordine ſequuntur, atque ranæ è ſubere, aut quauis alia materia factæ, quæ colliquato ſale quo erant oblitæ, in aqua emergunt. Ad hunc modum potentia inſunt. reiecto autem eo quod impedimento erat, actu ſunt. Atque ſolutæ in exiguo illo reliquo ſanguine qui in ſenſoriis habetur, ſimilitudinem rerum, quæ ſenſus extimulare ſolent, præferunt: non aliter quàm portiones illæ nubium, quæ cùm modò effigiem hominis aut centauri referant, mox ſe tranſitu ocyſſimo in alias ſubinde formas conuertunt. Vnumquodque autem harum, vt dictum eſt, reliquiæ & veſtigium ſenſi actu eſt. Et digreſſo ſenſili, verè dicere poſſumus,

A hoc eſſe tale qualis Coriſcus eſt. At cùm vis illa ſuperior & arbitra ſentit hoc, nequaquam dicit eſſe Coriſcum: ſed per hoc, verum illum Coriſcũ intelligit. Ea itaque virtus quæ ſentiendo hoc eſſe Coriſcum aſſeuerat, ſi non penitus ſanguine obruta ſit, ſentientis more exercetur à motionibus quę in ſenſoriis ſunt, atque commouetur, & tum ſimilitudo rei videtur ipſa res eſſe. & tãta vis ſomni eſt, vt id latêre nos efficiat. Quemadmodũ igitur ſi quis oculum digito ſupprimat, neque animaduertat digitũ ita admotum, non modò apparebit, ſed etiam videbitur eſſe duo quod vnum eſt: ſi verò animaduertat, apparebit quidem, ſed non videbitur: ita & in B ſomno ſi quis ſe dormire intelligat, & affectionem eam ſentiat cui ſenſus ſenſoriæ partis addictus eſt, apparebit quidem ei quod ſomniat, ſed ſecum dicet, quanquam apparet hoc Coriſcus eſſe, non tamen eſt Coriſcus. nã ſæpe euenit, vt quis dormiendo in animo ſuo dicat, ſomnium eſſe quod videt. Quòd ſi dormire ſe neſciat, nihil imaginationi cõtradicet. Quòd autem vera ſint quæ dicimus, quódque motiones imaginariæ in ſenſuum officinis diuerſentur, certum apertúmque eſt, ſi quis adhibito animo conetur meminiſſe eorum quæ nobis obdormiſcentibus, & excitatis expergefactiſque, accidunt. Interdũ enim qui à ſomno recèns excuſſus ſit, deprehendet, ſimulachra quæ ſe illi per quietem C obtulerant, eſſe motiones quæ in ſenſoriis ſunt. nam pueris nonnullis vel planè vigilantibus aſpectantibúſque, quamuis tenebricoſus ſit locus, tamẽ multæ imagines apparent quæ moueri videntur, ita vt illi ſe præ metu ſæpe intra ſtragulum occulant. Ex his itaque omnibus colligi debet, ſomnium eſſe viſum quidem aliquod, ſed quod in ſomno ſeſe offerat. nam neque ſimulachra ea, de quibus paulo antè diximus, inſomnia ſunt: neque aliud quicquã, quod ſolutis ſenſibus appareat. Sed neque quicquid in ſomno ſe præſentat, inſomnium eſt. Nam primò quidem nonnullis euenit, vt ſomnum & lucem, & ſaporem, & contrectationem quodammodo ſentiat: ſed languidè tamen, & quaſi de longin- D quo. iam enim qui inter quieſcendum cernebant, & mox excitati fuere, lumen lucernæ quod dormientes (vt rebantur) exiliter videbant, protinus vbi expergefacti fuerunt, verum lucernæ lumen fuiſſe deprehendere. Sed & qui canum & gallinaceorum voces debiliter exaudire ſibi videbantur, mox experrecti veras voces fuiſſe apertè cognouerunt. Nonnulli etiam ad interrogata reſpondent. Fieri enim poteſt vt ſi alterum horum, vigilare dico & dormire, non ſimpliciter adeſt, alterum quodammodo adſit: quorum nihil ſomnium vocari debet: neque ſi quæ præter viſa in ſomno veræ intelligentiæ fiant. Sed viſum quod à ſenſorum motu ortum, E per quietem animalibus occurrit in eo quod dormiunt, hoc ſomnium eſt. Iam verò quibuſdam accidit, vt nunquam quicquam ſomniarint in vita. quod quanquam rarum eſt, interdum tamen contingit. Atque alij per totam vitam in eo affectu perſtitêre: alij accedente ætate ſomniarunt, qui priùs nullum ſomnium viderant. Cauſa verò quamobrem non ſomnient, perſimilis ei videtur quæ facit vt ſtatim à cibo, & in ætate infantili, nullum penitus contrahatur ſomnium. Nam quorum ita natura conſtat, vt in ſuperiorem locum diuaporatio multa concedat, quæ ſuo regreſſu ad ima commotiones afferat plurimas, haud ab re nullum his phantaſma viſúmque apparet. Procedente verò ætate ſomnia illis reſtitui, nihil abſurdi eſt. nam immutatione aliqua, vel per ætatem vel per affectum accepta, neceſſarium eſt hanc quoque rerum contrariarum viciſſitudinem accidere.

CAPVT I.

Somniorum alia pro ſignis, quædam pro cauſis eorum quæ eueniunt, habenda: pleráque caſu euenire, ac temerè.

Divinationem aliquam eſſe quæ in ſomno fiat, & prouenire dicatur ab inſomniis: neque contemnere facile eſt, neque credere. Nam quòd omnes aut plurimi arbitrantur inſomnia ſignificare aliquid, argumento eſt, id præ experientia aſſeri ſolere. Item de nonnullis rebus ad diuinationem fidem quandam haberi inſomniis, indignum creditu non eſt, cùm ratione aliqua nitatur. Vnde fit, vt de cæteris quoque ſomniis haud ſecus cenſere quis poſſit. Contrà; cùm nulla rationabilis cauſa videatur, per quam iſthæc diuinatio proueniat: efficitur vt fides abrogetur. Nam ſi dicatur, Deum eſſe qui ſomnia mittat, præter alia multa & hoc quoque ſubabſurdum eſt, non optimis ſapientiſſimiſque, ſed quibuſvis ſine diſcrimine mitti. Sublata autem cauſa quæ ad Deum referatur, nulla præterea alia videtur conſentanea eſſe: quandoquidem originem eius inuenire quod dicitur, quoſdam eſſe in Boryſthene & iuxta columnas Herculis, qui futura præſentiant: captum ingenij noſtri excedere videatur. Neceſſe igitur eſt ſomnia eſſe aut cauſas eorum quæ fiunt, aut ſigna, aut fortuita, aut omnia, aut duo ex his, aut vnum ſolum. Cauſam voco: verbi gratia, deliquij ſolaris, lunam: febris, defatigationem. Signum deliquij, cùm luna ſubire incipit: febris, ſcabritiem linguæ. Rem fortuitam, inambulante aliquo ſolem delinquere. nam neque cauſa, neque ſignum deliquij, inambulatio eſt: aut deliquium, inambulationis. Quapropter res fortuitæ neque ſemper, neque maiori ex parte fiunt. Súntne igitur ſomniorum alia cauſæ, alia ſigna, videlicet eorum quæ in corpore accidunt? Nam & qui è Medicorum ſchola paulo peritiores habentur, inſomnia diligenter attendenda dicunt. Nec ab re ita exiſtimant, artifices alioqui, ſed qui tamen meditari aliquid philoſophari que ſolent. Nam motiones quæ interdiu contingunt, niſi magnæ admodum fortéſque ſint, maioribus illis quæ ſecundùm vigiliam fiunt, offunduntur.

A At in ſomno contra fit. tunc enim quæ paruæ ſunt, eſſe magnæ creduntur. Id quod facilè conſtat ex iis quæ in ſomno contingere ſolent. ſæpe enim accidit, vt dormientes, modico ſtrepitu exaudito, fulminare & tonare putemus: & tenui pituita diſtillante, melle aut dulci alio ſapore frui: & exiguo calore in quibuſdam corporis partibus exorto, ſuper prunas ambulare, & vehementer calefieri. Excitati verò, iſthæc hoc habere modo deprehendimus. Quare cùm exordia omnium parua ſint, certum eſt & principia morborum & cæterarum affectionum, quæ in corpore perficiendæ ſunt, imbecilla eſſe oportere. Patet igitur, neceſſariò hæc in ſomnis euidentiora eſſe, quàm in vigilia. Sed & quæ-B dam ex viſis illis quæ per ſomnum apparent, cauſas eſſe ſuorum cuiuſque actuum, à ratione minimè abhorret. Vt enim qui acturi aliquid ſunt, aut qui nunc id agunt, aut qui iam egerunt, plerunque hoc idem per ſomnia contuentur & adminiſtrant: quia diurna initia ad talem motum quaſi viam quandã præparauere: ita è conuerſo neceſſarium eſt, vt plerunque motiones quæ ſe per ſomnum offerunt, principia ſint eorum quæ interdiu gerimus, quia è contrario & hæc antea inter nocturna viſa mens noſtra concepit. Ad hunc igitur modum, è ſomniis nonnulla tum ſigna, tum cauſas eſſe contingit. At complura perſimilia habentur iis, quæ temerè ac vice fortuita proueniunt: præſertim extre-C ma illa, ſupráque omnem fidem hominis poſita, & ea quorum origo in nobis non eſt, ſed de nauali pugna ſunt, & iis quæ procul à nobis geruntur. Nam de his eo modo ſtatuendum eſt, quo ſtatuitur, cùm id fortè fortuna euenit, quo de quis mentionem faciebat. Quid enim prohibet, quominus idẽ in ſomno contingat? immò verò multa eiuſmodi contingere par eſt. Quemadmodum igitur mentio de quopiam, neque ſignum, neque cauſa fuiſſe poteſt, cur idem ad nos acceſſerit: ita neque ſomnium, ſignum aut cauſa dicendum, quamobrem ſic prorſus euenerit vt ſomnianti apparuerat, ſed fortuitum quid, temerariúmque. Vnde etiam fit vt plurima ſomniorum minimè euadant. nam quæ D fortuita ſunt, neque ſemper, neque maiori ex parte accidunt.

CAPVT II.

Somnia non eſſe à Deo ſed à natura: Democritum falſò de iis ſtatuiſſe: item alia de iiſdem & de optimo eorum interprete.

AD ſummam, cùm è cæteris quoque animantibus aliqua ſomnient, haudquaquam inſomnia à Deo miſſa veniunt, aut ad eum finem nobis adiuncta fuere. dæmonia tamen haberi debent. nam & natura, dæmonia eſt, non diuina. Cuius rei indicio eſt, quòd degeneres admodum & gregarij E homines futura præuident, & ita vt res habet, ſomniant, tanquam non delegante ſomnia Deo. Verùm prout quiſque natura locutuleius eſt, aut vicio bilis atræ laborat, ita multifarias viſiones experitur. Quia verò plurimis & variis ſpectris feriuntur, aliquando inſomnia illa quibus euentus quidam reſpondet, incidunt. ſicuti nonnulli, cùm totum diem certant, interim præmiũ capiunt. Nam quod in prouerbio eſt, Si ſæpe iacias, alium aliàs ferieris: idem & inſomniis contingere ſolet. Nec verò abſurdum eſt, plurima non euadere. Nam neque ea ſigna quæ in corpore viſuntur, aut in cælo, vt quæ imbreis aut flatus prætendunt, ſemper eueniunt. ſi enim alius vehementior motus ingruat, quàm ſit iſte futurus à quo illa fiant, tum ex ſigno nihil ſequi ſolet. Sed & plurima agendorum, de quibus conſilium optima ratione inieris, ſuperuenientibus initiis aliis grauioribus, in irritum decidunt. nec enim prorſus omne fit, quod futurum erat: neque idem eſt, fore, & eſſe futurum. Sed dicendum eſt, & principia eſſe à quibus nihil emergat, & ſigna quæ nullus approbet effectus. De ſomniis verò quæ eiuſmodi principia non habent, qualia diximus, ſed ab hiſce qui ſomniant aut temporibus aut locis, aut magnitudine abiuncta ſunt, aut eiſdem vicinitate aliqua adiuncta ſunt, non tamen principia eorum continent, niſi temerè futura præſentiantur, ſic ſtatuendum vt ſequitur, potiùs eſt, quàm vt Democritus aſſerit, ſomnia ſimulachris & defluxibus accepta referens. Nam quemadmodum ſiquis aquam aut aërem propellat, pars commota ſubinde aliam commouet, ceſſanteque illo accidit talem motum quadantenus progredi, autore etiamnum abſente: ita nihil obſtat, motus quoſdam & ſenſus ad animas ſomniantes peruenire ab iis rebus, à quibus ille exuuias & imagines mitti affirmat: & quocunque peruenerint, impenſiùs noctu ſentiri, quia interdiu delati diſſoluantur. (eſt enim aër noctis ab omni turba liberior: quòd noctes vento minus infeſtentur,) & in corpore facere ſenſum, ratione ſomni: quòd motiunculas interiores dormientes meliùs quàm vigilantes ſentiſcant. Porrò hi motus viſa dormientibus afferunt, per quæ vaticinari futura de rebus ipſis aſſolent. Et ob id quibuſuis ſine lege vlla, non prudentiſſimis, præſagire contingit. nam ſi Deus ſomnia mitteret, præſagia interdiu fierent, & ſapientibus darentur. Sic autem ſtolidiſſimos quoſque præuidere par eſt. mens enim omnium id genus hominum curis referta non eſt, ſed quaſi deſerta, & cogitationibus vacua: ſed & cùm mouetur, id quod eam mouet, ſequi ſolet. Quoſdam verò eſſe, qui in exceſſu mentis futura præſentiant, id cauſæ eſt: quòd vernaculi motus illos non infeſtent, ſed procul ab eis ſummoueantur. ex quo fit, vt peregrinos maximè ſentiant. Eſſe item aliquos qui certiſſima ſomnient, & de neceſſariis & amicis ſuis potiſſimùm quemque futura præuidere, hinc euenit, quòd neceſſarij de ſe mutuò impensè ſoliciti ſunt: vt enim de longinquo ſe maximè agnoſcunt & ſentiunt, ita & ſuos quoque motus, quandoquidem rerum notiorum motiones, notiores habentur. Melancholici verò propter naturæ ſuæ vehementiam, eminus iaculatorum modo collimant: necnon propter mobilitatem ocyſſimè quod conſequens annexumque ſit, imaginantur. Nam quemadmodum qui furore perciti ſunt, poëmata Philægidæ, ſerie quadam cõſimili conſtantia, dicere ac meditari, vt Venerem, & ita ad finem vſque promere ſolent: ita melancholici viſa, quæ perinde colligata ſint, celeriter recurrunt. Præterea tanta concitatione rapi ſolent, vt motus eorum ab alio motu elidi aut retorqueri non poſſit. Artificioſiſſimus ſomniorum interpres haberi debet, qui ſimilitudines perſpicere poſſit, nam recta claraque ſomnia interpretari, cuiuſuis eſt. Dico ſimilitudines, quoniam vt etiam præmonui, ſpectra ſimilia cadunt ſimulachris, quæ in torrente apparent, vbi ſi multa commotio fiat, nullæ apparitiones aut ſimulachra veris rebus ſimilia redduntur.

CAPVT I.

Docet, omnia quæ mouentur animalia neceſſariò in ſe habere aliquid quod quieſcat.

DE animalium autem motione, quæcunque illis per genera inſunt, & quæ differentiæ, quæve eorum cauſæ quæ illis ſingillatim accidunt, de omnibus in aliis eſt conſiderandum. Omnino autem de communi cuiuſcunque motionis cauſa (nam alia quidem volatu mouentur, alia natatu, nonnulla C progreſſione, alia per alios eiuſmodi motus) in præſentia eſt pertractandum. Quòd igitur aliarum initium eſt motionum, id quod ſeipſum mouet, illius autem id quod eſt immobile: præterea quòd primum mouens neceſſariò omni vacat motu, determinatũ eſt priùs, cùm de ſempiterno motu, vtrùm ſit necne, & ſi ſit, quidnam ſit, conſtitutum eſt. Hoc autem non ſolùm vniuerſali ratione accipere oportet, ſed in ſingulis etiam & ſenſilibus, quorum gratia vniuerſales quærimus rationes, & quibus oportere illas accommodari exiſtimamus. Etenim in iis manifeſtum eſt non poſſe quicquam D moueri, niſi aliquid quieſcat. Ac primùm quidem in animalibus. Oportet, namque ſi aliqua mouetur pars, quieſcere quippiam: & hanc ob cauſam articulorum flexus animalibus inſunt. His enim vtuntur flexibus, vt centro quodam, fitque totum membrum in quo articuli eſt flexus, vnum & duo, nec non rectum & curuum, inflexus gratia cùm actu tum poteſtate commutatum. Cùm mouetur autem & inflectitur alia quidẽ mouetur nota, alia verò in ipſo inflexu quieſcat.

quemadmodum ſi diametri a & d quieſcat, b verò moueatur, & fiat a c. Verùm hoc in loco impartibile omnino videtur eſſe centrum. In illis enim motiones fingunt. Mathematicorum namque mouetur nullum. In articulorum autem curuaturis poteſtate & actu modò quidem fit vnum, modò autem partibile. Verùm initium eiuſmodi eſt, quieſcit inferiori parte mota. vt brachio quidem moto, cubitus: toto autem membro, humerus. & tibia quidem mota, genu: toto verò crure, coxa. Quod igitur vnumquodque in ſeipſo quieſcens quippiam habere oportet, vnde motionis eſt initium, & ad quod innixum totum ſimul mouebitur, & per partes, manifeſtum eſt.

CAPVT II.

Quod, vt moueantur animalia extrinſecus etiam, aliud ab ipſis eſſe oportet quod quieſcat.

VEruntamen omnis in ipſo minus efficax eſt quies, niſi extrinſecus aliquid fuerit ſimpliciter quieſcens, & omnino carens motu. Operæpretium autem eſt, accuratè æſtimantes, de eo quod dictum eſt, perſcrutari. Contemplationem enim quandam habet non ſolum ad animalia, verum ad ipſius etiam vniuerſi motum & lationem pertinentem. Quemadmodum enim in ipſo immobile quiddam eſſe oportet, ſi debet moueri: ita etiam magis extra ipſum animal quippiam eſſe oportet immobile, ad quod innixum quod motum eſt, mouetur. Si enim ſemper ceſſerit, vt muribus per terram aut arenam progredientibus, non ſanè progredietur, neque certè vllus erit progreſſus, niſi ſtet terra: neque volatus, aut natatio, niſi aer aut mare reſiſtant. Hoc autem aliud ab eo eſſe quod mouetur, neceſſe eſt, & totum à toto, nullamque rei motæ eſſe portionem, quod ſic eſt immobile. Sin ſecus fuerit, non mouebitur. Huic autem rei teſtimonio eſſe poteſt id, de quo ambigi ſolet, cur ſi quis nauigium extrà propellat conto ad malum innixus, vel ad aliam illius partem, paruo negotio illud mouet. contrà ſi in ipſo ſit nauigio, & idipſum facere contendat, minimè illud mouere poſſit, neque, ſi Tityus ipſe aut Boreas ex ipſo ſufflent nauigio: ſi quidem eo ſufflare quenquam contingat modo, quo pictores faciunt, cum ex ſeipſo quempiam ſpiritum emittentem pingunt. Siue enim leuiter ſpiritum, ſiue ita vehementer emittat, vt maximum efficiat ventum, ſiue aliud ſit quod proiiciatur, vel impellatur: neceſſe eſt primum ad ſuarum quampiam partium quieſcentem innixum propellere, deinde hanc ipſam partem, aut cuiuſuis contingit eſſe pars, ad externum quiddam innixam quieſcere. Qui autem nauigium propellit: cum ipſe in nauigio ſit, nulliſque innitatur, rationabiliter nauigium non mouet, quoniam id cui innititur, manere neceſſe eſt. Accidit autem ipſi idem, & quod mouetur, & cui innititur. Qui autem extra propellit, vel trahit, ſanè mouet. Nulla enim nauigij pars eſt terra.

CAPVT III.

Quærit quodnam ſit mouens ipſum cœlum. Refutatio veteris fabulæ de Atlante.

Sed dubitare ſanè poterit aliquis: an ſi quid vniuerſum mouet cœlum, & omni carere motu, & nullam cœli eſſe partem, neque in cœlo eſſe oporteat. Siue enim ipſum motum, cœlum mouet, aliquod ſanè non motum attingens neceſſe eſt ipſum mouere: id autem nullam mouentis eſſe partem: ſiue continuò non motum eſt id quod mouet, nulla itidem motæ rei erit pars. Et hoc ſanè rectè dicere videntur, quicunque aſſerunt quòd circulo latæ ſphæræ nulla omnino manet pars. aut enim totam ſtare neceſſe eſſet, aut illius continuũ diuelli. Verùm quoniam polos potentiam habere quandam arbitrantur, cùm nullam habeant magnitudinem, ſed vltima & puncta exiſtant: id ſanè non rectè. Ad hoc enim quòd nulla illorum eſt eſſentia, fieri non poteſt vt vnicus à duobus agatur motus. Polos porro duos faciunt. Quòd igitur ad vniuerſam naturam quiddam ſic ſe habet, vt terra ad animalia & ad ea quæ per ſe mouentur, ex huiuſmodi quiſpiam dubitare poterit. Verùm ij qui in fabulis verſantur, & Atlantem pedes in terra habere faciunt, non ſine mente hanc fabulam dixiſſe videri poſſunt: perinde ac ille diameter ſit, cœlumque circum polos torqueat, id autem ratione contingere videtur, quoniam manet terra. Verùm huiuſmodi rei aſſertoribus concedere eſt neceſſe, illam vniuerſi nullam eſſe partem. Præterea mouentis robur & quieſcentis, æquabiliter ſe habere oportet. eſt enim magnitudo roboris & potentiæ, qua ſic manet quod quieſcit, ſicut qua motor mouet. Et profectò quædam neceſſariò eſt proportio, vt contrariorum motuum, ſic etiam ipſarum quietum. Et quæcunque ſunt æquales, à ſe inuicem non patiuntur, per exuperantiam autem vincuntur. Quamobrem ſiue Atlas, ſiue aliud quippiam ſit quod mouet, ex iis quæ intrà continentur, nihilo magis excellere debet quietem qua terra manet, vel de medio, ſuóque ipſius loco mouebitur terra. Vt enim impellens impellit, ſic impulſum impellitur, & ſimiliter vt eſt robur. Mouet autem primum quieſcens, iccirco maius & valentius robur, aut ſimile & æquale quieti. Eodemque modo rei motæ, quæ tamen non mouet. Tantam igitur in quieſcendo terræ facultatem eſſe oportebit, quantam tum vniuerſum habet cœlum, tum illius motor. Quod ſi hoc fieri non poteſt, neque vt cœlum à quopiam quod intus ſit moueatur, fieri poterit.

CAPVT IV.

Dubitationes aliquot de motu cæli: item de motu animalium & rerum inanimatarum.

Est autem dubitatio quædam de partium cœli motibus: quæ quoniam iis quæ dicta ſunt eſt cognata, non ab re hoc in loco perſcrutari poterit. Nam ſi quis motionis potentia terræ quietem excelſerit, manifeſtum ſanè eſt, quòd illam mouebit è medio. Quòd autem robur, à quo illi iſthæc ineſt potentia, non eſt infinitum, etiam me-

A neque enim infinita eſt ipſa terra: quamobrem neque illius grauitas. Quoniam autem impoſſibile multipliciter dicitur (non enim eodem modo impoſſibile eſſe dicimus, vocem videri à nobis, & illos qui in orbe ſunt lunæ: cùm alterum ex neceſſitate ſit, alterum autem quamuis natum ſit videri, non tamen videbitur) cœlum verò incorruptibile & non diſſolubile, arbitramur quidem ex neceſſitate eſſe, hac verò ratione non ex neceſſitate contingit. Natus etenim eſt, & contingit fieri motus maior, quàm à quo quieſcit terra, & à quo ignis & ſupremum corpus mouetur. Itaque ſi exuperantes fuerint motiones, iſthæc a ſe inuicem diſſoluentur. Sin verò tales quidem non fuerint, illas autem eſſe contigerit (infinitum enim non B contingit, quoniam neque infinitum eſſe contingit corpus) continget ſanè diſſolui cœlum. Quid enim prohibet hoc accidere poſſe, ſiquidem non eſt impoſſibile? Non eſt autem impoſſibile, niſi contrarium fuerit neceſſarium. Verùm de huiuſmodi dubitatione alius ſanè erit ſermo. Vtrùm autem oporteat extra id quod mouetur, immotum quiddam eſſe & quieſcens, quod nulla illius exiſtat pars: an ſecus? Et hoc vtrùm ita ſe habere in ipſo vniuerſo eſt neceſſarium? Fortaſſe enim videri poterit inconueniens eſſe, ſi motionis principium intus ſit. Quamobrem ita exiſtimantibus, videri poterit rectè ab Homero fuiſſe dictum: C

Sed vobis nunquam cœlo deducere ab alto
Ad terram dabitur ſummumque ſciumque Tonantem:
Non ſi peruigili ſtudio, multoque labore,
Diique deæque omnes pariter trahere inde velitis.

Quod enim omnino immobile eſt, à nullo moueri contingit. Vnde etiam iam dicta ſoluitur difficultas, an contingit cœli compoſitionem diſſolui, vel non contingit. Siquidem ex immobili dependet principio. In animalibus autem non modò ita immobile quiddam eſſe oportet, ſed in iis etiam quæ per locum mouentur, quæcunque ſeipſa mouent. illorum enim aliud quidem moueri, D aliud autem quieſcere oportet, ad quod innixum motum mouebitur, vt ſi aliqua partium moueat. innititur enim altera, ceu ad quieſcentem alteram. De iis verò quæ carent anima, quæcunque mouentur, dubitare quiſpiam poterit, vtrùm omnia in ſe habeant & quieſcens, & mouens, & ad quippiam extra quieſcentium neceſſario innitantur: an impoſſibile, vt ignis vel terra, vel aliquid aliud quod anima caret, ſed à quibus primis hæc mouentur. Inanima namque omnia ab alio mouentur. Omnium autem ita motorum principium ſunt, quæ ſeipſa mouent. Verùm de eiuſmodi in animalibus quidem dictum eſt. Hæc E namque omnia & in ſeipſis habere quieſcens neceſſe eſt & extrà ad quod innitantur. Si autem aliquid eſt ſuperius & primum mouens, non eſt manifeſtum, & de huiuſmodi principio alius eſt ſermo. omnia verò quæ mouentur, ad ea quæ extrà ſunt innixa mouentur, & cùm ſpirant, & cùm expirant. Nihil enim refert, magnum prouocare pondus, an paruum: quod ſanè faciunt qui deſpuunt, & qui tuſſiunt, & expirant.

Vtrùm in iis quæ per locum mouentur, aliquid extra quieſcere oporteat necne: & an eodem modo in iis etiam quæ augentur & alterantur, fieri contingat.

VTrùm autem in eo ſolùm quod ſeipſum per locum mouet, quippiam quieſcere oportet, an etiam in iis quæ ex ſeipſis alterantur, & augeſcunt. Namque de prima generatione & corruptione alius eſt ſermo. Si enim eſt is quem diximus primus motus, generationis & corruptionis profectò is erit cauſa, necnon aliarum fortaſſe omnium motionum. B Quemadmodum autem in vniuerſo, ita in ipſo animali prima iſthæc motio, poſtquam fuerit abſolutum. Quamobrem & augmenti, ſi quid eſt, ſibiipſi erit cauſa, & alterationis: ſin ſecus, non eſt neceſſarium. Prima autem augmentationes & alterationes ab alio, & per alia fiunt: generationis autem & corruptionis minimè ſibi ipſi quippiam cauſa eſſe poteſt. Præcurrere enim debet motor id quod mouetur, & genitum generans, nihil autem ſeipſo eſt prius.

CAPVT VI.

DE anima autem, ſiue moueatur, ſiue non: & ſi mouetur, quo moueatur modo, priùs dictum eſt in iis in quibus de illa eſt pertractatum. Quoniam verò inanima omnia ab aliis mouentur (nam de primo quidem & perpetuo mobili, quonam moueatur modo, quove pacto moueat primum mouens, in primis philoſophiæ commentatis determinatum eſt prius.) Reliquum eſt contemplari quomodo anima corpus mouet, & quodnam animalium motionis ſit principium. Animata enim præterquam ipſius vniuerſi motionis, D aliorum ſanè motus ſunt cauſæ, quæcunque à ſe inuicem non mouentur, quoniam ſe inuicem impellunt. Quapropter omnes illorum motiones finem habent: nam & illæ animatorum ſunt eiuſmodi. Omnia enim animalia cùm mouent, tum mouentur alicuius gratiâ: quapropter id illis omnium motionum eſt finis, cuius videlicet gratiâ. Animaduertimus autem, cogitationem, phantaſiam, ſelectionem, voluntatem, & cupiditatem animal mouere: hæc autem omnia ad mentem referuntur, & appetitionem. phantaſia enim & ſenſus cum mente eundem habent locum, cùm iudicandi habeant facultatem. Attamen iis diſtant, quæ in aliis dictæ ſunt, differentiis. Voluntas E verò & ira & cupiditas omnia cum appetitione faciunt. Selectio autem communis eſt cogitationis & appetitionis, quapropter & ipſum quod ſeligi poteſt. Non autem omne excogitabile, ſeligibile eſt, ſed rerum agendarum finis. Quamobrem tale eſt bonorum id quod mouet, ſed non omne pulchrum. Vt enim huius gratiâ eſt aliud, & vt eſt finis, cùm alia alicuius gratiâ exiſtant, eatenus mouet. Oportet autem conſtituere, id quod apparet bonum, boni etiam locum obtinere, & ipſum iucundum, quandoquidem apparet bonū. Quare planum eſt, quòd cōtingit quidē, id quod ſemper mouetur, à ſemper mouente ſimiliter moueri, vt ſingula animalia. contingit autem vt alio modo, & idcirco illud quidem ſemper mouetur, animalium autem motus terminum habet. Sempiternum autem pulchrum, & id quod vere & primò eſt bonum, neque modò quidem eſt, modò vero non eſt: diuinius profectò honorabiliuſque eſt, quam vt illo quicquam ſit prius. Primum igitur immotum mouet: appetitio autem, & id quod appetibile eſt, mota mouent. Vltimum autem eorum quæ mouentur, quòd aliud moueat, nulla eſt neceſſitas. Manifeſtũ etiam ex iis eſt, quod rationabiliter localis motus vltimus eſt factorum in iis quæ fiunt. Mouetur enim & ingreditur animal appetitione, vel ſelectione: alteratione tamen facta aliqua per ſenſum, aut phantaſiam.

CAPVT VII.

De duplicis intellectus practici & theorici affectu, & quid differant.

QVomodo autẽ intelligens alias quidem operatur, alias verò non operatur? & mouetur interdum, interdum non mouetur? Eodem ſane modo contingere videtur, quo ea quæ immota ſunt, cogitatione ratiocinationeque comprehenduntur. Verùm in illis quidem contemplatio eſt finis. Cùm enim duas intellexerit propoſitiones, concluſionẽ ſanè intellexit & coniunxit. Hic autẽ ex duabus propoſitionibus concluſio fit operatio. verbi gratia: cùm nouerit, quoniam omni deambulandum eſt homini, ipſe eſt homo, illico deambulat. Si autem quòd nulli nunc incedendum eſt homini, ipſe autem homo confeſtim quieſcit: & vtrũque facit, niſi à quopiam prohibeatur, aut cogatur. Commoda res eſt mihi facienda, domus commoda eſt, domum confeſtim facit. Integumento corporis indigeo, tunica eſt corporis integumentum, tunica indigeo. quo indigeo, id mihi faciendum: tunica indigeo: tunica eſt mihi facienda. Et ea concluſio, tunica mihi facienda, operatio eſt. Operatur autem à principio: Si tunica eſſe debet, neceſſarium eſt eſſe primum. Si autem illud, & aliud: & id illico operatur. Quòd quidem operatio fit concluſio, manifeſtum. Propoſitiones autem factitiæ ex duobus conſtant generibus, ex bono ſcilicet, & eo quod fieri poteſt. Quemadmodum autem qui interrogant, ſic propoſitionum alteram, manifeſtam ſcilicet, cogitatio haudquaquam inſiſtẽs conſiderat: vt ſi homini deambulare eſt bonum, quòd ipſe ſit homo, non immoratur, iccircò quæcunque alia nulla ratiocinatione agimus, celeriter agimus. Quãdo enim aut ſenſu operatur ad id cuius gratia, aut phantaſia, aut intellectu, quod appetit, confeſtim facit. Interrogationis namq; aut notionis loco, appetitionis fit operatio. Bibendum eſſe mihi dictat cupiditas, hoc autem eſſe poculentum ſenſus vel phantaſia vel mens affirmat, confeſtim bibitur. Ita ſanè ad motum & operationem animalia excitantur, cùm vltima motionis cauſa ſit appetitio: quæ tamen vel per ſenſum, vel per phantaſiam & notionem efficitur. Quæcunque autem quippiam facere appetunt, partim quidem cupiditate aut ira, partim verò appetitione aut voluntate faciunt & agunt. Quemadmodum autem ſpontaneæ appellatæ machinæ parua motione facta mouentur, laxatis ſeque mutuò impellentibus vertebris: & curriculus qui à ſe quidẽ vectũ rectè mouet, Caliditate quinetiam vel frigiditate, vel alia eiuſmodi affectione cùm in corde facta fuerit alteratio, etiam ſi in exigua & non C ſenſili illius particula, multa ſanè in corpore fit differentia, cùm ruboribus & palloribus, tum horroribus & tremoribus, aliiſque huiuſmodi contrariis.

CAPVT VIII.

Quòd principium motionis in agendi genere ſit id quod eſt vel optabile vel fugiendum, quodque calor & frigus eorum cogitationem conſequantur.

PRincipium igitur (vt dictum eſt) motionis in agendi genere id ſanè eſt, quod conſectandum aut declinandum eſt. Calor autem aut frigus eo- D rum cogitationem & imaginationem neceſſariò conſequuntur. Triſtificum namque declinandum, iucundum autem conſectandum. Verùm iſthuc in exiguis valde eſt obſcurum. Sunt autem triſtifica & iucunda ferè omnia cum frigiditate & caliditate, quod profectò ex affectionibus eſt manifeſtum. Confidentiæ enim & pauores, & venerei motus, reliquáque in corpore triſtifica & iucunda, alia quidem in partibus cum caliditate aut frigiditate ſunt, alia verò in vniuerſo corpore. Memoria autem & ſpes tanquam ſimulachris vtentes, iis ipſis aliàs quidem minùs, aliàs verò magis, eorum ſunt cauſæ. Quapropter rectâ ratione conſtructa ſunt E quæ intrinſecus iacent, & ad initia inſtrumentalium partium, vt commutentur, & ex compactis mollia fiant, & ex mollibus compacta, & ex ſe viciſſim cùm leuia, tum aſpera. Quæ cùm hoc contingant modo, & cùm actiuum & patibile talem habeant naturam, qualem ſæpe diximus, quando certè contigerit vt aliud quidem patibile ſit, aliud verò actuoſum, neutrique deſit aliquid, quod ad eorum definitionem requiratur, confeſtim aliud quidem agit, aliud verò patitur. Quamobrem ſimul (vt ita dicatur) intelligit quòd incedendum eſt, & incedit, niſi quippiam obſtiterit. Et organicas quidem partes conuenienter affectiones præparant: appetitio autem affectiones: porrò appetitionem imaginatio. Hæc autem vel cogitatione, vel ſenſu efficitur. Simul verò & celeriter, quoniam patibile & actiuum eorum de numero ſunt, quæ ad ſe inuicem mutuam habent naturam. Primum autem mouens animal, in aliquo eſſe principio neceſſe eſt. Quòd autem flexus alterius quidem initium eſt, alterius verò finis, iam dictum eſt. Quamobrem contingit quidem vt vno, contingit autem vt duobus naturam illo vti. Cùm enim alicunde mouetur, aliud quidem extremorum punctorum quieſcere, aliud verò moueri neceſſe eſt: quandoquidem quòd adquieſcens quippiam inniti debeat motor, dictum eſt priùs. Mouetur igitur, & non mouet extrema brachij pars: eius autem qui in cubito eſt flexus, hoc quidem mouetur quòd ſanè in toto eſt commoto: neceſſe autem eſt, etiam non motum eſſe quiddam: quod ſanè dicimus poteſtate quidem vnum eſſe punctum, actu autem duo fieri. Quamobrem ſi animal eſſet brachium, hîc ſanè primum animæ eſſet mouens. Et quoniam contingit ad manum quippiam ita ſe habere inanime, vt ſi quis baculum in manu moueret: manifeſtum ſanè eſt, in neutro extremorum conſiſtere animam, neque in extrema rei motæ parte, neque in altero principio. Lignum enim & principium & finem habet ad manum. Itaque hanc ob cauſam ſi non ineſt baculo mouens animæ principium, neque in ipſa manu. Eodem enim ſe habet modo extremum manus ad ipſius carpi iuncturam: vt hæc ipſa pars ad cubitum. Nihil enim differunt quæ ſunt annexa, ab iis quæ non ſunt. Fit namque vt ſeparabilis pars ipſe baculus. Neceſſe igitur eſt, in nullo eſſe principio quod alterius eſt finis: neque ſi quippiam eſt aliud illo extimum magis, vt extremi baculi in manu principium, huius autem in carpi iunctura. Quòd ſi neque in manu, quoniam ſuperiùs adhuc principium, neque certè hîc. Adhuc enim quieſcente cubito, totum mouetur quod infrà eſt continuum.

CAPVT IX.

Quòd oporteat in medio corporis eſſe principium animæ mouentis.

QVoniam autem eodem ſe habet modo cùm à dextris, tum à ſiniſtris, & ſimul per contraria mouetur: vt non eo quòd quieſcat dextrum, moueatur ſiniſtrum: neque rurſus quia hoc, illud: ſemper autem in ſuperiori vtrorumque eſt principium: neceſſe profectò eſt, in medio mouentis eſſe principium animæ. Vtrorumq; enim extremorum medium eſt vltimum. Simili autem ſe habet modo hoc ad ſupernas infernáſque motiones, vt eas quæ ſunt à capite, iis quæ ſunt à ſpina, in illis quæ habent ſpinam. Et profectò rectâ hoc accidit ratione. ſenſitiuum etenim hîc eſſe aſſerimus: idcirco alterato per ſenſum loco, qui circa principium eſt, & immutato, continuæ ſimul cùm extenſæ tum contractæ tranſmutantur partes, vt neceſſariò hanc ob cauſam in animalibus eueniat motus. Mediam autem corporis partem poteſtate quidem vnam, actu verò plura effici neceſſe eſt. Simul etenim mouentur à principio membra, & altero quieſcente mouetur alterum: verbi gratia: in a b c ipſum b mouetur, mouet autem a. ſed profectò aliquid quie-

CAPVT X.

Quòd appetitus ſit medium illud quod mouet motum. De connato ſpiritu, & vi eius ſedéque in medio corporis, & reliquis eius facultatibus.

PEr eam igitur rationem quæ cauſam dicit motus: appetitio medium eſt, quod mouet motum. In animatis autem corporibus aliquid eiuſmodi corpus eſſe oportet. Quod igitur mouetur quidem, non eſt autem natum mouere, alienas pati poteſt vires: ipſum autem mouens potentiam habere quandam & robur, neceſſe eſt. Omnia autem C videntur animalia cùm ſpiritum habere connatum, tum ab illo robur capere. Quæ autem connati ſpiritus ſit conſeruatio, in aliis dictum eſt locis. Is autem ad animale principium ſimili ſe habere videtur modo, vt in flexionibus punctum quod mouet & mouetur ad ipſum immobile. Quoniam autem principium aliis quidem eſt in corde, aliis verò in parte proportione reſpondente: eapropter connatus ſpiritus eò loci apparet. Vtrùm igitur ſemper idem ſit ſpiritus, an ſemper diuerſus efficiatur, alius eſt ſermo. Idem de aliis etiam eſt partibus. Videtur autem percommodè ſe habere vt mouere poſſit, & robur præſtare. Motionum namque opera ſunt, impulſus & tractus: idcirco in- D ſtrumentum tum augeri tum contrahi poſſe oportet. Talis autem ſpiritus eſt natura. Et eandem ob cauſam ſine vi contracta, cùm attractiua, tum impulſoria eſt: grauitatémque etiam ad ignea, & leuitatem ad contraria habet. Quod autem mouere debet, non per alterationem huiuſmodi eſſe oportet. Vincunt enim ſe inuicem per exuperantiam naturalia corpora: leue quidem deorſum, à grauiore vi deductum: graue verò ſurſum, à leuiore. Qua igitur moueat parte, commota tamen, anima, & quam ob cauſam, dictum eſt. Et exiſtimandum profectò eſt conſtare animal, vt ciuitatem bene legibus inſtitutam. In hac etenim poſtquam ſemel ordo conſtiterit, nihil opus eſt ſecreto duce, quem E ſingulis quæ geruntur intereſſe oporteat: ſed quiſque vt mandatum eſt, quod ad ſe pertinet, agit, & aliud poſt aliud conſuetudine efficitur. In animalibus autem hoc ipſum natura efficitur: & quoniam vnum quodque ſic conſtitutorum ad ſua exequenda munia natum eſt, vt nihil opus ſit vnicuique animam intereſſe, ſed cùm illa in certo corporis conſiſtat principio, alia quidem viuere, quia ſunt annexa, proprium autem opus efficere per naturam.

CAPVT XI.

De motione coacta & non voluntaria.

QVonam igitur modo voluntariis motibus mouentur animalia, & quas ob cauſas, dictum eſt: ſed inuoluntariis etiam quibuſdam motionibus quædam mouentur partes, plurimis autem non voluntariis. Inuoluntarios autem dico motus, vt cordis, & pudendorum. Apparente namque ſæpenumero re aliqua, quanquam mens nihil decernat, mouentur. Non voluntarios verò, vt ſomnum, & vigiliam, & reſpirationem, & quicunque alij eius generis ſunt motus. Horum enim nullius ſimpliciter phantaſia aut appetitio domina eſt. Verùm quoniam alterari animalia naturali alteratione neceſſe eſt, partibus autem alteratis alias quidem augeſcere, alias verò minui, vt iam moueantur & commutentur per mutationes ſe mutuò ſequi natas, cauſæ autem motionum naturales: necnon ipſi præter rationem dictarum partium facti motus interueniente ſanè fiunt alteratione. Cogitatio namque ſanè & imaginatio (vt dictum eſt prius) agentes adducunt affectiones. nam agentium ſpecies repræſentant. Id autem præcipuè illæ declarant partes, quoniam vtraque earum tanquam ſeiunctum eſt animal. Cuius ſanè rei cauſa eſt, quia vitalem continent humiditatem: cor quidem, manifeſtum eam ob cauſam quòd principia habet ſenſuum: genitale autem membrum, quoniam huiuſmodi eſt ſignum: ex illo etenim tanquam animal quoddam genitalis ſeminis virtus prodit. Motiones autem principio quidem à partibus, partibus verò à principio ratione accidunt, & ad ſe inuicem hoc contendunt modo. Oportet enim intelligere a principium: motiones igitur pro cuiuſque deſcriptorum elementorum ratione ad principium veniunt: & à principio moto & commutato: quandoquidem poteſtate eſt multa, principium quidem b ad b: quod autem eſt c, ad c: quod verò eſt vtrorumque, ad vtrumque. à b autem, ad c. quod verò ab ipſo b ad a pergit, vt ad principium: ab ipſo autem a ad c, vt à principio. Præterea alias quidem eadem cogitantibus fit motus, qui præter rationem eſt in membris: alias verò non. In cauſa autem eſt, quòd aliquando quidem patibilis ſubeſt materia, aliquando verò non tanta, aut non talis.

De partibus quidem ſingulorum animalium, & de anima, de ſenſu quinetiam, & memoria, & ſomno, necnon de communi motu, cauſas diximus: reliquum verò de generatione pertractare.

CVR autem animantium aliæ plus temporis, aliæ minùs viuant, atque omnino cur vita longa ſit aut breuis, cauſas conſideremus addecet. Sed enim ita ordiendum eſt, vt contemplationis initium ſumatur, dubitando de his (non enim certum eſt vtrùm diuerſa ſit an eadem cunctis animantibus ac plantis cau-B ſa: cur illarum quædam diu, quædam parum viuāt, & harum aliæ annua, aliæ diuturniore vita fruantur. Præterea, vtrùm natura conſtantium eadē ſint longæua & natura incolumia, an diſtincta ſint. Et vtrùm eadem ſint vitæ breuis, & valetudinaria: an per aliquos quidem morbos corpora, quæ natura valetudinaria ſunt, ad eorum naturam accedant quæ breuiore vita frui ſolent: per aliquos verò valetudinaria eſſe, quæ longæua ſunt, nihil obſtet. De ſomno igitur & vigilia, dictum eſt priùs: de vita verò & morte, ſimiliter & de morbo & ſanitate, quod quidem ad naturalem attineat Philoſophiam, dicendum poſteriùs. Nunc autem de cauſa cur altera C longam, altera breuem vitam agat, quemadmodum iam diximus, tractandum eſt. Sunt hæ differentiæ genera tota à totis generibus: & eorum quæ ſub vna ſpecie collocantur, alia ab aliis differunt. Generatim differre dico, vt hominē ab equo: nam genus hominum viuacius eſt, quàm equorum. Specie verò, vt hominem ab homine. eorum enim hominum qui locorum intercapedine ſeiuncti ſunt, alij vita ſunt longiore, alij breuiore. qui enim in calidis degunt regionibus, diutiùs: qui in algidis, minùs viuere aſſolent. Quinimmo ex hiſce qui eundem tenent locum, nonnulli pari modo ea ipſa in-D ter ſe diſcrepant differentia.

CAPVT II.

Quid ſit è rebus naturalibus facilè corruptioni obnoxium, quid minus.

POrrò ſumere cōuenit, quid ſit inter ea quæ natura conſtāt quod facilè corrumpatur, & quid quod ægrè. Nam ignis & aqua & quæ his cognata ſunt, cùm eandem facultatē minimè habeant, ſibi mutuò cauſæ ſunt generationis atq; corruptionis.

A Proinde ſingula quoque alia, quæ ex hiſce ſunt atque conſtant, & non ex multis per congeriem, vti domus, eorum naturam participent, ratio congrua exiſtit. Sed de cæteris alia ratio eſt. Plurimis enim ex hiſce quæ ſunt, peculiares competũt corruptiones: ceu ſciẽtiæ, ſanitati, morbo, & eiuſmodi: quippe quæ corrumpi ſoleant, etiam non corruptis ſuſceptiuis, ſed ſeruatis. quandoquidem ignorãtiam, reminiſcentia atque diſciplina corrumpere ſolent: ſcientiam, obliuio & deceptio. Per accidens tamen cæterorum corruptiones rerum naturalium interitus ſequuntur. nam cùm animalia ipſa intereunt, eorundem & ſanitas & ſcientia corrumpitur. Quocirca & de anima per hæc ratiocinari quiſpiã profectò poteſt. Nam ſi anima haudquaquam natura B ſubſiſtat, ſed vt ſcientia in anima, ſic & anima in corpore ſit: erit nimirum ipſius quædam etiam alia corruptio, præter eam qua cùm corpus interit, corrumpi ſolet. Quare cùm nulla talis eſſe videatur, alio ſanè pacto cum corpore iniit ſocietatem.

CAPVT III.

Nihil quod ſit natura ſua corruptioni obnoxium, poſſe vllo in loco incorruptum manere.

SEd fortaſſe quæret quiſpiam, idque optima ratione, vtrùm quod corruptibile eſt, id alicubi à corruptione vindicari queat, ceu ignis ſupero in C loco, vbi contrarium nullum eſt. Quæ enim contrariis inſunt, per accidens corrumpi ſolent, eo quòd illa intereant. tolluntur enim contraria à ſeſe. At contrariorum quæ in ſubſtãtiis ſunt, nullum per accidens corrumpi poteſt, propterea quòd ſubſtantia de nullo ſubiecto prædicatur. Quare fieri non poterit vt id corrumpatur quod contrario caret, aut in eo loco eſt, vbi nullum eſt contrarium. Quid enim erit quod vim habeat corrumpendi, ſiquidem à contrariis vnis corrumpi quicquam contingit, contrarium autem non inſit, aut omnino, aut hîc? An hoc partim verum eſt, partim non verum? Fieri enim nequit, vt ei quod materiam habeat, non inſit modo quodam contrarium. nam vt D omnino inſit caliditas, aut rectitudo, aut albor, fieri poteſt: vt alicubi ſit, non poteſt. alioquin affectus eſſent ſeparati. Si igitur quando actiuum & patibile ſimul ſunt, ſemper alterum agit, alterum patitur: fieri non poteſt quin fiat mutatio. Præterea & excrementa fieri neceſſe eſt. at excrementũ contrarij rationem ſubit. ſemper enim mutatio è contrario fit. excrementum autem reliquiæ prioris eſt. Quòd ſi quicquid actu contrarium eſt, abigeretur, eſſetne vel hîc incorruptibile, an non, ſed ab eo quod continet, corrumperetur? Si ergo id quod continet, ſit ſatis committendæ corruptioni, numero eorũ quæ dicta ſunt, adſcribatur: ſin minùs, ineſſe quippiam quod ſit actu contrarium, & excrementitiam mate- E riam aggigni, ſuppoſuiſſe operæpretium eſt. Quãobrem minor flãma à maiore per accidẽs deuritur: quòd pabulum, fumum ſcilicet, quod illa non niſi longo tẽpore abſumere poteſt, hæc ocyus inſumat. Quapropter omnia ſemper in motu sũt, & ortũ aut obitũ ſubeunt: cui rei id quod continendi munere fungitur, vel conferre vel obeſſe ſolet. Et ob id, quæ locum demutãt, ea tempore quidem longiore breuioréve quàm ſua ferat natura, edurãt: ſed ſempiterna nuſquam ſunt, quibuſcũque cõtraria adſint.

CAPVT IV.

De humidi vitalis conditionibus.

AT neque maxima, corruptioni minùs obnoxia ſunt: equus enim, minus temporis quàm homo viuit. neque puſilla: nam inſectorum plurima non vltra annum ætatem extendunt. Neque plan- B tæ omnino minùs quàm animalia corruptioni patent: cùm nonnullæ vita ſint annua. Neque ſanguinaria: ſiquidem apis, longiore tempore, quàm ſanguinea quædam, viuit. neque exanguia: quod mollia, annua ſint, quamuis ſanguine careant. Neque terreſtria. ſunt enim tum e plantis tum e pedeſtri animantium genere, quæ in anni ſpatium dumtaxat ætatem protrahunt. Neque marina. etenim in mari, tam teſtacea quàm mollia parum viuunt. Sed in totum quæ diutiſſimè viuant, ea in ſtirpium genere continentur, vt palma & cupreſſus. mox in ſanguineo genere animalium potiùs, quàm exangui: & in pedeſtri, quàm in aquatili. Quare & illis C duobus iunctis, in iis quæ ſanguinea pariter & pedeſtria ſunt, ea haberi ſolent quæ inter animalia longiſſimè viuunt, vt homo atque elephas. Quin & vaſtiora, quod maiori ex parte dixerim, diutiùs quàm minora viuunt. nam & cæteris quæ viuaciora ſunt, perinde atque iis quæ modò retuli, magnitudo adiuncta eſt.

CAPVT V.

Cauſa vitæ longioris.

HOrum omnium cauſam hinc intueri licet. Intelligendum enim eſt, animal natura humidum calidúmque eſſe, cuiuſmodi vita quoque ipſa habetur. at ſenectus, & quod emortuum eſt, obare- D ſcit algétque: ſic enim habere cernitur. Hæc etiam, calidum, inquam, frigidum, humidum & ſiccum, materiam corporibus quæ in rerũ naturã ſunt, ſuppeditant. neceſſe eſt itaque, ea, dum ſeneſcunt, inareſcere. Quocirca & humidum eſſe tale conuenit, vt non facilè ſiceſcat. Et ob id pinguia putreſcere non ſolent. Cuius rei cauſa eſt, quòd ea ſunt aëris. aër autem ad reliqua ignis eſt, qui haudquaquam putris reddi poteſt. Rurſum non paucum eſſe humidum oportet. quod enim paucum eſt, facilè exareſcit. Ideóque magnæ & animantes & plantæ, vt in vniuerſum dixerim, plus temporis viuere cõſueuerunt, quemadmodum dictum eſt antea. nam ra- E tione optima euenit, vt quæ maiora ſunt, plus habeant humidi. At non ſolùm propter hoc vita ſunt longiore. duæ enim ſunt cauſæ, quantitas & qualitas, id eſt, modus & genus. Proinde nõ ſolùm oportet humidum eſſe multum, ſed etiã calidum, vt ne facilè aut congelaſcat, aut reſiccetur. Hac de cauſa diutiùs homo, quàm maiuſcula quædam animalia, viuit. nam quæ humidi copia vincuntur, ſi maiore proportione per qualitatem ſuperent, quàm per quantitatem vincantur, ea ſanè viuaciora ſunt. Calidum autem ipſum, in nonnullis pingue habetur, quæ res ſimul efficit, vt neque facilè inareſcat neque facilè refrigeretur. in nonnullis alio ſucco præditum eſt. Præterea oportet, vt quod haud facilè corruptibile ſit, nequaquam excremẽtis abundet. quod n. tale eſt, aut vi morbi, aut ſuapte natura interimitur.

nam excrementorum virtus atque facultas, vicem ſubit contrarij: atque interdum naturam ipſam, interdum partem corrumpit. Quapropter quæ ſalacia ſunt, & ſemine redundant, ocyſſimè ſeneſcunt. nam ſemen, excrementum eſt: & inſuper cùm prodit, aſſiccat. Ob idque mulus equo & aſino, ex quibus procreatus eſt, plus temporis viuit: & fœminæ maribus, ſi mares ſalaces ſint. Quocirca & in paſſerum genere, mares breuiorem quàm fœminæ vitam obtinent. Adde etiam, quod quicunque mares laborioſi ſunt, ampliùs (laboris nomine) ſeneſcere ſolent. labor enim exiccat: ſenectus autem ſicca eſt. Naturâ tamen mares, vt in vniuerſum dixerim, viuaciores fœminis ſunt. Cuius rei cauſa eſt, quòd mas fœmina calidior ſit. Eadem etiam animalia tepidis locis plus temporis, quàm frigidis, illa ipſa cauſa, qua quæ maiore ſunt corpore, viuunt. & eorum maximè quæ natura frigida ſunt, magnitudo conſpectior redditur atque inſignior. Quapropter & calidis locis ſerpentes, lacerti, & corticata, necnon in mari Rubro teſtacea omnia, mira quadam magnitudine augentur. calida nanque humiditas, vitæ ac incrementi cauſa exiſtit. Locis autem prægelidis, humiditas animantibus indita, aquoſior eſt. quamobrem facilè congelaſcere poteſt. Quare in ſeptentrionali plaga, ex animalibus quæ parum ſanguinis obtinent, aut eodem vacant, quædam nullo pacto, ſiue pedeſtria in terra, ſiue aquatilia in mari, gignuntur: quædam gignuntur quidem, ſed minora ſunt, vitæque breuioris. nam gelida cœli conſtitutio ea increſcere non ſinit. Cùm autem alimentum non recipiunt tam animalia quàm plantæ, interire ſolent. idem enim ſeipſum emacerat. nam quemadmodum flamma magna paruam exurit corrumpitque, propterea quòd alimentum eius abſumat: ſic calor naturalis cui primaria concoquendi vis ineſt, materiam in qua ſit, conſumit. Porro aquatilia pedeſtribus minùs viuacia, non quòd humida ſimpliciter ſed quòd aquoſa ſint. Tale autem humidum, corruptioni opportunum eſt: quia frigidum ſit, & promptè congelabile. Item exanguia ſanguineis, eandem ob cauſam, niſi magnitudine vindicentur. nam neque pinguitudinem præ ſe ferunt, neq; dulcorem, cùm in animali pingue ipſum dulce ſit. Quamobrem apes diutiùs quàm quædam alia maiuſcula animalia viuunt.

A Aſſimilantur autem plantæ inſectis, vt iam diximus. nam plantæ, diuiſæ ſeiunctæque viuunt: & duæ ex vna, atque etiam plures procreantur. Inſecta vero, viuunt quidem, ſed longo tempore viuere nequeunt. nam nec inſtrumenta poſſident, nec principium illud quod ſingulis ineſt, ea efficere poteſt. At illud quod plantis innatum eſt, poteſt: quippe cùm plantæ vbique tam radicem quàm caulem potentia habeant. Quapropter ab eo ſemper aliud recens, aliud ſenectum prouenit: quæ pauxillum inter ſe vitæ longitudine differunt, perinde vt ea quę auulſu ſeruntur. etenim in ea ſatione, quæ auulſo ſurculo effici ſolet, idem quodammodo euenire di-B cat. id enim quod auulſione ſeritur, particula quædam eſt. Verùm hoc in ſatione, quæ auulſu fit, ſeiunctis contingit: ibi, cōtinuis. Cauſa, quòd principium ipſum potentia vbique ineſt. Porrò idem in plātis & animalibus euenit. Nam in animalium genere, mares diutiùs magna ex parte viuūt: quorum partes ſupernæ maiores ſunt, quàm infernæ. nam mas, fœmina magis formā gerit pomilionis. ſuperna verò calor, & inferna frigus occupat. & in plantarum genere, quæ caput prægraue ac ponderoſum geſtant, longiùs vitæ curſum protrahunt. cuiuſmodi ſunt non annuæ, ſed quæ figura ſunt arboris. ſi-C quidem radix, plantarum pars ſupera atque caput eſt. quæ autem ſunt annuæ, parte infera & augentur, & ſuos fructus effundunt.

Sed de hoc ſeorſum per ſe in libris de Plantis tractabitur: nunc autem de cæteris, nempe de animalibus, cauſa quamobrem alia longum vitæ ſpatium obtineant, alia breue, explicata eſt. D CAPVT I.

Animalium viuentium vnam eandémque eſſe qua viuunt partem. De anterioribus & poſterioribus animalium partibus: item de ſupera & infera tam animalium quàm plantarum parte.

DE Iuuentute & ſenectute, vita & morte, nunc agendum, fortè autem ſimul & de ſpiratione cauſas dicere neceſſarium eſt, quòd ob eam animantibus nonnullis viuere & non viuere contingat. Cùm iam alibi de Anima tractatum ſit, quanquam conſtat fieri non poſſe vt animæ ſubſtantia corpus ſit, eam tamen eſſe in aliqua corporis particula, & ea quidē quæ inter reliquas vi quadam polleat, apertum eſt. Cæteris igitur animæ aut partibus aut potentiis (vtrouis modo appellandæ ſint) in præſentia dimiſſis, eorum omnium quæ animalia dicuntur, & viuere in hiſce quidem quibus vtraque iſta, eſſe animal inquam ac viuere, comperiūt, vnam & eandem eſſe partem neceſſe eſt, qua viuunt ſimul, & animalis nuncupationem ſortiuntur. Fieri enim nequit, vt animal, qua animal eſt, non viuat. at qua viuit, hac eſſe animal, haudquaquam neceſſe eſt. nam plantæ viuunt quidem, ſed ſenſu carent. ipſa autem ſentiendi facultate animal à non animali interſtinguitur. Hanc ergo partem numero vnam eandémque, ratione plureis ac diuerſas eſſe neceſſe eſt. neque enim idem eſt eſſe animal, quod viuere. Cùm igitur propria ſenſoria vnum aliquod commune ſenſorium nacta ſint, quo neceſſe ſit ſenſus actu concurrere, hoc autem inter partem priorem & poſteriorem medium ſit (nam pars prior dicitur, in qua ſenſum gerimus: poſterior, quæ è regione illius ſita eſt) & inſuper præciſis viuentibus omnium pars altera ſupera ſit, altera infera: omnia enim partem ſuperam inferámque poſſident, quare & ipſæ plantæ vegetandi principium inter eas habebunt. nam partem qua cibus ingreditur, ſuperam nuncupamus, ipſam ſpectantes, & non totum illud quod nos ambit: qua vacans materia primùm egeritur, inferam. Cæterùm illa in plantis è contrariò quàm in animalibus ſita eſt. Nam ex animantibus, homini maximè pars ſuperior ad vniuerſi ſupremum erecta eſt: cæteris, media inter ſupremum ac imū haberi ſolet. At plātis cùm ſtabiles ſint, cibumque ex imo capiant, ea pars neceſſario infrà poſita ſemper eſt. quam enim habet rationem in animalibus vocatum os, eam ſubeunt in plantis radices. nam illa ore cibum è terra capiunt, hæ radicibus.

CAPVT II.

Probat principium nutritiuæ facultatis in medio ſuperæ & inferæ partis eſſe.

CVmque tribus exiſtentibus partibus, in quas perfecta animalia diuiduntur, vna qua cibum capiunt: altera, qua excrementum emittunt, tertia, quæ inter illas media eſt: hæc in maximis animalibus pectus nuncupetur, in cæteris porportionale, in quibuſdam autem magis quàm in aliis articulata diſcretáque ſit: & ex eorum numero quæcumque inceſſilia ſunt, ea parteis ad id muneris accommodatas, crura ſcilicet pedéſque, & ea quibus conſimilis facultas adeſt, adiunctas poſſideant, quibus totus alueus feratur: vegetalis profectò animæ principium in medio illarum trium partium haberi tum viſu, tum etiam ratione deprehenditur. Pleraque enim animalia, adempta vtrauis parte, id eſt, aut ea quæ vocatur caput, aut eà quæ ingeſtos continet cibos, cum quacumque ea ſit quæ media eſt, viuere ſolent. Id quod apertè in inſectis, vt veſpis & apibus, vſu venit. Sed & plurima quæ inſecta non ſunt, præciſa, ob vegetandi principium viuere queunt: quippe quæ partem hanc actu ſimplicem, potentia multiplicem habeant. Eodem enim quo plantæ modo conſtant. etenim plantæ præſectæ ſeorſim viuunt, multæque arbores ab vno fiunt principio. Cæterùm quam ob cauſam plantarum aliæ diuiſæ ſeiunctæque viuere nequeant, aliæ auulſione ſerantur, alio explicabitur loco. quanquam in hoc plantæ, & inſectorum genus ſimiliter ſeſe habent.

A Neceſſe autem eſt, vt anima vegetatrix in habentibus actu ſimplex vnaquæ ſit, potentia multiplex ac plures. Nec ſecus de ſentiendi quoque principio dicendum. nam quæ ex eis diuiſa ſunt, ea ſenſum habere cernuntur (verùm plantæ vt naturâ ſeruetur efficere poſſunt, hæc non poſſunt: quòd inſtrumenta ad naturæ tutelam ſalutémque commoda non habeant, careántque alia eo quod cibum trahit, alia eo quod recipit, alia tum aliis, tum etiam horum vtroque.) Huiuſmodi enim animalia, animalibus multis natura cohærentibus aſſimilantur (at quæ optimè conſtant, haudquaquam: quod eorum natura quàm maximè fieri B poteſt, vna ſimpléxque habeatur. Quo fit, vt partes nonnullæ diuiſæ parum ſentiant: quòd affectio quædam animæ illata ſit.) Detractis enim viſceribus, cientur. id quod etiam teſtudinibus exempto corde euenit.

CAPVT III.

Probat idem aliis argumentis.

PRæterea illud tam in plantis quàm in animalibus patêre poteſt. In plantis quidem, ſi generationem quæ fieri ſemine ſolet, & inſitiones auulſionéſque conſideremus. Nam generatio ea quæ ſemine fit, omnibus è medio prouenit. cùm enim C biualuia ſint ſemina omnia, quà cohærent, médiúmque partis vtriuſque habetur, hinc vnà cum caule radix etiam eorum quæ naſcuntur, erumpit, principiúmque medium ipſorum eſt. Hoc etiam in inſitionibus auulſionibúſque, circa nodos maximè euenit. nodus enim principium quoddam ſurculi eſt, & inſuper medij rationem obtinet. Quare aut nodum auferunt, aut in eum quippiam indunt: vt vel radix vel ſurculus ex eo naſcatur, quaſi principium caulis & radicis è medio ſit. Quinetiam cor animantium ſanguine præditorum, primum gignitur. quod etiam per ea conſtat, quæ fuimus ſpeculati in hiſce quæ dum adhuc fierent, nobis vidiſſe contigit. Quare & in iis quæ D ſanguine carent, id primum fieri neceſſe eſt, quod vice cordis ſubrogatur. Quod autem cor venarum principium ſit, quódque in ſanguineis ſanguis ſit vltimum alimentum, ex quo partes efficiuntur, in libris de Partibus animalium dictum iam eſt. Conſtat itaque, oris facultatem alteram operam cibo conficiendo præſtare, ventris alteram: cor verò potiſſimum eſſe, atque finem imponere. Quare vt ſentientis, ita etiam vegetantis animæ originem, ſanguinariis in corde haberi neceſſe eſt. nam cæterarum partium officia circa cibum, officij cordis gratia ſunt. Oportet enim vt principale ad id cuius cauſa, properet, & non E in iis quæ huius cauſa, ſubſiſtat, perinde atque medicus ad ipſam ſanitatem. At verò ſenſuum principatus, in corde ſanguinariis omnibus eſt. nam in corde omnium ſenſoriorum commune ſenſorium haberi neceſſe eſt. Duos autem, id eſt tangendi & guſtandi ſenſus, eò apertè tendere cernimus: quare & reliquos eôdem proficiſci neceſſe eſt. in hoc enim cætera ſenſoria motum facere contingit. hæc autem nequaquam ad locum ſuperiorem tendunt. Præterea ſi vita hac in parte omnibus collocata ſit, eſſe neceſſe vt ſentiendi quoque principium in ea ipſa ſedem habeat, perſpicuum eſt. quo enim corpus animal eſt, eo etiam viuere: quo verò ſenſitiuum, eo eſſe animal dicimus.

Cæterùm cur ſenſuum alij apertè in cor penetrẽt, A alij in capite poſiti ſint (quamobrem nõnulli etiam vim ſentiendi ſitam in cerebro arbitrantur) cauſa ſeorſum alio loco explicata iam eſt. Sentiendi igitur principium, & alendi & augendi, in hac trium partium, & in corporis meditullio ſitum eſſe, viſu quidem ex hiſce quæ dicta ſunt, conſtat.

CAPVT IV.

Quid ſit mors: & quòd duplex ſit.

RAtione verò, quòd natura in omnibus ex iis quæ fieri poſſunt, facere videtur quod optimũ B ſit. Cùm autem ſubſtantiæ medium principium vtrumque occupat, tum pars vtraque, tam ea quæ vltimum perficit alimentum, quàm ea quæ ipſum recipit, ſuo fungi munere maximè poteſt. ita enim fit vt iuxta vtrumque eorum pars vtraque ſita ſit. Item eiuſmodi medij locus, eius quod principatum obtinet, locus eſt. Præterea id quod vtitur, & id quo quid vtitur differant inter ſe oportet: perinde vt tibiæ, & id quod eas mouet, videlicet manus. Si ergo animal definitum eſt eo, quòd ſentiendi principiũ habeat: hoc principium ſanguineis in corde, exanguibus in parte vicaria haberi neceſſe eſt. Porro animaliũ partes omnes, totumque corpus, calorem quendam naturalem inſitum habent. Quocirca C dum viuunt, calida apparent: dum mortua ſunt atque vita deſtituta, contrà. Neceſſarium autem eſt, vt eius caloris principium ſanguineis in corde, exãguibus in proportionali habeatur: cibum enim naturali calore conficiunt, atque cõcoquunt omnia, ſed imprimis id quod potiſſimum eſt, nempe cor, aut quod ei proportione reſpondet. Quamobrem cæterarũ partium calore frigefacto, vita remanet: cordis, prorſus interit, quòd omnibus inde caloris principium pendeat, & anima quaſi ignita ſit in hiſce partibus, ſanguineorum in corde, exanguium in parte proportionali. Neceſſum itaque eſt, vitam & incolumitatem huiuſce caloris, item mortem & D eiuſdem corruptionem, ſimul eſſe.

CAPVT V.

De ignis corruptionibus.

AT verò ignis duas eſſe corruptiones videmus: marcorem & extinctionem. Eam quæ à ſeipſo prouenit, marcorem appellitamus: quæ verò à contrariis, extinctionem: & illam quidem, ſenectutem, hanc autem violentiam. Vtramque tamen corruptionem eadem de cauſa fieri accidit. ſubſidento etenim cibo, quòd calor cum accipere nequeat, corrumpitur ignis. nam contra- E rium ipſum concoctionem intercipiens, quominus ille nutriatur, impedit. Eſt etiam quando ignem marceſcere contingit, ampliori calore ob id collecto, quia neque ſpiraminis quicquam habeat, neque refrigerij. ita enim calor plurimus ſeſe intercolligens, alimentum celerrimè abſumit: idque priùs facit, quàm vt vlla reſpiratio adhiberi queat. Quocirca non modò minor ignis, maioris acceſſu marceſcit, verumetiam ipſa per ſe lucernæ flamma maiori flammæ indita advritur, haud aliter quàm quoduis aliud cremabile. Cuius rei cauſa eſt, quòd flamma maior, minoris alimentum priùs occupat quàm aliud ſuperueniat.

διὰ τί δ' αἱ μὲν τῶν αἰσθήσεων φανερῶς συντείνουσι πρὸς τὴν καρδίαν, αἱ δ' εἰσὶν ἐν τῇ κεφαλῇ (διὸ καὶ δοκεῖ τισιν αἰσθάνεσθαι τὰ ζῷα διὰ τὸν ἐγκέφαλον) τὸ αἴτιον τούτων ἐν ἑτέροις εἴρηται χωρίς. κατὰ μὲν οὖν τὰ φαινόμενα δῆλον ἐκ τῶν εἰρημένων, ὅτι ἐν τούτῳ τε καὶ ἐν τῷ μέσῳ τοῦ σώματος τῶν τριῶν μορίων, ἥ τε τῆς αἰσθητικῆς ἀρχὴ ψυχῆς ἐστι, καὶ ἡ τῆς αὐξητικῆς, καὶ ἡ τῆς θρεπτικῆς.

ΚΑτὰ δὲ τὸν λόγον, ὅτι τὴν φύσιν ὁρῶμεν ἐν πᾶσιν ἐκ τῶν δυνατῶν ποιοῦσαν τὸ κάλλιστον. ἐν τῷ μέσῳ δὲ τῆς οὐσίας τῆς ἀρχῆς οὔσης ἑκατέρας, μάλιστα μὲν ἀποτελεῖ τῶν μορίων ἑκάτερον τὸ αὐτοῦ ἔργον, τό, τε κατεργαζόμενον τὴν ἐσχάτην τροφὴν καὶ τὸ δεκτικόν· πρὸς ἑκάτερον γὰρ αὐτῶν οὕτως ἔσται. καὶ ἔστιν ἡ τοῦ τοιούτου μέση χώρα, ἄρχοντος χώρα. ἔτι τὸ χρώμενον καὶ ᾧ χρῆται, δεῖ διαφέρειν. ὥσπερ δὲ τὴν δύναμιν, οὕτως αἱ εἰ δέχονται καὶ τὸν τόπον, ὥσπερ οἱ τ' αὐλοὶ, καὶ τὸ κινοῦν τοὺς αὐλούς, ἡ χείρ. εἴπερ οὖν τὸ ζῷον ὥρισται τῷ τὴν αἰσθητικὴν ἔχειν ψυχήν, τοῖς μὲν ἐναίμοις ἀναγκαῖον ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ ταύτην ἔχειν τὴν ἀρχήν· τοῖς δ' ἀναίμοις ἐν τῷ ἀνάλογον μορίῳ. πάντα δὲ τὰ μόρια, καὶ πᾶν σῶμα τῶν ζῴων ἔχει τινὰ σύμφυτον θερμότητα φυσικήν. διὸ ζῶντα μὲν φαίνεται θερμά, τελευτῶντα δὲ καὶ στερισκόμενα τοῦ ζῆν, τοὐναντίον. ἀναγκαῖον δὴ ταύτης τὴν ἀρχὴν τῆς θερμότητος ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ τοῖς ἐναίμοις εἶναι· τοῖς δ' ἀναίμοις, ἐν τῷ ἀνάλογον· ἐργάζεται γὰρ καὶ πέττει τῷ φυσικῷ θερμῷ πάντα τὴν τροφήν, μάλιστα δὲ τὸ κυριώτατον, ἡ καρδία, ἢ τὸ ἀνάλογον. διὸ τῶν μὲν ἄλλων μορίων ψυχομένων, ὑπομένει τὸ ζῆν· τοῦ δ' ἐν ταύτῃ, φθείρεται πάμπαν, διὰ τὸ τὴν ἀρχὴν ἐντεῦθεν τῆς θερμότητος ἠρτῆσθαι πᾶσι, καὶ τῆς ψυχῆς, ὥσπερ ἐμπεπυρευμένης ἐν τοῖς μορίοις τούτοις, τῶν μὲν ἀναίμων ἐν τῷ ἀνάλογον, ἐν δὲ τῇ καρδίᾳ τῶν ἐναίμων. ἀνάγκη τοίνυν ἅμα τό, τε ζῆν ὑπάρχειν, καὶ τὴν τοῦ θερμοῦ τούτου συντήρησιν, καὶ τὸν καλούμενον θάνατον εἶναι τὴν τούτου φθοράν.

Περὶ γὰρ ἀναπνοῆς, ὀλίγοι μέν τινες τῶν πρότερον φυσικῶν εἰρήκασι· τίνος μέντοι χάριν ὑπάρχει τοῖς ζῴοις, οἱ μὲν οὐδὲν ἀπεφήναντο· οἱ δὲ εἰρήκασι μέν, οὐ καλῶς δέ· ἀλλ' ἀπειροτέρως τῶν συμβαινόντων. ἔτι δὲ πάντα τὰ ζῷά φασιν ἀναπνεῖν· τοῦτο δὲ οὐκ ἔστιν ἀληθές. ὥστ' ἀναγκαῖον περὶ τούτων πρῶτον ἐπελθεῖν, ὡς ἂν μὴ δοκῶμεν ἀπόντων κενῶς κατηγορεῖν. ὅτι μὲν οὖν ὅσα πνεύμονα ἔχει τῶν ζῴων, ἀναπνεῖ πάντα, φανερόν.

A ignis autem, fluminis inſtar perpetuò gignitur atque fluit. verum id pręceleritate nos latet. Clarum itaque eſt, ſi ſeruari calorem oporteat, quod ſane neceſſarium eſt ſi animal victurum ſit, quãdam ſieri caloris in ſua origine refrigerationem oportere. Cuius rei exemplum ſumere licet, id quod in hiſce carbonibus qui præfocantur, euenit. nam ſi continuè obturati ſint eo quod ſuffocatorium vocant, celeriter extinguũtur: ſi verò mutatis vicibus quiſpiam crebrò operculum auferat, apponátque, longo tempore ignem retinere ſuum aſſolent. At occultatio, ignem conſeruat. nec enim quominus diſſlet, impeditur, propter cineris raritatem: & circumfuſo aëri, ne extinguatur ab eo, copia ſui caloris B reſiſtit. Verùm cauſa quamobrem igni intecto aliter accidat, aliter præfocato (hic enim emarceſcit, ille longo temporis ſpatio edurat) dicta eſt in Problematibus.

CAPVT VI.

Animalia ex quibus refrigerationem ſibi concilient.

CVm autem omnia viuentia animã ſortita ſint, quæ nequaquam abſque naturali calore eſſe poteſt, vt diximus: plantis quidem ſubſidium illud quod per alimentum & ambientem aërem para- C tur, ſat eſt ad caloris naturalis tutelam atque ſalutem. Etenim alimentum refrigerationem ingrediendo facit, qualis hominibus cùm primùm quippiam ſumpſerunt cibi, euenire ſolet. Ieiunia verò calefaciunt, ſitimque mouent. nam aër cùm motu vacat, ſemper calefit: cùm verò mouetur, ingrediẽte cibo, refrigerari ſolet, quoad concoctionem admiſerit. At ſi aut continens, frigore exuperet ob temporis conſtitutionem, vigente nimirum valido gelu, obareſcunt; aut per æſtatem vehementes æſtus accidant, neque humor qui è terra trahitur, refrigerare poſſit, calor earum marcore corrumpitur. atque per id tempus arbores ſphaceliſmum (id eſt, D morbum radicis, ſiue radicationem) ſentire, atque ſiderari dicuntur. Quamobrem & lapidum genera quædam, & aquam in vaſculis ſubdere radicibus conſueuere, vt ſtirpium radices refrigerentur. Animantium autem cùm quædam in aqua, quædam in aere degant, ex his & per hæc refrigerationem ſibi conciliant, aliæ aqua, aliæ aëre. Quonam vero pacto, & qualiter, inſtituto ſermone explicandum eſt.

DE RESPIRATIONE

E

CAPVT I.

Quæ reſpirent animantia, & quæ magis.

NAm de ſpiratione quanquã à prioribus naturæ interpretibus nonnulli, iiq; admodũ pauci determinauere: tamen cuius gratiã animãtibus adiũcta ſit, alij nihil dixerunt, alij dixerũt quidẽ aliquid, ſed haudquaquã rectè, immo præter eorũ quę contingere ſolent, experientiã. Ad hæc, omnia animalia ſpirare prodiderunt: quod remotum à veritate eſt. Quare de hiſce priùs agendum eſt, vt ne abſentes immeritò accuſare videamur. Igitur animalia quæ pulmonẽ habeant, ſpirare omnia, dilucidũ eſt.

Sed de his ipſis, quotquot exanguem fungoſumque gerunt, ſpiratione minùs indigent. Vnde fit, vt ſine ea diutilè pro corporis viribus perſiſtere queãt. Fungoſum autem pulmonem ouipera omnia poſſident, vt ranarum genus, prætereà mures amnici, atque teſtudines: diuque aquam demerſa tolerant, quòd pulmo eorum parum caloris retineat, cum ſanguinis inops habeatur. Qui vbi inflatur, motu ſuo refrigerat, efficitque vt longo temporis ſpatio edurent. Cæterùm ſi quis ea vi diutiùs in humore detineat, præfocatur, intereuntque omnia: nullum enim è talibus aquam, piſcium more, admittit. Quotquot autem ſanguinem obtinent, ſpiratione magis indigent, propter caloris abundantiam. Cætera verò quęcumque pulmone vacant ſpirare non ſolent.

CAPVT II.

Democriti, Diogenis & Anaxagoræ expenſa ſententia.

DEmocritus igitur ille Abderitanus, nonnullique alij qui de ſpiratione tractarunt, nihil de cæteris animantibus præfinivere: dixiſſe tamen videntur, quaſi omnia ſpirandi vſum haberent. At Anaxagoras & Diogenes, ſimul ac cuncta ſpirare dixerunt, de piſcibus & oſtreis quonam modo ſpirẽt, ſubdidêre. Ac Anaxagoras quidem, piſces, cum per branchias humorem reddunt, aërem illum trahendo qui ſuo in ore ſit, quod nihil inane habeatur, ſpirare tradidit. Diogenes verò, eoſdem, cum aquam per branchias euomunt, ex eo humore qui ori circumquaque adiacet, aërem opera vacui in ore exiſtentis trahere aſſerit. quaſi quidam aër eſſet in aqua. Hæc autem impoſſibilia ſunt. Nã primò quidem illi negotij partem alteram adimunt, quia id quod commune eſt, de altero ſolo enunciant. id enim vocatur ſpiratio. Spirationis autem pars altera inſpiratio, altera exſpiratio. de qua, quo pacto tales animantes expirent, nihil dicunt. Nec verò dicere quicquam poſſunt. nam quoties illæ reſpirant, quà reſpirarint, hac rurſum exſpirent, & hoc ſemper alternatim factitent, oportet. Vnde accidit vt ſimul ore aquam excipiant, & ſpiritum reddant. at neceſſe eſt occurſantia, alterũ alterum impedire. Deinde cùm aquam reijciunt, tunc per os aut per brãchias expirant. Quare accidit, vt ſimul expirent & reſpirent. dicunt enim tunc reſpirare ipſas. Cæterùm fieri non poteſt, vt quicquã ſimul exſpiret & reſpiret. Quare ſi neceſſe ſit, quæ reſpirant, expirare & inſpirare, fieri verò non poſſit vt vlla earum exſpiret: patet, neque fieri poſſe vt ex eis aliqua reſpirandi munere fungatur.

CAPVT III.

Neque piſces neque vlla alia animalia quæ pulmone careant, reſpirare.

PRæterea quod dicunt piſces trahere aërem ex ore ſuo, aut ex aqua per os, fieri nequit. non enim habent arteriam, quòd pulmone vaceant: ſed à ſitu oris continuo venter eſt. Quare neceſſarium eſſet, vt ventre piſces eundẽ traherent: hoc autẽ cętera quoq; animalia factitarent. nunc verò minimè factitant. Sed & illi cùm extra aquam ſunt, apertè hoc idẽ facerent. at hoc nullatenus facere videtur.

Κατὰ Δημοκρίτου λέγοντος τὴν ἀναπνοὴν κωλύειν ἐκθλίβεσθαι τὴν ψυχήν.

E συγκρινομένων οὖν αὐτῶν ὑπὸ τοῦ περιέχοντος ἐκθλίβοντος, βοήθειαν γίνεσθαι τὴν ἀναπνοήν φησιν. ἐν γὰρ τῷ ἀέρι πολὺν ἀριθμὸν εἶναι τῶν τοιούτων, ἃ καλεῖ ἐκεῖνος νοῦν καὶ ψυχήν. ἀναπνέοντος οὖν καὶ εἰσιόντος τοῦ ἀέρος, συνεισιόντα ταῦτα, καὶ ἀνείργοντα τὴν θλῖψιν, κωλύειν τὴν ἐνοῦσαν ἐν τοῖς ζῴοις διιέναι ψυχήν. καὶ διὰ τοῦτο ἐν τῷ ἀναπνεῖν καὶ ἐκπνεῖν εἶναι τὸ ζῆν καὶ τὸ ἀποθνήσκειν. ὅταν γὰρ κρατῇ τὸ περιέχον συνθλῖβον, καὶ μηκέτι θύραθεν εἰσιὸν δύνηται ἀνείργειν, μὴ δυναμένου ἀναπνεῖν, τότε συμβαίνειν τὸν θάνατον τοῖς ζῴοις. εἶναι γὰρ τὸν θάνατον τὴν τῶν τοιούτων σχημάτων ἐκ τοῦ σώματος ἔξοδον ἐκ τῆς τοῦ περιέχοντος ἐκθλίψεως.

A Item cùm ſpirabilia omnia reſpirant, ſpiritúmque trahunt: motionem quandam particulæ trahentis ſuboriri cernimus: id quod in piſcibus nequaquam euenit. nullam enim ventris partem motitare videntur, ſed branchias ſolummodo, ſiue in humore degant, ſiue in aridam inciderint, quo tempore palpitant. Adde quòd cùm ea quæ ſpirant, in aqua ſuffocata moriuntur, bullæ fiunt, ſpiritu violenter exeunte, ceu ſi quis teſtudines, aut ranas, aut aliquod aliud ſimile genus vi ſub aquis detineat. At in piſcibus tale quid, etiam ſi nihil inexpertum relinquas, minimè contingit: vt intelligatur, nullum ſpiritum illos deforis habere. Porro illo eodem pa-B cto quo piſces reſpirare dicunt, ipſi quoque homines demerſi reſpirare poſſent. Nam ſi piſces aërem è circunfuſo humore in os attrahant, cur nō idem facerent & homines, & cætera animalia, & aërem qui ab ore proueniat, haud ſecus quàm piſces traherent? Quare ſi illa fieri poſſent, & hæc quoque. at quoniam hæc fieri non poſſunt, certum eſt neque illa fieri poſſe. Ad hæc ſi reſpirant, cur in aëre intereunt, & inſtar eorum quæ præfocantur, palpitare videntur? nō enim alimenti inopia hoc illis euenit. Quam verò cauſam Diogenes aſtruit, (dicit enim eos in aëre, aërem nimiū trahere: in aqua, modicum: obidque emori) ſtulta eſt. Etenim in pedeſtri genere hoc idem contingere poſſe oportebat. C nunc autem nullum pedeſtre animal ſuffocari videtur, eo quòd vehementer reſpiret. Præterea ſi omnia reſpirant, clarum eſt & inſecta quoque animalia reſpirare. at plurima ex eis diuiſa non modò in duas parteis, ſed etiam in plureis, viuere cernuntur, ceu ſcolopendræ, quas centipedas nuncupant: quæ, qualiter, aut quo fieri poteſt vt reſpirēt? at verò nec partium interiorum experientiam habuiſſe, nec accepiſſe cuncta naturam moliri alicuius gratia: cauſa potiſſimum fuit, quamobrem haud rectè de ipſis dixerint. inueſtigando enim cuius gratiâ reſpiratio animalibus adiuncta ſit, & in partibus hoc idem vt in branchiis & pulmone inſpiciendo, D ocyus vtique cauſam ipſam inueniſſent.

CAPVT IV.

Democriti ſententiam iterum examinat.

CÆterùm Democritus, quæ ſpirant, ex reſpiratione quippiam conſequi aſſeruit, inquiens eã prohibere ne animus extrudatur: non tamen quaſi natura id huiuſce gratia fecerit, quicquam dixit. in plenum enim, vt cæteri naturales, ita & hic quoque huiuſmodi cauſam minimè attigit. Sed primas illas rotūdas figuras, calorem & animam eſſe dicit. Quæ E vbi periclitari occipiunt, ne continente exprimente foras protrudantur, ſuccurſum auxiliúmque reſpiratione fieri. in aëre enim grandem numerum talium eſſe, quę ille mentem animámque appellat. ac reſpirante quidem animali, & aëre ingrediente, ea pariter ingredi: & compreſſioni reſiſtendo animam quæ in eo eſt, egredi prohibere. atque obid in reſpirando & expirando, vitam & mortem conſiſtere. nam cùm id quod nos ambit, comprimendo euincit ac ſuperat, nec ei præterea id quod deforis ingreditur, reſiſtere poteſt, cùm animal ſpirare nequeat: tum accidere, morte animal occupari. mortem enim eſſe, eiuſmodi figurarum è corpore digreſſū, qui exprimēte eo quod cōtinet, proueniat.

Cauſam

Cauſam verò quamobrem neceſſarium ſit cuncta emori, non tamen quouis tempore ſine lege vlla, ſed ſecundùm naturam, ſenectute; præter naturam, violentia, nequaquam declarauit. Atque explicuiſſe oportuit, cùm alias id fieri videatur, aliàs non videatur, verùm cauſa extrinſecus petenda ſit, an intrinſecus. Sed nec de ſpirationis primordio quænam cauſa ſit, interiórne an exterior, quicquam dixit. non enim mens ea quæ foris inſecus ſit, præſidium illud ſeruare poteſt: ſed ſpirationis motuſque initium intrinſecus ortum habet, quaſi id quod continet, vim nullam adſerat. Abſurdum quoque & illud eſt, ſimul quod ambit comprimere, & quod ingreditur, dilatare. Quæ igitur ille dixit, & quomodo, ferè hæc ſunt. At ſi vera eſſe quæ priùs dicta ſunt, & non omnia animalia ſpirare arbitrari oporteat: non de qualibet morte cauſam hanc dictam eſſe, ſed iis ſolùm quæ ſpirandi vſum habeant, accommodari debere, exiſtimandum eſt. Sed ne his quidem rectè. Id autem liquido conſtat, per ea quæ contingunt, & eiuſmodi quorum experientiam omnes habere videntur. Nam per æſtum calidiores effecti, vt reſpiratione magis indigent, ita crebriùs ſpirant. Contra cùm circunfuſus aër algidus eſt, & corpus contrahit atque condenſat, tunc accidit ſpiritum retineri. Atqui oportebat tunc aërem deforis ingreſſum, compreſſione prohibere. Nunc verò contra res agitur. Quoties enim non expirantibus hominibus caloris magna vis collecta fuerit, tunc reſpiratione indigent. neceſſarium autem eſt, vt inſpirando reſpirent. Porro æſtuantes ſæpius reſpirare ſolent, quaſi id agant refrigerij gratia quo tempore fit, vt (quod dici ſolet) ignis ad ignem addatur.

CAPVT V.

Aduerſus Platonis de reſpiratione ſententiam.

Illa verò circularis pulſio, quæ in Timæo ſcripta eſt, de cæteris animantibus nihil definiuit, quo pacto, eadémne an alia quadam ratione ipſa ſuum calorem tueantur atque conſeruent. Nam ſi ſolis pedeſtribus ſpiratio adiuncta ſit, cauſa dici debuit cur ſolis competat. ſi verò etiam aliis inſit, ſed modus differat: & de hoc quoque determinandum fuit, ſi cuncta ſpirare poſſint. Præterea modus cauſæ fictitius eſt. nam cùm calor foras per os egreditur, circumfuſum nobis aërem pelli aſſerit, & latione concepta eodem per carnes quæ raræ ſolutæque ſunt, interlabi, vnde calor interior exiuit, propterea quod nihil vacuum ſit, cùm ſibi mutuò circumobſiſtant. vbi verò calefactus ſit, rurſum egredi per eundem locum, & intrò per os repellere calidum illum aërem qui priùs foras exiuit, atque id reſpirando & expirando continuè ſemper fieri. Eueniunt autem hiſce qui ſic arbitrantur, expirationem priùs fieri quàm inſpirationem: argumento, quod hæ alternatim fiant. At morientes expirant. Quare neceſſarium eſt, inſpirationem vicem ſubire principij. Item cuius gratia iſthæc, reſpiratio inquam & expiratio, animalibus tributa à natura ſint, non dixêre qui in hunc modum loquuntur, ſed ſolùm quaſi de re aliqua temeraria, & quæ caſu conſiſtat, enunciauere. Atqui iſta principatum vitæ & necis obtinere videmus. tunc enim accidit, vt quæ reſpirandi vſum habent, intereant, cùm reſpirare non poſſint. Ad hæc abſurdum eſt, caloris quidem per os egreſſum,

A & rurſum ingreſſum nos minimè latere: ſpiritus verò in pectus ingreſſum, & rurſus eiuſdem calefacti egreſſum latere. Abſurdum etiam & illud eſt, reſpirationem eſſe caloris ingreſſum. E cõuerſo enim rem habere videmus, nempe, quod expiratur eſſe calidum, quod inſpiratur, frigidum. Cùm verò hoc calidum eſt, anhelantes reſpiramus. nam quia id quod ingreditur, nos ſatis refrigerare non poteſt; euenit, vt ſæpius trahamus ſpiritum.

CAPVT VI.

Reſpirationem non eſſe nutricationis cauſa.

B At verò neque nutricationis gratiâ reſpirationem fieri exiſtimandum eſt, quaſi ignis interior alatur ſpiritu: & reſpirante quidem homine, ceu igni materiam incendio aptiſſimam adiici: alito verò igni, expirationem fieri. Eadem enim & ad hunc quoque ſermonem rurſum dicemus, quæ ad priores adducta ſunt. etenim in cæteris animantibus hoc idem euenire oportebat, aut quod ei proportione reſpondeat, cùm omnia calore vitali prædita ſint. Deinde & quo dicere modo oporteat, calorem e ſpiritu gigni, figmento perſimile eſt. potiùs enim hunc e cibo fieri videmus. iuxta quod euenit, vt animal cibum capiat, & excrementum C emittat. Hoc autem in aliis fieri haudquaquam cernimus.

CAPVT VII.

Empedoclis de reſpiratione ſententia.

Diſſerit autem de reſpiratione & Empedocles: ſed tamen cuius gratia animalibus data ſit, ſilentio præterit. neque de omnibus animantibus ſi reſpirent necne, quicquam certum reddidit. atque vbi de ea ſpiratione quæ per nares fit, locutus eſt, de principe quoque dixiſſe putauit. Fit autem ſpiratio, & per arteriam è pectore, & per nares. cæterum animalia ſpirare per nares abſque illa non D poſſunt. & cùm ea deſtituuntur quæ per nares fit, nullum damnum ſentiunt: cùm autem ea quæ per arteriam, commoriuntur. natura enim obiter abutitur ad olfactum in quibuſdam animalibus ſpiratione illa, quæ per nares fit. Quocirca olfactum quidem omnia ferè animalia participant, ſed ſenſorium non idem omnia obtinent. Verùm de his dictum planiùs alibi eſt. Porro reſpirationem & expirationem fieri aſſerit, propterea quòd venæ quædam habeantur, in quibus ineſt quidem ſanguis, non tamen plenæ ſunt eodem, ſed meatus extra prominentes obtinent, corporis quidem partibus anguſtiores, aeris verò ampliores. Ideóque cùm E ſanguis aptus ſua natura ſit ſurſum & deorſum moueri, quando deorſum fertur, aerem effluere & reſpirationem fieri: quando verò ſurſum commeat, aerem influere, & expirationem committi prædicat. quod ibi euenit, ei quod in vaſis accidit, quæ clepſydras vocamus, aſſimilans. inquit enim:

Nam partim exangues ad corporis vltima venæ
Tendunt, quarum extrema caua ſub nare fatiſcunt
Oſcillis, adeò vt cruor occultetur, & auræ
Inceſſum facilem valeant præſtare meatus.
Hinc vbi commotus repetit tener intima ſanguis,

Tunc aer feruendo ſubit permultus eôdem.
Aſt vbi ſe ille effert, tum rurſum redditur iſte:
Vt cùm clepſydra virguncula ludit ahena:
Quando tubum properat formoſa claudere dextra,
Et mox inſit aquæ mollis quæ corpore conſtat:
Nondum in vas penetrat demerſum lympha, ſed ipſam
Aeris ingreſſi per denſa foramina moles
Arcet, dum ſtrictam illa viam patefecerit, at mox
Aere decedente, ſubintrat limpidus humor.
Contrà cum fundum vaſis tenet humor aheni,
Et iam virgo manu tubuli percluſit hiatum:
Tunc imbrem retinet vergens introrſus aer,
Adſtrepere portæ iſthmus ſupremo tenendo,
Dum manus abſcedat. tum contra quàm priùs, intrò
Aere prerumpente, ſubiſſluit imber amœnus:
Sic tener ille liquor motu per membra cruoris,
Quando pedem referens ſubit intima, protinus alter
Aeris influxus demittitur agmine magno.
At cum ſeſe effert, tum rurſum expirat abundè.

Hæc ille de reſpiratione prodidit. At quæ per arteriam apertè reſpirant, per os ſimul & per nares reſpirare ſolent, vt diximus. Quare ſi de hac reſpiratione loquatur, ſcrutari neceſſe eſt, quo pacto illi dicta cauſa accommodari poſſit. nam è contrario agi videtur. Siquidem homines, locum, cui reſpirandi munus delegatum eſt, perinde vt folles in officinis ferrariis, attollendo, reſpirant. quanquam conſentaneum erat, vt calor attolleret, & ſanguis caloris locum occuparet. eundem verò, vt vbi folles deprimendo atque præfocando, expirant. Verum folles, non per eundem locum aërem excipiunt & regerunt, reſpirantes verò per eundem. Si verò de illa reſpiratione ſolùm quæ per nares fit, plurimùm aberrauit. non enim reſpiratio naribus peculiaris eſt: ſed per tractum illum conuallis, quæ columellæ adiacet, qua parte palatum definit, perforatis naribus ſpiritus pars altera excurrit, altera per os, egrediens pariter & ingrediens. Quæ igitur ab aliis de ſpiratione dicta ſunt, tot taleſque videntur habere difficultates.

CAPVT VIII

Caloris & refrigerationis in animali vis.

CVm verò antea dictum ſit, vitam & animam calore quodam contineri (non enim concoctio, per quam animantes capiunt alimentum, ſine anima & calore abſolui poteſt, quandoquidem omnes igni cibum conficiunt) iccirco in quo primo corporis loco, & in qua prima huius loci particula eiuſmodi principium eſſe neceſſarium ſit, ibidem & animam vegetalem quæ prima omnium eſt, haberi neceſſe eſt. Hic autem locus is eſt qui medius eſt inter eum qui cibum recipit, & eum quo excrementum emittitur. Ea igitur particula in exanguibus nomine vacat, in ſanguineis cor dici ſolet. Alimentum enim, ex quo iam partes animalium fiunt, natura ſanguinis eſt: ſanguinis autem & venarum generis idem eſſe principium, neceſſe eſt. nam alterum alterius gratia eſt, nempe quaſi vas & conceptaculum. Porro venarum principium in ſanguineis, cor eſt.

Ἐπεὶ δὲ τῶν ζῴων τὰ μὲν ἔνυδρα, τὰ δ' ἐν γῇ ποιεῖται τὴν διατριβήν, τούτων τοῖς μὲν μικροῖς πάμπαν καὶ τοῖς ἀναίμοις, ἡ γινομένη ἐκ τοῦ περιέχοντος, ἢ ὕδατος, ἢ ἀέρος ψύξις ἱκανὴ πρὸς τὴν βοήθειαν τῆς φθορᾶς ταύτης· μικρὸν γὰρ ἔχοντα τὸ θερμόν, μικρᾶς δέονται τῆς βοηθείας. διὸ καὶ βραχύβια πάντα σχεδὸν ταῦτ' ἐστίν· ἐπ' ἀμφότερα γὰρ μικρᾶς οὔσης τυγχάνει ῥοπῆς. ὅσα δὲ μακροβιώτερα τῶν ἐντόμων (ἄναιμα γὰρ ἐστὶ πάντα τὰ ἔντομα) τούτοις ὑπὸ τὸ διάζωμα διέσχισται, ὅπως διὰ λεπτοτέρου ὄντος τοῦ ὑμένος ψύχηται· μᾶλλον γὰρ ὄντα θερμά, πλείονος δεῖται τῆς καταψύξεως, οἷον αἱ μέλιτται· τῶν γὰρ μελιττῶν ἔνιαι ζῶσι καὶ ἑπτὰ ἔτη, καὶ τἆλλα δὲ ὅσα βομβεῖ, οἷον σφῆκες, καὶ μηλολόνθαι, καὶ τέττιγες· καὶ γὰρ τὸν ψόφον ποιοῦσι πνεύματι, οἷον ἀσθμαίνοντα· ἐν αὐτῷ γὰρ τῷ ὑποζώματι, τῷ συμφύτῳ πνεύματι αἴροντι καὶ συνίζοντι, συμβαίνει πρὸς τὸν ὑμένα γίνεσθαι τρῖψιν· κινοῦσι γὰρ τὸν τόπον τοῦτον, ὥσπερ τὰ ἀναπνέοντα τὸν ἔξωθεν τῷ πνεύμονι, καὶ οἱ ἰχθύες τοῖς βραγχίοις. παραπλήσιον γὰρ συμβαίνει, κἂν εἴ τις πνίγοι τῶν ἀναπνεόντων τι, ἐπιλαβὼν τὸ στόμα· καὶ γὰρ ταῦτα ποιεῖ τῷ πνεύμονι τὴν ἄρσιν ταύτην. ἀλλὰ τούτοις μὲν οὐχ ἱκανὴ ἡ κίνησις αὕτη ποιεῖν κατάψυξιν, ἐκείνοις δ' ἱκανή. καὶ τῷ τρίβειν τῷ ὑμένι ποιοῦσι τὸν βόμβον, ὥσπερ λέγομεν, οἷον διὰ τῶν καλάμων τῶν τετρυπημένων τὰ παιδία, ὅταν ἐπιθῶσιν ὑμένα λεπτόν. διὰ γὰρ τοῦτο καὶ τῶν τεττίγων οἱ ᾄδοντες ᾄδουσι· θερμότεροι γάρ εἰσι, καὶ ἐσχισμένοις ὑπὸ τὸ ὑπόζωμα· τοῖς δὲ μὴ ᾄδουσι τοῦτ' ἔστιν ἄσχιστον. καὶ τῶν ἐναίμων δέ, καὶ πνεύμονα ἐχόντων, ὀλίγαιμον δ' ἐχόντων καὶ σομφόν, ἔνια διὰ τοῦτο πολὺν χρόνον δύναται ἄπνευστα ζῆν, ὅτι ὁ πνεύμων αἴρεσιν ἔχει πολλήν, ὀλίγον ἔχων τὸ αἷμα καὶ τὸ ὑγρόν· ἡ γὰρ οἰκεία κίνησις, ἐπὶ πολὺν χρόνον διαρκεῖ καταψύχουσα. τέλος δ' οὐ δύναται, ἀλλ' ἀποπνίγεται μὴ ἀναπνέοντα, καθάπερ εἴρηται καὶ πρότερον· τῆς γὰρ μαράνσεως ἡ διὰ τὸ μὴ ψύχεσθαι φθορά, καλεῖται πνῖξις·

A non enim per hoc tendunt, ſed ex hoc omnes dependent: quod nobis facilè conſtat ex diſſectionibus. Cæteræ igitur vires animæ, ſine vegetali eſſe nequeunt. (quam ob rem, dictum iam eſt in libro de Anima.) Vegetalis verò, ſine igni naturali: in hac enim parte natura eam igniuit. Corrumpitur autem ignis, vt antea dictum eſt, aut marcore, aut extinctu. Extinctu quidem, a contrariis. Quamobrem & vniuerſus, & ocyus adhuc diſtractus, ambiente frigore extingui conſueuit. Hæc igitur corruptio, violenta ex æquo in inanimis & animatis eſt. etenim animal, cùm gladiis ſecatur, & nimio frigore concreſcit, emoritur. marcore autē, copia caloris. Si enim circumfuſus aer immodice caleat, B & ignis non capiat alimentum: tum igni obuenit, vt non à frigore ſuperatus, ſed marcore debilitatus aboleatur. Quare neceſſarium eſt, vt refrigeratio adhibeatur, ſi ſeruari debeat. ea enim contra hanc corruptionem auxilio eſt.

CAPVT IX.

Cur quædam animalia non reſpirent.

Sed cùm animalium alia aquatilia ſint, alia in terra degant, inter hæc quæ parua admodum ſunt, quæque ſanguine carent, ea continente vel C aere vel aqua ſatis refrigerari poſſunt ad hanc corruptionem euitandam. nam cùm calorem habeant exiguum, modico egent auxilio. Quamobrem & his ferè omnibus vita breui temporis ſpatio præſcribitur. vtróque enim, quòd parua ſint, vergere ſolent. Quæcunque autem ex inſectorum genere viuaciora ſunt (inſecta enim omnia ſanguine carent) his corpus ſub ſepto tranſuerſo præcinctum diſtinguitur, vt per membranam ſubtiliuſculam refrigerentur. nam quæ calidiora ſunt, ampliori refrigeratione indigent, vt apes: quædam enim apes, ſeptenos annos viuunt. Et etiam cætera, quæcunque bombos elidunt: vt veſpæ, ſcarabei, & cicadæ. D nam murmur illud, ſpiritu, dum quaſi anhelant, ciere ſolent. eo enim ſpiritu, qui in ipſo ſepto tranſuerſo inſitus eſt, dum ſeſe attollit, ac per vices ſubſidet, attritum ad membranam fieri contingit. ſiquidem ea ad hūc locum mouent, ſicut quæ ſpiritum extrinſecus trahunt, pulmone thoracem, & piſces branchiis caput agitant. haud enim magnopere ſecius euenit, atque ſi quis aliquid ex iis quæ ſpirant, ſuffocare nitatur ore compreſſo obturatóque. etenim hæc pulmonis opera pectus attollent. Verùm eiuſmodi motu hæc ſatis refrigerari non poſſunt, illa poſſunt. Atque attritu ſpiritus ad membranam ſtrepitum edunt, ſicut diximus, haud diſſimilem E ei quem pueri per arundines perforatas ſuperpoſita tenui membrana emittunt. ob id enim & cicadæ illæ quæ canunt, canere ſolent. ſunt enim calidiores, & ſub præcinctu diuiduæ: quæ autem non canunt, indiuiduæ. Quinetiam è ſanguineis & pulmonem quidem habentibus, ſed parum ſanguinis nactum fungoſúmque, nonnulla irreſpiranter longo temporis ſpatio viuere poſſunt: quòd eorum pulmo multùm attollatur, cùm parum ſanguinis ac humoris contineat. quandoquidē propria pulmonis agitatio, ad longum tempus ſatis refrigerare poſſet. Tandem verò non poſſunt, ſed ſuffocantur non reſpirando, quemadmodum etiam antè diximus. Ea enim corruptio, quæ marcore ob refrigerationis penuriam fit, ſuffocatio vocari ſolet:

& quæ ita intereunt, ea ſuffocari dicimus. Porro inſecta non ſpirare, dictum quidem eſt etiam priùs: ſed hoc apertum vel in puſillis eſt, vt muſcis & apibus: quippe quæ diu in humore ſupernatant, niſi frigidus admodum aut calidus ſit. Atqui quæ vireis habent exiguas, crebriorem ſibi requirunt ſpirationem. Verùm ſimul ac venter aqua oppletur, & humor corrumpitur, quem ſeptum tranſuerſum continet, ea intereunt, & ſuffocari dicuntur. Vnde etiam fit vt ſi diutiùs cinere operiantur, poſtea reſurgant reuiuiſcántque. Quinetiam è genere aquatili, quæ ſanguine carent, ea diutiùs in aëre viuunt, quàm quæ ſanguine prædita mare recipiunt, vt piſces. nam quia parum caloris obtinent, aëre ſatis ad longum tempus refrigerantur, vt cruſtacea, & polypi. Non tamen ad poſtremum viuere ſufficiunt, propterea quòd exiguum calorem habeant. quandoquidem & piſcium plurimi in terra, ſed immobiles viuunt & defoſſi reperiuntur. quæ enim nullum protſus, aut certè exanguem habent pulmonem, ea refrigeratione minùs indigent.

CAPVT X.

Quæ ſint animalia quæ ſpirent, & cur nullum animal habeat pulmonem & branchias.

DE iis igitur quæ ſanguine carent, aliis continentem aërem, aliis humorem auxilio eſſe, vt vitam tueantur & conſeruent, dictum eſt. At ex iis quæ ſanguine prædita ſunt, & cor habent, quæ pulmonem ſortiuntur, omnia aërem recipiunt, & ſpiritum trahendo reddendóque refrigerantur. Pulmonem autem habent, & viuipera intra ſe, & non ſolùm foris (nam chartilaginea, viuipera quidem ſunt, ſed non intra ſe) & ouiperorum tam alata vt aues, quàm corticata vt teſtudines, lacerti, ſerpentes. Verùm illa pulmonem habent ſanguineum, horum verò plurima fungoſum. Quamobrem & ſpiratione rariùs vtuntur, quemadmodum dictum iam eſt. Vtuntur autem & omnia, quæcunque verſantur, victúmque ſumunt in aquis: vt hydrorum genus (quas quidam boas nuncupant) & mures aquatiles, & ranæ, & crocodili, & teſtudines tam marinæ quàm terreſtres: & vituli marini, quos Græci vocant phocas: nam hæc & cætera id genus omnia, & pariunt in terra, & dormiunt aut in terra, aut in humore, roſtro emerſo ſpirandi cauſa. Quæcunque verò branchias obtinent, omnia accipiendo aquam refrigerantur: branchias autem obtinent, quæ genere chartilagineo continentur, & cætera quæ pedibus carent: caret autem pedibus genus omne piſcium. nam quæ pedes habere videntur, eos pinnis ſimiles gerunt. At è pedatis quæ nouimus, vnum tantummodo branchiatum eſt, cordulus nomine. Cæterùm ſimul & pulmonem & branchias habere, nullum vnquam viſum eſt. Cauſa cur ita, quòd pulmo quidem refrigerationis eiuſce gratia fit, quæ ſpiritu fiat (videtur enim vocatus eſſe πνεύμων propter πνεύματος, id eſt, ſpiritus, receptionem) branchiæ verò ob eam refrigerationem, quæ ab humore proueniat. porro vnum inſtrumentum ad vnum vtile eſt, & omnibus vna refrigeratio ſufficit. Quare cùm natura nihil fruſtra agere cernatur, ſi verò eſſent duo, alterum fruſtra foret: ideo alia branchias habent, alia pulmonem, nullum vtrumque.

CAPVT XI.

De ore.

CVm autem quodque animal vt ſit, cibo indigeat: vt conſeruetur, refrigeratione; ad hoc vtrunque natura eodem vtitur inſtrumento. Etenim vt in quibuſdam lingua & ad percipiendos ſapores, & ad formandum ſermonem vti ſolet: ſic in iis quæ habent pulmonem, ore tam ad cibum conficiendum, quàm ad trahendum reddendúmque ſpiritum. In iis vero quæ neque pulmonem, neque ſpirandi vſum habent, os quidem cibi conficiendi cauſa habetur, branchiæ vero ad refrigerationem, quibus ea ipſa opus eſt. Sed quo pacto vis eorum quæ modo dixi inſtrumentorum refrigeratione faciat, dicemus poſt. Plane ne quod obſtaculum cibo ingerendo ingruat, ſimiliter & ſpirantibus & ſuſcipientibus humorem accidit. non enim reſpirando ſimul cibum admittunt. alioqui cibo vel ſicco vel humido per arteriam in pulmonem dilabente, ſtrangulari animal accidit. nam arteria ante gulam poſita eſt, per quam cibus meat in ventriculum. Igitur quæ quadrupedes ſunt, & ſanguine redundant, iis minor lingua ſiue ligula eſt, qua ceu operculo arteria clauditur. At ouiparis, quadrupedibus atque auibus, eadem illa adiuncta non eſt: verùm idem contractione efficitur. nam cùm cibus ingeritur, hæc arteriam contrahunt, illa ligulam gutturi ſuperponunt: cùm vero prætergit, hæc ligulam attollunt, illa guttur diducunt, atque refrigerationis gratia ſpiritum recipiunt. At quæ branchiis prædita ſunt, cibum per os recipere ſolent, humore tantùm per branchias emiſſo. nullam enim habent arteriam. Quare catenus quidem nullum ſentiunt incommodum, ab humoris interlapſu: ſed quatenus aqua in ventrem ingreditur. Quocirca raptim, ſummáque celeritate cibum ingerunt atque tranſmittunt. Quinetiam ea penè omnia, acutis ſerratiſque dentibus ſunt. non enim in molendo cibo commorari poſſunt.

CAPVT XII.

Humor quatenus refrigerationis cauſa à quibuſdam recipiatur.

CÆterùm ambigat quiſpiam de aquatilibus, quæ cetacei ſunt generis (nam & ea ſeſe iuxta proportionem habent) verbi cauſa de delphinis, balenis, & reliquis quæ fiſtulam gerunt. hæc enim tametſi pedibus careant, tamen pulmonem habent, & mare excipiunt. Cuius rei cauſa in eo eſt, quod modo dixi. non enim refrigerationis cauſa humorem admittunt, cùm ſpirando refrigerari ſoleant, vt quæ pulmone prædita ſint. Quamobrem & talia exerto ore dormiunt, ſtertúntque ipſi quidem delphini: qui etiam retibus apprehenſi, breui tempore ſtrangulantur, quod ſpirandi facultatem amiſerint. & per ſumma pelagi fluitare viſuntur, vt ſpirent. Sed enim cùm neceſſarium ſit vt in humore cibum capiant, humorem quem ore accipiunt, emittant neceſſe eſt. Ob idque fiſtula data omnibus eſt. admiſſum enim humorem vt piſces per branchias, ſic cete per fiſtulam reſpuere ſolent. Huius rei argumento vel fiſtulæ ſitus eſt: quæ in nulla parte ſanguinatia deſinit, ſed ante cerebrum ſita eſt, & aquam emittit. Nec alia de cauſa tam mollia, quàm cruſtata, vt locuſtæ & cancri, aquam excipiunt. nullum enim eorum refrigeratione eget, quod parum caloris habeat, & exangue ſit, vſque adeò vt a continente humore ſatis refrigeretur. Sed ratione cibi: qui quoties ore capitur, fieri non poteſt quin ſimul aliquid humoris admittatur. Igitur quæ cruſta integuntur, videlicet tam cancri quàm locuſtæ, per applicamina iuxta hirtiuſcula aquam egerunt. Sepiæ verò & polypi, per cauum illud quod ſupra alueum, quem caput appellant, poſitum eſt. Sed de his exactiùs in Commentatione, hoc eſt, Hiſtoria animalium, ſcripſimus. Humorem igitur excipi ſolere refrigerationis cauſa, & quia animantia aquatilia pro ſorte naturæ exiſtentia, cibum ex humore capiant, dictum eſt.

CAPVT XIII.

De refrigerationis modo in animalibus.

DE refrigeratione verò, quonam pacto fiat tam iis quæ ſpirant, quàm iis quæ branchias obtinent, poſt hæc dicendum. Igitur animalia quæ pulmonem habeant, ſpirare omnia, ſuprà diximus. Quamobrem autem nonnulla particulam hanc obtineant, & quamobrem quæ obtinent, ſpiratione indigeant, agendum eſt. Cauſa cur obtineant, ea eſt: quòd quæ inter animalia honoratiora ſunt, plus caloris ſortita ſint. nam ſimul & animam ſortita eſſe honoratiorem, neceſſe eſt. honoratiora enim ſunt hæc plantis. Quocirca & quod pulmonem maiore copia refertum ſanguinis & caloris habet, ei magnitudo corporis maior eſt: & quod plurimi & puriſſimi ſanguinis compos eſt, vt homo, id ex omnibus animalibus erectiſſimum incedit, atque partem ſuperiorem ad vniuerſi ſupremum erectam obtinet, propterea quòd hanc particulam talem habeat. Quare & ea particula, perinde vt quælibet alia, cauſa eſſentiæ huius & reliquorum ſtatui debet. Ob id igitur pulmo haberi ſolet. Cur autem neceſſario moueatur, hanc eſſe cauſam arbitrandum eſt: quòd talia animalia ſic conſtant, vt multa non ita conſtent. nam alia ex terra ampliore facta ſunt, vt genus plantarum: alia ex aqua, vt aquatilium: volatilium verò & pedeſtrium, altera ex aëre, altera ex igni. Porro ſingula ea ſuis in locis diſpoſita ſunt.

CAPVT XIV.

Rationem Empedoclis, cur animalium alia ſint terreſtria, alia aquatilia, exagitat.

AT verò Empedocles improbè hoc dixit, aſſerens animalium calidiſſima præcipuè, & copioſiſſimum nacta feruorem, aquatilia eſſe, natiui caloris exceſſum fugientia: vt cùm frigoris & humoris defectum ſuſtineant, contrario in loco ſeruentur, quòd aqua minùs quàm aër calida ſit. Nam omnino abſurdum eſt: quî fieri poſſit, vt ſingula ea in arido genita, ſeſe mutatis ſedibus in humorem conferant, cùm eorum pars penè maxima expes ſit? At ille primam eorum conſtitutionem referens, orta quidem in ſic-

A eo eſſe dicit, ſed fugiendo in humorem veniſſe. Præterea non videntur eſſe calidiora pedeſtribus. nam ex eis quædam nullum prorſus, quædam paucum ſanguinem habent. Attamen qualia dici debeant calida & frigida per ſe, conſiderationem ſumpſerat. Cæterùm cauſa ea quam idem reddidit, aliquo modo quæſitam continet rationem, non tamen id quod ille dicit, verum eſt. Nam contraria loca & tempora, quæ habituum exuperantias exceperint, ſeruandi facultatem obtinent. natura verò, ſuis in locis potiſſimùm ſeruatur. non enim idem ſunt, materia ex qua ſingula animalia conſtant, & eius habitus diſpoſitionéſve. Hoc autem ita accipio. ſi quid è cera aut glacie B natura conſtituerit, haudquaquam in calido poſitum ſeruabit: corrumpetur enim celeriter ob contrarium: quòd calor quicquid à ſuo contrario conſtiterit, eliquare ſoleat. Item ſi quid è ſale aut nitro conſtituerit, nequaquam id in humorem transferet, deponétque: cùm humor, quæ à calido & ſicco conſtitere, diſperdat. Si igitur humidum & ſiccum materiam corporibus ſuggerunt omnibus, ratione optima euenit, vt quæ ex humido conſtant, in humido ſint, quæ ex ſicco, in ſicco. Ob id arborum genera non in aqua naſci ſolent, ſed in terra. Atqui eadem ratione in aquam veniſſent, quòd præarida ſint, qua ille præferuida veniſſe affirmat. non enim veniſſent in eam C quòd frigida ſit, ſed quòd humida. Natura igitur materiæ tales eſſe ſolent, qualis eſt locus in quo ſunt. quæ in aqua ſunt, humidæ: quæ in terra, ſiccæ: quæ in aëre, calidæ. Habituum tamen ij qui calore excellunt, in frigido poſiti meliùs ſeruantur: contrà qui frigore, in calido. natura enim loci, habitus exceſſum ad mediocritatem reducit. Hoc igitur quæri debet in propriis locis cuiuſque materiæ, iuxta communis temporis varietates. nam vt habitus locis contrarij ſint, fieri poteſt: vt materia, non poteſt. Quòd igitur non propter calorem naturæ animalium alia aquatilia ſint, alia pedeſtria, quemadmodum Empedocles aſſerit: nec non cur quædam pulmonem habeant, quædam D non habeant, hactenus dictum ſit.

CAPVT XV.

Quare pulmone prædita ſpirent.

CVr autem quæ pulmone prædita ſunt, aërem excipiant, ſpirentque, & præſertim quæ illum ſanguinolentum obtinent, dicendum eſt. Cauſa ſpirandi pulmo eſt, fungoſus exiſtens, & fiſtulis plenus: qui etiam omnium maximè partium quæ viſcera appellantur, ſanguine refertus eſt. Quæ itaque ſanguineum habent, ea celeri refrigeratione indigent, quòd calor animalis paululum E deuergat: & penetratione, quæ per totum eat ob ſanguinis caloriſque copiam. quod vtrunque aër committere facilè poteſt. nam quia natura tenui eſt, & celeriter & per totum ſubit atque refrigerat. at aqua, non poteſt. Item cur ea potiſſimùm ſpirent, quæ pulmonem habent ſanguinarium, ex hoc liquere poteſt. Nam quod calidius eſt, id refrigeratione indiget vberiori. Adde etiam quòd ſpiritus ad originem caloris cordi inditi, facilè commeat.

CAPVT XVI.

Cordis ſitus, & mortis cauſa.

VErùm quemadmodum cor ad pulmonem foraminibus peruium ſit, tum ex diſſectionibus, tum ex hiſtoriis quæ de animalibus ſcriptæ ſunt, contemplari oportet. Omnino igitur animantium natura refrigerationem deſiderat, ob animæ in corde incendium. eam autem per reſpirationem moliri ſolent animalia, quæ non tantùm cor habent, ſed etiam pulmonem. At quæ cor habent, ſed pulmone vacant, vti piſces: aqua per branchias refrigerantur, quòd eorum natura aquatilis ſit. Qualiter autem ſitus cordis ad branchias ſeſe habeat, ad oculum per diſſectiones ſpectari debet exactè per hiſtorias. Vt autem vel nunc ſummatim dicatur, ſeſe ad hunc habet modum. Cor enim pedeſtribus animantibus & piſcibus non ſimilem ſitum tenere videatur, ſimilem tamen obtinet. Nam quo piſcium capita eminent, eodem cordis mucro ſpectat. at cùm capita nequaquam eodem proſpectent, tam pedeſtribus quàm piſcibus cor ſuum mucronem ad os iactitat. Ac fiſtula venæ & nerui faciem repræſentans, de cordis extremo ad medium illud tendit, vbi branchiæ omnes inter ſe coeunt, copulantúrque. hæc igitur ampliſſima eſt. Sed & aliæ de vtraque parte cordis ad branchiarum extrema ſingularum tendunt, per quas in cor refrigeratio penetrat, diſcurſatice ſemper aqua per branchias. Porro quemadmodum branchiæ piſcibus: ſic reſpirantibus thorax, crebrò ſurſum deorſúmque mouetur, cùm ea ſpiritum accipiunt reddúntque. Item quæ ſpirant, in pauco & eodem aëre: quæ vero aquatilia ſunt, in pauca eadémque aqua ſtrangulari ſolent. nam eorum vtrumque celeriter calidum redditur. calefacit enim vtrumque contactus ſanguinis, qui cùm calidus eſt, refrigerationem præpedit. Quin etiam cùm ſpirantia pulmonem, aquatilia branchias mouere non poſſunt, ob affectionem ſenúmve, tum ea mori contingit.

CAPVT XVII.

De vita ac morte, eorumdémque cauſis.

VT igitur ortus animalibus communis omnibus eſt, ita mors: ſed modi eius, ſpecie diſcrepant. non enim corruptio ipſa differentiarum expers eſt: quanquam quippiam commune habet. nam mors altera violenta eſt, altera naturalis. Violenta, cùm principium extrinſecus aduenit: Naturalis, cùm idem in ipſo animali eſt, & particulæ conſtitutio talis eſt, qualis ab initio erat, nec affectio vlla ſuperuenit. Hæc igitur in plantis, ariditas appellatur: in animantibus, ſenecta. Fit autem mors & corruptio, perfectis omnibus eodem modo: imperfectis verò conſimiliter quidem, ſed alio modo. Imperfecta voco, vt oua, & ea plantarum ſemina quæ radice carent. Omnibus igitur corruptio obuenit, ob caloris defectum: ſed perfectis, in eo in quo eſſentiæ principium habetur. hoc autem id eſt, vt antè diximus, in quo ſuperum & inferum coeunt:

CAPVT XX.

De palpitatione, pulſu, reſpiratione, cordi accidentibus.

POrrò quæ cordi accidere ſolent, ea tria ſunt: quæ eandem habere naturam videntur, quamuis eandem non habeant, videlicet palpitatio, pulſus, reſpiratio. Palpitatio igitur eſt, caloris in corde exiſtentis compulſio, ob refrigerationem, quæ à materia excreſcente atque inutili, aut alio quopiam tabifico proueniat: vt in eo morbo accidit, quem tremorem vocant, & aliis, & metu. etenim C metuentibus, partes ſuperiores refrigerantur. Calor autem defugiens, ſeque contrahens, motum facit: vbi in anguſtum adeò compellitur, vt animantes interdum præ metu aut morbo extinguantur. At pulſatio, quam cor perpetuò facere videtur, ei motioni perſimilis eſt, quam tubercula cum dolore efficiunt, quòd ſanguini mutatio ipſa præter naturam ſit. ea verò fit, vſque dum ſanguis concoctus ſit, & in pus conuerſus. Hæc etiam affectio feruori ſimilis eſt. fit enim feruor, cùm humor caloris opera inflatur. nam humor propterea ſeſe attollit, quod in molem aſſurgat ampliorem. Cæterùm quies in tuberculis agitur, ſi putrefactio non perſpiret, humore craſſiuſculo reddito, feruor verò D reſidet, ſi per labra vaſculi humor excidat. In ipſo autem corde tumefactio humoris, qui ſemper è cibo accedit, vltimam cordis tunicam eleuantis, pulſum facit: atque hoc ſemper ſine vlla intermiſſione fit. nam ſemper humor, ex quo natura ſanguinis oritur, continuè influit. primùm enim in corde gignitur: id quod in prima generatione liquidò conſtat. nam venis nondum diſtinctis, ſanguinem habere cernitur. Et ob id iunioribus magis quàm ſenioribus pulſat: vtpote quibus diuaporatio maior fiat. CAPVT II.

Præmunit futuram diſputationem tribus hypotheſibus. Prima eſt, Naturam nihil fruſtra facere: Altera, Dimenſiones magnitudinum eſſe ſex: Tertia, Motionum per locum initium eſſe impulſum & tractum.

PErſcrutationis autem principium eſt, ſupponentibus illa nobis quibus vti ſæpenumero in phyſico negotio ſoliti ſumus, accipere ſcilicet ea quæ in omnibus naturæ operibus eodem ſe habent modo. Illorum autem vnum eſt, naturam nihil fruſtra facere, ſed ſemper ex iis quæ cuique animalium generis eſſentiæ contingunt, id quod optimum eſt. B Quamobrem ſi meliùs hoc modo, ita natura ſe habet. Præterea magnitudinum dimenſiones quot qualéſve qualibus inexiſtunt, ſumere oportet. Sunt enim dimenſiones quidem ſex, paria verò tria: vnum quidem ſummum & imum: alterum ante & retro: tertium autem dextrum & ſiniſtrum. Ad hæc autem quòd motionum per locum initia ſunt impulſus, & tractus. hæc enim per ſe ſunt: ex accidenti autem mouetur quod ab alio fertur. non enim ipſum ſemet mouere videtur, ſed ab alio moueri, quod fertur ab alio.

CAPVT III.

Exponit modos quibus animalia in ea quæ per locum eſt motione, vtuntur. Deinde monet, omne quod mouetur, duabus minimùm organicis partibus ad motionem vti.

IIS autem conſtitutis, quæ deinceps ſunt, dicamus. Animalium profectò quæcunque loco mouentur, alia quidem toto ſimul corpore mouentur, vt illa quæ ſaltu locum mutant: alia verò per partes, vt quæcunque progreſſibus vtuntur. In vtriſque autem huiuſmodi mutationibus ſemper mutatur id quod mouetur, innisum ad id quod illi ſubiacet. Quamobrem ſiue id citiùs dilabatur quàm vt inniti poſſit id quod ſuper eum D mouetur: ſiue nullum omnino motis præbeat firmamentum, nihil ſuper illud ſe ipſum mouere poterit. Etenim quod ſaltu mouetur, & ad ſe ipſum quod ſupra eſt innisum, & ad id quod pedibus ſubiacet, ſaltum planè facit. Reniſus enim quoſdam ad ſe inuicem habent partes in ipſis flexuris, & omnino ad depreſſum id quod deprimit. Quamobrem pentathli plus ſaliunt ſi halteras habuerint, quàm ſi non habuerint: & qui currunt, citiùs currunt ſi manus commouerint. Niſus namque fit quidam in extenſione ad manus & articulos. Semper autem illud quod mouetur, duabus ad minus organicis vtens partibus mutationem efficit, vt altera quaſi comprimat, altera verò E comprimatur. quod enim ſtat, comprimitur, quoniam fert. quod autem eleuatur, extenditur ad id quod pondus ſuſtinet. Quare nullum carens membris, hoc moueri poteſt modo. Non enim habet cùm agentium tum patientium in ſe partium diſtinctionem.

CAPVT IV.

Explicat quanam ex viuentium numero omnes ſex habent dimenſiones, & quæ illarum quatuor, item quæ duo tantum: & de harum dimenſionum coniugationibus.

QVoniam autem dimenſiones numero quidem ſunt ſex, ex quibus diſtermінari omne natum eſt animal, ſummum videlicet & imum: antè & retro: præterea dextrum & ſiniſtrum: ſummum certè & imum omnia habent viuentia, quoniam non ſolùm in animalibus eſt ſummum & imum, ſed etiam in ſtirpibus. Diſterminantur autem opere, & non ſolum poſitura, quæ ad terram ſcilicet ſit, aut ad cælum. Vnde enim alimenti ſingulis eſt diſtributio, & incrementi acceſſus, ſummum id ſane eſt: quò autem iſthuc vltimò pergit, id eſt imum. Hoc enim initium eſt quoddam, illud verò eſt finis. Initium autem eſt id quod eſt ſummum. Atqui ſtirpibus quidem proprium videri poterit magis id quod eſt imum. Non ſimiliter enim poſitura ſe habent ſummum & imum in iis, & in animalibus. Ad vniuerſum namque non ſimili ſe habent modo: ſecundùm opus autem, ſimiliter. Radices enim ſummum habent in ſtirpibus. namque inde diſtribuitur alimentum iis quæ terra naſcuntur, & illis id accipiunt, vt ore animalia. Quæcunque autem non ſolùm viuunt, ſed animalia etiam ſunt, huiuſmodi omnibus antè & retro inſunt. Senſum etenim iſthæc omnia habent: per ante autem & retro diſterminantur. In quo enim natus eſt eſſe ſenſus, & vnde eſt ſingulis, anteriora huiuſcemodi exiſtunt: iis autem oppoſita, poſteriora. Quæcunque verò animalium non ſolùm ſenſu ſunt prædita, ſed mouere etiam poſſunt ſeſe ea quæ per locum eſt mutatione, in iis ad ea quæ dicta ſunt, ſiniſtrum & dextrum diſterminantur ſimili modo vt illa quæ dicta ſunt priùs, cùm opere ſcilicet & non poſitura eorum vtrumque ſit ſeiugatum. Vnde enim mutationis per locum corporis naturaliter eſt initium, id vnicuique dextrum eſt: oppoſitum verò & quod hoc conſequi natum eſt, ſiniſtrum. Hoc autem in aliis quidem magis, in aliis verò minùs diſtinctum eſt. Quæcunque enim inſtrumentalibus vtentia partibus, pedibus inquam aut alis, aut id generis alio quopiam, ſupradictam efficiunt mutationem, in illis profectò diſtinctum eſt magis quod dictum eſt. Quæcunque verò non iis partibus, ſed ipſo diſtantias facientia corpore progrediuntur, cuiuſmodi nonnulla ſunt quæ pedibus carent, vt ſerpentes, & erucarum genus, & illa etiam quæ terræ vocant inteſtina, iis certè omnibus ineſt quod dictum eſt: verùm ſimiliter non eſt manifeſtum. Quòd autem à dextris motionis eſt initium, indicium eſt, omnes ferre onera in ſiniſtris. Sic enim moueri contingit illud quod fert, cùm abſolutum ſit ipſum mouens. Quamobrem qui ſubſultim vno mouentur pede, faciliùs id in ſiniſtris faciunt. Mouere etenim natum eſt dextrum: moueri autem ſiniſtrum. Quapropter onus non in mouentem partem, ſed in motam inſidere oportet. Si enim in ipſo mouente & motionis principio imponatur, aut non mouebit penitus, aut difficiliùs mouebit. Signum autem quod à dextris motionis ſit initium, ipſæ pedum ſunt proiectiones. Omnes enim quæ ſiniſtra ſunt, proiiciunt.

A Stantes quinetiam ſiniſtra protendunt magis, niſi quid aliter fortè contingat. Non enim à proiecta mouentur parte, ſed ab ea quæ eſt abducta: eóque etiam modo dextra tuentur. Ac propterea eædem in omnibus dextræ ſunt partes. Vnde enim initium eſt motus, idem eſt omnibus, & in eodem omnibus naturaliter ſitum habet. Dextrum autem eſt vnde initium eſt motus. Et eam ob rem in oſtreaceo genere quæcunque ſunt turbinata, vndique dextra ſunt. non enim ad vertiginem mouentur, ſed aduerſum omnia procedunt, vt purpuræ, & buccini. Diſcretis autem dextris, rationabiliter ſiniſtra & ad motum pigriora ſunt, & abſoluta maximè in iſtis. Et alia ſanè initia ſecundùm naturam maximè ſunt diſcreta, ſummum videlicet, & ante.

CAPVT V.

De partibus anterioribus & poſterioribus: item ſuperioribus & inferioribus.

C IN quibus igitur ſummum & ante ſunt diſcreta, vt in hominibus, & auibus, hæc certè ſunt bipeda. Ex quatuor autem duo ſunt notæ, iis quidem alæ, illis verò manus & brachia. Quæcunque autem ad idem, ſummum habent & ante, quadrupeda & multipeda, & apeda. Pedem autem appello partem illam quæ ad pedeſtrem eſt notam, motricem per locum. Nomen namque videntur à pedo, hoc eſt, ſolo, deduxiſſe pedes. Nulla autem priorem & poſteriorem partem in idem habent: vt ex piſcibus mollia, & turbinata ex oſtreaceis. Dictum eſt autem de eiuſmodi priùs in aliis. Cùm autem tria ſint loca, ſummum, medium, & imum: bi- D peda quidem ſummum habent ad id quod in vniuerſo eſt ſummum: multipeda verò & apeda ad medium: ſtirpes autem ad imum. Cauſa autem ea eſt, quoniam illæ quidem non mouentur: ad alimentum autem eſt id quod ſummum eſt: alimentum verò iis è terra eſt. Quadrupeda autem ad medium, & multipeda, & apeda, quia non ſunt erecta: bipeda autem ad id quod ſummum eſt, quoniam erecta ſunt, maximè autem homo, quoniam maximè ſecundùm naturam eſt bipes. Rationabiliter autem initia ab huiuſmodi dicuntur partibus. Initium namque nobile eſt. Summum verò imo, & prius poſteriori, & dextrum ſiniſtro ſunt nobi- E liora. Secundùm ante igitur & retro, in eo quod ſe ipſum mouet, nulla talis eſt diſtinctio, quoniam nulli retroverſus naturalis eſt motio: neque diſterminationem id quod mouetur habet vllam per quam ad horum vtrumque efficiat mutationem: ſecundùm dextrum autem & ſiniſtrum, ſummúmq; & imum, reperitur. Quamobrem ex animalibus quæcunque membris vtentia organicis progrediuntur, anterioris & poſterioris diſcrimine non ſunt diſterminata, ſed duobus reliquis, in primis verò illo quod ſecundùm dextrum ſeparatur & ſiniſtrum: quoniam hoc quidem in duobus ſtatim ineſſe neceſſe eſt, illud verò in quatuor primis. Quoniam igitur ſummum & imum, necnon dextrum & ſiniſtrum eodem & communi ad ſe inuicem ſunt copulata principio: (dico autem illud quod motionis eſt princeps:) oportet autem in omni quod à quocunque decenter efficere debet motum, terminari quodam modo, & interuallis ordinariis, ſcilicet quæ ad prædicta ſunt principia, ſiue contrario ſeu eodem ordine ſe habentia eorum quæ in illis ſunt membris: id quod motionum eſt cauſa omnium. Hoc autem eſt, à quo communi principio in animali cùm dextrorſum, tum ſiniſtrorſum, tum ſimiliter ſurſum & deorſum eſt motio. extenſo tempore ſingulis viuere poſſunt partibus: iis quinetiam agitari motionibus quibus antequam receiſa eſſent, mouebantur: vt eæ quæ vocantur ſcolopendræ, & alia inſectorum & prælongorum genera. In huiuſmodi namque omnibus poſterior pars eodem tendere videtur, quo prior. Cauſa autem eſt quòd iſthæc diſſecta viuant, quòd perinde illorum quodcunque eſt conſtitutum, ac ſi quippiam ex multis compoſitum coniunctúmque eſſet animalibus. Cur autem hoc ſe habent modo, palam eſt ex iis quæ dicta ſunt priùs. Duabus enim aut quatuor notis moueri nata ſunt quæ natura conſtant maximè. Similique modo quæcunque ſanguine prædita pedibus carent. iſthæc enim omnia quaternis mouentur notis, per quas loco ſe commouent. duobus namque vt plurimùm vtentia flexibus procedunt. Dextrum enim & ſiniſtrum, priùs & poſteriùs in latitudine exiſtunt: & in vtroque illorum inflexu, in parte quidem ad caput vergente anterior eſt nota, cùm dextra tum ſiniſtra: in illa autem quæ ad caudam ſpectat, poſteriores ſunt notæ. Videntur autem iſthæc duabus moueri notis, per priorem ſcilicet contactum, & per poſteriorem. Cauſa autem eſt, quoniam anguſtum eſt latitudine id animalium genus. Namque in iis etiam dextrum præcedit, viciſſimque redditur poſterius, vt in quadrupedibus. Inflexionum autem cauſa eſt longitudo. Quemadmodum enim valde proceri homines gradiuntur incurui, & dextro humero in priorem partem vergente, ſiniſtra coxa ad poſteriorem magis recedit, mediúmque concauum fit & incuruum: ita intelligere oportet ſerpentes incuruis notis ſupra terram ſe mouere, & quòd ſimiliter mouentur vt quadrupedes. viciſſim enim commutant concauum & curuum. Quando verò rurſus ſiniſtrum anteriùs procedit, ex contrario rurſus concauum fit. Dextrum enim interius fit denuo. Prior dextra nota vbi a, ſiniſtra vbi b. Dextra poſterior vbi c, ſiniſtra vbi d. Sic autem mouentur ex terreſtribus quidem ſerpentes, ex aquatilium verò genere anguillæ, & congri, & murænæ, & alia prætereà quæcunque ſerpentium formam referunt. Verùm ex aquatilibus quædam pinnas non habent, vt ſunt murænæ, ſed mari perinde vtuntur vt terra ſerpentes & mari. Natant enim eodem ſerpentes modo, quo in terra mouentur. Nonnulla autem duas ſolùm habent pinnulas, vt congri ſunt & anguillæ, & mugilum genus qui in Sipharum lacu naſcuntur. Quamobrem paucioribus mouentur inflexibus in humore & in terra, quæcunque in terra viuere aſſueta ſunt, vt anguillarum eſt genus. Ex mugilum verò genere quicunque duas habent pinnas, corporum inflexione quaternas in humore exæquant notas.

poſſe notis. Ex iis enim manifeſtum eſt quòd ex ſanguine præditis quæcunque ob longitudinem ad reliquam corporis naturam ſunt enormia, vt ſerpentes, haudquaquam pedeſtria eſſe poſſe. Plures enim quàm quatuor pedes illa habere non eſt poſſibile: exanguia namque eſſent. Si verò duos aut quatuor haberent pedes, immobilia ferè penitus eſſent: adeo neceſſe eſſet illorum motum eſſe tardum, & vſui ineptum. Omne autem pedeſtre animal pares neceſſariò habet pedes. Quæcunque enim ſolo ſaltu eam quæ per locum eſt, faciunt mutationem, nihil ſanè pedibus ad huiuſmodi indigent motum. Quæcunque verò ſaltu quidem vtuntur, ipſis autem is ſufficiens non eſt motus, ſed progreſſu etiam indigent: certum eſt quòd iis quidem melius, illis verò impoſſibile penitus progredi, quoniam omne animal pares habere pedes neceſſe eſt. Cùm enim talis per partes ſit mutatio, & non toto ſimul corpore, vt eſt ſaltus: neceſſe eſt has quidem commutatis pedibus manere, illas verò moueri, & oppoſitis vtrunque horum præſtare, commutans à motis partibus pondus ad illas quæ permanent. Quamobrem neque tribus vtens, neque vno, vllum ingredi poteſt animal. Hoc enim nullum penitus habet fulcrum quo corporis ſuſtineat pondus: illud verò in altera oppoſitionum laborat: quare neceſſe eſt ipſum ita ſe mouere tentans, ruere. Quæcunque autem ſunt multipeda, vt ſcolopendræ, hæc certò imparibus progredi poſſunt pedibus, quemadmodum moueri conſpiciuntur ſi illorum quiſpiam vnum decurtauerit pedem: quoniam contraſtantium mutilationi pedum, illorum frequentiâ qui in alia ſtant parte, ſuccurritur. Fit enim in illis vt mutilati membri tractus ab aliis, & non progreſſio. Attamen manifeſtum eſt quòd melius iſthæc ipſa mutationem efficerent ſi pares haberent pedes, nulloque deficiente contra ſe ſtantes omnes haberent pedes. Ita enim magis æquari poterit pondus neque in alteram partem declinare, ſi contra ſe ſtantia habuerint fulcra, nullúmque oppoſitorum vacuum locum. Procedit autem ab vtraque ſui parte alternatim id quod ingreditur. Ita enim ad eum qui in principio fuit ſitum ſit reſtitutio. Quòd igitur pares habent omnia pedes, & quam ob cauſam, dictum eſt.

In omnibus autem dictis mutationibus ad vnum neceſſe eſt ſignum rectitudinem fieri. Verumenimvero flexu non exiſtente, neque progreſſio, neque volatus, neq; natatus ſanè erunt. Etenim habentia pedes, quoniam ſuper vtrumque oppoſitorum crurum viciſſim ſtant, pondúſque ſuſtinent, neceſſe habêt altero progrediente inflectere alterum. æqualia namque longitudine nata ſunt habere oppoſita membra: & quod ponderi ſubſtat, rectum eſſe oportet, vt perpendiculum ad

A terram. Quando autem progreditur, fit hypotenuſa valens manentem magnitudinem, & eam quæ interiacet. Quoniam autem æqualia ſunt membra, neceſſe eſt inflecti id quod manet, aut in poplite, aut in conflexione: vt ſi quippiam eorum quæ progrediuntur, genibus careat. Signum autem quòd hoc ita ſe habeat, id eſt: Si quis enim iuxta parietem per terram ambulet, quæ deſignatur linea, non eſt recta, ſed obtorta, quoniam minorem quidem flectentis fieri deſcriptam neceſſe eſt, ſtantis autem & erecti maiorem. Contingit autem ſanè crure inflexum non habente moueri, quemadmodum infantes reptant: & de elephantis antiquus huiuſmodi erat ſermo, haudquaquam verus: quippe cùm id B genus omne moueatur inflexione in humeris facta aut coxis. Verùm rectum progredi nullum poteſt continuè & firmiter: moueri autem poterit, vt in palæſtra ij qui per puluerẽ genibus reptant. Ampla eſt enim ſuperior pars, quamobrem magnum etiã debet eſſe membrum. Si autem hoc, flexum eſſe neceſſe eſt. Quoniam enim ſtat ad rectum, vel concidet recto minore effecto, vel non progredietur. Si enim altero crure recto progreditur, alterum maius erit, cùm ſit æquale. Hoc namque poterit & id quod quieſcit, & ipſam hypotenuſam. Neceſſe igitur eſt & inflectere id quod procurrit, & inflexum ſimul alterum extendere. Membra enim æquilaterum trigonum efficiuntur, capútque fit C inferius vbi perpendiculum fuerit in quo firmatur. Quæcunque verò pedibus carent, alia quidem vndoſo procedunt motu. Id autem bifariàm accidit. nam alia quidem ſuper terram, vt ſerpentes, inflectuntur: alia verò supernè curuantur, vt erucæ. Vndoſus autem ille motus, inflexus eſt. Alia verò attractu vtuntur, vt lumbrici, qui terræ inteſtina appellantur, & hirudines. iſthæc etenim parte quidem priore procedunt, reliquúmque corpus ad illam trahunt, illóque modo loca commutant. Manifeſtum autem quòd niſi duæ maiores vna eſſent, animalia illa quæ vndoſo procedunt inflexu, minimè moueri poſſent. Flexu enim extenſo ſi æqualem occuparet, nihil ſanè proceſſiſ- D ſent: verùm extenſus ſuperat: & quieſcente iſto quod reliquum eſt, adducit. In omnibus autem dictis mutationibus id quod mouetur, tum extenſum ad rectum, tum incuruatum progreditur. partibus quidem prioribus rectum factum, poſterioribus verò incuruum. Quæcunque etiam ſaltu vtuntur animalia, flexum in inferna corporis parte faciunt, & hoc ſaliunt modo. Volantia quinetiam & natantia omnia, illa quidem alas tum dirigentia, tum inflectentia volant. Hæc autem id pinnis faciunt. Et in iis alia quidem quatuor, alia verò duabus, quæcunque corpore ſunt oblongiore, vt anguillarum eſt genus. Nam reliquam pro duabus pinnis motionem reſidua corporis parte incuruata perficiunt, quemadmodum dictum eſt priùs. Plani E autem piſces tum pinnarum loco corporis vtuntur latitudine, tum verò pinnulis duabus. CAPVT X.

DVbitare autem quis ſanè poſſet quonam modo aues quaternis moueantur notis, vel dum volant, vel dum ambulant, quaſi dictum ſit quòd ſanguine prædita omnia quatuor mouentur notis. At hoc dictum non eſt, ſed quòd non pluribus. Verumenimvero neque volare poterunt membris ablatis, neque ambulare alis detractis. Nam neque ipſe niſi commotis humeris ambulat homo. Verùm omnia (quemadmodum eſt prædictum) mutationem inflexu & extenſione faciunt. omnia enim in ſuppoſito & quaſi cedente quodamtenus progrediuntur. Quamobrem neceſſe eſt, niſi in alia inflexus fiat parte, at ſaltem vnde eſt principium, iis quidem quæ membranaceas habent alas, ipſius membranæ: auibus autem, ipſarum alarum: cæteris verò, earum partium quæ iſtis proportione reſpondent, vt piſcibus. Nonnullis autem, vt ſunt ſerpentes, in corporum curuaturis inflexionis ineſt principium. Vropygium autem volatili ineſt generi ad dirigendos volatus, vt nauigiis gubernacula: quod neceſſe eſt etiam in ipſa inflecti adhæſione. Quamobrem & illa quæ ex membrana integras habent alas, & illa quæ pennis quidem diſcretas eas habent, verùm vropygium ad eiuſmodi vſum illis eſt ineptum, (vt pauones exiſtunt, & gallinacei, & omnino quæ volacia non ſunt) haudquaquam directè volare poſſunt. Ex iis etenim quæ ex membrana integras habent alas, nulla omnino vropygium habent: quamobrem, vt gubernaculo carens nauigium, feruntur quocunque fors tulerit vnumquodque impactum. Similique modo vaginipenna, vt ſcarabæi, & melolonthæ, & ea quæ nullo inuolucro recondunt pennas, vt apes, & veſpæ. Præterea etiam ex volucrum genere illa quibus inutile eſt vropygium, vt porphyriones, & erodij, & omnes aquaticæ volucres vropygij vice extenſis volant cruribus, illiſque ad dirigendos volatus vtuntur pro vropygio. Vaginipenno autem generi tardus & imbecillis eſt volatus, quoniam ad corporis pondus non ex proportione alarum habent naturam: ſed illud quidem grande eſt, alæ verò paruæ & imbecilles. Quemadmodum igitur ſi quis onerariam nauim remis tentet propellere, ſimili iſthæc modo volatu vtuntur: & alarum naturæque imbecillitas ad id nonnihil facere videtur. Inter aues autem pauoni quidem vropygium quandoque ob magnitudinem nulli vſui eſt: quandoque verò, quoniam decidit, nihil iuuare poteſt. Contrario autem ſe habent modo aues in alarum natura, ad ea quæ integras ex membrana habent alas: maximè autem quæ ex eis ſunt præpetes. Huiuſmodi verò ſunt quæ incuruos habent vngues. Harum namque volandi pernicitas vitæ vſui eſt. Apta autem ad peculiarem illis motum cætera corporis videntur eſſe membra. omnibus enim paruum eſt caput, collum craſſum, pectus cùm validum, tum acutum: & acutum quidem, vt bene viam paret, quaſi lembi prora: validum verò carnis obeſitate, vt incurſantem propellere poſſit aërem, idque ex facili, & nullo labore. Quæ verò retro ſunt, leuia, & in anguſtum rurſus coëuntia,

CAPVT XI.

Docet, neceſſe eſſe vt animalia quæ recta debeant incedere, bipeda ſint, & partes inferiores corporis grauiores, ſuperiores autem leuiores habeant.

QVòd autem erectum ambulare debet animal, quod quidem neceſſariò ſit bipes, & ſupernas corporis habeat partes leuiores, grauiores B autem eas quæ illis ſubſtant, eſt manifeſtum. Eo enim ſolùm ſe habens modo ſe ipſum facilè ferre poterit. Quamobrem ſolus inter animalia homo erectus exiſtens crura habet ad ſupernas corporis partes ex pedeſtribus maxima & firmiſſima. Quod ſanè palàm facit id quod infantibus accidit: non enim erecti ambulare poſſunt, quoniam omnes ſunt pumiliones, maioreſque & valentiores quàm dictet ratio ſummas inis corporis habent partes: procedente verò ætate infima maius accipiunt incrementum, donec ad iuſtam perueniant magnitudinem: túmque erecti ambulare poſſunt. Aues autem cùm ſint leues, bipedes exiſtunt, quoniam retro verſus illis eſt onus, ceu æneos faciunt equos qui priora ſurſum elata habent crura. Cauſa au- C tem cur maximè bipedes exiſtentes aues ſtare valeant, eſt quoniam habent clunem femori ſimilem, talémque, vt duo videantur habere femora, id ſcilicet quod eſt in crure antè inflexum: & illud quod à ſedis loco ad hanc tendit partem. Eſt autem non femur, ſed clunis. Niſi enim eſſet tanta, auis ſanè bipes non eſſet. Quemadmodum enim hominibus, & quadrupedum generi, ſi ab exigua ſtatim coxa eſſet femur & reliquum crus, valde profectò ad lapſus pronum illarum eſſet corpus. Nunc autem longa exiſtens ad medium vſque protenditur ventrem. Quamobrem ibidem ſuffulta crura vniuerſum geſtant corpus. Manifeſtúmque etiam ex iis eſt quòd erectæ perinde ac homines nequeunt eſſe aues. Alarum enim natura ita ſe D habente corpore, illis eſt vtilis. Quòd ſi erectæ eſſent, ad nullum ſanè eſſet vſum: quales alatos pingunt Amores. Simúlque ex iis quæ dicta ſunt, palàm eſt neque hominem neque aliud quippiam tali figura alatum eſſe poſſe: non ſolùm quoniam pluribus quàm quatuor moueretur notis ſanguine præditum animal, ſed quoniam is alarum habitus illis naturaliter motis nulli vſui eſſe poſſet. Natura autem nihil contra naturam facit.

CAPVT XII.

QVòd igitur niſi inflexus eſſet in cruribus, aut humeris, aut coxis, nullum ſanguine pedibuſque præditum progredi poſſet animal, priùs eſt dictum, ſimilique modò quòd nullo quieſcente nullus eſſe poſſet inflexus: & quòd homines, cùm ſint bipedes, & aues contrariis crurum vtuntur inflexibus. Quinetiam quòd quadrupedes contrario ad ſe ipſos & ad homines inflectant modo.

Homines etenim brachia quidem ad concauum inflectunt: crura verò ad conuexum: quadrupedes autem priora quidem crura ad conuexum: poſteriora verò ad concauum: ſimilique modo aues. Cauſa autem eſt, quoniam (vt dictum eſt priùs) nihil temerè efficit natura, ſed omnia ex iis quæ fieri contingunt, ad id quod eſt melius. Cùm igitur omnibus quibus pedum opera naturaliter ineſt is qui per locum eſt motus, ſtante quidem vnoquoque pondus illic eſt, motis autem in ante, præuium ſitu pedem oportet eſſe leuem: continuata verò progreſſione, rurſum in illum pondus reſumere, manifeſtum eſt id eſſe neceſſarium, eo quòd tum crus inflectitur, tum rurſum rectum efficitur manente ſecundùm protenſum pedem ſigno & tibia ipſa. Hoc autem ſimul contingere, & progredi animal. Quòd ſi præcedens quidem crus flexum in ante habuerit, fieri poteſt: ſi retro, non eſt poſſibile. Sic enim antè lato corpore cruris erit extenſio: illo autem modo, ſi retro feratur. Præterea etiam flexu retro verſus exiſtente duobus fieret motibus ipſa pedum poſitura ſibi inuicem contrariis: altera quidem retro: altera verò ante. Neceſſarium enim eſt in cruris inflexione, femoris quidem extremum retrorſum deducere: tibiam verò ab inflexu pedum in ante mouere. Quòd ſi in ante inflexus fuerit, neque contrariis motibus, & vno qui in ante eſt, prædicta continget progreſſio. Et homo quidem bipes exiſtens, locáque naturaliter cruribus permutans, ob retro dictam cauſam in ante flectit crura: brachia verò non ſine ratione ad concauum. Contrario enim inflexa modo inutilia ſanè eſſent cùm ad manuum vſum, tum ad aſſumendos cibos. Quadrupedes autem quæ animal pariunt, priora quidem crura, quoniam progreſſioni illorum ſunt præuia, & in priori eadem corporis ſunt parte, neceſſariò ad curuum inflectunt, ea de cauſa qua homines. In hoc enim ſimili ſe habent modo: quamobrem & ipſi in ante flectunt quadrupedes quo dictum eſt modo. Ita enim inflexu facto multùm attollere poterunt crura. Contrario autem flectentes modo, modicum à terra illa attollere poterunt, quoniam & totum femur, & inflexus ille cui adhæret tibia, progrediente illo ſub ventre dantur. Poſteriorum verò crurum ſiquidem eſſet in ante inflexio, pedum certè eleuatio ſimiliter ſe haberet vt in prioribus. Ad modicum enim illorum eſſet elatio, cùm femur, inflexióque ipſa ſub ventris caderent locum. Si autem retrouerſus, vt nunc inflectunt, nulli illis ad progreſſionem ſunt impedimento in huiuſmodi pedum motu. Præterea earum ex numero quæ fœtus lacte nutriunt, ad talem operam vel neceſſe vel melius eſt crura ſic inflecti. non enim facile iis eſſet, ſi intrinſecus crura inflecterent, ſub ſe habere ſobolem, & fouere.

CAPVT XIV.

Cur omnes quadrupedes per diametrum moueantur, & quòd non quadrupedes ſolùm, ſed omnia etiam pedeſtria animalia ſic moueantur.

MOuentur autem poſteriora ad priora per diametrum. Poſt enim dextrum prius, D ſiniſtrum mouet poſterius. Ita ſiniſtrum prius, poſt illud autem dextrum poſterius. Cauſa autem eſt, quoniam ſi priora ſimul & prius, diſtraheretur ſanè, aut procidua eſſet ambulatio, & quaſi tractis extenſione poſterioribus. Præterea etiam non progreſſus huiuſmodi eſſet, ſed ſaltus. Difficile autem eſt mutationem continuam facere ſalientem. Huius autem rei ſignum, quòd citò laſſeſcunt equi illi qui hoc mouentur modo: vt ij qui in pompis agitantur, ſeorſum quidem prioribus poſterioribúſve ob hoc non mouentur. Si autem vtriſque dextris primis, extrà ſanè fulcrorum fierent ſuſtentacula, rueréntque. Si igitur eſt neceſſe aut iſtorum v- E trouis modorum motionem fieri, aut per diametrum, neutro autem illorum contingit modorum, per diametrum motionem effici neceſſe eſt. Hoc enim mota modo, illorum neutrum pati poterunt. Et hanc ob rem equi, iſtiuſmodique cætera, ſtant ſecundùm diametrum protendentia, & non dextris aut ſiniſtris vtriſque ſimul. Eodem etiam modo quæcunque plures quaternis habent pedes, motionem faciunt. Semper enim in quatuor deinceps poſitis poſteriores ad priores per diametrum mouent. Palam autem hoc eſt in iis quæ tardè mouentur.

Cancri

Cancri quinetiam eodem mouētur modo: ex multipedum nāque ſunt genere. ij etenim ſemper per diametrum mouentur quò progredi contendunt. Peculiari nāque modo id progreditur animal. Solum enim ex animalium numero non in ante mouetur, ſed in latus. Verùm quoniam oculis id quod ante eſt, diſterminatur, eos natura commodos effecit, qui crura conſequi poſſent. In latus enim illi mouentur.* Quamobrem cancros etiam in ante quodammodo moueri contingit.

CAPVT XV.

Docet, aues crura ſua inflectere ad concauam circuli circumferentiam, ſicut & quadrupedes poſteriora crura. Quodque volantium omnium & aquatilium pinnas gerentibus, hæc motus inſtrumenta ipſorum in latus & obliquum naturaliter exeunt.

AVes autem vt quadrupedes crura inflectunt ſua. illarum namque natura ſimili ferè ſe habet modo. Auibus enim alæ priorum vicem habent crurum, quamobrem eodem inflexæ ſunt modo, vt illis priora ſunt crura. namque iis in eo qui ambulationis eſt motu, ab alis iſthæc originem habet mutatio. Volatus enim eſt harum peculiaris motio: quapropter illis ablatis neque ſtare neque progredi vlla ſanè poteſt auis. Præterea cùm bipes auium ſit genus, neque erectum, & priores corporis partes leuiores habeat: aut neceſſarium eſt, aut certè melius, vt ſtare poſſint, ſubiectum ſic habere femur, retrouerſus dico connatum. Verumenimuero ſi hoc oportebat ſe habere modo, crurum etiam inflexus ad concauum fieri neceſſe erat, ſicut in poſterioribus quadrupedum eſt cruribus, eandem ob cauſam quam de iis quæ animal pariunt, quadrupedibus, retro adduximus. Omnino autem aues omnes, & ex eo volatili genere quæcumque ex membrana integras gerunt alas: tum verò illa quæ in humore natant, inſtrumentiſque quibuſdam in humore iter faciunt, non difficile eſt animaduertere, melius ſanè illis eſſe membrorum huiuſmodi ex obliquo exortus habere, quales nunc illis ineſſe cōſpiciuntur: vt in auibus, & iis quæ membranaceas habent alas: idque ipſum in piſcibus. Auibus namque alæ, aquatilibus autem pinnæ, membranaceas autem habentibus alas membranulæ ex obliquo adhæreſcunt. Ita enim cùm celerrime, tum valentiſſimè diuidentia hæc quidem aërem, illa verò humorem, motum efficere poterunt. In ante namque & retrouerſus corporis conſequi poterunt partes, in cedenti ſcilicet tranſlatæ cùm humore, tum aërē.* Ex quadrupedum verò genere quæ cauernas ſubeunt, & oua pariunt, quales crocodili ſunt, & lacertæ, & ſtelliones, necnon lutariæ teſtudines & terreſtres, omnia iſthæc ex obliquo crura habent annexa, & humi extenſa, in obliquúmque illa inflectunt, ob ſubintrandi facilitatem, & ad ouorum incubitum & cuſtodiam. Cùm verò extra ſunt, neceſſe eſt vt protenſis femoribus & ſub ſe datis corpus attollant. Hoc autem facto illa nō aliter quàm extrinſecus inflectere poſſunt.

CAPVT XVI.

Inflexionum modos circa organica membra in multipedum genere explicat.

Ex pedeſtribus autem, quæcumque ſanguine carent, & quidem multipeda ſint, nullúmque eorum ſit quadrupes, à nobis dictum eſt prius. Quamobrem verò in illis neceſſe eſt pedes præterquam extremos ex obliquo eſſe connatos, & cùm ſurſum verſus inflexiones habere, tum ipſos obliquos retrorſum vergere, palam certè eſt. Omnium enim talium media certè crura cùm præ-B cedere, tum ſubſequi neceſſe eſt. Quod ſi hoc illis ineſt, in anteriorem profectò partem, & in poſteriorem inflexum habere oportet: quoniam quidem præcedunt, in priorem: quoniam verò ſubſequuntur, in poſteriorem. Quoniam autem ambo illi hæc illi contingere neceſſe eſt, eam ob rem torqueri, & in obliquum exire pedum inflexus neceſſe eſt, præterquàm extremorum. illi enim vt nati ſunt magis, ij quidem vt præcedant, illi verò vt ſubſequantur. Præterea hoc etiam inflectunt modo propter crurum multitudinem. Minùs enim ita in progreſſione ſibiipſis ſunt impedimento, & minùs offendunt. Eorúmque etiam ideo eſt diſtortio, quoniam cauernas ſubeant, vel omnia, vel plurima. non enim C elata hoc eſſe modo poſſunt. Cancri autem inter multipeda maximè ſunt ſpectabiles. non enim in ante progrediuntur, niſi vt dictum eſt prius: ſolique animalium multos habent præuios pedes. Huiuſce autem rei cauſa eſt tum pedum ipſorum durities, tum quòd ipſis non ad natatus vtuntur, ſed ad progreſſus. pedeſtrem enim degunt vitam. Omnium igitur multipedum in obliquum ſunt inflexus, quemadmodum ex quadrupedibus ea quæ cauernas ſubeunt, qualia ſunt lacertæ, crocodili, multaque præterea huiuſmodi quæ oua pariunt. Cauſa autem eſt, quoniam hæc quidem cauernas ſubeunt D partus tempore: alia verò per omnem vitam. Verùm aliorum quidem propter mollitudinem obtorta vacciáque fiunt crura: carabi autem cùm duri ſint tergoris, pedes ad natandum, non ad progrediendum aptos habent. Cancrorum autem inflexus in obliquum agitur: & etiam eſt obtortus & vaccius, vt ouiparis, & ſanguine præditis, & multipedibus, quoniam prædura ſunt & oſtreacea eiuſmodi membra, cùm neque natent, & cauernas ſubeant. Iuxta terram namque illis eſt vita. Rotundæ quinetiam figuræ eſt cancer, neque caudam habet, quemadmodum carabus. Ad natandum namque carabis vtilis eſt cauda. is autem non eſt natatilis: ſimilémque poſtremæ parti obliquã habet par-E tem, quoniam multos præuios habet pedes. Cuius rei cauſa eſt, quoniam neque in ante inflectit, neque obtorquetur. Cauſa autem cur torqueatur, dicta eſt prius, durities ſcilicet, & oſtreaceum tergus. Propter hæc igitur omnes habere præuios, & in obliquum neceſſe eſt. In obliquum quidem, quoniam inflexio eſt in obliquum: omnes autem præuios, quoniam quieſcentes pedes, iis qui mouentur, impedimento ſanè eſſent. Piſces autem ij qui paſſerina ſunt figura, eodem modo natant quo monoculi ambulant. Diſtorta etenim illorum eſt natura: auium autem planipedes pedibus natant. Quæ quoniam aërem admittunt, & reſpirant, bipedes ſunt. Quia verò in humore vitam agunt, planipedes ſunt. Pro pinnis enim vſui illis ſunt pedes eiuſmodi exiſtentes. Crura autem habent non vt aliæ in medio, ſed retrorſum magis. Cùm enim breuia habeant crura, ſi retrouerſus illa fuerint, ad natatum ſunt commoda. Breuibus autem ſunt cruribus eiuſmodi aues: quoniam quod crurum longitudini dempſit natura, pedibus appoſuit, & pro longitudine cruribus craſſitudinem, & pedibus latitudinem dedit. Vſui enim magis craſſa ſunt quàm longa ad propellendum humorem cùm natant.

CAPVT XVIII.

De conuenientia quæ eſt inter organica membra piſcium atque auium.

Recta etiam ratione volucres quidem pedes habent, piſces verò illis carent. Volucribus enim vita in ſicco eſt, ſublimes autem ſemper manere haudquaquam poſſunt: quamobrem vt pedes habeant, neceſſe eſt. Piſcibus autem in humore vita eſt, & aquam admittunt, non aërem. Pinnæ igitur illis ad natandum commodæ, pedes verò inutiles. Quòd ſi vtraque haberent, ſanguine certè carerent. Aues autem quodammodo & piſces ſimiliter ſe habent. Auibus namque alę in ſuperiori ſunt parte, illis verò pinnæ duæ parte prona. Et auibus quidem in ſupina corporis parte ſunt pedes: illis verò in ſupinis iuxta pronas pinnæ ſunt pluribus. Et aues prętereà vropygium habent, illi verò caudam.

CAPVT XIX.

Quæſtio de motu oſtreaceorum, & eiuſdem ſolutio.

De oſtreaceis autem ambigere quiſpiam ſanè poſſet, quiſnam illorum ſit motus: & ſi neque dextrum habent, neque ſiniſtrum, vnde moueri incipiant. Videntur autem moueri. An vt mutilum vniuerſum iſtuc ſtatuere oportet genus, & eo moueri modo ac ſi quis pedeſtrium crura decurtauerit, vt vitulus marinus, & veſpertilio. Iſthæc enim quadrupeda ſunt, ſed peruersè. Oſtreacea autem mouentur quidem, verùm præter naturam mouentur. non enim mobilia ſunt: ſed vt ſubſtantia quidem & hærentia, mobilia: vt progredientia verò, ſtare videntur: cancri quinetiam perperam dextras habent partes, habent tamen. Indicio autem eſt brachium. Maius enim & robuſtius eſt dextrum, ceu ſiniſtra à dextris diſterminari cupiant. De partibus igitur cùm aliis, tum iis quæ ad inceſſum animalium faciunt, necnon ad omnem per locum mutationem, hoc ſe habet modo. His autem ſic determinatis proximum eſt de anima contemplari.

CAPVT I.

Quanam ſpiritus natiui duratio ſit, & quæ ipſius auctio, an concoctio cibi aſſumpti ſit cauſa.

QVænam ſpiritus natiui duratio eſt, & quæ ipſius auctio? Nam liquidò experimur, quòd tum pro ætatis mutatione, tum pro conſtitutione corporis, & auctior fieri conſueuit, & fortior. An ne, vt & partes cæteræ foris accidente quopiam? B Sic alimentum his appoſitum, quæ animam habent, cõſeruat ipſa, & maiora reddit. Conſiderandum itaque hîc eſt, quale id ſit, & vnde accedat. Et ſunt modi duo, in quos referri queat. Aut enim reſpiratione iſtud fit, aut concoctione cibi aſſumpti, vt in partibus quoque cæteris. Et ex his minimè alienus videtur modus ille, quem cibi eſſe perhibent. Vt enim corporum cæterorum alitionem auctionemque, omnino è materia corporea fieri videmus, ita ſpiritus quoque auctio & alitio in corpus referetur aptiſſimè: nam & ipſe corpus eſt. Quis autem modus hic fuerit? An ne palàm eſt attractione quapiam è venis facta, & C concoctione iſtud fieri? quando ſanguis extremum atque idem vniuerſis eſt alimentum. Vt igitur ad vaſorum, & eorum quæ continentur, atque omnino ad calidi alitionem quippiam attrahitur, quod aër diſtribuit, efficaciam præbens, ſibique ipſe concoquendi vim apponens, auget nutritque: ſic hunc ipſum ſpiritum incrementum durationemque accipere, fortaſſis haud fuerit abſurdum. at quod primum eſt aliorum, & tam animæ cognatum, & fortaſſis generatione, per quam ſemina in partes fingendas ſecernuntur, & in cuiuſque naturã abeunt, ea ipſa prius eſt: id ex alimento ortum habere, abſurdũ videri queat. tale enim ſyncerius eſſe, quàm vt ita naſcatur, par fuerit. Deinde ſi omnis alimenti excremẽtum ſit aliquod, cuiuſmodi ab his aut quo pacto excretio fiat? Nam expiratione fieri, rationi conſentaneum non eſt: nam ſtatim aërem recipit. Reliquum igitur eſt, vt per arteriæ meatus. Sed tum quod excernitur, aut tenuius erit, aut craſſius: & vtrumuis abſurdum eſt. Siquidem enim hic omnium ſynceriſſimus ſit, quomodo excrementum erit tenuius? Et ſi ſit craſſius, tum fuerint meatus omnino maiores aliqui, niſi per eoſdem attractio fiat, & excrementi expulſio. Spiritus itaque ipſius auctio, & duratio ex alimento facta, hiſce ferè modis eſſe queat.

An reſpiratione incrementum & durationem ſpiritus accipiat.

QVòd autem reſpiratione incrementum & durationẽ ſpiritus accipiat, vt & Ariſtogenes eſt arbitratus, ex aëre in pulmone cõcocto, & per vaſa diſtributo, excremẽtis autem foras expulſis, id plures dubitationes habet. Primùm enim concoctio hæc à quo fiat? Ac par eſt, ab eo ipſo, vt & cæterorum. Idipſum verò abſurdũ quoque eſt, niſi ab exteriore differat aëre: quomodo calor concoqueret. Sed & ſpiſſiorem eundem eſſe rationi eſt conſentaneum, vaſorum ſcilicet & moli totius humiditate coniuncta. proinde incorpulentum quippiam abibit. at ſi tenuius fiat excrementum, rurſus præter fidem eſt. Deinde concoctionis quoque celeritas præter rationem eſt: nam inſpirationẽ illico ſequitur expiratio. Quid igitur tam velociter mutare, & alterare queat? Et putarit quiſpiam maximè calidũ eſſe, adſtipulante ipſo etiam ſenſu: nam qui expiratur aër, calidus eſt. Præterea ſi in pulmone, & arteria ſit, quod concoquitur, tum calidi quoque vis in iiſdem erit: id quod non aiunt illi, ſed ſpiritu moto agitatóque excalfieri aiunt. Quòd ſi aliunde attrahatur, aut mouente quopiam, impellẽtéve excipitur, admiratione tum maiore, inquiſitionéve id dignum eſt. Simul autem, non id erit, quod primum moueat. Poſtremò inſpiratio, vltra pulmonem non pergit, vt ipſi quoque affirmant. ac ſpiritus innatus per vniuerſum eſt animalis corpus. Quòd ſi è pulmone tum ad infernas tũ ad partes cæteras diſtribuatur, quonam modo tam velox eſſe queat cõcoctio? Id enim admirandũ omnino, minimé que vulgare eſt: neque enim ad infimas partes ſubitò demittet concoctum aërem. atqui neceſſariò id ſecuturum videtur, ſi & concoctio in pulmone fiat, & quæ infima ſunt, reſpiratione participent. Et tanto obſcurius id eſſe magiſque præter opinionẽ videbitur, quòd tranſitu, & velut contactu quodã, ſola concoctio ſic fiet. Sed & hoc præter rationem eſſe, & magis adhuc, quàm ſuperiora, videtur, vt alimẽti excrementique eadem ratio ſit. Sin per aliud quodpiam eorum quæ in animali habentur, tũc rationes ſuperiores redibunt: niſi quis reſpondeat, vt neque plantis, ita non cuiuſuis alimenti, aut partis excrementũ eſſe. Quòd ſi hoc quoq; tollas, & omnino eadem ratio partiũ ſit, ſupereſt vt conſtituatur vaſorũ eandẽ eſſe auctionem, quæ cæterarũ eſt partiũ. diſtentis autẽ his, & maius interuallũ capiẽtibus, maior quoque aëris copia influat, & effluat, quomodo tãdem auctior fiat innatus ſpiritus. Ex hiſce itaque modis omnibus quis vero propior ſit, & neceſſitatẽ demonſtratiuã habeat maiorẽ, inquirendũ proponitur. Nã hoc peracto, & demõſtrato, quis ſit innatus ſpiritus, & quo pacto is in animalibus ſpirãtibus auctior fiat, manifeſtum euadet. at in nõ ſpirãtibus, quæ alitio, & quæ auctio huiuſce fuerit? neq; enim in his quoque foris eſſe, rectè affirmabitur. Quòd ſi intus ſit, tũ è cõmuni alimento in his quoq; eſſe, cõſentaneum rationi eſt: quãdo ex iiſdẽ ſimilia fiãt, & eodem modo. Niſi fortaſſis etiã in illis acceſſionem alimenti huiuſce foris eſſe quomodo odores ſentiãt affirmare quis volet. Sed nõ reſpiratio, hic modus eſt: quãuis dubitare quiſpiã in hoc quoque poſſit, an prorſus non ſpirent, tum ex hoc ipſo ſignum ducens, tum quia dum cibum attrahãt, aërem quoq; vnà hauriãt, neceſſe ſit. Deinde quia & ipſa refrigeratione indigeãt, quę nõ aliter quàm aëris attractione fieri poſſit.

ἩΔ᾽ ἐκ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς, ὥσπερ Ἀριστογένης οἴεται, καὶ τὸ πνεῦμα πεττόμενον, οὐ τοῦ ἀέρος ἐν τῷ πνεύμονι· τοῦτο δὲ εἰς τὰ ἀγγεῖα διαδίδοσθαι, τὸ περίττωμα πάλιν ἐκπέμπεσθαι, πλείους ἔχει τὰς ἀπορίας. ἥ τε γὰρ πέψις ὑπὸ τίνος; εἰκὸς μὲν γὰρ ὑπ᾽ αὐτοῦ, καθάπερ καὶ τῶν ἄλλων. αὐτὸ δὲ τοῦτ᾽ ἄτοπον, εἰ μὴ διαφέρει τοῦ ἔξω
B ἀέρος. οὕτω δ᾽ ἡ θερμότης ἂν πέττοι. καὶ μὴν καὶ παχύτερον αὐτὸν εὔλογον εἶναι, μεθ᾽ ὑγρότητος τῆς ἀπὸ τῶν ἀγγείων ὄντα, καὶ τῶν ὅλων ὄγκων. ὥστε ἡ πέψις ἂν εἰς τὸ σωματῶδες εἴη. τὸ δὲ περίττωμα, εἴπερ γὰρ λεπτότερον, οὐ πιθανόν. ἄλογος δὲ καὶ ἡ ταχυτὴς τῆς πέψεως. εὐθὺς γὰρ μετὰ τὴν εἰσπνοὴν ἡ ἐκπνοή. τί οὖν τὸ οὕτω ταχὺ μεταβάλλον καὶ ἀλλοιοῦν; ὑπολάβοι γὰρ ἄν τις μάλιστα τὸ θερμόν· καὶ μαρτυρεῖ οὕτως ἡ αἴσθησις· ὁ γὰρ ἐκπνεόμενος θερμός. ἔτι δ᾽, εἰ μὲν ἐν τῷ πνεύμονι καὶ τῇ ἀρτηρίᾳ τὸ πεττόμενον, ἡ τοῦ θερμοῦ δύναμις ἐν τούτοις· ὅπερ οὔ φασιν, ἀλλ᾽ ἐν τῇ κινήσει τῇ τοῦ πνεύματος ἐκθερμαίνεσθαι τὴν τροφήν. εἰ
C δ᾽ ἐξ ἑτέρου τινὸς δεῖ ἐπισπᾶται, ἢ καὶ κινοῦντος δέχεται, τοῦτ᾽ ἔστι θαυμασιώτερον. ἅμα δὲ καὶ οὐκ αὐτὸ τὸ πρῶτον κινοῦν. ἔτι δὲ ἡ μὲν ἀναπνοὴ μέχρι τοῦ πνεύμονος, ὥσπερ λέγουσιν αὐτοί· τὸ δὲ πνεῦμα, δι᾽ ὅλου τὸ σύμφυτον. εἰ δ᾽ ἀπὸ τούτου διαδίδοται, καὶ πρὸς τὰ κάτω καὶ πρὸς τὰ ἄλλα, πῶς ἡ πέψις οὕτω ταχεῖα; θαυμασιώτερον γὰρ τοῦτο καὶ μεῖζον· οὐ γὰρ διαπέμπει τοῦτο γ᾽ εὐθὺς πεπεμμένον τὸν ἀέρα τοῖς κάτω. καίτοι τὸ μὲν δόξει ἀναγκαῖον εἶναι τῆς πέψεως τούτου γινομένης ἐν τῷ πνεύμονι, τῆς τ᾽ ἀναπνοῆς κοινωνούντων καὶ τῶν κάτω. μεῖζον δ᾽ οὕτω καὶ παραδοξότερον τὸ συμβαῖνον· δεῖ γὰρ διαδόσει καὶ θίξει γὰρ μόνον ἡ πέψις. ἄλο-
D γον δὲ καὶ ἔτι καὶ ἀλογωδέστερον, εἰ ὁ αὐτὸς λόγος τῆς τροφῆς καὶ τοῦ περιττώματος. εἰ δὲ δι᾽ ἄλλου τινὸς τῶν ἐντός, οἱ αὐτοὶ λόγοι οἱ καὶ πρότερον· εἰ μὴ τοῦτο λέγοι τις, ὡς οὐ πάσης τῆς τροφῆς, οὐδὲ πᾶσι γίνεται περίττωμα, καθάπερ οὐδὲ τοῖς φυτοῖς· ἐπεὶ οὐδὲ τῶν τοῦ σώματος μερῶν ἑκάστου καθόλου ἐστίν. εἰ δὲ μὴ ὅτι γε πάντως, ἀλλ᾽ ἄρα γε ἡ μὲν ἀγγείων αὔξησις, ἡ αὐτὴ καὶ τῶν ἄλλων μερῶν. εὐρυνομένων δὲ καὶ διισταμένων τούτων, πλείων ὁ ἀὴρ ὁ εἰσρέων καὶ ἐκρέων. εἰ δέ τι ἀναγκαῖον συμπίπτει, τοῦτο αὐτὸ ζητεῖται τίς ὁ τρόπος· καὶ πῶς ἐστι πλείων ὑγιῶς, ἐν τούτοις φανερὸν ἂν εἴη. τοῖς δὲ δὴ μὴ ἀναπνέουσι, τίς ἡ τροφὴ εἰ δὲ διὰ τοῦ ὑποζώματος αὐτοῖς γίνεται, τοιαύτη δή τις ἔστι καὶ ἡ τοῦ ἀέρος εἴσοδος· ὥσθ' ὁμοιόν τι τῇ ἀναπνοῇ. πλὴν οὐκ ἀφορίζεται τίς ὁλκή, καὶ ὑπὸ τίνος. ἢ εἰ μὴ ὁλκή, πῶς ἡ εἴσοδος; εἰ μὴ ἄρα αὐτομάτως. τοῦτο μὲν οὖν ἔχει καὶ αὐτὸ καθ' αὑτὸ σκέψιν. τίς δὲ δὴ ἐνύδροις, τίς ἡ τροφὴ καὶ αὔξησις τοῦ συμφύτου; χωρὶς γὰρ τοῦ μὴ ἀναπνεῖν, οὐδ' ἐνυπάρχειν ὅλως ἐν τῷ ὑγρῷ φαμὲν ἀέρα, ὅτι διὰ τῆς τροφῆς ἡ τοῦ πνεύματος γένεσις. λοιπὸν ἄρα διὰ τῆς τροφῆς, ὡς οὐχ ὁμοίως πᾶσιν, ἢ κἀκεῖνα διὰ τῆς τροφῆς τὰ ἔνυγρα. τριῶν γὰρ τούτων ἀναγκαῖον ἕν. καὶ ταῦτα μὲν ὡς περὶ τὴν αὔξησιν καὶ τροφὴν τοῦ πνεύματος.
E τοῦ συμφύτου, καὶ τίς ἡ αὔξησις; οὐ γὰρ ἔτι τούτοις ἀπὸ τοῦ ἔξωθεν. εἰ δ᾽ ἀπὸ τῶν ἐντὸς καὶ τῆς κοινῆς τροφῆς, εὔλογον κἀκείνοις· ἀπὸ γὰρ τῶν αὐτῶν τὰ ὅμοια, καὶ ὡσαύτως. εἰ μὴ ἄρα καὶ τούτοις ἀπὸ τοῦ ἐκτός, ὥσπερ καὶ τῶν ὀσμῶν αἰσθάνονται. ἀλλ᾽ οὔτι γε δὴ ἀναπνοή γε. περὶ οὗ κἂν ἀπορήσειέ τις, εἰ κατ᾽ ἀλήθειάν ἐστιν, αὐτό τι τοῦτο προσφέρων, καὶ τὴν ἐπίσπασιν τῆς τροφῆς. ὁλκὴ γὰρ ἅμα πνεύματος. ἔτι δ᾽ ὑπὲρ τῆς καταψύξεως ἂν τις λέγοι, ὡς κἀκείνων δεομένων.

Quòd ſi per diaphragmatis loca refrigerentur, per eam ipſam quoque partem aër ingrediatur: vnde reſpirationi ſimile quidpiam accidat. Quanquam hîc non definiatur quænam hæc attractio ſit, & à quo fiat: aut ſi attractio nõ ſit, quo pacto fiat ingreſſus. Hæc enim adhuc latebant, niſi fortè nullo nec attrahente, nec impellente, ſed ſponte aër introeat. Hoc itaque per ſeſe peculiarem exigit contemplationem. Eorum inſuper, quæ in aquis degunt, quænam eſt alitio, & auctio innati ſpiritus? Nam, præterquam quòd hæc non ſpirant, ne omnino quidẽ ſub aquis aërem contineri, neque è puro latice ſpiritum gigni poſſe, affirmamus: reliquum igitur eſt, vt ex alimento ſit. Proinde aut non in omnibus idẽ modus generationis huiuſce erit, aut etiam illa ex alimento ſpiritus generationem ſortientur. Nam ex tribus his, vnus omnino neceſſarius eſt modus. Et de ſpiritus quidem tum auctione, tum alitione hæc dicta ſint.

Περὶ δὲ ἀναπνοῆς, οἱ μὲν οὐ λέγουσι τίνος χάριν, ἀλλὰ μόνον ὃν τρόπον γίνεται, καθάπερ Ἐμπεδοκλῆς καὶ Δημόκριτος. οἱ δὲ οὐδὲ τὸν τρόπον αὐτῆς λέγουσιν, ἀλλ' ὡς φανερῷ χρῶνται. δεῖ δὲ καί, εἰ καταψύξεως χάριν, αὐτὸ τοῦτο διασαφῆσαι. εἰ γὰρ ἐν τοῖς ἄνωθεν θερμόν, οὐκ ἂν ἔτι οἱ κάτω. τὸ δὲ σύμφυτον πνεῦμα δι' ὅλου, καὶ ἀρχὴ ἀπὸ τοῦ πνεύμονος. δοκεῖ δὲ καὶ τὰ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς εἰς πάντα διαδίδοσθαι κατὰ συνέχειαν. ὥστε τοῦτο δεικτέον ὡς οὐκ ἔστιν. ἄτοπον δέ, εἰ μὴ δεῖταί τινος κινήσεως καὶ οἷον τροφῆς. εἰ δὲ διαπνεῖ περὶ πᾶν, οὐκέτι καταψύξεως εἴη χάριν. ἀλλὰ μὴν καὶ ἡ διάδοσις ἄλλως τε ἀναίσθητος, καὶ τὸ τάχος αὐτῆς. καὶ πάλιν τὸ τῆς παλιρροίας, εἴπερ ἀπὸ πάντων, θαυμαστὸν πλὴν εἰ ἄλλον τρόπον ἀπὸ τῶν ἐσχάτων. τὸ δὲ πρώτως καὶ κυρίως, ἀπὸ τῶν περὶ τὴν καρδίαν. ἐν πολλοῖς δ' οὕτω τῶν ὀργάνων καὶ τῶν δυνάμεων. ἄτοπον οὖν ὅμως εἰ καὶ εἰς τὸ στόμα διαδίδοται. καὶ γὰρ δὴ τοῦτο φανερὸν ἐξ ἀρτηριῶν. διό, καθάπερ εἴρηται, σκεπτέον περὶ ἀναπνοῆς, καὶ τίνος ἕνεκα, καὶ ποίοις μέρεσι, καὶ πῶς. ἔτι δὲ οἷον ἐπιφορὰ τῆς τροφῆς φέρεται πᾶσι δι' ἀρτηριῶν, οἷον αὐτοῖς τε τοῖς ἀγγείοις καὶ ἄλλοις τισὶ τῶν μερῶν. ζῇ δὲ τὰ φυτὰ καὶ τρέφεται. ταῦτα μὲν οἰκειότερά πως τῷ περὶ τὰς φθοράς.

CAPVT III.

De reſpiratione.

De reſpiratione verò, alij non dicũt, cuius gratiâ fiat, ſed id ſolùm, quo pacto fiat, dicunt, vt Empedocles, & Democritus. Alij ne id quidẽ nec modum eius aſſignant, ſed tãquam manifeſtus ſit, eo vtuntur. Atqui ſi refrigerationis gratia fiat, idipſum exponendum eſt. Calidum itaque ſi in ſupremis tantùm ſit partibus, tum inferiora refrigeratione nulla indigent. ſed non eſt in ſupremis tantùm. Nam ſpiritus per vniuerſum corpus eſt, & initium reſpirationis à pulmone eſt. Quo pacto itaque qui in extremis eſt calor, refrigerabitur? Et dicet quiſpiam refrigerationem reſpiratione factã in omnes partes diſtribui per continuitatem. Sic proximas pulmoni partes ab aëre attracto frigefieri, deinde vicinas frigefacere, & ita deinceps vſque ad extrema. Sed oſtendendum id eſt, fieri non poſſe. Quis itaque modus extremorum erit? Abſurdum eſt. n. omnino ſtatuere ea agitatione quapiam, & velut alimento non indigere. Quòd ſi dicas perſpirationem totius eſſe aliquam, quæ ſcilicet agitationem ſpiritibus præbeat totius, tũ quis erit finis reſpirationis? non enim refrigeratio erit, ſi eam perſpiratio efficiat. Et in vniuerſum, ambiguum negotium hoc totum eſt. Siue enim refrigerationem extremorum in reſpirationem referas, tum ad ea vſque diſtributionis ipſius celeritas quomodo ſenſum effugiet? ſiue perſpirationem conſtituas, quæ calorem in ambitu totius exiſtentem foueat, tum præterquam quòd reſpirationis hic finis eſſe ampliùs non poſſit, ſiquidem perſpiratione illum conſequi liceat, mirabilis quoque erit profectò omnium inter ſe partium fluxio & refluxio perſpiratione facta. Niſi dicas eundem in vtroque rectè finem cenſeri, & qui in ambitu totius calor ſit non ita plenus, & auctus perſpiratione ſufficienter foueri poſſit; qui verò in corde, & vicinis illi partibus ſit, vehementiſſimus, maiore refrigeratione opus habere, vt in primis ob hunc ipſum inſtituta fuiſſe reſpiratio videri queat: & proinde maiorem quoque vim aëris eò attrahi oportere, ob quam inſtrumenta capaciora, & actio quædam magis conſpicua, à Natura fuerint conſtructa. Permulta enim eiuſmodi in cæteris quoque actionibus facultatibúſque contingunt. adhuc tamen abſurdum eſt, ſi ad os quoque diſtributio fiat: id quod ex arteriis eſt manifeſtum. Ob hæc itaque, vt dictum fuit, de reſpiratione perquam diligens conſideratio eſt habenda, cuiuſnam gratia fiat, & quibus partibus communis ſit, & quomodo ſit. Præterea, nec alimentum omnibus per arterias adfertur, veluti tum vaſis ipſis, tum aliis partibus quibuſdam. Viuunt autem plantæ quoque, & aluntur. Sed hæc ad ea pertinent quæ de interitu rerum traduntur.

CAPVT IV.

De tribus motionibus ſpiritus in arteria contenti.

CVm autem motiones in arteria contenti ſpiritus, tres ſint, reſpiratio, pulſus: & tertia, alimẽti aduectio elaboratióque: de quaque harum dicẽdum eſt, & vbi, & quo pacto ſit, & cuius gratia fiat. Pulſus itaque motio qua parte ſit, ſenſui quoque eſt manifeſtum, quamuis ſcilicet animalis partem tangẽtibus. Sed reſpirationis motus, in qua ſit parte, aliquouſque manifeſtum quidem ſenſu quoque eſt. Potior tamen illius cognitio ratione habetur. at alimenti motus vniuerſus ferè, ratione eſt inquirendus. Quæ tamen ab accidentibus de eo ſit in- B quiſitio, ipſa quoque à ſenſu initium habet. Quòd igitur reſpiratio, intus habeat initium, manifeſtum ſanè eſt, ſiue ea facultas animæ ſit, ſiue anima ipſa ſit dicenda, ſiue alia quæpiam corporum miſcella, quæ per ea talem attractionem efficiat. at facultas qua animal alitur, tota ſibi ipſi reſpondet, & ſimilis eſt, tanquam eadem per vniuerſum ſit corpus. Et ſi ſi fortè non ſit, at corpus tamen vniuerſum æquabiliter iuxta tempus ſe habet in tali motu. Quòd ſi non ſtatim ſit obuium, num aliqua ſit differentia, inſpectione partium omnium eſt cognoſcendum. Pulſus autem peculiaris quiſpiam, præter hos motus eſt, & quadantenus accidentarius eſſe, nec finem habere videtur, ob quem fuerit inſtitutus. Et vt calore vehemente in humidum agente, neceſſe eſt quæ in flatum reſoluuntur partes ob verſationem bullas excitare, ita pulſum quoque fieri in ani- C malis corpore par eſt: ſtatimque per initia primùm conſiſtit pulſus: nam iis quæ prima ſunt, coæuus calor eſt. Et fortaſſe actionem caloris in materiem, quæ generationi animalis ſubſternitur, idipſum cõſequi eſt neceſſe. Quòd autem reſpirationi pulſus non reſpondeat, ſignum hoc eſt. Siue enim frequens, ſiue æqualis, & ſiue magna ſit, ſiue leuis reſpiratio, pulſus ſimilis, idémque ſemper manet, ſed inæqualis ſit, & intenditur, tum pro corporis affectionibus variis, tum animæ, velut timore, ſpe, agonia. Sed an in arteriis pulſus eundem tenorem ſeruet, aut æqualitatem, conſiderandum eſt. Et videtur non ſeruare, ad partes lõgè inter ſe diſſitas animum aduertentibus. Cæterùm quod dictũ eſt, non finis cuiuſpiam gratia fieri, ſed actionis neceſſitatẽ ſequi, caloris ipſius ſcilicet in humidum, id omni- D no ita habere videtur. at inſpirationis & expirationis motus ſiue eundem finem habet vterque, & diuerſus alter ab altero ſit, ſiue alium, neque ſibi mutuò reſpondeant, ob finem tamen omnino aliquem fieri rationabiliter vidẽtur. Porrò de his tribus motibus ambigi rectè poteſt, an ſint coæui: & ſi nõ ſint, quis horum primus ſit: & an ſit rationabile, pulſum

ΕΠεὶ δὲ τρεῖς αἱ κινήσεις τοῦ ἐν τῇ ἀρτηρείᾳ πνεύματος, ἀναπνοή, σφυγμός· τρίτη δ', ἡ τὴν τροφὴν ἐπάγουσα καὶ κατεργαζομένη· λεκτέον περὶ ἑκάστης, καὶ ποῦ, καὶ πῶς, καὶ τίνος χάριν. τούτων δὲ ἡ μὲν τοῦ σφυγμοῦ, καὶ τῇ αἰσθήσει φανερὰ καθ' ὁποιονοῦν μέρος ἁπτομένοις· ἡ δὲ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς, μέχρι μέν του φανερά· τὸ δὲ πλέον, κατὰ λόγον. ἡ δὲ τῆς τροφῆς, ἅπασα κατὰ λόγον, ὡς εἰπεῖν· ὡς ἐκ τῶν συμβαινόντων δὲ, κατὰ τὴν αἴσθησιν. ἡ B μὲν οὖν ἀναπνοὴ δῆλον ὡς ἀπὸ τοῦ ἐντὸς ἔχει τὴν ἀρχήν· εἴτε ψυχῆς δύναμις, εἴτε ψυχὴν δεῖ λέγειν ταύτην, εἴτε καὶ ἄλλην τινὰ σωμάτων μῖξιν, ἡ δι' αὐτῶν ποιεῖ τὴν τοιαύτην ὁλκήν. ἡ δὲ θρεπτικὴ ἀνταποδίδοται, καὶ ὁμοία πως ἀληθεῖ. εἰ δὲ μή, πάντη ὁμαλίζει τοῖς χρόνοις τὸ σῶμα κατὰ τὴν τοιαύτην κίνησιν. ἢ εἰ μηδὲν διαφέρει τὸ ἅμα, πάντα τὰ μέρη σκεπτέον. ὁ δὲ σφυγμός, ἴδιός τις παρὰ ταύτας, τῇ μὲν ἂν δόξειεν εἶναι κατὰ συμβεβηκός· εἶναι γάρ, ὅταν ἐν ὑγρῷ πλῆθος ᾖ θερμότητος, ἀνάγκη τὸ ἐκπνευματούμενον διὰ τὴν ἀναπόλησιν ποιεῖν σφυγμόν. ἐν τῇ ἀρχῇ δὲ καὶ πρῶτον· εἶναι γὰρ τοῖς πρώτοις σύμφυτον. τάχα δὲ πρὸς τὴν ὑποκειμένην οὐσίαν τοῦ ζῴου τοῦ ἐκ τῆς ἐνεργείας, ἀνάγκη τοῦτο παρακολουθεῖν. ὅτι δ' οὐδὲν πρὸς τὴν ἀναπνοὴν ὁ σφυγμός, σημεῖον. ἐάν τε C γὰρ πυκνόν, ἐάν τε ὁμαλόν, ἐάν τε σφοδρόν, ἢ πρᾶον ἀναπνέῃ τις, ὅ, τε σφυγμὸς ὅμοιος καὶ ὁ αὐτός. ἀλλ' ἡ ἀνωμαλία γίνεται καὶ ἐπίτασις ἔν τε σωματικοῖς τισὶ πάθεσι, καὶ ἐν τοῖς τῆς ψυχῆς φόβοις, ἐλπίσιν, ἀγωνίαις. εἰ δὲ καὶ ἐν ταῖς ἀρτηρείαις ὁ σφυγμός, καὶ ὁ αὐτὸς ὢν ῥυθμῷ καὶ ὁμαλὸς ᾖ, σκεπτέον. οὐκ ἔοικε δέ γε τοῖς μακρὰν ἀπηρτημένοις. ἥκιστα δὲ ἕνεκά του φαίνεται γίνεσθαι, καθάπερ εἴρηται. τὸ γὰρ αὖ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς καὶ τῆς ἐπαγωγῆς, εἴτε ὡς ἕτερον σύμπτωμ' ἀλλήλων, εἴθ' ὡς θάτερον πρὸς θάτερον, ἕνεκά του φαίνεται, καὶ ἔχει τινὰ λόγον. τριῶν δ' οὐσῶν, πότερον εὔλογον εἶναι τήν τε σφυγμώδη, καὶ τὴν ἀναπνευστικήν. ἡ γὰρ τροφὴ προϋπάρχοντος, ἢ οὔ. τὸ μὲν D γὰρ ἀναπνεῖν, ὅταν ἀπολυθῇ τῆς κυήσεως· ἡ δ' ἐπιφορὰ καὶ τροφή, καὶ συνισταμένου καὶ συνεστηκότος· ὁ δὲ σφυγμός, εὐθὺς ἐν τῇ ἀρχῇ συνισταμένης τῆς καρδίας, καθάπερ ἐν τοῖς ᾠοῖς γίνεται φανερόν. ὥστε αὕτη πρώτη, καὶ ἔοικεν ἐνεργείᾳ τινί, καὶ οὐκ ἐν ἀπολήψει πνεύματος· εἰ μὴ ἄρα τοῦτο πρὸς τὴν ἐνέργειαν.

reſpiratione priorem ſtatui. Nam alitio priùs quàm totũ animal ſit perfectum, eſt, & poſtquam perfectum eſt animal. attractio enim menſtrui humoris ad formationem fœtus, & partium delineatarum auctio, nutricis facultatis opus eſt: quemadmodum deſignatio partium ex ſemine, formatricis. Iuxta quem ordinem, reſpirationis motus poſtremus fuerit. Nam tum primùm reſpirat, vbi in lucem editus fuerit partus: eáque propter poſtremus hic motus eſt. Nam alimenti attractio elaboratióque non ſolùm pòſt, ſed & priùs quàm integris ſui partibus animal ſit abſolutum, in vtero peragitur. Reſpirationem itaque hic motus præcedit. at pulſus per initia ſtatim in conſtitutione cordis emergit: id, quod in ſectione viuorum, & pulli formatione ex ouo, deprehendere liceat. Sed &, vt ſuprà quoque dictum eſt, in prima partium delineatione, quæ per actionem calidi in humidum ſit, feruorem hunc, & pulſus agitationem cieri par fuerit: quare primus hic erit motus. Qua ratione quoque actioni cuipiam ſimilis eſſe videtur potiùs, quàm aëris attractioni: niſi & hic ad actionem faciat aliquid.

Πότερον τὸ ἐκ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς πνεῦμα φέρεται εἰς τὴν κοιλίαν, καὶ ὅπως τρέφει τὰ ζῷα. Ἀπορία περὶ τὴν ἀρτηρίαν, καὶ τὴν αἴσθησιν αὐτῆς, πῶς γίνεται· καὶ ἕτερα ἄττα.

ΤΟ δὲ πνεῦμα τὸ ἐκ τῆς ἀναπνοῆς φέρεται μὲν εἰς τὴν κοιλίαν· ἀλλὰ ἄτοπον εἶναι παρὰ τὴν ὀσφύν, δι' οὗ τῇ ἀναπνοῇ φέρεσθαι τὸ πνεῦμα ἐκ τοῦ βραγχίου εἰς τὴν κοιλίαν, καὶ πάλιν ἔξω. τοῦτο δὲ τῇ αἰσθήσει φανερόν. CAPVT V.

Dubitatio de arteria & modo quo ipſa ſentiat: item alia quædam.

HAbetur autem & de ſenſu difficultas. Nam ſi arteria ſentit ſolùm, num ſpiritu, qui per eam fertur, an mole ipſa, an toto corpore: aut ſi quidem aër primus animæ ſubeſt, eo ipſo tanquam potiore cauſa, ac priore? quid igitur in animæ potentiam, huiuſce motionis cauſam referunt? quemadmodum illi quoque faciunt, qui partem rationalem, animalémque inter cauſas referunt, & B pro illorum ſententia reprehendendi non fuerint, cùm & ipſi cauſam rogati, potentiam animæ aſſignent. at in non ſpirantibus num immiſtus externo eſt? an non eſt, ſed miſtus quidem at alio quodam modo eſt? Quæ itaque differentia eius fuerit, qui arteria continetur, ad eum, qui foris eſt? Nam vt inter hos differentia ſtatuatur, prorſus ratio poſtulat, & fortaſſis tenuitate neceſſariò differat. at rurſus, aut à ſeipſo aut ab alio, quoniam calidus eſt. De hoc enim ita ſentiendum videtur, vt de eo qui foris eſt. Nam de his, quæ in corpore fiunt, ita videtur ratiocinandum eſſe, vt de hiſce quæ foris eueniunt. Et à refrigeratione auxilium C omnino quoddam accipit ipſe qui intus eſt aër. Num igitur ſic res habet, vt qui foris tenuiore ſubſtantia eſt aër, vbi intro hauſtus fuerit, & in anguſta vaſa intruſus, compingatur quodam modo, ac denſetur? aut miſtionem neceſſariò accipit aliquam, dum per humores, & cæterarum animalis partium molem verſatur? Sed tum non fuerit tenuior, ſiquidem miſtionem ſic accipiat. at ratio tamen dictabat, quod primum animæ ſuſceptiuum ſit, omnino cæteris ſubſtantia tenuius eſſe: niſi animam quoque ipſam talem eſſe, nec purum quidpiam, & miſtionis omnino expertem ſtatuamus. Porro autem arteriam ſolam ſpiritum ſuſcipere, re- D cipiendum eſt, neruum non ſuſcipere. Differunt tamen inter ſe, quatenus neruus tendi poteſt, arteria non poteſt, ſed ſtatim rumpitur, vt & vena. Cutis tribus hiſce, vena, arteria & neruo conſtat: vena quidem, nam dum pungitur, ſanguinem emittit: è neruo autem, quia tendi poteſt: ex arteria quoque. perſpirationem enim habet. nam ſola arteria ſpiritum ſuſcipit. Præterea venas habere meatus, in quibus tanquam officina quapiam ęraria calidum latitans ſanguinem calefaciat. Neque enim natura calidum eſſe, ſed illac veluti diffundi: eáque propter arteriam concreſcere, & humiditatem continere tum in ſeſe, tum in tunicis cauum ipſum ambientibus. quæ omnia è ſectione E manifeſto deprehendere liceat. Eodem modo ad inteſtina & ad ventrem, venas arteriáſque committi, quas par ſit alimentum attrahere, è venis in carnes mox diſtribuendum, non per obliquum, ſed per venarum oſcula, fiſtularum ſcilicet more. Nam è lateribus venæ magnæ, & arteriæ: exiles venæ vtrinque deriuantur, per obliquum ſcilicet, & venæ cuilibet arteria ſua eſt adiuncta. Ad oſſa quoque qua ſcilicet committuntur inter ſe, & ad magnum capitis os, venæ, ac nerui finiunt. Hac parte cibum capiunt piſces, & reſpirant: qui ſi non ſpirarent, tum ex aqua profectò exempti, morerentur illico. Quòd autem venæ, & arteriæ, inter ſe committantur, ſenſu quoque ipſo manifeſtum eſt. Id ſanè non foret, niſi & humor ſpiritu, & ſpiritus humore opus haberet, quòd & in neruo, & arteria, & vena, vis caloris ingens ſit. Cæterùm qui in neruo habetur calor vehementiſſimus, naturæ eius qui in venis eſt, plurimum habet. De ſemine quæſtio, & vtrùm nerui ab oſſibus alimentum capiant, an contra.

DE ſemine prætereà quæſtio haberi poteſt, num per arteriam feratur, & an compreſſione id quadam fiat, & dum emittitur ſolùm. Quo loco mutatio quoque, per quam ſanguis in ſolidarum partium naturam abit, pulcherrimam de ſe inquiſitioni occaſionem præbet, & euidentiam. Item de neruorum nutritione, num ex oſſibus ſit: videtur enim minimè diſſimilis amborum modus eſſe. Aut num id verum non ſit, cùm non ſolùm ex oſſibus ſuſpenſi in totius animalis mole, ſed & in corde viſantur, qui nullis oſſibus commiſſi ſint nerui, neque in alio vllo cum cæteris coëunt, ſed in carnem finiunt. an hoc nil impediat, quominus iis qui ab oſſibus pendent, indidem alimentum accedat, an potiùs ab his ipſis oſſa alantur? Sed & hoc abſurdum eſt, neque ſenſum adſtipulantem habet. Nam ſiccus natura, & nullum meatum humectum habens, per ſectiones neruus viſitur. atqui haberet, ſi per eum, alimentum, quod eſt humidum, ad oſſa veheretur. Quapropter diligens hîc eſt inſtituenda inquiſitio. Etſi omnino in oſſe initium conſtituatur: vt ex hoc potiùs neruus, quàm è neruo os ipſum, alimentum capiat, quomodo igitur ad oſſa tandem alimentum aduehetur, aut meatus è vena arteriave ad ipſum tendens quis erit? Id enim in pleriſque obſcurum erit, tum ad ſpinam maximè quiſnam deriuetur. Deinde quæ ab oſſibus ad latera committuntur, quomodo è ventre deriuentur, & attractio quo pacto fiat? an plura habentur abſque cartilagine, veluti ſpina? ſed non vt motum exerceant, hæc ſunt, magiſque continuationis gratia. Sed & ſi è neruo os alatur, nerui alimentum nouiſſe oportet. Cæterùm nos affirmamus è muco illis adhærente, eoſdem ali. Sed rurſus vnde hic, & quo pacto ſit, exponendum erat. Carnem è vena atque arteria ali id confirmat, quòd dum pungitur, ſanguinem reddit: quãuis in cæteris animalibus veluti volucribus, & ſerpentum, ac piſcium, & vniuerſo ouiparorum genere non viſatur: ſed ſanguine multo præditis peculiare habetur. Nam & volucrum pectora inciſa, ſaniem emittunt, non ſanguinem. Vnguem Empedocles per congelationem è neruo conſtitiſſe ait: anne igitur eandem rationem ad carnem cutim ipſam obtinere dicemus? Itidem difficultas habetur de teſtatis, quæque molli teſta conteguntur animalibus, quomodo cibus iis foris accedat. Contrà enim, intus magis, quàm foris, aduenire videtur. De natura oſſium.

DE natura quoque oſſium conſideratio eſt inſtituenda, an triplicis functionis cauſa ſic extiterint, & alia ad motum, alia ad fulciendum, alia vt contegant, capiántque. Et an quartum quoque inter hæc genus ſit quod tãquam principium motus ſit, velvt poli. Ad motum itaque inſtituta fuiſſe dico manus oſſa, & pedis, & tibiæ, & cubiti: & id bifariàm, flectendi ſcilicet, & ambulandi: neque enim ambulatio abſque flexione fieri poteſt. Sed & fulcimenta quoque in his ipſis ferè conſiſtũt. Contegunt autem, & capiunt, velvti quæ in capite ſunt oſſa, cerebrum ipſum, & quæcumque medullam in ſeſe habent. Laterum oſſa, functionem habent vt claudant. Initium autem cæterorum, & velvt immotum quiddam, ſpina eſt, à qua laterum quoque oſſa originem ducunt, partes vtrinque claudentia. Et neceſſe erat omnino vt talis aliqua pars eſſet: nam quod mouetur, id è quieſcente eſt. Simul autem eſſe aliquid oportet, cuius gratia: in quo genere ſanè prima ſtatuerunt, nucam & cerebrum. Prçterea verò aliud quoque genus habetur, ad committendas claudendáſque partes cæteras factum, velvti claues ſunt, ex hoc ipſo tale nomen ſortitæ. Cæterùm ad vſum idoneum vnaquæque harũ partium aptiſſimè ſic eſt comparata. Neque enim flexio ſiue totius, ſiue partium fiat, ſi talia nõ ſint, pes, inquam, ſpina, cubitus. Nã flexus introrſum, vſum habet perquam neceſſarium, vt & pedis, & aliarum partium conſimilis motio: vniuerſæ enim alicuius gratia ſic inſtitutæ fuere, vt & oſſa, quæ in eiſdem viſuntur. Sic quod in cubitu habetur facile, ad vertendum quoquo verſus cubitum & manum facit: nam abſque hoc ſupinam manum mouere, aut pronam non licebat: & nec pedes leuari, aut flecti potuiſſent abſque binis focilibus, hunc motum efficientibus. Eodem modo autem cæteræ quoque partes ſunt inſpiciendæ, velvt colli motus an ab vno oſſe ſit. Item quæ comprehendunt cætera, ac vinciunt, velvt patella eſt genu impoſita. Et quam ob rem aliis quædam ex hiſce non adſint. Quæ igitur motum perficiunt, vniuerſa neruos adhærentes habent: & fortaſſis quæcumque multam actionem obeunt, velvt quæ in cubitu habẽtur, & crure, manibúſque, ac pedibus. Cætera, quæ præter neruos oſſibus adhæreſcere videntur, ligãdi gratia adiecta ſunt, non motus. Quod genus aliæ quoque partes habent, quaſcumque vinciri oportebat. Neque enim in omnibus neceſſe id erat, aut parum admodum, quæcumque ſcilicet non operoſas motiones faciunt, velvti ſpina eſt, quæ ſolummodo flectitur. Talium itaque inter ſe nexus, ſanies eſt, & humor quidam mucoſus. Cætera neruis quoque vinciuntur, vt quæ in articulis ſunt.

Vſus itaque horum non quidem omnibus neceſſarius erat futurus, quę animalia vocarētur, ſed quæ motum quoque exercēre poſſent. Eſt itaque inter principia iſtud recipiendum, quòd animalibus omnibus, quæ motum erant exercitura, ad hunc ipſum vſum aut neruos, aut quæ his proportione reſpondent, partem aliam Natura adnexuit. Deinde ad motum cuique peculiarem, ſua quoque rurſus inſtrumenta affinxit: vel vt pedeſtribus futuris, pedes: & rectè incedentibus, binos: at per terram omnino gradientibus plures, quibus ſcilicet materia terreſtris magis, & frigidior contigit. Quædam pedibus omninò vt carerēt, accidit: nam vi totius molis erant mouenda. Sic volucribus quoque alæ ſunt adiectæ, & forma naturæ ipſorum idonea. Sed & inter hæc ipſa quoque dif- B ferentia habeatur, prout magis aut minus ſunt volucres. Pedes verò his quoque additi, tum alimenti gratia, tum vt rectè ſtarent, excepta veſpertilione: nam huic ſoli his opus non erat, cùm ex aëre alimentum habeat, nec quiete indigeat. Atqui pedum vſus nullus alius eſt. Ex aquatilibus animalibus ſola, quæ teſtata ſunt, pedes habent, ob grauitatem ſcilicet eorum. nam alioqui per loca volui, & impelli propria vi nequibant. De calore qui eſt in animalium corporibus & de eius effectibus: Item de differentia partium corporis cùm in iiſdem animalibus, tum in diuerſis.

QVi affirmant, non calorem eſſe, qui in corporibus animalium agat: & quòd vna ſola latio ignis ſit, aut facultas, ſecandi videlicet, non rectè dicunt. Neque enim in corporibus inanimatis omnibus idem efficit, ſed alia denſat, alia rarefacit, liquefacit alia, alia cogit. quare in animatis quoque idem effici exiſtimandum eſt. Et in arte aliud efficit aurifabri ignis, quàm fabri ærarij, aut quàm loci ignis: vt nec ipſorum quidem ignes idem efficiunt, & cæterorum quoque inter ſe artificum. Proindè veriùs fortaſſe affirmabitur, quòd & artes hoc vtantur tanquam inſtrumento, mollientes, liquefacientesque, & arefacientes, ac nonullis quoque modum, ac proportionem addentes: & naturam quoque idipſum facere, vnde rerum inter ſe multiplices differentiæ proficiſcantur. At quæ differentia fuerit caloris cuiuſque? ſiue vt organum is habetur, ſiue vt materia, ſiue amborum vicem præſtat. Nam ignis differẽtiæ, iuxta id quod magis ac minùs eſt, ſumuntur. Hæc autem ferè in eo, vt miſtus ſit, aut immiſtus, conſiſtit: nam hic purior erit, & proinde intenſior gradus, ille admiſtio-

B ne contrarij remiſſior. Eadem ratio in aliis quoque ſimplicibus habetur. Siquidem .n. alia ſint, os, & caro, quæ equi eſt, & quæ bouis, aut ob id alia eſſe, quia è diuerſis conſtituta ſint, aut vſu ipſo differre eſt neceſſe. Si itaque ſint diuerſæ inter partes ſimplices, quænam cuiuſque earum erunt differentiæ? Sin eædem ſint, cum iis quæ in aliis habentur: neceſſe eſt enim alterum è duobus hîc eſſe, vt in cæteris quoque rebus. Nam vini & mellis temperamentum, per ſubiecta differre dicimus. vini autem ipſius ſi differentia, per rationem. Quare Empedocles ſimpliciter huiuſce diuerſitatis cauſam, oſſis naturam aſſignat. Siquidem enim vniuerſa eãdem miſtionis rationem ſortirentur, non differre inter

C ſe oportebat, equi, leonis, atque hominis partes. At nunc duritie mollitieque, tum inter ſeſe, tum à cæteris differunt. Sed & quæ in eodem animali habentur partes, tum denſitate, tum raritate, tum cæteris quoque affectionibus pluſculum inter ſe differre videntur. Quapropter non eadem temperatio omnium eſt. Nam craſſities, & tenuitas, magnitudo, & exiguitas, in quanto: durum autem, & denſum, & quæ hiſce contraria ſunt, in quali miſtionis conſiſtunt. Cæterùm qui ita ſentiunt, exponant oportet quo pacto vis, quæ artificio præeſt, alia ſit. Etenim hãc auctiorem eſſe, aut omninò minorem ſic eueniet, & per ſeipſam, & per miſtionem: aut certè ab alio intendi, quemadmodum quæ elixantur, aſſantúrve: id quod vero fortaſſe propius eſt: ſimul enim miſcet, ac fingit natura. Porrò eadem quoque de carne ratio eſt: nam & eædem propemodum differentiæ ſunt. Ita de vena, & arteria, ac cæteris. Eáque propter alterum è duobus neceſſarium ſit, aut vt ratio horum iuxta miſtionem non ſit eadem, aut non è duritie & denſitate ab hiſce contrariis paſſionibus rationes ducendas eſſe.

THEODORI GAZÆ THESSALONICENSIS, IN LIBROS ARISTOTELIS DE ANIMALIBVS.

PRAEFATIO.

LYCVRGVM Lacedæmonium, qui leges ciuibus ſuis conſtituit, reprehendunt nonnulli, Pontifex Sixte quarte, quòd ita tulerit leges, vt belli potiùs quàm pacis rationem habuiſſe videretur. Numam verò Pompilium regem Romanum laudant maiorem in modum, quòd pacis adeo ſtudioſus fuerit, vt nulla cauſa moueri ad bellum pateretur. quorum ſententiam etſi aliàs probo, vt debeo (nihil enim pace commodius, nihil ſanctius) tamen cùm vita hominum ita ferat, vt bella vitari interdum nequeant, ſic cenſeo præfiniendum conſulendúmque, vt & bellum interdum ſit ſuſcipiendum, ſi res vrget: & pax ſeruanda ſit ſemper, ſi fieri poteſt: nec belli ratio vnquam probanda ſit, niſi vt demum rebus compoſitis, quieto tranquilloque animo viuamus. Non enim ad pugnam & homicidia, non ad diſcordias & bella nati ſumus, ſed ad concordiam & humanitatem. Itaque principis inſtitutum atque officium id eſſe reor, vt pacem ſumma opera petat, ſeruet, & colat. Quod cùm Romanos Pontifices ferè omnes feciſſe quoad potuerint, intelligam, laudo illorum animum, quòd neque ab inſtituto naturæ bonæ receſſerint, & præceptum autoris diuini ſeruarint, quòd ſæpiſſimè pacem conciliarint, & commendarint. Sed vſum nonnullorum auſim reprehendere. Pace enim, quam deſiderant ad literarum & artium bonarum ſtudia, & virtutum officia, illi quidem ad voluptates parum honeſtas abuſi ſunt. quod cùm omni hominum ordini ſit turpe, tum Pontificis perſonæ turpiſſimum eſt. Fuerunt tamen & qui rectè pace vterentur, & Pontificatum magna cum laude gererent, quibus te ſimilem video planè ſucceſſiſſe: præſtas enim doctrina & moribus. Quo fit, vt nomen tuum immortalitati mandandum cenſeas, ſtudio potiùs literarum, quæ nunquam pereunt, quàm vel ædificiorum, quæ breui tempore delentur, vel theſauri gemmarum, & auri, cuius hæredes inimici plerunque ſuccedunt: vtque voluptates quæ animi lumen extinguunt, reſpuas, vnámque literarum voluptatem, quæ animum illuſtrare poteſt, expetas, atque in ea requieſcas. Itaque omnes Pontificem talem habuiſſe lætamur, & quiſque ſiue ciuis, ſiue peregrinus, ſtudet pro viribus rem afferre, qua & virtutum tuarum laudem, & animi tui voluptatem augeat. Quem enim ob eius merita non ſolùm veneramur, & obſeruamus, ſed etiam perinde ac patrem amamus, ei perlibenter opera ſtudiorum noſtrorum dedicanda putamus. Alij igitur alia: ego tibi libros Ariſtotelis philoſophi, quos de natura animalium ſcripſerat, conuertere in Latinum ſermonem volui, exiſtimans rem tibi gratam me facturum, ſi hi libri Latinis literis mea induſtria mandarentur, & cultiùs atque integriùs, quàm actum ab alijs adhuc eſt, exponerentur. Videbam per multa errâſſe interpretes, tum imperitia linguæ, tum Ariſtotelicæ diſciplinæ inſcitia. Itaque officium eſſe putaui, vt ſi quid facultatis in me eſſet, qua præſtare hæc poſſem meliora, rem aggrederer, & pro viribus dignius quicquam efficere conarer. Laboraui equidem hac in re vehementer, quoniam nihil adiumenti ab iis qui eadem interpretari voluere, capere poteram. Aut enim Græcè illi dixerunt, quæ Latinè audire homines Latini deſiderant, aut rerum aliarum nomina aliis impropriè tribuerunt, aut noua ipſi ineptè finxerunt. Sententiam verò autoris paſſim adeò deprauarunt, vt argumento quidem interpretationis eorum nemo tam indoctus ſit, qui non rectiùs iudicare de rebus naturæ, quàm Ariſtoteles, poſſe videatur. Locutionis etiam genus ne tale quidem quod legi poſſet, non modo non Ariſtotelis eloquentia dignum, adhibere potuerunt. Quod ſi quid præ ſua facillima cognitione peruerti ab omni veritate non potuit, id etiam propter incultum, horridum, & ineptum ſermonem interpretis vix intelligi poteſt. Afferrem hoc loco ſcripta illorum interpretum, erroréſque ſingulatim enumerando reprehenderem, niſi longior eſſem in re non dubia, præſertim apud te, Princeps doctiſſime, qui vt antè doctor pro tuo ſingulari iudicio ſemper damnaſti illorum interpretationem, melioremque deſideraſti, ſic nunc factus Princeps accuratiùs agis, vt hæc aliquando explanentur, & viſa cum ſui autoris ſententia lucem Latinæ linguæ recipiant. Vtinam tantum facultatis in me eſſet, Princeps ſapientiſſime, vt hoc meum interpretandi genus, eſſe optimum illud quod quæris, confirmare poſſem. Sed quoniam hoc plus eſt, quàm vt vel homo modeſtus de ſe polliceri debeat, vel meæ vires attingere poſſint, nihil ego tale de me: illud verò dicere licet, hanc eſſe omnibus quæ adhuc factæ ſunt, horum librorum interpretatione, & philoſophis ad eloquendũ commodiorem, & eloquentibus ad diſputandum vtiliorem, & vtriſque ad Ariſtotelis ſenſum percipiendum aptiorem. Nec acta equidem egi, ſed à malè conuerſis primus ego Latinis hominibus aperui, quæ his libris Ariſtoteles ſcripſerat. Sed illuc redeo: Me plurimùm elaboraſſe in his libris interpretandis fateor, cùm nihil à primis interpretibus illis iuuari poſſem, ſed omnia ex codicibus veterum autorum petere neceſſe haberem, lectione longa, notationeque varia. Plinium, Cornelium, Columellam, Varronem, Catonem, M. Tullium, Apuleium, Gellium, Senecam, complures alios linguæ Latinæ autores euoluere diligentiùs oportuit, quorum libros vel ſemel accuratè legiſſe laborioſum eſt, nedum ad vſum interpretandi accommodaſſe. Non enim ita vſum verborum accipit interpres, vt ſuo arbitratu rem diſponat, mandetque elocutioni: ſed totidem ferè verbis ſenſus alienos accommodatè exprimere cogitur, quod perdifficile eſt. Accedit ad hæc altera cauſa laboris, quòd exemplaria Græca, libros hos de animalibus dico, mendoſa admodum habemus, vel librariorum culpa, vel eo caſu, quem apud Strabonem geographum legimus. In his enim emendandis elaborare interpres ſine dubio debet, ne ipſe erraſſe in conuertendo videatur. Ita enim plerique iudicant, vt ſi quid benè ab interprete dicitur, id autori operis tribuant: ſi quid malè, id interpreti vitio aſcribant. de iis interpretibus loquor, qui non minùs laudis merentur in conuertendis aliorum libris, quàm illi qui eos magna cum laude ediderunt: non de iis, qui & ſibi & autori, quem interpretantur, dedecus pariunt. Quid autem? cùm vel ipſa Latina exemplaria quorum ope iuuari nitimur, non minùs ſint emendanda quàm Græca. Quæ enim vtilitas librorum Plinii ſatis interpreti afferretur, niſi emendarentur & corrigerentur. Iam ante ætatem noſtram ſeculis multis iacuit inutile opus eius autoris, quod de hiſtoria naturali inſcribitur, ſcilicet propter innumeros librariorum errores. Quamuis enim autoritate, tum ſcriptoris, tum rerum ſcriptarum peteretur, & à pluribus ſcriberetur, tamen legi ne à doctiſſimis quidem viris poterat, vſqueadeo mendoſum corruptumque habebatur. Caruerunt certè diu Latini homines magno fructu eorum librorum: quanquam nunc doctrina inſigni ſingularique induſtria Ioannis Andreæ præſulis Halerienſis, facilis facta eſt & lectio eorum librorum & imitatio: hic enim primus hos libros emendauit, atque vtiles reddidit. Quod munus, ſi in cæteris quoque libris corrigendis hic ſubiiſſet, labor ſanè aut nullus, aut longe minor ſcriptoribus interpretibus relinqueretur. Sed quoniam hunc virum alia munera tui feliciſſimi principatus, & reipubl. à literarum ſtudiis priuatis diuerterint, accidit res cuique proculdubio difficilior. Mihi autem vel illa difficultas laborem accumulat, quæ non ad eos interpretes ſpectat, qui res difficiles Græcè dicant, faciles verò Latinis verbis impropriis peruertant: ſed ad eos qui ne ea quidem inconſiderata relinquunt, quæ antiqui autores negligentia quadam non facilè excuſanda prætermiſerunt. qualis quæſtio de thoe quadrupede, & panthera, de daſypode, de lynce, de aliis pleriſque occurrit. Sed an ego dignum quicquam vel meo tanto labore, vel tuo deſiderio efficere potuerim, tu mihi eris & iudex, & cenſor. Fuit quidem ſtudium mihi certandi non cum interpretibus illis, quos vincere nullum negotium eſt, ſed cum Ariſtotele ipſo, vt libros quos ille Alexandro regi ſuo principi non minori induſtria quàm doctrina conſcripſerat, hos ego tibi principi meo Latinos redderem non deteriores. ſed an effecerim quod mihi ſtatueram, tu videris. Habes verò in hoc codice libros duodeuiginti: ſcilicet nouem de hiſtoria animalium, quatuor de partibus, quinque de generatione. Hiſtoria primum obtinet locum, atque vt nomen ipſum ſignificat, expoſitionem continet rei, quod eſt, ſiue vt ſit: quod ſcholæ philoſophorum noſtræ ætatis, quia eſt, dicere ſolent. Mox libri de partibus, ac de generatione, cauſam cur ita ſit, declarant: alteri finalem præcipuè, alteri agentem. Cùm enim rem cuius cauſam reddere volumus, exploratam cognitione quod eſt, habere debeamus, rectè & ſcribitur hiſtoria animalium, & præcedit in edocendis cauſis, vndénam, aut quem ad finem, ſiue cuius gratia condita quæque ſunt à natura, præcipuè, in quam finalem agentémque cauſam. Nam obiter quidem materialis quoque paſſim pro rei deſiderio exponitur, vt ſimul aut neceſſitatis notæque melioris ratio declaretur, aut ex quo vndéque conſiſtant quæque, demonſtretur. Sed quanquam libris nouem interpretatio hæc hiſtoriarum conſummatur, tamen qui nonus in exemplari Græco continetur, hunc ego ſeptimum collocaui: nec id temerè factum exiſtimo. Agitur enim in eo de hominis generatione: quam rem Ariſtot. continuò à generatione cæterorum animalium pollicetur explicaturum. Itaque cùm quinto & ſexto libro cæterorum animalium generationem expoſuiſſet, nulli dubio eſſe debet, quin ille ſeptimum hunc collocarit. Sed Appellicon Teius, de quo Strabo plura, vt alia permulta in exſcribendis Ariſtotelicis libris deprauauit, ſic id permutaſſe videtur, exiſtimans vltimum eſſe totius hiſtoriæ collocandum: quoniam cùm Ariſtoteles agere de generatione inciperet, vltimo loco de homine dicturum pollicitus eſt. At ille non vltimo totius hiſtoriæ dixit, ſed eius loci, quem de generatione tractaret. quod patet ex iis quæ in ſexto, qui ſecundus de generatione eſt, locum cum abſoluens, ſcribit. Sequitur, inquit, vt pari modo de iis quæ in terreſtrium genere animal pariunt, atque etiam de homine diſſeramus. Tertius igitur hic à primo de generatione collocandus eſt: quo fit, vt idem ſeptimus totius ordinis hiſtoriæ habeatur. Sunt etiam exemplaria tum Græca tum verò Latina, quæ habeant fragmentum quoddam hiſtoriis additum: ſed id cauſas quaſdam materiales agentéſque generationis humanæ exponit, non hiſtoriam complectitur: itaque non inter hiſtoriæ libros hoc ego ponendum duxi: ſed ſi collocandum vſpiam eſt, libris de generatione, meo quidem iudicio, coniungendum eſt. Inſpicere ſingulos hos libros ac legere velis ſumme Princeps, quoad tuæ occupationes patientur: vt re explorata iudicare, & ſi quid voluptatis eſt in legendis naturæ operibus, oblectari poſſis. Non enim me offenſurum tuas aures puto, quanquam non Græco mihi patrio, ſed peregrino vtor ſermone. Non quod ab interprete dicitur, id ex Græco exemplari intelligere deſiderabis. Ipſa Latina oratio ſenſum Ariſtot. ita explicabit, vt minimè Græcam deſideres. Nihil miſcet, nihil inculcat, nominat vſu veterum probatiſſimorum autorum genera animalium. Si quid noui imponit, ita inſerit, vt familiare cognatumque id quoque videri poſſit. Si quid Græcè appellat, id non durum occurrit. aut enim vſitatum, &, vt ita dixerim, vagum Latinis eſt, quale eſt nomen delphini, cameli, elephantis, crocodili, ichneumonis, aſpidis, ſalamandræ, & reliquorum generis eiuſdem: aut ita ſonat, vt non minùs Latinum eſſe, quàm Græcum videatur. Cur enim tetricem auem, aut crecem, aut clerum, non eodem hoc nomine vocem, ſi non comperio Latinum, cùm, quaſi Latinum ſit, ita congruat? Quis attacem ambiguam illam belluam, aut balerum, fluuiatilem piſcem ita nominans, peregrinum ſonare videbitur? Nec verò contemnendum vulgus interdum eſt, ſi quid nondum à literarum profeſſoribus nuncupatum, ſuo ipſum nomine appellat, vt bruchum genus locuſtæ terreſtris, quod Græci attelabum vocant. aut martam genus muſtelæ ruſticæ, quod Græci ictida dicunt, quamuis plura eius genera ſint. Nec temerè actum dixerim, ſi quis viuerræ nomine ea complectitur: planiùs enim ita docebimus, ſi id martã, aut viuerram vocemus: muſtelæ autem nomen in eo tantùm remaneat, quod Græci galem appellant. eodémque modo, ſi locuſtæ illius terreſtris alterum genus locuſtam, alterum brucum nuncupemus. Sed enim ſufficit lingua Latina ſingulis Græcæ orationis, ſiue vocabulis, ſiue ſententiis: quanquam nonnulli, quæ Latinè exprimere nequeunt, hæc inopiæ linguæ tribuunt Latinæ, ſuámque pauperiem vitio dare linguæ locupletiſſimæ audent: quos ſatis conuinci à M. Tullio puto, cùm ille linguam Romanam ne copia quidem verborum à Græca ſuperari autumet. Exclamat ille aliquantulum quidem importunè, O inopem interdum linguam Græcam, ſed non ſine cauſa, quando nonnulli ita contendunt, vt Græcis nihil deeſſe, Latinis permulta deſiderari pronuncient. Sed de his hactenus. Ariſtotelis verò laudem, quamuis mos interpretum ſit, eum quem interpretantur autorem, vberiùs laudare, tamen ſi latiùs perſequar, vereor ne mihi idem obiiciatur, quod illi qui apud Lacedæmonios de Herculis laudibus agere voluit: Quis Herculem vituperet, aut minùs bene de eo ſentiat? Quis illum non inter deos immortales enumeret, colat, obſeruet, vt tu laudare velis? Lacedæmonij ſubdiderunt. Tanta eſt enim Ariſtotelis exiſtimatio, tanta autoritas iam apud omnes mortales, vt fruſtra quis prædicet, quo ingenio, qua doctrina hic fuerit, quo artificio rem quamcunque explicandam ſibi ſtatuerit, tractet: quanta vis in hoc differendi, quanta in cognoſcendis exponendiſque rebus diligentia. Hunc & Latij decus M. Tullius ita laudat, vt, excepto Platone, facilè philoſophorum principem appellet. Excipit ille quem amat, laudat verò, quem doctiſſimum eſſe iudicat. Miſſa hæc facio. Librorum quos interpretatus ſum, fructum, quãtus ſit, explicaſſe quoad poſſum, & locus hic patitur, non ab re fuerit fortaſſe. Omnis enim philoſophandi ratio naturalis, vbi à primis illis naturæ initiis, materiam dico, formam, finem, agens, & motum (vt ita loquar) emerſerit, hic verſatur, ac diutiſſimè immoratur, hic ſuas vires exercet, atque multiplicem, variam & admirabilem rerum conſtitutionem ampliſſimè explicat. Perſequitur ordine diſcrimina omnia, quibus natura ſuas animantes differre inter ſe voluit: colligit ſumma genera, reliqua ſigillatim exponit: partitur in ſpecies genera: & ſingula, quæ circiter quingenta numero in his continentur libris, deſcribit: pergit quæque explanans, quemadmodum oriantur, ſiue terreſtria, ſiue aquatica: quibusnam conſtent membris, quibus veſcantur alimentis, quibus afficiantur rebus, quibus moribus prædita ſint, quantum viuendi ſpatium datum cuique eſt, quanta corporis magnitudo, quod maximum eſt, quod minimum eſt: quæ forma, quis color, quæ vox, quæ ingenia, quæ officia: denique nihil omittit, quod in animalium genere natura gignat, alat, augeat, & tueatur. Quæ omnia eò ſpectant, vt (quod ſanctiſſimus quoque autor ille, quem Deus ſibi veluti ſupellectilem quandam precioſam elegerat, admonet) ex iis quæ à natura proueniunt, Deum immortalem, ex quo ipſa pendet natura, intelligamus, admiremur, atque colamus: qua re nihil pulchrius, nihil grauius, nihil dignius homini eſſe poteſt. Tantus fructus horum librorum eſt. Nec audiendi ſunt, qui inquiunt: Multa Ariſtot. de muſca, de apicula, de vermiculo: pauca de Deo. Permulta enim de Deo is tractat, qui doctrina rerum conditarum exquiſitiſſima, conditorem ipſum declarat. nec verò muſca, nec vermiculus omittendus eſt, vbi de naturæ mira ſolertia agitur. Vt enim artificis cuiuſuis, ſic naturæ ingenium in minutiſſimis potiùs contemplandum eſt. Quinetiam cùm rerum cauſas cognoſcere pulcherrimũ ſit (hac enim vna cognitione, homo perfici abſoluique poteſt, vt Deo immortali ſimilis quoad eius fieri poteſt, euadat) his ſanè libris plenè docemur, cur quæque res in animalium genere ita ſit: planéque felicitatem aſſequimur illam nobiliorem, quæ in actione animi conſiſtit: quam ſapiens quoque poëta prædicans, Felix, inquit, qui rerum potuit cognoſcere cauſas. Quid de anima loquar, de qua toties publicè priuatimque diſputatur? Nuſquam ſuorum librorum tam apertè philoſophus hic ſuam opinionem exponit, quàm in his libris, quid anima ſit, vndéque in corpus recipitur. Ad hæc, mores illi, & virtutum officia, quibus virum appellamus bonum, laudéque proſequimur, longe meliùs hinc accipi poſſunt, quàm vel à rhetore, quem Græci ſophiſtam vocant, vel à prædicatore, homine iam trito Latinis auribus: iis enim ſæpenumero vita diſcrepat à præceptis, & meliùs hortantur alios, quàm ipſi officio fungantur: vt interdum fruſtra illa virtutis egregia laus recitata ſit, prolixáque eorum præceptio vacet, & iaceat, cùm exempla deſiderentur vitæ præceptoris, & autoritas, quam qui reſpicit, faciliùs & mouetur ad virtutem, & in officio tenetur. At verò in contemplandis animalium moribus exempla ſuppetunt omnium officiorum, & effigies offeruntur virtutum, ſumma cum autoritate naturæ omnium parentis, non ſimulatæ, non commentitiæ, non inconſtantes & labiles, ſed verè ingenuæ atque perpetuæ. Quis enim tam peruerſa natura hoſtis ſui generis eſt, quin emendetur & mitigetur, cùm nullum animal occidi à ſui generis beſtia videatur? Quis tam in parentes impius, ne cùm ciconiæ auis, aut meropis pietatem erga parentes intelligat, pientior efficiatur? Quis adeò inhumanus illiberaliſque eſt, quem oſſifragæ benignitas in pullos aquilæ, non faciat benigniorem? Quis tam piger, iners, & ſegnis eſt, quin excitetur ad vitæ munera, cùm formicarum aut apum labores atque induſtriam intuetur? Quem non pudeat per metum peccare, cùm non ſolùm leonis animum inuictum cogitat, ſed etiam reguli auiculæ, quæ cum aquila pugnat, certátque de imperio? Quis principem bonum non colat atque obſeruet, cùm ſi rex apum in itinere aberrauerit, omnes eum inquirere, odoratúque ſagaci perſequi, donec inuenerint, cognitum habeant: geſtari etiam regem à plebe cùm volare non poteſt, & ſi perierit, omnes diſcedere? Nunquid parum exempli ad boni principis ſiue deſiderium, ſiue obſeruantiam datur? Quis princeps non ad clementiam facilè inuitetur, cùm reges apum armari quidem aculeo, ſed eo nunquam vti intelligat? Quæ fides, quis amor in canibus? Quanta in elephantis manſuetudo? Quæ in anſere verecundia? Quantum ſtudium ornatus ac polituræ in pauone? Quanta opera vocis amœnæ ſuauiſque in luſcinia? Quid de iuſtitia apum dicam, quæ colligunt quidem ex iis, quibus aliquid dulcedinis ineſt, ſed ſine vllo fructuum detrimento? Quid de caſtitate elephantis, qui quam impleuerit coitu, eam rurſus non tangit? Aut columbæ, quæ neque coire cum pluribus patitur, neque coniugium iam inde à primo ortu initum deſerit, niſi vidua, aut cœlebs? Diſciplina autem & eruditio elephanti, quem non faciat ſtudioſiorem? Omnino nulla pars vitæ humanæ eſt, quæ non ſuorum officiorum exempla commodiſſimè hinc accipiat. Nam, vt omittam artes illiberales, quæ & ipſæ ingeniis animalium non parum iuuantur, valetudinis exempla quæſo vnde commodiùs peti, quàm ex animalibus poſſint? Loca pro temporis conditione ſolent illa mutare: non plus edunt, aut bibunt, quàm ſibi ſalubre ſit: non diutiùs dormiunt, quàm ratio valetudinis poſtulat: modum mouendi quieſcendique ſeruant: nouit ſua quodque medicamenta: viuit ſua quodque ſorte contentum, & gaudet. hæc latè à medicis præcipiuntur. At verò exempla in quibus vis maior quam in præceptis eſt, ab animalibus certiora præbentur. Addo vtilitatem, quæ in dicendi facultate ex hac animalium ratione afferri poteſt. Comparationes enim, aſſimilationeſque illæ, quas Græci parabolas vocant, quæ plurimùm orationem exornant, auditorémque tenent, hinc variè, copioſè, aptiſſiméque accipi poſſunt: vt ſiue oras, ſiue communem partiris cum aliis ſermonem, eloquens, aptus ſuauiſque eſſe poſſis. Poeta verò vndenam pulchriùs ſua illa rara & mira accipiat, quàm ex his libris, qui naturæ arcana rimantur, enarrant, aperiunt? Medicus autem, quod fatetur ſe ſua inde ordiri, vbi philoſophus deſinit, nuſquam pleniùs quàm hic viderit. Quódque à Galeno medicorum principe traditur, Ariſtotelem primam anatomen, hoc eſt, membrorum diſſectionem ſcripſiſſe, hic agnoſcet: & quod idem & primus, & optimus fuerit autor, percipiet. Iam & philoſophi noſtræ ætatis, qui quadrifariam rerum cauſam ex prima illa librorum naturalis auſcultationis inſtitutione, accipiunt quidem communi quadam ratione: ſed quemadmodum his natura vtatur, in conſtitutione generationéque animalium parum, autore Ariſtotele, vident, inopia ſcilicet exemplaris Ariſtotelici, quod legere poſſint, hic vidiſſe aliquando gaudebunt, & phyſici, quos ſe appellant, digniùs de cætero profitebuntur. Rationes enim ideo quærimus vniuerſales, vt demum res particulares & ſenſiles teneamus. Accedit ad hæc voluptas, qua iuuari ac perfici quamuis actionem Ariſtoteles ait, quam in contemplandis rebus naturæ auidiſſimè capimus. Nam ſi pictor nos vehementer obiectat, cùm animal ſcitè pinxerit: quanto vehementiùs natura ipſa afficiet voluptate, cùm eius tam multa & varia animalia, mira membrorum conuenientia, inauditáque moderatione & elegantia facta cernamus? Cùm hos legimus libros, contemplamur profectò quàm varius ac pulcherrimus fructus horum librorum, & vtilitas amplior, quàm vt verbis exprimi poſſit. Sed quorſum hæc? Vt ſi in traducendis his tam neceſſariis, tamque commodis, & amœniſſimis libris, ſatis ego interpretis munere functus ſum, tu ſententiam feras Princeps doctiſſime, ædaſque in vſum publicum opus, quod ego ſine tua autoritate ædere nec poſſum, nec debeo. Si quid etiam dignum ex meo ingeniolo exit, quod in ea bibliotheca ponatur, quam magnificè conſulens hominum communi vtilitati, condere ſtatuiſti: ſi quid inquam tale effici mea opera potuit, cenſeas ea ipſa bibliotheca tanquam ciuitate donari hunc codicem, nondum cognitum, aut vllam in ſedem receptum. Non ego primus te conſtituo iudicem: iampridem conſenſu omnium doctorum virorum habitus es exiſtimator, & architectus eorum qui in ſtudiis liberalibus elaborant. Facit enim tua illuſtris doctrina, tuúmque ſummum ingenium, vt nemo te vel iudicio grauior, vel autoritate locupletior habeatur. Principem etiam ſummum te nuper quidem habuimus: ſed, quod optauimus, talem habemus, vt facilè temporibus his tuis ſperare poſſimus publicam illam felicitatem, quam Plato vir doctiſſimus futuram confirmat, cùm aut philoſophi regnant, aut reges philoſophantur. Tu enim & philoſophus es illuſtris, & fortuna ſummi imperij virtuti tuæ coniuncta eſt. Lege igitur Princeps ſapientiſſime, & iudica, an ego rem tibi non repudiandam attulerim: & ſi bene, vt ſpero, ceſſerit, age pro tua liberalitate, vt pari ſtudio laborem ſuſcipere alterum, pluráque in dies afferre huiuſmodi opera poſſim.

ARISTOTELIS STAGIRITÆ, DE HISTORIA ANIMALIVM LIBER I.

CAPVT I. A / ΚΕΦΑΛ. α.

In quibus animalia inter ſe differant, quibúſve conueniant, eorumdemque naturæ diuerſitas.

ANIMALIVM partes, aut incompoſitæ ſunt, quæ ſcilicet in ſimiles ſibi partes diuiduntur, vt caro in carnes, & ob eam rem ſimilares appellentur: aut compoſitæ, quæ aptæ ſecari in partes diſſimiles ſint, non in ſimiles: vt manus, non in manus B ſecatur, aut facies in facies: quapropter eas diſſimilares nominemus. Quo in genere partium ſunt, quæ non modò partes, verùm etiam membra appellentur: videlicet quæ cùm ipſæ totius integritate deſcribantur, habeant tamen intra ſe partes diuerſas, ſuique generis opificia, vt caput, vt pes, vt manus, vt totum brachium, aut pectus: quippe quæ & ipſa partes ſint totæ, & ex partibus conſtent diuerſis. Quæque autem pars diſſimilaris ex ſimilaribus conſtat, vt manus ex carne, oſſibus, neruis. Habent verò animalia partes, aut eaſdem ſibi omnes, aut diuerſas. Partes eaſdem vel C ſpecie intelligi volo, vt hominis naſus, aut oculus, ſpecie cum naſo aut oculo hominis alterius conuenit, & caro cum carne, & os cum oſſe: quod idem de equo, & cæteris quæ ſpecie inter ſe conſentire ſtatuimus, intelligi debet. Vt enim totum ſe habet ad totum, ſic partes ſingulæ ſeſe ad ſingulas habeant neceſſe eſt. Vel genere, quanquam exceſſu defectúve inter ſe differant. De iis loquor, quorum idem eſt genus; verbi gratia, auis, aut piſcis: id enim vtrumque differentiis conſumitur generis. Et ſpecies complures tum piſcium, tum etiam auium habentur. Differunt verò inter ſe D partes penè plurimæ eorum contraria affectuum qualitate, vt coloris, aut figuræ, eo quòd aliæ magis, aliæ minùs affectæ iis ipſis qualitatibus ſint.

A Multitudine etiam, & paucitate, & magnitudine, paruitateque, & omnino exceſſu defectúque diſcrepant, cùm aliis cruſta, aliis teſta pro tegmine habeatur: & aliis roſtrum porrectius ſit, vt gruibus: aliis breue. Penna item aliis vberiùs, aliis parciùs data eſt. Sed tamen in iis quoque ratio partium nonnullarum diuerſa eſt, cùm alia calcari, aut aliquo armentur aculeo, alia nihil eiuſmodi habeant: & aliis apex in capite ſit, aliis deſit. Sed enim, quod prope dixerim, partes plurimæ, & ex quibus tota moles compacta eſt, aut eædem ſunt, aut ratione contrariorum, & per exceſſum defectúmque differunt. Pluris enim minoriſque rationem, referri ad exceſſum defectúmque, putauerim oportere. Non B deſunt quibus partes nec ſpecie ſint eædem, neque exceſſu, defectúve, ſed proportione conueniant: quomodo os cum ſpina, & vnguem cum ſolida vngula, & manum cum forcipato pedis, & pennam cum ſquama conuenire animaduertimus. Quod enim penna in auium genere eſt, idem ſquama in piſcibus habetur. Partes, quas ſingula animalia habent hunc in modum diuerſas, eaſdémve intelligimus, atque etiam ſitu contemplamur. Sunt enim complura, quæ eaſdem habeant partes, ſed non ſitu eodem: verbi cauſa, mammas alia in pectore habent, alia in fœminibus. Partes autem ſimilares, aut molles ac humidæ ſunt: aut ſiccæ, & ſolidæ. Molles, inquam, vel omnino, vel quamdiu in ſede C maneant naturali: vt ſanguis, ſanies, adeps, ſeuum, medulla, ſemen genitale, fel, lac, vbi haberi id poteſt, caro, & quæ iis proportione reſpondeant. item excrementa omnia, modo tamen diuerſo, vt pituita, & ſedimenta alui, atque veſicæ. Siccas ac ſolidas intelligi volo, neruum, cutem, venam, pilum, os, cartilaginem, vnguem, cornu: æquiuoce enim ad genus appellamus, cùm cornu tum figura tum toto dicimus. Item quæ iis proportione reſpondent. Animalium verò differentias, aut per vitas, aut per actiones, aut per mores, aut per partes conſtitui dignum eſt. Quibus de rebus primùm formula quadam agendum, deinde generatim diſcuſſione diligentiore differendum cenſemus. Profectò differentiæ, quæ in morum, victuum, actionúm- D que ratione verſantur, colligi debent, eo quòd alia ſunt aquatilia, alia terreſtria. Et aquatilium ordo duplex: alia enim in fluido degunt, victúmque petunt ex humore: quem etiam humorem per vices accipiunt, & reddunt, nec viuere poſſunt, niſi verſentur in humore: quod plurimæ piſcium parti euenire apertum eſt. Alia degunt quidem in fluido, victúmque inde emoliuntur: ſed aerem, non humorem recipiunt, & foris parere ſolent. Complura huius generis ſunt partim greſſilia, vt lutris, latax, crocodilus: partim volucres, vt mergi, vt vrinatrices. Quinetiam quæ nullis pedibus innitantur, vt natrix. Nonnulla cùm victum E in humore exerceant, nec foris viuere queant, nihil vel aëris, vel humoris recipiunt, vt vrticæ, vt oſtrea. Aquatilis autem generis alia marina, alia fluuialia, alia lacuſtria, alia paluſtria, vt rana, vt cordula. Terreſtrium verò animantium alia accipiunt, redduntque aerem, (quæ reſpiratio nominatur) vt homo, & quæcunque terreſtria habent pulmonem. Alia quamuis aërem recipiant, tamen ſedem in terra perpetuò tenent, & victum indidem capiunt, vt veſpæ, apes, & reliqua inſecta. Quo nomine ea appello, quorum corpus inciſuris præcingitur, aut parte tantùm ſupina, aut etiam prona. Sed cùm terreſtrium plura, re dictum eſt, cibum ab aquis petant, nullum generis aquatilis eſt, quod & aquam recipiat, & terram cibi cauſa petat. Sunt porrò quæ primùm viuant in humore, deinde forma immutata, foris vitam incipiant agere, vt culices paluſtres: ex iis enim aſili proueniunt. Ad hæc, alia ſede ſtabili degunt, alia mutabili, & vaga. Sedes ſtabilis in humore tantummodo eſt. Terreſtrium nulla ſtatu immutabili viuunt. At aquatilium plura ſaxis affixa vitam omnem traducunt: vt conchæ genera complura. Quinetiam ſpongia ſenſum habere aliquem creditur argumento, quod multo difficilius abſtrahuntur, niſi clanculum agatur, vt referunt auulſores. Sunt item quæ & adhærere ſoleant, & quoties libuit, abſoluant: genus quoddam enim, quam vrticã vocamus: quippe cùm nonnullæ ex iis noctu abſolutæ paſcantur. Non deſunt complura, quæ cùm ſint abſoluta, mouere tamen ſe nequeant, vt oſtreæ, & quæ tota ſimplici nitidoque teſta operta, vertibula appellantur, & calli, aut tubera. Vis item aliis natandi tributa eſt, vt piſcibus, vt mollibus, vt cruſtatis, vel cruſtis. Quædam ambulare poſſunt, vt genus cancrorum: quippe quod, quanquam ſuapte natura aquatile eſt, tamen habet vim ambulandi. Terreſtrium verò, alia volucres ſunt, vt aues, vt apes, quæ modo inter ſe quodam alio diſtant. Alia pedeſtria: quorum item alia greſſilia, alia reptilia, alia tractilia ſunt. Animal, quod volucre tantum ſit, vt piſcis natatile ſolummodo eſt, nullum nouimus. Nam & quæ pennis cuteis volant, ingredi poſſunt. Vnde veſpertilioni etiam pedes ſunt, & vitulus marinus pedes habet minutos. Sic nonnullæ aues depedes ſunt, quæ ob eam rem apedes, à paruitate pedum nuncupatur: quod genus auiculæ pennis plurimùm valet: ſicut cætera quoque propè ſimilia, vt pennis præualere, ſic pedibus degenerare videtur, vt hirundo, & falcula, ſiue riparia: hæc enim omnia & moribus, & volatu, & ſpecie proxima inter ſe conſpiciuntur. Apparet apes omnibus anni temporibus. Riparia æſtate tantùm, cùm imber inceſſit: tunc enim & apparet, & capitur: denique rara hæc auicula eſt. At verò quæ greſſilia, eademq; natatilia ſunt, complura reperiuntur, necnon differentias illas vitæ, actioneſque animantium continet. Sunt enim aliæ gregales, aliæ ſolitariæ, tum volucres, tũ nantes, tum etiam pedeſtres. Vitam aliæ ancipitem degunt, vt eædem modo ſocietate, modo ſolitudine gaudeant. Item aliæ ciuiles, aliæ inciuiles, tum ex gregalibus, tum etiam ex ſolitariis ſunt: gregales in volucrum genere, columbi, grues, olores. Nullum, cui vngues adunci, gregatile eſſe perpẽdimus. Complura etiam inter nantes piſcium genera gregatim degere ſcimus, vt quos curſores vocant, & thunnos, & limoſas, & hamias. Hominis naturã ancipitem ſocietatis ac ſolitudinis eſſe, apertum eſt. Ciuiles appello animantes, quæ labori cõmunicant eidem, quarum opus commune efficitur opera, munuſque idem omni eſt: quod non omnibus gregalibus competit. Ciuilis generis eſt homo, apis, veſpa, formica, grus. Quarum aliæ ſub duce degunt, vt grues, vt apes: aliæ nulli ſubditæ imperio ſunt, vt formicæ, & alia innumera penè genera. Sunt item tam ex gregalibus, quàm ex ſolitariis, aliæ, quæ ſedem nunquam mutent: aliæ quæ mutare ſtato tẽpore ſoleant. Et aliæ quæ carne veſcantur, aliæ, quę frugibus, aliæ quæ omnia attingant. Non deſunt, quæ cibo ſui generis vtantur, vt apes, vt aranei. apes enim melle, & quibuſdam aliis dulcibus aluntur:

A araneí muſcarum venatu viuunt: nonnulla piſcibus veſci natura voluit. Adhæc, aliæ aut vim habent venandi, aut ingenio recondendi cibi dotatæ ſunt. Aliæ nec ad venandum aptæ, nec ad recondendũ. Item aliæ domicilia ſibi parant, vt talpa, mus, formica, muſca, apis. Aliç nullis ſe includere caſis patiuntur, vt plures tam inſecti generis quàm quadrupedis. Quinetiam locis diſcrimẽ aliud exiſtit: quippe cùm aliæ cauernas ſubeant, vt lacerti, vt ſerpentes: aliæ per ſumma telluris degant, vt canis, vt equus: ac aliæ foramina ſibi excauent, aliæ nunquam eo munere fungantur: & aliæ noctu vagentur, vt noctua, veſpertilio: aliæ interdiu tantùm. Addo etiam, alias eſſe cicures, alias feras: & alias perpetuò cicures, vt hominem, vt mulum: alias perpetuò feras, vt
B pantheram, vt lupum: nonnullas etiam facilè poſſe manſueſcere, vt elephantos. Sed quin aliter partiendum eſt. Genera enim quæcunque placida ſunt, hæc eadem fera quoque poſſunt reperiri, vt ſues, equi, homines, oues, capræ, canes, boues. Item aliæ mutæ omnino ſunt, aliæ ſtrepitum tantùm edunt, aliæ vocem etiam formant: quarum aliæ loqui poſſunt, aliæ vocem ſolam nullis exprimendam litteris reddunt. Atque aliæ loquaces, aliæ taciturnæ, aliæ oſcines, aliæ inoſcines. Omnium vocalium animantium communis mos eſt, vt ſui initus tempore potiſſimùm canant, & blaterent. Aliæ præterea camporum incolæ ſunt, vt palumbes: aliæ
C montis, vt vpupæ: aliæ cum hominibus degere ſolent, vt columbi. Item aliæ copia libidinis gaudent, vt perdicum genus, & gallinaceorum. Aliæ minùs Venere valent, vt quæ coruinam ſpeciem gerunt: quippe quæ rarò ſoleant coire. Marinarum etiam animantium aliæ pelagicæ, aliæ litorales, aliæ ſaxatiles ſunt. ad hæc, aliis data vis eſt dimicandi, aliis ingenium cauendi & euitandi. Viribus pollent, quæ iniuriam vel inferant aliis, vel illatam ſibi propulſent, ſeque defendant. Cautæ & prouidæ ſunt, quæ aliquid in ſe ipſis præſidij habent contra inferendam iniuriam. Differunt præterea moribus. Nam aliæ mites, remiſſæ, & minimè peruicaces
D ſunt, vt boues. aliæ animoſæ, peruicaces, brutæ omnino, vt ſues ſyluestres. aliæ ingenioſæ, ac timidç, vt cerui, lepores, cuniculi. aliæ illiberales, perfidæ, inſidioſæque, vt ſerpentes. aliæ liberales, fortes, & nobiles, vt leones. aliæ generoſæ, feroces, inſidioſæ, vt lupi. Nobile enim id eſt, quod ex bono prodiit genere: generoſum autem, quod non à ſua natura degenerarit. Et aliæ aſtutæ, malitioſæ, callidæ, vt vulpes. aliæ animoſæ, & amatrices, & aſſentatrices: vt canes. aliæ mites & manſuetudini addictæ, vt elephantes. aliæ verecundæ & cautæ, vt anſeres. aliæ inuidæ, & ornatus ac polituræ ſtudioſæ, vt pauones. Homo vnus ex numero animalium omniũ vim obtinet cogitandi. Et cùm memoriæ, atq; di-E ſciplinæ complures animantes eſſe participes poſſint, nulla tamen præter hominem poteſt reminiſci. Sed de moribus, vitaque generis cuiuſque diligentiùs poſt.

CAPVT II.

Quæ corporis partes animalibus communes, quæ item propriæ ſint.

OMnium autem partes communes animalium ſunt, qua cibus recipitur, & in quam deuoratur. Quas quidem partes & eaſdem eſſe, & diuerſas, nihil prædictis rationibus prohibet. Aut enim ſpecie, aut exceſſu, aut proportione, aut ſitu [de]terminandum eſt. Ab iis aliæ communes plurimorum animalium partes habentur, & qua cibi excrementum emittitur. Non enim hæc omnibus data eſt. Partem, qua cibus recipitur, os appellamus. [I]n quam deuoratur, ventriculum. Reliqua pars [mu]ltiplici nomine ſignificatur. Sed cùm duplex [ſi]t excremẽtum, hoc eſt, ſiccum ac humidum, quæ [pa]rtem illam humidi excrementi capientem habent, hæc ſicci receptaculum continent. Quæ verò [h]oc habent, non illud etiã habere omnia nouimus. Quamobrem quæ veſicam habent, aluum eadem etiam obtinent. At verò quæ aluum habent, non omnia & veſicã poſſident. Humidi nanq. excremẽti conceptaculum, veſicam: ſicci, aluum nominamus.

CAPVT III.

Quomodo animalia inter ſe differant in ſeminis prolifici emiſſione.

RElíquis magna ex parte tum eæ quas enumerauimus, partes tributæ ſunt, tum etiam qua ſemen genitale mittatur. Quæ modo gignere animal poſſint, aut in ſe ipſa ſemen prolificum mittunt, aut in alterum. Fœmina, quod in ſe mittit, appellatur. Mas, quod in alterum. Sed in nonnullis diſcrimen id fœminæ & maris non eſt. Species quoque partium, quæ ad ipſam pertinent procreationem, diuerſa eſt, cùm alia vuluam habeant, alia quod vuluæ proportione reſpondeat. Partes hæ ſunt, quæ neceſſariæ vel omnibus, vel plurimis datæ animalibus ſunt. Omnibus verò ſenſus vnus, tactus ineſt communis. Itaque pars, qua ſentiendi vis iſta contineatur, nomine vacat: aliis enim eadem, aliis ex proportione habetur.

CAPVT IV.

Humorem quodque animal habere, aliter tamen vel huic vel illi ineſſe.

HVmorem item genus quodque animalium continet, quo ſi aut per vim, aut per naturam ipſam priuetur, in perniciem agatur neceſſe eſt. Habent etiam id diuerſum in quo humor ille & fiat, & contineatur. Sunt hæc in aliis ſanguis, & vena: in aliis, quod iis proportione reſpondeat: quæ quidem imperfecta ſunt, atque alterum fibra, alterum ſanies dicitur. Tactus itaque in parte corporis ſimilari conſiſtit, vt in carne, aut in aliqua generis eiuſdem: denique in parte ſanguinea, aut in ea quæ ex proportione vice illius habeatur. Omnibus tamen parte ſimilari ſenſum hunc contineri certum eſt: ſicut è contrario potentias agentes partibus diſſimilaribus tributas eſſe apertum eſt: vt ori, ciborum confectionem: pedibus aut alis, aut quibuſuis proportione accommodatis, officium incedendi. Ad hæc, animalium alia ſanguinem habent, vt homo, equus: denique omnia, quæ aut perfecta pedibus carent, aut binis quaterníſve pedibus conſtant. Alia exanguia ſunt, vt apes: vt veſpæ: atque inter marina, ſepia, locuſta: denique omnia quæ pedibus plus quàm quaternis innitantur.

CAPVT V.

Quæ animalia perfectum animal, quæ oua, quæ vermem gignant, quove ritu quæque incedant.

Item alia animal gignunt perfectum, alia ouum, alia vermem. Procreant animal, homo, equus, vitulus marinus, & reliqua quæ pilis teguntur: atque in genere aquatili, quæ cete appellamus, vt delphini: & quæ cartilaginea vocantur. Quorum alteris fiſtula data eſt, branchiæ deſunt, vt delphinus & balænis. Habent delphini fiſtulam à dorſo, balænæ à fronte. Alteris branchiæ detectæ, vt muſtelo, raiæ, reliquiſque generis eiuſdem. Ouum id ex fœtibus perfectis vocamus, cuius ex parte principio animal conſiſtit: reliquum vero alimento ei, quod gignitur, eſt. Vermis id eſt, ex quo toto animal totum per ſubiecti fœtus formationem incrementúmque gignitur. Animalium ergo, quæ animal generant, aut oua intra ſe priùs conficiūt, vt cartilaginea: aut illico animal intra ſe formant, vt homo, vt equus, at vero in lucem fœtu perfecto, aut animal editur, aut ouum, aut vermis. Ouum ipſum, aut putamine continetur teſtaceo, & bicolor eſt, quale auium eſſe videmus: aut cute molli obducitur, vnicolórque eſt, quale cartilaginea verméſque pariunt. Vermes item, aut continuò mobiles ſunt aut immobiles. Sed de his accuratiùs poſt, cùm de generatione agetur, diſſeremus. Nunc animalium reliquas differentias addimus. Enimvero aliis pedes Natura dedit, aliis negauit. Et quæ obtinēt pedes, aut binos habent, vt homines, atque aues, duo hæc tantummodo genera, aut quaternos, vt lacerti, vt canes. aut plures, vt centipedes, & apes. Verùm quæcunque ambulant, omnia pedes pari numero poſſident. Quæ autem in genere natante pedibus carent, hæc aut pinnis natant, vt piſces: (quorum alij quaternas, binas ſcilicet parte prona, & binas ſupina habent: vt aurata, vt lupus. alij binas tantùm, qui longi, læuéſque ſunt, vt anguillæ, vt congri) aut nullas omnino habent, vt muræna: ſed ita mari vtuntur, vt terra ſerpentes, modóque ſimili repunt in humore. Cartilaginei quoque generis aliqua pinnis carent, videlicet quæ plana ſunt, & caudam habent, vt raia, & paſtinaca, ſuáque ipſâ latitudine natant. Raiam tamen pinnas habere videmus, & quæcunque ſuam latitudinem non colligunt in mucronem. Quæ autem pedes habere putantur, vt mollia, tum pedibus ipſis, tum pinnis natant, & quidem his celeriùs, iners autem alueus ducitur: vt ſepia, loligo, polypus. Verùm ambulare polypus poteſt, ſepia & loligo nequeunt. Cruſta intecta, vt locuſtæ, ſuis caudis natant, celerriméque retrorſum, pinnarum caudæ adiunctarum beneficio. Cordula etiam pedibus natat, & cauda, quam ſimilem ſiluro habet, quoad paruum magno licet conferre. Volucrum autem aliæ penna volant, vt aquila, vt accipiter: aliæ membrana ſicca, vt apes, vt ſcarabei: aliæ cute, vt vulpecula, vt veſpertilio. Volant pennis aut cute, quæ habent ſanguinem, membranis ſiccis, quæ ſanguine carent, vt inſecta. Sunt porrò quæ vel pennis, vel membranis volant, omnia bipeda aut apeda. angues enim circa Æthiopiam tales volare narrantur.

Genus pennatum, auem appellamus: reliqua duo A genera nomine carent communi: Volucris autem generis exanguis, aliis pennarum tutelæ cruſta ſuperuenit, vt vaginipennes poſſint nuncupari: velut ſcarabeis: aliis pennæ nulla cruſta integuntur, quorum alia bipennes ſunt, alia quadripennes. Gerunt pennas quaternas, quæ aut grandiora ſunt, aut aculeo in aluo armantur. Vaginipennis illius ordinis nullum eſt, quod aculeum gerat. Bipeda anteriore parte aculeos gerunt, vt muſca, tabanus, aſilus, culex. Omnia, quæ ſanguine carent, minùs, quàm quæ habent ſanguinem, adoleſcunt, paucis marinis exceptis, vt mollium nonnullis: quæ quidem genera grandiora locis tepidis redduntur, & mari potiùs, aut dulcibus aquis, quàm terra. Omnia, quæ ſe B mouent, aut quaternis notis mouentur, aut pluribus. Quaternis tantùm, quæ habent ſanguinem: vt homines binis manibus, binisque pedibus: aues binis alis & binis pedibus: quadrupedes pedibus quaternis: piſces pinnis quaternis. Nam & quæ pinnis, aut non ampliùs binis, aut nullis, vt ſerpentes, vtuntur, quaternis ea quoque notis nihilo minus mouentur: flexus enim quaterni his aguntur, aut bini cum pinnis binis. At verò quæ ſanguine vacua pedibus ſe pluribus moueant, ſiue volucres ſunt, ſeu pedeſtres, iis certè motus per notas plures exercetur: vt animal, quod à vita die vno deſcribenda ephemerum appellatum eſt, pedibus quatuor, pennisque totidem mouetur: quippe quod non ſolùm C vitæ ſuæ ratione proprium id meritò habeat, ſed etiam cùm quadrupes ſit, volucre quoque eſt. Omnia porro tam quadrupeda, quàm multipeda, modo ſimili moueri ſolita ſunt: cunctis enim motus per diametrum agitur. Verùm cùm cætera ducibus binis pedibus incedant, cancer vnus quaternis regi ſolitus eſt.

A Non enim pilos omnia habent, quæ animal generant: quippe cùm nonnulli ex piſcibus animal procreent. Quæ tamẽ pilos ſortita ſunt, animal omnia progignunt. Nam pilos quòque effigie aculei ſpiculatos, genus quoddam eſſe pilorum putandum eſt, quales herinacei, atq. hyſtrices gerunt: vicem enim villorum, non pedum, vt echinorũ aculei, præſtant. Generis quadrupedum, quæ animal gignunt, plures quidem ſpecies intelliguntur, ſed nullis ferè notæ nominibus. Singulorum enim nomina habentur, vt hominis, leonis, equi, cerui, canis, reliquorumque ad hunc modum. Nullis fere inquam, quoniam genus vnũ, vel ſuper iis omnibus, quę iumenta nominamus, eſt, vt equo, aſino, mulo, ginno, inno B & mulis, quas terra Syria fert, quæ ſimilitudine quadam nomen mularum acceperunt, quanquam non omnino eadem qua mulæ ſpecie continentur. Coeunt enim, & mutua inter ſe ratione progenerant. Naturam itaque eorũ, quæ minus genere certo continentur, ſeorſum ſingillatim conſideremus neceſſe eſt. Hæc ita impræſentiarum formula exposuiſſe quadam prægustandi gratia placuit, videlicet, vt quibus de rebus tractandum, & quatenus eſſet perſequendũ intelligeretur: poſt accuratius de iiſdem diſſeremus, vt primùm differentias, atq. accidentia, quæ iuncta cuique ſunt, accipiamus: deinde ad eorũ comperiẽdas cauſas enitamur. Ita enim effici poteſt, vt via rationeque docendi vtamur Na- C turæ congrua, cùm commentatio ſingulorũ antecedat. Hinc enim aperitur, quibuſnam de rebus, & ex quibus effici demonſtrationẽ oporteat. Primùm itaque partes animalium, ex quibus conſtant, enumeraſſe par eſt. His enim potiſſimùm, atque in primis tota quoque ipſa inter ſe differunt: videlicet, aut eo quod alia habeant, alia careant: aut ſitu, & ordine, aut differẽtiis, quas antehac expoſuimus, id eſt, ſpecie, exceſſu, proportione, & affectuũ contrarietate. Sed primùm partes hominis explicare debemus. Vt enim numos ad id quod ſibi quiſque exploratũ certumq. habeat, probare ſolet: ita cæteris quoque in rebus agendum eſt. At homo animaliũ maximè omnium notum nobis neceſſariò eſt.

D Partes igitur hominis exteriores etſi non ſenſum effugiunt, tamen ne ſequela & ſeries continuanda doctrinæ prætermittatur, atque etiam vt ſenſum ratio comitetur, partes primùm enumerabimus officiales, ſiue inſtrumentales, deinde ſimilarium ordinem proſequemur.

CAPVT VII.

De ſummis in hominis corpore partibus, & quid caput, quid item thorax ſit.

SVmmæ igitur partes, in quas primas totum diuiditur corpus, hæ ſunt: caput, collum, thorax, brachium duplex, crus duplex. Thoracem eam partem appello, quæ à collo ad pudenda vſque trunca pertendit. Capitis autem pars, quæ capil- E lis intecta eſt, calua appellatur: cuius pars prior ſinciput, nouiſſimè conſiſtere ſolita: omnium enim oſſium corporis vltimum id concreſcit, & induratur. Poſterior, occiput eſt. Media inter occiput & ſinciput, vertex. Cerebrum ſincipiti ſubditum eſt. occiput inane. Calua ipſa ſanè tota, os rarum, rotundum, cute gracilenta obductum eſt. Habet ſuturas, quæ mulieris eſt, vnam in orbem: quæ autem viri, tres in idem magna ex parte coeuntes. Iam viſum etiam ſine vlla ſutura caput viri eſt.

verticem caluæ, medium diſcrimen, & æquamentum capillorum vocamus. quod nonnullis geminum eſt: ſunt enim qui facti à natura bivertices ſint, verùm non oſſe ſed capillorum æquamento.

CAPVT VIII.

Quid facies in homine.

FAciem, partem eam nominamus dumtaxat in homine, quæ caluæ ſubiecta eſt. Nam piſcis aut bouis faciem dicere non ſolemus. Partes faciei, frons: quæ ſub ſincipite poſita, inter idipſum & oculos eſt. Quibus hæc magna, ſegnes: quibus parua, mobiles: quibus lata, mente moueri idonei: quibus rotunda, iracundi.

CAPVT IX.

De ſuperciliis, oculis, palpebris, ciliis, pupilla, nigro, candido, angulis: & de iis animalibus, quæ oculis careant.

SVpercilia ſub fronte bipartitò diſtincta, quæ ſi in rectum porrigûtur, mollem ſubeſſe animum ſignificant: ſi iuxta naſum inflexa ſunt, auſterum notant, & acerbum: ſed ſi iuxta tempora inflectuntur, deriſorem diſſimulatorémque indicant: ſi verò in totum demiſſa, notam inuidiæ habent. Oculi his ſubiacent duo, legitimo ſcilicet naturæ officio: quorum partes ſuperius inferiúſque tegentes, palpebrę appellantur. Pilos, qui extremo palpebrarum ambitui adhærent, cilium nominamus. Humor oculi interior, quo videmus, pupilla eſt: quod eam ambit, nigrum dicitur: quod poſtremò nigrum circumdat, candidum, ſiue albugo. Pars communis ſuperioris inferiorîſque palpebræ, angulus eſt: quem duplicem vterque oculus habet, alterum iuxta naſum, alterum iuxta tempora. Qui ſi iuſtò ſunt longiores, notam morum maleficorum præbent: ſi carnoſi more pectunculorum ſunt, qui naribus iunguntur, malitiam præferunt. Habent profectò oculos, tum cætera animaliũ genera omnia, præterquam teſta intecta, & ſi quid imperfectum aliud eſt: tum ea quæ animal generant, omnia, pręter talpam, quam modo quodam habere dixerim, cùm tamen omnino habere negem: quippe cùm omnino quidem nec videat, nec perſpicuos habeat oculos: verùm ſi quis prætentam membranam detrahit, locus oculorum apparet, & pars nigra eorũdem: ſitus denique, & deſcriptio eadem quam legitimam conſpicui oculi obtinent: vtpote cùm obducta cute oculi preſſi, confuſi oblæſique eſſent dum crearentur.

CAPVT X.

De oculorum varietate in quibuſque animantibus.

CAndidũ oculi magna ex parte ſimile in omnibus eſt: at quod nigrum dicitur, variat: aliis enim atrum, aliis admodum cæſium, aliis fuluum, aliis caprinum, quod morum optimorum indicium eſt, & ad cernendi claritatem primatũ obtinet. Solus ergo potiſſimùm animalium homo numeroſa oculorũ varietate notatur, cùm cæteris in ſuo ſingulis genere, color ſit idẽ, equis exceptis, qui interdum oculis proueniunt cæſiis. Sunt oculorum, alij grandiores, alij parui, alij modici, qui optimi habẽtur: item alij nimiùm prominentes, alij conditi, alij modicè ſiti. Qui conditi ſunt, clariſſimè cernere in genere quoque brutorum animalium poſſunt.

Avris, pars capitis, qua audimus, eſt, ita vt nulla ſpiratio deſideretur. Errat enim Alcmæon, qui capras ſpirare per aures credidit. Auris pars exterior, cui nomen auriculæ, parte conſtat ſuperiore, pinna: inferiore, fibra. Tota autem ipſa ex cartilagine carneque conſtituta eſt. at pars inferior forma anfractui cochleæ ſimilis deſinit in os, quod auriculam plane imitatur; in quod quaſi nouiſſimum vaſculum ſtrepitus deuenit. Hinc meatus ad cerebrum nullus eſt. at in oris palatum vſque ſemita pertendit, & vena de cerebro deſcendit eòdem. Oculi quoque in cerebrum finiunt, & vterque poſitus ſuper venula eſt. Aures homini tantùm immobiles: nam eorum, quæ ſenſum obtinent audiendi, aliis auriculæ ſunt, aliis deſunt, meatuſque patent ipſi audiendi, vt iis, quæ penna, aut cortice ſquamave teguntur. at ea, quæ animal generant, omnia auriculas habent, excepto vitulo marino, & delphino, & reliquis item cetariis. Nam & quæ cartilaginea appellauimus, animal pariunt. Verùm homo vnus, aurem non mouet. Vitulus ergo marinus meatus continet manifeſtos, quà audit: at delphinus audit quidem, ſed nullis cauernis, quæ vicem præſtent aurium. Cætera ſuas auriculas omnia mouent. Situm aures hominis eũdem in orbe, quo oculi, obtinent: non vt quadrupedum nonnullis poſitæ ſuperiùs ſunt. aurium aliæ læues, aliæ piloſæ, aliæ medium tenent, quæ quidem ad audiẽdum aptiſſimæ ſunt. Morum hinc præſcita nulla habentur. Item aliæ maiores, aliæ paruæ, aliæ mediocres, & aut minimum, aut parum, aut mediocriter arrectæ. Notam morum optimorum habent quæ mediocres: at quæ magnæ, arrectæque vltra modum, ſtultitiæ indices ſunt, aut loquacitatis. Partẽ inter vtrumlibet oculum & aurem, & verticem poſitam, tempora appellamus. Item pars faciei naſus, quæ meatum præbet ſpiritui: aërem enim ea parte reddimus, & accipimus. Sternutamentum quoque eadem agitur parte: quod flatus vniuerſi eruptio eſt, ſignum augurale, & vnum ex ſpirituum omnium generibus ſanctum, & ſacrum. Tum etiam ſpiritum trahi in pectus, & inde reddi neceſſe eſt: quod fieri non poteſt, niſi naribus ſpiremus, cùm reciprocatio ſpiritus de pectore per gurguliopem, non de capite parte aliqua actitetur, ſed datur viuendi facultas etiamſi deſit ſpiratio. Olfactus quoque, id eſt, ſenſus odoris, hac eadem parte ſubminiſtratur. Mobiles eſſe nares natura voluit, nec ſicut aures, immobiles ſua compage. Partem naſi, quæ cartilaginea nares diſcriminat, interſeptũ vocamus: meatum vero vtrumque, inane: naſus enim bipartito diſtinctus eſt tramite. Elephantis prolixa validáque naris augetur: eiúſque vſus idẽ, qui manus: ea namque cibos tam ſiccos quàm humidos colligunt, capiunt, & in os admouent ſoli animantium omnium. Eſt præterea maxilla duplex; cuius pars prior mentum, poſterior mandibula eſt.

Mouēt animalia omnia maxillam inferiorem, crocodilo fluuiatili excepto: is enim vnus ſuperiorem mouet. Labra mox à naſo habentur, caro permobilis. Quod autem intra maxillas & labra deſcribitur, os eſt, cuius partes, palatum, & fauces. Ineſt pars ſentiens ſaporem, lingua: vim iſtam ſentiendi præcipuè obtinens parte ſui primore: nam ſi interiore tangat, minùs ſentiet. Omnia præterea, quæ caro ſentire poteſt, lingua etiam poteſt, vt durum, calidum, frigidum, ſua quauis parte, ſicut & ſaporem. Hæc aut lata eſt, aut anguſta, aut mediocris, quæ quidem optima & explanatiſſima eſt. Item aut ſoluta, aut conſtricta, qualis tortorum, balborumque eſt. Carne ſoluta, rara, fungoſa, lingua conſtat. Eius pars quædam ligula eſt. Bifida oris compago, tonſillæ: multifida, gingiuæ appellantur: carne hæ conſtant, intúſque dentes oſſei cohærent. Parte vero penitiore, particula pendet, alia vuigera, venæ applicata, columella nomine, quæ ſi immodice humefacta intumeſcat, inflammetúrque, nomine vue vocatur, & ſtrangulat.

CAPVT XII.

De collo, pectore, eorumque partibus.

Collum, quod inter pectus, & faciem eſt, cuius pars prior guttur, poſterior gula: quantúmque colli ipſius cartilagineum priorem obtinens ſitum, vocem tranſmittit & halitum, id arteria nominatum eſt: at vero quantum interius carneum ſpinæ prætiacet, gula dicitur. Pars autem poſterior colli extima, ceruix appellata eſt. Partes thorace tenus diſpoſitæ, hæ ſunt. Thorax ipſe parte priore poſterioréque conſtat. Mox à collo pectus priorem obtinet ſitum bipartitum, in mammam parte ſui vtraque extuberans. Mammis laxior contextus corporis eſt, iuncta papilla per quam fœminis lac tranſmiſſum elicitur. In maribus etiam lac fieri poteſt: verùm caro iis ſpiſſa, mulieribus fungoſa, foraminulentaque eſt.

CAPVT XIII.

De ventre, inferioribúſque, vſque ad ſeminale membrum.

Venter infra pectus eſt parte priore, eiúſque radix vmbilicus eſt. Cui radici pars ſubiecta in latus vtrumque, ilia dicitur. Quæ autem rectè ſubiungitur, ſumen eſt, ſiue abdomen: cuius poſtremum, aqualiculus. Sed ſuper vmbilicum hypochondrium eſt, à cartilagine quaſi ſubcartilagium denominatum. Cauum autem commune ſubcartilagii, & ilium, cholago eſt. Partem poſteriorem lumbi pari ſtructura præcingunt, vnde nomen oſphis inditum eſt. Partis vero excretoriæ, quod ſubditum quaſi ſtragulum eſt, nates appellatur. In quo autem femur verſatur, coxa, & acetabulum. Pars fœminæ propria, vterus, aut vulua eſt. Maris, penis, foras poſtremo thorace propendens: parte ſui prima, carne propemodum conſtans, & æquabili facie turbinata. Nomen à glande pars hæc mutuata eſt: quam quæ integit cutis, vacat nomine: quæ vulnere obducto coaleſcere nequit ſicut nec gene, aut palpebræ præciſæ reduci ad vnitatem queunt. Totum tamen, quod ex ea cute glandéque conſtat, præputium eſt. Reliqua pars cartilaginea eſt,

A & augeri ampliter poteſt, & ingredi atque egredi, contra quàm iumentorum. Subiacent membro genitali teſtes gemini, cute obducti, quod ſcrotum nominamus. Teſtes ipſi nec eiuſdem naturæ ſunt, cuius caro, nec multùm à carne diſſident. Sed quemadmodum hæc ſe habeant, ac omnino de cęteris huiuſcemodi partibus, poſtea accuratiùs diſſeremus.

CAPVT XIV.

De varietate genitalis membri, viri, & mulieris.

MVlieris autem genitale contra quàm viri formatum eſt. Cauum enim ſubditum pubi B eſt: non ſicut maris propenſum, ac prominens. Ceruix ab vtero effertur, acceſſum prolifico maris ſemini præbens. Exitum humidi excrementi ſuo ſexus vterque genitali habet ſubminiſtrandum. Communis colli & pectoris pars, iugulum eſt. Coſtæ, brachij, & humeri, ala. Femoris, & imi ventris, inguen. Pars item interior femoris & natis communis, coles: exterior, ſubnatale. Thoracis iam partes omnes priores diximus.

CAPVT XV.

De dorſo, cæteriſque partibus poſterioribus.

C DOrſum ponè pectus eſt, cuius partes ſcapulæ, & ſpina: infraque è regione ventris, lumbi habentur. Communes autem partis ſuperioris, inferiorisque, coſtæ octonæ. Nam de hominibus gentis Tordulorum, quos ſeptenis coſtis ferũt creari, nullius idonei authoris teſtimonio conſtat. Habet ſane homo ſuas partes ita diſpoſitas, vt in eo & ſuperius ſit, & inferius, & prius & poſterius, & dextrum & ſiniſtrum. Conſtat ſanè, dextrum & ſiniſtrum ex ſimilibus fere partibus, atque eiſdẽ. Verum ſiniſtra omnia ſunt imbecilliora. At poſteriora prioribus, & ſuperiora inferioribus diſcrepant, præterquã quod inferiora ſimilitudinem ſuperiorum præferre ea di- D xerim ratione, qua venter imus reſpondere ſolet, faciei, in corpulentia, vel gracilitate: & crura cum brachiis communem ineunt rationem. Itaque quibus cubiti breues, iis etiam femora magna ex parte breuia ſunt: & quibus pedes exigui, iis manus quoque paruæ habentur. Membri vero ſuperioris bipartitam compactionem, brachium, ſiue vlnam appellamus. Cuius partes, lacertus, agilis, gibber, cubitus, manus. *Partes manus, palma, & digiti quinque numero. Digiti pars, quà ſe inflectit, nodus, ſiue articulus eſt: quæ rigida conſtat, internodiũ dicitur. Digitus pollex nuncupatus, vno inflectitur nodo, cæteri binis adſtruuntur. Inflexus vero tũ bra- E chij, tum digitorum omniũ, agitur in interiora. Brachium ad gibberum appellatũ inflectitur. Nodum, quo cum brachio manus iungitur coarctaturque, brachiale vocamus. Pars interior manus vola dicitur: carnoſa eſt, ſciſſuris vitæ indicibus diſtincta: longioris ſcilicet vitæ ſingulis aut binis ductis per totam, breuioris binis, quæ non longitudinem totam deſignent. Exterior neruoſa eſt, & nomine carens. Membri inferioris bipartita cõpactio, crus eſt: huius femur, quod biceps. Mola, quod locum orbiculatum foris adiectũ habet. Tibia, quod gemino oſſe ſubiacet: cuius pars prior ocrea, poſterior ſura, caro neruoſa, venoſave: aliis retracta à poplite, quibus nates ſunt pleniores, aliis detracta, quibus graciliores.

Poſtremum cruris, malleolus geminus vtrique partitus lateri eſt. Pes autem, quod multiplici fiſſu conſtat: cuius pars poſterior calx, prior diuiſa in digitos quinque eſt: media plantæ nomine explicatur, cuius quod carnoſum inferius, ſolum attingit. Veſtigium eſt, quod ſuperius pronam conijcit partem, neruoſum: & nominis adhuc indigum eſt. Hæret ſummis digitis vnguis, & nodus interuenit: ſed non niſi vno inflexu adducuntur. Quibus pars interior plantæ non caua, ſed ita plenitiuſcula eſt, vt ſolum toto attingat veſtigio, ij verſuti ſunt & fraudulenti. Commune femoris, & tibiæ genu, poples que eſt. Partes maris ac fœminæ communes hæ ſunt: quarum ſitus quemadmodum ad ſuperius, inferius, prius, poſterius, ſiniſtrum, dextrum ſe habeat, tametſi per corporis ſumma viſu exploratur, ac patet: deſcribendus tamen is quoque, recitandúſque eſt eadem illa de cauſa, qua ſuperiora enumerauimus omnia, ſcilicet vt ſeries commentandi ſeruetur perpetua, dum ordinem perſequimur omnium, quo minùs lateant ea quæ non modo eodem homines, quo cætera animalia poſſident. Ergo ſuperiora inferiuſque hominem omnium maximè animalium habere, ratione locorum naturalium intelligimus. Eius enim partes tam ſuperiores quàm inferiores ad ſitum orbis vniuerſi ſuperiorem inferioremque, diſpoſitæ ſunt. Itidem quæ priores poſterioreſque, atque etiam dextræ ſiniſtræque habentur: cum cæterorum animalium genus, vel omnino reſpectu eiuſmodi careat, vel confuſius ita conſtet. Caput itaque cæteris omnibus ſuperiorem obtinet ſitum, corporis ſui ratione: at homo, quoniam (vt modò diximus) ad vniuerſi orbis habitum inſtitutus eſt, idcirco partem etiam iſtam habet reſpondentem parti ſublimi vniuerſi. Caput, ceruices & collum, excipiunt tum pectus, & dorſum, alterum prius, alterum poſterius eſt. Subiacent iis, venter, & lumbi, genitale, & nates, mox femur, & tibiæ: poſtremò pedes. Crura verò anteflectunt, eodem ſcilicet, quo & incedunt. Pedis etiam pars mobilior eodem ſe flectit. Calx è tergo poſitus eſt. Malleoli, ſitum imitantur aurium: quippe qui latera teneant imi cruris, quomodo aures iunctæ lateribus capitis habentur. Brachia ex latere corporis ſiniſtro dextroque dependent, atque ſe introflectunt, ita vt homini potiſſimum deuexa crurum & brachiorum aduerſa inter ſe ſint. Senſus autem, parteſque eorum ſenſorias, oculos dico, nares, linguã, eodem, ſcilicet priorem in partem, ſpectantes habemus: at auditum, eiuſque partem ſenſoriam, id eſt, aures, à latere, eodem in orbe quo oculos. Diſtant oculi hominis ſibi interuallo, proportione magnitudinis reſpectu cæterorum animalium, minimo. Tactus è ſenſibus homini exquiſitiſſimus, deinde guſtus: reliquis ſuperatur à multis.

CAPVT XVI.

Cum quibus animantibus hominis cerebrum, gula, arteria, & venter, conueniant.

Ita partes exteriores collocatæ, atque diſpoſitæ ſunt, nominanturque præcipuè, & cognitæ per vſum ſitúmque euidentiorem habentur. At verò interiores contrà: ſunt enim hominum in primis incertæ, atque incognitæ. Quamobrem ad cæterorum animalium partes, quarum ſimiles ſint humanæ, referentes, eas contemplari debemus.

*Sylburgius, [illegible]

A Primum igitur cerebrum capitis priorem obtinet ſitum, non modò in homine, verùm in cæteris etiã animalibus, quibus ea pars data eſt. Omnibus autem in iis eſt, quæ ſanguinem obtinent, & ob eam rem ſanguinea appellantur: atque etiam quæ mollia nomine ſpeciali nuncupantur. Sed homo plurimum cerebri proportione magnitudinis, ac humidiſſimum habet. Continent id membranæ duæ, altera oſſi adhærens, valida: altera ipſum cerebrum attingẽs, infirmior. Bipartitum omnium cerebrum eſt, poſtremumque iungitur, quod cerebellum appellatur: quod certè & tactu, & ſpecie formam habet diuerſam. Pars verò poſterior capitis, inanis, & caua omnibus eſt, prout in ſingulis magnitudine variatur. Quibuſdam enim caput grande, facies B ſubiecta capiti parua, vt quæ rotunda ſunt facie. Aliis caput paruum, maxillæ longæ, vel vt generi omni iumentorum. Cerebrum omnibus priuatum ſanguine eſt, nec venam intra ſe vllam continet, & ad tactum frigidum per naturam eſt. Habet ſuo in medio plerique omnibus cauum quoddam exiguum membrana obſiſtente venoſa, circicularique obducitur. Oſſe poſtremò continetur tenuiſſimo infirmiſſimoque omnium capitis oſſium, cui nomen occipiti. Meatus ab oculis terni ad cerebrũ pertinent ita vt maximi & mediocres ad cerebellũ tendant, minimi ipſum cerebrum adeant. Minimi iſunt, qui propiores naribus oriuntur: maximi porro illi æquidiſtant, nec vſquam coire poſſunt. Me- C diocres coeunt: quod præcipuè in genere piſcium patet: & cerebro ſunt ii propiores, quàm magni. Minimi perquam laxo inter ſe diſtant interuallo, & nunquam ob eam rem poſſunt coire. Gula inter collum eſt, ab anguſtia & longitudine nuncupata: cui comes arteria iungitur, priorem obtinens ſitum in omnibus iis quæ eam habere Naturæ placuerat. Habent autem omnia, quibus pulmo eſt. Natura cartilaginis arteria conſtat, & ſanguinis perquam exigui compos eſt, venulis complexa tenuibus. Quod ad ſuperiora, id eſt, oris habitũ, pertinet, è regione poſita eſt foraminibus narium, quæ in oris partem pateſcunt. Vnde fit, vt quoties inter bibendum humor retrahitur, effluat ex ore per na- D res. Iungitur linguæ poſtremæ, quæ ligula nominata eſt, [illegible] inter ea, quæ modo dixi, foramina: videlicet apta, quæ per vices arteriæ foramentum quod ad os ſpectat, operiat. Arteria altero ſui extremo, cum lingua ima coniungitur, altero ad pulmonis intercapedinem deſcendit, tum in vtramque ſinditur partem pulmonis. Eſſe namque bipartitus pulmo omnium expetit. Verùm in iis quæ animal generant, diſtinctio non æquè apparet, minimèque in homine. Eſt præterea hominis pulmo ſimplicior, nec ita multifidus, vt nonnullorum animal procreantium eſt: nec læuis, ſed inæquabilis eſt. at in ouiparo genere, vt auibus, & quadrupedibus, quorum partus oui primordio inchoari ſolitus eſt, pars altera pulmonis multum diſciſſa ab altera eſt, ita vt binos habere pulmones videantur. atque à ſingulari arteria partes in vtrumque pulmonis latus duæ dependent. Venæ quoque maiori, ac alteri, cui nomen eſt aortæ, pulmo connectitur. Spiritus verò, quoties inflatur arteria, caua ſubit pulmonis. Hæc mucronata ſpecie cartilagineis diducuntur corpuſculis, de quibus foramina quoquouerſus per diminutiones, arctioribus ſubinde amplioria excipientibus, transmittuntur. Cor etiam arteriæ iungitur, obeſis cartilagineis fibroſiſque vinculis:

& quà annectitur, cauum eſt. Spiritus, dum arteria inflatur, an ſubeat cor, minùs in nonnullis conſtat; ſcilicet minutis. at in grandioribus animalium, ſpiritum cor ſubire ipſum, apertum eſt. Arteria ita ſe habet: & accipiendi reddendique tantummodò ſpiritus officio fungitur. Nihil etenim aliud vel ſiccum, vel humidum pati ipſa videtur: ſed vbi in eā tale quid deerrauerit, tamdiu torquetur, dum excutiat quod delapſum eſt. Gula ab ore & ipſa dependet, continua tum ſpinæ, tum arteriæ nexu fibrarum: & per ſeptum tranſuerſum in ventriculum finit, carnis ſpeciem referens, & pariter diſtendi in longum latumque habilis. Ventriculus autem humanus canino ſimilis eſt, quippe qui nō multo amplior ſit, quam inteſtinum, ſed quaſi inteſtino ſimilis ampliori. Tum inteſtinum ſimplex flexuoſis orbibus eſt, à quo proximum inteſtinum admodum amplum. Aluus autem ipſa ſuillæ ſimilis eſt, quippe quæ & ampla ſit, & quod vſque in ſedem porrigitur, breue id corpulentumque tranſmittat. Omentum medio à ventre dependet, quod non niſi pinguis membrana eſt, ſicut etiam in cæteris animantibus, quæ vnum continent ventrem, & vtraque parte oris dentata ſunt. Lactes ſuper inteſtina poſitæ ſunt, qui & ipſi latiore conſtant membrana, & pingueſcunt: pendent ex vena maiore, atque aortæ, venaſque permultas frequenti concurſu deferunt ex parti illo venarum grandium ad inteſtina, de ſummis ad ima vſque ſpargentes. Gula, arteria, venter, ita ſe habent.

CAPVT XVII.

De corde, iecinore, liene, felle, renibus, veſica, & membris genitalibus.

COr ſinum triplicem continet: iacet paulo pulmone ſuperius ad arteriæ fiſſuram, opertum membranæ inuolucro pingui & corpulento, qua venæ maiori adnectitur, & aortæ. Iungitur cum aorta ſuo mucronato culmine, in pectuſque parte eadem vergit omnium pariter quæ pectus ſortiuntur. Omnibus verò tam pectore conſtitutis quàm ea ipſa parte carentibus, cor æque ſuo mucrone in partem vergit priorem: verùm latere ſæpius poteſt, quoniam diſſecto animante dimouetur. at parte ſui ampliore, & gibba, ſuperiora corporis ſpectat. Habet maiorem partem ſui mucronis carnoſam, & ſpiſſam, & neruulos ſuis in cauis continet. Situm cæteris animalibus in medio pectore eſt, in quibus ſcilicet pectus ineſt. Homini tantùm in partem ſiniſtram potiùs vergit, paulo à mammarum diſtinctione ad læuam inclinans papillam pectoris parte ſuperiore: nec magnum eſt, & ſpecie tota non oblongum, ſed rotundius. Parte tamen extrema in acutum ſe colligit, exitque pene in mucronem. Habet, vt modò expoſui, ſinum triplicem: maximum dextro in latere, minimum in ſiniſtro, medium magnitudine inter ſiniſtrum & dextrum. Omnes ad pulmonem foraminibus peruij redduntur. quæ res in vno tantum perſpicua eſt. Inferius verò à nexu ſuo, maximo ſinu venæ coniungitur maiori, ad quam lactes etiam ſunt. Sinu autem medio aortæ annexum eſt. Quinetiam ad pulmonem meatus à corde ducuntur perpetui, finduntúrque eodem, quo arteria, modo, in omnes pulmonis partes: & meatus, qui eōdem ab arteria tendunt, ſequuntur. Verùm hi ſuperiorem obtinent ſitum, ARISTOTELIS STAGIRITÆ, de Hiſtoria animalium, LIBER II.

CAPVT I.

Quæ animalia in quibuſdam conueniant, in quibuſdam autem differant.

Cæterorum animalium partes, aut communes omnium ſunt, vt ſuperiore volumine explicatum eſt, aut aliquorum generum propriæ. Eædem autem, diuerſæve inter ſe ſunt, eo modo quo ſuperiùs dictum eſt: quippe cum omnia fere animalia genere diuerſa, partium quoque ſuarum plurimas ſpecie habeant diuerſas: & aut proportione tantùm eaſdem, genere autem diuerſas: aut genere tantùm eaſdem, ſpecie autem diuerſas. Sunt etiam complures, quæ aliis datæ, aliis denegatæ ſunt. Ergo quadrupedes, quæ animal generant, caput, collum, & omnes capitis partes ſortiuntur: verùm ipſæ ſingulæ partes forma inter ſe differunt. Iam leoni ceruix oſſe vno rigida conſtat, nec vertebris vllis iungitur: interiora autem omnia canibus ſimilia continentur. Habent quadrupedes, quæ animal generant, omnes vice brachiorum crura priora: ſed præcipue, quæ multifidæ ſunt, hæ manibus ſuo digitato pede reſpondent: hoc enim ad plura, quaſi manu, vtuntur. Partem etiam læuam minùs, quàm homo, abſolutam habent, & agilem: excepto elephãto, qui digitos numero quinque indiuiſos, leuiterque diſcretos, crura priora multo poſterioribus longiora, & malleolos poſterioribus imis cruribus, poſſidet.

Flectit hic certè ſuos poſterio- C res poplites modo hominis. At ouiparis quadrupedibus, vt crocodilo, lacertæ, & reliquis generis eiuſdem, crura tum priora, tum etiam poſteriora retroflectuntur, paulùm in latus vergentia. Nec ſecus in cæteris multipedibus agitur, niſi quòd medij pedes ſubinde ambigui ampliùs in latus flectuntur. Homo inflexum membrorum ſuorum eodem è contrario agit: quippe qui brachia retrorſum flectat, quanquam ita, vt paulùm vergant in latera exteriora, crura antè contrahat rectè. Sed quod antè tam priora quàm poſteriora inflectat, nullum eſt. Omnibus verò humeri, armive contra quàm cubiti, aut crura priora flectun- D tur. Coxæ etiam contra, quàm ſuffragines. Cùm itaque homo contra, quàm magna pars cæterorum animalium, flectat, fit, vt ſi qua alia membris huiuſcemodi conſtant, ea quoque è contrario flectant. Aues etiam ſuos inflexus ſimiles quadrupedibus agunt: crura enim quæ bina habent, in poſteriora curuant; alas, quas vice brachiorum, aut crurum priorum obtinent, in priora. Vitulus marinus tanquam læſa imperfectaque quadrupes eſt: quippe qui continuò à ſcapulis pedes habeat manibus ſimiles, modo vrſæ: in quinos enim ſinduntur digitos, qui ſinguli ternis articulis flectantur, & vnguibus muniantur non magnis. Pedes quoque poſteriores quinis diſcretos digitis E habet, & curuatura, & vnguibus cum primis conuenientes, verùm forma proximos piſcium caudis. Motus animalium quadrupedum, ac multipedum, per diametrum agitur: quomodo ſubſiſtere etiam ſolent. Initium autem incedendi omnibus à dextris partibus. Gradiuntur pedatim leones: & genus camelorum vtrumque, Bactrianum dico, atque Arabium, pedatim incedit, cùm pes ſiniſter nō tranſit dextrum, ſed ſubſequitur. Partes, quas homo habet priores, quadrupedes infrà habent ſupinas: quas autem ille poſteriores, hæ pronas. Magna item quadrupedum pars caudam habet: nam vitulo quoque marino cauda ineſt, quãuis exigua, cerui modo. De genere ſimiarum poſtea dicemus.

Omnia ferè quadrupeda, eadémque viuipara, ſunt A piloſa: nec hominis modo læuia eſſe nouimus. Homo certè pauciſſimis exiguíſque integitur pilis, niſi in capite, qua quidẽ parte hirtiſſimus omnium ipſe eſt. Cæteris, quæ pilis veſtiuntur, partes pronæ piloſiores ſunt: ſupinæ aut glabræ omnino, aut minùs piloſæ habentur. at homo contra. Cilium etiam homini vtraque in palpebra, & alæ oppletæ pilis, & pubes: quod cæteris abeſt: carent enim cilio palpebræ inferioris, ſed paulò inferiùs pili rari nonnullis exeunt. Ipſorum autem quadrupedum pilis intectorum, alijs corpus totum eſt hirtum, vt ſui, vrſæ, cani. Alijs collum hirtius pari vndique modo, vt leoni, & reliquis iubatis. Alijs B prona tantùm ceruicis, à capite ad ſummos armos villi geruntur, vt equo vt mulo, & reliquis capronatis: quo in genere bonaſus quoque è ſyluestribus cornigeris numerandus eſt. Quinetiam hippelaphus ſatis iubæ ſummis continet armis, qui à forma equi, & cerui, quam habet compoſitam, nomen accepit: quaſi equiceruus dici meruiſſet. Necnon fera, quæ & ipſa ab equo Hippardium nominata eſt, capronas parte gerit eadem. Sed vtrumque id genus tenuiſſimo iubæ ordine à capite ad ſummos armos crineſcit. Proprium equiceruo villus, qui eius gutturi, modo barbæ dependet. Gerit cornua vtrumque, excepta fœmina equiceruini generis: & pedes habet biſulcos. Magnitudo C equiceruí non diſſidet à ceruo. Gignitur apud Arachotas: vbi etiam boues ſylueſtres ſunt, qui differunt ab vrbanis, quantum inter ſues vrbanos & ſylueſtres intereſt. Sunt colore atro, corpore robuſto, rictu leniter adunco, cornua gerunt reſupinatiora. Equiceruo cornua ſunt capreæ proxima. Elephantus in quadrupedum genere hirtus minimè eſt. Caudæ etiam animalium pili corporis modum imitantur, dummodo cauda nota aliqua auctiore dependeat: eſt enim nonnullis tam exigua, vt vix dignoſci à ſenſu poſſit. Camelus proprium inter cæteras quadrupedes habet in dorſo, quod tuber appellant: ſed ita vt Bactrianæ ab A- D rabiis differant: alteris enim bina, alteris ſingula tubera habentur. Sunt etiam omnibus ſingula parte ima, quale in dorſo, tubera, quibus incumbat reliquum corpus & firmetur, quoties in genua inclinantur. Papillas quatuor modo vaccæ habet camelus, caudam aſino ſimilem, genitale retrò. Genua ſingula in ſingulis cruribus ſunt, & flexus artuum, non vt quidam perhibent, plures, ſed propter alui interuallum plures eſſe videntur. Habet etiam talum ſimilem bubulo: clunes proportione magnitudinis paruos. Biſulcum id animal eſt, nec vtrinque dentatum. ſed biſulcum ſic eſt, vt pes parte ſuperiore ſciſſus paululum ſit ad flexum digiti ſecundum: parte autem priore ſumma, quadri- E partitò ſindatur diſcrimine paruo, quantum primo tenus digiti inflexu; & quiddam inter fiſſuras, perinde vt in anſerum pedibus adiectum cõtexat. Pes veſtigio eſt carnoſus, vt vrſæ: qua de cauſa eas, quæ per exercitum longiore itinere fatiſcunt, calceant carbatinis. Omnium quadrupedum crura, oſſe neruóque abundant, carne deficiunt. Quinetiam nullũ, quod pedibus conſtet, excepto homine, pedes habere carnoſos perſpectum eſt. Coxarũ etiam carne exuperante, in clunes vacant: quod in genere auium conſpici apertiùs poteſt. at homo contrà: quippe qui nullam ferè ſui corporis partem tam carnoſam habeat, quàm nates, femora, tibias.

A Quas enim ſuras vocamus, non niſi carnis copia, parte tibiæ poſteriore complentur. Quadrupedum autem, quæ ſanguine conſtant, eædemque animal generant, aliæ multifidæ ſunt, quales hominis manus, pedéſque habentur. Sunt enim quæ multiplici pedum fiſſura digitentur, vt canis, leo, panthera. aliæ biſulcæ ſunt, quæ forcipem pro vngula habeant, vt oues, capræ, cerui, equi fluuiatiles. aliæ inſiſſo ſunt pede, vt quæ ſolipedes nominantur, vt equus, mulus. Genus ſanè ſuillum ambiguum eſt. Nam & in terra Illyriorum, & in Pæonia, & nonnullis aliis locis ſues ſolipedes gignuntur. Biſulca igitur binis fiſſuris vtrinque, id eſt, à parte priore B poſterioreque diducuntur. Solipeda eam partem continentem ex toto habent. Sunt item animantium alia cornigera, alia mutila. Quæ cornua gerunt, biſulca magna ex parte per naturam ſunt, vt bos, ceruus, capra. Quod autem idem & ſolipes, & bicorne ſit, nullum eſt, quod nos adhuc norimus. at ſolipes, idemque vnicorne eſt, quanquam rarum: vt aſinus Indicus: ille enim & vnicornis, & ſolipes eſt. Vnicornis verò, idémque biſulcus, oryx eſt. Talum etiam aſinus ille Indicus ſolus in ſolipedum genere poſſidet. Sus enim, vt modò dixi, ambiguus eſt: quo fit etiam vt talo careat probiore. Permulta ex biſulcorum numero talum habent. at verò multifidum nullum adhuc talum eiuſmodi habe- C re cognitum eſt, vt ne hominem quidem habere certum eſt. Sed lynci ſemitalo ſimile quiddam: leoni autem tortuoſum in anfractum eſt, quale effingunt. Omnia verò, quibus datus eſt talus, cruribus eum poſterioribus continent, ita vt erectus in ſuffragine parte ſui prona foras, ſupina introrſum ſpectet, & quæ veneres vocantur, intus aduerſæ ſibi poſitæ ſint: quæ canes, foris: quæ antennæ, ſupra habeantur. Situs talorum omnium talis eſt. Sunt nonnulla, quæ ſimul biſulca ſint, & iubam habeant, & cornua bina, orbem inflexu mutuo colligentia gerant, vt bonaſus, qui in Pæonia terra, & Medica gignitur. Quæ autem cornuta D ſunt, eadem omnino quadrupeda eſſe certum eſt, niſi quid per tranſlationem cornu habere dicatur: quemadmodum Ægyptij de colubris Thebanis perhibent, quaſi aliquod illis veluti veſtigium cornus extuberet. Ceruo ex cornigeris vni cornua tota ſolida, cæteris caua quodam tenus, & mucrone demum concreta ſunt. Pars caua ex cute potius oritur, quam ſolidum quiddam oſſe enaſcens ſubit, impletque totam: quomodo cornua boum conſtare videmus. Soli etiam ceruo cornua omnibus annis decidua, initio à bimatu: cæteris perpetua, niſi per vim aliquam amittant. Mammas item haberi variè certum eſt. Nam & inter ſe ipſæ quadrupedes, & ab homine mamma- E rum differunt ratione. Membrorum etiam, quæ ad venereum coitum accommodata habentur, diſcrimen planè eſt. Patet ratio varia mammarum, cùm aliis mammæ parte priore, hoc eſt, in pectore, aut iuxta pectus ſint binæ, biniſque papillis, vt homini, vt elephanto ſub armis duæ, tam mari quam fœminæ, perquam exiguæ, nec pro corporis vaſtitate, ita vt eas a latere conſpicere propemodum nequeas. Vrſæ mammas habent quaternas. Aliis mammæ inter femina binæ, papillæque binæ, vt ouibus: aliis papillæ quaternæ, vt vaccis. Quibuſdam nec in pectore, nec in feminibus mammæ, ſed in ventre habentur, & quidē plures, verùm non omnes pares: vt canibus, vrſuibus.

Cùm

Cùm itaque cætera id genus habeant plures, pantheræ quaternas ventre medio gerunt. Camelus quoque in ventre mãmas duas cũ papillis quatuor habet, vt bos. Leæna etiam duas in vẽtre. Maribus ſolipedis generis, nullæ ſunt mãmæ, niſi iis qui matri ſimiles prodierunt: quod in equorũ genere euenit. Genitale marium aliis foris eſt, vt homini, equo & aliis multis: aliis intus, vt delphino. Quibus foris eſt, iis aut antè habetur, vt homini, & reliquis, quæ modò dixi: aut retro. Quinetiam iis quæ antè gerunt, aut & penis, & teſtes abſoluti pendent, vt homini: aut aluo adhærent, & aut plus aut minus abſoluuntur. Non enim pariter apro & equo membrum hoc abſolutum eſt. Elephantus etiam genitale equo ſimile habet, ſed paruum, nec pro corporis magnitudine. Teſtes idem non foris conſpicuos, ſed intus circa renes conditos habet: quocirca initum celerius agit. aliis itaque teſtes abſoluti, vt equo: aliis non abſoluti, vt apro. Sus fœmina, genitale ea continet parte, qua pecoris vbera habentur: & cùm per libidinem turget, ac prurit ad coitũ, ſurſum tantiſper hoc retrahit, vertitque foras, vt inde mari coitus fit facilior: reſciſſum id longè productius, & deluſcens amplius eſt. Genitale maxima animalium parte ita ſe habet. Nonnulla ex auerſo mingunt, vt lynx, leo, camelus, lepus. Mares igitur ita inter ſe diſcrepãt, vt expoſitum eſt. Fœminæ omnes ex auerſo mingunt: quippe cùm etiã fœmina elephantorum genitale, vt cæteræ, inter femora habeat. Genitalis vero ipſius differentia numeroſa eſt. aliis enim cartilaginoſum, carnoſumque eſt, vt homini: quod vt parte carnoſa inflari nequit, ſic cartilaginoſa intumeſcit, excreſcitque. aliis neruoſum, vt camelo, vt ceruo. aliis oſſeum, vt lupo, vulpi, muſtelæ, ictidi, id eſt, muſtelæ ruſticæ, quam viuerram interpretor: nam is quoque oſſeum gerit. ad hæc, homo, cùm ad iuſta incrementa peruenit, partem ſuperiorem habet minorem, quàm inferiorem, contra atque cætera animalia, quæ ſanguine conſtant. Partem ſuperiorem intelligi volo, quantum de capite ad eam pertendit partem, qua exitus patet excrementis. Inferiorem autem, quantum ab ea ipſa ſubſequitur reliquum corporis: animalibus ergo, quæ pedibus inniti natura voluit, crura poſteriora partem complent inferiorem. Quæ autem pedibus carent, iis cauda, & quicquid vice caudæ, ſimileue habetur, pro parte inferiore eſt. Tales perfectis iam incrementis animantes euadunt. Diſcrimen autem in creſcendo eſt. Homo enim prius quàm adultior ſit, partem ſuperiorem corporis habet maiorem, quàm inferiorem: & quo per ætatem ampliùs augetur, eo contra euenit, vt inferiora ſint ſuperioribus longiora. Quamobrem vnus ipſe nõ modo eodem ingredi ſolet infirma adhuc ætate, quo iam firma ingreditur: ſed primùm cùm infans eſt, quadrupes reptat, dein de ſe erigit, bipeſque incedit. Sunt quæ ex proportione incrementa partis vtriuſque capere ſoleant, vt canis. Nonnulla primùm parte ſuperiore minora ſunt, poſt maiora cùm creuerint, eadem parte euadunt, vt iumenta: nullum enim ex iis addita ætate auctius redditur ea parte quæ ab vngula ad clunẽ porrecta eſt. Dentes etiam cæterorũ animalium multiplici differentia, tum inter ſe tum hominis ratione euariant. Habent enim dentes omnia, quæ quadrupeda, ſanguinea, viuipara ſunt, ſed variè. Sunt enim alia vtrinque dentata, altera altero dentium ordine carent. Quæ enim cornua gerunt, hæc non dentata vtrinque ſunt, quippe quæ primoribus maxillæ ſuperioris careant dentibus. Quanquam ſunt nonnulla, quæ & cornibus vacẽt, & vtrinque dentata non ſint, vt cameli. Item alia dentes habent exertos, velut aper: alia ſine iis ſunt. Et aliis dentes ſerrati, vt leoni, pantheræ, cani: aliis continui, vt equo & boui. Sunt enim dentibus ſerratis, quorum ſeries acutorum dentium mutua inſertione pectinatim ſe conſtipat. Quod autem ſimul & dentem exertum, & cornu habeat, nullum eſt: nec vero quod ſimul & ſerratis dentibus ſit, & alterutrum habeat illorum, hoc eſt, vel cornu, vel dentem exertum. Primores maxima ex parte habent acutos, interiores planos. Vitulus marinus ſerratis omnibus eſt, vt generi piſcium affinis: piſcibus enim ferè omnibus ſerrati ſunt dentes. Genus autem, quod duplicem dentium ordinem habeat, nullum noſtro in orbe eſt: verum apud Indos (ſi Cteſiæ credendum eſt) bellua gignitur (vt ille ſcribit) cui nomen mantichora, dentes triplici vtrinque ordine, magnitudo, hirtitudo, & pedes leonis, facies & aures hominis, oculi cæſij, color rubricæ, cauda ſcorpionis modo terreſtris, aculeo armata, ſpiculaque agnata iaculans, vox fiſtulæ, tubæve nõ abſimilis, curſus non minoris pernicitatis, quàm ceruis, feritas tanta, vt nunquam poſſit inficere appetitus: præcipuè carnis humanæ. Mutantur dentes, tum homini, tum etiam quibuſdam aliis animalibus, vt equo, mulo, aſino. Homini primores mutantur. Maxillares autem nullum animal mutat. Sus nullum omnino dentem amittit.

Auriculis tamen hæc omnia carent, meatúſque tantùm habent audiendi. Carent etiam mammis. Nec genitale, aut teſtes foris obtinent manifeſtos, ſed intus conditos. Nec pilo, ſed cortice omnia tecta ſunt. Dentibus etiam ſerratis ſunt omnia. Crocodilo fluuiatili oculi ſunt ſuis, dentes magni, exertique, vngues robuſti, cutis corticoſa, contra omnem ictum inuicta, viſus in aqua hebes, extrà acerrimus. Dies itaque in terra parte maxima agit, noctes in aqua, teporis ratione: tepidiorem enim aquam experitur quàm aërem.

CAPVT XI.

De chamæleone, & eius cum cæteris ſimilitudine.

CHamæleo figura totius corporis lacertam planè repræſentat. Latera deorſum ducta, ventri iunguntur, vt piſcibus: & ſpina modo piſcium eminet: roſtrum ſimiæ porcariæ ſimillimũ, cauda prælonga, in tenue deſinens, & longis implicata in ſe orbibus lori modo permultis. Elatior à terra eſt, quàm lacerta: inflexus crurum perinde vt lacertæ. Pedes ſinguli bipartitò ſecantur, partéſque talem inter ſe habent ſitum, qualem pollex ad manus reliquam partem obiectam. Sed ipſæ etiam reliquæ partes paulòtenus in digitos quoſdam ſinduntur: videlicet priores, triplici fiſſura interiùs, duplici exteriùs: poſteriores interiùs duplici, exteriùs triplici. Vnguiculi adunci. Corpus aſperum totum, vt crocodilo. Oculi in receſſu cauo intus recepti, prægrandes, rotundi, cute ſimili, atque reliquum corpus, obducti, media ſui parte perquam exigua detecti, qua videant. Quæ quidem videndi ſedes nunquam cute operitur, nec pupillæ motu, ſed totius oculi verſatione in orbem, mutationéque quoquouerſus aſpicit, quæ velit. Mutat ſuum colorem inflatus. Verùm & niger non longè diſſimilis crocodilo eſt: & pallidus, vt lacertę: maculis diſtinctus, vt pardus, nigris. Mutatur color toto in corpore: nam & oculi concolores reliquo corpori redduntur, & cauda eundem colorem accipit. Motus ei piger admodum, vt teſtudinis eſt: palleſcit cùm moritur, defunctúſque colorem eundem ſeruat. Gulam, atque arteriam ſitu eodem continet, quo lacerta. Carnem nuſquam, niſi in capite, & maxillis, & poſtremo caudæ admodum exiguam poſſidet: nec alibi ſanguinem, quàm in corde, & oculis, & loco à corde ſuperiore, & venulis hinc tendentibus. Verùm nec in iis quidem vlla copia, ſed pauxillum habetur ſanguinis. Cerebrum paulò ſuperius oculis poſitum eſt, & propè iis contiguum. Cute autem exteriore detracta oculis, quiddam luceſ velut anulus æneus tenuis, nulla pelle interceptus cingit. Membranæ in omnes ferè corporis partes multæ, ac validæ, longéque firmiores quàm in cæteris, tendunt. Diſſectus hic totus, ſpirare præterea diu poteſt, motu admodum exiguo adhuc circa cordis ſedem extante. Et cùm omnes corporis partes contrahit, tum vel maximè coſtas cogere atque adducere poteſt. Lienem conſpicuum nuſquam continet. Subit cauernas, & latitat more lacertarum.

CAPVT XII.

De auium natura, & quibuscum cæteris terrꝭ animantibus conueniant.

IN auibus etiam partes nonnullæ ſimiliter atque in iis quæ expoſui, animalibus habentur. Omnibus enim caput ineſt, & collum, & dorſum, & ſupina pars corporis, & quod pectori proportionetur. Crura etiam bina, hominis modo, ſed quæ in auerſum flectantur eodem ritu, quo quadrupedes faciunt, vt dictum iam eſt. Carent manibus, pedibuſque prioribus. Peculiare inter cætera animalia, alas poſſident, & clunem femori ſimilem, longiorem, ventrémque medio tenus porrectum, co-
B hæſione perpetua, ita vt ipſum diuulſum femur eſſe videatur. ſed enim femur parte alia iunctum tibiæ eſt. Sunt femora ſanè maxima iis auibus quæ vngues habent aduncos, & pectus, quàm cæteris, robuſtius. Copia omnibus auibus vnguium eſt. Multifidæ etiam omnes quodammodo ſunt, quippe cùm pars maxima digitata ſit, & nantes, quamuis plampedes, tamen & ipſæ digitos perfectos diſtinctóſque habeant. Omnibus, quæ ſe efferunt, quaterni digiti dati ſunt, terni in priore parte, ſinguli in poſteriore maxima ex parte pro calce. Paucis quibuſdam vtrinque bini, vt auiculæ, quam Iyngem vocant. Hæc paulò maior quàm fringilla eſt, colore vario. Habet ſibi
C propriam digitorum quam modò dixi, diſpoſitionem, & linguam ſerpentibus ſimilem: quippe quam in longitudinem menſura quatuor digitorum porrigat, rurſúmque contrahat intra roſtrum. Collum etiam circumagit in auerſum, reliquo quieſcente corpore, modo ſerpentum, vnde torquilla vulgò appellata eſt, quanquam turbo ab antiquis. Vngues ei grandes, & ſimiles vt monedulis exeunt: voce autem ſtridet. Os ſibi proprium volucres poſſident: non enim labra, non dentes, ſed roſtrum habent. auriculis etiam carent, & naribus, meatúſque odorandi in roſtro continent, audiendi in capite. Oculi omnibus, ſicvt cæteris animalibus, bini, ſine ciliis. Grauiores
D palpebra inferiore conniuent. Nictantur omnes, ab angulo obeunte membrana. at verò quæ ſpeciem noctuæ gerunt, ſuperiore etiam palpebra conniuent. Hoc idem cortice intecta animalia quoque faciunt, vt lacertæ, & reliqua generis eiuſdem. Conniuent enim palpebra inferiore omnia: quanquam non more auium nictantur. Volucres item non pilis, non ſquama, non cortice, ſed pennis teguntur. Pennæ omnes caule conſtant. Cauda etiam tali, qualis data quadrupedibus eſt, volucres carent: ſed pennis conditam gerunt: breuem, quæ longipedes ac plampedes ſunt: maiorem autem, quæ è contrario conſtant, quæ vel contractis ad ventrem pedibus volant, cùm illæ caudæ
E puſillæ gerulæ, porrectis in caudam cruribus feruntur. Lingua omnibus eſt, ſed variè: aliis enim longa, aliis breuis, aliis lata, aliis anguſta. Omnium maximè animalium poſt hominem literas proferre nonnulla auium genera queunt, videlicet ea præcipuè, quibus lingua latior eſt. Linguam autem illam minorem operiendi miniſtram, nullum ex iis quæ oua pariunt, ſuperimpoſitam ſuæ arteriæ continet: ſed meatum ipſum modò trahunt, modò laxant, pro ſui commodi deſiderio: atque ita efficitur ne quid pōderis in pulmonem delabatur.

Sunt nonnulla ex auibus genera, quibus natura calcar etiam dederit: ſed nulli datum hoc eſt, cui vngues adunci ſint. Volaces porrò notantur, quæ vngues habent aduncos: calcarigeræ, quæ præ ſua grauitate ſint ad volandum ineptiores. ad hæc, auium nonnullis criſta addita eſt: quam cùm ceteræ pennarum eminentia quadam extructam gerant, gallinaceus vnus peculiarem ſibi ſortitus eſt: ſic enim inſtitutam, vt nec caro ſit, nec à natura carnis omnino aliena.

CAPVT XIII.

De genere piſcium, eiuſque differentiis.

PIſcium genus inter ea quæ aquas incolunt, vnum diſtingui à cæteris iure poteſt, cùm forma euariet numeroſiore. Habet id caput, & prona, & ſupina. Parte, qua venter, & viſcera continentur, ſupina habet. Caudam continuam indiuiſamque parte gerit poſteriore variè. Piſcium nulli ceruix, nulli manus, aut pedes, nulli teſtes, nulli mammæ. Sed mamma cæteris quoque negata eſt omnibus quæ animal nequeant generare. Nec verò viuiparis omnino data eſt, ſed iis tantùm quæ protinus intra ſe animal formant, nec primùm ouum, deinde animal. Vnde fit vt delphinus etiam mammas habeat: animal enim concipit illico, & creat. Continet hic ſuas mammas non parte ſuperiore, ſed prope genitale. Nec modo quadrupedum papillas conſpicuas habet, ſed velut alueolos quoſdam humoris duos, vtroque de latere ſingularem, è quibus lac fluit, quod ore catulorum ſectantium parentem excipiatur: idque iam à nõnullis perſpectum eſt. Piſces igitur (vt modò dixi) nec mammas habent, neque meatum genitalium vllum intus conſpicuum: branchias autem rem habent peculiarem, quibus humorem, quem ore acceperint, reddunt: atque etiam pinnas, quas magna ex parte quaternas gerunt. attamen longis, vt anguillæ, binæ iuxta branchias hærent. Mugilibus etiam, quos lacus Sipharum gignit, binæ, atque etiam ei quam vittam appellant. Nõnullis è longis nullæ omnino ſunt pinnæ, vt murænæ: nec brãchiæ integræ, vt cæteris piſcibus habentur. Qui autem branchias habent, aut intectas continent eas, aut detectas, vt cartilaginea genera omnia. Qui intectas habent, iis in obliquum vtroque latere tenentur. Quæ tegumento carent, cartilaginea dico, iis, ſi plana ſunt, parte inferiore ſupinàque habentur: vt torpedini, vt raiæ. Sed ſi oblonga ſunt, eorum lateribus adhærent, vt in quouis muſtelino genere cernitur. Rana tametſi deductas in latera habet branchias, tamen non ſpineo intectas operimento, vt quæ non cartilaginea ſunt, ſed cutilari. Item branchiatorum ipſorum aliis ſimplices branchiæ ſunt, aliis duplices: omnibus tamen ſimplex, quæ nouiſſima corpori admota eſt: & aliis paucæ, aliis multæ; verùm in vtrumque latus æquè partitæ omnibus ſunt. Habent, quibus pauciſſimæ ſunt, ſingulas branchias vtrinque, eaſque duplices, vt aper. aliis binæ, vtrinque, alteræ ſimplices, alteræ duplices, vt congro, vt ſcaro. aliis quaternæ vtrinque ſimplices, vt acipenſeri, dentici, murænæ, anguillæ. aliis quaternæ duplici ordine, nouiſſima excepta, vt turdo, percæ, ſiluro, cyprino. Muſteligenis etiã duplices, & quinæ, vtraque ex parte ſunt. Gladio, à roſtri mucrone ita appellato, octonæ duplices. Ita branchiarum colligitur numerus.

A ἤδη δ' ἔνια τῶν ὀρνίθων ἔχει καὶ πλῆκτρον. γαμψώνυχα δ' ἅμα καὶ πλῆκτρον ἔχον, οὐδέν. ἔστι δὲ τὰ μὲν γαμψώνυχα, τῶν πτητικῶν· τὰ δὲ πληκτροφόρα, τῶν βαρέων. ἔτι δ' ἔνια τῶν ὀρνέων λόφον ἔχουσι, τὰ μὲν, αὐτῶν τῶν πτερῶν ἐπανεστηκότα· ὁ δ' ἀλεκτρυὼν μόνος ἴδιον, ὃ οὔτε σάρξ ἐστιν, οὔτε πόῤῥω σαρκὸς τὴν φύσιν.

Περὶ τῶν ἔξω μορίων τῶν ὄφεων.

ΛΟιπὸν δὲ τῶν ἐναίμων ζῴων τὸ τῶν ὄφεων γένος. ἔστι δὲ κοινὸν ἀμφοῖν. τὸ μὲν γὰρ πλεῖστον αὐτῶν, χερσαῖόν ἐστιν. ὀλίγον δὲ τὸ τῶν ἐνύδρων, ὃ ἐν τοῖς ποταμίοις ὕδασι διατελεῖ. εἰσὶ δὲ καὶ θαλάττιοι ὄφεις, παραπλήσιοι τὴν μορφὴν τοῖς χερσαίοις τἆλλα· πλὴν τὴν κεφαλὴν ἔχουσι γογγροειδεστέραν. γένη δὲ πολλὰ τῶν θαλαττίων ὄφεων ἐστὶ, καὶ χρόαν ἔχουσι παντοδαπήν. οὐ γίνονται δ' οὗτοι ἐν τοῖς σφόδρα βαθέσιν. * ἄποδες δ' εἰσὶν, οἱ ὄφεις, ὥσπερ τὸ τῶν ἰχθύων γένος. εἰσὶ δὲ σκολόπενδραι θαλάτται παραπλήσιαι τὸ εἶδος ταῖς χερσαίαις· τὸ δὲ μέγεθος, μικρῷ ἐλάττους. γίνονται δὲ περὶ τοὺς πετρώδεις τόπους. τὴν δὲ χρόαν εἰσὶν ἐρυθρότεραι, καὶ πολύποδες μᾶλλον, καὶ λεπτοσκελέστεραι τῶν χερσαίων. οὐ γίνονται δ' αὗται, ὥσπερ οὐδ' οἱ ὄφεις, ἐν τοῖς βαθέσι σφόδρα. ἔστι δ' ἰχθύδιόν τι τῶν πετραίων, ὃ καλοῦσί τινες ἐχενηίδα· καὶ χρῶνταί τινες αὐτῷ πρὸς δίκας καὶ φίλτρα. ἔστι δ' ἄβρωτον. τοῦτο δ' ἔνιοι φασὶν ἔχειν πόδας, οὐκ ἔχον· ἀλλὰ φαίνεται, διὰ τὸ τὰς πτέρυγας ὁμοίας ἔχειν ποσί. τὰ μὲν οὖν ἔξω μόρια, καὶ πόσα καὶ ποῖα τῶν ἐναίμων ζῴων, καὶ τίνας ἔχει πρὸς ἄλληλα διαφορὰς, εἴρηται.

ΤΑ δ' ἐντὸς πῶς ἔχει, λεκτέον ἐν τοῖς ἐναίμοις ζῴοις πρῶτον. τοῦτο γὰρ διαφέρει τὰ μέγιστα γένη πρὸς τὰ λοιπὰ τῶν ἄλλων ζῴων, τῷ τὰ μὲν, ἔναιμα, τὰ δ', ἄναιμα εἶναι. ἔστι δὲ ταῦτα, ἄνθρωπός τε καὶ τὰ ζῳοτόκα τῶν τετραπόδων, καὶ ὄρνις, καὶ ἰχθὺς, καὶ κῆτος, καὶ εἴ τι ἄλλο ἀνώνυμόν ἐστι, διὰ τὸ μὴ εἶναι γένος,

A Sed præter brãchiarum diſcrimen, piſces à cæteris animalibus differunt, eo quòd non pilis, vt terreſtria, quæ animal generant: non cortice, vt nonnullæ oua parientes quadrupedes: non penna, vt genus auium, integuntur: ſed plurimi ſquamoſi ſunt, pauci quidam ſcabri, pauciſſimi leues. Ergo cartilagineorum alia aſpera, alia læuia ſunt. Congri etiam, & anguillæ, & thunni læues ſunt. Dentes omnia piſcium genera habent ſerratos, pectinatimque coeuntes, excepto ſcaro, ac omnia ſerie dentium acuta atque multiplici fulciuntur. In lingua etiam dentes nonnullis. Linguam autem ipſam duram, & penè ſpineam habent, & ita adhærentem, vt interdum carere lingua videantur. Os reſciſſum, vt nonnullis ouiparis quadrupedibus eſt. B Partes audiendi, odorandi, denique ſentiendi nullæ conſpicuæ, præterquam oculi habentur. Latent etiam meatus, quibus ſentire neceſſe ſit. Oculi omnibus ſine palpebris, ſed non duri. Eſt omne ſanè piſcium genus ſanguinis particeps. Diſcrimine autem partus ſic diſcrepant, vt alij oua pariant, alij animal. Pariunt oua omnes, qui ſquama conteguntur: animal omnes qui genere cartilagineo continentur, excepta rana.

CAPVT XIV.

REliquum ex iis quæ ſanguinem habent, animalibus, genus ſerpentum eſt, quod commune ambobus ſuperioribus eſſe poteſt. Sunt enim alij terreſtres, alij aquatiles: quanquam maxima pars ſit terreſtris, exigua verò aquatilis, ſcilicet fluminũ incola. Sunt etiam maris indigenæ ſerpentes, terreſtribus ſimiles, niſi quòd caput habeant congri. Et quidem genera eorum complura ſunt, colore numeroſæ varietatis. Naſci eos non in altiſſimis gurgitibus certum eſt. Scolopendras etiam, quas centipedes voco, maris incolas eſſe nouimus, ſpecie D terreſtribus ſimiles, magnitudine paulò minores, colore rubentiores, numero pedum copioſiores, & crurum tenuitate graciliores. Naſci locis ſaxoſis ſolent, & modo ſerpentum, non magna altitudine gurgitum. Caret pedibus genus omne ſerpentum, vt piſces. Nam remoram errore nonnulli pedes habere prodiderunt, expes enim omnino eſt. Sed quoniam pinnas habeat pedibus ſimiles, hinc fit vt pedibus inſtare videatur. Piſciculus quidam hæc eſt, ſaxis aſſuetus, in cibos non admittendus, nomẽ à remorandis nauibus adeptus, vtilis ad iudiciorum cauſas, & amatoria veneficia, vt aliqui volunt. Partes exteriores ſanguineorum animalium quænam ſint, & quot numero & quibus inter ſe differentiis E diſſonent, explicatum iam eſt.

CAPVT XV.

Quæ membra quodque animalium genus interiora ſortiatur.

NVnc interiorum ordinem perſequemur, & primùm in eo genere quod ſanguine conſtat: hac enim ratione ſumma genera à cæteris differũt, quòd hæc ſanguinea ſunt, illa exanguia. Sanguine prædita ſunt, homo, & quadrupedes, quæ animal ouúmve pariunt: atque etiam aues, piſces, cete: & ſi quid aliud vacans nomine, quoniam genus non ſit, ſed ſpecies ſimplex in ſingulis intelligatur, vt ſerpens, vt crocodilus. Igitur quæ quadrupedes viuiparæ ſunt, iis gula atque arteria omnibus eſt, & eodem ſitu, quo homini. Ouiparis etiam quadrupedibus, atque auibus eadem illa adiuncta videmus, ſed diſcrimen ſpecies affert earum partium. Denique omnia, quæ aërem accipiunt, & reddunt, habent pulmonem, arteriam, gulam, & ſitum gulæ, atque arteriæ ſimilem, quanquam eas partes diſſimiles: pulmonem autem ne ſitu quidem ſimilem continent. Cor item omnibus eſt, quibus ſanguis, & ſeptum tranſuerſum, quod præcordia, & cinctus, appellatur: verùm hoc in minutis præ ſua tenuitate, exiguitatéque, non æquè ſpectari poteſt, niſi in corde. Peculiare eſt, quod de nonnullis bubus proditum eſt: genus enim quoddam boum ſuo in corde oſſiculum continere aiunt. at verò pulmo non omnibus datus eſt: piſces enim, & omnino quæ branchias habent, carent pulmone. Iecur in omnibus eſt, in quibus ſanguis. Lien magna ex parte omnibus, quibus ſanguis: ſed magnæ parti eorum, quæ non animal, ſed oua pariunt, lien vſq; adeo exiguus eſt vt propemodum ſenſum effugiat: quod magna in parte auium experimur: verbi cauſa, in columbis, miluis, accipitribus, noctuis.* Capriceps auis liene omnino caret. In quadrupedibus etiam ouiparis ſimilis ratio eſt: nam ea quoque admodum exiguum habent lienem: vt teſtudo, mus aquatilis, rubeta, lacerta, crocodilus, rana. Fel aliis adnectitur iecori, aliis minimè. Ex genere enim quadrupedum, quæ animal generant, ceruo, & damæ deeſſe notatum eſt: atque etiam equo, mulo, aſino, vitulo marino, & murium nonnullis. Ceruis Achainis cognomine, fel contineri in cauda creditur. Eſt, quod ibi contineri aiunt, colore quidem ſimile felli, ſed non ita vt fel humidum, ſed lieni ſimile parte interiore. Vermes tamen cerui continent omnes ſuo in capite viuos, qui naſci ſolent ſub lingua in concauo circiter vertebram, quà ceruici innectitur caput, magnitudine haud minores iis vermibus, quos maximos carnes putres ediderint. Gigni vniuerſi atque contigui ſolent numero adeo circiter viginti. Sed ceruus felle (vt dictum eſt) vacat: quanquam eius inteſtinum amarum adeò eſt, vt ne à canibus quidem attingatur, niſi ceruus præpinguis ſit. Elephanto etiam iecur ſine felle: inciſo tamen parte qua fel adhærere ſolet, humor felleus effluit plùs minùs. Delphinus, inter ea quæ mare excipiunt, pulmonémque habent, vnus felle priuatus eſt. Aues piſceéſque omnes fel habent: & quadrupedes, quæ oua pariunt, dixerim in vniuerſum, omnes aut plus aut minus fellis ſortiuntur. Sed piſciū aliis in iecore poſitum eſt, vt muſteligenis, & ſiluro, & ſquatinæ, leuitaiæ, torpedini: atque ex longis anguillæ, acui, libellæ. Pulchro etiam in iecore ineſt proportione corporis maximè omnium copioſum. aliis inteſtino annexum eſt, dependens à iecore, meatibus quibuſdam perpetuis ſummæ tenuitatis. Ergo hamiæ ſuo inteſtino pari proceſſu obductum habet, ſæpe etiam replicatum, reduxque aliquatenus. reliquis collectum inteſtinis commiſſum eſt, aut remotius à iecore, aut propius: vt ranæ, accipenſeri, dentici, murænæ, gladio.

Τήν τε καρδίαν περὶ τὸ μέσον, πλὴν ἐν ἀνθρώπῳ. οὗτος δ' ἐν τῷ ἀριστερῷ μᾶλλον μέρει, καθάπερ ἐλέχθη πρότερον. ἔχει δὲ καὶ τὸ ὀξὺ ἡ καρδία πάντων εἰς τὸ πρόσθεν· πλὴν ἐπὶ τῶν ἰχθύων οὐκ ἂν δόξειεν. οὐ γὰρ πρὸς τὸ στῆθος ἔχει τὸ ὀξὺ, ἀλλὰ πρὸς τὴν κεφαλὴν, καὶ πρὸς τὸ στόμα. ἀπήρτηται δ' αὐτῶν τὸ ἄκρον εἰς ὃ συνάπτει τὰ βράγχια ἀλλήλοις, τὰ δεξιὰ καὶ τὰ ἀριστερά. εἰσὶ δὲ καὶ ἄλλοι πόροι τεταμένοι ἐξ αὐτῆς εἰς ἕκαστον τῶν βραγχίων, μείζους μὲν τοῖς μείζοσιν, ἐλάττους δὲ τοῖς ἐλάττοσιν. ὁ δ' ἐπ' ἄκρας τῆς καρδίας τοῖς μεγάλοις αὐτῶν, σφόδρα παχὺς αὐλός ἐστι καὶ λευκός. στόμαχον δ' ὀλίγοι ἔχουσι τῶν ἰχθύων, οἷον γόγγρος καὶ ἔγχελυς, καὶ οὗτοι μικρόν. καὶ τὸ ἧπαρ τοῖς ἔχουσι, τοῖς μὲν ἀσχιδὲς ἔχουσιν, [ἐστὶν] ἐν τοῖς δεξιοῖς ὅλον· τοῖς δὲ ἐσχισμένον ἀπ' ἀρχῆς, τὸ μεῖζον ἐν τοῖς δεξιοῖς. ἐνίοις γὰρ ἑκάτερον τὸ μόριον ἀπήρτηται, καὶ οὐ συμπέφυκεν ἡ ἀρχή· οἷον τῶν τε ἰχθύων τοῖς γαλεώδεσι, καὶ δασυπόδων τι γένος, ὅ ἐστι καὶ ἄλλοθι, καὶ περὶ τὴν λίμνην τὴν Βόλβην, ἐν τῇ καλουμένῃ Συκίνῃ, οὓς ἄν τις δόξειε δύο ἥπατα ἔχειν, διὰ τὸ πόρρω τοὺς πόρους συνάπτειν, ὥσπερ καὶ ἐπὶ τοῦ τῶν ὀρνίθων πνεύμονος. καὶ ὁ σπλὴν δ' ἐστὶ πᾶσιν ἐν τοῖς ἀριστεροῖς κατὰ φύσιν·* καὶ οἱ νεφροὶ, τοῖς ἔχουσι, κείμενοι τὸν αὐτὸν ἔχουσι τρόπον. ἤδη δὲ διαιρεθέν τι τῶν τετραπόδων ὤφθη ἔχον τὸν σπλῆνα μὲν ἐν τοῖς δεξιοῖς, τὸ δ' ἧπαρ ἐν τοῖς ἀριστεροῖς· ἀλλὰ τὰ τοιαῦτα, ὡς τέρατα κρίνεται. τείνει δ' ἡ μὲν ἀρτηρία πᾶσιν εἰς τὸν πνεύμονα· ὃν δὲ τρόπον, ὕστερον ἐροῦμεν. ὁ δὲ στόμαχος, εἰς τὴν κοιλίαν διὰ τοῦ διαζώματος, ὅσα ἔχει στόμαχον. οἱ γὰρ ἰχθύες, ὥσπερ εἴρηται, οἱ πλεῖστοι οὐκ ἔχουσιν, ἀλλ' εὐθὺς πρὸς τὸ στόμα συνάπτει ἡ κοιλία. διὸ πολλάκις ἐνίοις τῶν μεγάλων διώκουσι τοὺς ἐλάττους, προπίπτει ἡ κοιλία εἰς τὸ στόμα. ἔχει δὲ κοιλίαν πάντα τὰ εἰρημένα, καὶ κειμένην ὁμοίως· κεῖται γὰρ ὑπὸ τὸ διάζωμα εὐθύς· καὶ τὸ ἔντερον ἐχόμενον, καὶ τελευτῶν πρὸς τὴν ἔξοδον τῆς τροφῆς, καὶ τὸν καλούμενον ἀρχόν.

* Gaza periodi huius non meminit.

CAPVT XVI.

Quæ animalia renibus & veſica carent.

Renes, atque veſicam omnes, quæ animal generant, quadrupedes poſſident. at verò ex iis quæ oua pariunt, aues piſcéſque, non habent. Qua-
B drupedum vna teſtudo marina habet magnitudine ad cæterarum partium rationem. Similes bubulis renes ei omnino adhærent, quaſi ex multis exiguis conſtituti. Bonaſus etiam interiora omnia bubus ſimilia continet. Situs idem earum partium eſt omnibus, quæ ex iis conſtant.

CAPVT XVII.

Quam corporis partem in quibuſque animantibus cor, iecur, pulmo, lien, fel & venter obtineant.

C tius læuæ commiſſum eſt, vt antè expoſui. Tendit omnibus priorem in partem, ſuo turbinato mucrone, præterquam piſcibus: iis enim non ita eſſe videri poteſt, cùm eorum cor ſuum mucronem non ad pectus ſpectantem, ſed ad os habeat, extremúmque inde pendens, quà branchiæ dextræ atque ſiniſtræ inter ſe coeunt copulantúrque. Sunt etiam meatus alij de corde ad branchias tendentes ſingulas, pro deſiderio magnitudinis: hoc eſt, maioribus laxiores, minoribus arctiores: inter quos craſſa admodum & candida fiſtula eſt, quæ de cordis extremo oritur. Gula paucis in piſcibus ineſt, vt congro, anguillæ, iiſque exigua. Et iecur qui habent, ſi non fiſſum eſt, dextro latere to-
D tum continetur: ſin fiſſum à principio vſque, dextro maior pars applicata eſt. Quibuſdam enim partes ſepoſitæ ſunt, nec eadem certa origine continentur, vt inter piſces muſtelino generi, & inter quadrupedes leporum generi cuidam, quod tum alibi, tum etiam in Sycino agro circiter Bolbam lacum gignitur: quippe quos bina habere iecinora credideris, quoniam meatus procul admodum coeant: quod idem vel in pulmone ſpectare auium licet. Lien etiam parti ſiniſtræ adnectitur iecori aduerſus, ſitúque valet iuſto naturæ. Quòd ſi qua diſſecta quadrupede, lienem latere contineri dextro, iecur ſiniſtro, viſum eſt, prodigiosè id eueniſſe putandum. Tendit arteria omnibus ad pul-
E monem, quemadmodum pòſt explicabimus. Gula ad ventrem perfertur, tranſiens ſeptum tranſuerſum, ſcilicet in iis quæ habeant gulam: piſces enim magna ex parte gula carent, vt dictum eſt, vt qui annexum ſtatim ori ventrem habeant. Quocirca ſæpius euenit grandibus nonnullis, vt dum per impetum inſectantur minores, ventriculus in os procidat. Habēt omnia, quæ adhuc enumeraui, vētrem ſitu conſimili: ſepto enim tranſuerſo continuò ſubeſt, inteſtinúmque de eo porrectū finit ad exitum cibi, & eam partem, quæ podex dicitur.

Sed ventris diſſimilitudo primùm, quòd quadrupedes viuiparæ, cornigeræ, altera maxilla dentatæ, quaternos eiuſmodi habent ſinus: quæ eadem & ruminare dicuntur. Gula enim incipiens ab ore deorſum tendit ad pulmonem, ſeptúmque tranſuerſum: hinc ſe ad ventrem applicat maiorem, qui parte interiore aſper, intercæptúſque eſt, ac prope gulæ commiſſuram ſinum ſibi adnexum habet, quem ex argumento reticulum vocant: eſt enim ventri extrinſecus ſimilis, intus reticulis mulierum implexis, magnitudine multò quàm venter, minor. Hunc excipit omaſum parte interiore aſperum, cancellatum, cruſtatum, magnitudine reticuli: abomaſum venter ab eo alius iungitur, magnitudine amplior omaſo, forma oblongior, cancellis intus, & cruſtis multis magnis, & leuibus innormatus, mox inteſtinum iam ſequitur. Cornigera altera maxilla dentata, omnia ad hunc modum ſuum habere ventrem certum eſt. Sed differunt inter ſe magnitudine, aut figura, atque etiam quod gula, vel in medium ventris tendat, vel in latus vergat. at vero omnia dentata maxilla vtraque ventres ſingulos habent, vt homo, canis, ſus, vrſus, leo, lupus. Quinetiam thos, quem lupum ceruarium appellem, interna omnia lupi ſimilia habet. Is igitur omnibus ſimplex ventriculus eſt, quem excipit inteſtinum: verùm aliis amplior, vt ſui, vt vrſo: & ſuillo quidem cruſtæ læues pauciores ſunt. aliis arctior, nec multo amplior inteſtino, vt cani, leoni, homini. Cæterorum etiam ſpecies omnium reſpectu eorum quos modo enumeraui diſtinguuntur. aliis enim venter ſuillo ſimilis, aliis canino, tam in maiore quam in minore animalium genere. Sed diſcrimen in iis quoque magnitudine, figura, corpulentia exilitateve oritur: atque etiam ſitu gulæ, quo meatum ad ventrem ducat, & cœnuio iungitur foramini. Inteſtinorum etiam natura vtrique illi animalium generi, hoc eſt, vtraque dentato, & altera maxilla dentato, ibi differt magnitudine, craſſitudine, replicamentis. Sunt certe maiora omnia inteſtina non vtrinque dentatis: nec immerito, nam ipſa ita dentata omnia ſunt auctiora: pauca enim parua eo in genere habentur. Admodum paruum inter cornigera nullum eſt. Quibuſdam etiam appendices ſunt inteſtinorum. Rectum autem inteſtinum nulli eſt cui non parte vtraque dentes. Elephanto inteſtinum ita eſt ſinuoſum, vt alios habere quatuor videatur. In hoc etiam cibus recipitur: nullum enim conceptaculum cibi aliud ſeparatum adeſt. Exta quoque eidem ſuillis proxima, ſed maiora: iecur enim quadruplo maius bubulo eſt, & reliqua pari ratione, excepto liene; hic enim minor ex proportione eſt. Hæc eadem ratio ventris, inteſtinorumque vel in ouiparis quadrupedibus eſt, vt in teſtudine, tum terreſtri tum etiam marina, in lacerto, crocodilo vtroque: omnibus denique generis eiuſdem. Simplicem enim vnumque habent ventrem, aut canino aut ſuillo ſimilem. Genus ſerpentum nulla euariat ratione: & omnia fere proxima lacertis ex terreſtri ouiparo genere habere ſpectes, ſi pedes iis demas, longitudinem addas: quippe quod inteſtum cortice ſit, & prona ſupinaque perinde atque lacerti habeat, ſed teſtibus caret. Nec alio modo quàm piſces meatus duo coeuntes in idem, & vuluam longam ac bifidam habet. Cętera interna eadē ſerpentibus ſunt, quę lacertis.

A ἀνομοίας δ' ἔχουσι τὰς κοιλίας. τούτων μὲν γὰρ τῶν τετραπόδων καὶ ζῳοτόκων ὅσα μή ἐστιν ἀμφώδοντα τῶν κερατοφόρων, τέτταρας ἔχει τοὺς τοιούτους πόρους· ἃ δὴ καὶ λέγεται μηρυκάζειν. διήκει γὰρ ὁ μὲν στόμαχος, ἀπὸ τοῦ στόματος ἀρξάμενος, ἐπὶ τὰ κάτω παρὰ τὸν πλεύμονα, ἀπὸ τοῦ διαζώματος ἐπὶ τὴν κοιλίαν τὴν μεγάλην. αὕτη δ' ἐστὶ τὰ ἔσω τραχεῖα, καὶ διειλημμένη. συνήρτηται δ' αὐτῇ πλησίον τῆς τοῦ στομάχου προσβολῆς, ὁ καλούμενος κεκρύφαλος, ἀπὸ τῆς ὄψεως. ἔστι γὰρ τὰ μὲν ἔξωθεν, ὅμοιος τῇ κοιλίᾳ· τὰ δ' ἐντὸς, ὅμοιος τοῖς πλεκτοῖς κεκρυφάλοις. μεγέθει δὲ πολὺ ἐλάττων ἐστὶν ὁ κεκρύφα-

C ἐντὸς, ὅμοια λύκῳ. πάντα μὲν οὖν ἔχει μίαν κοιλίαν, καὶ μετὰ ταῦτα τὸ ἔντερον· ἀλλὰ τὰ μὲν, ἔχει μείζω τὴν κοιλίαν, ὥσπερ ὗς καὶ ἄρκτος, καὶ ἡ μὲν τῆς ὑὸς, ὀλίγας ἔχει λείας πλάκας· τὰ δὲ, πολὺ ἐλάττω, καὶ οὐ πολὺ μείζω τοῦ ἐντέρου, καθάπερ ὁ κύων, καὶ λέων, καὶ ἄνθρωπος. καὶ τῶν ἄλλων δὲ τὰ εἴδη διέστηκε πρὸς τὰς τούτων κοιλίας. τὰ μὲν γὰρ, ὑείαν ἔχει· τὰ δὲ, κυνείαν· καὶ τὰ μείζω καὶ τὰ ἐλάττω τῶν ζῴων ὡσαύτως. διαφορὰ δὲ καὶ ἐν τούτοις κατὰ τὰ μεγέθη καὶ τὰ σχήματα, καὶ πάχη καὶ λεπτότητας ὑπάρχει τῆς κοιλίας, καὶ κατὰ τοῦ στομάχου τὴν θέσιν τὴν συντρήσεως. διαφέρει δὲ καὶ ἡ τῶν ἐντέρων φύσις ἑκατέροις τῶν
D εἰρημένων ζῴων, τοῖς τε μὴ ἀμφώδουσι, καὶ τοῖς ἀμφώδουσι, τῷ τε μεγέθει καὶ πάχει, καὶ ταῖς ἐπαναδιπλώσεσι. πάντα δὲ μείζω τὰ τῶν μὴ ἀμφωδόντων ἐστί· καὶ γὰρ αὐτὰ πάντα μείζω. μικρὰ μὲν γὰρ ὀλίγα. παμμικρὸν δὲ οὐδέν ἐστι κερατοφόρον. ἔχουσι δ' ἔνια καὶ ἀποφυάδας τῶν ἐντέρων. εὐθυέντερον δὲ οὐδέν ἐστι, μὴ ἀμφῶδουν. ὁ δ' ἐλέφας ἔντερον ἔχει συμφύσεις ἔχον, ὥστε φαίνεσθαι τέτταρας κοιλίας ἔχειν· ἐν τούτῳ καὶ ἡ τροφὴ ἐγγίνεται, χωρὶς δ' οὐκ ἔχει ἀγγεῖον. καὶ τὰ σπλάγχνα δ' ἔχει παραπλήσια τοῖς ὑείοις, πλὴν τὸ μὲν ἧπαρ, τετραπλάσιον τοῦ βοείου, καὶ τἆλλα· τὸν δὲ σπλῆνα, ἐλάττω κατὰ λόγον. τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον ἔχει καὶ
E τὰ περὶ τὴν κοιλίαν, καὶ τὴν τῶν ἐντέρων φύσιν, καὶ τοῖς τετράποσι μὲν [ἢ ζῳοτόκοις,] ᾠοτόκοις δὲ, οἷον χελώνῃ χερσαίᾳ, καὶ χελώνῃ θαλαττίᾳ, καὶ σαύρᾳ, καὶ τοῖς κροκοδείλοις ἀμφοῖν, καὶ πᾶσιν ὁμοίως τοῖς τοιούτοις. ἁπλῆν τε γὰρ ἔχουσι καὶ μίαν τὴν κοιλίαν, καὶ τὰ μὲν ὁμοίαν τῇ ὑείᾳ, τὰ δὲ τῇ τοῦ κυνός. τὸ δὲ τῶν ὄφεων γένος ὅμοιόν ἐστι, καὶ ἔχει παραπλήσια σχεδὸν πάντα τῶν πεζῶν καὶ ᾠοτόκων τοῖς σαύροις, εἴ τις μῆκος ἀποδοὺς αὐτοῖς ἀφέλοι τοὺς πόδας. φολιδωτόν τε γάρ ἐστι, καὶ τὰ πρανῆ καὶ τὰ ὕπτια παραπλήσια τούτοις ἔχει· πλὴν ὄρχεις οὐκ ἔχει, ἀλλ' ὥσπερ ἰχθῦς δύο πόρους εἰς ἓν συνάπτοντας, καὶ τὴν ὑστέραν [μακρὰν] καὶ δικρόαν.

A τὰ δ' ἄλλα τὰ ἐντὸς, τὰ αὐτὰ τοῖς σαύροις, πλὴν ἅπαντα διὰ τὴν στενότητα καὶ τὸ μῆκος, στενὰ καὶ μακρὰ τὰ σπλάγχνα ἔχει, ὥστε καὶ λανθάνειν διὰ τὴν ὁμοιότητα τῶν σχημάτων. τήν τε γὰρ ἀρτηρίαν ἔχει σφόδρα μακράν, ἔτι δὲ μακρότερον τὸν στόμαχον. ἀρχὴ δὲ τῆς ἀρτηρίας πρὸς αὐτῷ ἐστὶ τῷ στόματι, ὥστε δοκεῖν ὑπὸ ταύτην εἶναι τὴν γλῶτταν. προέχειν δὲ δοκεῖ τῆς γλώττης ἡ ἀρτηρία, διὰ τὸ συσπᾶσθαι τὴν γλῶτταν, καὶ μὴ μένειν ὥσπερ τοῖς ἄλλοις. ἔστι δ' ἡ γλῶττα λεπτὴ, καὶ μακρὰ, καὶ μέλαινα, καὶ ἐξέρχεται μέχρι πόρρω. ἰδίᾳ δὲ παρὰ τὰς τῶν ἄλλων γλώττας ἔχουσι καὶ οἱ ὄφεις καὶ οἱ σαῦροι, τὸ δικρόαν αὐτῶν εἶναι τῆς γλώττας ἄκρας, B πολὺ δὲ μάλιστα οἱ ὄφεις· τὰ γὰρ ἄκρα αὐτῶν ἐστι λεπτὰ ὥσπερ τρίχες. ἔχει δὲ καὶ ἡ φώκη ἐσχισμένην τὴν γλῶτταν. τὴν δὲ κοιλίαν ὁ ὄφις ἔχει οἷον ἔντερον εὐρυχωρέστερον, ὁμοίαν τῇ τοῦ κυνός· εἶτα τὸ ἔντερον μακρὸν καὶ λεπτὸν, καὶ μέχρι τῆς τελευτῆς ἕν. ἐπὶ δὲ τοῦ φάρυγγος ἡ καρδία μικρὰ καὶ μακρὰ, καὶ νεφροειδής· διὸ δόξειεν ἂν ἐνίοτε οὐ πρὸς τὸ στῆθος ἔχειν τὸ ὀξύ. εἶθ' ὁ πνεύμων ἁπλοῦς, ἰνώδει πόρῳ διηρθρωμένος, καὶ μακρὸς σφόδρα, καὶ πολὺ ἀπηρτημένος τῆς καρδίας. καὶ τὸ ἧπαρ μακρὸν καὶ ἁπλοῦν, σπλῆνα δὲ μικρὸν καὶ στρογγύλον, ὥσπερ καὶ οἱ σαῦροι. χολὴν δ' ἔχει ὁμοίως τοῖς ἰχθύσιν· οἱ μὲν γὰρ ὕδροι, ἐπὶ τῷ ἥπατι ἔχουσιν, οἱ δ' ἄλλοι πρὸς τοῖς ἐν- C τέροις, ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολύ. * καρχαρόδοντες δὲ πάντες εἰσί. πλευρὰς δ' ἔχουσιν ἴσας ταῖς ἐν τῷ μηνὶ ἡμέραις· τριάκοντα γὰρ ἔχουσι. λέγουσι δέ τινες συμβαίνειν περὶ τοὺς ὄφεις τὸ αὐτὸ, ὅπερ καὶ περὶ τοὺς νεοττοὺς τῶν χελιδόνων· ἐάν γάρ τις ἐκκεντήσῃ τὰ ὄμματα τῶν ὄφεων, φασὶ φύεσθαι πάλιν. καὶ κέρκοι δὲ ἀποτμηθεῖσαι τῶν τε σαύρων καὶ τῶν ὄφεων φύονται. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τοῖς ἰχθύσιν ἔχει τὰ περὶ τὰ ἔντερα καὶ τὴν κοιλίαν· μίαν γὰρ καὶ ἁπλῆν ἔχουσι, διαφέρουσαν τοῖς σχήμασιν. ἔνιοι γὰρ πάμπαν ἐντεροειδῆ ἔχουσιν, οἷον ὁ καλούμενος σκάρος, ὃς δὴ καὶ μόνος ἰχθὺς δοκεῖ μηρυκάζειν. καὶ τὸ τοῦ ἐντέρου δὲ μέγεθος ἁπλοῦν, καὶ ἀναδίπλωσιν ἔχει, ὃ ἀναλύεται εἰς ἕν. A Verùm omnia earum viſcera propter longitudinem, & anguſtiam corporis, longa arctaque habentur, ita vt dignoſci præ ſuæ figuræ diſſimilitudine non queant. arteria namque longa admodum eſt, atque etiam gula longior. arteriæ origo ita iuxta os ipſum poſita eſt, vt etiam ſub lingua videatur: & quidem videtur linguæ præeminere, quoniam longa contrahitur, nec ceteris manet. Lingua autem ipſa tenuis, longa, & atri coloris eſt, atque ſi extrahas, porrigi longiùs poteſt. Peculiare, præter cæterorum linguas, ſerpentibus, & lacertis eſt, vt ſumma eorum lingua bifida ſit: ſed præcipuè ſerpentium, B quippe quæ tenuiſſimis quibuſdam quaſi capillamentis diſcreta vibretur. Vitulo etiam marino lingua ſciſſa eſt. Ventriculum ſerpentes, velut inteſtinum laxius habent, canino ſimilem: tum inteſtinum longum, tenue, & ad exitum vſque vniforme. Cor arteriæ poſtremæ adhæret exiguum, ſed longum, & renum ſpeciem referens: quamobrem videri interdum poteſt minùs mucronem ſuum dirigere ad pectus. Pulmo deinde adnectitur ſimplex, fibroſus, fiſtuloſus, prolongus, longéque à corde ſepoſitus. Iecur item longum & ſimplex. Sed lien exiguus, rotundúſque, vt lacertis. Fel ſimiliter atque in piſcibus habetur: natricibus enim adnexum iecori eſt, cæteris inteſtino magna ex parte adhæ- C rent. Dentes exerti omnibus ſunt. Coſtæ totidem quot dies menſem integrum complent: ſingulis enim triceenæ. Euenire ſerpentibus idem quod pullis hirundinum nonnulli aiunt: oculis enim ſerpentum laceratis, ſubnaſci alios referunt. Caudæ etiam lacertis, atque ſerpentibus amputatæ renaſcuntur. Hæc eadem ratio inteſtinorum, & ventris piſcium quoque eſt. Venter enim iis vnus, & ſimplex, ſed figura varia eſt: nonnullis enim diuerſa omnino ſpecies ventris eſt, vt ei, quem ſcarum vocant, qui & ruminare ſolus piſcium creditur. Inteſtinum etiam ſimplex replicans ſe, quod in vnum continuum- D que reſoluatur. Peculiare piſcibus, & magna ex parte auibus, appendicum agnatio eſt: ſed auibus ſubter, & paucæ, piſcibus ſupernè circa ventriculum exeunt: & nonnullis complures vt gobioni, muſtelo, percæ, ſcorpioni, fidiculæ, mullo, ſcaro, mugili: cui parte altera plures exeunt, altera vna tantùm: aliis paucæ, vt iecorino, glauco. auratæ etiam paucæ. Tum autem ipſi eiuſdem ſpeciei conſortes inter ſe differunt. auratarum enim aliis plures, aliis pauciores. Sunt etiam quibus nullæ omnino ſint, vt magnæ cartilagineorum parti: cæteris ita, vt aliis paucæ, aliis vel plurimæ habeantur. Omnes tamen piſces ad E ipſum ventrem eas appendices continent. aues & inter ſeipſas differre, & à cæteris diſcrepare animalibus, interiorum partium ratione, apertum eſt. aliis enim ingluuies præpoſita ventriculo eſt, vt gallinacco, palumbo, columbo, perdici. Ingluuies, cutis in amplum ſinuata eſt, qua primùm cibus ingeſtus continetur incoctus. Hac parte, qua iungitur gulæ, anguſtior eſt, mox amplior, tum quà deſinit in ventriculum, arctior. Ventriculus parti plurimæ carnoſus, carnoſúſque eſt, cutis intus robuſta, cruſtaciſque facilè detrahi integra poteſt. aliis ingluuies deeſt, ſed eius vice gula pertinet latior, & patentior, vel tota, vel quà propiùs ventriculum adit, vt monedulæ, coruo, cornici.

Quinetiam coturnici gula amplior infra, & capriA cipiti pars inferior paulo latior eſt, atque etiam noctuæ. Aranati, anſeri, gauiæ, cataractæ, tardæ, gula tota ampla, & lata eſt. Multis etiam aliis auibus gulam huiuſmodi eſſe perſpectum eſt. Nec deſunt quibus ventriculus ipſe ſimilis ſit ingluuiei, vt tinnunculo. Sunt item quibus neque gula, neque ingluuies amplior ſit, ſed ventriculus longior, ſcilicet auiculis omnibus, qualis paſſer, aut hirundo eſt. Sunt etiam, quamuis paucæ, quæ ingluuiei gulæque amplitudine careant, longitudine autem admodum prolixa vtantur, videlicet quæ longa anguſtaque colla habent, vt porphyrio: quæ fere omnes alui excrementum humidius, quam cæteræ ſolent, reiiciunt. Coturnici præ cæteris hæc propria ha-B bentur, vt & ingluuiem, & gulam prope ventriculum amplam & latam habeat. Diſtat ingluuies à parte gulæ propinqua ventriculo multum, pro magnitudinis proportione. Tenue quoque inteſtinum parti plurimæ auium eſt, & ſimplex reſolui poteſt. Appendices autem illæ paucæ in auibus ſunt, vt dictum eſt: nec ſuprà vt in piſcibus, ſed infrà, qua deſinit inteſtinum. Habent eas non omnes, ſed plurimæ, vt gallinaceus, perdix, anas, ciconia, aſcalaphus, anſer, olor, tarda, noctua. Minoris etiam generis nonnullæ habent, ſed perexiguè, vt paſſer.

CAPVT I.

De ſitu & forma genitalium membrorum omnium animantium, eorúmque differentiis.

De cæteris interioribus partibus, quótnam, aut quales ſint, & quas inter ſe habeant differentias, diD ctum iam eſt. Reſtat vt de iis quæ ad generationem miniſtrant, diſſeramus. Ergo & fœminis omnibus intus conditæ habentur: maribus autem multiplici differentia euariant. Nam inter animalia ſanguinei generis, aliis teſtes nulli omnino ſunt: aliis ſunt quidem ſed intus. Et iis quæ intus continent, aut lumbis adhærent circiter ſedem renum, aut aluo crediti ſunt. Aliis foris dependent, quibus genitale aut aluo annexum ſuſtinetur, aut demiſſum pendet cum teſtibus. Nec verò modo eodem ad aluum omnibus continetur, ſed aliter iis qui ex aduerſo mingunt, aliter iis qui ex auerſo. PiE ſcium igitur nulli ſunt teſtes, nec cæteris, quibus branchiæ, neque vlli ſerpentum, nulli denique, quod pedibus careat, niſi intra ſe formare animal poſſit. Auibus teſtes dati omnibus ſunt, non tamen qui foris pendeant, ſed qui intus adhæreant lumbis, quomodo quadrupedibus quoque ouiparis habentur, vt lacerto, teſtudini, crocodilo, & inter ea quæ animal generant, herinaceo. Quæ autẽ intus continent, iis ad aluum nectũtur, vt delphino ex iis quæ pedibus vacant: vt elephanto, ex iis quæ quadrupedes viuiparæ ſunt. Cæteris conſpicuos eſſe teſtes natura voluit. A qui ad aluum aut locum proximum poſiti in propatulo ſunt, diximus. Aut enim hærent annexi retrò nec tremuli pendent, vt ſuibus: aut propenſi dimiſsique geruntur, vt homini. Piſces, vt modò dixi, & ſerpentes, teſtibus carent: ſed meatus continent binos, qui de ſepto exorti, latus ſpinæ vtrumque perreptent, coeantque ſupernè in vnum, atque ita ad oſtium excrementi finiant: quod enim ad ſpinam eſt, id ſuperius nomino. Pleni hi meatus humoris fœtifici redduntur tempore coitus, attritúque mutuo ſemen effluit genitale candidum. Sed quibuſnam ipſi inter ſe diſcrepent, in diſſectionibus ſpeculari oportet. Nos etiam diligentiùs pòſt exponemus, B cùm ſua ſingulis reddiderimus. Omnibus autem, quæ oua edunt, ſiue bipeda, ſiue quadrupeda ſunt, teſtes lumbis innexi infra ſeptum continentur, vel candidiores, vel pallidiores, venulis admodum tenuibus circundati. Meatus de ſingulis ſinguli pertinent, eodémque coeunt ſupra oſtium excrementi, ſicut agi in piſcibus dictum eſt: iſque meatus, qui ex coitu amborum conſiſtit, genitale eſt, quod in minoribus latet: in maioribus vero, anſerem dico, & reliqua huiuſcemodi, euidentius eſt, cùm recens inierint. Meatus autem tam iis quàm piſcibus, lumbis adhærent, ſubter aluum, ventrem, & inteſtina, inter venam C maiorem, de qua meatus ad teſtem pertinent vtrumque. Sed vt piſcibus, lentor ille prolificus tempore initus haberi ſentitur, meatúſque latiſſimè patent: vbi vero id tempus præterit, incerti vel meatus ipſi interdum redduntur: ſic auium teſtes priùs quàm coire incipiant, aliis exigui, aliis omnino obſcuri ſunt: at vero cùm Venerem exercent, inſigni tantiſper magnitudine augentur. Quod apertiſſimè palumbis & perdicibus euenit, atque ita, vt hybernis menſibus ne vllos quidem teſtes in iis haberi nonnulli arbitrentur. Quibus autem parti priori teſtes commiſſi ſunt, iis aut intus iuxta aluum conduntur, vt delphino: aut foris in aperto vltima aluo poſiti ſunt. Qui- D bus vtriſque cùm cætera ſint eadem, vnum illud diſcrimen exiſtit, quòd quæ intus continent ſuos teſtes, nulla cute habent obductos: quæ autem foris, hæc coniectos in conceptaculum, quod ſcrotum vocamus, gerunt. Teſtes verò ipſi omnibus greſſilibus viuiparis ſunt ad hunc modum. Meatus duo venales ad capita teſtium de vena aorta pertendunt, & alij totidem à renibus eôdem deueniunt: ſed hi ſanguinolenti, illi, quos mittit aorta, exangues ſunt. A capite autem ipſorum teſtium meatus excipit ſpiſſior illo ſuperiore, atque neruoſior: qui progreſſus per teſtem flectit ſeſe inde, & caput eiuſdem repetit: vnde rur- E ſus in idem coeunt, & in parte priore ſubeunt genitale. Qui caput repetunt, ipſi tam continua membrana obuelantur cum iis qui reſident, teſtibus, vt vnus eſſe meatus videantur, niſi membranæ diuortium feceris. Humorem adhuc ſanguineũ continet is qui reſidet, ſed minùs quàm illi ſuperiores. at verò qui reuerſi ceruicem ſubeũt genitalis, humorem iam habent candicantem. Quinetiã de veſica meatus perfertur, & ſe ad ceruicem applicat, quem velut puramen canaliculatum ambit id quod penem vocamus. Specta ea, quæ dixi, deſcriptione hac: Sit α initium meatuum, qui de aorta proficiſcuntur:

κκ meatus deſcendentes ad capita teſtiū: ωω qui ab iis aſſident teſtibus: ββ qui repetunt, ſcilicet quibus humor candicans continetur: Δ genitale: Ε veſica: ΨΨ teſtes. Exciſis detractiſve teſtibus meatus ſurſum ſe retrahunt. Caſtrare ſolent duobus modis: aut enim teſtes nouellos adhuc frangunt, aut adultos iam firmóſque, excîdunt. Taurum aliquando exciſum initu protinus acto, progenerasse traditum eſt. Teſtes animalium ita ſe habere cognitum eſt. Vuluæ, ſiue vteri, nec eodem ſitu habentur, nec ſimiles omnium ſunt: ſed differunt inter ſe, tum eorum quæ animal generant, tum illorum quæ oua pariunt. Habent omnes, qui iuxta genitale continentur, ſinus geminos, alterum in latere dextro, alterum in ſiniſtro. B Initium verò vnum eſt, & commune oſtium, quaſi ceruix carnoſa admodum cartilagineáque, parti plurimæ auctiſſimæque animantium tributum eſt. Pars vuluæ interior, loci, & vterus appellatur: vnde fratres vterinos cognominamus. Oſtium autem, & ceruix, matrix dicitur. Sed bipedes, atque etiam quadrupedes, quæ animal procreant, omnes vuluam, aut vterum intra ſeptum tranſuerſum continent, vt homo, canis, ſus, equus, bos. Cornigera quoque omnia ſitum habent eundem. Extrema plurimarum vuluarum, quæ cornua vocant, inuolui perſpectum eſt. At eorum, quæ oua edunt, ſitus non ſimilis omnium eſt. Sed auium vuluæ iuxta ſeptum annexæ C ſunt: piſcium infra, ſicut bipedum, aut quadrupedum, quæ animal pariunt: ſed tenues & membrana conſtantes, & longæ, ita vt in minutiſſimis piſciculis ſinum vuluæ vtrumque iungi in faciem oui vnius videatur, tanquam bina habeant oua hi piſces, quorum ouum arenidum eſt: non enim continuum, ſed quoddam arenulentum eſt: ita diffundi in multa poteſt. Vulua auium ceruicem habet carnoſam, calloſámque parte inferiore: at ſuperne, quà ſepto iungitur, membrana conſtat, & prætenuis adeo eſt, vt oua extra vuluam eſſe exiſtimes. Auibus ergo auctioribus membrana conſpectior eſt, & per ceruicem inflata extollitur, atque ſinuatur. At in minoribus D obſcuriora hæc omnia habentur. Quadrupedum quoque ouiparàrum hæc eadem ratio vuluæ eſt, vt teſtudinis, lacertæ, ranæ, & reliquorum generis eiuſdem. Enimvero ceruix vna in vno, & carnulentior eſt: fiſſura autem, & oua proxima ſepto ſuſtinentur. Necnon ea quæ in genere pedibus priuato animal edunt in lucem, poſteaquam oua inter ſe pepererunt, vt muſteli, & reliqua cartilaginea dicta, (quicquid enim inter marina pedibus orbatum, & branchias habens animal generat, ſub eo nomine intelligitur) iis vulua partita, pertinénſque ad ſeptum, quo modo auibus, eſt. Atque etiam de medio ſui bipartiti ſinus, arctior ad ſeptum vſque per- E tendit: ac oua tam hic quàm ſuprà ad ſepti originem conſiſtunt: mox prolapſa in ſpatium latius fœtus animales excludunt. Sed eorum ipſorum differentia vuluæ, qua tum inter ſe tum verò à cæteris piſcibus diſcrepent, accuratiùs per diſſectiones ſpectari figuris ſingulis poteſt. Serpentes etiam tam ab iis ſuprà dictis, quàm inter ſe differre apertum eſt. Vipera enim animal edit, poſtquam intra ſe oua peperit, cùm cætera ſerpentum omnia genera oua edant in lucem.

CAPVT II.

De partibus animalium ſimilaribus, ibique Syenneſis Cyprij Diogeniſque Apolloniatæ opiniones de ſanguine, & venis.

C SImilarium ſanguis potiſſimùm communis animalibus ſanguineis omnibus eſt, nec minus communis ea pars eſt, qua ſanguis continetur, quæ vena dicitur. Locum autem communitatis ſecundum obtinent ea quæ iis proportionentur, hoc eſt, ſanies, & fibra, atque etiam caro, quod præcipuè corpus animalium ineſt. Os item, & quod vice fungitur oſſis, vt ſpina, & cartilago. Adde communitati eiuſmodi, cutem, membranam, neruos, vngues, pilos, & quæ iis ex proportione reſpondeant. Ad hæc, adipem, ſebum, atque excrementa, ſtercus dico, pituitam, bilem
D tum flauam, tum etiam atram. Sed cùm natura ſanguinis, venarúmque, principium eſſe videatur, primùm de iis differendum eſt: præſertim cùm autores nonnullos ex iis qui res eas tractarunt, minùs rectè dixiſſe intelligam. Cauſa verò ignorationis, occultationi earum partium, ac perdifficili contuitui tribuenda eſt: nam in animalibus mortuis natura venarum principaliorum abolетur, propterea quòd ipſæ in primis effluente ſanguine langueſcant, & collabantur. Ex iis enim quaſi vaſe, vniuerſus ſanguis effunditur: quippe qui omnis in venis contineatur, præter exiguum qui in corde eſt. In viuis autem fieri non poteſt, vt quemadmodum habeant, cernantur: intus enim
E natura earum occultatur. Itaque alij cùm in cadaueribus diſſectis inſpicerent, ſumma principia cernere nequiuerunt. Alij in hominibus admodum extenuatis, per ea, quæ extrinſecus viderentur, interna venarum principia definiere. Syenneſis medicus Cyprius ita ſcribit: Venæ corporis craſſiores oriuntur ad hunc modum, & tendunt de oculo propter ſupercilium, per dorſum ad pulmonem ſub mammis. altera de latere dextro ad ſiniſtrum, altera de ſiniſtro in dextrum: & altera per iecur in renem ac teſtem: altera ad lienem, & renem, & teſtem: poſtremò ad genitale perfertur. Diogenes Apolloniata hæc

Venas hominis conſtare ad hunc modum novimus: duæ maximæ habentur, quæ per ventriculum propter dorſi ſpinam protendunt, altera dextrorſum, altera ſiniſtrorſum, utraque ad pedem ſibi ſubiectum: & in caput eædem per iugulum propter humeros efferuntur, hinc ſparſa ramorum ſerie, aliæ minores membris omnibus ſanguinem riuant, de dextra dextrorſum, de ſiniſtra ſiniſtrorſum. Maxime autem illæ duæ cor adeant, circa ipſam ſpinam dorſi: alteræ item duæ paulo ſuperius per pectus ſub ala utramque in manum diſpeſſatæ pertendunt, quarum altera lienaria, altera iecoraria vocatur. Harum poſtrema ita ſcinduntur, ut parte pollicem adeant, parte volam: tamen ex iis ramorum tenuiorum frequentia in digitos manumque ſpargitur totam. Propagines tenuiores à primis venis mittuntur, à dextra ad iecur, à ſiniſtra ad lienem, & renes. Quæ autem pertinent ad pedes, ſcinduntur qua femur iungitur, tenduntque per totum femur: quarum maxima femur ex averſo perrepiat, craſſaque apparet: altera paulo interius, minus craſſa procedit per femur: tum propter genu tendunt ad crus, pedemque imum, quo modo ad manus: hinc ſubeunt plantam, & ſe ſpargunt in digitos. Complures etiam tenues de eiſdem illis ad ventrem & coſtas ſparſæ obrepunt. quæ porrectæ per iugulum petunt caput, apparentque craſſiuſculæ in cervice: quarum extrema, ſiſſura multiplici permeant per caput, dextra dextrorſum, ſiniſtra ſiniſtrorſum, atque utraque ad aurem deſinunt. Sunt præterea venæ collo commiſſæ iuxta maiorem, paulo minores, utraque ex latere tranſeuntes, ad quas plurima illarum capitis pars contendit: quæ immerſæ per iugulum mittunt alias ad ſcapulas, & manus. Apud lienariam etiam, & iecorariam aliæ paulo minores apparent, quibus adigere cultellum ſolemus, quoties aliquid ſub cute affligit. At ſi quid circa ventrem infeſtat, ſanguinem ex iecoraria & lienaria mittimus. Quinetiam ad mammas hinc aliæ pertinent. Sunt item quæ de utraque perferantur ad teſtes, per dorſi medullam, tenues: atque etiam aliæ, quæ ſubdita cuti tendant per carnem ad renes, ceſſentque ad teſtes, viris, ad uterum, mulieribus. Prodeunt primo à ventriculo ampliores: tum attenuantur, dum de parte dextra in lævam, indeque tranſeant ad dextram, quæ ſeminariæ nominantur. Sanguis craſſior à carne ebibitur: ſed cum ad loca devenerit, tenuis redditur, & calidus, & ſpumoſus. Syenneſis ac Diogenes ita.

POlybius hæc. Venarum paria quatuor habentur: primum quod à ſincipite ortum tendit per cervicem, ſumma perreptans latera ſpinæ, ad clunes, & crura: deinde per tibias ad malleolos exteriores, & pedes.

ΚΕΦΑΛ. γ΄.

Πολύβου δόξα περὶ φλεβῶν· εἶτα τίνα τρόπον τὰ ἄνωθεν τῆς καρδίας ἔχουσιν αἱ φλέβες.

ΠΟλυβος δ' ὧδε. Τὰ τῶν φλεβῶν τέτταρα ζεύγη ἐστίν. ἓν μὲν, ἀπὸ τοῦ ὄπισθεν τῆς κεφαλῆς, διὰ τοῦ αὐχένος, ἔξωθεν παρὰ τὴν ῥάχιν ἔνθεν καὶ ἔνθεν, μέχρι τῶν ἰσχίων εἰς τὰ σκέλη. ἔπειτα διὰ τῶν κνημῶν ἐκ τῶν σφυρῶν εἰς τὸ ἔξω, καὶ εἰς τοὺς πόδας.

διὸ καὶ τὰς φλεβοτομίας ποιοῦνται τῶν περὶ τὸν νῶτον ἀλγημάτων καὶ * ἰσχίου, ἀπὸ τῶν ἰγνύων καὶ σφυρῶν τῶν ἔξωθεν. ἕτεραι δὲ φλέβες, ἐκ τῆς κεφαλῆς παρὰ τὰ ὦτα διὰ τοῦ αὐχένος· αἳ καλοῦνται σφαγίτιδες, ἔσωθεν παρὰ τὴν ῥάχιν ἑκάτεραι φέρονται παρὰ τὰς ψόας εἰς τοὺς ὄρχεις καὶ εἰς τοὺς μηρούς, καὶ διὰ τῆς ἰγνύος τῆς ἐντὸς μερίδος, καὶ διὰ τῶν κνημῶν ἐπὶ τὰ σφυρὰ τὰ εἴσω καὶ τοὺς πόδας. διὸ καὶ τὰς φλεβοτομίας ποιοῦνται, τῶν περὶ τὰς ψόας καὶ τοὺς ὄρχεις ἀλγημάτων, ἀπὸ τῶν ἰγνύων καὶ τῶν σφυρῶν. ἡ δὲ τρίτη συζυγία, ἐκ τῶν κροτάφων διὰ τοῦ αὐχένος, ὑπὸ τὰς ὠμοπλάτας, εἰς τὸν πλεύμονα ἀφικνοῦνται· αἱ μὲν, ἐκ τῶν δεξιῶν εἰς τὰ ἀριστερὰ ὑπὸ τὸν μαστὸν, καὶ εἰς τὸν σπλῆνά τε, καὶ εἰς τὸν νεφρόν· αἱ δ', ἀπὸ τῶν ἀριστερῶν εἰς τὰ δεξιὰ ἐκ τοῦ πλεύμονος ὑπὸ τὸν μαστὸν καὶ ἧπαρ, καὶ εἰς τὸν νεφρόν· ἀμφότεραι δὲ τελευτῶσιν εἰς τὸν ὄρχιν. αἱ δὲ τέταρται, ἀπὸ τοῦ ἔμπροσθεν τῆς κεφαλῆς, καὶ τῶν ὀφθαλμῶν, ὑπὸ τὸν αὐχένα καὶ τὰς κλεῖδας· ἐντεῦθεν δὲ τείνουσι διὰ τῶν βραχιόνων ἄνωθεν εἰς τὰς καμπάς, εἶτα διὰ τῶν πηχέων ἐπὶ τοὺς καρποὺς καὶ τὰς συγκαμπάς, καὶ διὰ τῶν βραχιόνων τῆς κάτω μερίδος, ὑπὸ τὰς μασχάλας ἐπὶ τὰς πλευρὰς ἄνωθεν, ἕως ἡ μὲν ἐπὶ τὸν σπλῆνα, ἡ δ' ἐπὶ τὸ ἧπαρ ἀφίκηται· εἶθ' ὑπὲρ τῆς γαστρὸς, εἰς τὸ αἰδοῖον ἀμφότεραι τελευτῶσι. τὰ μὲν οὖν ὑπὸ τῶν ἄλλων εἰρημένα, σχεδὸν ταῦτ' ἐστίν. εἰσὶ δὲ καὶ τῶν περὶ φύσιν, οἳ τοιαύτην μὲν οὐκ ἐπραγματεύθησαν ἀκριβολογίαν περὶ τὰς φλέβας, πάντες δ' ὁμοίως τὴν ἀρχὴν αὐτῶν ἐκ τῆς κεφαλῆς καὶ τοῦ ἐγκεφάλου ποιοῦσι, λέγοντες οὐ καλῶς. χαλεπῆς δ' οὔσης, ὥσπερ εἴρηται, τῆς θεωρίας, ἐν μόνοις τοῖς ἀποπεπνιγμένοις τῶν ζῴων προλεπτυνθεῖσιν ἔστιν ἱκανῶς καταμαθεῖν, εἴ τινι περὶ τῶν τοιούτων ἐπιμελές. ἔχει δὲ τόνδε τὸν τρόπον ἡ τῶν φλεβῶν φύσις. δύο φλέβες εἰσὶν ἐν τῷ θώρακι κατὰ τὴν ῥάχιν ἐντός· κεῖνται δ' αὐτῆς ἡ μὲν μείζων ἐν τοῖς ἔμπροσθεν, ἡ δ' ἐλάττων ὄπισθεν ταύτης· καὶ ἡ μὲν μείζων ἐν τοῖς δεξιοῖς μᾶλλον, ἡ δ' ἐλάττων ἐν τοῖς ἀριστεροῖς, ἣν καλοῦσί τινες ἀορτὴν ἐκ τοῦ τεθεᾶσθαι καὶ ἐν τοῖς τεθνεῶσι τὸ νευρῶδες αὐτῆς μέρος. αὗται δ' ἔχουσι τὰς ἀρχὰς ἀπὸ τῆς καρδίας· διὰ μὲν γὰρ τῶν ἄλλων σπλάγχνων, ᾗ τυγχάνουσι τείνουσαι, ὅλαι δι' αὐτῶν διέρχονται σῳζόμεναι, καὶ οὖσαι φλέβες. ἡ δὲ καρδία, ὥσπερ μόριον αὐτῶν ἐστι, καὶ μᾶλλον τῆς ἐμπροσθίας καὶ μείζονος· ὥστε ἄνω μὲν καὶ κάτω τὰς φλέβας εἶναι ταύτας, ἐν μέσῳ δ' αὐτῶν τὴν καρδίαν. ἔχουσι δ' αἱ πᾶσαι μὲν καρδίαι κοιλίας ἐν αὑταῖς· ἀλλ' αἱ μὲν τῶν σφόδρα μικρῶν ζῴων, μόλις φανερὰν τὴν μεγίστην ἔχουσι· τὰ δὲ μέσα τῷ μεγέθει τῶν ζῴων καὶ τὴν ἑτέραν· τὰ δὲ μέγιστα, τὰς τρεῖς. ἔτι δὲ τῆς καρδίας τὸ ὀξὺ ἔχούσης εἰς τὸ ἔμπροσθεν, καθάπερ εἴρηται πρότερον, ἡ μεγίστη μὲν κοιλία ἐν τοῖς δεξιοῖς, καὶ ἀνωτάτω ταύτης· ἡ δ' ἐλαχίστη, ἐν τοῖς ἀριστεροῖς· ἡ δὲ μέση μεγέθει τούτων ἐν τῷ μέσῳ ἀμφοῖν. ἀμφότεραι δ' αἱ δύο, πολλῷ ἐλάττους εἰσὶ τῆς μεγίστης. συντέτρηνται μέντοι πᾶσαι αὗται πρὸς τὸν πλεύμονα· ἀλλ' ἄδηλοι διὰ σμικρότητα τῶν πόρων, πλὴν μιᾶς. ἡ μὲν οὖν μεγάλη φλὲψ ἐκ τῆς μεγίστης ἤρτηται κοιλίας τῆς ἄνω, καὶ ἐν τοῖς δεξιοῖς· εἶτα διὰ τοῦ κοίλου τοῦ μέσου γίνεται πάλιν φλέψ, ὡς οὔσης τῆς κοιλίας μορίου τῆς φλεβὸς ἐν ᾧ λιμνάζει τὸ αἷμα. ἡ δὲ ἀορτὴ, ἀπὸ τῆς μέσης· πλὴν οὐχ οὕτως,

A quam ob rem doloribus dorſi, & coxarum, de poplitibus malleoliſve exteris ſanguinem mitti ſolitum eſt. Secundum venarum par de capite circum aures per ceruicem, quæ iugulariæ dictæ ſunt, intus propter ſpinam & lumbos ad teſtes & femora perfertur: atque per poplites, & tibias, redit ad interiores malleolos & plantas: quapropter doloribus lumborum & teſtium ſanguinem ex poplitibus aut malleolis mittimus. Tertium par venarum à temporibus per ceruicem, ſub ſcapulis porrigitur ad pulmones: & altera de parte dextra in ſiniſtram pergens, mammam ſubit, & ad lienem renemque deſcendit: altera de ſiniſtra in dextram procedens, à pulmonibus mammam ſubit, iecur petit & renem, vtraque poſtremò ad teſtes deſinit.
B Quartum par ortum parte priore capitis, & ſede oculorum per ceruices ad humerorum ſcapulas deuenit: vnde per lacertos ad flexum, mox per cubitum ad volam & digitos, ſed malis etiam de humero propaginem mittit, quæ coſtas percipiat, dum altera ad lienem, altera ad iecur perueniat, deinde vtraque currens per ventrem ad genitale deſinit. Hæc fere ſunt quæ à cæteris medicinæ authoribus dicta accepimus. Nec deſunt naturæ interpretes, qui tametſi accuratius, perinde vt medici, non quæſiuerint de venis, tamen omnes earum ortum à capite atque cerebro deducunt: quod error eſt. Cum itaque perdifficile ſit venarum examen, ſolis in ſtrangulatis animalibus iam antè extenuatis effi-
C ci poteſt, vt ſatis percipiat, cui hæc res curæ ſit. Sed enim natura venarum ita ſe habet: Duæ intra pectus venæ continentur ſpinæ appoſitæ, altera maior, altera minor: maior partem priorem adit, minor poſteriorem: & maior dextram potius ſedem obtinet, minor ſiniſtram, quam aortam nonnulli vocant, eò quod neruoſa eius pars conſpici vel in mortuis potuit. Ambæ ex corde originem ducunt: transfigunt enim totæ cætera viſcera, per quæ tendunt, ſuam ſeruantes naturam, vt nihil contrahant detrimenti, quominus & ſint venæ, & appellentur. Sed cor non eodem permeant modo, verùm ei, tanquam ſuæ parti, continuantur, magiſque ea, quæ prior, & maior eſt. Situ autem ta-
D li oriuntur, vt altera ſupra, altera infrà ſit, & cor inter ſe poſitum amplectantur. Habent intra ſe corda omnia ſinum triplicem, ſed magnitudine varia. Minutiſſimorum enim animalium ſinus arctiores ſunt, ita vt vnus qui amplior eſt, vix conſpici poſſit, reliqui ſenſum effugiant. Mediocrium animalium ſecundus etiam conſpicuus eſt: maximorum perſpici omnes poſſunt. Et cùm priorem in partem cor ſuo mucrone ſpectet, vt dictum eſt, ſinus, qui ampliſſimus eſt, dextrum ſupremumque recipit ſitum, minimus ſiniſtrum, mediocris medium. Qui autem maximus inter eos eſt, hic longè reliquis ambobus amplior eſt: omnes tamen ad pulmonem foramine ſpectãt perpetuo, ſed pro-
E pter exiguitatem meatuum latent, præterquam in vno. Oritur ex eo ampliſſimo ſupremoq; ſinu vena maior, ſedemque dextram tenet, mox per medium ſinum formam recipit venæ, vtpote cùm ipſe ventriculus cordis venæ particula ſit, in qua ſanguis reſtagnet. Aorta de ſinu medio exit: non codẽ modo, ſed per fiſtulam multo arctiorem init ſocietatem, & tendit à latere cordis, cùm vena maior ſua radice cor tranſfigat, cùm ſe promit. Vena item ipſa maior, membrana & cute conſtat. Aorta arctior eſt, & vehementer neruoſa, deductáque longius, hoc eſt, ad caput, aut imas partes, in anguſtum admodum coarctatur, ac nerui naturam ex toto accipit. Pars prima venæ maioris ſurſum à corde prouenient, ſcinditur bipartitò. Adit alterum membrum pulmones, alterum ſpinam, & vertebram colli nouiſſimam. Rurſus membrorum, quod pulmonem adierit, bipartitò ſe findit, quia pulmo in duas partes diſcretus ſit: deinde ſingulas fiſtulas, ſingulaque foramina ſubit, amplius ampliora, arctius arctiora, ita vt pars nulla ſit ſine foramento, & venula: quanquam poſtrema diminutionum præ ſui exiguitate viſum effugiunt: quo fit vt pulmo omni ex parte refertus ſanguine videatur. Hos autem venæ meatus induci ſupra fiſtulas, ex arteria pertinentes, certum eſt. Membrum alterum, quod ad ſpinam, & colli vertebram diximus tendere, per ſpinam ipſam porrigitur. Quam venam Homerus notat, cùm ait:

Quæ per dorſum eius ceruices fertur ad imas.

Hinc venulæ ſingulæ ad ſingulas coſtas, & vertebras, feruntur. Finditur etiam bipartitò hæc eadem vena iuxta vertebram, quæ ſupra renes poſita eſt. Ita hæc membra venæ maioris, in ramos ſparguntur: ſed rurſus parte ſuperiore, qua ex corde tendit, ſciſſa numeroſiore venarum propagine, duo petit loca, quippe quæ alias in latera & humeros mittat, quæ mox per alas homini ad manus feruntur, quadrupedi ad pedes priores, auibus ad alas, piſcibus ad pinnas, quæ parte prona continentur. Quarum venarum capita iugulares, qua primum ſcinduntur, appellamus: ſed qua ſciſſæ ceruicem ſubeunt, iuxta pulmonum arteriam tendunt. Quibus interdum foris apprehenſis corruunt homines ſenſibus ereptis, & palpebris compreſſis: ita porrectæ amplexæque arteriam, ad interuallum aurium feruntur, qua maxillæ faucibus coeunt. Denuo inde ſcinduntur in venas quatuor, quarum vna remeans per collum & humerum deſcendit, & cum priore propagine ad flexum brachij copulatur. Secunda ad palmam, & digitos ceſſat. Tertia de vtraque ſede aurium ad cerebrum pertinet, atque in multos prætenues ramulos ſpargitur, itaque membranam cuſtodem cerebri ſubit. Cerebrum autem ipſum omnium expers ſanguinis eſt, nec aliquid venæ, vel auctæ vel minutionis in id ceſſat. Reliqui rami, qui ab eadem vena mittuntur, partim ambiunt caput, partim ad ſedes ſenſuum, dentéſque, gracili venularum ſerie terminantur.

ΚΕΦΑΛ. Δ.

Τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον καὶ τὰ τῆς ἐλάττονος φλεβός, καλουμένης δ' ἀορτῆς, ἔσχισται μέρη, συμπαρηκολουθηκότα τοῖς τῆς μεγάλης· πλὴν ἐλάττους οἱ πόροι καὶ τὰ φλέβια πολὺ ἐλάττω ταῦτ' ἐστὶ τῶν τῆς μεγάλης φλεβός. Τὰ μὲν οὖν ἄνω τῆς καρδίας, τοῦτον ἔχουσι τὸν τρόπον αἱ φλέβες. Τὸ δ' εἰς τὸ κάτω τῆς καρδίας μέρος τῆς μεγάλης φλεβός, τείνει μετέωρον διὰ τοῦ ὑποζώματος. συνέχεται δὲ καὶ πρὸς τὴν ἀορτήν, καὶ πρὸς τὴν ῥάχιν, πόροις ὑμενώδεσι καὶ χαλαροῖς. τείνει δ' ἀπ' αὐτῆς μία μὲν διὰ τοῦ ἥπατος φλέψ, βραχεῖα μὲν πλατεῖα δέ, ἀφ' ἧς πολλαὶ καὶ λεπταί, εἰς τὸ ἧπαρ ἀποτείνουσαι, ἀφανίζονται. δύο δ' ἀπὸ τῆς διὰ τοῦ ἥπατος φλεβὸς ἀποσχίσεις εἰσίν· ὧν ἡ μὲν εἰς τὸ ὑπόζωμα τελευτᾷ, καὶ τὰς καλουμένας φρένας· ἡ δέ, πάλιν ἐπανελθοῦσα διὰ τῆς μασχάλης, εἰς τὸν βραχίονα τὸν δεξιόν, συμβάλλει ταῖς ἑτέραις φλεψὶ κατὰ τὴν ἐντὸς καμπήν. διὸ ἀποσχαζόντων τῶν ἰατρῶν ταύτην, ἀπολύονται πόνων τινῶν περὶ τὸ ἧπαρ. ἐκ δὲ τῶν ἀριστερῶν αὐτῆς, μικρὰ μέν, παχεῖα δὲ φλέψ, τείνει εἰς τὸν σπλῆνα, καὶ ἀφανίζεται τὰ ἀπ' αὐτῆς φλέβια εἰς τοῦτον. ἕτερον δὲ μέρος ἀπὸ τῶν ἀριστερῶν τῆς μεγάλης φλεβὸς ἀποσχισθὲν τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον ἀναβαίνει εἰς τὸν ἀριστερὸν βραχίονα· πλὴν ἐκείνη μέν, ἡ διὰ τοῦ ἥπατός ἐστιν, αὕτη δ', ἑτέρα τῆς εἰς τὸν σπλῆνα τεινούσης. ἔτι δ' ἄλλαι ἀπὸ τῆς μεγάλης φλεβὸς ἀποσχίζονται· ἡ μέν, ἐπὶ τὸ ἐπίπλοον· ἡ δέ, ἐπὶ τὸ καλούμενον πάγκρεας. ἀπὸ δὲ ταύτης πολλαὶ φλέβες διὰ τοῦ μεσεντερίου τείνουσι. πᾶσαι δ' αὗται εἰς μίαν φλέβα μεγάλην τελευτῶσι, παρὰ πᾶν τὸ ἔντερον, καὶ τὴν κοιλίαν μέχρι τοῦ στομάχου τεταμένην. καὶ περὶ ταῦτα τὰ μόρια, πολλαὶ ἀπ' αὐτῶν σχίζονται φλέβες. μέχρι μὲν οὖν τῶν νεφρῶν μία οὖσα, ἑκατέρα τείνει καὶ ἡ ἀορτή, καὶ ἡ μεγάλη φλέψ. ἐνταῦθα δὲ πρός τε τὴν ῥάχιν μᾶλλον προσπεφύκασι, καὶ σχίζονται εἰς δύο, ὥσπερ εἰς λάμβδα ἑκατέρα, καὶ γίνεται εἰς τοὔπισθεν μᾶλλον ἡ μεγάλη φλὲψ τῆς ἀορτῆς. προσπέφυκε δ' ἡ ἀορτὴ μάλιστα τῇ ῥάχει περὶ τὴν καρδίαν· ἡ δὲ πρόσφυσις, ἐστὶ φλεβίοις νευρώδεσι μικροῖς. ἔστι δ' ἡ ἀορτὴ ἀπὸ μὲν τῆς καρδίας ἀγομένη εὖ μάλα κοίλη· προϊοῦσα δ' ἐστὶ στενοτέρα καὶ νευρωδεστέρα. τείνουσι δ' ἀπὸ τῆς ἀορτῆς εἰς τὸ μεσεντέριον φλέβες, ὥσπερ αἱ ἀπὸ τῆς μεγάλης φλεβός, πλὴν πολλῷ λειπόμεναι τῷ μεγέθει. στεναὶ γάρ εἰσι καὶ ἰνώδεις. λεπταῖς γὰρ καὶ κοίλαις καὶ ἰνώδεσι τελευτῶσι φλεβίοις. εἰς δὲ τὸ ἧπαρ καὶ τὸν σπλῆνα, οὐδεμία τείνει ἀπὸ τῆς ἀορτῆς φλέψ. αἱ δὲ σχίσεις ἑκατέρας τῆς φλεβός, τείνουσιν εἰς τὸ ἰσχίον ἑκάτερον, καὶ καθάπτουσιν εἰς τὸ ὀστοῦν ἀμφότεραι. φέρουσι δὲ καὶ εἰς τοὺς νεφρούς, ἀπό τε τῆς μεγάλης φλεβός, καὶ τῆς ἀορτῆς, φλέβες· πλὴν οὐκ εἰς τὸ κοῖλον, ἀλλ' εἰς τὸ σῶμα καταναλίσκονται τῶν νεφρῶν. ἀπὸ μὲν οὖν τῆς ἀορτῆς ἄλλοι δύο πόροι φέρουσιν εἰς τὴν κύστιν, ἰσχυροὶ καὶ συνεχεῖς, καὶ ἄλλοι ἐκ τοῦ κοίλου τῶν νεφρῶν, οὐδὲν κοινωνοῦντες τῇ μεγάλῃ φλεβί. ἐκ μέσου δὲ τῶν νεφρῶν ἑκατέρου, φλὲψ κοίλη καὶ νευρώδης ἐξήρτηται, τείνουσα παρ' αὐτὴν τὴν ῥάχιν διὰ τῶν φλεβῶν· εἶτα εἰς ἑκάτερον τὸ ἰσχίον ἀφανίζεται ἑκατέρα [illegible].

CAPVT IV.

De aorta vena minore, eiuſque ſede.

Vena etiam minor, quam aortam [dixi] nominari, eodem ſpargitur modo in ram[os], qui partes venæ maioris conſequantur: [verum] meatus eius, & venulæ multo minores [ſunt], quam venæ maioris. Locis à corde ſuperioribus venas hunc in modum haberi nouimus. Pars autem maioris venæ cordi ſubiecta, fertur elatior, per ſeptúmque applicata, tum ad aortam, tum etiam ad ſpinam membranei flaccidiſque meatibus continetur: mox vena ad iecur ab ea mittitur breuis, ſed lata: de qua multæ ac tenues ſparſæ in iecur obliterantur. Rami inde ab ipſa iecur tranſigente duo procurrunt, quorum alter ad ſeptum & præcordia dicta ceſſat: alter ſupera repetit, ductúſque per alam ad lacertum brachij dextri ſe porrigit, qua cæteris venis ſe applicat iuxta flexum interiorem. Quamobrem ſanguine hinc miſſo dolores iecoris quidam leuari poſſunt. Pars altera venæ eiuſdem breuis quidem, ſed craſſa, latus petit ſiniſtrum, pergitque ad lienem, quæ ſparſa in ramulos ſubit, itaque aboletur. Quinetiam ab eadem maiore propago, pari modo ad lacertum ſiniſtri brachij mittitur: ſed quæ ad brachium dextrum procedit, eadem quæ pertingit ad iecur, eſt. Hæc vero diuerſa ab ea quæ ad lienem pertinet, eſt. Aliæ item à vena maiore duæ propagantur, quarum altera ad omentum, altera ad id quod à carne pancreum appellatum eſt, de qua, venarum frequentia per lactes tendunt, quæ omnes in vnam deſinunt venam grandem per totum inteſtinum, & ventriculum, ad gulam vſque porrectam, quæ & ipſa ramos de iis quas [p]erreptat, partibus ſpargit complures. Vtraque igitur tam maior quam aorta, renum tenus vna atque perpetua tendit. Hic capitibus renum potius adhæreſcunt, finduntúrque bipartito, vel vt in literam lambda, aut v literam inuerſam: vergitque magis in partem poſteriorem corporis vena maior, quam aorta. Spinæ annecti aortam, potiſſimum circa cor, venulis prætenuibus, & neruoſis, notum eſt. Ducitur eadem de corde nimirum amplitudine inſigni, ſed procedens arctior atque neruoſior euadit. Mittit ea quoque ad lactes ramos, quemadmodum maior: verum longè minores: perangustos enim, & fibris proximos, quippe quos extenuatos in fibras, cauas tamen, ceſſare aduertimus. Ad iecur aut lienem nulla ab aorta pertinet vena. Rami autem illi, in quos venam ſcindi vtramque dixi, ad coxam vtramque proficiſcuntur, atque os ipſum attingunt. Ad renes etiam à maiore aortaque venæ deueniunt: ſed cauum non ſubeunt renum: verum in corpus eorum abſumuntur. Nec non alij duo meatus ab aorta validi & perpetui ad veſicam procedunt, [at]que etiam alij de cauo renum eodem veniunt, qui nihil commune cum vena maiore [ſortiuntur]. Singulis item renibus de medio [vena] exorta, caua neruoſæque iuxta ſpinam ipſam per venas ſe porrigunt: mox in coxam vtramque conduntur, ac deliteſcunt:

deinde denuò porrectæ in clunes apparent: quarum & ipſarum poſtrema, vt in ſexu virili ad veſicam genitaléque coniiciuntur, ſic in fœmineo ad vuluam aut vterum pertinent. Nonnullam ſanè venam de maiore vuluam adire videmus, cùm de aorta multæ frequentéſque veniant. Ramis etiam tum aortæ, tum etiam maioris, aliæ mittuntur propagines: quæ primùm ad inguina amplíuſculæ cauæque accedunt, deinde per femora cruráque, in plantas & digitos finiunt. Atque etiam duæ aliæ per inguina & femora commutatis vicibus perferuntur: altera de parte dextra in ſiniſtram, altera de ſiniſtra in dextram, ac cæteris venis circa poplites ſe coniungunt. Quemadmodum venæ ſe habeant, & vndénam ſuam originem ducant, apertum iam eſt. Continet autem genus animantium omne ſanguinis compos, venarum initia, & genera ſumma, eo, quo expoſuimus, modo: nam reliqua copia venarum non ſimili ratione in omnibus eſt. Neque enim partes eodem modo, aut eædem in omnibus habentur: nec verò æquè in omnibus patet venarum ſeries, ſed potiſſimùm in iis conſtat, quibus ſanguinis copia, & præcipua magnitudo eſt. Nam in minutis, ſanguiniſve inopibus, vel per naturam, vel per immodicam corporis obeſitatem, haud æquè inſpici poſſunt. Alteris enim meatus quaſi alucoli quidam multo interſepti limo permiſcentur: alteris paucæ, eædémque fibræ potiùs quàm venæ, continentur. Vna tamen, quam maiorem ex præcipua magnitudine cognominamus, potiſſimùm euidens in omnibus etiam minutis animalibus eſt.

CAPVT V.

De neruis eorúmque origine.

NEruórum mox ordinem perſequemur. Origo eorum quoque in corde eſt: id enim neruulos ſuo ampliore ventriculo continet. Et vena aorta appellata, neruoſa eſt, & quidem poſtrema eius neruo omnino conſtant: quippe quæ nullo intus cauo diſtinguantur, tendantúrque modò neruorum, quà deſinunt, applicata ad nodos oſſium lubricos. Cæterùm natura neruorum non more venarum continua de eodem initio procedit. Venæ enim, vt in depictis canalibus, hoc eſt, fontibus riuo multiplici ſparſis, patet, figuram totius corporis diſtribuunt, ita, vt corporibus admodum extenuatis, partes omnes venulis refertæ conſpiciantur. Locus enim idem venulis in macilentis, carne in corpulentis redundat. Sed nerui diducti diſtractique paſſim ad artus & flexus oſſium applicantur. Quod inde etiam percipi poteſt; nam ſi eorum natura eſſet continuata, latè iam in extenuatis corporibus continentia omniũ pateret. Summæ neruorum partes; quæ membrum ad ſaliendum accommodatum continet, poples dicta; & quę ſe geminam porrigit, tendo nomine; & quæ ad vires corporis iuuant, attendo, & humerarius; reliquæ, quibus oſſium nodi deligantur, nomine vacant. Nam oſſa omnia ſiue foris viciſſim tanguntur, ſiue alterum inſeritur alteri, neruis ligantur: & circiter oſſa quæuis neruorum copia ducitur, capite excepto: id enim non neruis, ſed ſuturis ipſorum oſſium continetur. Nerui natura fiſſilis in longitudinem tendit: ſcindi per latitudinẽ non poteſt: intendique vehementer idonea eſt.

ΤΑ δὲ νεῦρα τοῖς ζώοις ἔχει τοῦτον τὸν τρόπον. ἡ μὲν ἀρχὴ καὶ τούτων ἐστὶν ἐκ τῆς καρδίας. καὶ γὰρ ἐν αὐτῇ ἡ καρδία νεῦρα ἔχει ἐν τῇ μεγίστῃ κοιλίᾳ· καὶ ἡ καλουμένη ἀορτὴ, νευρώδης ἐστὶ φλὲψ, τὰ μὲν τελευταῖα, καὶ παντελῶς αὐτῆς. ἄκοιλα γάρ ἐστι, καὶ τάσιν ἔχει τοιαύτην, οἵαν περ τὰ νεῦρα, ᾗ τελευτᾷ πρὸς τὰς καμπὰς τῶν ὀστῶν. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ᾽ οὐκ ἔστι συνεχὴς ἡ τῶν νεύρων φύσις ἀπὸ μιᾶς ἀρχῆς, ὥσπερ αἱ φλέβες. αἱ μὲν γὰρ φλέβες, ὥσπερ ἐν τοῖς γραφομένοις κανάβοις, τὸ τοῦ σώματος ἔχουσι σχῆμα παντὸς οὕτως, ὥστ᾽ ἐν τοῖς σφόδρα λελεπτυσμένοις, πάντα τὸν ὄγκον φαίνεσθαι πλήρη φλεβίων. ὁ γὰρ αὐτὸς τόπος λεπτῶν μὲν ὄντων, φλέβια. παχυνθέντων δὲ, σάρκες. τὰ δὲ νεῦρα διεσπασμένα περὶ τὰ ἄρθρα καὶ τὰς τῶν ὀστῶν ἐστὶ καμπάς. εἰ δ᾽ ἦν συνεχὴς ἡ φύσις αὐτῶν, ἐν τοῖς λελεπτυσμένοις ἂν καταφανὴς ἐγένετο ἡ συνέχεια πάντων. μέγιστα δὲ μέρη τῶν νεύρων, τό, τε περὶ τὸ μόριον τὸ τῆς ἅλσεως κύριον· (καλεῖται δὲ τοῦτο ἰγνύα) καὶ ἕτερον νεῦρον διπτυχὲς, ὁ τένων· καὶ τὰ πρὸς τὴν ἰσχὺν βοηθητικὰ, ἐπίτονός τε, καὶ ὠμιαῖα· τὰ δ᾽ ἀνώνυμα περὶ τὴν τῶν ὀστῶν ἐστι κάμψιν. πάντα γὰρ τὰ ὀστᾶ, ὅσα ἅπτονται, ἢ πρὸς ἄλληλα σύγκεινται, συνδέδενται νεύροις· καὶ περὶ πάντα ἐστὶ τὰ ὀστᾶ πλῆθος νεύρων. ἐν δὲ τῇ κεφαλῇ οὐκ ἔστιν οὐδὲν, ἀλλ᾽ αἱ ῥαφαὶ αὐτῶν τῶν ὀστῶν συνέχουσιν αὐτήν. ἔστι δ᾽ ἡ τοῦ νεύρου φύσις σχιστὴ κατὰ τὸ μῆκος· κατὰ δὲ τὸ πλάτος, ἄσχιστος, καὶ τάσιν ἔχουσα πολλήν.

A ὑγρότης δὲ περὶ ταῦτα μυξώδης ἐστί, καὶ λευκὴ, καὶ κολλώδης, ᾗ τρέφεται καὶ ἐξ ἧς γεννώμενα φαίνεται. ἡ μὲν οὖν φλὲψ δύναται πυροῦσθαι· νεῦρον δὲ πᾶν, φθείρεται πυρωθέν· κἂν διακοπῇ, οὐ συμφύεται πάλιν. οὐ λαμβάνει δὲ οὐδὲ νάρκη, ὅπου μὴ νεῦρόν ἐστι τοῦ σώματος. πλεῖστα δέ ἐστι νεῦρα περὶ τοὺς πόδας, καὶ τὰς χεῖρας καὶ ὠμοπλάτας, καὶ περὶ τὸν αὐχένα καὶ τοὺς βραχίονας. ἔχει δὲ νεῦρα, πάντα ὅσα ἔχει αἷμα. ἀλλ' ἐν οἷς μή εἰσι καμπαὶ, ἀλλ' ἄποδα καὶ ἄχειρά ἐστι, καὶ λεπτὰ καὶ ἄδηλα· διὸ τῶν ἰχθύων μάλιστά ἐστι δῆλα πρὸς τοῖς πτερυγίοις.

Humor circa neruos mucroni ſimilis, albidus, glutinoſúſque conſiſtit, quo ipſos neruos & naſci & ali certum eſt. Neruus ignem non patitur, cùm vena patiatur: & inciſus ſolidari non poteſt. Pars corporis nulla ſtupore tentatur, quæ neruo caret. Neruis plurimis pedes, manus, & ſcapulæ continentur: atque etiam ceruices, & lacerti. Quibus datus eſt ſanguis, iiſdem omnibus nerui adiuncti ſunt. Sed quæ nullos habent articulos, priuatáque pedibus, & manibus ſunt, iis prætenues incertique habentur. De fibris.

Fibræ inter neruum & venam, ſuam habent naturam: & nonnullæ humorem, ſaniem appellatum, continent: tendunt à neruis ad venas, ac inde ad neruos. Secundum etiam genus fibrarum eſt, quod conſiſtere in ſanguine ſolet: quanquam non cuiuſque animalis. Spiſſari autem ſanguis non poteſt, ſi id genus fibrarum detrahatur: ſpiſſatur verò, ſi non detrahatur. Genus id ergo fibrarum tametſi maiore ex parte in ſanguine animalium ineſt, tamen cerui, damæ, bubali, & aliorum quorumdam ſanguini deeſt: quocirca eorum ſanguis non ſimiliter, atque cæterorum, concreſcit. Sed ceruorum perinde, vt leporum, ſolet ſpiſſari, videlicet non coitu firmiore, vt cæterorum, ſed fluido, quale lac eſt, quod ſine coagulo ſponte coiuerit. Bubali ſanguis aliquantulò ampliùs ſpiſſatur: quippe qui proximè ouillo aut paulò minùs conſiſtat. Vena, neruus, & fibra ita ſe habent.

CAPVT VII.

De oſſibus, eorúmque differentiis.

Oſſa alia ab aliis nexa, & omnia inter ſe apta, vnam continuant ſeriem modo venarum, nec eſt vllum os, quod ſeorſum ipſum per ſe maneat. Initium verò in omnibus, quæ oſſibus conſtant, ſpina eſt: quæ compacta ex vertebris à capite ad coxas porrigitur. Vertebræ omnes foramine medio peruiæ ſibi iunguntur. Extat os capitis continuum, nouiſſimis ſuperimpoſitum vertebris, quod calua dicitur. Eius pars ſerrata, ſuturæ nomine ſignificatur. Pars hæc non ſimili modo in quoque genere animalium habetur. Aliis enim oſſe continuo calua perficitur, vt cani: aliis compacto, vt homini. eiúſque fœminæ ſutura circulariter eſt. Mari tres in ſummum verticem aſcendunt ſuturæ, coeúntque in figuræ triangulæ ſpeciem. Sed iam & viri caput viſum ſine vlla ſutura eſt. Conſtat ſanè caput non quatuor oſſibus ſed ſex, quorum duo exigua, ſcilicet reliquorum comparatione, circa aures poſita ſunt. Maxillæ à capite protenduntur oſſa duo: quarum inferiorem animalia omnia mouent, excepto fluuiatili crocodilo: hic enim vnus non inferiorem ſed ſuperiorem mouet. Maxillis dentium genus inhæret, os partim cauum, partim ſolidum, & adeo firmum, vt ſolum inter oſſa ferri aciem reſpuat. Oritur à ſpina, fibula, iugale, & ordo coſtarum.

Pectus etiam coſtis impoſitum eſt: quæ quidem aduerſæ inter ſe coeunt, cùm reliquæ breuiores ſint, quàm vt facere idem queant. Nullum enim animal eſt quod circa ventrem os habeat. Sunt item oſſa humerorum, & quæ ſcapulæ appellantur, & quæ iis annexa dependent, brachia, & manus. Modus idem compaginum vel in iis eſt quæ crura habent priora. Acetabulum infra, quà ſpina deſinit, à coxa eſt: & oſſa iam crurum oriuntur, quibus femora & tibiæ conſtant, pernæ aut culinæ nomine: quorum pars malleolus eſt, & malleoli calcar: videlicet in iis quæ habent malleolos, ab iis oſſa pedis minuta & plura ſubiacent. Quæ igitur ex ſanguineis pedeſtribus animal generant, hæc oſſa non multo diuerſa habent, ſed ad proportionem tantummodo duritia, mollitie, magnitudine diſcrepant. Oſſium item animalis eiuſdem, alia medullam intra ſe continent, alia minimè. Sunt nonnulla, quæ ſuis in oſſibus nullam omnino habere medullam videantur, vt leo: quòd admodum exiguam ac tenuem habeat, eámque in paucis oſſibus: ſolis enim inferioribus, atque brachiis. Conſtat profectò leo præcipuè omnium animalium oſſibus ſolidis: ſunt enim adeò dura, vt ex eis concuſſis, ignis velut à ſilice elidatur. Delphinus etiam oſſa habet, non ſpinas. Cæterorum animalium ſanguineorum oſſa, aut paulò inter ſe differunt, vt auium: aut proportione eadem ſunt, vt piſcium. Qui enim inter eos animal generant, cartilaginem pro ſpina habent: vt ea quæ cartilaginea appellauimus. Qui autem oua pariunt, ſpinam continent: quæ perinde vt dorſum in quadrupedum ordine habetur. Sed proprium in piſcibus eſt, quòd nonnullis ſpinulæ quædam prætenues ſeparatim per carnem inhærent. Serpentibus etiam dorſum piſcium more compleri apertum eſt. At verò ea quæ inter quadrupedes oua pariunt, os aut ſpinam pro ſuæ magnitudinis modo meruerunt: maiora enim oſſis naturam potiùs obtinent, minora, ſpina potiùs in oſſis vicem fulciuntur. Omnia prorſus animalia, quæ ſanguinem habent, dorſo conſtant, aut oſſeo, aut ſpineo: cætera oſſa aliis inſunt, aliis deſunt. Vt enim partes corporis quæque habentur, ita oſſa quoque ad partes accommodata habentur. Quibus enim crura & brachia deſunt, iis pernæ aut culinæ prædictæ etiam deſunt. Nec verò iis quibus partes, eædem quidem, ſed diſſimiles ſunt, eadem oſſium ratio ſeruatur, ſed aut pluris minoriſve modo differunt, aut proportione. Oſſa igitur ita ſe habent.

CAPVT VIII.

De cartilagine, eiúſque cum oſſe differentia.

CArtilago differt ab oſſe pluris minoriſve ratione, cùm aliàs natura eadem qua oſſa, conſtet. Et quemadmodum os præciſum nunquam recreſcit, ita & cartilago rupta nunquam reparatur. Terreſtrium quæ & animal gignunt, & ſanguinem habent, cartilago nullo foramine hiſcit, nec oſſium more medullam continet. At verò aquatilium cartilagineis quod per dorſum proportionatum oſſibus tendit, cartilago eſt, humorem in medullæ ſpeciem continens. Grandilium, quæ animal gignunt, auriculæ, nares, extremáque oſſium nonnulla, cartilagine conſtant.

Ἔτι δ' ἐστὶν ἄλλα γένη μορίων, οὔτε τὴν αὐτὴν ἔχοντα φύσιν τούτοις, οὔτε πόῤῥω τούτων· οἷον ὄνυχές τε καὶ ὁπλαὶ, καὶ χηλαὶ, καὶ κέρατα, καὶ παρὰ ταῦτα ἔτι ῥύγχος, οἷον ἔχουσιν οἱ ὄρνιθες, [ἐν οἷς ὑπάρχει ταῦτα τὰ μόρια τῶν ζώων] ταῦτα μὲν γὰρ, καὶ καμπτὰ καὶ σχιστά· ὀστοῦν δ' οὐδὲν καμπτὸν, οὐδὲ σχιστὸν, ἀλλὰ θραυστόν. καὶ τὰ χρώματα, καὶ τῶν κεράτων καὶ τῶν ὀνύχων καὶ χηλῆς, καὶ ὁπλῆς, κατὰ τὴν τοῦ δέρματος καὶ τῶν τριχῶν ἀκολουθεῖ χρόαν. τῶν μὲν γὰρ μελάνων δερμάτων, μέλανα τὰ κέρατα· καὶ αἱ χηλαὶ καὶ αἱ ὁπλαὶ, ὅσα χηλὰς ἔχει· καὶ τῶν λευκῶν, λευκά· μεταξὺ δὲ, τὰ τῶν ἀνὰ μέσον. ἔχει δὲ καὶ περὶ τοὺς ὄνυχας τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον. οἱ δ' ὀδόντες, κατὰ τὴν τῶν ὀστῶν εἰσι φύσιν. διόπερ τῶν μελάνων ἀνθρώπων, ὥσπερ Αἰθιόπων καὶ τῶν τοιούτων, οἱ μὲν ὀδόντες, λευκοὶ, καὶ τὰ ὀστᾶ· οἱ δὲ ὄνυχες, μέλανες, ὥσπερ καὶ τὸ πᾶν δέρμα. τῶν δὲ κεράτων τὰ μὲν πλεῖστα κοῖλά ἐστι, τὸ ἀπὸ τῆς προσφύσεως περὶ τὸ ἐντὸς ἐκπεφυκὸς ὀστοῦν τῆς κεφαλῆς· ἐπ' ἄκρου δ' ἔχει τὸ στερεὰ, καὶ ἔστιν ἁπλᾶ. τὰ δὲ τῶν ἐλάφων, μόνα διόλου στερεὰ, καὶ πολυσχιδῆ. καὶ τῶν μὲν ἄλλων τῶν ἐχόντων κέρας, οὐδὲν ἀποβάλλει τὰ κέρατα· ἔλαφος δὲ μόνον καθ' ἕκαστον ἔτος, ἐὰν μὴ ἐκτμηθῇ. περὶ δὲ τῶν ἐκτετμημένων ἐν τοῖς ὕστερον λεχθήσεται. τὰ δὲ κέρατα προσπέφυκε μᾶλλον τῷ δέρματι, ἢ τῷ ὀστῷ. διὸ καὶ ἐν Φρυγίᾳ εἰσὶ βόες, καὶ ἄλλοθι, κινοῦσι τὰ κέρατα ὥσπερ τὰ ὦτα. τῶν δ' ἐχόντων ὄνυχας, (ἔχει δ' ὄνυχας ἅπαντα, ὅσαπερ δακτύλους· δακτύλους δὲ, ὅσα πόδας, πλὴν ἐλέφας· οὗτος δὲ καὶ δακτύλους ἀσχίστους, καὶ ἠρέμα διηρθρωμένους, καὶ ὄνυχας ὅλως οὐκ ἔχει) τῶν δ' ἐχόντων, τὰ μὲν εἰσὶν εὐθυώνυχα, ὥσπερ οἱ ἄνθρωποι· τὰ δὲ, γαμψώνυχα, ὥσπερ καὶ τῶν πεζῶν λέων, καὶ τῶν πτηνῶν αἰετός.

Περὶ δὲ τριχῶν καὶ τῶν ἀνάλογον, καὶ δέρματος, ἔχει τόνδε τὸν τρόπον. τρίχας μὲν ἔχει τῶν ζώων, ὅσα πεζὰ καὶ ζωοτόκα· φολίδας δ', ὅσα πεζὰ, καὶ ᾠοτόκα· λεπίδας δ', ἰχθύες μόνοι, ὅσοι ᾠοτοκοῦσι τὸ ψαφυρὸν ᾠόν· τῶν γὰρ μακρῶν, γόγγρος μὲν οὐ τοιοῦτον ἔχει ᾠὸν, οὐδ' ἡ μύραινα, ἔγχελυς δὲ ὅλως οὐκ ἔχει. τὰ δὲ πάχη τῶν τριχῶν, καὶ αἱ λεπτότητες, καὶ τὰ μεγέθη, διαφέρουσι κατὰ τοὺς τόπους, ἐν οἷς ἂν ὦσι τῶν μερῶν, καὶ ὁποῖον ἂν ᾖ τὸ δέρμα. ὡς γὰρ ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ ἐν τοῖς παχυτέροις δέρμασι, σκληρότεραι αἱ τρίχες, καὶ παχύτεραι· καὶ πλείους δὲ καὶ μακρότεραι ἐν τοῖς κοιλοτέροις καὶ ὑγροτέροις, ἄν περ ὁ τόπος ᾖ τοιοῦτος οἷος ἔχειν τρίχας. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ περὶ τῶν λεπιδωτῶν ἔχει, καὶ τῶν φολιδωτῶν. ὅσα μὲν οὖν μαλακὰς ἔχει τὰς τρίχας, εὐβοσίᾳ χρώμενα, σκληροτέρας ἴσχει· ὅσα δὲ σκληράς, μαλακωτέρας καὶ ἐλάττους. διαφέρουσι δὲ καὶ κατὰ τοὺς τόπους τοὺς θερμοτέρους καὶ ψυχροτέρους· οἷον, αἱ τῶν ἀνθρώπων τρίχες, ἐν μὲν τοῖς θερμοῖς, σκληραί· ἐν δὲ τοῖς ψυχροῖς, μαλακαί. εἰσὶ δ' αὖ αἱ μὲν εὐθεῖαι, μαλακαί· αἱ δὲ κεκαμμέναι, σκληραί.

CAPVT IX.

SVnt item alia partium genera, quæ naturam nec eandem habent, quam ea quæ expoſita ſunt, nec longè ab iis remotam, vt vngues, vngulæ, cornua: præterea roſtrum, quale datum auibus eſt. Hæc enim & flexilia, & fiſſilia ſunt, cùm nullum os vel flecti, vel findi poſſit, ſed fragile quodque habeatur. Colores cornuum, vnguium, vngularum, pro cutis pilorúmque colore ſequuntur. Etenim cutis nigræ, cornua nigra, & vngulæ nigræ oriuntur, & candidæ pari modo in colore reſpondent & cornua, & vngues, & vngulæ: mediis etiam medium eadem colorem præferunt. At dentes naturam oſſium æmulantur: quam ob rem hominum nigrorum, vt Æthiopum atque ſimilium, dentes & oſſa candent: vngues nigri modo ſuæ cutis apparent. Cornua parte plurima caua ſunt ab radice, quatenus ambiunt os, quod ortum à capite cauo cornu inſeritur, totúmque implet: in mucronem tamen ſolidum exeunt, & ſimplici parte extrema conſtant. Ceruis tantummodo tota ſolida, & ſparſa in ramos, & omnibus annis decidua, niſi caſtrentur: cùm ex cæteris cornigeris nullum cornua amittat. De caſtratis autem poſtea diſſeremus. Adhærent cornua cuti potiùs quàm oſſi. Vnde fit vt in Phrygia, & alibi, boues ſint, qui cornua perinde vt auriculas, moueant. Quæ habent vngues, (habent autem, quibus digiti, digiti verò iis ſunt, quibus pedes, excepto elephanto: huic enim digiti indiuiſi, ac leuiter formati, nec vngues omnino ſunt) hæc ergo, aut rectis vnguibus ſunt, vt homo: aut aduncis, vt inter pedeſtria leo, inter volatilia, aquila.

CAPVT X.

De pilis, & iis quæ pilorum vice funguntur.

DE pilis, atque de iis quæ vicem pilorum ſuppetunt, & ob eam rem pili proportionalia dicuntur, atque etiam de cute, res ita ſe habet. Pilos habent quæ pedeſtria, eademque viuipara ſunt. Cortice autem integuntur, quæ ouipara ſunt pedeſtria. Squama verò piſces tantùm, qui ouum arenidum illud pariunt. Nam ex longis conger, tale ouum non edit, nec muræna: anguilla verò nullum omnino ouum generat. Craſſitudinis, tenuitatis, copiæ, & magnitudinis pilorum diſcrimina, pro partium, quibus adhærent, conditione, atque pro cutis qualitate proueniunt. Fit enim magna ex parte, vt pili & duriores & craſſiores cuti craſſiori enaſcantur: plures autem & longiores humidioribus locis, atque cauatioribus (dummodo ſint ad gignendum pilum idonei) prodeunt. Hoc idem de genere quoque tam ſquama munito quàm cortice, intelligere licet. Quæ igitur molles ſuapte natura pilos habere ſolent, hæc per vſum pabuli melioris, duriores incipiunt gerere, contra autem molliores, pauciorésque, ea quæ duros copioſóſque habuerint, eadem illa ſcilicet ratione. Regionum etiam tepore, aut frigore differentia eſt: vt pili hominum locis calidis duri, frigidis molles oriuntur. Sunt molles, qui promiſſi, & ſimplices: duri qui criſpi.

De pilis, & cute, & iis, quibus pili & cutis.

NAtura omnium pilorum fiſſilis eſt: ſed pluris minorisve ratione inter ſe differunt. Nonnulli paulatim adeò duritate degenerant, vt non pilis prætcrea, ſed ſpinis ſimiles eſſe videantur, vt pili herinaceorum. Quod idem vnguibus etiam euenit: quippe cùm in nonnullis animalium, genus vnguium præ nimia duritudine, nihilo ab oſſibus differat. Cutis homini proportione magnitudinis tenuiſſima eſt. Ineſt in cute omnium lentor quidam mucoſus, verùm aliis minùs, aliis magis: vt in tergore bubulo, ex quo glutinum facere ſolent. Quinetiam è piſcibus glutinum à nonnullis excoquitur. Senſu cutem ipſam carere conſtat, maximéque in capite, quoniam ibi nulla interpoſita carne oſſi adhæreat. Vbicumque cutis per ſe, ac ſine carne eſt, vulnerata non coit: vt in gena, bucca, præputio, palpebra. Contextu perpetuo cutis in omnibus animalibus continuatur: nec alibi interpellatur, quàm vbi naturales meatus ſolent euaporare, atque etiam in ore, & vnguibus. Cutem omnia habet quibus eſt ſanguis, pilos non omnia, ſed ſicvt diſtinctum iam eſt. Mutatur color pilorum in ſenectute, candidique pili efficiuntur in hominibus. quod vel cæteris animalibus accidit, ſed non ſatis aperto, præterquam in equo. Candeſcunt pili à parte ſui poſtrema. Plurimis tamen canorum numerus candicans illico exiſtit: qua ex re patet, canitiem nō ariditate committi, vt quidam volunt: nihil enim illico aridum gigni ſolet. Cutis autem vitio, quod vitiliginem appellamus, pilos omnes produci canos apertum eſt. Iam nonnullis pili dum ægrotarent, incanuerunt: quibus in bonam valetudinem reſtitutis, nigri enati ſunt, canis defluxis. Caneſcere pilos ocyus opertos, quàm detectos difflatóſque, aduertimus. Tempora hominum, & partes primores, quàm poſteriores, celeriùs canitiem ſentiunt. Pubes noviſſimè caneſcit. Pili in homine animalium omnium vno partim ſimul partim poſtea per ætates gignuntur. Congeniti ſunt pili capitis & ſuperciliorum, & palpebrarum: pòſt geniti, pubis primùm, mox alarum, poſtremò menti. Loca enim, quibus pili proueniant totidem ſunt congenitis deputata, quot pòſt genitis. Deficiunt, ac defluunt, maximè primique per ætatem pili capitis, non tamen omnes, ſed tantùm priores: parte namque poſteriore caluus nemo efficitur. Ergo capitis læuitatem, caluitium nuncupamus: quam rem in ſuperciliis ſalitium appellemus, quoad melius vocabulum inuenerimus. Neutrum eorum priùs quàm cœptus coitus Venereus ſit, accidere nouimus. Caluitij mulieres eſſe immunes, & pueros, & ſpadones, apertū eſt. Pili pòſt geniti, iis qui ante pubertatem caſtrati ſunt, non exeunt: & poſt pubertatem exciſis, ſoli decidunt, præterquam pubis. Pili in mento mulieris non prodeunt: niſi interdū pauci, cùm menſtrui curſus ſubſliterunt: & vt in terra Caria mulieribus ſacerdotibus euenire aiunt, quod diuinationis indicium interpretantur. Reliqui pili, qui poſtea gigni ſolent, mulieribus quoque proueniunt, ſed parciùs. Fieri poteſt vt homo, tum mas tum etiam fœmina, pilis pòſt genitis careat, iam inde ab ortu, naturæ vitio contracto: & niſi vt pubeſcant, contingat, ſteriles in gignendo ſunt.

* Gaza οἱ ἐρῆμ.

A Creſcunt cæteri pili plus minúſve, prout ſingulorum ratio poſtulat, maximè in capite, mox in barba, & præcipuè quibus pili tenuiores. Nonnullis etiam ſupercilia per ſenectutem adeò hirſuta redduntur, vt tondendum ſit: quod propterea euenit, quia cohæſioni appoſita ſint oſſium, quæ ſeneſcente ætate laxantur, & inde plus humoris tranſmitti patiuntur. at verò pili palpebrarum nunquam plus iuſto excreſcunt: defluunt rebus Venereis inceptis, eòque magis, quo vſus Veneris fuerit amplior: eoſdem etiam lentiſſimè omnium caneſcere clarum eſt. Pili euulſi ſubnaſci denuò poſſunt, dum citra ætatis florem degitur, nec vlteriùs. Habet autem genus quodque pilorum ad ſuam radicem lentum quendam humorem, quo protinus, vbi euul- B ſum eſt, ſi qua leuiuſcula tangat, adhæret, vt ea trahere poſſit tenaciùs. Quibus verò animalibus verſicolores ſunt pili, eiſdem etiam in cute varius ille color habetur, atque etiam in lingua. Barba non pari modo effunditur omnibus, ſed aliis tam maxillæ, quàm muſtax, & mentum pilorum frequentia integuntur: aliis mentum læue, & muſtax, maxillæ piloſæ cernuntur. Calueſcere minùs ſolent, qui mento ſunt bipartito. Creſcunt etiam pili quibuſdam in morbis, vt præcipuè in tabificis. Quinetiam in ſenectute & defuncto augeſcunt, durioréſque redduntur: quod idem vnguibus quoque euenit. Libidinoſis pili congeniti maturiùs defluunt: poſtgeniti, celeriùs ſeſe promunt. Minùs, qui varices C habent, calueſcunt. Et ſi calui habere inceperint, pilos nonnulli producunt. Pili præciſi non ab inciſura augentur, ſed inferiùs ab radice exeunt: atque ita euadunt longiores. Piſcibus quoque extenuatis ac ſeneſcentibus, ſquamæ duriores craſſioréſque efficiuntur. Quadrupedum etiam villi, lanæve, ſenectute prolixiùs augentur, quanquam rareſcant fiantque pauciores. Et vngulæ quoque maiores in ſenecta redduntur: quod idem roſtris etiam auium euenit. Incrementum vngularum idem, quod vnguium eſt.

CAPVT XII.

PEnnæ auium nullæ per ætates mutantur, præterquam gruum, quas nigreſcere in ſenecta perſpectum eſt. at verò per affectus temporarios, quoties frigora vrgent acriora, pennæ volucrum vnicolores interdum è nigris, aut nigriuſculis, albidiſve in albas tranſeunt: vt corui, paſſeris, hirundinis. Cuius rei contrarium, vt quicquam ex genere albo veniret in nigrum, nunquam viſum eſt. Temporum quoque viciſſitudine bona pars auium ita colore immutatur, vt quænam ſint, latère poſſint, niſi rem peritiùs noueris. Aquarum item diuerſa- E rum vſu, nonnulla ſuos immutant colores: alibi enim candida, alibi nigra redduntur. Sunt etiam aquæ multis in locis, quas cùm oues biberint, móxque inierint, nigros generent agnos: vt in terra Aſſyritide agri Chalcidici Thraciæ facit amnis, quem præ nimia frigiditate Pſychrum vocant. Et in Antandria quoque duo ſunt fluuij, quorũ alter candorem, alter nigritiam pecoribus facit. Scamander etiam amnis flauas reddere oues creditur:

quamobrem Xanthum pro Scamandro nuncupatum ab Homero autumant. Lepori vni pili & in bucca intus, & ſub pedibus ſunt: cùm cætera animalia nec intra os habeant pilos, nec parte pedum reſupina, ſed prona. Muſculus etiam piſcis pilos in ore intus habet vice dentium, quibus omnino caret, ſuillis ſimiles. Sed pili, vt dictum eſt, præſecti augeri ab radice poſſunt, ſupernè non poſſunt: pennæ autem nec ab radice, neque ſupernè ab inciſura poſſunt reparari, ſed cadant neceſſe eſt. Nec penna apum, aut quæuis inſiſſa renaſci poteſt, cùm euulſa eſt. aculeo etiam apibus detracto, nullus ſubnaſcitur alius; imò breui moriantur, neceſſe eſt.

CAPVT XIII.

De membranis in ſanguineis animalibus.

SVnt & membranæ in ſanguineis animalibus, quæ quidem pars ſimilis cuti prætenui ſpiſſæque eſt. Sed diuerſum ſane genus id eſt, quippe quod nec ſiſſile nec euulſile ſit. ambit ſingula, cum oſſa tum etiam viſcera membrana, tam in maiore quàm in minore animalium genere: verùm in minore ſenſum effugit, quoniam admodum tenuis atque exigua ſit. Maximæ inter membranas duæ ſunt illæ, quibus cerebrum opertum munitur: altera ſupra adhæret oſſi, quæ firmior, & craſſior eſt: altera infra contigua cerebro: mox quæ operit cor, magna habetur. Præciſa membrana ipſa ſyncera non coit: & oſſa ſuis diſpoliata membranis ſyderantur.

CAPVT XIV.

De omento.

OMentum quoque non niſi membrana eſt: quod omnia habent quæ ſanguine non carent, ſed alia pingue, alia macilentum. Oritur id, & dependet in iis quæ animal generant, eademque dentata parte vtraque ſunt, à medio ventre qua velut quædam ſutura ducitur. Nec ſecus in iis quæ altero dentium ordine carent, à maiore ventre dependet.

CAPVT XV.

VEſica etiam membrana eſt: ſed genus id aliud membranæ eſt, quippe quod tendi ingenuè poſſit. Non omnibus data veſica eſt, ſed iis tantùm quæ animal gignunt. Ouipari autem generis nulli, præter teſtudinem, data eſt. Nec veſica præciſa coire poteſt, niſi ad ipſum exordium ſuæ ceruicis. Quanquam non ignoro ita aliquando contigiſſe, vt vulnerata veſica ſolideſceret. Sed quod admodum raro contingit, parum id obſeruandum cenſeo. Defunctis nihil humoris in veſicam tranſmittitur. at viuis non ſolùm humor, ſed etiam ſicca quædam, & concrementa deſcendunt, ex quibus calculi conficiantur. Iam nonnullis talia in veſica conſtiterunt, quæ nihilo differre à conchylijs viderentur. CAPVT XVI.

CAro autem hæc,& quod carni ſimile, in genere ſanguineo, eſt omnibus inter cutem & oſſa, aut quæ oſſium proportione continentur. Vt enim ſe habet ſpina ad os, ita carnis æmulum illud ad carnem. Diuiſibilis vndiquę caro eſt, nec venarum, aut neruorum more in longum ſecari tantùm idonea. aboletur & in venas fibraſque tranſit, quoties animal extenuatur & graciléſcit. Vertitur item
B in pingue, quoties pabuli copia ſuppetit. Quibus multum eſt carnis, iis venæ arctiores, & ſanguis rubentior,& venter ac viſcera parua. Quibus parum, iis venæ ampliores, ſanguis atrior, viſcera maiora, & venter auctior. Pingueſcunt intra carnem, quibus paruus eſt venter.

CAPVT XVII.

C xit, concreſcat: adeps liquidus ſit, miniméque aptus durari. Iura enim ſebo opimorum concreſcunt, vt ouis, vt capræ. Adipe pinguium liquida reſiſtunt frigori vt equi, vt ſuis: locis etiam diſcrepant. adeps enim inter carnem cutemque ſolet conſiſtere: ſebum in fine carnis ſemper eſt. Omentum quoque adipe pingueſcentibus adipeum eſt, ſebo obeſis ſebale. Quæ parte vtraque dentata ſunt, adipe pingueſcunt: quæ vna, ſebo. Iecur è viſceribus adipeum nonnullis conſiſtit, vt inter aquatilia cartilagineis: quorum iecinoribus colliquatis oleum facimus. Ipſa tamen cartilaginea nullo diſcreto adipe carni ventrive adhærente pingueſcunt. Piſcium ſebum adipem præ ſe fert, nec concreſcere ſolet.
D animalia quæuis aut intra carnē, aut ſeorſum pingueſcunt. E quibus autem pingue ſeparatum non eſt, ea minus per ventrem omentumque pingueſcunt: vt anguillæ. paucum enim eſt eis ſebum in omento. Plurima tamen pars animalium ventre pingueſcit, & præcipuè quæ parum ſe moueant. Cerebrum, vt adipe pingueſcentium, pinguiuſculū eſt, velvt ſuis: ſic ſebo obeſorum, ſqualliduſculum ſentitur, vt ouis. Renes ex viſceribus maximè pingueſcunt: verùm dexter minus ſemper, quàm ſiniſter: & quamuis vehementer fuerint pingues, tamen aliquid ſemper mediis deeſt. Quæ ſebo pingueſcunt, magis quàm quæ adipe, in renibus opi-

CAPVT XVIII.

OMnium verò animalium commune pupillæ inſtitutio eſt. Omnibus enim quæ partem hāc poſſident, nec duris oculis ſunt, ſebo conſtat. Minùs eſſe fœcunda, quæ adipe pingueſcunt, ſiue mares, ſiue fœminæ, notum eſt. Omnia ætate prouecta potiùs quàm nouella pingueſcunt: ſed præcipuè, cùm iam ſuæ longitudinis ac latitudinis modum adepta, augeri in profundum incipiunt.

CAPVT XIX.

SAnguis in primis neceſſarius communiſque ſanguineis omnibus animalibus eſt, nec aduentitius ſuppetit, ſed vernaculus, atque intimus in omnibus integris atque imputidis habetur. Venas hic vaſa ſibi & conceptacula habet: nec in vllo alio niſi in corde, præter venas, continetur. Tactum nullo in genere ſentit: ſicvt excrementa quoque in aluo contenta, ſenſu carere certum eſt. Quinetiam cerebrum, & medulla tactum non ſentiunt. Effluit ſanguis quamcumque partem incideris carnis viuæ, ac incorruptæ. Si ſanguis integer eſt, ruber, & dulcis ſaporis eſt: ſed ſi vel natura, vel morbo ſit vitiatus, atrior cernitur. Nec vero admodum craſſus, aut admodum tenuis eſt, qui optimo habitu conſtet: humidus & calidus ſemper eſt, quamdiu in corpore animalis continetur. at vbi effluxerit, concreſcit omnium præterquam ceruorum, & damarum, & ſi quid aliud natura eiuſmodi ſit. Itaque cæterorum omnium ſanguis ſpiſſari ſolet, niſi fibræ, quibus refertus eſt, eximantur: ſed celerrimè omnium ſanguis taurorum coit dureſcitque. Copia ſanguinis in primis, animalibus iis quæ animal & intra ſe formāt, & in lucem edunt: mox iis ſanguineis, quæ pariunt oua. Quæ autem vel natura, vel arte, bono habitu ſunt, iis nec multum admodum ſanguinis eſt, velvt iis quæ per aliquam potionem recentem ſanguine exundant: nec parum, velvt iis quæ nimium ſunt obeſa: quippe cùm præpinguia omnia ſanguinem, quamuis purum, tamen paucum habeant: & quo plus pinguedinis, eo minus poſſideāt ſanguinis: pingue enim omne exangue eſt. Obeſa item ſanguinem habent imputidum, quanquam ſanguis, & quæ ſanguinea ſunt, facilè putrent: ac præcipuè quæ ad oſſa propius applicantur. Homini ſanguis tenuiſſimus, ac mundiſſimus: tauro, & aſino inter ea quæ animal generant, craſſiſſimus & nigerrimus: parte etiam inferiore craſſior, & atrior eſt, quàm ſuperiore. Palpitat intra venas ſanguis omnium animalium, pulſuque ſimul vndique mouetur, ſolúſque omnium humorum ſparſus per totum corpus animalium eſt. Et ſemper quādiu vita ſeruatur, ſāguis vnus animatur, & feruet. Oritur primùm in corde, antè quàm totū corpus formetur. Si multum ſanguinis effluat, anima deficit: ſi nimiùm, vita interit. Si ſanguis immodicè humeſcit, morbus infeſtat: ſic enim in ſpeciem ſaniei diluitur, & adeò ſereſcit, vt iā nonnulli ſudore cruento exundarint.

ΠΕρὶ δὲ τοῦ αἵματος ὧδε ἔχει. τοῦτο γὰρ πᾶσιν ἀναγκαιότατον καὶ κοινότατον τοῖς ἐναίμοις, καὶ οὐκ ἐπίκτητον, ἀλλ' ὑπάρχει πᾶσι τοῖς μὴ φθειρομένοις. πᾶν δ' αἷμά ἐστιν ἐν ἀγγείῳ, ἐν ταῖς καλουμέναις φλεψίν, ἐν ἄλλῳ δ' οὐδενί, πλὴν ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ μόνον. οὐκ ἔχει δ' αἴσθησιν τὸ αἷμα ἁπτομένων ἐν οὐδενὶ τῶν ζώων, ὥσπερ οὐδ' ἡ περίττωσις ἡ ἐν τῇ κοιλίᾳ. οὐδὲ δὴ ὁ ἐγκέφαλος, οὐδ' ὁ μυελός. οὐκ ἔχει αἴσθησιν ἁπτομένων. ὅπου δ' ἂν τις διέλῃ τὴν σάρκα, γίνεται αἷμα ἐν ζῶντι, ἐὰν μὴ ᾖ διεφθαρμένη ἡ σάρξ. ἔστι δὲ τὴν φύσιν τὸ αἷμα, τόν τε χυμὸν ἔχον γλυκύν, ἐάνπερ ὑγιὲς ᾖ, καὶ τὸ χρῶμα ἐρυθρόν· τὸ δὲ χεῖρον, ἢ φύσει, ἢ νόσῳ, μελάντερον. καὶ οὔτε λίαν παχύ, οὔτε λίαν λεπτὸν τὸ βέλτιστον, ἐὰν μὴ χεῖρον, ἢ διὰ φύσιν, ἢ διὰ νόσον ᾖ. καὶ ἐν μὲν τῷ ζώῳ, θερμὸν καὶ ὑγρὸν ἀεί· ἐξιὸν δὲ ἔξω, πήγνυται πάντων, πλὴν ἐλάφου καὶ προκός, καὶ εἴ τι ἄλλο τοιαύτην ἔχει τὴν φύσιν. τὸ δ' ἄλλο αἷμα πήγνυται, ἐὰν μὴ ἐξαιρεθῶσιν αἱ ἶνες. τάχιστα δὲ πήγνυται τὸ τοῦ ταύρου αἷμα * πάντων. ἔστι δὲ τῶν μὲν ἐναίμων τὰ ζωοτοκοῦντα πολυαιμότερα, τὰ καὶ ἐν αὑτοῖς καὶ ἔξω ζωοτοκοῦντα τῶν ἐναίμων μὲν ᾠοτοκούντων. τὰ δ' εὖ ἔχοντα, ἢ φύσει, * ἢ παρ' ὑγιείας, οὔτε πολὺ λίαν ἔχει, ὥσπερ τὰ πεπωκότα πόμα προσφάτως, οὔτ' ὀλίγον, ὥσπερ τὰ πίονα λίαν. τὰ γὰρ πίονα καθαρὸν μὲν ἔχει, ὀλίγον δὲ τὸ αἷμα, καὶ [γίνεται] πιότερα γινόμενα, ἀναιμότερα. ἄναιμον γὰρ τὸ πῖον, καὶ τὸ μὲν πῖον, ἄσηπτον· τὸ δ' αἷμα, καὶ τὰ ἔναιμα, τάχιστα σήπεται, καὶ τούτων τὰ περὶ τὰ ὀστᾶ. ἔχει δὲ λεπτότατον μὲν αἷμα καὶ καθαρώτατον ἄνθρωπος. παχύτατον δὲ καὶ μελάντατον τῶν ζωοτοκούντων, ταῦρος καὶ ὄνος. καὶ ἐν τοῖς κάτω δὲ μορίοις, ἢ ἐν τοῖς ἄνω, παχύτερον τὸ αἷμα γίνεται καὶ μελάντερον. σφύζει δὲ τὸ αἷμα ἐν ταῖς φλεψίν, ἐν ἅπασι πάντη ἅμα τοῖς ζώοις. καὶ ἔστι τῶν ὑγρῶν μόνον καθ' ἅπαν τὸ σῶμα τοῖς ζώοις, καὶ ἀεί, ἕως ἂν ζῇ, τὸ αἷμα μόνον. πρῶτον δὲ γίνεται τὸ αἷμα ἐν τοῖς ζώοις τῇ καρδίᾳ, καὶ πρὶν ὅλον διηρθρῶσθαι τὸ σῶμα. προϊεμένου δ' αὐτοῦ καὶ ἀφαιρουμένου ἔξω, πλείονος μὲν, * οὐ θνήσκουσι· πολλοῦ δ' ἄγαν, ἀποθνήσκουσιν. ἐξυγραινομένου δὲ λίαν, νοσοῦσι. γίνεται γὰρ ἰχωροειδές, καὶ διορροῦται οὕτως, ὥστε ἤδη τινὲς ἴδισαν αἱματώδη ἱδρῶτα.

* κ. τῶν [illegible]

* Gaza, vel arte nempe, medendi, niſi aliter legit.

καὶ ἐξιὸν ἐνίοις, οὐ πήγνυται παντελῶς, ἢ διῃρημένως καὶ χωρίς. τοῖς δὲ καθεύδουσιν, ἐν τοῖς ἐκτὸς μέρεσιν ἔλαττον γίνεται τὸ αἷμα· ὥστε καὶ κεντουμένων μὴ ῥεῖν ὁμοίως. γίνεται δὲ πεττομένων, ἐξ ἰχῶρος μὲν, αἷμα· ἐξ αἵματος δὲ, πιμελή. νενοσηκότος δὲ τοῦ αἵματος, αἱμοῤῥοῒς, ἥ τε ἐν ταῖς ῥισὶ, καὶ ἡ περὶ τὴν ἕδραν, καὶ ἰξία. σηπόμενον δὲ γίνεται τὸ αἷμα ἐν τῷ σώματι πύον, ἐκ δὲ τοῦ πύου πῶρος. τὸ δὲ τῶν θηλειῶν αἷμα, πρὸς τὸ τῶν ἀῤῥένων διαφέρει· παχύτερόν τε γὰρ καὶ μελάντερόν ἐστιν, ὁμοίως ἐχόντων πρὸς ὑγίειαν καὶ ἡλικίαν ἐν τοῖς θήλεσιν· καὶ ἐπιπολῆς μὲν, ἔλαττον [μὲν] ἐν τοῖς θήλεσιν, ἐντὸς δὲ πολυαιμότερα. μάλιστα δὲ καὶ τῶν θηλέων ζῴων, ἡ γυνὴ πολύαιμον, καὶ τὰ καλούμενα καταμήνια γίνεται πλεῖστα τῶν ζῴων ἐν ταῖς γυναιξί. νοσηματικὸς δὲ τοῦτο τὸ αἷμα καλεῖται ῥοῦς. τῶν δὲ ἄλλων τῶν νοσηματικῶν, ἧττον μετέχουσιν αἱ γυναῖκες. ὀλιγάκις δὲ γίνεται ἰξία καὶ αἱμοῤῥοῒς, καὶ ἐκ ῥινῶν ῥύσις· ἐὰν δέ τι συμβαίνῃ τούτων, τὰ καταμήνια χείρω γίνεται. διαφέρει δὲ καὶ κατὰ τὰς ἡλικίας, πλήθει καὶ εἴδει τὸ αἷμα. ἐν μὲν γὰρ τοῖς πάμπαν νέοις, ἰχωροειδές ἐστι καὶ πλεῖον· ἐν δὲ τοῖς γέρουσι, παχὺ καὶ μέλαν, καὶ ὀλίγον· ἐν ἀκμάζουσι δὲ, μέσως. καὶ πήγνυται ταχὺ τὸ τῶν γερόντων, καὶ ἐν τῷ σώματι, ἢ ἐπιπολῆς· τοῖς δὲ νέοις οὐ γίνεται τοῦτο. ἰχὼρ δέ ἐστιν ἄπεπτον αἷμα, ἢ τῷ μήπω πεπέφθαι, ἢ τῷ διωῤῥῶσθαι.

A Idem etiam interdum cauſæ eſt, vt qui effluxerit, aut omnino concreſcere nequeat, aut incomposite particulatimque ſpiſſetur. Dormientibus porro ſanguinis copia partes exteriores deſerit, ſubitque interiores, ita vt adacto cultello non æquè effluere poſſit. Fit per concoctionem ex ſanie ſanguis, ex ſanguine adeps. Vitiato excreſcenteque ſanguine, profluuium vel è naribus, vel per infera mariſcis mouetur, aut varices fiunt. Idē putreſcens pus redditur, quo demum concalleſcente porus, id eſt, tofus lapis conſiſtit. Fœminis ſanguis nigrior & craſſior quàm maribus eſt, dummodo cætera adſint pariter, quæ vel ab ætate vel à ſanitate proficiſcantur. B Et minus ſanguinis per ſumma corporis fœminarum eſt: plus enim parte interiore continetur. Sed omnium fœminarum maximè mulier ſanguine abundat, & quæ menſtrua appellamus, plurima fieri in mulieribus ſolent: quod genus ſanguinis vitiatum ægrotanſque, fluit immodicè, atque profluuiū ob eam rem dictum eſt. Cæteris morbis ſanguinis minùs mulieres infeſtantur, quàm viri. Paucis item mulieribus fiunt mariſcæ, aut varices, aut è naribus profuſio ſanguinis. Et ſi quid eorum acciderit, detrimentum in menſtrua deſumbit. Ætatum etiam ratione ſanguis diſcrimen, tum in modo, tum in genere recipit. Etenim in ætate admodum iuuenili ſaniem trahit, & largior eſt: in ſenectute autem C craſſus, niger, & paucus. Medium tenet in media firmáque ætate. Concreſcit etiam facilè ſenum vel in corpore ſanguis, qui per ſumma eſt: quod idem nunquam iuuenibus euenit. Sanies, ſanguis incoctus eſt: aut quia concoctus nondum eſt, aut quia in ſerum degenerauerit.

De medullis, lacte, ſero, & caſeo.

Medullæ rationem iis addere debemus: nā ea quoque humidis annumeranda generibus in nōnullis ſanguineis animalibus eſt. D Omnia verò quæ ſuapte natura humida in corpore ſunt, conceptaculis quibuſdam, tanquam vaſculis, continentur: vt ſanguis in venis, medulla in oſſibus: alia in membranis, aut cutibus, aut ventribus. Nouellis adhuc animalibus medulla cruenta admodum eſt: ætate prouectis, vt adipe pingueſcentibus, adipem trahit: ſic ſebo deputatis generibus, ſebum præ ſe fert. Sed quanquam medulla non niſi incluſa oſſibus eſt, tamen non oſſa omnia medullam intra ſe continent, ſed ea tantùm quæ caua habentur, tametſi ne ipſa quidē omnia cōtinēt. Oſſa enim leonis partim nullam partim admodū exiguam habent: quamobrem nullam omnino medullam leones habere nonnulli putarūt, vt dictum eſt. E In ſuillis etiam oſſibus minus medullæ eſt, & nonnullis omnino deeſt. Hæc ferè ſemper in animalibus natiua & congenita humidi genera habentur: adnata autem poſterioraque ſunt, lac & genitura: quorum alterum non eodem modo in omnibus eſt, ſed quibuſdam pro genitura thorus genitale virus ſui generis habetur, vt piſcibus. Quæ verò lac habent omnia, mammis id continent. Mammæ autem iis datæ ſunt, quæ animal & intra ſe concipiunt, & foras edunt: vt omnia quæ pilis integuntur, velut homo & equis. Cete etiam in aquatili genere: vt delphinus, vitulus marinus, balæna. hæc enim mammas habent, & lac. At ea quæ oua pariunt, aut ouo intus concepto, animal post in lucem excludunt, hæc & mammis carent,

A & lacte: vt piſces, vt aues. Genus autem vnũquodque lactis habet tum ſaniem dilutam, quod ſerum vocamus: tum corpulentum quiddam, qui caſeus dicitur. Plus caſei lac illud habere videmus, quod craſſius eſt. Coit lac eorum quæ non vtrinque dentata ſunt. Quapropter caſeus ex iis fit quæ inter vrbana dentium ordine carent ſuperiore. Eorum autem quæ vtrinque dentata ſunt, lac coire non poteſt, ſicvt nec pingue: & tenue dulcéq; eſt. Tenuiſſimum cameli eſt, mox equæ, tum aſinæ: craſſiſſimũ bubulum eſt. Nullum lac coit frigore, ſed ſerũ potiùs trahit. Igne nimirum omne ſpiſſatur, & craſſeſcit. Nulli ferè animalium lac fieri ſolet antè quàm vterum ferat: nec dum ferunt, vtile omne eſt, ſed B primum nouiſſimumque inutile. Non prægnantibus aliquando, ſed raro, eduliis quibuſdam efficitur vt lacteſcant. Etiam quibuſdam mulieribus natu maioribus, ſuctu frequentiore lac prodiit, & copia tanta, vt infantẽ enutrire potuerint. Vbera etiã caprarum quæ coitum non patiuntur, paſtores mõtis Oetæ vrtica perfricant vehementer, vt dolorem infligant. Itaque primùm cruentum humorem eliciunt, mox purulentum, poſtremò lac non minùs quàm ex iis quæ Venerem patiantur. Maribus, magna ex parte, nec beſtiis, nec hominibus gignitur lac. Fieri tamen poteſt vt ex aliquibus interdum gignatur. Nam & in Lemno inſula capro ex mã- C mis, quas geminas iuxtà genitale gerit, tantum lactis emulgebatur, vt coloſtra inde conficerent. Quod idem etiam proli maſculæ capri illius eueniſſe accepimus. Sed hæc oſtentis annumerãda potiùs ducunt. Nam & Lemnio illi pecoris domino conſulenti, Deus amplius incrementum peculij futurum reſpondit. Viris poſt pubem exiguum nõnullis exprimitur: veruntamen per ſuctum frequẽtiorem, vel multum prodiiſſe aliquibus, traditũ eſt. Lacti ineſt pinguedo, quæ etiam concreto oleum propè trahit. Caprinum lac miſcere cum ouillo Siculi, & quibuſcumque ſit copia caprini, conſueuerunt. Coit ſpiſſatúrque potiſſimùm, non modò quod plurimum habet caſeum, verumetiam quod D ſquallidiorem. Lactis copia quibuſdã maior quàm ad fœtus alendos ſatis ſit. Commodum ad conficiendum reponendumque caſeum præcipuè ouillum caprinumque eſt: mox bubulum. Equinum ac aſininum miſcent ad Phrygium caſeum conficiendum. Bubulum fertilius caſeo eſt, quàm caprinum. Cùm enim ex amphora lactis caprini formagines obolæ vndeuiginti conficiantur, bubulum eadem menſura triginta facit, vt paſtores confirmãt. Quibuſdam quantum ſatis ad fœtum ſit, tantum gignitur: nec vlla copia, aut ad reponendum commoditas ſuppetit: vt quibus mammæ plures quàm binæ. Nulli enim in eo genere lac, vel copioſum, vel caſeo vtile. Cogitur lac ſucco ficulno, & coagulo. E Succus lana excepto pauxillo lacte abluitur, quod iniectum lactis copiam denſat, atque coloſtrat.

CAPVT XXI.

COagulum, lactis ſubſtantia eſt: quippe quod in eorum ventriculo, quæ adhuc lactent, contineatur. Eſt ergo coagulum lac ignem habens intra ſeſe, quod cùm animalis tepore concoqueretur,

A caſeum traxerit. Habent coagulum omnia ruminantia: & inter dentata vtrinque lepus. Quo vetuſtius coagulum eſt, eo præſtantius. Tale profluuio alui mederi præcipuè poteſt: atque etiam quod leporis eſt: ſed laudatiſſimum hinnuli. Plus minúſve emulgeri, diſcrimen aut pabuli, aut magnitudinis animalium efficit. Nam puſillæ buculæ, quas Phaſiana regio fert, ſingulæ abunde beneficio pabuli mulgentur. Et Epiroticæ vaccæ præ ſua præcipua magnitudine, amphoras ſingulas ſingulæ implent lactis, menſuræque eius dimidium mammis duabus præſtant. Erectus qui mulget, aut paululum ſe inclinat: quoniam ſedendo vbera contingere nequeat. Cæteras etiam quadrupedes magnas terra eadem Epirus gignit, excepto aſino: ſed præcipuè B boues, & canes. Paſtu opus eſt grandibus largiore: quem terram illam abundè præbere, & loca ſingulis anni temporibus accommodata habere certum eſt. Boues igitur egregia magnitudine ibi ſunt: atque etiam oues Pyrrhicæ, à Pyrrho rege ita cognominatæ. Pabuli genus aliud, copiam lactis extinguit: vt medica herba, & præcipuè ruminantibus, aliud auget: vt cytiſus, vt eruum. Sed cytiſus dum floret, incommodus eſt: vrit enim tantiſper, atque extinguit. Eruum prægnantibus non prodeſt: facit enim partum difficiliorem omnino. Quæ in quadrupedum genere ſunt edaciora, eadem vt ad poſſidendum meliora, ita ad lactis etiam copiam eſſe fœcundiora, videlicet dum alimenti copiam ha- C beant, planum eſt. Nonnulla etiam flatuoſa, paſtu exhibita, copiam efficiunt lactis: vt fabæ largius datæ ouibus, capris, bubus, capellis: faciunt enim vt vbera demittantur. Indicium autem futuræ copiæ lactis, cùm ante partum vbera ſpectant deorſum. Edurat diu lac omnibus, ſi non coeant, nec paſtu careant copioſo. Sed omnium maximè quadrupedum, ouibus: quippe quibus mulctra menſium octo ſpatio continuetur. Denique ruminantibus lac & copioſius & caſeo vtilius emulgetur. Boues circa Toronam, paucis ante partum diebus lacte carent, reliquo tempore habent perpetuò. Mulierum lac commodius lactentibus eſt, quod liuorem trahit, quàm quod candidum eſt: & fuſcæ ſalubrius ha- D bent quàm candidæ. Est porro ad alendum validius, in quo plus caſei eſt: ſed infantibus ſalubrius, quod minus caſei contrahat.

Pilos habentiũ ſemen lentum eſt, cæterorum nullam habet lenti- E tiam. Album omnium eſt. Nec audiendus Herodotus, qui Æthiopes genituram colore nigro promere ſcripſerat. Exit profectò ſemen hoc genitale, album, & craſſum ſi integrum eſt: ſed foris tenue totum redditur, & nigrum. Nunquam id gelu concreſcit: imò admodum extenuatur, & aquæ tum colorem tum etiam ſubſtantiam habet: calore autem coit, & craſſeſcit. Et quod de vulua eſt exceptum, aliquamdiu in ea iam immoratum craſſius prodit. Nonnunquã etiam ſiccum contortumque. Delabitur in aqua quod fœcundũ eſt, aqua ſubſidit:

quod autem infœcundum eſt, diffunditur, atque exoleſcit. Falſum etiam eſt quod Cteſias de genitura elephantorum ſcriptum reliquit.

De partibus animalium habentium ſanguinem, quas cõmunes, quaſve proprias ſingula habent genera; atque etiam de iis quas ſimilares diſſimilareſque appellauimus: denique de omnibus, tã interiorib. quã exterioribus partibus, dictũ iã eſt. A Hoc vltimo, inquam, brachio in coitu vtitur. Fiſtulam idem ante aluum poſitum ſupra brachia gerit cauam, qua mare tranſmittit: quantum admiſerit aluo, quoties aliquid ore capit: eam modo in dexteram partem transfert, modò in ſiniſtram. Hac eadem fiſtula ſuum quoque atramentum fundere aſſolet. Natat obliquus, pedes in eam porrigens partem, quod capitis nomine appellatum eſt: atque ita efficitur, vt cum natat, proſpiciat in aduerſum (nam oculi ſupra ſunt conſtituti) & os habeat ex aduerſo. Caput illud polypis, quamdiu viuunt, prædurum, & quaſi inflatum eſt. Tangunt, ac tenent brachiis ſupinis, membranamque interiectam totam extendunt: in arenam B tamen elapſis facultas apprehendēdi retinēdique nulla eſt. Differunt polypi a cæteris quæ mollia enumeraui, mollibus, eo quod aluus polyporum paruus, & crura prælonga: cæteris e diuerſo, aluus amplus, crura breuia, ita vt poteſtas nulla ſit ingrediendi. Ipſa autem inter ſe diſcrepant, quatenus lolligo longior, ſepia latior eſt. Lolligine vero longe grandior, qui lollius nominatur: quippe qui vel in cubita quinque excreſcat. Sepias quoque aliquas in bina augeri cubita proditum eſt. Brachia etiam polyporum tantumdem, atque etiam plus magnitudinis capiunt. Sed lolliorum genus puſillum admodum eſt, & facie quoque C a lolligine diſſidens. Pars enim lollii, quæ exit in acutum, latior eſt. Pinnulæ etiam circundantes illæ totum in lollio aluum ambiunt, cùm in lolligine partem aliquam relinquant. Pelagius tamen lollius non alio modo, quam lolligo conſiſtit. Caput omnibus inter crura, quæ & brachia, & barbæ, & cirri appellantur. Eius pars oris habitus eſt in quo dentes duo, ſupra quos oculi totidem grandiuſculi, quibus diſcrimen exigua quædam præſtat cartilago continens cerebellum. Ineſt etiam in ore caro quædam exigua, qua vice linguæ vtuntur. Lingua enim nullis hoc in genere data eſt. Aluus à capite amplioris capaci- D tatis propenſus, cuius caro fiſſilis eſt: verum non per directum, ſed in orbem, cuteque omnibus intecta eſt. Os gula excipit anguſta, & longa: quam guttur ſequitur ampliuſculum, neque abſimile auibus: cui iungitur venter, tanquam omaſum, ſpecie clauiculæ buccinorum. Inteſtinum ab eo tenue, partem repetēs ſuperiorem ad os fertur, quod laxius quàm gula, eſt. Viſcera mollium nullis: ſed habent, quam mutem appellant, atrúmque illum humorem, cui nomen atramentum, quod plurimum in ſepia eſt. Effundunt enim id atramentum omnia metu perculſa, ſed præcipue ſepia. Mutis ergo ſub ore eſt, & gula per eam tendit: at verò atramentum infra continetur, qua inteſtinum parte E incipit ſuperiora: foramenque ſuum eadem obuolutum habet membrana qua inteſtinum: atque idē meatus emittendi atramenti excrementique eſt. Capillamenta etiam quędam in corpore omnia habentur. Sepiæ, lolligini, & lollio, partes duræ, ac ſolidæ intus per dorſum & corporis prona continentur, quas non eodem appellant nomine: ſed quod inſertum ſepiis eſt, ſepium vocant: quod lolliginibus id gladiolum. Differunt. n. quòd ſepium robuſtum latumque eſt, inter ſpinam & os medium præ ſe ferens naturam, fungoſam intra ſe complectēs, & friabilē corpulentiam. Gladiolus arctior, & cartilaginoſior eſt. Forma etiā diſcrepat, videlicet pro aluorū modo, quibus ipſe inſertus cōtinetur.

Polypis nihil ſolidum intus, ſed caput cartilagine penè conſtat, quæ ſeneſcentibus maiorem in modum indureſcit. Differunt fœminæ à maribus, quia in mare meatus ille ſubditus gulæ à cerebello in ima aluei pertendit: idque ipſum ad quod fertur, ſpeciem mammę imitatur. In fœmina duplex idem illud, ſupráque habetur. Vtroque tamen in ſexu corpuſcula quædam rubentia parti eiuſmodi ſubiuncta ſpectantur. Ouum polypi vnum incomptum foris, & grande intus humorem candicantem concolorem totum atque æquabilem continens. Tanta eſt eius oui vbertas, vt vas impleat amplius capite polypi ipſius. Sepiæ alueus bipartitus eſt, oua cãdicantia grandini ſimilia complectens permulta. Sed quiſnam ſitus ſingularũ, quas enumerauimus, partium ſit, ex deſcriptione diſſectionum contemplare. Cùm verò mares in hoc genere à fœminis differunt, tum vel maximè ſepiæ id probant. Mas enim prona ſui corporis nigriora ſupinis potiùs, partéſque omnes aſperiores habet, quàm fœmina, & lineis interuenientibus varias: caudam etiam acutiorem. Sed polyporum genera plura ſunt: eſt enim quod & conſpectius, & maximum eſt, cuius terreni maiores quàm pelagij ſunt: & quod corpore exiguo, varióque eſt, cibo ineptum: & quod eledonam vocat, crurum prolixitate diuerſum: & quod vnum ex mollium numero ſimplicem acetabulorum ordinem agat: cætera namque omnia duplici caliculantur. ad hæc, quod alij bolitænam, alij oſſolem appellat. Duo item viſuntur genera conchis indita, quorum alterum nautam aliqui vocant, alterum pompilum, ſiue ouum polypi. Teſta iis vt pectunculis concaua, ſimplex tamen, nec ita deſtinata, vt ei inhæreant. Sæpius ij iuxta terram paſcuntur, vnde euenit vt fluctibus iactati in aridam elidantur, & teſta dilapſa nudi capiantur, aut in terra anima extinguantur. Conſtant exiguo corpore, facie ſimiles bolitænis. Eſt etiam qui cochlearum more ſiliceo tegmine ita muniatur, vt nunquam egredi ſoleat, ſuáque interdum brachia exerat. Sed de generibus mollium ſatis dictum iam eſt.

CAPVT II.

De animalibus, quæ cruſta integuntur.

CRuſta autem intectorum genus primum locuſta: cui proximum genus alterum eſt, quem gammarum vocant. Differt is à locuſta brachiis, quæ denticularis forcipibus protendit: atque etiam quibuſdam aliis diſcriminibus, quanquam nõ multis. Tertium genus ſquilla eſt. Quartum, cancer: quorum ſanè plura habentur genera. Squillarum enim genere continentur gibbæ, crangines, & paruæ, quæ maiores nunquam effici poſſunt. Cancrorum enim genus multiplex eſt, nec facile enumerandum. Maximum, quas maias appellant. Secundum, paguri, & quos heracleoticos vocant. Tertiũ, fluuiales. Cæteri minutiores, & nullis penè nominibus annotari. Genus cancrorum litorale Phœnice fert, tantæ velocitatis, vt vix conſequi ſit: vnde hippeas, hoc eſt, equites illos appellarunt. Iis nihil ferè intus propter inopiã pabuli. Genus item aliud eſt, quod magnitudine cancrum non excedat, facie gammaris ſimile: ſed iis omnibus (vt antè dixi) pars dura, & teſtacea foris pro cute eſt, mollis & carnea intus: ſupina corporis planiora, & tabellatiora ſunt, quibus & oua deponunt cùm

Pedum autem octo numero, pars ſciſſa in extremo bifurcatur, pars deſinit indiuiſa: quatuor enim bifurces ſunt, reliqui quatuor ſimplices ex toto pertendunt. Quod autem collum appellant, quinque partium foris eſt: & ſextum latius illud ſitum loco nouiſſimo habetur, tabellis continuatum quinque. Interiora verò, in quibus fœminæ priùs pariunt quàm fœtum edant, hirtiuſcula quædam quatuor continentur, quibus ſingulis ſpinæ ſingulæ breues, arrectæque eminent ad exteriora. Pectus, corpuſque totum læue eſt, non more locuſtarum aculeatum, & aſperum. Verùm in pedibus magnis aculeos partis exterioris maiores eſſe, manifeſtum eſt. Fœminam hoc in genere nullum diſcrimen à mari diſtinguit. Nam & mari & fœminæ forceps alterutrer grandior more incerto eſt, parem verò vtrumque neuter vnquam habere viſus eſt: mares omnia eius generis ore excipiunt. Sed cancri parte oris exigua adducta reſpuunt; locuſtæ ſuas ad branchias tranſmittunt, quas ipſæ plures, quàm cætera, habent: communis enim omnibus branchiarum adnexus eſt. Dentes omnibus bini. Locuſtis enim duo primores, & in ore caruncula quædam conſtituta pro lingua eſt. Tum venter os protinus excipit, præterquam locuſtis. iis enim gula ante ventrem exigua. Mox à ventre inteſtinum, quod locuſtis, & ſquillis, & gammaris rectà in caudam finit, qua excrementa emittunt, & oua pariunt. Cancris autem, qua applicatum illud operculum geritur medio applicaminis ipſius: verùm iis quoque parte exteriore, qua oua pariunt, deſinit. Fœminis item huius generis locus ouis deputatus iuxta inteſtinum omnibus eſt. Et quam mutem, ſiue papauer appellarunt, amplius parciúſve habent hæc omnia genera. Diſcrimina propria contemplari in ſingulis congruum eſt. Locuſtis igitur, vt modo dixi, dentes bini maiuſculi, & venter, quo humor ſimilis muti continetur. Caruncula etiam inter dentes linguæ repræſentans effigiem: & gula ab ore breuis, quam venter membraneus excipit; cuius oſtio tres denticuli inhærent: duo aduerſi, reliquus infra. Inteſtinum verò à ventris latere ſimplex pari craſſamento ad excrementi vſque oſtium fertur. Hæc locuſtæ, & gammari, & cancri ſortiuntur: ſed locuſtis meatus quoque à pectore pendens, ad excrementi exitum pertinet: qui fœminis pro vulua eſt, maribus genitalis ſeminis receptaculum ſufficit. Meatus hic iuxta cauum carnis continetur, ita vt media caro interiaceat: inteſtinum enim deuexum pertingit: meatus verò cauo applicatur. Nec ſecus quàm in quadrupedum genere hæc habentur. Nulla maris meatũ ac fœminæ differentia diſtinguit; quippe cùm vterque tenuis ſit, & albidus, & humorem intra ſe continens, pallentem: vterque etiam ex pectore pendet. Squillas etiam ouum clauiculáſque, ſimilem in modum habere certum eſt. Maribus ſanè præ fœminis propria in pectoris carne bina quædam candicantia conſtant, diſtera à cæteris partibus colore, formaque promuſcidi ſepiarum proxima: verùm hæc torta in vertiginem more buccinorum papaueris, quorum origo ab acetabulis, quæ ſubdita pedibus nouiſſimis ordinantur.

CAPVT III.

SEd cùm animalia quæque ſanguinea, partes tum interiores tum etiam exteriores, ſuis quaſque appellatas nominibus habeant, genus, quod ſanguine caret, pluribus vacat. Iam enim viſcera, quæ cuique ſanguineo inſunt omnia, nullum exangue quod habeat, nouimus: ſed communes generi vtrique partes, gula, venter, inteſtinum. Cancris autem forcipes, pedéſque haberi, & ij quales eſſent, dictum iam eſt. Omni- C bus verò magna ex parte grandior ac validior forceps dexter, quàm læuus eſt. Quinetiam de oculis diximus, viſum parti plurimæ eſſe in obliquum. Alueus verò totius corporis indiſcretus eſt: nec enim caput diſtinctum, nec aliud quicquam. Oculi non eodem ſitu omnibus poſiti, ſed aliis è latere ſuprà, continuo ſub prono, amplo diſtantes diſcrimine: aliis in medio breui diſcrimine, vt Heracleoticis, aut maiis. Os oculis ſubditum, in quo dentes duo, vt locuſtis: verùm non rotundi, ſed longi. Tegmina dentes operiunt duo, inter quæ talia interiacent quædam, qualia locuſtarum dentibus adnecti expoſui. Humorem igitur ore accipit, tegminibus illis D depellendo: emittitque meatu oris ſuperiore, obductis meatibus quà interfluxit. Duplex ille meatus ſub oculis eſt. Quoties ergo aquam acceperit, vtroque tegumento os obturat, atque ita reſpuit humorem. Gula poſt dentes breuis admodum eſt, ita vt protinus venter os excipere videatur. Venter biſulcus gulæ ſubiungitur, cuius ex medio inteſtinum ſimplex, & tenue procedit, quod ſub applicato exteriore operculo deſinit, vt dictum eſt. Quod autem inter tegumenta interiacet, huius, ſicvti locuſtarum, dentibus adnectitur. Humor intus in alueo pallidus, & minuta quædam oblonga, albida continentur. E Rufa etiam alia, maculis diſperſis. Differt à fœmina mas, magnitudine, craſſitudine, & operculo: id enim amplius in fœmina eſt, & diſtantius, & hirſutius, & ſpacius, quale etiam fœminæ locuſtarum ſortiuntur. Partes cruſta intecti generis ita ſe habent.

CAPVT IV.

De animalibus, quæ teſta integuntur, eorúmque inter ſe differentiis.

QVæ verò teſta operiuntur animalia, vt vmbilici, cochleæ, purpuræ, & omnia, quæ oſtrei, aut conchæ nomine appellamus, atque etiam echinorum genus, carnem quæcunque habent, ſimiliter atque cruſtata habent: quippe quæ intus eam contineant, teſtáque foris claudantur, nec intra ſe durum habeant quicquam. Sed ipſa inter ſeſe numeroſa diſcrepant differentia, tum teſtæ, tum carnis interioris ratione. Aliis enim in eo genere nulla eſt caro, vt echinis: aliis eſt, ſed penitus incluſa, nec vlla ex parte conſpecta, excepto capite, vt terreſtrium limacibus, & iis quæ cocalia quidam appellarunt, & aquatilium purpuris, buccinis, cochleis, & reliquis omnibus turbinatis. Cætera aut duplici conſtant valuula, aut ſimplici, vt genus alterum biualue, alterum vniualue poſſit nuncupari. Biualue appello, quod gemina teſta continetur: vniualue, quod teſta ſingulari clauditur. Sunt item quibus altera pars ſuperficiei detecta, carnem oſtendat, vt patellæ. Biualuis generis pars cluſilis eſt, vt pectunculi & mitili. Eiuſmodi namque omnia parte altera ligata, altera ſoluta conſtant, vt & concludi poſſint, & aperiri. Alia binis quidem concluſa valuulis ſunt, verùm vtroque latere conuexa: vt vngues, ſiue digiti. Non deſunt quæ teſta tota occultentur, vt nulla ex parte carnem detectam habeant: vt quæ vertibula, ſiue tubera, & callos appellamus. Ipſarum etiam teſtarum magna varietas: nam aliæ læues, vt vngues, mitili, & concharum quædam, vt quas aliqui galadas appellant. Aliæ ſcabræ, vt oſtreæ, pinnæ, & conchæ nonnullæ, & buccina. Quædam etiam pectinatim diuiſæ, vt pectunculi, & concharum nonnullæ. Craſſitudine quoque differunt, & tenuitate: tum totius, tum partis: velut labrorum. Aliis enim labra tenuia, vt mitilis: aliis craſſa, vt oſtreis. Item alii ſe mouent, vt pectines, quos etiam volare nonnulli aiunt: nam & de ferramento, quo capiuntur, ſæpe exiliunt. Alia item natura immobili ſunt, vt nunquam ſedem, in qua hærent, ſponte ipſa mutare valeant: vt pinna. Omne ſane turbinatorum genus mouetur, & ſerpit. Patella etiam ſaxis abſolui, in paſtúmque ferri ſolita eſt. Commune autem & iis quæ adhuc enumeraui, & cæteris teſtacei generis, vt teſta intus æqualis læuiſque habeatur. Caro biualuis & vniualuis generis ita teſtæ adhæret, vt niſi per vim nequeat detrahi. At turbinatis laxior continetur & abſolutior: cui generi peculiare eſt, vt teſtæ poſtrema à capite intorqueantur. Operculum etiam eadem iam inde ab ortu naturæ omnia gerunt. Mouentur item eadem omnia parte dextra, non ad vertiginem, ſiue clauiculam, ſed in aduerſum. Partes exteriores eius generis differentiis iis variantur. Interiorum natura ſimilis quodam modo in omnibus eſt: maximéque in turbinatis. Differunt enim inter ſe magnitudinis exceſſúſque affectu. Nec verò multùm vniualue ac biualue genus concluſile ſibi diſſident, quippe quæ parum differentiæ inter ſe afferant: quanquam longè ab immobilibus diſcrepét: quod latiùs poſtea patebit. Natura ergo turbinatorum ſimilis conſtat, nec niſi magnitudine variat, ὥσπερ εἴρηται καθ' ὑπεροχήν. τὰ μὲν γὰρ μείζω μέρη, καὶ ἐνδηλότερα ἔχει αὐτῶν· τὰ δ' ἐλάττω, τοὐναντίον. ἔτι δὲ σκληρότητι, καὶ μαλακότητι. καὶ τοῖς ἄλλοις τοῖς τοιούτοις πάθεσιν. ἔχει γὰρ πάντα, τὴν μὲν ἐξωτάτω τοῦ ὀστράκου ἐν τῷ στόματι σάρκα στιφράν, τὰ μὲν μᾶλλον, τὰ δὲ ἧττον. ἐκ μέσου δὲ τούτου ἡ κεφαλή, καὶ κεράτια δύο. ταῦτα δ', ἐν μὲν τοῖς μείζοσι, μεγάλα· ἐν δὲ τοῖς ἐλάττοσι, πάμπαν μικρά ἐστιν. ἡ δὲ κεφαλὴ ἐξέρχεται πᾶσι τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον· καὶ ὅταν φοβηθῇ, συσπᾶται πάλιν εἰς τὸ ἐντός. ἔχει δὲ στόμα καὶ ὀδόντας ἔνια, οἷον ὁ κοχλίας, ὀξεῖς, καὶ μικρούς, καὶ λεπτούς. ἔχουσι δὲ καὶ προβοσκίδας, ὥσπερ καὶ αἱ μυῖαι. τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶ γλωττοειδές. ἔχουσι δὲ καὶ οἱ κήρυκες τοῦτο καὶ αἱ πορφύραι στιφρόν, καὶ ὥσπερ οἱ μύωπες καὶ οἱ οἶστροι, τὰ δέρματα διατρυπῶσι τῶν τετραπόδων, ἔτι τὴν ἰσχὺν τοῦτ' ἐστὶ σφοδρότατον· τῶν γὰρ δελεάτων τὰ ὄστρακα διατρυπῶσι. τοῦ δὲ στόματος ἔχεται εὐθὺς καὶ ἡ κοιλία. ὁμοία δ' ἐστὶν ἡ κοιλία προλόβῳ ὄρνιθος, ὁμοία οὖσα τῶν κόχλων. κάτω δ' ἔχει δύο λευκὰ στιφρά, ὅμοια μαστοῖς, οἷα ἐγγίνεται καὶ ἐν ταῖς σηπίαις· πλὴν στιφρὰ ταῦτα μᾶλλον. ἀπὸ δὲ τῆς κοιλίας, στόμαχος ἁπλοῦς μακρὸς μέχρι τῆς μήκωνος, ἥ ἐστιν ἐν τῷ πυθμένι. ταῦτα μὲν οὖν ἐστι δῆλα καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν πορφυρῶν, καὶ τῶν κηρύκων ἐστὶν ἐν τῇ ἕλικι τοῦ ὀστράκου. τοῦ δὲ στομάχου τὸ ἐχόμενόν ἐστιν ἔντερον· συνεχὲς δ' ἐστὶ στόμαχος καὶ τὸ ἔντερον, καὶ ἁπλοῦν μέχρι τῆς ἐξόδου. ἡ δ' ἀρχὴ τοῦ ἐντέρου περὶ τὴν ἕλικα τῆς μήκωνος, καὶ ταύτῃ ἐστὶν εὐρύτερον· ἔστι γὰρ ἡ μήκων οἱονεὶ [κοιλίας] περίττωμα πᾶσι τοῖς ὀστρακηροῖς τὸ πολὺ αὐτῆς· εἶτα ἐπικαμφθὲν ἄνω φέρεται πάλιν πρὸς τὸ σαρκῶδες, καὶ ἡ τελευτὴ τοῦ ἐντέρου, περὶ τὴν κεφαλήν ἐστιν, ᾗ ἀφίησι τὸ περίττωμα πᾶσιν ὁμοίως καὶ τοῖς στρομβώδεσι καὶ τοῖς χερσαίοις καὶ τοῖς θαλαττίοις. παρύφανται δ' ἀπὸ τῆς κοιλίας τῷ στομάχῳ ἐν τοῖς μεγάλοις κόχλοις συνεχόμενος ὑμήν, ὁ μακρὸς πόρος καὶ λευκός, ὅμοιος τὴν χρόαν τοῖς ἄνω μαστοειδέσιν. ἔχει δ' ἐντομάς, ὥσπερ τὸ ἐν τῷ καράβῳ ᾠόν· πλὴν τὴν χρόαν τὸ μέν, λευκόν, ἐκεῖνο δέ, ἐρυθρόν. ἔχει δ' οὐδεμίαν ἔξοδον τοῦτο, οὐδὲ πόρον, ἀλλ' ἐν ὑμένι ἐστὶ λεπτῷ, κοιλότητα ἔχον ἐν αὐτῷ στενήν. ἀπὸ δὲ τοῦ ἐντέρου κάτω παρατείνει μέλανα καὶ τραχέα συνεχῆ, οἷα καὶ ἐν ταῖς χελώναις, πλὴν ἧττον μέλανα. ἔχουσι δὲ καὶ οἱ ἄλλοι κόχλοι ταῦτα τὰ λευκά, πλὴν ἐλάττω οἱ ἐλάττους. τὰ δὲ μονόθυρα καὶ δίθυρα, τῇ μέν, ὁμοίως ἔχει τούτοις· τῇ δ', ἑτέρως. κεφαλὴν μὲν γὰρ καὶ κεράτια, καὶ στόμα ἔχουσι, καὶ τὸ γλωττοειδές· ἀλλ' ἐν μὲν τοῖς ἐλάττοσιν, διὰ μικρότητα αὐτῶν, ἄδηλα· ταῦτα δέ, καὶ ἐν τεθνεῶσιν, ἢ μὴ κινουμένοις, ἄδηλα. τὴν δὲ μήκωνα, πάντα ἔχει· ἀλλ' οὐκ ἐν τῷ αὐτῷ τόπῳ ἴσην, οὐδ' ὁμοίως φανεράν· ἀλλ' αἱ μὲν λεπάδες, κάτω ἐν τῷ βάθει· τὰ δὲ δίθυρα, ἐν τῷ γιγγλυμώδει. καὶ τὰ τριχώδη πᾶσιν ὑπάρχει κύκλῳ τούτοις, οἷον καὶ τοῖς κτεσί. καὶ τὸ λεγόμενον ᾠόν, τοῖς ἔχουσιν, ὅταν ἔχωσιν, ἐν τῷ κύκλῳ τῆς περιφερείας τῷ ἐπὶ θάτερά ἐστιν, ὥσπερ καὶ τὸ λευκὸν τοῖς κόχλοις. καὶ γὰρ ἐκείνοις τοῦτο ὅμοιον ὑπάρχει. ἀλλὰ πάντα τὰ τοιαῦτα μόρια, ὥσπερ εἴρηται, ἐν μὲν τοῖς μεγάλοις δῆλά ἐστιν· ἐν δὲ τοῖς μικροῖς, ἢ οὐθέν, ἢ μόλις. διὸ μάλιστα ἐν τοῖς μεγάλοις κτεσὶ φανερά ἐστιν. οὗτοι δ' εἰσὶν οἱ τὴν ἑτέραν θυρίδα πλατεῖαν ἔχοντες, οἷον ἐπίθημα.

A vt modò dixi. Aliis enim partes maiores atque euidentiores: aliis minores obſcurioréſque ſunt. Ad hæc diſcrimen illud duritiæ, mollitiæ, cæterarúmque generis eiuſdem affectionum. Caro enim prima in ore teſtæ, quam omnia toroſiuſculam habent, aliis magis talis, aliis minùs. Caput eius medio partis prominulum iungitur: & cornicula duo, quæ pro magnitudine animantis plus minus capiunt incrementi. Exerunt caput more omnia eodem, idémque per motum retrahunt intro. Nonnullis etiam os, & dentes acuti, breues, & tenues, vt cochleis. Promuſcidas item gerunt modo muſcarum: quod quidem membrum linguæ effigiem præ ſe fert. Habent hoc idem & purpuræ, B & buccina firmum & toroſum, quo ſimiliter vt aſili atque tabani, quadrupedum tergora penetrant: imò longè validiùs: teſtas enim eſcarum poſſunt perforare. Venter os protinus excipit, ſimilis in vmbilicis gutturi auium: habéntque parte inferiore duo quædam albida, toroſa, mammis ſimilia, cuiuſmodi carunculas vel in ſepiis eſſe aduertimus: ſed hæc toroſiora. Gula à ventre duplex longa porrigit ſe vſque ad papauer, quod poſtremum, fundo commiſſum eſt. Hæc ergo, vt in purpuris & buccinis conſpicua, in clauicula teſtæ continentur. Quod autem gulæ ſubiungitur, inteſtinum eſt, gulæ ipſi continuum, ſimplexque ex toto, vſque ad exitum: cuius initium circa anfractum papaueris C eſt, quà & laxiùs hæret. Quod enim papauer appellamus, quaſi materia vacans, atque excrementitia, magna ſui parte in omnibus teſtaceis generibus ineſt. Hinc ſurſum verſus replicans, carnis repetit ſedem, finitque ad caput: vnde eiicitur excrementum, pariter in omnibus turbinatis generibus, tam aquaticis quàm terreſtribus. Membrana in grandiuſculis vmbilicis à ventre gulæ attexitur continua, per quam meatus prolixior albicans colore, ſimilis ſuperioribus illis mammillantibus carniculis tendit. Habet etiam inciſuras, quales in ouo locuſtarum habentur: verùm hoc albidum, illud rubidum eſt. Nullus exitus huic, nullum foramen poſtremum patet, ſed prætenui membrana cauo D perductus anguſto continetur. Tendunt ab inteſtino ad imum nigrantia quædam aſpera, atque continua, qualia vel in teſtudine viſuntur, ſed minùs nigra. Cæteri quoque vmbilici hæc habent eadem: ſed quo minores, eo minutiora. Vniualue autem & biualue genus partim iis ſimile eſt, partim diuerſum. Caput enim, & cornicula, & os obtinent, atque etiam quod linguæ ſpeciem gerat: verùm hæc in minutioribus ſenſum præ ſua exiguitate effugiunt. Nonnulla etiam in exanimatis, aut non mouentibus percipi nequeunt. Papauer illud, quod etiam mutem appellamus, omnia habent, ſed non loco eodem, nec par, nec ex æquo manifeſtum, ſed patellæ in imo, biualuia verò ad E partem, qua mutuo teſtarum complexu continentur. Capillamentis etiam illis hæc omnia circundantur: & quod ouum appellant, tempore, quo gigni ſolet, ambitu alterius lateris oræ continetur, videlicet iis quibus datum id à natura eſt, ſicut etiam albugo vmbilicis: id enim illis iunctum ſimile intelligimus. Sed eiuſmodi partes, vt dixi, cùm conſpicuæ in magnis habeantur, in paruis tamen aut nullo pacto aut vix ſentiuntur: quamobrem in magnis pectunculis præcipuè patent. quod genus id eſt, cui altera valuularum latior, velut tegmen ſuperpoſita eſt.

A Oſtium excrementi cæteris à latere eſt. Foramen enim, quo egerant, omnia habent: quippe cùm papauer illud, vt dictum iam eſt, excrementitium quiddam omnia membrana contentum ſortiantur. At illi, quod ouum appellant, foramen, nullo in genere tributum videmus, ſed carni ipſi intumeſcit: nec eadem, qua inteſtinum, parte continetur, ſed dextera, cùm inteſtinum habeat ſiniſtra. Cæteris ergo talis excrementi exitus eſt. At verò patellæ feræ, quam marinam aurem quidam appellarunt, parte ima teſtæ excernitur, qua foramen habetur. Ventrem etiam poſt os eſſe, in hoc eodem patellæ genere conſtat, atque etiam ouis illa ſimilia. Sed quis eorum cuique ſitus ſit, diligentiùs ex diſſectionibus petendum eſt. B Quem autem cancellum appellant, communis ferè ſocius cruſtatorum & teſtatorum generum eſt: quippe qui ſpecie locuſtis ſimilis ſpectetur, naſcíque ſeorſum per ſe ſolitus ſit. Verùm quòd teſtam deinde petit, quam ingreſſus vitam traducat, hinc ſimilis teſta contectis animantibus eſt: quapropter is in ancipiti eſſe, genúſque ſibi vendicare vtrumque videtur. Forma tamen (quod ſimpliciùs dixerim) ſimilis araneis eſt, niſi quòd partem capiti & pectori ſubditam ampliorem quàm aranei habeat. Cornicula duo rufa tenuia gerit, quibus oculi totidem ſubiacent, qui nunquam intrò recedant, vt cancrorum, ſed ſemper eminentes appareant. C Os ſub iis eſt, quod velut capillamentis quibuſdam pluribus circundatur. Iis pedes ſubiuncti duo bifurces, quibus cibum ori admoueat. Bini item vtrique adhærent lateri, & tertius paruus. Thoracis pars inferior mollis tota eſt, diſſectóque ſinu pallidum intus cernitur. Meatus ab ore ad ventrem pergit. Foramen excrementi perſpici nullum poteſt. Pedes ac thorax duritiem præ ſe ferunt, ſed minùs quàm cancri. Nexu nullo teſtis adhæret, purpurarum modo, & buccinarum, ſed abſolutus liberque vagatur. Oblongior eſt, qui turbinem ſubit, quàm qui neritem, quem naticem interpretamur. Genus enim diuerſum eſt, quod in natice degit, cætera quidem non abſimile: ſed dextrum D biſurculatum pedem paruum habens, cùm læuum grandiuſculum habeat, & ingredi eodem ipſo grandiore potiſſimùm ſolet. Tale profectò genus, vel intra conchas, quarum adhæſio ſimilis cæteris eſt, reperitur: quod & ſquillam paruam appellat. Natex teſta læui, ampla, & rotunda, forma buccinis proxima eſt: papauere tamen non nigro, vt illa, ſed rubro: teſtæ adnexum corpus medium eius firmiter eſt. Paſcuntur hæc mari tranquillo, abſoluta ſaxis. At quoties flatus vrgent, cancelli hoſpites illi ſeſe in ſaxa recipiunt, atque latibulis tutantur. Natices ſaxis adhæreſcunt more patellarum, & muricum, ac cæterorum generis eiuſdem, nec niſi tegmine dimoto adhærent, quod velut operculum E ſibi poſſident. Vſum enim, quem biualuibus pars vtraque adminiſtrat, eundem altera exhibet turbinatis. Caro intus, quà oris habitus. Modus hic idem muricibus, purpuris, atque omnibus generis eiuſdem. Quibus verò ſiniſter pes grandior eſt, ij nunquam cum turbinatis hoſpitantur, ſed cum naticibus tantùm ineunt ſocietatem, vt dictum eſt. Sunt inter cochleas, quæ intra ſe beſtiolas habeant ſimiles gammaris puſillis, qui vel in flumine giguntur: ſed ea differentia, vt præmollem intra ſuam teſtam carunculam habeant. Forma qualeſnam ſint, ex diſſectionibus contemplare.

De Echinorum genere.

Echinis caro negata eſt, idque ipſum habent peculiare, vt nullam intus carnem contineant. Nigra quædam in omnibus vice carnis ſpectamus. Genera echinorum plurima. Primum, quod cibo idoneum eſt, in quo quæ oua appellant, magna eſculentáque conſiſtunt, pariter in maiore corpore & minore: nam nouelli adhuc paruique pleniuſculi illis conſtant. Secundum, ac tertium, ſpatagi, & briſſi, quæ genera pelagia ſunt,raráque B inuentu. Ad hæc, quæ echinometra appellatur, quaſi matrem aut matricem dixeris echinorum: quæ quidem omnes magnitudine excedit. Genus item aliud eſt minutum, ſpinis longis prædurífque, gigni in alto gurgite ſolitum, quo nonnulli ad deſtillationes vrinæ medicamento vtuntur. Circa Toronem echini naſcuntur candidi & teſta, & ſpina, & ouo: augeri forma productiore quam cæteri ſoliti. Spina iis parua, nec rigida, ſed mollior. Nigra autem illa ori applicata, plura, & ad foramen exterius coeuntia habentur, ſed disiuncta inter ſeſe, quibus quaſi interuentu liminum diſcriminantur. Mouentur C agiliùs & frequentiùs, qui ſunt cibo idonei: cuius rei argumentum, quòd ſemper aliquid algæ ſuis ſpinis implexum gerunt. Sunt ergo omnibus oua, ſed nonnullis exigua, nec cibo apta. Euenit autem, vt quod caput appellant, & os verſum in terram ſit. Quod verò ad excrementi exitum deputatum eſt, id ſuprà habeatur. Quod idem omnibus turbinatis patelliſque euenit: paſtus enim de imis petatur neceſſe eſt. Vnde fit vt os inuerſum ad paſtum ſit, excementum verò ſuperiùs parte prona teſtæ contineatur. Dentes quini echinis omnibus ſunt, caui intrinſecus: inter quos caruncula quædam interiacens linguæ officio fungitur, mox iungitur gula, deinde venter in partes D quinque diſtinctus, plenus excrementi: cuius meatus omnes in exitu excrementi coeunt, qua teſta forata eſt. Ventri autem ſubdita ſunt, quæ oua appellant, membrana obducta diuerſa, eodem in omnibus impari quinario numero: quorum quod nigricat, parti creditum eſt ſuperiori, ex dentium origine pendens, amarum, nec eſculentum, quale in multis ineſſe animaduertimus, aut certè eius proportionale. Nam & in teſtudine, & in rubeta, & in rana, atque etiam in turbinato genere, & in molli: ſed colore diuerſo, & aut omnino inguſtabili, aut magis ab vſu cibario alieno. Corpus echinis priore atque nouiſſima parte ſpiſſum, & E continens: cætera verò non continuum, ſed ſimile laternæ, cui non obducta membrana eſt. Spinis ſuis echini vtuntur perinde ac pedibus: iis enim nitibundi mouentur, ſedémque permutant.

CAPVT VI.

QVæ autem vertibula, ſiue callos ſpeciali nomine à tegminis qualitate appellamus, naturam inter hæc genera peculiarem ſortiri notum eſt: iis enim ſolis corpus totum tegumento includitur, cuius durities inter teſtam & corium eſt: quamobrem modo præduri bubuli tergoris ſecatur. Adhæret ergo id genus ſaxis ſua teſta, duóque ſepoſita inter ſe foramina exigua admodum habet, & viſum vix patientia, quibus humorem accipit, & reddit. Excrementum enim nullum in B eo ſpectatur, quale in cæteris oſtreis, vel echinæum, vel quod appellant papauer, continetur. Diſſectis, primùm membrana neruoſa, cruſta ambiente obtenta oſtenditur, qua vertibuli caro ipſa continetur, nulli è cæteris ſimilis, in omnibus tamen ſui generis eadem. Adhæret hæc vtroque ex latere membranæ circumdanti, & corio: & quà adhæret, arctius in partem vtramque eſt, videlicet quà tendit ad meatus ductos foras per cruſtam, quibus redditur, & accipitur cibus, & humor; quaſi alterum ſit os, alterum oſſium excrementis delegatum. Nec modus idem: ſed alterum craſſius, alterum tenuius eſt, cauúmque intus vtrinque, exiguo quodam interueniente continuo, humórque in altero cauo conſiſtere ſolitus eſt. C Pars verò alia, quæ vel inſtrumentalis, vel ſenſualis ſit, nulla omnino percipitur: neque excrementitium quicquam (vt dictum iam eſt) quo in cæteris more continetur. Color vertibulis, aut pallidus aut rubidus eſt. Vrtica etiam ſui generis cernitur: quippe quæ & adhæreat ſaxis, more nonnullorum intectorum teſta, & interdum ſaxis abiuncta vagetur. Nulla huic teſta, ſed corpus omni ex parte carnem præ ſe fert. Sentit & manum admotam corripit, adhæreſcitque perinde ac polypus, ſuis brachiis, ita vt caro intumeſcat. Os medio in corpore continet, & de ſaxo quaſi de teſta viuit, & prænatantes piſciculos excipit, retinétque, ſicut manu admota hominis agi dictum eſt, deuorát- D que in hunc modum quæcunque nacta eſt eſculenta. Abſolui etiam ſaxis genus quoddam vrticæ (vt modò dixi) notatum eſt, quod & echinos, & pectunculos, in quos offenderit, corrodit. Excrementum nulla in vrtica eſſe videtur, ſed hac re ſimilis ſtirpibus eſt. Duplex genus percipitur vrticarum: alterum corpore paruo, quod cibo aptius eſt: alterum maiuſculo, duróque, quale circa Euboiæ Chalcidem gigni ſcimus. Sunt omnes hybernis menſibus carne conſtante, atque rigidiuſcula: quamobrem per id tempus capiuntur, cibóque idoneæ ſunt. At æſtate rareſcunt, & reſoluuntur: præmadent enim, & marcent, vt, E ſi tetigeris, facilè diſcerpantur, atque diſpereant. Denique nulla tantiſper euelli integra poteſt, ac æſtus impatientia ſaxa ſubire interiùs ſolent. Partes iam expoſui mollium, & vel cruſta, vel teſta intectorum, tam exteriores, quàm interiores.

Τὰ δὲ καλούμενα τήθυα, τούτων πάντων ἔχει τὴν φύσιν περιττοτάτην. κέκρυπται γὰρ αὐτῶν μόνον τὸ σῶμα ἐν τῷ ὀστράκῳ πᾶν· τὸ δὲ ὄστρακόν ἐστι μεταξὺ δέρματος καὶ ὀστράκου· διὸ καὶ τέμνεται ὥσπερ βύρσα σκληρά. προσπέφυκε μὲν οὖν ταῖς πέτραις τῷ ὀστράκῳ. δύο δ᾽ ἔχει πόρους ἀπέχοντας ἀπ᾽ ἀλλήλων, πάμπαν μικρούς, καὶ οὐ ῥᾳδίους ἰδεῖν· ᾗ ἀφίησι τὸ ὑ- B γρὸν, καὶ δέχεται· περίττωμα γὰρ οὐδὲν ἔχει φανερὸν, ὥσπερ τῶν ἄλλων ὀστρέων, τὰ μὲν, ὥσπερ ἐχῖνος, τὰ δὲ, τὴν καλουμένην μήκωνα. διοιχθέντα δ᾽ ἔσωθεν, πρῶτον μὲν ὑμένα ἔχει νευρώδη περὶ τὸ σαρκῶδες· ἐν δὲ τούτῳ ἐστὶν αὐτὸ τὸ σαρκῶδες τοῦ τηθύου. οὐδενὶ δ᾽ ἐστὶν ὅμοιον τῶν ἄλλων· αὕτη μέντοι ἡ σὰρξ πᾶσιν ὁμοία. προσπέφυκε δὲ τοῦτο κατὰ δύο τόπους, τῷ ὑμένι, καὶ τῷ δέρματι ἐκ πλαγίου· καὶ ᾗ προσπέφυκε, ταύτῃ ἐστὶ στενώτερον ἐφ᾽ ἑκάτερα, εἰς τείνει πρὸς τοὺς πόρους, τοὺς ἔξω διὰ τοῦ ὀστράκου φέροντας, ᾗ ἀφίησι καὶ δέχεται τὴν τροφὴν καὶ τὸ ὑγρόν· ὡς ἂν εἰ τὸ μὲν, στόμα εἴη, τὸ δὲ, τῇ περιττώσει ἔξοδος. καὶ ἔστιν αὐτῶν τὸ μὲν, παχύτερον, τὸ δὲ, λε- C πτότερον. ἔσω δὲ κοῖλον ἐφ᾽ ἑκάτερα, καὶ διείργει μικρόν τι συνεχές. ἐν θατέρῳ δὲ τῶν κοίλων ἡ ὑγρότης ἐγγίνεται. ἄλλο δὲ οὐδὲν ἔχει μόριον, οὔτε ὀργανικὸν, οὔτε αἰσθητήριον, οὔτε, ὥσπερ ἐλέχθη πρότερον ἐν τοῖς ἄλλοις, τὸ περιττωματικόν. χρῶμα δὲ τοῦ τηθύου ἐστὶ τὸ μὲν, ὠχρόν· τὸ δ᾽, ἐρυθρόν. ἔστι δὲ καὶ τὸ τῶν * ἀκαλήφων γένος ἴδιον. προσπέφυκε μὲν γὰρ ταῖς πέτραις, ὥσπερ ἔνια τῶν ὀστρακοδέρμων· ἀπολύεται δ᾽ ἐνίοτε. οὐκ ἔχει δὲ ὄστρακον, ἀλλὰ σαρκῶδες τὸ σῶμα πᾶν ἐστιν αὐτῆς. αἰσθάνεται δὲ καὶ συναρπάζει προσφερομένης τῆς χειρὸς· καὶ προσέχεται, καθάπερ ὁ πολύπους ταῖς πλεκτάναις, οὕτως, ὥστε τὴν σάρκα ἐποιδεῖν. D ἔχει δὲ τὸ στόμα ἐν μέσῳ, καὶ ζῇ ἀπὸ τῆς πέτρας, ὥσπερ ἀπ᾽ ὀστρέου. καὶ ἄν τι προσπέσῃ τῶν μικρῶν ἰχθυδίων, ἀντέχεται ὥσπερ τῆς χειρὸς· οὕτω κἂν προσπέσῃ αὐτῇ ἐδώδιμον, κατεσθίει. καὶ ἀπολύεται δὲ γένος τι αὐτῶν· ὃ, ἄν τι προσπέσῃ, κατεσθίει καὶ ἐχίνους καὶ κτένας. περίττωμα δὲ οὐδὲν παντελῶς φαίνεται ἔχουσα, ἀλλ᾽ ὁμοία κατὰ τοῦτο τοῖς φυτοῖς. ἔστι δὲ γένη τῶν ἀκαλήφων δύο· αἱ μὲν, ἐλάττους, καὶ ἐδώδιμοι μᾶλλον· αἱ δὲ, μεγάλαι καὶ σκληραὶ, οἷαι γίνονται καὶ περὶ Χαλκίδα. τοῦ μὲν οὖν χειμῶνος τὴν σάρκα στιφρὰν E ἔχουσι· (διὸ καὶ θηρεύονται, καὶ ἐδώδιμοί εἰσι) τοῦ δὲ θέρους, ἀπόλλυνται. γίνονται γὰρ μαδαραί· καὶ ἄν τις θίγῃ, διασπῶνται ταχέως, καὶ ὅλως οὐ δύνανται ἀφαιρεῖσθαι· πονοῦσαί τε ταῖς ἀλέαις, εἰς τὰς πέτρας ἐνδύονται μᾶλλον. περὶ μὲν οὖν τῶν μαλακίων καὶ μαλακοστράκων καὶ ὀστρακοδέρμων, ὅσα ἔχουσιν ἐκτὸς μέρη, καὶ ὅσα ἐντὸς, εἴρηται.

CAPVT VII.

NVnc de inſectis pari ratione tractandum eſt. Continet genus vel ſpecies plures: quarum nonnullis, quamuis cognatis, nomen nullum commune eſt inditum, vt api, crabroni, veſpæ, cæteriſque generis eiuſdem. Item quibus pennæ vagina incluſæ, continentur, vt gallerucæ, fulloni, pilulario, & reliquis generis eiuſdem. Omnium ergo partes communes tres illas haberi conſtat, caput, aluum, & quod inter hæc ſitum eſt: quale in cæteris pectus dorſúmque habetur: vnum, id quod interiacet, magna ex parte eſt. Quæ tamen ſunt longa, & multipeda, iis ferè totidem ſunt, quæ interiacent, quot inciſuræ. Inſecta diuulſa etiam viuere poſſunt omnia, exceptis iis quæ vel admodum frigeant, vel præ ſua exiguitate quàm primùm refrigerentur. Nam veſpis quoque diuulſis, non deeſt viuacitas. Viuit ergo cum pectore, tum caput, tum etiam aluus: at ſine eo caput auulſum viuere non poteſt. Diutiùs ea viuunt diuulſa, quibus corpus longum pedéſque multi: & pars, quæ abſciſſa eſt, in vtrumque ſe mouet extremum: nam & caput verſus ingreditur, & in caudam: vt in iis quas vocant centipedas, moueri videmus. Oculi in omnibus patent: ſed nulla ex cæteris partibus ſenſoriis manifeſta eſt, præterquam lingua in nonnullis, quæ vel teſta intectis omnibus data eſt, qua & guſtant, & cibum attrahunt. Hæc aliis mollis infirmáque eſt: aliis dura, & valida, vt purpuris, tabanis, aſilis, atque aliis plurimis. Omnia enim, quibus non in aluo aculeus eſt, linguam eiuſmodi velvti arma gerunt: nec dentes habent, quibus iunctum id eſt, exceptis quibuſdam paucis. Nam & muſcæ eo ipſo pertingentes, cruorem mouent: & culices eodem acriùs pungunt. Habent aculeos item pleráque inſectorum, vel intus conditos, vt apes, & veſpæ: vel extrà prominentes, vt ſcorpio: qui etiam vnus inter inſecta longo ſpiculo armatur. Is brachia quinque biſulcis dentata forcipibus habet. Atque etiam beſtiola, quæ in libris ſimilis ſcorpioni creatur. Quæ autem in eo genere volucrum ſortiuntur naturam, iis præter cætera membra pennæ adnexæ, aliis binæ, vt muſcis, aliis quaternæ, vt apibus. Nullis binæ, quibus in aluo aculeus. Item ex volucribus ipſis, alia pennas cruſta ſuperueniente, quaſi vagina incluſas gerunt, vt ſcarabei: alia detectas habent, vt apes. Nullis volatus regitur gubernaculo caudæ: & penna ipſa nullo caule conſtat, nulla ſciſſura diſcernitur. Ad hæc, antennæ nonnullis ante oculos prætenduntur, vt papilioni, & fulloni. Quæ verò ex iis ſaliunt, hæc vel crura poſteriora habent longiora, vel gubernaculis quibuſdam ſaltui accommodatis fulciuntur retrò curuatis, vt crura quadrupedum. Omnibus partes corporis pronæ differunt à ſupinis, ſicut vel in cæteris animantibus eſt. Quod autem pro carne in iis habetur, id nec teſtam imitatur, neque quod in teſtaceis genus carnis continetur: ſed mediam quandam inter hæc refert naturam: quamobrem his non ſpinam, non os, non aliquid ſepio ſimile, non teſtam ambientem natura dedit: ipſum enim corpus ſe ſua duritia tueri poteſt, & ſeruare: nec eſt quod aliunde muniri deſideret. Cute omnia circundantur, ſed admodum tenui.

Partes inſectorum exteriores has eſſe, atque in hunc modum ſe habere conſtat. Intra ſinum ab ore, inteſtinum pluribus directum, ac ſimplex vſque ad exitum fertur. paucis id eſt replicatum. Viſcus nullum in iis, nullum pingue, ſicut neque in cæteris quæ ſanguine carent. Ventrem etiam nonnulla habere aduertimus, à quo reliquum inteſtinum vel ſimplex vel replicatum proficiſcitur: vt locuſtas. Cicada inter hæc, & omnino in animalium genere vna ore caret: prolixum quiddam compactum indiuiſumque gerit, ſimile ei quod linguæ ſpeciem refert, in iis quibus aculeus in ore, eóque ipſo rorem haurit, alimentum vnum, & peculiare. Excrementum cicadis nullum in aluo reperitur. Plura earum ſunt genera, quæ magnitudinis modo differunt: atque etiam quod aliis corpus ſub tranſuerſo ſepto præcinctum diſtinguitur, membranámque liquidò refert: vt iis quas ab argutioſo ſono, achetas appellarunt: aliis non ita eſt, vt cicadaſtris. Sunt vel in mari nonnulla animalia effigie inſolenti, & ſui generis: quæ quoniam rara inuentu ſint, conſtitui in genus non decet. Iam enim piſcatores vidiſſe ſe retulerunt quædam trabunculis proxima, pullo colore, tereti figura, pari ex toto craſſamento. Item alia ſcutorum effigie, colore rubro, pinnulis crebris. Ad hæc alia, quæ genitale viri imitarentur, tum ſpecie, tum magnitudine, ſed pennis ſubnexis binis loco teſtium, eiſque veretile nomen inditum eſt: exceptúmque eſt aliquando genus tale hamorum frequentia vſitata. Partes animalium omnium interiores exterioréſque generatim, tum propriæ, tum communes, ita ſe habent.

A τὰ μὲν οὖν ἔξωθεν αὐτῶν μόρια, τοιαῦτα, καὶ τοῦτον ἔχει τὸν τρόπον. ἐντὸς δὲ τοῦ κύτους, μετὰ τὸ στόμα ἔντερόν ἐστι, τοῖς μὲν πλείστοις εὐθὺ, καὶ ἁπλοῦν μέχρι τῆς ἐξόδου ἐστὶν, ὀλίγοις δὲ ἑλιγμὸν ἔχει. σπλάγχνον δὲ οὐδὲν ἔχει τῶν τοιούτων, οὐδὲ πιμελὴν, ὥσπερ οὐδὲ ἄλλο τῶν ἀναίμων οὐδέν. ἔνια δὲ ἔχει καὶ κοιλίαν, καὶ ἀπὸ ταύτης τὸ λοιπὸν ἔντερον ἢ ἁπλοῦν, ἢ εἰλιγμένον, ὥσπερ αἱ ἀκρίδες. ὁ δὲ τέττιξ, μόνον τῶν τοιούτων, καὶ τῶν ἄλλων δὲ ζώων, στόμα οὐκ ἔχει, ἀλλ' ὥσπερ τοῖς ἐμπροσθοκέντροις τὸ γλωττοειδὲς, τοῦτο μακρὸν καὶ συμφυὲς, καὶ ἀδιάσχιστον, δι' οὗ τῇ δρόσῳ τρέφεται μόνον· ἐν δὲ τῇ κοιλίᾳ οὐκ ἴσχει περίττωμα. ἔστι B δὲ αὐτῶν πλείω εἴδη, καὶ διαφέρουσι μεγέθει καὶ μικρότητι, καὶ τῷ τοὺς μὲν καλουμένους ἀχέτας ὑπὸ τὸ ὑπόζωμα διῃρῆσθαι, καὶ ἔχειν ὑμένα φανερόν· τὰ δὲ τεττιγόνια, μὴ ἔχειν. ἔστι δὲ ἔνια ζῷα περιττὰ καὶ ἐν τῇ θαλάττῃ· ἃ διὰ τὸ σπάνια εἶναι, οὐκ ἔστι θεῖναι εἰς γένος. ἤδη γάρ τινες φασὶ τῶν ἐμπειρικῶν ἁλιέων,* οἱ μὲν, ἑωρακέναι ἐν τῇ θαλάττῃ ὅμοια δοκοῖς, μέλανα, στρογγύλα τε καὶ ἰσοπαχῆ· ἕτερα δὲ, ἀσπίσιν ὅμοια, τὸ μὲν χρῶμα ἐρυθρὰ, πτερύγια δὲ ἔχοντα πυκνά· ἄλλα δὲ, ὅμοια αἰδοίῳ ἀνδρὸς, τό, τε εἶδος καὶ τὸ μέγεθος· πλὴν ἀντὶ τῶν ὄρχεων πτέρυγας ἔχειν δύο· καὶ λα- C βέσθαι ποτὲ τοιοῦτον τοῦ πολυαγκίστρου τῷ ἄκρῳ.

CAPVT VIII.

Quibus animalibus inſit ſentiendi vis.

NVnc de ſenſibus diſſerendum eſt. Non enim pariter in omnibus vis ineſt ſentiendi: ſed aliis ſenſus omnes, aliis pauciores dedit natura. Sunt ſanè ſenſus, qui plurimi habeantur, & ſupra quos nullum adeſſe alium generis ſui nouerimus, numero quinque, viſus, auditus, olfactus, guſtus, tactus. Homo igitur, & quæcunque terreſtrium animal generant, atque etiam quæ & ſanguinem habent, & animal pariunt, omnia hos omnes habere ſenſus videmus, niſi quid læſum laceſſitúmque ſit: quale genus talparum, cui viſus deeſt: non enim oculos in aperto id habet, cute tamen detracta, quæ craſſiuſcula obtenta ſedem luminum opacat, oculi intus laceſſiti imperfectique viſuntur: ſed ità, vt partes eaſdem habeant omnes, quibus oculi integri conſtant. Habent enim nigricantem illum orbiculum, & quod intra eum continetur, quam vocant pupillam, atque etiam portionis albidæ ambitionem: ſed non tam liquidò quàm oculi, conſpecti & eminentes. Nec in partem exteriorem apparere hæc poſſunt, propter cutis obductæ corpulentiam, vtpote cùm natura inter generandum lædatur, atque ita opus inchoatum relinquatur. Pertinent enim à cerebro, quà cum neruo coniungitur, meatus duo neruoſi validi ad ipſas oculorum ſedes, qui in dentes ſuperiores finiunt. Cætera igitur & colores, & ſonos ſentiunt, atque etiam odores ſaporéſque. Quintum autem ſenſuum, quem tactum appellamus, omnia habent animalium genera. Ergo in nonnullis vel ipſæ ſenſoriæ partes latiſſimè patet, ac præcipuè videndi.

A Nam viſui ſedes certa deſcriptáque eſt, atque etiam auditui: cùm aliis auriculæ promineant, aliis foramina pateant meatus audiendi. Olfactus item pari modo conſtitutum eſt diuerſorum. Nam auium generi foramina tantùm ſunt odorandi, cùm aliis permultis nares etiam habeantur. Similis & linguæ, partis ſaporum percipiendorum miniſtræ ratio eſt. Aquatilium tamen generi, quos piſces vocamus, data quidem eſt lingua, ſed imperfecta incertáque: oſſea enim, nec abſoluta. Sed palatum nonnullis carnoſum pro lingua eſt, velut inter fluuiales cyprino, ita vt niſi diligenter inſpexeris, lingua id eſſe videatur. Piſces autem ſenſum guſtus habere conſtat, eo quod multi ſuis quibuſdam ſaporibus gaudent, & eſcam in primis B ex piſce amia expetunt, & piſcium pingue, vt qui guſtatu eiuſmodi delectentur, voluptatémque ex eo genere eſculenti capiant. Auditus verò olfactúſve nullum continent membrum manifeſtum. Quod enim tale videri poteſt per loca narium, id non ad cerebrum vſque tranſmeat, ſed partim obſeptum & cæcum mox deſinit, partim ad branchias fertur. Audire tamen, atque olfacere piſces palam eſt: ſonos enim immodicos, vt triremium remigia, fugere viſuntur. Itaque fit vt facilè intra ſua ſtabula capiantur. Nam etſi externus ſtrepitus paruus eſt, iis tamen qui demerſum in humore ſuum auditum habent, æquè omnibus ingens, moleſtus, grauiſque occurrit: quod certè vel in delphinorum captura euenit. C Cùm enim piſcatores repentè alueis vniuerſum circundederint gregem delphinorum, inde obſtrepentes in mare, efficiunt vt territi erumpant vniuerſi in litora, capiantúrque, tentato grauatóque capite, præ ſtrepitus inflicti nimietate: quanquam ne in delphinis quidem pars vlla eſt manifeſta, quæ ſenſum miniſtret audiendi. Ad hæc, inter piſcandum quàm maximè cauent, ne vel remo vel retibus moueant ſtrepitum: ſed cùm aliquo in loco gregatim piſces ſtabulari intellexerint, certo interuallo conjectantes r.tia demittunt, vt neque remo, neque impetu cymbæ ſtrepitus ad locum deueniat piſcium: & omnibus præcipitur nautis ſilentio quàm maximo nauigent, dum gregem circundant. D Nonnunquam vbi aggregare piſces placuerit, idem faciunt quod in delphinorum captura: obſtrepunt enim iactis lapidibus, vt deterriti in arctius coeant, atque ita vniuerſi irretiantur: & antequam circunueniant, omnem, vt modò dixi ſtrepitum vetant: at cùm circundatum iam eſt, clamandum obſtrependúmque iubent: ſtrepitum enim tumultúmque ſentientes perterriti compelluntur, interrumpúntque incauti. Item vbi piſcatores è longinquo piſces agminatim paſcentes, ac per tranquilli ſerenique maris ſumma oberrantes aſpexere, libuítque magnitudinem genúſque cognoſcere, ſi ſilentio ſenſimque E acceſſerint, latent, ſupernatantéſque adhuc comperiunt. At ſi quem priùs, quàm occuparint, ſtrepitum citarint, fugam inde planè arripere videntur. Addo etiam piſciculos fluuiatiles cottos nomine, qui ſub ſaxis ſtabulantur. Capiuntur enim à nonnullis ſaxo percuſſo, ſub quo latent: protinus enim inde exturbantur, vt qui audiant, & caput per ſtrepitũ tententur. Piſces igitur audire, iis ac aliis eiuſmodi documentis conſtat.

Sunt autem qui vel maximè animalium piſces auditu valere arbitrentur, videlicet hominum experimento, qui aſſiduè in mari verſantur, remque piſcatoriam percallent. Sunt verò qui liquidiùs inter piſces audiant, mugilis, chromis, lupus, ſalpa, & reliqui id genus. Cætera piſcium genera minùs audiunt: quam ob rem imis gurgitibus verſari potiùs ſolent. Olfactus quoque ſimilis intelligitur ratio: eſcam enim non recentem attingere pars plurima piſcium recuſat: nec eiſdem eſcarum generibus omnes capiuntur, ſed varijs, ſcilicet ſui agnitione odoris: quippe cùm vel fœtida nonnullis accommodentur, vt ſalpæ ſtercus. Complures item piſcium in ſpeluncis latentes, quoties euocare captum piſcator voluit, fauces ſpecus odoribus illinunt cetariis, itàque protinus excitant. Anguillam item hoc eodem capi modo palàm eſt. Vas enim ſalſamentarium ponunt, obſtaculo in eius os indito, quod colum vocant. Nidores denique potiùs genera quæque piſcium appetunt: vnde etiam carunculas ſepiarum deuſtas, odoris gratia eſcam hamis affigunt: ita enim fit vt piſces auidiùs accedant. Polypos etiam aſſatos, non niſi nidoris cauſa naſſis inditos dimitti aſſeuerant. Quinetiam flutæ quoties vel piſcium lotura, vel nauis ſentina eiecta eſt, fugiunt, vt odorem ſentientes. Sanguinem quoque ſuum ſagaciter piſces odorari dicuntur. Quæ res eo patet argumento, quòd quoties ſanguis effuſus piſcium eſt, fugiunt, & loca petunt longinqua. Omnino vt eſca putrida naſſis iniecta, nunquam ſubire, aut appropinquare patiuntur: ſic recente nidorulentáque, protinus vel è longinquo feſtinantes irrumpunt. Conſtant hæc eadem in delphinorum genere latiùs: cùm enim nullam partem auditui deputatam apertè delphini habent, tamen capiuntur per ſtrepitum capite aggrauato, vt dictum iam eſt. Et cùm olfactus quoque partem nullam ſenſoriam habeant manifeſtam, tamen ſagaciter odorantur. His igitur in animalibus ſenſus ineſſe omnes, apertum iam eſt. Reliquus animantium ordo, qui quadripartitò diuiditur, hoc eſt, molli, cruſtato, teſtato, inſecto, quemadmodum ſe habeat, videamus. Ergo, mollia, & quæ vel cruſta vel teſta operiuntur, atque etiam inſecta, ſenſibus prædita eſſe omnibus conſtat: nam & viſu, & olfactu, & guſtu. Inſecta enim tam pennata quàm non pennata, procul ſentiunt, vt mel apes, & culices dicti muliones. Quod niſi odore agnoſcerent, nunquam è longinquo ſentirent. Sulphuris item odore genera inſectorum multa intereunt. Ad hæc formicæ, origani ſulphuriſque puluiſculo inſperſo, ſuas relinquunt cauernas, alióque migrant. Cornus præterea ceruini facto incenſu, plurima inſectorum pars fugiunt: ſed præcipuè ſtyracis ſuffitu. Iam ſepiæ, polypi, gammari, odore eſcarum allectati capiuntur: & polypi quidem ita adhæreſcunt, vt auelli inde non poſſint, ſed truncari potiùs patiantur. At verò pulicaria herba admota, protinus ab odore eius reſilire dicuntur. Guſtus etiam ſimilis ratio: interdum enim cibum perſequuntur diuerſum, nec eiſdem ſaporibus omnia delectantur. Nam apes nullam ad rem putidam ſolent aduolare, sed dulcia petunt: culices nulla dulcia gestiunt sed acida. Tactu verò sentire (quod etiam antè dixi) omnibus datum animantibus est. Quæ autem ſiliceo tegmine operiuntur, olfactum gustúmque habere constat, argumento escarum. Purpuris enim escas putidas purpurarij emoliuntur, & accedunt ipſæ ad eiusmodi escam à longe, vtpote odorantes. Sensus item saporum iis inesse, eisdem illis rationibus patet: sapore enim rerum earundem quæque delectantur, ad quas veniunt odoribus inuitatæ, quos gratos senserunt, & discreuerunt. Adde quod quæcunque os obtinent, iis & voluptas per saporum attrectationem euenit, & dolor. De visu & auditu quanquam nihil certi manifestique habemus, vngues tamen ad strepitum se subtrahere, inferiúsque subsidere cernuntur, quoties ferramentum sentiunt admoueri. Exiguo namque extant, reliquo autem toto corpore perinde ac in cubili, occuluntur. Pectines quoque admoto digito dehiscunt, mox comprimunt se vt cernentes. Narices item qui capiunt, non aduerso flatu, sed secundo adeunt, quoties escam persequuntur: nec voce vlla, sed silentio agunt, vtpote cùm & olfaciant, & audiant. Nec fieri posse aiunt, quin subterfugiant, si vox proferatur. Echinus, inter testacea genera quibus facultas ingrediendi est vertibula: glandésque, inter immobilia eiusdem generis, olfactum minimè habere videntur. Sensus ad hunc modum animalium generi natura dispensauit & tribuit.

CAPVT IX.

MOx quemadmodum vox se habeat, disseremus. Differt proculdubio vox à sono, & tertia his adnumeranda res est, locutio. Gutture parte vna vox agitur: quocirca quibus pulmo deest, iis nulla vocis emittendæ facultas est. Locutio non nisi vocis per linguam explanatio est. Vocales igitur literæ, à voce, & gutture, consonantes lingua & labris proferuntur: quibus literis omnem locutionē confici nulli dubium est. Quamobrem quibus animantium lingua libera, absolutáque nō est, ea neq; vocem emittunt, neque sermocinātur: at sonus edi vel aliis partibus potest. Ergo insectis animalibus, neque vocis neque locutionis vlla facultas: sonúsque iis spiritu interiore mouetur, non exteriore. Nullum enim ex iis spirat, sed alia murmur edunt, vt apes: alia canere dicuntur, vt cicadæ. Omnia verò in eo genere membrana, septo transuerso subdita, qua præcinctū corpus distinguitur, sonant: vt genus cicadarum attritu spiritus. Muscæ etiam, apes, & reliqua iis similia, cùm volant, sese attollunt, & contrahunt. Sonus enim attritus interioris spiritus est. Locustæ suis gubernaculis atterentes sonant: nullum molle, nullum crustatum, vel vocem vel sonum aliquem mittit naturalem. Pisces vocis quidem expertes sunt: quippe qui neque pulmonem, neque arteriam, aut guttur obtineant: sed sonos quosdam stridorésque mouent, qui vocales esse existimantur, vt lyra, vt chromis: his enim quasi grunnitus quidam emittitur. Aper etiam piscis, quem amnis Achelous gignit, vocalis habitus est, & erica, & cuculus. Alter enim quodam modo strides, alter perinde vt cuculus auis obstrepit, vnde nomen accepit. Quæ omnia creditam illam vocem emittunt, aut attritu branchiarū, quas horridiuſculas continent, aut ſuis interioribus, quæ circa ventrem habentur: ſpiritus enim incluſus in his eſt, quem dum atterunt atque agitãt, ſonos illos elidunt. Necnon cartilaginei generis nonnulla ſtridere videntur: verùm ab his vocem emitti vllam, rectè dici non poteſt: at ſonum, ſiue ſtrepitũ reddi, veriùs dixeris. Nam & pectines quoties per ſumma humoris nitibundi feruntur, quod volitare dicunt, ſtridere ſentiuntur: atque etiã marinæ hirundines, quæ ſublimes volitant, haudquaquam mare attingentes: ſunt enim iis pennæ latæ, & longæ. Vt igitur per volatum auium ſtrepitus, quem alæ excutiunt, nulla vox eſt: ita nec eiuſmodi ſonorum aliquis vox iure appelletur. Delphinus item ſtridet, ac mutit, efferens ſe in aërem: ſed non quemadmodum ea quæ ſuperiùs enumeraui. Hic enim & pulmonem, & arteriam habet, proindeque nonnihil vocis poteſt promouere: lingua tamen libera abſolutaque caret, & labris, quibus vocis aliquem poſſit articulum efformare. At verò quæ & linguam habent, & pulmonem, ſi quadrupedes, aut omnino pedeſtres ouiparæ ſunt, vocem quidem emittunt, ſed exilem. Et alia longum ſibilum edunt, vt ſerpentes: alia abruptum, & perexiguum, vt teſtudines: alia vocem exilem atque imbecillem. Ranis lingua ſui generis eſt. Pars enim prima, quæ cæteris abſoluta eſt, iis cohæret, modo quo tota ferè piſcium: intima verò abſoluta ad guttur applicatur, qua ſuam vocem ſolent emittere. Et quidem genus illud vlulatus, quam ololyginem nominant, mares intra aquam reddunt, vt cieant ad coitum fœminas. Sunt enim ſingulis animalium voces propriæ ad initum, & venereum coitum: vt & ſuibus, & capris, & ouibus. Reddunt ranæ ſuam ololyginem illam, maxillæ inferioris labro demiſſo pari libra, cum aqua modicè recepta in fauces, ſuperioréque intenta. Flagrant tantiſper oculi modo lucernæ, cùm ſinus buccarum maxillis diſtentis interlucear. Coitum enim noctu magna ex parte agere viſuntur. Genus auium vocem mittere poteſt: iiſque præcipuè facultas conficiendæ locutionis, quibus lingua mediocriter lata, vel tenuis. Mares ac fœminæ partim vocem reddũt eandẽ, partim diuerſam. Garrulæ linguacioreſque ſunt auiũ minores: & circa coitum maximè talem effici vnamquãque auem moris eſt. aliis in pugna vox, vt coturnicibus: aliis ante pugnam, vt perdicibus, dum ſuos aduerſarios prouocant: aliis cùm vicere, vt gallinaceis. Canunt item nonnulli mares perinde vt ſuæ fœminæ: ſicvt in luſciniarum genere patet. Fœmina tamen ceſſat cantu, cùm incubat, pullóſque educat. Sed in nonnullis generibus cantus maribus tantùm datus eſt, vt gallinaceis, vt coturnicibus. Quadrupedum autem genus, quod animal procreat, vocem variè mittit: neque eſt quod loqui poſſit, ſed propriũ id hominis eſt. Quibus enim locutio, iis etiam vox: at quibus vox, non iis omnibus & locutio eſt. Qui ſurdi iam inde ab ortu naturæ ſunt, iidem etiam muti: vocem ergo emittere poſſunt, locutionem autem nullam. Pueri vt cætera ſua membra continere, ac regere nequeunt, ſic etiam linguæ ſunt impotentes, & quidem imperfecti, & ſeriùs lingua abſoluuntur: itaque magna ex parte balbutiunt, torti que lingua ſunt. Differunt tum voces, tum etiam locutiones, tractus ratione, & regionis. Vox igitur acumine grauitatéque maximè noteſcit: nec ſpecies diſcrepant generis eiuſdem. at vox explanata, quam eſſe quaſi locutionem vel brutorum dixeris, Περὶ δὲ ὕπνου καὶ ἐγρηγόρσεως τῶν ζῴων, ὅτι ὅσα πεζὰ καὶ ἔναιμα, πάντα καθεύδει καὶ ἐγρηγορεῖ, φανερὸν ποιοῦσι κατὰ τὴν αἴσθησιν. πάντα γὰρ ὅσα ἔχει βλεφαρίδας, μύοντα ποιεῖται τὸν ὕπνον. ἔτι δ' ἐνυπνιάζειν φαίνονται οὐ μόνον ἄνθρωποι, ἀλλὰ καὶ ἵπποι, καὶ κύνες, καὶ βόες· ἔτι δὲ πρόβατα καὶ αἶγες, καὶ πᾶν τὸ τῶν ζῳοτόκων καὶ τετραπόδων γένος. δηλοῦσι δὲ οἱ κύνες τῷ ὑλαγμῷ. περὶ δὲ τῶν ᾠοτοκούντων τοῦτο μὲν ἄδηλον· ὅτι δὲ καθεύδουσι, φανερόν. ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τὰ ἔνυδρα, οἷον οἵ τε ἰχθύες, καὶ τὰ μαλάκια καὶ τὰ μαλακόστρακα, κάραβοί τε, καὶ τὰ τοιαῦτα. βραχύυπνα μὲν οὖν ἐστιν ἅπαντα τὰ τοιαῦτα, φαίνεται δὲ καθεύδοντα. σημεῖον δὲ κατὰ μὲν τὰ ὄμματα λαβεῖν οὐκ ἔστιν, (οὐδὲν γὰρ ἔχει βλέφαρα) ἀλλὰ ταῖς ἀτρεμίαις. ἁλίσκονται γὰρ οἱ ἰχθύες, εἰ μὴ διὰ τοὺς φθεῖρας καὶ τοὺς λεγομένους ψύλλους, κἂν ὥστε τῇ χειρὶ λαμβάνειν ῥᾳδίως· νῦν δ', ἂν χρονίσωσιν, οὗτοι τῆς νυκτὸς κατεσθίουσι περιεστῶτες, πολλοὶ τὸ πλῆθος ὄντες. γίνονται δὲ ἐν τῷ βυθῷ τῆς θαλάσσης, καὶ τοσοῦτοι τὸ πλῆθος, ὥστε καὶ τὸ δέλεαρ, ὅταν ἰχθύος ᾖ, ἂν χρονίσῃ ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς, κατεσθίουσι· καὶ ἀνέλκουσι πολλάκις οἱ ἁλιεῖς περὶ τὸ δέλεαρ, ὥσπερ σφαῖραν συνεχομένων αὐτῶν. ἀλλ' ἐκ τῶν τοιούτων μᾶλλόν ἐστι τεκμαίρεσθαι ὅτι καθεύδουσι. πολλάκις γάρ ἐστιν ἐπιπεσόντα τοὺς ἰχθῦς λαθεῖν οὕτως, ὥστε καὶ τῇ χειρὶ λαβεῖν, ἢ πατάξαντα λαθεῖν. ὑπὸ δὲ τὸν καιρὸν τοῦτον ἠρεμοῦσι σφόδρα, καὶ κινοῦσιν οὐθέν, πλὴν ἠρέμα τὸ οὐραῖον. δῆλον δὲ γίνεται ὅτι καθεύδει, καὶ ταῖς φοραῖς, ἄν τι κινηθῇ ἡσυχαζόντων. φέρεται γὰρ ὡς ἐξ ὕπνου ὄντα. ἔτι δ' ἐν ταῖς πέτραις ἁλίσκεται, διὰ τὸ καθεύδειν. πολλάκις δὲ καὶ οἱ θυννοσκόποι περιβάλλονται καθεύδοντας. δῆλον δ' ἐκ τοῦ ἡσυχάζοντας, καὶ τὰ λευκὰ ὑποφαίνοντας, ἁλίσκεσθαι. καθεύδουσι δὲ τῆς νυκτὸς μᾶλλον ἢ τῆς ἡμέρας οὕτως, ὥστε βαλλόντων μὴ κινεῖσθαι. τὰ δὲ πλεῖστα καθεύδουσιν, ἢ τῆς ἄμμου, ἢ τῆς γῆς, ἢ λίθου τινὸς ἐχόμενοι ἐν τῷ βυθῷ, ἢ ἀποκρύψαντες ὑπὸ πέτραν ἢ θῖνα ἑαυτούς.

A differt & cæterorum animalium,& eorum quę genere eodem continentur loci ratione. Verbi gratia: perdicum alij caccabant, alij ſtrident. Iam verò luſciniam modulos ſuos pullos docere, verſúſque quos imitarentur, tradere viſa eſt: vtpote cùm non perinde locutio vt vox per naturam proueniret, ſed acquiri poſſet per diſciplinam, & ſtudium. Vnde homines quoque locutione vtuntur varia, cùm vocem omnes reddant eandem. Elephantus citra nares ore ipſo vocem elidit ſpirabundam, quemadmodum cùm homo ſimul & ſpiritum reddit, & loquitur: at per nares ſi-

CAPVT X.

De ſomno, & vigilia animalium, multáque præter hominem animalia ſomniare.

De ſomno & vigilia animantium, nulla quæſtionis obſcuritas eſt. Nam omnia pedeſtria & prædita ſanguine, dormire ac vigilare, ſenſu ipſo percipimus. Quibus enim palpebræ adiunctæ ſunt, conniuendo obdormiſcunt. Item ſomniare non ſolùm homines, ſed etiam equos, & canes, & boues palàm eſt: atque etiam oues &
C capras: denique genus omne quadrupedum, idemque animalis fœcundum. Declarant id canes ſub latratu, quem per quietem agunt. Quanquam de iis quæ oua pariunt, incertum hoc eſt: ſed dormire ea item certum. Aquatilium quoque ſomnus apparet, vt piſcium mollium, & cruſtâ opertorum, locuſtarum, inquam, & cæterorum generis eiuſdem. Sunt autem iſthæc omnia ſomno exiguo contenta: dormire tamen videntur. Argumentum verò quamuis nullum deduci ab oculis poteſt, quia palpebris carent: ipſa tamen quiete cernuntur placida, ſeu ſoporata. Piſces enim vel manu facilè caperentur, dum dormiunt, niſi pediculis, & pulicibus appellatis ſolicitarentur:
D nunc verò ſi ſomno dati immorentur, noctu abinnumera multitudine illarum beſtiolarum occupati abſumuntur. Gignuntur hæc in profundo maris tanta fœcunditate, vt etiam eſcam de piſce emolitam, ſi diu in imo manſerint, totam corrodant, atque abſumant. Et quidem ſæpenumero piſcator eſcam demiſſam glomeratis vndique his beſtiolis, perinde vt pilam recipit. Sed enim piſces dormire argumentis potiùs huiuſcemodi arbitrari licet. Sæpius enim piſcator adortus piſces vſque adeo latet, vt poſſit etiam manu tollere, aut certè fuſcina pulſo indice ſenſu ferire. Quieſcunt tantiſper ex toto: neque parte alia quàm cauda leuiter mouentur. Conſtat hoc idem vel ipſo impetu, quem faciunt, ſi
E dum quieſcunt, motum aliquid fuerit: expauentes enim velut ſomno excuſſi auferuntur. Quinetiam in petris ſtabulantes capiuntur, videlicet propter ſomnum. Et ſępe thunnarij circunretiunt thunnos dormientes: quod argumento conſtat, quia admodum quieſcentes, leuitérque pandentes albida oculorum capiuntur. Noctu potiùs quàm interdiu dormiunt, ita ſopiti, vt ne iacta quidem fuſcina moueantur. Et magna ex parte vel ad arenam, vel ad terram, vel ad lapidem aliquem procùbentes quieſcũt imis gurgitibus, vel ſub ſaxo, aut litore abditi.

Plani autem piſcium arena ſeſe occultant. Deprehenduntur ſitu ipſius arenæ, tolluntúrque fuſcina percuſſi. Lupi quoque & auratæ, & mugiles, & id genus alij, fuſcina interdiu ſæpenumero dormientes capiuntur: alioqui ex iis nullus fuſcina poſſe capi exiſtimatur. Cartilaginea vero ita interdum dormiunt, vt vel manu tollantur. nam delphini, balænæ, & quæcunque fiſtulam gerunt, edita per ſumma æquoris fiſtula dormiunt: qua etiam ſpirant, pinnas ſuas mouendo leuiter. Iam delphinum ſtertentem etiam nonnulli audiere. Mollia quoque ad morem ſimilem dormiunt, vt piſces, nec ſecus quæ cruſta operiuntur. Inſecta etiam animalium dormire argumentum, quod requiem capiunt, motúque omni proculdubio ceſſant. Quod præcipuè patet in apibus: quieſcunt enim noctu, & conticeſcunt, vt nullus omnino bombus ſentiatur. Conſtat hoc idem vel argumento eorum quæ maximè in conſpectu noſtro, & intra noſtros parietes verſantur. Non enim modo quia clare non videant, idcirco noctu quieſcunt (nam omnia, quibus oculi duri, exiliter vident) ſed etiam ad lucernarum lucem nihilo minus quieſcere videntur. Homo maximè animalium ſomniat. Editis nuper in lucem, & infantibus adhuc, nullum penitus contrahitur ſomnium: ſed plurimis anno circiter quarto, aut quinto ætatis, viſa incipiunt. Produntur tamen & viri, & mulieres, qui nunquam quicquam ſomniarint. Quorum nonnullis in proceſſu ætatis accidit, vt viſo ſomnio mutarentur habitu ſui corporis, vel in mortem, vel in morbum. De ſenſu, de vigilia, de ſomno res ita ſe habet.

CAPVT XI.

De ſexu maſculino, fœmineóque, eorumque in animantibus differentiis.

SExus autem maſculinus, fœmininuſque, non in omnibus animantibus eſt. Sunt enim quibus id deeſt, ut ſimilitudine quadam & parere dicantur, & ferre vterum. Sexus ergo diſcrimen in animalibus, quæ vitam ſtabilem viuunt, aut omnino in iis quæ teſta integuntur, nullum omnino eſt. at in mollibus & cruſta opertis, mas habetur, & fœmina. In pedeſtribus quoque tum bipedibus, tum quadrupedibus, ſexus vterque eſt: atque etiam in iis quæ animal per coitum generant, aut ouum aut vermem. Cæteris igitur in generibus ſimplici rationis modo, aut eſt, aut deeſt: verbi cauſa, vt in quadrupedibus omnibus, alterum mas, alterum fœmina eſt: ſic in teſta opertis ſexus deeſt diſcrimen. ſed quemadmodum in genere ſtirpium, aliæ fructum ferunt, aliæ ſterilem ſortiuntur naturam, ita etiam in iis eſt. at vero in genere inſectorum, & piſcium, ſunt quæ omnino ſexus hoc diſcrimen alterutram in partem non habeant. Nam anguilla neque mas neque fœmina eſt, neque prolem ex ſe aliquam poteſt procreare: ſed qui eam capillamentis, & lubricis quædam ſimilia interdum adnexa ſibi gerentem vidiſſe aiunt, inconſiderate id afferunt, antè quam aduertant qua parte illa gerantur. Neque enim aliquid eiuſmodi eſt, quod animal creet, niſi prius generarit ouum: quod in nulla anguilla viſum eſt. Et quæ animal gignunt, ſuo in vtero fœtum continent non in ventriculo. Ita enim non ſecus quam cibus, concoquerentur primordia genituræ. Quam autē differentiam maris & fœminæ anguillæ notarunt,

A scilicet alteram caput habere amplius, atque oblongius: alteram, hoc eſt, fœminam, repandius: hæc non maris ac fœminæ differẽtia eſt, ſed generis. Sunt enim piſcium nonnulli epitragæ ab hirci ſterilitate appellati: quo in genere cyprini, & balagri ex amnicis annotantur, [illegible] ouum, nec ſemen vllum profluentium habeant, ſed qui ſolidiores pinguioreſque in eo genere ſunt, iis inteſtinum paruum eſt, & hi ſunt præcipua in paſtu. Ad hæc, in teſtaceis, atque in ſtirpibus quod pariat, & generet, eſt: quod autem maris fungatur officio, deeſt. Sic etiam inter piſces genus paſſerum eſt, & rubelliorum, & hiatularum: oua enim in iis omnibus reperiun-
B tur. Sed in pedeſtribus ſanguineis non ouiparis, maxima ex parte maiores, longioriſque vitæ ſunt mares quam fœminæ: præter quam in genere mulorum: eius enim fœminæ & maiores ſunt & viuaciores, quam mares. at in iis quæ aut ouum pariunt, aut vermem, vt piſcibus atque inſectis, fœminæ maiores ſuis maribus euadunt, vt ſerpentes, phalangia, ſtelliones, ranæ, & inter piſces puſilli cartilaginei generis, & pari plurima gregalium, & genus omne ſaxatile. Fœminas autem piſcium maribus eſſe viuaciores conſtat, eo quod fœminæ vetuſtiores quam mares capiuntur. Partes ſuperiores prioreſque in quo-

LIBER V.

CAPVT I.

Omnium animantium generis partitio.

EXpoſui partes animalium omniũ, tum interiores, tum exteriores: atque etiam de ſenſibus, de voce, de ſomno, & quæ fœminæ mareſve B ſint, ſatis iam explicaſſe exiſtimo. Reſtat, vt eorumdem generationes perſequamur: exorſique item à primis, ordine apto & commodo diſſeramus. Sunt porrò generationes animalium multæ, ac variæ: partim diſſimiles, partim quodammodo ſimiles. Sed cùm genera antè, vt res exigit, digeſſerimus, nunc quoque eodem modo tractare tentemus, præterquam quod initium tunc ab homine, cùm de partibus ageremus, ſumendum cenſuimus: nunc de eo nouiſſimè diſſerere placet, quoniam plurima ipſe de ſe afferat explicanda. Ergo ordiendum ab iis eſt quę teſta integuntur: mox de iis quæ cruſta ambit, agendum. Et reliqua deinceps ad hunc modum C exponenda ſunt, hoc eſt, mollia, & inſecta. Deinde piſcium genus duplex, ouiparum dico, atque viuiparum. Tum auium genus. Ad poſtremum de pedeſtri dicendum eſt: quo in genere quæ animal generent, quæ oua pariant, prætermittenda non ſunt. Euenit vt commune animalia cum ſtirpibus habeant, quòd alia ſemine, alia ſponte naturæ oriantur. Vt enim ſtirpes aut ſemine ſtirpium aliarum proueniunt, aut ſponte erumpunt, primordio quodam contracto ad ortum idoneo, quarum aliæ ex terra alimentum ſibi hauriunt, aliæ in ſtirpibus aliis & naſci & augeri ſolent, vt in libris de ſtirpibus ſiue plantis expoſuimus: ſic animalia naſci alia ex animalibus ſolent per formę co- D gnationem, alia ſponte, nullo cognationis ſemine antecedente, creantur. quorum alia humo, aut ſtirpe putreſcente conſiſtunt, vt complura inſecta generantur: alia in animalibus ipſis excrementiſque partium gignuntur. Quæ igitur niſi ſui cognati ſemine nunquam procreentur, iis omnibus ortus per coitum eſt, dummodo ſexus diſcrimen id habeant, quod marem ac fœminam deſcribere poteſt. Nam in piſcium genere, nonnulla nec mares nec fœminæ gignuntur: quæ licèt genus idem cum aliis ſortiantur, tamen ſpecie differunt. Quædam etiam ſui generis omnino conſiſtunt. Nec deſunt quæ mare vidua, ſexu vno fœmineo formētur: quæ perinde, vt aues, pariunt, quæ vento oua concipiũt: E quibus ab argumento conceptus, nomen hypenemia, quaſi ſubuentanea, inditum eſt. Verùm ea quæ aues concipiunt, omnia ſunt infœcunda. Ita enim eorum natura nihil vltra ouum creare poteſt, niſi quo alio modo maris opera contingat. Sed de his diligentiùs pòſt diſſeremus. Piſcium verò nonnullis cùm ſpontina ediderint oua, euenit vt ex iis animal progeneretur. Sed alia ex ſe ipſa id faciunt, alia non ſine opera maris: vt de his quoque ſequenti diſputatione cōmentabimur planiùs.

Ὀχεύεται μὲν οὖν ταῦτα τῶν ζῴων, ἐν οἷς ὑπάρχει τὸ θῆλυ καὶ τὸ ἄρρεν. εἰσὶ δὲ αἱ ὀχεῖαι, οὐθὲν ὅμοιαι πᾶσιν, οὐδ' ὁμοίως ἔχουσαι. τὰ μὲν γὰρ ζῳοτόκα καὶ πεζὰ τῶν ἐναίμων, ἔχει μὲν ὄργανα πρὸς τὴν τοιαύτην πρᾶξιν ἅπαντα τὰ ἄρρενα τὴν γεννητικήν· οὐ μὴν ὁμοίως γε πάντα πλησιάζουσιν· ἀλλὰ τὰ μὲν ὀπισθουρητικὰ, συνιόντα πυγηδὸν, οἷον λέοντες, καὶ δασύποδες, καὶ λύγκες. τῶν δασυπόδων δὲ πολλάκις ἡ θήλεια προτέρα ἀναβαίνει ἐπὶ τὸν ἄρρενα. τῶν δ' ἄλλων, τῶν μὲν πλείστων, ὁ αὐτὸς τρόπος. τὸν ἐνδεχόμενον γὰρ ποιοῦνται συνδυασμὸν τὰ πλεῖστα τῶν τετραπόδων, ἐπιβαίνοντος ἐπὶ τὸ θῆλυ τοῦ ἄρρενος· καὶ τὸ τῶν ὀρνίθων ἅπαν γένος, οὕτω τε καὶ μοναχῶς. εἰσὶ δὲ διαφοραί τινες καὶ περὶ τοὺς ὄρνιθας. τὰ μὲν γὰρ * συγκαθείσης τῆς θηλείας ἐπὶ τὴν γῆν, ἐπιβαίνει τὸ ἄρρεν, ὥσπερ αἱ νεοττίδες καὶ οἱ ἀλεκτρυόνες· τὰ δὲ, οὐ συγκαθείσης τῆς θηλείας, οἷον καὶ οἱ γέρανοι. ἐν τούτοις γὰρ ὁ ἄρρην * ἐπιπηδῶν ὀχεύει τὴν θήλειαν, καὶ συγγίνεται ὥσπερ τὰ στρουθία ὀξέως. τῶν δὲ τετραπόδων, αἱ ἄρκτοι, παρακεκλιμέναι τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον, ὅνπερ καὶ τὰ ἄλλα ἐπὶ τῶν ποδῶν ποιούμενα τὴν ὀχείαν, πρὸς τὰ πρανῆ τῶν θηλειῶν τὰ ὕπτια τῶν ἀρρένων. οἱ δὲ χερσαῖοι ἐχῖνοι, ὀρθοὶ τὰ ὕπτια πρὸς ἄλληλα ἔχοντες. τῶν δὲ ζῳοτόκων καὶ μεγέθη ἐχόντων, οὔτε τοὺς ἄρρενας ἐλάφους αἱ θήλειαι ὑπομένουσιν, εἰ μὴ ὀλιγάκις. οὔτε τοὺς ταύρους αἱ βόες, διὰ τὴν τοῦ αἰδοίου συντονίαν, ἀλλ' ὑπάγοντα τὰ θήλεα δέχονται τὴν γονήν. καὶ γὰρ ἐπὶ τῶν ἐλάφων ὦπται τοῦτο συμβαῖνον, τῶν γε τιθασῶν. λύκος δὲ ὀχεύει τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον ὥσπερ κύων. αἱ δ' αἴλουροι, οὐκ ὄπισθεν συνιόντες, ἀλλ' ὁ μὲν, ὀρθὸς, ἡ δὲ θήλεια, ὑποτιθεῖσα ἑαυτήν. εἰσὶ δὲ τῇ φύσει αἱ θήλειαι ἀφροδισιαστικαὶ, καὶ προσάγονται τοὺς ἄρρενας εἰς τὰς ὀχείας, καὶ συνοῦσαι * κράζουσιν. αἱ δὲ κάμηλοι ὀχεύονται, τῆς θηλείας καθημένης· περιβεβηκὼς δὲ ὁ ἄρρην ὀχεύει οὐκ ἀντίπυγος, ἀλλὰ καθάπερ καὶ τὰ ἄλλα τετράποδα· καὶ διημερεύει τὸ μὲν, ὀχεῦον, τὸ δ' ὀχευόμενον. ἀποχωροῦσι δὲ εἰς ἐρημίαν, ὅταν ποιῶνται τὴν ὀχείαν, καὶ οὐκ ἔστι πλησιάσαι, ἀλλ' ἢ τῷ βοσκοῦντι. τὸ δὲ αἰδοῖον ἔχει ὁ κάμηλος νευρῶδες οὕτως, ὥστε καὶ νευρὰν ἐκ τούτου ποιεῖσθαι τοῖς τόξοις. οἱ δὲ ἐλέφαντες, ὀχεύονται μὲν ἐν ταῖς ἐρημίαις, μάλιστα δὲ περὶ τοὺς ποταμοὺς, καὶ οὗ διατρίβειν εἰώθασιν. ὀχεύεται μὲν ἡ θήλεια, συγκαθίσασα καὶ διαβαίνουσα· ὁ δὲ ἄρρην, ἐπαναβαίνων ὀχεύει.

CAPVT II.

Quomodo quæque animalia generatim coeant.

Coitus nec ſimiles omnium ſunt, nec ſimilem in modum aguntur. Quæ enim ex ſanguineis pedeſtria viuipara ſunt, eorum omnibus maſculis datum quidem eſt membrum ad officium generationis aptum. Verùm non omnia ſimili modo coniunguntur: ſed quæ retro vrinam mittunt, auerſa coeunt, vt leones, lepores, lynces: leporum etiam fœmina * ſæpenumero marem prior ſuperuenit. Cæterorum magna ex parte modus coeundi idem eſt. Plurimæ enim quadrupedes more coeunt iuſto, fœminam ſcilicet mare ſupergrediente. Genus quoque auium omne eodem illo ac ſimplici more coniungitur. Differentias autem vel in auibus has annotamus, vt aliæ fœmina conſidente humi, mare ſuperueniente coeant, vt gallinæ: aliæ non conſidente fœmina, ſed ſtante, vt grues. Et quæ ita coeunt, rem quàm celerrimè peragunt: mas enim ſuperſiliens citò, vt paſſeres, perficit. Quadrupedum vrſæ demiſſis cruribus, quemadmodum cætera, quæ pedibus innitendo exercent Venerem, admota parte maris ſupina, ad dorſum fœminę coeũt. Hermaceis coitus erectis partibus, ſupinis hærentibus ſibi aduerſis. Inter ea quæ animal generant, augentúrque magnitudine inſigni, nec ceruæ mares ſuos patiuntur niſi raro: nec vaccæ tauros, propter rigorem genitalis nimiámque tentiginem, ſed clunibus ſubſidentibus ſemen recipiunt genitale. Sic in ceruis manſuetis fieri viſum eſt. Lupi eodem coeunt modo, quo canes. Pedes non parte poſteriore ſe iungunt, ſed mas ſtat, fœmina ſubiacet. Sunt porro in eo genere fœminæ ipſæ natura libidinoſæ, & ſalaces: itaque mares ad coitum ipſæ frequentes alliciunt, inuitant, cogunt: puniunt etiam, niſi pareant. Cameli ſedente fœmina coeunt, nec auerſi, ſed complectente mare, vt cæteræ quadrupedes agunt, & coitum toto die exercent. Petunt receſſuum ſolitudines, cùm libet coire, nec aliquis eò poteſt tutò accedere, præterquam paſtor armenti. Genitale camelis neruo ita conſtat, vt vel ex eo confici poſſit quo arcus fidiſſimè intendatur. Elephanti etiam ſolitudines petunt coituri: ſed præcipuè ſecus flumina, & qua paſci cõſueuerũt. Subſidit fœmina, clunibúſq; ſubmiſſis inſiſtit pedibus, ac innititur. Mas ſuperueniẽs comprimit, atque ita munere Venereo fungitur.

CAPVT III.

Quomodo quadrupeda ouipara coeant.

QVin etiam pedeſtrium quadrupedes, quæ oua pariunt, eodem coeunt modo, quo ea quæ animal generant, mare ſuperueniente: vt teſtudo tã aquatilis quàm terreſtris. Habent verò in quod meatus contingant, & quo per coitum adhæreant, vt rana, & paſtinaca, & reliqua generis eiuſdem.

CAPVT IV.

De coitu eorum quæ pedibus carent, longóque ſunt corpore, id eſt, ſerpentum.

QVæ autem pedibus carent, & longo ſunt corpore, vt ſerpentes, vt murænæ, iis coitus circumplexu mutuo ſupinarum partium agitur. Et quidem ſerpentes ita circumvolutæ ſibi ipſæ cohærent, vt vnius ſerpentis bicipitis corpus, totum eſſe videatur. Hoc eodem modo lacertarum etiam genus complexu coit.

CAPVT V.

De coitu piſcium.

PIſces omnes, exceptis planis cartilaginei generis, admotis inuicem partibus ſupinis copulantur. Plani autem eius generis iidémque habentes caudam, vt raia, paſtinaca, & reliqua huiuſcemodi, non ſolùm admotis ſupinis, ſed etiam tergo fœminarum ſupinis marium ſuperpoſitis, modò cauda impedimento nullo ob craſſitudinem ſit, coeunt. at ſquatinæ, & quibuſcũque plenior cauda eſt, his attritu mutuo tantùm partium ſupinarum coitus agitur. Sunt qui ſe vidiſſe confirment nonnulla ex cartilagineis auerſa modo canum terreſtrium cohærere. Fœmina in omni cartilagineo genere maior, quàm mas eſt: quod idem ferè vel in cæteris generibus piſcium eſſe conſtat. Cartilaginea verò, præter ea quæ enumerauimus, ſunt, bos, lamia, aquila, torpedo, rana, omnéque genus muſtelorũ. Sed omnia cartilaginea hunc in modum coire apertiùs notatum à pluribus eſt: morantur enim in coeundo diutiùs omnia, quæ animal generãt, quàm quæ oua. Delphinis quoque, omnique cetario generi hic idem modus eſt coeũdi: planis idem admotis partibus agunt: nec parum multúmve tẽporis, ſed mediocre in coitu ipſo conſumunt. Differunt nonnulli mares cartilaginei generis à ſuis fœminis, eo quod maribus bina quædam circa excrementi oſtium pendent, quibus fœminæ careant, vt perſpici in genere muſtelorum poteſt: in his enim, quod dixi, omnibus eſt. Teſtes igitur nec piſces habent, nec vllum aliud genus, quod careat pedibus: ſed binos meatus, tum ſerpentes tum etiam piſces maſculi continent, qui fœtifico ſemine, cùm coeũdi eſt tempus, implentur, & lacteum omnes emittunt humorem. Colligunt hi ſeſe in vnum caput, quemadmodum in auium genere vnitur quod ſubeat. Cõtinent enim aues intus ſuos teſtes, ac cętera animalia, quæ & pedes habent, & oua pariunt.

A Hoc ergo inſeritur, atque in locos & receptaculum tenditur fœminarum. Pedeſtribus viuiparis idem meatus foris extat, & ſeminis, & excrementitij humoris. alter intus meatus ducitur, vt dixi, cùm partium differentias explicarem. Sed quibus veſica deeſt, iis idem meatus ſicco etiam excremento pertinet foris: intúſque alter iuxtà habetur. quæ quidem ſimiliter tam in fœminis eorum, quàm in maribus ſunt. Carent enim veſica, præter teſtudines, quarum fœminæ ſingularem habent meatum, quanquam veſicam obtineant. Sed teſtudo in eorum quæ oua pariunt genere eſt. Piſcium oua parientium coitus minùs patet, quamobrem complu-B res, fœminas prolificum maris vorando impleri crediderunt. Id enim fieri ſæpius cernitur: nam tempore coitus, fœminæ, mares ſequentes, id faciunt, ventrémque eorum ſuis percutiunt roſtris. Quo etiam fit vt mares ſemen & celeriùs fundant, & largiùs. Tempore autem partus mares fœminas ſequentes, quæ illa oua ediderint, ipſi mordicus vorant: piſces verò ex iis quæ * remanſerint, oriuntur. Circa Phœnicem piſces vel mutuo ſexuum aſpectu capi accepimus: mugiles enim mares à piſcatore ſubducuntur, quorum aſpectu fœminæ congregantur, atque ita obtrtiuntur: verſáque vice mares capiuntur ſubductis fœminis. Sed deuoratio illa ſeminis genitalis, quia ſæpiùs cernitur, argumen-C tum coitus talis ementitur. Faciunt hoc idem quadrupedes quoque. Tempore enim coitus nonnihil humoris ſuo genitali, tum mares, tum etiam fœminæ emittunt, atque admotis ad genitalia naribus odorantur. Perdices, ſi aduerſæ maribus ſteterint, ventúſque inde afflet vbi mares ſtant, concipiunt, & maritantur. * Plerúmque etiam voce marium vtero ingraueſcunt, ſi geſtiunt, ac libidine turgent. Volatu quoque ſuperne marium effici idem poteſt, videlicet dum mas ipſe in fœminam fœtificum ſpiritum demittit. Ore hiante, exertaque lingua, & mares & fœminę coeunt. At verò piſcium oui parorum coitus rarò cernitur, quoniam D congreſſionem quàm primùm digreſſio ſequatur: fieri tamen ita eorum coitum, viſum eſt.

CAPVT VI.

De coitu mollis generis piſcium.

Mollia, vt polypi, ſepiæ, lolligines, modo eodem omnia coeunt: oribus enim inuicem admotis, complexúque mutuo brachiorum libidinem explent. Ergo polypis coitus, cùm alter capite vulgò appellato in terram verſo, nitibũdóque, explicat porrigitque ſua brachia, alter ſuperuenit, paſſiſque brachiis ſingulis ad ſingula ſubiacentis, acetabulorum conceptu mutuo adhæreſcit. Ma-E rem etiam nonnulli aiunt gerere, quod genitalis ſpeciem referat, ſuo brachio, in quo duo ampliſſima acetabula habentur. Neruo id quaſi conſtare porrectum ad medium vſque brachium confirmãt, totumque nari fœminæ annecti. Sepiæ ac lolligines ora applicantes, & brachia inter ſe componentes, natantéſque, in aduerſum coeũt. Narem etiam dictam in narem inſerunt. Natatus alteri retrorſum, alteri anteuerſus in os agitur. Pariunt ea ſui corporis parte, quæ fiſtula dicitur, qua & coire eas nonnulli arbitrantur.

CAPVT VII.

De coitu piſcium cruſta opertorum.

GEnera cruſta operta, vt locuſtæ, gamari, ſquillæ, & huiuſmodi reliqua, more quadrupedum retro mingentium coeunt, ſcilicet vt fœmina caudam ſupinam exponat, mas ſuam ſuperponat, & applicet. Coire ſolent ineunte Vere iuxta terram. Iam enim coitus omnium id genus exploratus eſt. Interdum etiam cum ficus maturescunt, coire incipiunt. Hoc eodem modo gamari quoque & ſquillæ coeunt. Cancri parte priore copulantur, ſua opercula loculoſa illa rugoſaque mutua conſertione componentes. Primum cancer minor ab auerſo ſuperuenire ſolet, tum maior, vbi ille ſuperuenerit, vertit ſe in latus. Nulla re differt fœmina a mare, niſi quod operculum applicatile illud amplius, & diſtantius, & hirſutius fœmina gerant, in quo oua pariunt, & qua egerunt excrementum. Membrum autem, quod mas in fœminam inferat, nullum omnino habetur.

CAPVT VIII.

De coitu inſectorum, quoue tempore Venereis ſtimulis magis animalia quæque excitet.

INſecta auerſa coeunt: deinde quod minus eſt, ſuperuenit maius; hoc eſt, mas fœminam. Nec mas in fœminam genitale vllum inſerit membrum more animalium cæterorum: ſed fœmina ſurſum in marem receptum, caudæ vltimum ſuæ meatum quendam producens reflectit: qui in nonnullis maior, quam proportione totius corporis eſſe videtur, cum ipſa parua admodum ſint. Sed ſunt etiam, in quibus minus inconueniens æſtimetur. Planum hoc fuerit, ſi muſcas coitu Venereo copulatas diuiſeris. Tarde etiam, cum coierint, ſeiunguntur digreſſu: diu namque eorum copulatio durat: quod in iis quæ in noſtro conſpectu verſantur, facile patet: verbi cauſa, in muſcis, in ſcarabeis. Omnia enim ad hunc modum coeunt, videlicet muſcæ, ſcarabei, vermicula, phalangia, & ſi quid aliud generis eiuſdem coire ſolet. Phalangiis, quæ texunt, coitus agitur hoc modo: Cum fœmina deductam araneam traxerit, mas eandem mutuo trahit: quod vbi ſæpius fecerint, coeunt, & auerſis clunibus copulantur: nam propter aluum orbicularem modus hic coniungendi iis congruit. Coitum omnium animalium fieri ad hunc modum apertum eſt. Tempora autem coitus deſcripta, & ætates certas ad Venerem ſingulis animalium natura fixit, & ſtatuit. Ergo plurimorum animantium natura vult quidem tum Veneream per id tempus, cum hyemis ceſſante ſæuitia, æſtatis clementia oritur: quod ſane tempus veris eſt, quo plurima & volatilia, & pedeſtria, & natantia ad coitum excitantur. Sed ſunt quæ per autumnum etiam, & hyemem coeant, atque pariant, vt nonnulla cum aquatilium tum volucrum genera. Homini maximè temporibus omnibus opportunus coitus eſt; atque etiam alia plura pedeſtris generis, quæ cum homine viuunt, coitum nullo tempore aſpernantur, videlicet propter teporem, & pabuli vbertatem. Quorum tempus etiam gerendi vteri breue eſt, vt ſuis, vt canis, & volucrum, quæ ſæpius pariunt.

CAPVT XII.

Molle genus piſcium verno tempore parere, ſepiam vero omnibus anni temporibus.

Mollia quoque verno tempore pariunt, & ſepia in primis. Parit hæc omnibus anni temporibus, perſeuerátque in edendo ouorum numero dies quindecim. Quoties autem ediderit, mas è veſtigio ſequens, atramentum ouis ſuperinfundit, atque ita efficitur vt ſolideſcant. Incedere coniugatim ſolent. Mas varius magis quam fœmina, dorſoque atriore eſt. Polypus hyberno tempore coit, B verno parit: latet circiter mẽſes duos. Ouum velut cirrum edit, fructui populi albæ ſimile. Perquam fœcundum hoc animal eſt: nam de eo quod ediderit, copia innumera prouenit. Diſcrepat mas à fœmina, eo quòd capite eſt productiore, &, quod genitale piſcatores appellant, albidum ſuo in brachio continet. Fouet polypus oua, quæ ediderit: quamobrem deterrimi tantiſper efficiuntur. haud enim in paſtum prodire patiuntur. Quinetiam purpuræ vére generantur, & buccina hyeme abeunte. Genus denique omne, quod teſta operitur, verno autumnalíque tempore habere cernuntur ea quæ oua appellant, exceptis echinis cibo idoneis: quippe C quibus etſi per ea tempora præcipuè vbertas ouorum eſt, tamen nullo tempore committitur, vt ouis omnino careant: ſed maximè pleniluniis, diebúſque tepidis reſtituuntur, reddúntque pleniores, præterquam ij quos Pyrræus fert Euripus: nam illi hybernis mẽſibus meliores ſunt, parui quidem, ſed pleni ouorum. Ad hæc vmbilici pariter omnes, hoc eodem tempore ſua oua habere viſuntur.

CAPVT XIII.

Auium ſylueſtres, vt dixi, ſemel magna ex parte coeunt, atque pariunt. Verùm hirundo bis parit, & merula: ſed eius primi partus intereunt frigore hyberno: omnium namque auium prima hæc parit: poſteriorem autem partum educat, & feliciter ducit ad finem. at vero quæ aut vrbana ſunt, aut traduci poſſunt ad mores mitiores, hæc ſæpius generant, vt columbæ, quæ tota æſtate fœtãt. Gallinæ etiam ineunt, & pariunt omnibus anni temporibus, exceptis brumalibus diebus. Columbacei verò generis plures ſpecies ſunt: eſt enim liuia dicta à liuore, diuerſum certè à columba genus: quippe E quæ minor, quàm columba ſit, & minùs patiens manſueſcere. Liuet etiam plumis, & penè nigricat, & pedibus rubidis, ſcabroſiſque eſt: quas ob res nullus id genus cellare alit. Maximo inter hæc genera corpore ſunt palumbes. Secundum magnitudinis locum vinago obtinet: paulo maior quàm columbus eſt. Minimum ex iis turtur eſt. Pariunt columbæ omnibus anni temporibus, pullóſque educant, ſi locum apricum habeãt, & cibum: ſin minùs, æſtate tantummodo fœtant. Sed proles præſtãtior vére quàm autumno eſt: deterrima æſtate, & omnino tempore calidiore.

CAPVT XIV.

Ætate etiam differunt ad coitum animalia: primùm enim magnæ eorum parti ſemen non ſimul incipit & excerni, & poſſe generare: ſed vis illa prolifica poſtea accedit. Nouellorum enim in omnibus animalium generibus, prima emiſſio ſeminis, aut infœcunda eſt, aut, ſi fœcunda ſit, imbecilliora tamen generat, & pauciora. Quod potiſſimùm in hominum & quadrupedum animal gignentium genere, atque etiam auium, patet: alterum enim prolem pauciorem procreat, alterum oua edit pauciora. Ætas vero accommodata ad coitum quæque ſuo in genere plurima ex parte ferè tempus idem ſortitur: niſi qui præmaturet, & aut aliquam ob rem monſtroſam, aut ex detrimento naturæ, & vitio anticipet. Res igitur homini innoteſcit, tum vocis mutatione, tum etiam teſtium, non magnitudine tantùm, verùm etiam ſpecie, quemadmodum mammis etiam declaratur: ſed præcipuè ortu pilorum pubis. Semen autem ferre incipit circiter annos bis ſeptem: ſed vim genitalem recipit circa annos ter ſeptem. Cæteris animalibus denegata pubertas eſt. Aliis enim nulli omnino dati ſunt pili, aliis ſupina in parte nulli, aut pauciores quàm in prona. At vocem immutari nonnullis apertum eſt. Aliis partes corporis aliæ quædam ſignificant ſemen iam initium vireſque prolificas ſibi trahere. Vox fœminæ magna ex parte acutior, & iunioribus, quàm vetuſtioribus, acutior eſt. Nam ceruini etiam generis mares vocem grauiorem quàm fœminæ mittunt. Vox autem maribus in hoc genere cùm tempus coeundi eſt; fœminis autem cùm metuerint. Breuis vox fœminæ eſt, maris productior, canibus item ſeneſcentibus vox grauior redditur. Equorum etiam voces differe palam eſt. Fœminæ enim ſimul ac natæ ſunt, vocem exiguam mittunt, ac tenuem: mares exiguam quidem & ipſi, ſed pleniorem tamen, & grauiorem, quàm fœminæ, & in dies maiorem reddunt. Bimus cùm eſt, atque inire incipit, vocem magnam grauemque mas mittit: fœmina maiorem, quàm antè, & clariorem vſque ad vigeſimum ætatis annum magna ex parte: ſed ab hoc tempore imbecilliorem tum mares quàm fœminæ reddunt. magna igitur ex parte, vt dixi, vox marium fœminarumque differt, eò quòd mares grauiùs ſonant quàm fœminæ, quorum ſcilicet vox aliqua cum productione emittitur. Verùm non in omnium animalium genere ita agitur. Sunt enim in quibus è contrario fit, vt in bubus. Nam boum fœmina grauiorem quàm mas, agit vocem: & vitulis grauior quàm adultis perfectiſque: quamobrem his caſtratis vox è contrario mutatur: tranſeunt enim quæ caſtrantur, in fœminam. Tempora autem coitus ad hunc modum per ætates natura ſuis animalibus ſtatuit. Oues & capræ anniculæ coeunt, atque vterum ferunt: ſed capræ potius. Mares quoque in iis ipſis generibus eodem illo tempore ineunt: ſed proles differt, quatenus præſtantior ea eſt quam ſeneſcentes mares & fœminæ procrearint. Sues tum mares tum fœminæ coire incipiunt menſe ſuæ ætatis octauo ies, quod ad ætatem attinet, optima eſt, cùm ent parentes. Quod ad tempora, præſtantior hyemis initio gignitur: deterrima, quæ æſtate: pe quæ parua, exilis, & perhumida fit. Mas pinguet, inire omnibus anni temporibus poteſt, ſolum interdiu, ſed etiam noctu, aut certè mapotiſſimum tempore. Seneſcens autem miſubinde agit, vt dictum eſt. Sæpe qui vel per tatem, vel per infirmitatem ſuæ naturæ nequeant edite coire, quum fœmina impotens ſuſtinenmans feſſa clunes demittat, cubantes vnà cum mina coeunt. Concipit præcipue ſus, cum libidine geſtiente pruriens auriculas flaccidas mittit: aliter ſemen à vulua reſpuitur, relapſumque euaneſcit. Canes non per totam coeunt vitam, ſed vſque ad quendam ætatis vigorem: ad annos enim duodecim magna ex parte & coeunt, & implentur. Verùm iam aliquibus, tum fœminis tum maribus, vel annum octauum & decimum, atque etiam vigeſimum natis, facultas non defuit prolifici coitus. Nam iis quoque ſenectus vim generandi, pariendique, vt & cæteris, tollit. Camelus ab auerſo vrinam reddit, ſed coit quemadmodum dictum iam eſt. Tempus coeundi in terra Arabia, menſe Septembri: fert ventrem menſes duodecim: parit ſingulos: viuiparum namque eſt. Incipit & mas & fœmina coire in trimatu. Fœmina poſt partum vno interpoſito anno coit. Elephantus fœmina incipit coire anno aut duodecimo, cùm celerrimè: aut quintodecimo, cùm lentiſſimè. Mas quinque, aut ſex annos natus, ſuperuenit ineunte vere: coitum triennio interpoſito repetit. Quam grauidam reddidit, eandem prætereà tangere nunquam patitur. Vterum biennio gerit: parit ſingulos: viuiparum namque eſt. Fœtum magnitudine bimeſtris aut trimeſtris vituli edit. Coitum animalium, quæ non niſi coeundo progenerent, ad hunc modum habere ſe, intelligimus.

A quanquam mas antè quàm ſit anniculus, prolem generat vitioſam: foemina annicula parit: ſic enim tempus gerendi vteri exigit. Sed non omnibus locis eadem ætatis ratio eſt, vt dixi: iam enim ſues nonnuſquam tam mares quàm foeminæ quarto coeunt menſe: ſexto tamen ita, vt vel progenerare & educare poſſint. Nonnuſquam apri menſe decimo inire incipiunt. Valent ij coitu ad triennium. Canes tam mares quàm foeminæ annicul[i] magna quidem ex parte coeunt: ſed nonnunquam vel menſe octauo: quod magis foeminæ euenit quàm mari. Gerit vterum diebus ſexaginta & vno, aut duobus, & ad ſummum tribus: nec minùs quàm ſexaginta diebus. Quòd ſi quid celeriùs B prodierit, educari ac perfici nequit. Cùm peperit, rurſum ſexto pòſt menſe, nec prius coitu impletur. Equus inire tam mas quam foemina incipit biennis, ita vt valeat procreare. Proles tamen per id tempus minor & imbecillior eſt. At verò (quod ex more plurimo agitur) in trimatu coeunt, & proficiunt ſubinde in generando, vt proles præſtantior advſque annos viginti procreetur. Coeunt mares ad annos tricenos ternos, foeminæ ad quadragenos: ita vt per totam ferè vitam coitum equis ſeruari eueniat. Viuit enim magna ex parte mas annos circiter quinque & triginta, foemina plus quàm quadraginta. Iam & quinque & ſexaginta annos vixiſſe equum proditum eſt. Aſinus tam C mas quàm foemina menſe triceſimo coit: ſed magna ex parte nequeunt generare: verùm in bimatu, aut trimatu, & ſemiſſe. Sed iam vel anniculam, ventrem geſſiſſe aſellam aiunt, ita vt quod pepererat, educari ac perfici potuerit. Bos etiam annicula peperit, vt educari augerique quantum genus exigeret, licuerit. Primordia generationis horum animalium ita ſe habere perpenſum eſt. Homo mas, ad annum vſque ſeptuageſimum, videlicet termino vltimo poteſt generare, foemina vſque ad quinquageſimum, verùm id raro. Paucis enim proles in eo ætatis tempore procreata eſt. Sed magna ex parte maribus quintus & ſexageſimus annus finis progenerandi eſt: foeminis, quintus & D quadrageſimus. Oues parere vſque ad annum octauum poſſunt: &, ſi bene curentur, vel in vndecimum facultas pariendi protrahitur. Et quidem fieri poteſt vt etiam per totam ferè vitam coeant tam mares quàm foeminæ. Hirci pingues minùs foecundi ſunt: quorum argumento vites, quoties per nimiam alimenti copiam luxuriantes fructum non ferunt, hirceſcere ruſtici dicunt. Verùm cura extenuandi adhibita, efficitur vt coeant atque procreent. Arietes primùm vetuſtiores foeminas ineunt: nouellas enim minùs perſequuntur. Pariunt, vt dixi, iuniores pauciora quàm vetuſtiores. Apro ad triennium probitas coeundi edurat. vetuſtioribus proles deterior gignitur. E Nullus enim præterea profectus ei accedit, nulla viriũ recreatio. Solet inire pabulo ſatiatus, & cùm alteram non ſubegerit, vel initus breuior agitur, & foetus corpore minore creatur. Pauciſſima ſus edit prima partione, viget ſecunda, nec ſeneſcens copia foetus deficitur, quanquam lentiùs coit. Vbi verò quintumdecimum annũ nacta eſt, non præterea generat, ſed efferatur. Si pinguet, ocyùs & iuuenis & ſeneſcens mouentur ad coitũ. Si grauida admodũ pingueſcat, efficitur vt foeta minus habeat lactis.

MOx de generatione eorum quæ vel coeant vel non coeant, commẽtabimur: & primùm de iis quæ ſiliceo tegmine operiũtur: hoc enim vnũ ferè genus totum expers coitus eſt. Purpuræ verno tempore eundẽ in locum ſeſe colligentes condũt quam fauaginẽ nominant, quæ velut fauus eſt apũ: verùm non ita elegans: ſed quaſi è putaminibus cicerum alborum, multa inter ſe compoſita, ſtruem vnam ſua cohæſione coagmẽtarint. Nullum iis patet foramen: neque ex iis purpuræ enaſcuntur, ſed cùm purpuræ, tum etiam reliqua teſtis incluſa, è limo ferè & materia putreſcente oriuntur. Illa verò coagmentatio fauo ſimilis, tanquam purgamentũ, tam iis quàm buccinis euenit: nam buccinis quoq; fauificare in more eſt. Itaque ne ea quidem, quæ ex teſtaceis fauos ſaliuant, alio modo quàm cætera teſtis incluſa generãtur. Verùm melius atque vberius quoties præſunt, quæ eiuſdẽ ſunt generis. ἔνια δ' ἤδη διακεκριμένα τὴν* μορφήν. ἐὰν δὲ πρὶν ἐκτεκεῖν ἁλῶσιν, ἐνίοτε ἐν ταῖς φορμίσιν ὅπου ἔτυχεν ἐκτίκτουσιν, ἀλλ' εἰς τὸν αὐτὸν τόπον, ὥσπερ ἐν τῇ θαλάττῃ· καὶ διὰ τὴν στενοχωρίαν γίνονται οἱονεὶ βότρυς. εἰσὶ δὲ τῶν πορφυρῶν γένη πολλά· καὶ ἔνιαι μὲν, μεγάλαι, οἷον αἱ περὶ τὸ Σίγειον καὶ Λεκτόν· αἱ δὲ, μικραί, οἷον ἐν τῷ Εὐρίπῳ καὶ περὶ τὴν Καρίαν. καὶ αἱ μὲν ἐν τοῖς κόλποις, μεγάλαι καὶ τραχεῖαι, καὶ τὸ ἄνθος αὐτῶν, αἱ μὲν πλεῖσται μέλαν ἔχουσιν, ἔνιαι δ' ἐρυθρὸν μικρόν· γίνονται δ' ἔνιαι τῶν μεγάλων καὶ μναῖαι. αἱ δ' ἐν τοῖς αἰγιαλοῖς καὶ περὶ τὰς ἀκτάς, τὸ μὲν μέγεθος γίνονται μικραί, τὸ δὲ ἄνθος ἐρυθρὸν ἔχουσιν. ἔτι δὲ ἐν μὲν τοῖς βορείοις μέλαιναι, ἐν δὲ τοῖς νοτίοις ἐρυθραί, ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πλεῖστον εἰπεῖν. ἁλίσκονται δὲ τοῦ ἔαρος, ὅταν κηριάζωσιν· ὑπὸ κύνα δὲ, οὐχ ἁλίσκονται· [οὐ γὰρ νέμονται] ἀλλὰ κρύπτουσιν ἑαυτὰς, καὶ φωλεύουσι. τὸ δὲ ἄνθος ἔχουσιν ἀνὰ μέσον τῆς μήκωνος καὶ τοῦ τραχήλου. τούτων δὲ ἐστὶν ἡ σύμφυσις πυκνή· τὸ χρῶμα δὲ ἰδεῖν ὥσπερ ὑμὴν λευκὸς, ὃν ἀφαιροῦσι. θλιβόμενος δὲ, βάπτει καὶ ἀνθίζει τὴν χεῖρα· διατείνει δ' αὐτὸν, ὥσπερ φλέβα. τοῦτο δὲ δοκεῖ εἶναι τὸ ἄνθος. ἡ δὲ ἄλλη σύμφυσις οἷον στυπτηρίας. ὅταν δὲ κηριάζωσιν αἱ πορφύραι, τότε χείριστον ἔχουσι τὸ ἄνθος. τὰς μὲν οὖν μικρὰς μετὰ τῶν ὀστράκων κόπτουσιν· οὐ γὰρ ῥᾴδιον ἀφελεῖν· τῶν δὲ μειζόνων περιελόντες τὸ ὄστρακον, ἀφαιροῦσι τὸ ἄνθος. διὸ καὶ χωρίζεται ὁ τράχηλος καὶ ἡ μήκων. μεταξὺ γὰρ τούτων τὸ ἄνθος, ἐπάνω τῆς καλουμένης κοιλίας. ἀφαιρεθέντος οὖν, ἀνάγκη διῃρῆσθαι. σπουδάζουσι δὲ ζώσας κόπτειν. ἐὰν γὰρ πρὶν κόπτειν προτέρα ἀποθάνῃ, συνεξεμεῖ τὸ ἄνθος. διὸ καὶ φυλάττουσιν ἐν τοῖς κύρτοις, ἕως ἂν ἀθροίσωσι καὶ σχολάσωσιν. οἱ μὲν οὖν ἀρχαῖοι πρὸς τοῖς δελέασιν οὐ καθίεσαν, οὐδὲ προσῆπτον τοὺς κύρτους· ὥστε συνέβαινεν ἀνασπωμένην, ἤδη πολλάκις ἀποπίπτειν· οἱ δὲ νῦν, προσάπτουσιν, ὅπως ἐὰν ἀποπέσῃ, μὴ ἀπόληται). μάλιστα δὲ ἀποπίπτει, ἐὰν πλήρης ᾖ· κενῆς δὲ οὔσης, ἀποσπασθῆναι χαλεπόν. ταῦτα μὲν οὖν τὰ συμβαίνοντα ἴδια περὶ τὰς πορφύρας ἐστί. τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ (τρόπον ἐκείνοις) ταῖς πορφύραις καὶ οἱ κήρυκες, καὶ τὴν αὐτὴν ὥραν. ἔχουσι δὲ καὶ τὰ ἐπικαλύμματα κατὰ ταὐτὰ ἀμφότερα, καὶ τὰ ἄλλα τὰ στρομβώδη, ἐκ γενετῆς πάντα· νέμονται δὲ ἐξείροντα τὴν καλουμένην γλῶτταν ὑπὸ τὸ κάλυμμα. τὸ δὲ μέγεθος τῆς γλώττης ἔχει ἡ πορφύρα μεῖζον δακτύλου, ᾧ νέμεται καὶ διατρυπᾷ τὰ κογχύλια καὶ τὸ αὑτῆς ὄστρακον. ἔστι δὲ καὶ ἡ πορφύρα καὶ ὁ κῆρυξ ἀμφότερα μακρόβια. ζῇ γὰρ ἡ πορφύρα, περὶ ἔτη ἕξ, καὶ καθ' ἕκαστον ἐνιαυτὸν φανερά ἐστιν ἡ αὔξησις τοῖς διαστήμασι, τοῖς ἐν τῷ ὀστράκῳ τῆς ἕλικος. κηριάζουσι δὲ καὶ οἱ μύες. τὰ δὲ λιμνόστρεα καλούμενα, ὅπου αἱ βόρβοροί εἰσιν, ἐνταῦθα συνίσταται πρῶτον αὐτῶν ἡ ἀρχή. αἱ δὲ κόγχαι, καὶ χῆμαι, καὶ σωλῆνες, καὶ κτένες, ἐν τοῖς ἀμμώδεσι λαμβάνουσι τὴν σύστασιν. αἱ δὲ πῖνναι ὀρθαὶ φύονται* ἐκ τοῦ βύσσου ἐν τοῖς ἀμμώδεσι καὶ βορβορώδεσιν. ἔχουσι δὲ ἐν αὑταῖς πιννοφύλακα, αἱ μὲν καρίδιον, αἱ δὲ καρκίνιον· οὗ στερισκόμεναι, διαφθείρονται θᾶττον. ὅλως δὲ πάντα τὰ ὀστρακώδη γίνεται αὐτόματα ἐν τῇ ἰλύϊ, κατὰ τὴν διαφορὰν τῆς ἰλύος ἕτερα· ἐν μὲν τῇ βορβορώδει, τὰ ὄστρεα· ἐν δὲ τῇ ἀμμώδει, κόγχαι καὶ τὰ εἰρημένα.

A Nonnullæ etiam forma nondum diſtincta cernuntur, ſi forte prius quàm pepererint, capiantur. Foetus interdum per crates & tegetes non qualibet elidunt, ſed congregatæ eôdem, vt facere in mari ſolent. Itaque per anguſtiam, velvti vuæ ſpecie foetus conformatur. Genera purpurarum plura: nonnullę magnitudine augentur inſigni, vt quæ Sigeum, & Lectum, Idæ promontoria, gignuntur. Aliæ paruæ, vt quas Euripus fert, & Caria. Pelagiæ magnæ, ſcabræque ſunt, quarum flos magna ex parte niger: ſed nonnullis rubidus puſillum. Nonnullas ex magnis, vel ad pretium minæ euadere nouimus. Paruæ ad litora & oras repeçiuntur flore rubro. Partes item Aquiloniæ nigras, Auſtrinæ
B rubras magna ex parte ferunt. Capiuntur tempore verno, cùm fauos extruunt. Caniculæ tempore nullæ ferè capiuntur: non enim tantiſper paſcuntur, ſed ſe abſcondunt, & latent. Florem ſuũ inter papauer dictum, & collum, continent, textu ſpiſſiore, aſpectu velvti membranæ candicantis, quam detrahunt. Tingit hæc preſſa, & inficit manum. Pertinet eadem ſuo ſitu, perinde vt vena: idque flos ille celeber putatur: reliquum contextus quaſi alumen eſt. Cùm fauificant purpuræ, tunc deterrimum habent florem. Paruas tundunt cum teſtis: non enim detrahere facile eſt. Maiorum florem teſta ablata detrahunt: quamobrem euenit vt collum à papauere ſeparetur. Flos enim
C poſitus inter hæc eſt, ſupra eam partem quam ventrem appellant. Itaque detracto flore diuidantur partes illæ, neceſſe eſt. Dant operam vt viuæ frangantur: nam ſi priùs quàm fregeris, expirarint, florem omnem cum vita euomunt. Quapropter ſolent eas aſſeruare in naſſis, dum ipſæ ſe colligant, atque requieſcant. Veteres naſſam eſcæ adiunctam demittere non ſolebant: itaque ſæpe accidebat vt purpura iam extracta decideret. at homines noſtræ ætatis adiungunt naſſas, ne ſi decidat, abſoluatur. Quod tunc potiſſimùm euenit, cùm plena eſt. Nam ſi inanis ſit, difficile ſe euellere poteſt. hæc propria eueniunt purpuris. Buccinis etiam modus idem gignendi, qui purpuris, tempúſque
D idem eſt: operculum item oris idem tam huic vtrique generi adhæret natiuum, quàm cæteris turbinatis omnibus. Paſci quoque exerta lingua appellata ſub illo operculo ſolent. Longior digito lingua hæc purpuris eſt, qua paſcitur: & tum conchulas, tum etiam ſui generis teſtam perforare poteſt. Tempus viuendi & purpuris & buccinis longum: annos enim circiter ſex purpuræ viuunt, & ſingulis annis incrementum earum patet per orbes, quibus totidem quot annos habent, teſta intorta cuniculatim in crepidinem deſinit. Mituli enim fauificare ſoliti ſunt. Oſtreis quà coenum, ibi origo conſiſtit. Conchæ, chamæ, vngues, pectines, locis arenoſis ſui ortus initia capiunt. Pin-E næ erectæ locis arenoſis, coenoſiſque, ex byſſo, id eſt, villo ſiue lana illa pinnali, proueniunt: quæ cuſtodem intra ſe continent, aut ſquillam paruam, aut cancellum: quo quidem cuſtode priuatæ pereunt breui tempore. Teſtacea denique omnia ſponte naturæ in limo diuerſa, pro differentia limi oriuntur: nam in coenoſo oſtreæ, in arenoſo conchæ, & reliqua, quæ modò enumeraui.

A Rimis cauernisque ſaxorum vertibula generantur, & glandes, & quæ per ſumma adhærent, vt patellæ, vt natices. Omnia id genus, celeri incremento augentur: ſed præcipuè purpuræ, atque pectines, quippe quæ anno perfici poſſint. Cancri colore albido, corpore admodum paruo, in nonnullis teſta operti generis naſcuntur, & plurimi quidem in mitulis foliatis: mox in pinnis, quos pinnotheras vocant. Quinetiam in pectunculis, atque oſtreis. Verùm ij nullum conſpicuum capiunt incrementum. Piſcatores cancros eiuſmodi naſci confirmant, vna cum illis, quorum teſtam inhabitant. Latent aliquandiu in arena pectines, ſicut etiam purpuræ. Naſcitur ergo concharum genus quemadmodum expoſitum eſt, ſed locis B variis: nam alia vadis, alia gurgite, alia duris locis, atque aſperis, alia arenoſis: & alia ſedem mutant, alia ſtabiliter degunt. Pinnæ, ex iis quæ ſedem nunquam mutare ſolent, radice innituntur. Vngues & conchæ nulla innitentes radice permanent: euulſæ viuere prætereà nequeunt pinnæ. * Quæ ſtella vocatur, adeo natura calida eſt, vt omnia contacta protinus decoquat. Detrimento etiam ſummo echinis Euripi Pyrrhæi eandem eſſe confirmant. Forma eius ſtellis, quæ pinguntur, ſimilis eſt. Quinetiam qui pulmones appellantur, ſponte proueniunt. Concha, quæ pictoribus vſui eſt, craſſitudine plurimum excedit, & florem illum non intra teſtam, ſed foris habet. Comperiri id genus locis Cariæ potiſſimum nouimus. Cancellus C ille concharum hoſpes, principio ex terra limóque conſiſtit, mox conchulas ingreditur vacuas: vbi cùm excreuerit, tranſit in concham ampliorem, videlicet aut naticis, aut turbinis, aut alicuius ſimilis. Sæpe etiam parua buccina ſubit, ingreſsúſque ampliorem illam gerit pari modo, & viuit in domicilio capaciore, rurſúſque excreſcens aliam petit ampliorem.

CAPVT XVI.

D MOdus enim gignendi iis etiam eſt quæ nulla teſta integuntur, vt vrticis & ſpongiis, qui teſta incluſis: per rimas enim, & cauernas, & fauces ſaxorum oriuntur. Genus duplex vrticæ eſt: aliæ enim ſinuoſis adhærent, quæ nunquam à ſaxis abſoluuntur: aliæ plana, & litora amant, quæ ſuis abiunctæ ſedibus vagantur. Patellæ quoque abſolui ſolent, alióque tranſire. Naſci etiam in cubilibus ſpongiarum nouimus beſtiolam aranei ſimilem, nomen pinnothera mutuantem. Degit hæc intra ſpongiarum cubile, & aperiendo claudendóque piſciculos capit. Aperit antequam ingrediantur: clau- E dit, & contrahit, cùm ingreſſi ſunt. Genus ſpongiarum triplex ſtatuitur: nam aliæ raræ, aliæ ſpiſſæ, aliæ quas nominant Achilleas. Tenuiſſimum genus id tertium, & ſpiſſiſſimum, & validiſſimum eſt, quod galeis ocreiſque inſeritur: eóque minus edere ſtrepitum poſſe notatum eſt. Genus hoc inuentu perquam rarum eſt. Quæ autem in genere illo ſpiſſo prædurae ſunt, atque aſperæ, nomine hirci nuncupantur: quæ quidem omnes aut ad ſaxa naſcuntur, aut iuxta litus, lutóque aluntur. Cuius rei argumentum eſt, quòd captæ, limo refertæ omnes cernûtur.

Quod certè indicat, cæteris quoque adhærentibus, cibum per ipſum annexum hauriri. Imbecilliores propterea ſunt ſpiſſæ, quàm raræ, quia minus alto radicis hæſu innituntur. Senſum etiam ſpongiis eſſe aiunt, argumento, quòd ad euulſoris acceſſum contrahuntur, ita vt euelli difficile ſit. Quod idem etiam faciunt, quoties flatus tempeſtaſque vrget, ne ſua de ſede pellantur. Sed ſunt qui de hoc dubitent, vt qui Toronam incolunt. Narrant tamen procul dubio beſtiolas quaſdam velut tineas, lumbricóſve, & eiuſmodi alias conſiſtere intra ſpongias atque aliquas, & euulſis ſpongiis piſciculi ſaxatiles deuorent, qui vel radices abſumunt totas, quæ inhærentes ſaxis remanſerint. Si euenerit fortè vt ſpongia abrumpatur, reſidua item renaſcitur, & completur. Magnitudine ampliſſima ſolutæ illæ, & raræ ſpongiæ augentur plurimæ, quæ circa Lyciam ſunt. Sed molliſſimæ, quæ ſpiſſæ: nam Achilleæ toroſiores iis conſtant. Omnino quæ altis tranquilliſque inſunt gurgitibus, molliſſimæ ſunt: flatus enim, ac tempeſtates, ſpongias quoque, vt cætera alitilia, reddunt duriores, & incrementum impediunt. Quamobrem ſpongiæ Helleſponti ſpiſſæ, ac duræ ſunt, & omnino, quas mare vltra Maleam promontorium, citràque fert, differunt inter ſe mollitie, duritatéque. Nec calorem immodicum ſpongiæ patiuntur: fit enim eo, more pullulantium putreſcant. Quocirca optimæ iuxta oras comperiuntur ſpongiæ, ſi gurgite alto demerſæ ſunt: commodè enim temperantur propter altitudinem gurgitis. Color illotis viuiſque nigricans eſt. Adhærent nec parte, nec toto: interſunt enim fiſtulæ quædam inanes: ſed pluribus paſſim particulis hæſitant, & quaſi membrana extenta ſubeſſe radicibus earum videtur: supernè autem cæteri meatus concreti propemodum latent. At verò quaterni, aut quini patent, per quos paſci exiſtimantur. Genus item aliud eſt, quod nomen aplyſias inde accepit, quia nunquam lauetur, quaſi illotarium voces. Habet hoc ampliores illos meatus, ſed reliquo toto corpore denſum eſt: nihilo tamen denſius, quàm quæ antè enumerauimus genera, quanquam lentius & ex toto pulmoni ſimilius cernitur. Senſum id genus habere, diúque viuere inter omnes præcipuè conuenit. Cognoſci præ cæteris ſpongiis eo facilè poteſt documento, quòd cùm illæ albicent limo ſubſidente, id ſemper nigrorem oſtendit. Quod ad ſpongias, & teſtatorum generationem pertinet, res ita ſe habet.

Locuſtæ inter cruſtata quæ per coitum conceperunt, oua gerunt ytero tribus menſibus his, Maio, Iunio, Iulio: tum deinde ſub aluo in rugas deponunt, qua oua more vermium augentur. Quod idem de mollibus etiam, ac de piſcibus ouiparis intelligitur: ouum enim omnium ita accreſcit. Fit igitur locuſtarum ouum arenidum in partes octo diductum: ſingulis enim operimentis, quæ de latere extant, ſingula quædam cartilaginea iunguntur, quibus oua adhærent: totúmque quaſi ſpecies vuæ conſiſtit: vnumquodque enim illorum cartilagineorum in plura ſcinditur: quæ ſi diſcreueris, patet, ſin aſpicis, tantùm compoſitum quiddam apparet.

Fiunt maxima, non quæ iuxta meatum, ſed quæ media ſita ſint: minimáque nouiſſima continentur. Magnitudo minimis, quanta granis ficuum eſt. Nec meatum ipſum vlla contingunt, ſed per medium hærent: vtraque enim ex parte, caudam dico, & aluum, bino maximè diſtinguitur interuallo: ſic enim operimenta quoque diſpoſita ſunt. Sed quoniam latera ipſa complecti ſatis non poſſunt, addito extremo cuncta teguntur, idque velut operculum obturat. Videtur prorſus locuſta cartilaginoſis illis particulis mandare oua, cùm enititur, caudam adducens, & protinus comprimens, inflectenſque ſeſe, parere. Cartilagineæ vero illæ appendices per id tempus augentur, atque ouorum capaces redduntur. Partus enim in iis recipitur, vt ſepiarum in ſarmentis, & qualibet colluuione collocatus. Locuſtæ ad hunc pariunt modum: mox vbi ea ſui corporis parte intra diem maximè vigeſimum oua concoxerint, abigunt vniuerſa, conglomerataque ita in idem, vt & foris congeſta appareant. Tum ex eo locuſtæ proueniunt intra diem maximè decimumquintum: & ſæpe minores, quàm vt digiti magnitudinem expleant, capiuntur. Excludunt igitur oua ante arcturum: abigunt iam concocta, atque abſoluunt ab arcturo. Squillæ gibbæ vterum menſes circiter quatuor ferunt. Locuſtæ aſperis ſaxoſiſque locis proueniunt: gammari leuioribus, ac terrenis. Neutrum genus limoſa amat: vnde fit vt gammari apud Helleſpontum, & circa Thaſum gignantur: locuſtæ circa Sigeum, & Athon. Coniectantur loca aſpera limoſave piſcatores oris litoralibus, atque aliis id genus indiciis, quoties capturam in alto libet exercere. Litora potiùs vernis hyberniſque temporibus expetunt. Conferunt ſe in altum, æſtate videlicet, cùm aliàs calorem, aliàs frigus perſequuntur. Iis etiam, quas nomine vrſæ arctos appellant, idem pariendi tempus Natura ſtatuit, quod locuſtis: quocirca per hyemem & vere priusquàm oua excludant, cibo laudantur: cùm excluſerint, deterrimæ ſiunt. CAPVT XVIII.

A Emiſſo enim atramento parentis infunduntur, atque ita inficiuntur. Cohærent inter ſe ad ſpeciem racemi cuncta vinculo abducta cuidam nexui: nec facile detrahi alterum ab altero poteſt. Mas enim humorem quendam mucoris mittit, quo lentore tenaciter oua ſibi cohæreſcunt, ac creſcunt. Et hæc & cum primum edita candida ſint, [illegible] gua, mox atramento perfuſa, nigra [illegible] duntur. Cumque ſepiola iam intus coſtiterit, videlicet tota ex candido oui interno concreſcens, tunc rupta cuti membranula proles exit: primum pars illa interior candida, velut grando conſiſtit, cum fœmina ſuum atramentum aſperſerit. Naſcuntur enim ſepiolæ ex eo ipſo candicante corpuſculo verſa in B caput, modo auium ventre annexo. Sed qualis nam ſit in his annexus vmbilici, nondum exploratum habemus. Conſtat tamen candidum illud ſubinde diminui, dum ſepiola augetur: & ad poſtremum, vt luteum auibus, ſic candidum his aboleri. Primum oculi grandes in his quoque, perinde vt in cæteris apparent. Sit a ouum, b c oculi, d ſepiola ipſa, e hoc ipſum. Feruntur vterum ſepiæ verno tempore. Pariunt intra diem decimumquintum. Mox oua edita craſſitudinem acinorum vuæ minorum, intra diem item decimumquintum capiunt, quibus obruptis ſepiolæ excluduntur. Quæ, ſi quis prius, prole iam perfecta obſciderit oui membranam, C ſtercuſculum mittunt, ſuumque præ metu colorem immutant ex candicante in rubriuſculum. Sed cùm genus omne cruſtatum ſibi iuncta contineat oua, itaque foueat, polypus & ſepia, & reliqua generis eiuſdem, oua, quæ pepererint, abſoluta fouent, & præcipuè ſepia: quippe cuius ſæpenumero alueus iuxta terram, dum hoc facit, appareat. Polypus fœmina modò incubat ouis, modò in ore ſui cubilis aſſidens, brachium ſuper ouis exporrectum tenet. Sepia parit iuxta terram inter algas & arundines, & ſi quod aggeſtum tale iniectum ſit, vt ſarmenta, aut lapides, aut quælibet alia materiei congeries. Et quidem piſcatores de induſtria faſces ſarmentorum diſponunt. Hæc perlibenter in eis loculamentis parit prolixam, illam continentémque ſeD riem ouorum, qualis cirri muliebris ſpecies eſt. Sepia tum hoc idem diſcrimen habet, tum verò quòd mas varius plus quàm fœmina eſt, vt expoſui.

CAPVT XIX.

iam eſt. Breui à coitu pariunt maxima ſui parte, quæ ſolent coire. Vermem autem omnia faciunt, excepto genere quodam papilionum, quod durum quiddam ſimile cartamo, id eſt, cnici ſemini producit, ſed intus fluidum. Vermibus verò ipſis non parte aliqua, ſicut in ouis, animal creatur, ſed totus vermis accreſcit, & particulatim diſcretus formatur in ſpeciem deſtinati animalis. Procreantur porrò inſecta aut ex animalibus generis eiuſdem, vt phalangia, & aranea. Ex phalangiis, & araneis, vt bruci, locuſtæ, cicadæ. Aut non ex animalibus, ſed ſponte: alia ex rore, qui frondibus inſidat, videlicet verno tempore, vt natura fert. Sæpe tamen & hyberno, quoties tranquillum auſtraléque tempus diutius conſiſtit. Item alia ex cœno aut fimo putreſcente oriuntur: alia in lignis aut ſtirpium, aut cæſis: alia in animalium pilis: alia in excrementis, aut iam excretis, aut adhuc intra animantem contentis, vt quæ tineæ, ſiue lumbrici appellantur, quorum genera tria ſunt, latum, teres, & quod aſcarida appellatum eſt, ex quo nihil procreari aliud poteſt. Latum autem illud ſolum inteſtino adhærens, parit ſimile cucumeris ſemini, quo indicio medici genus id lumbrici ineſſe intelligunt. Naſcuntur papiliones ex erucis: erucæ ex virentibus foliis, maximéque ex braſſica. Primùm minus quid milio conſiſtit in folio, mox vermiculi inde contrahuntur, & accreſcunt, tum intra triduum eruculæ afformantur: quæ auctæ motu ceſſant, ſuáque forma immutantur, appellantúrque tantiſper chryſalides: quaſi aurelias dixeris. Duro intectæ putamine ſunt, ad tactum mobiles, meatibus araneoſis obductæ. Non os, non aliud ex membris, quod conſpicuum ſit, poſſident. Longo pòſt tempore putamine obrupto euolant inde animalia pennigera, quos papiliones vocamus. Itaque primùm, dum erucæ ſunt, cibo aluntur, atque excrementum emittunt. at verò cùm in aurelias dictas tranſierint, nihil vel guſtant, vel excernunt. Hæc eadem generandi ratio cæterorum etiam eſt, quæ ex vermibus conſiſtant, ſiue ex coitu animalium vermes, ſeu ſine coitu prodiere. Nam & apum, & crabronum, & veſparum vermes, quandiu recentes ſunt, & aluntur, tantiſper & ſtercus emittere videntur: at cùm formæ lineamenta receperint, ſub qua facie nymphæ appellantur, iam neque cibum præterea capiunt, neque vllum reddunt alui excrementum, ſed coerciti, & contracti quieſcunt, nec vllo pacto mouere ſe patiuntur, vſque dum ſpecies deſtinata perficiatur: quo facto euolat proles, rupto, quo continebatur, folliculo. Quinetiam ſuperæ, & aciæ dictæ è quibuſdam eiuſmodi aliis generantur erucis, quæ vndent ingreſſu: parte enim innitentes priore contrahunt ſeſe, adducentes poſteriorem, arcuatímque incedunt. Verùm quæque orta, ſibi colorem à ſua eruca trahunt. Fit ex quodam verme grandiore, qui veluti cornua gemina protendit, ſuique generis eſt, primùm toto immutato, eruca: deinde quæ bombyx appellatur: ex quo necydalus, inualidam dixerim. quæ varia formarum ſucceſſio, in ſemeſtri temporis ſpatio completur. Ex hoc animalis genere bombycia illa mulieres nonnullæ retorquendo in filum deducunt, deinde texunt. Prima texiſſe in Co inſula, Pamphila Platis filia dicitur. Eodem modo ſcarabei tauri gignuntur ex vermibus, qui in lignis aridis naſcũtur.

Genera apum plura: optimum, quæ breues, variæ, & in rotunditatem compactiles ſunt. Secundum, quæ longæ, & veſpis ſimiles. Tertium, qui fur nuncupatur: grandis hic & aluo eſt ampliore. Quartum, fucus præcipua magnitudine, ſed nullo armatus aculeo, & ignauus: quamobrem alueis aliquid intexunt, quo apes ſubire poſſint: fuci autem vt grandiores nequeant. C Ducum duo ſunt genera, vt dictum iam eſt. Nec vnus in quoque examine dux tantummodo eſt, ſed plures: peritque ipſum examen, ſi duces vel non ſatis habeantur (quod non tam principis deſiderio, quàm ortus, vt aiunt, ad quem illi neceſſarij ſunt, incidit) vel plures quàm ſatis: diſtrahunt enim examen. Prouenit fœtus apum parciùs vere ſerotino, ſqualore, rubigine. Augent porrò mella ſiccitates, ſobolem imbres. Vnde fit vt ſimul oliuæ & examinum copia ſit. Fauos primùm conficiunt, mox collocant fœtum ore emittentes ſuo, vt iis placet qui cenſent aliunde prolis primordia conuehi. Deinde cibi cauſa mellificant, tam æſtate quàm autumno, ſed melius mel autumnale eſt. D Conſtruunt fauos è floribus, ceram ex lacryma arborum fingunt, mella ex rore aëris, ſyderum exortu potiſſimùm, & arcus cæleſtis incubitu contrahunt. Omnino ante Vergiliarum exortum mel non fit. Fauos itaque, vt dictum eſt, floribus faciunt: mel autem non ipſas facere apes, ſed rorem cadentem deferre, argumento eſt, quòd vno aut altero die cellas melle repletas inueniunt apiarij. Item autumno mel, poſteaquam detractum eſt, non reparatur, cum tamen illo etiam tempore flores proueniant. Sublato itaque melle, & cibo aut nullo extante, aut exiguo, repeterent certè apes munus mellis conficiendi, ſi ex floribus poſſent accipere. Craſſeſcit autem mel con- E coctum iam tempore: initio enim vt aqua dilutum eſt, & primis diebus ſine craſſitudine cernitur. Quod ſi exemptum eo tempore ſit, craſſitudine caret: tum viceſimo maximè die ſpiſſatur. Indicium perfectionis in ſapore potiſſimùm eſt: dulcius enim, quod craſſius. Colligunt apes ex omnibus, quæ florem caliculatum ferunt, atque etiam ex cæteris in quibus dulcedo eſt: & lingua ſuſceptum genus id ſaporis deportant, ſine vllo fructuum detrimento. Vindemiantur initio caprifici aluei: tunc enim mellationis terminus eſt.

Schadones

cùm mellificatur aggerunt ſuis cruribus ceram, atque erithacam. Mel ore euomunt in cellas. Fœtu poſito incubant auium more. Excluſus inde vermiculus, dum paruus eſt, iacet in fauo obliquus: poſt deinde ſua ipſe facultate ſe erigit, cibúmque capit: & fauo ita adhæret, vt retineri videatur. Fœtus a-pum & fucorum candidus eſt: ex quo vermiculi fiunt, qui in apes fucóſque tranſeant. Primordium regum colore cernitur fuluo, corpulentia mellis craſſioris, magnitudine illico proxima ſuæ futuræ ſoboli. Nec primùm ex eo vermiculus gignitur, ſed ſtatim apis, vt aiunt. Qua autem parte fœtus conſtiturus ſit, mel ibi è regione conficitur. Schadones, ſi fœtus oppreſſus intercipiatur, truncatæ ſine pennis & cruribus prodeunt. Sed ſi liberè ad finem generationis venerunt, rupta, qua cingitur, mem-brana euolant. Stercus quamdiu ſit vermis, emittit, poſtmodum non, niſi perfectæ (vt modò dixi) prodierint. Si quis capita iis demat priuſquam pen-nas habeant, pro pabulo nimirum apibus ſunt. Et ſi fucum ademptis pennis in alueum reijcias, ipſæ reliquorum pennas erodunt. Vita apum anni ſex.
Nonnullæ etiam ſeptem poſſunt complere. Quòd ſi examen nouem aut decem annos durauerit, pro-ſperè actum eſſe exiſtimatur. Genus quoddam a-pum in Ponto eſt candidum valde, quod bis men-ſe mellificet. Apud Themiſcyram circa Thermo-dontem amnem, apes tam in terra quàm in alueis faciunt fauos, qui parum admodum ceræ contineant, & mel craſſius reddant. Fauus ipſe læuis atque æquabilis eſt, quem non ſemper, ſed hybernis temporibus tantùm conſtruunt. Copia enim in eo tractu eſt hederæ, quæ hyeme floreat, vnde apes mel capiant. Ad Amiſum vrbem conuehitur à lo-cis ſuperioribus mel candidum, craſſúmque maio-rem in modum, quod apes faciunt arboribus ſine
etiam apes, quæ fauos ſub terra triplici ordine faciant: in quibus mel eſt, vermis nullus. Sed nec fa-ui omnes eiuſmodi ſunt, nec apes ita omnes con-fingunt.

CAPVT XXIII.

De ſatura Crabronum, & Veſparum.

CRabrones, & veſpæ, ſi duce amiſſo aberraue-rint, fauos ſuæ proli conſtituunt, in ſublimi & foraminibus. Crabrones in ſublimi, veſpæ in foraminibus. Sed ſi habeant ducem, ſub terra nidificant. Cellis ſexangulis fauos extruunt omnes, vt apes, ſed ex materia corticea quadam, & araneoſa.
Longè tamen lautior fauus crabronū quàm veſpa-

in omnibus cellis ineſt æqualis fœtus, ſed aliis iam

Τὰ δ' ἀράχνια ὀχεύεται πάντα τὸν εἰρημένον τρόπον. γεννᾷ δὲ σκωλήκια μικρὰ πρῶτον. ὅλα γὰρ μεταβάλλοντα γίνεται ἀράχνια, καὶ οὐκ ἐκ μέρους. * ἐπιστρόγγυλα δέ ἐστι κατ' ἀρχάς· ὅταν δὲ τέκῃ, ἐπῳάζει, καὶ ἐν τρισὶν ἡμέραις διαρθροῦται. τίκτει δὲ πάντα μὲν εἰς ἀράχνιον· ἀλλὰ τὰ μὲν, εἰς λεπτὸν καὶ μικρόν, τὰ δέ, εἰς παχύ. καὶ τὰ μὲν, ὅλως ἐν κύτει στρογγύλῳ, τὰ δέ, μέχρι τινὸς περιέχεται ὑπὸ τοῦ ἀραχνίου. οὐχ ἅμα δὲ πάντα ἀράχνια γίνεται· πηδᾷ δὲ εὐθύς, καὶ ἀφίησιν ἀράχνιον. ὁ δὲ χυμός, ὅμοιος ἐν τοῖς σκώληξι θλιβομένοις, καὶ ἐν αὐτοῖς νέοις οὖσι, παχὺς καὶ λευκός. αἱ δὲ λειμώνιαι ἀράχναι, E παραποτίκτουσιν εἰς ἀράχνιον, οὗ τὸ μὲν ἥμισυ, πρὸς αὐταῖς ἐστι, τὸ δὲ ἥμισυ, ἔξω· καὶ ἐν τούτῳ ἐπῳάζουσαι, ζῷα ποιοῦσι. τὰ δὲ φαλάγγια τίκτει εἰς γύργαθον πλεξάμενα παχύν, ἐν ᾧ ἐπῳάζουσι. τίκτουσι δέ, αἱ μὲν * γλαφυραί, ἐλάττω τὸ πλῆθος· τὰ δὲ φαλάγγια, πολὺ πλῆθος· καὶ αὐξηθέντα περιέχει τὸ φαλάγγιον, καὶ ἀποκτείνει δὲ τὴν τεκοῦσαν ἐκβάλλοντα· πολλάκις δὲ καὶ τὸν ἄρρενα, ἐὰν λαμβάνωσι. συνεπῳάζει γὰρ τῇ θηλείᾳ ἐνίοτε. τὸ δὲ πλῆθος γίνεται καὶ τριακόσια περὶ ἓν φαλάγγιον. ἐκ δὲ μικρῶν, τέλειοι ἀράχναι γίνονται, περὶ τὰς ἑβδομάδας τὰς τέτταρας.

A Scadones huius generis non vere ſed autumno fiunt, & creſcunt maximè plenilunio. Hæret & fœtus, & vermiculus non in imo cellæ, ſed lateri.

CAPVT XXIV.

Nonnulla ex bombycum genere, nidos in acutum exeuntes è luto quaſi illitos, vitri ſpecie affigũt lapidi, aut alicui tali, tam craſſos duróſque, vt ſpiculo perforari vix poſſint. Pariunt in iis, & vermiculos producunt candidos, membrana B obuolutos nigra: ſeorſúmque à membrana ceram in luto faciunt, quæ multo pallidior ſit, quàm cera apum.

CAPVT XXV.

De coitu, & partu Formicarum.

Coeunt & formicæ, & vermiculũ pariunt nulli annexum: qui accreſcens, ex minutulo & rotundo longiuſculus fit, formámque accipit debitam. Ortus eorum verno tempore agitur.

CAPVT XXVI.

De partu terreſtrium Scorpionum.

Qvin & ſcorpiones terreſtres vermiculos ouorum ſpecie pariunt complures, & incubant. Mox vt prolem perfecerunt, pelluntur ab ea ipſa, ſicut & araneis accidit, & interimuntur à ſuis liberis magno numero: ſæpius enim vndenos pariunt.

CAPVT XXVII.

De generibus Araneorum, & eorum partu.

D Aranei verò coeunt modo quo dictum eſt. Pariunt vermiculos, qui non ex parte, ſed toti in aranei formam immutantur: nam & rotundi iam inde à primo ortu proueniunt. Cùm pepererint, incubant & triduo peragunt. Pariunt omnes in tela, ſed alij in ſubtili & breui, alij in craſſiore, & alij omnino in ſitu orbiculato: alij ita, vt aliquatenus tela obducta proles muniatur. Proles autem ipſa non vniuerſa producitur: vt tamen quiſque exiuit, protinus ſalit, filúmque mittit. Humor ſimilis in vermiculis infrictu percipitur, atque in araneis ipſis recèns natis, hic eſt craſſus, & candidus. Pratenſes aranei in tela pariùnt. cuius dimidium applicatum E ipſis matribus eſt, reliquum foris recipit partum, & incubant eadem in tela, atque viuificant. Phalangij in rete, quod craſſum confecerint, pariunt, atque incubant. Cæterùm lautioribus illis partus minoris numeri eſt: at verò phalangiis admodum numeroſus. Cúmque ipſa proles increuerit, matrem amplexa conſumit, & eijcit. Sæpe etiam patrem, ſi ceperint: adiuuat enim fœminam incubitu. Pariuntur interdum & trecenti eodem vtero. Conſummantur aranei, & iuſta ſibi recipiunt incrementa diebus quater ſeptenis, à paruo ſui ortus initio ad finem.

CAPVT XXVIII.

Locuſtæ eodem coeunt modo, quo cætera inſecta, ſcilicet minore ſuperueniente maius. Sunt enim in eo genere mares minores quàm fœminæ. Pariūt in terra fixo cauliculo, quo mares vacant: ac vniuerſæ, & loco eodem fœtum deponūt, ita vt quaſi fauus eſſe videatur. Hinc vermiculi ſpeciem oui gerentes oriuntur, qui terra quadam prætenui, tanquam membranula ambiuntur, qua diſrupta emergunt locuſtæ, ac euolant. Tam mollis fœtura hæc eſt, vt ad tactum leuiſſimum dilabatur, & pereat. Non ſummæ telluri partus committitur, ſed paulo altius. His concoctione peracta, exeunt ex illo terreno amiculo paruæ locuſtæ, & nigrantes: deinde cute obrupta, maiores ſtatim efficiuntur. Pariunt exitu veris, & ſtatim à partu moriuntur, vermiculis circa collum innaſcentibus tempore partus, qui eas ſtrangulent. Mares quoque eodem tempore obeunt. Vere e terra emergunt. Locis mõtanis, aut tenuibus locuſtæ non fiunt, ſed planis, rimoſiſque. Pariunt enim in rimis ſua oua, quæ durant hyeme in terra: ineunte æſtate prouenunt ex fœtu anni ſuperioris locuſtæ.

CAPVT XXIX.

Pari modo, & quos brucos appellant, pariunt: & cum pepererint, moriuntur. Intereunt oua eorum aquis autumnalibus, cùm nimiæ inceſſerint. At ſicco autumno largior prouentus brucorum eſt, quoniam minus oua intereant. Innormis enim eſſe videtur eorum quidem interitus: quinetiam ortus nulla certa agitur ratione.

CAPVT XXX.

De generibus Cicadarum, & earum coitu.

Cicadarum duo ſunt genera: aliæ enim minores, quæ primæ prodeunt, & nouiſſimè pereunt: aliæ maiores quæ canunt, eædemque nouiſſimæ prodeunt, & primæ intereunt. Sunt quæ canunt præcinctu diuiduo, ſiue minores, ſiue maiores ſint. Quæ autem non canunt, indiuiduæ conſtant. Vocant nonnulli grandiores illas & canentes, argutas: minores, mutas. Sed canere vel in ſecundo hoc genere poſſunt paululum, quæ præcinctæ prodeunt. Naſci non poſſunt cicadæ, vbi arbores deſunt: quocirca apud Cyrenam nullæ in campo ſunt, cum circa oppidum ipſum multæ prouenīat. Oleas maximè amant, vt minus vmbroſas. Loca enim frigidiora aſpernantur: quamobrem in opacis nemoribus eſſe nequeunt. Coeunt tam maiores quàm minores, ſupinæ complexu mutuo: maſque inſerit in fœminam, ſicut & cætera inſecta agunt. Genitale fœmina habet reſciſſum, quo recipit id quod à mare inijcitur. Pariunt in aruis ceſſantibus, excauantes aſperitate præacuta, quam parte habēt poſteriore: quomodo bruci etiam ſolo eiuſmodi pariunt: quapropter in Cyrenenſi agro copia eſt.

CAPVT XXXI.

De coitu, & generibus Pediculorum, Pulicum, Cimicum, quæve animantium genera hi infeſtent.

C QVæ ex numero inſectorum non carne viuūt, ſed carnis viuæ humore aluntur, vt pediculi, pulices, cimices, hæc per coitum generant ea quæ lendes vocātur: ex quibus nihil præterea naſci poteſt. Illorum autem generatio talis eſt. Pulices minima quadam putredine gignuntur, ſedemque ſui ortu ſordes obtinēt aridas. Cimices, ex humore, qui per ſumma corporis animalium conſiſtit. Pediculi, ex carne: quibus futuris, emergūt ceu puſtulę quædam ſine pure exiguæ: quas ſi pungas, pediculi exeunt. Accidit morbus hic nonnullis hominibus D præ nimio corporis humore. Et quidem aliquos ea fœditate obiiſſe proditum eſt, vt Alcmanem Poetam, & Pherecydem Syrium. Quibuſdam itē morborum generibus copia naſcitur pediculorum. Genus pediculi ferum vocatū, eſt durius eo quòd magna ex parte prouenit, & corpori detrahitur difficiliùs. Pueris pediculi in capillo magis, viris minùs. Omnino fœminæ magis quam mares pediculum ſentiunt. Minùs laborant eorum capita, quibus pediculus in capillo eſt. Quin & ex cæteris animalibus complura pediculo infeſtātur: vt aues. Et phaſianæ quidem intereunt, niſi ſe puluerēt. Omnino quibus penna caule conſtat, iis pediculus gignitur. Nec ea quibus pilus eſt, carent eodem, excepto a- E ſino, qui non pediculo tantùm, verùm etiam rediuo immunis eſt. Boues vtrumque id habent. Oues & capræ rediuos habent, pediculis vacant. Suibus quoddam pediculi genus, grande ac durum, familiare eſt. Canibus proprium ricinus, qui ab eodem animali nomen cynoraiſtæ accepit. Genus autem vnumquodque pediculi ex corpore ipſo ſui animalis enaſcitur. Proueniunt largiùs pediculi mutatione aquarum, quibus lauare ſe ſolent ea quorum natura pediculum patitur. In mari etiam piſces hoc malum infeſtat: verùm non in piſcibus ipſis, ſed limo gignitur, ſimile multipedibus aſellis, niſi quod caudam hoc ampliuſculam habeat. Genus pediculi marinum ſimplex, vnúmque eſt, vbique prouenienſ: ſed maximè in foraminibus, & cauernis. Inſecta hæc omnia ſunt, & multipeda, & exanguia. aſilus thunnorum ſub pinna oritur, ſpecie ſcorpionis, aranei magnitudine. Maris, quod à Cyrena in Ægyptum panditur, piſcis, pediculus nomine circa delphinum eſt, qui omnium pinguiſſimus fit pabuli copia, quæ delphini opera ſuppeditatur.

CAPVT XXXII.

De genere tinearum, quod in lanis procreatur: déque xylophthoro, quod in lignis: necnon de ficariis culicibus, quos caprificus generat.

QVin etiam aliæ generantur beſtiolæ, vt dictũ eſt, tum in lanis, & quibuſuis lanificio confectis: vt tineæ, quæ lanis puluerulentis præcipuè oriuntur: atque etiam magis ſi araneus vna includatur. Si quid enim humoris ineſt, hic abſorbens amplius ſiccitatem. Naſcitur & in tunicis hoc idem vermiculi genus. Tum verò in cera vetuſta, vt in ligno, animal gignitur candidum, quod omnium animalium eſſe minimum exiſtimatur, nomine acari. Necnon alia in chartis, aut iis proxima, quæ in veſte, aut ſcorpioni, ſed ſine cauda generantur perquam exigua. Omnibus propè dixerim, vel ſiccis humeſcentibus, vel humidis ſiccescentibus, creari animal poteſt. Naſcitur & vermiculus quidam, cui nomen à corrumpendis lignis, xylophthoro, ac ſi ligniperdi appelles, nullo minùs abſurdum: caput enim ſuo putamine exerit varium, pedes in poſtremo habet, vt alij vermes: reliquum corpus tunica araneoſa integitur, ſuóque tegumento hærentes feſtucas gerit, ita vt fortè eas, caſúque ſibi contraxiſſe, dum ambularet, videretur: verùm ipſæ natiuæ inhærent tunicæ: & vt limacibus teſta, ſic totum id vermiculo huic adhæret: nec decidit vnquam, ſed euellitur, vt natiuum. Quòd ſi hanc eius tunicam detrahas, expirat, parique modo, atque limax, teſta detracta hebeteſcit. Proceſſu vtique temporis id quoque in aureliam tranſit, vt eruca, atque immobile viuit. Sed quidnam ex eo animalis pennati oriatur, compertum non adhuc eſt. Ficarios culices caprificus generat ſuis pomis: fit primùm vermiculus, mox rupta cute euolat culex, mutatáque ſede, petit ficus immaturas: quibus ſe inſinuãs, facit ne decidant. Quamobrem agricolæ appendere ficis caprificos, & iuxta eaſdem caprificos ſerere aſſolent.

CAPVT XXXIII.

De ſœtura quadrupedum Ouiparorum.

CAPVT I.

Aues omnes oua parere, diuerſis tamen anni temporibus, nec in ouorum numero omnes conuenire.

Serpentium, & inſectorum, atque etiam quadrupedum oua parientium generationes fieri ad hunc modum animaduertimus. Aues autem oua pariunt omnes: ſed tempus coeundi pariendíve, non idem omnibus eſt: quippe cùm aliæ E coeant & pariant omni ferè tempore, vt gallinæ, vt columbæ. Gallina enim toto anno, præterquam duobus menſibus brumalibus, parit. Magna etiam generoſarum nonnullis fœcunditas, quando vel ſexaginta edunt ante incubitum: quanquam ipſæ minùs fœcundæ, quàm ignobiles ſunt. Item Hadrianę paruo quidẽ ſunt corpore, ſed quotidie pariunt: ferociunt tamẽ, & pullos ſæpè interimũt. Color his varius. Nõnullæ etiam è cortalibus bis die pariũt. Iam aliquæ in tãtum copiæ prouenerunt, vt effœtæ breui morerẽtur. Sed gallinæ, vt dictum eſt, perpetuò pariunt. Columbæ autẽ, palumbes, turtur, vinago, bina pariunt. Sed columba vel decies anno: aliæ ſemel anno, & parciùs generant.

Agitur maximo auium numero partus verno tempore. Sed aliis aliæ ſœcundiùs pariunt. Quod bifariam fit: aut enim quia crebriùs, vt columbæ: aut quia numeroſiùs, vt gallinę. Omnes quibus vngues adunci, parciùs generant, excepto tinunculo, qui plurima in adunco genere parit: iam enim quatuor eius reperti ſunt pulli. Sed plures etiam poſſe procreari apertum eſt. Pariunt cæteræ in nidis: quę autem minùs volant, vt perdices, vt coturnices, non nidis, ſed condenſo frutice prolem muniunt. Sic & alauda, & tetrix. Sed hæ ſuum nidum patêre auræ cupiunt. Quem vero Bœoti meropen vocant, hic vnus ſubiens terræ cauernas, facit cunabula. Turdi nidos ex luto, vt hirundines, faciunt in excelſis arboribus, ita deinceps continuato opere, vt quaſi catena quædam nidorum contexta videatur. Vpupa vna ſuo in genere non nidificat, ſed ſtipites arborum ſubiens, parit ſine vllo ſtramento in cauis. Cuculus ſaxa & domicilia petit, in quibus nidificet. Tetrix, quam Athenienſes vragem vocant, nec terræ, nec arbori ſuum nidum committit, ſed frutici.

CAPVT II.

De natura, & diuerſitate ouorum omnium auium, ſeminéque genitali, & incubandi officio.

OVum æquè omnium volucrum duro putamine conſtat, ſi modò non deprauetur, ſed lege conſummetur naturæ (Gallinæ enim nonnullæ pariunt mollia vitio.) Et bicolor quoque ouum auium intus eſt, luteum interius, album exterius. Sed differunt oua aquaticarũ à terreſtribus, quòd multò plus lutei, quàm albi, ex proportione contineant. Differunt & colore inter ſe oua auium. Sũt enim alia candida, vt columbarum, & perdicum: alia pallida, vt paluſtrium: alia punctis diſtincta, vt meleagridum, & phaſianarum. Rubrum tinunculi eſt modo minij. Quin & ipſum ouum in ſe ſuum habet diſcrimen, quippe quod parte ſui acutum, parte latius ſit: qua quidem parte latiore exit, cùm gignitur. Quæ oblonga ſunt oua, & faſtigio cacuminata, fœminam ædunt: quæ autem rotundiora, & parte ſui acutiore obtuſa, orbiculum habẽt, marem gignunt. Incubitu auium, fœtum excludi, naturæ ratio eſt, non tamen ita ſolùm oua aperiuntur, ſed etiam ſponte in terra, vt in Ægypto obruta fimo pullitiem procreant. Et Syracuſis potator quidam, ouis ſub ſtorea in terra poſitis, tamdiu potabat, donec oua æderent fœtum. Iam verò, & cùm in vaſis quibuſdam tepidis eſſent coniecta, ſponte oua pullos prompſere. Semen genitale volucrum omnium album, vt cæterorum animalium eſt. Concipit fœmina quæ coierit, ouum ſuperius ad ſeptum tranſuerſum: quod ouum primò minutum, & candidum cernitur: mox rubrum, cruentùmque: deinde increſcens, luteum & flauum efficitur totum. Iam ampliùs auctum diſcernitur, ita vt intus pars lutea ſit, foris cãdida ambiat. Vbi perfectum eſt, abſoluitur, atque exit putamine, dum paritur, molli, ſed protinus dureſcente, quibuſcũque emergit portionibus, niſi vitio vuluæ defecerit. Iam quale certo tempore eſt, tale aliquando prodiit luteum totum, qualis poſtea pullus eſt.

B rat. Pariunt genus id oui plures aues, vt gallinæ, perdices, columbæ, pauones, anſeres, & quæ ab anſere & vulpe compoſito nomine chenalopeces, id eſt, vulpanſeres dictæ ſunt. Excludunt celeriùs incubantes æſtate, quàm hyeme. Ideo æſtate gallinæ duodevigeſimo die fœtum excludunt, hyeme aliquando vigeſimoquinto. Diſcrimen tamen & auiū eſt, quòd aliæ magis aliis fungi officio incubandi poſſunt. Si incubante gallina, tonuit, oua pereunt. Quæ autem canicularia & vrina à nonnullis vocantur, æſtate magis conſiſtunt. Sunt qui hypenemia, hoc eſt, ſubuentaneos illos partus, zephyria nominent, eo quòd verno tempore aues flatus illos fœcundos ex Fauonio recipere videantur. Sed idē

Redditur certè ouum ſubuentaneum illud fœcundum, & quod iam conceptum per coitum eſt, tranſit in genus diuerſum, ſi priùs coeat, quæ vel ſubuentaneum, vel ſemine maris diuerſi conceptum fert, quàm ouum ipſum à lutea in candidam ambientē partem mutetur. Ita enim fit, vt ſubuentanea oua fœcunda reddantur: & quæ inchoata à mare priora ſunt, ſpecie poſterioris prouenient. at ſi iam candidum acceperunt humorē, fieri non poteſt vt vel ſubuentanea in fœcunda mutentur, vel quæ per coitum concepta geſtantur, tranſeant in genus maris, qui ſecundus coierit. Incœpta quoque, ſi adhuc
D paruis deſierit coitus, non accreſcunt: ſed ſi continuetur, celeri incremēto augentur, iuſtámque magnitudinem implent. Naturam vitellus oui, & albumen habent contrariam, non tantùm colore, verùm etiam virtute. Vitellus enim ſpiſſatur frigore, albumen non, ſed ampliùs humet. Contrà, albumē ſpiſſatur igne, vitellus non, ſed mollis perſiſtit, niſi peruratur: magiſque in aqua feruēte, quàm ad ignē cogitur, atque induratur. Membrana hæc inter ſe diſcernuntur. Grandines autem dictæ, quæ initio vitelli adhærent, nihil ad generationē conferunt: quanquam aliqui ita non exiſtimant. Has duas eſſe certū eſt, alteram parti ſuperiori iunctā, alteram inferiori. Euenit etiam vt ſi quis rupto putamine oua
E plura in patinā coiecit excreta, & coquit igne molli, & continente, vitelli omnes in medium coeant, albumina autem circundent, & ſe in oras conſtituant. Gallinarum iuuencæ pariunt primæ ſtatim vere ineunte: & plura quàm veteres, ſed minora. Denique aues, niſi pariant, laborant morbo: atque intereūt. Inhorreſcūt à coitu, ac ſe excutiunt. Sæpe etiā feſtuca aliqua ſeſe luſtrant: quod idem & edito ouo interdum faciunt. Columbæ caudam diſtendunt, anſeres ſeſe aquis ingurgitāt. Celeriter magna pars auium & impletur, & oua ſubuētanea

Olfactum n. eſſe exquiſitum perdicibus creditur. Oui generatio ab initu, & pulli rurſus ouo concocto prouentus, non pari temporis ſpatio euenit omnibus: ſed pro magnitudine generantis intereſt. Ouum gallinæ conſiſtit à coitu, & perficitur decem diebus magna ex parte: columbæ paucioribus. Facultas columbis retinendi oui, etiam tempore parturiendi eſt. Nam ſi ab aliquo vexetur, aut penna in nido euulſa, vel quauis alia ſimili re infeſtetur, aut etiam ſponte moroſius habeat, ouum per triſtitiam retinet, partúmque differt. Peculiare columbis illud etiam eſt, vt in coitu, niſi antè mutuò oſculentur, mas non aſcendat. Sed iunior ſit, an ſenior, intereſt: ſenior enim primum coitum oſculo exorditur: ſequentem & ſine oſculo agit. at iunior quoties libet coire, toties oſculatur. Igitur hic ritus columbarum proprius eſt, atque etiam ille, vt fœminæ ſaliant, ac ſupergreſſu mutuo agant, ſi mas non ſit, & cum oſculo vt mares: & quamuis nihil altera emittat in alterā, tamen plura ſic oua, quam ex maris coitu, pariunt. Verùm nullus hic enaſcitur pullus, ſed ſunt omnia irrita.

CAPVT III.

Quot dierum ſpatio pullus in ouo generetur, deque eius creationis ordine.

GEneratio vero ex ouo omnibus volucribus euenit, modo quidem eodem: ſed tempora differunt, vt dictum iam eſt. Gallinis porrò tertia die ac nocte poſtquam cœpêre incubare, indicium præſtare incipiunt. at maiorum auium generi plus prætereat temporis, neceſſe eſt. minori autem minus ſufficit. Effertur per id tempus luteus humor ad cacumen, qua principium oui eſt: atque ouum detegitur ea parte, & cor quaſi pūctum ſanguineum in candido liquore conſiſtit: quod punctum ſalit iam, & mouetur, vt animal. Tendunt ex eo meatus venales ſanguiferi duo tortuoſi ad tunicam, ambientem vtramque, dum augetur. Membrana etiam fibris diſtincta ſanguineis, iam album liquorem per id tempus circumdat, à meatibus illis venarum oriens. Paulò autem poſt, & corpus iam pulli diſcernitur, exiguum admodum primum & candidum, conſpicuum capite, & maximè oculis inflatis, quibus ita permanet diu: ſero enim decreſcunt oculi, & ſe ad ratam contrahunt proportionem. Pars autem inferior corporis, nullo membro à ſuperiore diſtingui inter initia cernitur. Meatuum, quos ex corde tendere diximus, alter ad ambiēdum album liquorem fertur, alter ad luteum, velut vmbilicus. Origo itaque pulli in albumine eſt, cibus per vmbilicum ex luteo petitur. Die iam decimo pullus totus perſpicuus eſt, & membra omnia patent. Caput grandius toto corpore eſt. Oculi capite grandiores hærent: quippe qui fabis maiores per id tempus emineant nigri, nondum cum pupilla. Quibus ſi cutem detrahas, nihil ſolidi videris, ſed humorem candidum, rigidúmque admodum refulgentē ad lucem, nec quicquam aliud. Ita oculi, & caput.

ΗΔὲ γένεσις ἐκ τοῦ ᾠοῦ συμβαίνει τοῖς ὄρνισι· συμβαίνει μὲν τὸν αὐτὸν τρόπον πᾶσιν, οἱ δὲ χρόνοι διαφέρουσι τῆς τελειώσεως, καθάπερ εἴρηται. Ταῖς μὲν οὖν ἀλεκτορίσι, τριῶν ἡμερῶν καὶ νυκτῶν παρελθουσῶν, ὑποσημαίνει τὸ πρῶτον· ταῖς δὲ μείζοσιν αὐτῶν ὀρνίσιν, ἐν πλείοσι· ταῖς δ᾽ ἐλάττοσιν, * ἐλάττονα. ἐν δὲ τούτῳ τῷ χρόνῳ ἤδη ἀνελήλυθεν ἡ ὠχρὰ πρὸς τὸ ὀξύ, ᾗπερ ἡ ἀρχὴ τοῦ ᾠοῦ καὶ ἐκλέπεται τὸ ᾠόν, καὶ ὅσον στιγμὴ αἱματίνη ἐν τῷ λευκῷ ἡ καρδία. τοῦτο δὲ τὸ σημεῖον πηδᾷ καὶ κινεῖται, ὥσπερ ἔμψυχον· καὶ ἀπ᾽ αὐτοῦ δύο πόροι φλεβικοὶ ἔναιμοι ἑλισσόμενοι φέρουσιν αὐξανομένου εἰς ἑκάτερον τῶν χιτώνων τῶν περιεχόντων· καὶ ὑμὴν δὲ αἱματικὰς ἶνας ἔχων, ἤδη περιέχει τὸ λευκὸν κατὰ τὸν χρόνον τοῦτον, ἀπὸ τῶν πόρων τῶν φλεβικῶν ἐκείνων. μικρὸν δ᾽ ὕστερον, καὶ τὸ σῶμα ἤδη ἀποκρίνεται, μικρὸν τὸ πρῶτον πάμπαν, καὶ τὸ λευκόν. δῆλον δὲ ἡ κεφαλή, καὶ ταύτης οἱ ὀφθαλμοὶ μάλιστα ἐμπεφυσημένοι· καὶ τοῦτο μέχρι πόρρω διατελεῖ· ὀψὲ γάρ ποτε μικροὶ γίνονται καὶ συμπίπτουσι. τοῦ δὲ σώματος τὸ κάτω μόριον οὐθὲν φαίνεται μόριον πρὸς τὸ ἄνω τὸ πρῶτον. τῶν δὲ πόρων τῶν ἐκ τῆς καρδίας τεινόντων, ὁ μὲν φέρει εἰς τὸ κύκλῳ περιέχον, ὁ δὲ εἰς τὸ ὠχρόν, ὥσπερ ὀμφαλὸς ὤν. ἡ μὲν οὖν ἀρχὴ τοῦ νεοττοῦ ἐστὶν ἐν τῷ λευκῷ, ἡ δὲ τροφὴ διὰ τοῦ ὀμφαλοῦ ἐκ τοῦ ὠχροῦ. δεχαταίου δὲ ἤδη ὄντος, ὁ νεοττὸς ἐπίδηλος ὅλος, καὶ τὰ μέρη πάντα. ἔχει δὲ τὴν κεφαλὴν μείζω τοῦ ἄλλου σώματος, καὶ τοὺς ὀφθαλμοὺς τῆς κεφαλῆς, οὐκ ἔχοντας πω ὄψιν. οἱ δὲ ὀφθαλμοὶ περὶ τὸν χρόνον τοῦτον * ἐξαιρούμενοι μείζους κυάμων, καὶ μέλανες· ἀφαιρουμένου δὲ τοῦ δέρματος, ὑγρὸν ἔνεστι λευκὸν καὶ ψυχρόν, σφόδρα στίλβον πρὸς τὴν αὐγήν, ἕτερον δ᾽ οὐθέν. τὰ μὲν οὖν περὶ τὰ ὄμματα καὶ τὴν κεφαλὴν, τοῦτον διάκειται τὸν τρόπον.

A Iam verò & viſcera eo tempore patent, & alui inteſtinorúmque natura perſpicua eſt. Venæ etiam illæ à corde proficiſcentes, iam ſeſe iuxta vmbilicum conſtituunt. ab ipſo autem vmbilico vena oritur duplex: altera tendens ad membranã ambientem vitellum, qui eo tempore humet, & largior, quàm ſecundùm naturam, eſt: altera permeans ad membranam, ambientem eam, qua pullus operitur, & eam quæ vitellum humorémque interiectũ continet. Dum enim pullus paulatim increſcit, vitellus ſeorſum in duas partes ſecatur: quarum altera locum tenet ſuperiorem, altera inferiorem: & medius humor candidus continetur. Nec partem B inferiorem à vitello liquor deſerit albus, qualis antè habebatur. Decimo die albumen exiguum iam, & lentum, craſſum, pallidulum nouiſſimè ineſt. Sunt enim quæque locata hoc ordine. Prima poſtremáque ad teſtam oui membrana poſita eſt, non teſtæ ipſius natiua, ſed altera illi ſubiecta. Liquor in ea candidus eſt. Deinde pullus continetur obuolutus membrana, ne in humore maneat. Mox pullo vitellus ſubiacet, in quem alterã ex venis prorepere dictum eſt, cùm altera albumen ambiens petat. Cuncta autem ambit membrana cum humore, ſpecie ſaniei. Tum verò membrana alia circa ipſum fœtum, vt dictum eſt, ducitur, arcens humorem: ſub qua vitellus, alia obuolutus mem- C brana: in quem vmbilicus à corde ac vena maiore oriens pertinet: atque ita efficitur ne fœtus alterutro humore attingatur. Viceſimo die iam pullus, ſi quis putamine ſecto ſolicitet, mouet intus ſeſe, pipitque aliquantulum: & iam ab eodẽ die plumeſcit, quoties vltra viceſimum excluſio protelatur. Ita poſitus eſt, vt caput ſuper crus dextrum admotum ilibus, alam ſuper caput poſitam habeat. Quinetiam membrana, quæ pro ſecundis habetur, poſt vltimam teſtæ membranam, ad quã alter vmbilicus pertendit, euidens per id tempus eſt, pulluſque in eadem iam totus locatur. Et altera quoque membrana, quæ & ipſa vicem ſecundarum D præſtat, vitellumque ambit, ad quem alter vmbilicus procedit, latiùs patet. Oritur vmbilicus vterque à corde, & vena maiore, vt dictum eſt. Fit autem per id tempus, vt vmbilicus alter, qui in ſecundas exteriores fertur, compreſſo iam animante abſoluatur: alter, qui adit vitellum, ad pulli tenue inteſtinum annectatur. Iam & pullum ipſum multum humoris lutei ſubit: atque in eius aluo fæcis aliquid ſubſidit luteum. Excremẽtum etiam album eodem tempore pullus emittit, & in aluo quiddam album conſiſtit. Demum vitellus paulatim abſumitur totus membrorum hauſtu, ita vt ſi pullo decimo die poſt excluſo reſcindas aluum nonnihil adhuc vitelli comperias. Vmbilico verò abſoluitur E pullus: nec quicquam præterea haurit. totus enim humor, qui in medio continebatur, abſumptus iam eſt. Tempore autem ſupra dicto pullus dormit quidem, ſed non perpetuò, quippe qui excitetur interdum, & mouens ſeſe reſpiciat, atque pipiat. Cor etiam eius cum vmbilico, vt ſpirantis reſflat, & palpitat. Sed auium ortus ad hunc modum ex ouo agitur. Pariunt autem oua nonnulla infœcunda, vel ex iis ipſis quæ conceperint coitu. Nullus enim prouenit fœtus, quamuis incubitu foueatur. quod maximè in columbis notatum eſt.

PAriunt magna ex parte bina oua, quæ ſpecie columbacea continentur omnia, vt palumbes, vt turtur: ſed cùm plurimùm, terna palumbes, & turtur. Columbæ omni tempore, vt dictum eſt, pariunt. Turtur, & palumbes vêre, nec plus quàm bis: atque ita, ſi prior fœtus corruptus eſt. Frangunt enim oua mares auium complures. Sed quamuis tria interdum pepererint oua, nunquam plus duobus pullis educunt: nonnunquam etiam vnum tãtùm: reliquum ouum ſemper irritum eſt, quod vrinum vocant. Aues magna ex parte anniculæ nequeunt generare. Omnes verò cum parere incœpere, ſemper ferè oua continent: quanquam in nonnullis facilè ob exilitatem videri non poſſunt. Columbæ magna ex parte marem & fœminam generãt: priorem marem, poſteriorem fœminam: & cùm pepererint primum ouum, vno interpoſito die ſecundum pariunt. Incubant ambo viciſſim, interdiu mas, noctu fœmina. Concoquunt, atque aperiũt citra diẽ viceſimum, ouum, quod priùs ediderint. Perforant ouum pridie eius diei, quo pullum excludunt: & fouent prolem ambo ad certum tempus eodem modo quo oua. Fœmina in opere ſobolis acerbior mare eſt, vt cæteris quoque à partu euenit animalibus. pariunt decies anno: nonnullæ etiam vndecies: Ægyptiæ verò & duodecies. Coeunt intra annum columbæ, quippe quæ ſemeſtres noſſe incipiant venerem. Palumbes & turtures etiam trimeſtres coire fœtificaréque aliqui referunt, argumento quòd larga eorum copia eſt. Gerũt vterum decem & quatuor diebus, ac totidem aliis incubãt, & totidem aliis foetus ita volucer fit, atque perficitur, vt vix poſſit apprehendi. Vita palumbium vel ad quadraginta annos durare exiſtimatur: perdicum ampliùs, quàm ad ſexdecim. Columba citra dies triginta prole expedita ſuperiore, parit.

A Iam verò & viſcera eo tempore patent, & alui inteſtinorúmque natura perſpicua eſt. Venæ etiam illæ à corde proficiſcentes, iam ſeſe iuxta vmbilicum conſtituunt. ab ipſo autem vmbilico vena oritur duplex: altera tendens ad membranã ambientem vitellum, qui eo tempore humet, & largior, quàm ſecundùm naturam, eſt: altera permeans ad membranam, ambientem eam, qua pullus operitur, & eam quæ vitellum humorémque interiectũ continet. Dum enim pullus paulatim increſcit, vitellus ſeorſum in duas partes ſecatur: quarum altera locum tenet ſuperiorem, altera inferiorem: & medius humor candidus continetur. Nec partem B inferiorem a vitello liquor deſerit albus, qualis antè habebatur. Decimo die albumen exiguum iam, & lentum, craſſum, pallidulum nouiſſimè ineſt. Sunt enim quæque locata hoc ordine. Prima poſtremáque ad teſtam oui membrana poſita eſt, non teſtæ ipſius natiua, ſed altera illi ſubiecta. Liquor in ea candidus eſt. Deinde pullus continetur obuolutus membrana, ne in humore maneat. Mox pullo vitellus ſubiacet, in quem alterã ex venis protepere dictum eſt, cùm altera albumen ambiens petat. Cuncta autem ambit membrana cum humore, ſpecie ſaniei. Tum verò membrana alia circa ipſum fœtum, vt dictum eſt, ducitur, arcens humorem: ſub qua vitellus, alia obuolutus mem- C brana: in quem vmbilicus à corde ac vena maiore oriens pertinet: atque ita efficitur ne fœtus alterutro humore attingatur. Vigeſimo die iam pullus, ſi quis putamine ſecto ſolicitet, mouet intus ſeſe, pipitque aliquantulum: & iam ab eodẽ die plumeſcit, quoties vltra vigeſimum excluſio procelatur. Ita poſitus eſt, vt caput ſuper crus dextrum admotum ilibus, alam ſuper caput poſitam habeat. Quinetiam membrana, quæ pro ſecundis habetur, poſt vltimam teſtæ membranam, ad quã alter vmbilicus pertendit, euidens per id tempus eſt, pulluſque in eadem iam totus locatur. Et altera quoque membrana, quæ & ipſa vicem ſecundarum D præſtat, vitellumque ambit, ad quem alter vmbilicus procedit, latiùs patet. Oritur vmbilicus vterque à corde, & vena maiore, vt dictum eſt. Fit autem per id tempus, vt vmbilicus alter, qui in ſecundás exteriores fertur, compreſſo iam animante abſoluatur: alter, qui adit vitellum, ad pulli tenue inteſtinum annectatur. Iam & pullum ipſum multum humoris lutei ſubit, atque in eius aluo fæcis aliquid ſubſidit luteum. Excremẽtum etiam album eodem tempore pullus emittit, & in aluo quiddam album conſiſtit. Demum vitellus paulatim abſumitur totus membrorum hauſtu, ita vt ſi pullo decimo die poſt excluſo reſcindas aluum nonnihil adhuc vitelli comperias. Vmbilico verò abſoluitur E pullus: nec quicquam præterea haurit. totus enim humor, qui in medio continebatur, abſumptus iam eſt. Tempore autem ſuprà dicto pullus dormit quidem, ſed non perpetuò, quippe qui excitetur interdum, & mouens ſeſe reſpiciat, atque pipiat. Cor etiam eius cum vmbilico, vt ſpirantis reſſat, & palpitat. Sed auium ortus ad hunc modum ex ouo agitur. Pariunt autem oua nonnulla infœcunda, vel ex iis ipſis quæ conceperint coitu. Nullus enim prouenit fœtus, quamuis incubitu foueatur. quod maximè in columbis notatum eſt.

Genus columbaceum bina oua, vel terrena ad ſummum parere, déque eius fœtificationis ordine. B

PAriunt magna ex parte bina oua, quæ ſpecie columbacea continentur omnia, vt palumbes, vt turtur: ſed cùm plurimùm, terna palumbes, & turtur. Columbæ omni tempore, vt dictum eſt, pariunt. Turtur, & palumbes vere, nec plus quàm bis: atque ita, ſi prior fœtus corruptus eſt. Frangunt enim oua mares auium complures. Sed quamuis tria interdum pepererint oua, nunquam plus duobus pullis educunt: nonnunquam etiam vnum tātùm: reliquum ouum ſemper irritum eſt, quod vrinum vocant. Aues magna ex parte anniculæ nequeunt generare. Omnes verò cùm parere incœpere, ſemper ferè oua continent: quanquam in nonnullis facilè ob exilitatem videri non poſſunt. Columbæ magna ex parte marem & fœminam generāt: priorem marem, poſteriorem fœminam: & cùm pepererint primum ouum, vno interpoſito die ſecundum pariunt. Incubant ambo viciſſim, interdiu mas, noctu fœmina. Concoquunt, atque aperiunt citra diē viceſimum, ouum, quod priùs ediderint. Perforant ouum pridie eius diei, quo pullum excludunt: & fouent prolem ambo ad certum tempus eodem modo quo oua. Fœmina in opere ſobolis acerbior mare eſt, vt cæteris quoque à partu euenit animalibus. pariunt decies anno: nonnullæ etiam vndecies: Ægyptiæ verò & duodecies. Coeunt intra annum columbæ, quippe quæ ſemeſtres noſſe incipiant venerem. Palumbes & turtures etiam trimeſtres coire fœtificaréque aliqui referunt, argumento quòd larga eorum copia eſt. Gerūt vterum decem & quatuor diebus, ac totidem aliis incubāt, & totidem aliis foetus ita volucer fit, atque perficitur, vt vix poſſit apprehendi. Vita palumbium vel ad quadraginta annos durare exiſtimatur: perdicum ampliùs, quàm ad ſexdecim. Columba citra dies triginta prole expedita ſuperiore, parit.

CAPVT VI.

De Aquilarum genere, & fœtu: déque Anſeris, Accipitris, Milui, & Corui partu.

AQuilæ oua pariunt terna: ſed pullos binos excludunt, vt ex verſu, quem ad Muſæum referunt authorem, conſtat:

Sed quamuis magna ex parte ſic fiat, tamen & tres viſi aliquando ſunt pulli. alterum in educando expellunt tædio nutriendi: nam & degenerare, ac hebeſcere aquila dicitur eo tempore, vt fœtus ferarum rapere non queat: noménque hinc exacti, hoc eſt, degenerantis aquilæ, accipit. Vngues etiã eius inuertuntur diebus paucis, & pennæ albeſcunt, vt meritò ſuos oderit partus. Sed pullum eiectum oſſifraga excipit, atque educat. Incubat aquila tricenis diebus. Et cęteris quoque magnis alitibus tempus incubandi tantumdem à natura ſtatutum eſt, vt anſeri, vt tardæ. Mediocribus viceni perficiunt incubationem, vt accipitri, vt miluo. Pariunt milui bina magna ex parte: interdum tamen & terna, totidémque excludunt pullos: ſed qui ætolius nuncupatur, vel quaternos aliquando excludit. Coruus quoque non modò bina, vt aliqui volunt, parit, verùm etiam plura. Incubat autem viginti diebus, & pullos nido expellit. Quod idem & alię complures volucres faciunt. Quibus enim partus numeroſior eſt, vnum ſæpe eijciunt. Genera aquilarum non æquè omnia prolem faſtidiunt: ſed difficilior in alendo vna, cui nomen pygargo cauda albicans dederat: benignior, quæ tota nigricat colore. Nam omnes ferè alites, quibus vngues adunci, pullos cùm primùm prouolandi facultas fuerit, nido expellũt, percutientéſque cogunt diſcedere. Et cæteræ quoque aues maxima ferè ſui parte, vt dictum eſt, idem hoc faciunt. Cúmque enutrierint, nihil præterea adhibent curæ, excepta cornice, quæ aliquamdiu prouidet: quippe quæ volantes iam ſuos pullos paſcens ipſa comitetur.

CAPVT VII.

De Cuculi natura, & eius partu.

CVculus ex accipitre fieri, immutata figura, à nonnullis putatur: quoniam quo tempore is apparet, accipiter ille, cui ſimilis eſt, non aſpicitur. Sed ita ferè euenit vt ne cæteri quidem accipitres item cernantur, cùm primùm vocem emiſit cuculus, niſi perquam paucis diebus. Ipſe autem breui tempore æſtatis viſus, hyeme non cernitur. Eſt hic neque aduncis vnguibus, vt accipiter, neque capite accipitri ſimilis: ſed ea vtraque parte columbum potiùs quàm accipitrem repræſentat: nec alio, quàm colore imitatur accipitrem, niſi quòd accipiter maculis diſtinguitur, ceu lineis: cuculus velvt punctis. Magnitudo, atque volatus ſimilis accipitrũ minimo, qui magna ex parte per id tempus non cernitur, quo cuculus apparet: nam vel ambo vnà viſi aliquando ſunt. Quinetiam ab accipitre interimi cuculus viſus eſt: quod quod nulla auis ſuo in genere ſolet facere. Pullos A cuculi nemo ſe ait vidiſſe. Parit tamen, verùm non in nido, quem ipſe fecerit, ſed interdum in nidis minorum auium: & oua, quæ aliena repererit, edit. Maximè verò nidos palumbium petit, quorum & ipſorum oua eſu abſumens, ſua relinquit. Parit maiore ex parte ſingula oua, rarò bina. Curucæ quoque in nido parit. Fouet illa, excludit, & educat. Quo quidem præcipuè tempore & pinguis, & grati ſaporis pullus cuculi eſt. Pulli etiam accipitrum ſuaues valde, pinguéſque efficiuntur. Genus eorum quoddam nidos facere procul in petris excelſis præruptiſque aſſolet.

CAPVT VIII.

Anſerum fœminæ tantùm incubant: quæ vt cœperunt, nunquam intermittunt, ſed perpetuo fouent incubitu. Aquaticæ omnes iuxta paludes, & locis herbã habentibus, nidos faciunt: quo fit vt vel occupatę negotio incubandi, poſſint ſumere cibum, nec omnino inedia laborẽt. Cornicum etiam fœminæ tantùm incubant, aſſiduéque in opere perſeuerant. Mares his cibum ſuggerunt, paſcúntque incubantes. Gallinis ſubijciunt incubanda oua pauonia, quoniam mas, dum fœmina incubat, aduolans ea frangat. Quam ob cauſam & ſylueſtres nonnullæ aues pariunt fugientes marem, & incubant. Subijciuntur maximè bina, cùm plura ſuo incubitu nequeant aperire. Curáque adhibetur vt cibus aſſit, ne deſiderio eius diſcedens gallina intermittat fouẽdi operam. Teſtes auium grandiores effici tempore coitus certum eſt: ſed ſalaciorum conſpectiores ſunt, vt gallinaceorũ, & perdicũ: temperantiorũ minùs.

CAPVT X.

PIſces haud omnes parere oua dictum iam eſt. Genus enim cartilagineum animal generat. reliqua oua pariunt. Sed nec cartilagineis quidem fœtus ſine ouo: pariunt enim intra ſe oua, & augent, atque excludunt præterquam raia. Vuluas etiam piſces habent diuerſas, vt dictum eſt. Nã qui pariunt oua, bifurcatas habent, atque inferiùs B poſitas. Cartilaginea verò ea ſpecie potiùs habent, qua aues: ſed intereſt, quòd oua non iuxta præcordia omnibus, ſed infra nonnullis per ſpinam conſiſtunt: vnde aucta in alium transferuntur locum. Ouum piſcium non bicolor, vt auium, ſed vnicolor omnium eſt, & plus albi trahens, quàm lutei, tam antè quàm poſtea, cùm fœtus inſidet. Differt piſcium generatio ex ouo, ab auium generatione, eo quòd altero caret vmbilico, qui ad membranam teſtæ ſubditam tendat: alterum enim tantùm, qui auibus ad vitellum fertur, habet meatum. Cætera idem ortus ex ouo auium, & piſcium eſt, quippe cùm & fœtus in extremo ouo naſcantur, & venæ ſimiles* ex corde inter initia proficiſcantur: C & caput, oculi, denique partes ſuperiores principio fiant prægrandes: increſcente etiam fœtu, humor pari modo ſubinde abſumitur: demúmque nihil ſupereſt, quod non fœtum ſubierit, ſicvt de vitello auium expoſitum eſt. Quinetiam vmbilicus paulò à ventre inferiùs hæret, qui recens natis longior ſit, creſcentibus paulatim breuior reddatur, demúmque ſe totum intra fœtum recondat, vt dictum de auibus eſt. Membrana quoque eadem ouum & fœtum continet: cui membrana altera fœtum per ſe continens ſubiacet, humor autem inter membranas poſitus eſt. adhæc, cibus in aluo ſuggeritur, eodem modo piſciculis albus, quo auium pullis luteus. Figura vuluæ ex diſſectione D petenda eſt. Diſcrimen autem inter ſe ipſi piſces oſtendunt, vt muſtelini, qui tum inter ſe tum etiam à planis ratione vteri differunt. Nonnullis enim medio vuluæ circa ſpinam oua adhærent, quemadmodum dictum eſt, vt caniculis: quæ cùm accreuerint, abſoluta feruntur per vuluam bifurcem, annexámque ad præcordia, quomodo & cæteris generis eiuſdem in vtramque partem transferuntur. Habet tam eorum quàm cæterorum muſtelini generis vulua paulò à præcordiis inferiùs, velvti mammas albidas, quæ non niſi grauidis habeantur. Caniculæ & raiæ teſtacea quædam gerunt, in quibus humor ad oui ſimilitudinẽ conſiſtit. Figura eius teſtæ ſimilis tibiarũ ligulis eſt: meatúſque fiunt capil- E lamentorum ſpecie in teſtis. Sed caniculis, quas aliqui ab hinnulo, nebrios muſtelos appellant, fœtus rupta dilapſaque illa teſta proueniunt. Raijs, cùm pepererint, rupta teſta excluditur fœtus: ſpinaces verò muſteli, ſic à ſpina, quã habent, nuncupati, oua ad præcordia cõtinent ſuper mammas: quibus vt deſcenderint, iam abſolutis, fœtus innaſcitur.

Idem hic generandi modus & vulpeculis eſt. Muſteli autem læues vocati, oua per vuluam mediam, vt caniculæ geſtant, quæ poſtea in vtrumque vteri ſinum deſcendant. Mox animal gignitur vmbilico hærente ad vuluam, ita vt ouo abſumpto, partus nõ aliter quàm in quadrupede contineri videatur. adhæret vmbilicus ille prolixus capite altero ad partem vuluæ inferiorem, velvti acetabulo annexus: altero ad medium fœtum, qua in parte iecur eſt. Cibum ſi reſeces, fœtum ad oui ſimilitudinẽ videris, etiam ſi non præterea ouum habeat. Secundæ, membranæque ſingulæ fœtus ſingulos modo quadrupedum continent. Caput prolis in vtero nouæ adhuc partem ſpectat ſuperiorem: auctioris iam, & perfectioris, inferiorem verſus transfertur. Mares in læua fœminæ in dextra ingenerantur: atque etiã parte eadem vna, fœminæ & mares. Viſcera etiam fœtus habet, vt iecur: perinde atque in quadrupede magna cruentáque reſecto cernuntur. Omnia cartilaginea ſimul & oua parte ſuperiore circa pręcordia continent complura: alia maiora, alia minora, & inferiore animalia iam excluſa. Vnde fit vt genus id piſcium ſæpius menſe & pariat, & coeat: quippe quod non vniuerſa edere ſoleat quæ conceperit, ſed particulatim repetẽs ſæpe, & diu peragens, vt dum ſuperiùs oua contrahit, inferiùs coquat, atque perficiat. Cæteri muſteli fœtus ſuos & emittunt, & recipiunt intra ſe ipſos. Quod idem & ſquatinæ & torpedines faciunt. Et quidem iam viſa torpedo eſt grandis, quæ fœtus intra ſe circiter octoginta haberet. Sed ſpinax vnus ex muſtelis recipere prolem ſpinæ impedimento non poteſt. Neque verò paſtinaca, & raia ex planis recipiunt propter caudæ aſperitatem. Raia etiam ſuam non recipit ſobolem, tum capitis magnitudine, tum aculeorum impedimento. Nam ne animal quidem vna hæc parit, vt dictum eſt. Diſcrimen, quo hęc inter ſe ipſa diſcrepent, & generatio ex ouo ad hunc modum eſt.

CAPVT XI.

De affluentia genitalis ſeminis in piſcibus maribus fœtus tempore, quomodóque differant genitales meatus maris & fœminæ: déque cartilagineorum partu.

MAres autẽ piſciũ, tẽpore coitus, meatus plenos ſeminis genitalis ita habẽt, vt attritu facilè ſemẽ ipſũ effluat candidũ. Meatus hi à præcordiis venáq; maiore oriuntur bifurces, patẽntque eo tẽpore etiã imperitis; ſcilicet incremẽto ſeminis, & turgẽtis fartu libidinis. Interdũ enim, ac nonnullis admodum incerti redduntur, vt de teſtibus in auiũ genere expoſitũ eſt. Differunt inter ſe meatus genitales maris & fœminæ, tum aliis rebus, tum etiam quòd maris lũbis inhærẽt firmiùs: fœminæ mobiles ſunt, & mẽbrana tenui continẽtur. Sed hæc quẽadmodum ſe habeant, ex deſcriptione diſſectionum conſiderãda ſunt. Superfœtãt cartilaginea genera, & ferunt vterũ menſibus cumplurimum ſenis: ſed ſępiſſimè qui ex muſtelis ſtellares vocantur, quippe qui mẽſe bis pariant. Initium autem coitus menſe Septẽbri eſt. Cæteri muſteli bis anno pariunt, excepta canicula, quæ ſemel. Omnia in vẽre hęc pariũt.

A Squatina etiam autumno, occaſu Vergiliarum, qui partus ſecundus eſt. Primus enim verno fit tempore: ſed ſecundus felicior eſt. Torpedo circa autumnũ. Repetunt cartilaginea littus & vada, pelago, & alto relicto gurgite, cùm tempus pariendi inſtat, vt neque tepore careant, & progeniem tutiùs collocent. Piſcium cæterorum diuerſa genera coire viſum à nemine eſt. Squatinam ſolam, & raiam hoc facere creditur, argumẽto piſcis cuiuſdam, qui nomen ex vtroque cõpoſitum trahit rhinobati, quaſi ſquatinoraiam appelles. Eſt enim parte priore raiæ ſimilis, poſteriore ſquatinæ, tanquam ex eo vtroque proueniens genere. Muſteli igitur, genuſque omne muſtelinum, vt vulpecula, vt canis: & plani,

CAPVT XII.

De partu, & pullorum numero piſcium viuiparorum, delphino, balena, vitulo marino, & reliquis, quæ cete appellantur.

C nim oua habere cernitur: ſed ſtatim fœtum, ex quo redacto in formam animal conſtat: quemadmodum homo, & quadrupedes, quæ animal pariunt. Delphini ſingulos magna ex parte edunt: interdum tamen & binos. Balænæ vel binos cumplurimùm magnaque ex parte vel ſingulos procreant. Idem & phocænæ, id eſt, turſioni, partus, qui delphino ſimilis eſt, naſcens in Ponto. Sed intereſt, quòd minor turſio eſt, dorſo ampliore, colore cæruleo. Complures cum genus eſſe delphini opinantur. Spirant, quæ fiſtulam habent, omnia, & recipiunt aërem: haud enim carent pulmone. Et quidem viſus delphinus eſt dormire, ro-
D ſtro emerſo, ac ſtertere. Lac & delphinus habet, & turſio, quo ſuos nutriunt fœtus: geſtantque eoſdem infirmos infantia. adoleſcit celeriùs proles delphini, quippe quæ annis decem ad ſummam perueniat magnitudinem. Geſtatur vtero decem menſibus. Partus delphinis æſtate, nec vllo tempore alio. Fit etiam vt delphini tricenis diebus occultentur, & lateãt circa ortum canis ſyderis. adultos etiam fœtus diu comitantur. Magna erga gnatos charitas in hoc animali eſt: viuit annis compluribus. Conſtitit enim nonnullos vixiſſe annis viginti quinque, alios etiam triginta. Quod cognitum eſt, præciſa à piſcatoribus cauda, vt quos ita reddidiſſent mari, captos item agnoſcerent, & temporis
E ſpatium ſcirent. Vitulus marinus generis ambigui eſt: nam & mari degit: quanquam humorem non recipit, ſed ſpirat, ac dormit, & egreſſus in terram parit in littore, vt terreſtre. Sed quoniam plus temporis mari quàm terræ immoretur, cibumque ex humore petat, ideo in aquaticis de eo narrandum eſt. Ergo hoc animal & concipit ſtatim intra ſe, & parit: ſecundas quoque emittit, & lac reddit modo pecudum. Parit ſingulos, aut geminos & cumplurimùm tres. Mammis, quas geminas habet, educat fœtum ritu quadrupedum. Parit vt homo omni tempore, ſed maximè cum primis capris.

Prolem circa duodecimum diem à partu deducit in mare, ſubinde aſſuefaciens. Illa decliuis fertur, nec ambulat, cùm nondum inniti ſuis pedibus valeat. Colligere ſe ipſe vitulus, & contrahere poteſt: carne enim abundat, molliſque eſt, atque oſſibus cartilaginoſis conſtat. Interficitur difficulter, niſi eliſis temporibus capitis: corpus enim totum carnoſum eſt. Mugitus ei in ſomno. Genitale fœminæ ſimile raiæ eſt. Omnia verò id genus muliebris ſexus ſimilitudinem referunt. Generatio partúſque aquaticorum, quæ animal vel intra ſe, vel foris pariant, ita agitur.

CAPVT XIII.

PIſces autem, qui oua pariunt, vuluam biſurcem, ac inferiùs poſitam habent, vt dictum eſt. Pariunt oua omnes, qui ſquamis teguntur, vt lupus, mugilis, etelis, & qui candidi appellantur, & qui læues, præterquam anguilla. Ouum ipſum arenidum eſt. Quod etſi vtero continetur, tamen detectum, & per ſeipſum conſtare videtur, quia tota vulua ouis referta eſt. Itaque fit, vt in paruis quidem piſciculis oua tantummodo gemina eſſe videantur: nam ob tenuitatem exiguitatemque vulua incerta in iis eſt. De coitu piſcium ſatis dictum iam eſt. Sexu autem eos quoque diſtingui apertum eſt. Pars enim piſcium maxima, conſummatur mare & fœmina. De rubelione & hiatula ambigitur: omnes enim grauidæ capiuntur. Conſiſtunt itaque oua per coitum, in iis qui Venerem norunt: ſed non coitu tantùm, verumetiam ſine coitu. Quod argumento conſtat nonnullorum fluuiatilium: nam phoxini ſtatim, propè dixerim, cùm nati ſunt, & admodum parui adhuc, oua habent. Spargunt ſua oues omnes, & magnam ouorum partem (vt narratur) mares deuorant: alia pereunt in humore. Quæ autem in locis opportunis edita ſunt, hæc ſeruantur. Nam ſi omnia ſeruarentur, nimia cuiuſque generis eſſet copia. Nec verò hæc omnia fœcunda locantur, ſed ea certè, quibus editis mas ſemen aſperſerit genitale. Sub partu enim mas ſequens, ſemen ouis aſpergit: & quæ vitaleid virus contigerit, iis piſciculi enaſcuntur: cæteris prout fors tulit, euenit. Hoc idem & in mollium genere fit. Mas enim ſepia, oua, quæ fœmina ediderit, perſequitur, ſuum ſemen aſpergens. Quod vel in reliquis eiuſdem generis fieri, ratio eſt. Verùm non niſi in ſepiis hoc viſum adhuc eſt. Pariunt iuxta litora gobiones, ſuáque oua lapidum amplexibus mandant, latiuſcula, & arenida. Idem & cæteri faciunt, quoniam litora & tepidiora ſunt, & tutiora, ne fœtus à maioribus abſumantur. Cibum etiam præbent vberiùs: vnde fit, vt in Ponto circa Thermodontem amnem plurimi pariant: eſt enim is locus tranquillus, tepidus, & aquarum dulcium copioſus. Piſces, qui oua edunt, ſemel pariunt anno: præter phucas puſillas, quæ bis pariunt anno. Differt hoc in genere mas à fœmina, quòd nigrior, & ſquamis amplioribus eſt. Cæteri piſces oua eodem foramine vuluæ edunt. Quæ autem acus vocatur, vnus tempore pariendi vtero dehiſcente oua emittit.

A Habet enim hic rimam quandam ſub ventre imo, vt cæciliæ ſerpentes. A partu autem viuit, & vulnus calleſcit. Generatio ex ouo ſimili agitur modo, ſiue intus, ſiue foris eſt ouum. Summo namque ouo innaſcitur fœtus mẽbrana obducta. Oculi primum patent grãdes, & in globi ſpeciem afformati. Quare conſtat, non ſimiliter gigni, atque ex vermibus, vt quidam putarunt. Contrà enim in illis euenit, vt pars inferior maior inter initia ſit, oculi & caput poſtea augeantur. Ouo autem rupto, fœtus velut nucleus conſtat, qui primùm nullum accipit cibũ, ſed oui humore iam hauſto increſcunt, pòſt nutriuntur aquis dulcibus fluuiorum, vſque dum ſatis augeantur. CAPVT XIV.

C Lacuſtres & fluuiatiles piſces quinto ſuæ ætatis menſe vterum geſtare magna ex parte incipiunt. Pariunt omnes intra annum, nec ſemen generationis ſimul omne emittunt, ſed modo marinorum. Hic quoque ſemper intra ſe aliquid plus minus fœminæ ouorum, mares liquoris prolifici retinent. Pariunt temporibus ſtatis. Cyprini quinquies, aut ſexies anno, partúmque ſyderum ratione potiſſimùm faciunt. Erica ter, reliqui ſemel edunt oua, in ſtagnis fluuiorum, & arundinetis lacuum, vt phoxini, & percæ. Siluri & percæ continentem emittunt ſuum fœtum, vt ranæ. adeo enim fœtus ipſe continuo filo ſibi cohæret, vt percæ quidem, quoniam latior eſt, D piſcatores in lacu arundine glomerent. Pariunt ſiluri grandiores ſtagno altiore, quippe cùm nonnulli vel trium paſſuum altitudine pariant. Minores breuiore contenti ſunt gurgite, præcipuè ad radices ſalicis, aut cuiuſuis arboris. atque etiam inter arundines & algas, & muſcoſam congeriem, non ſolùm pares cum paribus, ſed etiam admodum grandes cum paruis veniunt: admotiſque meatibus, quos aliqui vmbilicos vocant, fœmina ouum, mas liquorem venereum depromit: & oua, quæ liquor ille vitalis contigerit, candidiora extemplo cernuntur, maioráque reddi eodem die propemodum dixerim. Paulò autem pòſt oculi E fœtus exiſtunt conſpicui, qui in quouis piſcium genere perinde, vt in cæteris animalibus, ſtatim pateſcunt, prægrandéſque apparent. Quæ ex ouis non attigerit liquor maſculi ille vitalis, hæc ſterileſcunt, & ſuperuacua ſunt, vt in marino etiam genere incidit. Fœcundis iam ouis, piſciculo increſcente, detrahitur velut putamen, quod membrana eſt ouum ambiens, & piſciculum. Oua tacta à fœtifico maris ſemine, admodum glutinoſa redduntur, ad ceſpites coeuntia, aut vbi pepererint. Mas oua, quæ edita ſunt, cuſtodit: fœmina abit, cùm pepererit. Tardiſſimum ſiluri incrementum ex ouo eſt: quamobrem mas ſæpe vel quadraginta & quinquaginta diebus aſſidet cuſtodiens oua, ne à piſcibus occurrentibus abſumantur. Secundæ eſt tarditatis generatio cyprinorum: parique modo oua edita à mare ſeruantur. at minorum nonnulla vel tertio die ſpeciem piſciculi capiunt. Augentur oua, quæ ſemen maris attigerint, vt dictum eſt, & eodem die, & poſt. Fit ouum ſiluri, quantum eruum, cyprini & reliquorum generis eiuſdem, magnitudine milij. Hæc ad hunc modum pariunt, atque generant. Erica gregatim ſua oua gurgiti altiori mandat congeſta. Contrà, quem fullonem appellant, is litora petit tranquilliora: ſed is quoque gregalis eſt. Cyprinus, balerus, & cæteri ferè omnes vadis intrudunt ſeſe, cùm parturiunt: ac ſæpenumero ſingulas fœminas mares tredecim, & quatuordecim perſequuntur. Mox fœmina oua procedendo emittit. mares ſectantes, ſemen ſuum ouis reſpergunt: verùm plurima pereunt: quòd enim fœmina non ſtabilis, ſed mutans continuè parit, diſſipari oua neceſſe eſt, videlicet ea quæ non in materiem inciderint aliquam, ſed excepta a[illegible]nda ferantur. Neque eſt enim qui ſua oua cuſtodiat excepto ſiluro, & cyprino: ſed cyprinus tunc ea cuſtodit, cùm congeſta repererit. Habent mares omnes ſemen genitale, præter anguillam, quæ neutrum, neque ouum, neque ſemen ſortita eſt. aſcendunt de mari in lacus & fluuios mugiles. Contrà, anguillæ inde in mare veniunt. Piſces maxima quidem ex parte ouo gignuntur, vt dictum iam eſt.

CAPVT XV.

De generibus piſcium, quæ vel limo, vel arena, vel ſpuma maris ex imbre excitata procreantur.

SEd ſunt qui & limo & arena proueniant, etiam ex iis generibus quæ per coitum, & oui primordio generentur. Quod tum aliis locis paluſtribus, tum verò apud Gnidum factum olim memoratur. Stagnis enim ſub canis ortu reſiccatis, & limo iam arido, vbi primùm imbribus reſtagnare loca inciperent, piſciculi naſcebantur generis mugilum, quod per coitum procreatur, magnitudine halecula paruæ: nec in his aliquid vel oui vel ſeminis continebatur. Quinetiam in nonnullis Aſiæ amnibus, quà effluunt in mare piſciculi quidam magnitudine naricarum, modo eodem proueniũt. Sunt qui omne mugilum genus ſponte oriri opinentur, ſed non rectè: nam & oua, eorum fœminæ, & ſemen genitale mares habere cernuntur. Verùm genus quoddam eorum eſt, quod non coitu, ſed ex limo arenáve enaſcatur. Sed nonnulla vel ſponte generare, ex iis quæ per coitum prodeant, ſatis ex iis conſtat. Quæ autem nec ouum nec animal pariant, iis ortus vel ex limo, vel ex arena, & per ſumma facta putredine agitur: qualis etiam apuæ origo, ſpuma nuncupata, ex terra arenoſa conſiſtit. Quod quidem apuæ genus nec incrementum capit, nec prolem affert, & temporis longioris ſpatio perit, ſed denuò naſcitur. Vndeſit vt breui quodam tempore excepto, omnibus ferè anni temporibus generetur: quippe cùm ſpuma illa ab arcturo autumnali ad ver vſque eduret.

Αἱ δ' ἐγχέλυες, οὔτ' ἐξ ὀχείας γίνονται, οὔτ' ᾠοτοκοῦσιν, οὐδ' ἐλήφθη ποτὲ οὔτε θορὸν ἔχουσα οὐδεμία, οὔτ' ᾠὸν, οὔτ' ἀνασχισθεῖσαι φαίνονται θορικοὺς πόρους, οὔτε ὑστερικοὺς ἔχουσαι. ἀλλὰ τοῦτο ὅλον τὸ γένος τῶν ἐναίμων, οὐ γίνεται οὔτε ἐξ ὀχείας, οὔτε ἐξ ᾠῶν. φανερὸν δέ ἐστιν D ὅτι οὕτως ἔχει. ἐνίαις γὰρ τελματώδεσι λίμναις, τοῦ τε ὕδατος παντὸς ἐξαντληθέντος, καὶ τοῦ πηλοῦ ἐξυασθέντος, γίνονται πάλιν, ὅταν ὕδωρ γένηται ὄμβριον. ἐν δὲ τοῖς αὐχμοῖς οὐ γίνονται, οὐδ' ἐν ταῖς διαμενούσαις λίμναις. καὶ γὰρ ζῶσι καὶ τρέφονται ὀμβρίῳ ὕδατι. ὅτι μὲν οὖν οὔτε ἐξ ὀχείας, οὔτε ἐξ ᾠῶν γίνονται, φανερόν ἐστι. δοκοῦσι δέ τισι γεννᾶν, ὅτι ἐνίαις τῶν ἐγχελύων ἑλμίνθια ἐγγίνονται. ἐκ τούτων οἴονται γίνεσθαι ἐγχέλεις. τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶν οὐκ ἀληθές· ἀλλὰ γίνονται ἐκ τῶν καλουμένων γῆς ἐντέρων, ἃ αὐτόματα συνίσταται ἐν τῷ πηλῷ, καὶ ἐν τῇ γῇ τῇ ἐνίκμῳ. καὶ ἤδη εἰσὶν ὠμμέναι αἱ μὲν, ἐκδυόμεναι ἐκ τούτων· αἱ δὲ, ἐν διακνιζομένοις καὶ διαιρουμένοις, γίνονται E φανεραί. καὶ ἐν τῇ θαλάττῃ δὲ, καὶ ἐν τοῖς ποταμοῖς γίνονται τὰ τοιαῦτα, ὅταν ᾖ μάλιστα σηπεδών· τῆς μὲν θαλάσσης, πρὸς τοῖς τοιούτοις τόποις, οὗ ἂν ᾖ φῦκος· τῶν δὲ ποταμῶν καὶ λιμνῶν, περὶ τὰ χείλη. ἐνταῦθα γὰρ ἡ ἀλέα ἰσχύουσα, σήπει. περὶ μὲν οὖν τῆς τῶν ἐγχελύων γενέσεως, τοῦτον ἔχει τὸν τρόπον.

A Efferri id piſciculi genus funditus de terra, argumentum eſt, quòd niſi tempore tepido non capiatur, vtpote quod de humo ad ſumma, tepore [illegible] veniat. Quin & ſolo agitato, detractaque eius colluuione, copioſior & melior exit. Cætera apuæ genera deteriora propterea ſunt, quia citò augentur. Fiunt locis vmbroſis apricíſve, quoties tẽporis beneficio ſolum tepeſcit: vt in Attica terra apud Salaminem, & iuxta Themiſtocleum, & in Marathone. Locis enim huiuſcemodi ſpuma illa conſiſtit, & tempore tali apparet: ſed nonnuſquam vel cùm aqua de cælo inceſſit. Oritur piſciculus hic in ſpuma, quæ imbre admiſſo caluerit, vnde nomen ſpumæ accepit. Fertúrque interdum per ſumma maris, cùm cælum tepidum eſt, & in ſpuma fluitante, B perindeac in fimo, vermiculus voluitur. Quamobrem in loca complura genus id apuæ adfertur ex alto, & copioſè quoque generatur, & capitur anno quieto, & humido. Reliqua apua fœtura piſcium eſt. Quæ enim gobionaria dicitur, gobiones paruos ignobiles, qui terram ſubeunt, creat. Quam verò phalericam vocant, membradas gignit: ex quibus ſardinæ, ex ſardinis ſardæ oriuntur. Genus apuæ, quod in portu Athenienſium naſcitur, encraulos dictos progenerat. Quinetiam genus aliud apuæ eſt, quod alecum, & mugilum ſit fœtura. Spuma autem altera illa ſterilis humida eſt, breuéque (vt dictum eſt) tempus edurat: mox capita, & oculi reſtant. Sed iam piſcatores quemadmodum de- C portare poſſent, inuenerunt. Sale enim aſperſa, plus temporis aſſeruari poteſt.

De procreatione anguillarum.

Anguillæ nec per coitum procreantur, nec pariunt oua: nec verò capta vnquam aliqua eſt, quæ aut ſemen genitale, aut oua haberet. Meatus quoque vel ſeminis, vel vuluæ accommodatos nulla reſciſſa oſtendit. Sed hoc vnum inter ſanguinea genus totum ſine coitu, ſine ouo pro- D creatur. Quod ita eſſe argumento conſtat, quòd in nonnullis fæculentis ſtagnis aqua omni exhauſta, & limo detracto, anguillæ denuò generantur, vbi aqua acceſſerit pluuia: nam ſiccis temporibus gigni nequeunt, etiam in lacu perenni, quippe quæ imbre & viuant, & alantur. Sed hoc genus non coitu, non ouo creari, apertum eſt. Videntur tamen nonnullæ habere facultatem gignendi, quòd in aliquibus lumbriculi fiant: his enim generari anguillas creditur, quod error eſt. Sed certè ex his prodeunt, quæ terræ inteſtina vocantur, quæ ſponte in luto, humeſcentéque humo, prouenium. Iam aliæ abſolui ex his viſæ ſunt, aliæ ſcalptis diſcerptiſque intus apparuerunt. Oriun- E tur hæc inteſtina dicta, tum in mari tum etiam in fluuiis ſtagniſque, putredinis maximè ratione: ſed in mari, qua algæ ſunt: in ſtagnis autem & fluuiis, iuxta ripas. Calor enim ampliùs eas ſubiens partes, facit vt putreant. Talis generatio anguillarum eſt.

CAPVT XVII.

PArtus autem piſcium neque eodem tempore, nec ſimili modo omnium fit: nec pari temporis ſpatio geritur vterus. Greges ante coitum marium & fœminarum conſiſtunt: ſed ſub coitu & partu coniugia aguntur. Vterum vero alij diebus ampliùs tricenis ferunt, alij minùs. Omnes, tamen ſpatium numeris diſtinguendum ſeptenariis ſortiuntur. Plurimum temporis datur iis quos nonnulli appellant marinos. Sargus coit menſe Decembri, fert vterum dies triginta. Quinetiam in mugilum genere, qui labeo à nonnullis vocatur, & muco, eodem, quo ſargus, tempore coeunt, & tantumdem temporis ferunt. Laborant omnes per id tempus, quo gerunt vterum: vnde fit vt tunc potiſſimùm ruant in terram, atque excidant. Feruntur porro graui ſtimulo agitati in terram, atque omnino id temporis motu perpetuo incitantur, donec pariant. Sed omnium maximè mugilem ita ſolicitari certum eſt. Requieſcunt à partu continuo. Exitus pariendi piſcium compluribus eſt, vbi vermiculi nati in ventre fuerint. Innaſcuntur enim minuta quædam animalia vermiculi ſpecie, quæ partum expellunt. Parit ſolitariorum genus in vêre. Plurimis denique partus circa æquinoctium vernum agitur. Cæteris non eadem anni tempeſtas accommodata eſt: ſed aliis æſtas, aliis autumnale æquinoctium attribuitur. Parit prima hoc in genere antherina, quam ariſtam appello, & iuxta terram. Capito autem vltimus eſt. Conſtat id, cùm fœtus ariſtæ primùm, capitonis nouiſſimè appareat. Mugilis etiam inter primos partum accelerat, & ſalpa æſtatis initio locis plurimis, non nuſquam etiam autumno. *Quinetiam ſacer æſtate parit, mox aurata, lupus, mormur, molaris: denique omnes, qui curſiones vocantur. Vltimi gregalium, mullus & graculus pariunt autumno. Mullus ſua oua limo committit, vnde fit vt ſerò pariat: diutius enim frigus continetur in limo. Graculus poſt mullum fœtificat inter algas, vtpote qui locis ſaxoſis degat. Fert vterum longo temporis ſpatio. Alec̨es bruma pariunt: cæteri, qui pelagici ſunt, æſtate magna ex parte. Cuius rei argumētum eſt, quòd minimè per id tempus capiantur. Fœcundiſſima omnium piſcium alec eſſe videtur. Rana inter cartilaginea fœtificat numeroſiùs. Verùm quòd de facili pereunt, hinc efficitur vt appareant paucæ. Edit hæc oua diuerſa, & iuxta terrā. Omnino genus cartilagineum minùs fœtificat, quia animal gignit: ſeruari tamen ſua potiſſimùm magnitudine poteſt. Acus etiam appellata, ſerò fœtificat. Compluréſque eius generis diſrupto ac dehiſcente vtero pariunt, non tam multitudine ouorum, quàm magnitudine. Et modo phalangiorum, proles parentem offuſa circundat: quippe quam diſcedere ſtatim prolis amor non ſinat: & ſi tetigeris, fugiunt. Ariſta atterens aluum arenæ, parit. Thunni etiam præ nimia pinguedine dehiſcunt, nec plus, quàm biennio, poſſunt viuere. Cuius rei argumentum piſcatores inde deducunt, quòd cùm aliquando limariæ anno ſuperiore defeciſſent, thunni ſequenti anno defecerint. Limarius enim thunni prouectiores ætate anno eſſe putantur vno.

A Coeunt thunni & ſcombri menſe Februario poſt Idus: pariunt Iunio ante Nonas: edunt ſua oua recondita quaſi vtriculo: incrementum autem pelamides præcipua ſumit celeritate. Cùm enim thunni in Ponto pepererint, prodeunt ex ouo, quas alij ſcordulas vocant, Byzantij auxumas nominant, quia diebus paucis adoleſcunt: quæ exeunt Ponto autumno fœtas comitantes, eôdem autem redeunt verno tempore, iam adeptæ eam magnitudinem, qua limariæ nomen accipiant. Profectò omne piſcium genus celeriter adoleſcit, & præcipuè in Ponto: quippe cùm ibi incrementum ſingulis diebus planè intelligatur: ſed amiæ longè conſpectiùs. B Omnino ita exiſtimandum, vt eiſdem piſcibus, nõ eiſdem locis degentibus, nec coeundi, ferendive tempus eſſe idem, nec fœtificandi, aut proficiendi: nam & qui graculi appellantur, nonnuſquam meſſe tritici pariunt. Verùm ita hæc nos exponimus, vt magna ex parte res euenit. Congri etiam fœturam intra ſe continent: ſed non omnibus locis æquè id conſtat. Nec ipſa fœtura ſatis patet in vtero pingui obeſo: ineſt tamen ſerie quadam prolixiuſcula, vt in ſerpentibus: quod certè ignis periculo innoteſcit. Pingue enim abſumitur, atque euaporatur: oua autem crepant, & extruſa diſſiliunt. adhæc ſi palpites, & atteras digitis pingue, læue vtique ſenſeris, ouũm autem duriuſculum. Congri itaque alij C pingue habent, ouum nullum: alij contrà, pingue nullum, ouum autem quale modò expoſui, poſſident. Sed de coitu, vtero, & eiuſmodi reliquis, cæterorum animantium omnium, tum aquatilium, tum volucrum, atque etiam terreſtrium, quæ oua pariunt, dictum iam eſt.

CAPVT XVIII.

De coitu, eiuſque tempore, & libidine quadrupedum, quæ animal pariunt.

SEquitur vt pari modo de iis quæ in terreſtrium genere animal pariunt, atque etiam D de homine diſſeramus. Coitum & priuatim & publicè omnium diximus. Commune autem omnium animalium eſt, vt cupidine voluptatéque rei Venereæ maximè geſtiant, atque incitentur. Ferociunt fœminæ à partu, mares tempore coitus. Iam equi equos mordent, ſternunt equitem, atque inſequuntur. Sues quoque feri acerrimè ſæuiunt, quanquam per id tempus imbecilles ex coitu reddantur. Dimicant inter ſe mirum in modum armantes ſeſe, & cutem quàm craſſiſſimam præparantes, indurantéſque attritu arborum. Sæpe etiam luto obducto, ac reſiccato, tergus inuictum contra ictus efficiunt. Pugnant adeo acri certamine, E grege relicto, vt ſæpenumero mortem vterque aduerſarius obeat. Simili modo & tauri efferantur, & arietes, & hirci. Qui enim ſuperiore tempore ſocij, iugi concordia paſcerentur, coitus tempore diſſident, & alter alterum libidinis rabie inuadit. Camelus etiam mas ſæuit tempore coitus, ſiue homo, ſiue camelus accedat: nam equis quidem odio naturali aduerſantur. Idem feris quoque euenire apertum eſt. Nam vrſi, lupi, leones, acriùs per id tempus in eos qui acceſſerint, ſæuiunt: inter ſe tamen minùs hæc dimicant, videlicet ob eam rem, quia nullũ ex iis gregale eſt. Quinetiam vrſæ à ſuis catulis vehementer ferociunt, vt canes à catellis. Et elephanti quoque ad coitum efferari ſolent: quamobrem apud Indos iis haudquaquam permitti initum aiunt. Libidinis enim rabie agitati caſas proſternunt malè conditas, pluráque alia incommoda faciunt. Mitigari pabuli copia narrantur. Plagis etiam temperant, adductis aliis, quibus ferire præcipiant. Quæ autem non vno tempore, ſed ſæpius anno coeunt, vt ea quæ cum homine degunt, verbi gratia, canes, ſues, vt minùs efferentur, facit coitus copia. Incenduntur libidine ex fœminis equæ potiſſimùm, mox vaccæ. Equę itaque equiunt: vnde vocabulum id ab hoc vno animali trahitur, maledicto in mulieres libidinoſas. Necnon euentari per id tempus equæ dicuntur. quapropter in Creta inſula equos admiſſarios minimè à fœminis ſemouendos cenſent. Cùm verò ita affectæ fuerint, currunt relicta ſocietate. Simile hoc vitium eſt, vt quod ſubare in ſuibus dicitur. Currunt non Orientem aut Occidentem verſus, ſed ex aduerſo Aquilonis, aut Auſtri: nec appropinquare quenquam patiuntur, donec vel defatigatæ deſiſtant, vel ad marem deueniant. Tum aliquid emittunt, quod hippomanes appellatur, eodē, quo illud, quod naſcitur, nomine. Tale hoc ſanè eſt, quale ſuis illud, quod apriam vocant: ſed hoc præcipuè ad amoris veneficia petitur. Equæ tempore coitus colligūt ſeſe, & ſocietate magis quàm antea, gaudent. Iactant caudam crebriùs, vocē immutant, humorem emittunt ſuis genitalibus, ſimilem geniture, ſed multo tenuiorem, quàm mares, quem hippomanes nonnulli appellant, non quod pullis naſcentibus adhæret. accipi eum humorem difficile eſſe aiunt, quod paulatim admodum labitur. Mingunt etiam plures, atque inter ſe ludunt, cùm equiunt. hæc de equis. Vaccæ tauriunt, & libidine adeò incenduntur, vt bubulci eas tenere aut capere nequeant. Indicium tum equæ, tum vaccæ ſuæ libidinis præſtant, genitalis ſpecie prominentiore. Vaccæ etiam mingunt crebriùs more equarum. adhæc, vaccæ tauros ſuperueniunt, & ſequuntur ſedulò, & aſſiſtunt. Turgent ad coitum priùs minores natu, quàm maiores, tum in equorum genere, tum in boum. Temporis etiam beneficio, & corporis valetudine propenſiora redduntur ad Venerem animalia. Equarum libido extinguitur magis iuba tonſa, & frons triſtior redditur. Mares in hoc genere fœminas ſibi ſocietate coniunctas dignoſcunt olfactu, etſi paucis antè diebus vnà fuerint. Quòd ſi fœminæ diuerſæ permiſceantur, mares alienas mordendo expellunt, ſuáſque ſinguli ſeorſum habentes paſcuntur. Tricenæ, aut paulò plures ſingulis dantur: Quoties mas acceſſerit aliquis, confeſtim in eum maritus conuertitur, & currens gyro aggreditur pugna: & fœminam, ſi qua ſe mouerit, morſu reuocat. Taurus tempore coitus tantùm cum fœminis paſcitur, cæteróſque oppugnat mares. Temporibus cæteris mares inter ſe conuerſantur: quod coarmentari dicitur. Iam Epiri prouinciæ tauri ſæpius trimeſtris temporis ſpatio nō apparent. Omnino fera omnia, aut certè plurima, non antè cum fœminis ad commune paſcuum veniunt, quàm tempus ſit coeundi.

ΤΩν δὲ κυνῶν ἐστι μὲν γένη πλείω· ὀχεύει δὲ κύων ἡ Λακωνικὴ μὲν, ὀκτάμηνος, καὶ ὀχεύεται· καὶ τὸ σκέλος δὲ αἴροντες, οὐροῦσιν ἤδη ἔνιοι περὶ τὸν χρόνον τοῦτον. κυΐσκεται δὲ κύων ἐκ μιᾶς ὀχείας. δῆλον δὲ τοῦτο γίνεται μάλιστα ἐν τοῖς κλέπτουσι τὰς ὀχείας· ἅπαξ γὰρ ἐπιβάντες πληροῦσι. κύει δὲ ἡ μὲν Λακωνικὴ, ἕκτον μέρος τοῦ ἐνιαυτοῦ. τοῦτο δέ ἐστιν ἡμέραι ἑξήκοντα κἂν ἄρα μιᾷ ἢ δυσὶν, ἢ τρισὶ πλείονας ἡμέρας, καὶ ἐλάττους μιᾷ. τυφλὰ δὲ γίνεται αὐτῇ τὰ σκυλάκια, ὅταν τίκῃ δώδεκα ἡμέρας. τεκοῦσα δὲ, πάλιν ὀχεύεται ἕκτῳ μηνὶ, καὶ οὐ πρότερον. ἔνιαι δὲ κύουσι τῶν κυνῶν τὸ πέμπτον μέρος τοῦ ἐνιαυτοῦ.

τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶν ἡμέραι ἑβδομήκοντα καὶ δύο. τυφλὰ δὲ γίνεται τὰ σκυλάκια τούτων τῶν κυνῶν ἡμέρας δεκατέσσαρας. ἔνιαι δὲ κύνες κύουσι μὲν τέταρτον μέρος τοῦ ἐνιαυτοῦ· τοῦτο δ' ἐστὶ τρεῖς μῆνες ὅλοι· τυφλὰ δὲ γίνεται τούτων τὰ σκυλάκια ἑπτακαίδεκα ἡμέρας. δοκεῖ δὲ σκυζᾶν τὸν ἴσον χρόνον κύων ὅσον κύει. τὰ δὲ καταμήνια ταῖς κυσὶν ἑπτὰ ἡμέραις γίνεται. συμβαίνει δὲ ἅμα καὶ ἔπαρσις αἰδοίου. ἐν δὲ τῷ χρόνῳ τούτῳ οὐ προσίενται ὀχείαν, ἀλλ' ἐν ταῖς μετὰ ταύτας ἑπτὰ ἡμέραις. τὰς γὰρ πάσας δοκεῖ σκυζᾶν ἡμέρας τέτταρας καὶ δέκα ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολύ. οὐ μὴν ἀλλὰ καί τισι καὶ περὶ ἑκκαίδεκα ἡμέρας γεγένηται τοῦτο τὸ πάθος. ἡ δ' ἐν τοῖς τόκοις κάθαρσις, γίνεται ἅμα τοῖς σκυλακίοις τικτομένοις. ἔστι δ' αὕτη παχεῖα καὶ φλεγματώδης· καὶ τὸ πλῆθος, ὅταν τέκωσιν, ἀπισχναίνεται ἔλαττον ἢ κατὰ τὸ σῶμα. τὸ δὲ γάλα αἱ κύνες ἴσχουσι πρὸ τοῦ τεκεῖν, ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολύ, ἡμέρας πέντε. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ' ἐνίαις καὶ ἑπτὰ γίνεται πρότερον, καὶ τέτταρσι. χρήσιμον δ' εὐθύς ἐστι τὸ γάλα, ὅταν τέκωσιν. ἡ δὲ Λακωνικὴ, μετὰ τὴν ὀχείαν τριάκοντα ἡμέραις ὕστερον. τὸ μὲν οὖν πρῶτον, παχύ ἐστι· χρονιζόμενον δὲ, γίνεται λεπτότερον. διαφέρει δὲ παχύτητι τὸ κύνειον παρὰ τὸ τῶν ἄλλων ζῴων, μετὰ τὸ ὕειον καὶ δασυπόδειον. γίνεται δὲ σημεῖον καὶ ὅταν ἡλικίαν ἔχωσι τοῦ ὀχεύεσθαι· ὥσπερ γὰρ τοῖς ἀνθρώποις, ἐπὶ ταῖς θηλαῖς τῶν μαστῶν ἐπιγίνεται ἀνοίδησίς τις, καὶ χόνδρον ἴσχουσιν. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ' ἔργον, μὴ συνήθει ὄντι, καταμαθεῖν ταῦτα. οὐ γὰρ ἔχει μέγεθος οὐδὲν τὸ σημεῖον. τῇ μὲν οὖν θηλείᾳ τοῦτο συμβαίνει· τῷ δ' ἄρρενι, οὐδὲν τούτων. τὸ δὲ σκέλος αἴροντες, οὐροῦσιν οἱ ἄρρενες, ὡς μὲν ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ, ὅταν ἑξάμηνοι ὦσι. ποιοῦσι δέ τινες καὶ ὕστερον τοῦτο, ἤδη ὀκτάμηνοι ὄντες, καὶ πρότερον ἢ ἑξάμηνοι. ὡς δ' ἁπλῶς εἰπεῖν, ὅταν ὀχεύειν ἄρξωνται, αὐτὸ ποιοῦσιν. αἱ δὲ θήλειαι, πᾶσαι καθεζόμεναι οὐροῦσιν· ἤδη δέ τινες καὶ τούτων, ἄρασαι τὸ σκέλος, οὔρησαν. τίκτει δὲ καὶ κύων σκυλάκια δώδεκα, τὰ πλεῖστα· ὡς δ' ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ πέντε, ἢ ἕξ· ἤδη δὲ καὶ ἓν ἔτεκέ τις. αἱ δὲ Λακωνικαὶ, ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ καὶ ὀκτώ. ὀχεύονται δὲ αἱ θήλειαι, καὶ ὀχεύουσιν οἱ ἄρρενες, ἕως ἂν ζῶσιν. ἴδιον δὲ ἐπὶ τῶν Λακωνικῶν συμβαίνει πάθος. πονήσαντες γὰρ, μᾶλλον δύνανται ὀχεύειν, ἢ ἀργοῦντες. ζῇ δὲ τῶν Λακωνικῶν κυνῶν ὁ μὲν ἄρρην, ἔτη δέκα· ἡ δὲ θήλεια, περὶ ἔτη δώδεκα· τῶν δὲ ἄλλων κυνῶν αἱ πλεῖσται, περὶ ἔτη τετταρεσκαίδεκα, ἢ πεντεκαίδεκα· ἔνιαι δὲ καὶ εἴκοσι. διὸ καὶ Ὁμηρόν τινες οἴονται ὀρθῶς ποιῆσαι, τῷ εἰκοστῷ ἔτει ἀποθανόντα τὸν κύνα τοῦ Ὀδυσσέως. ἐπὶ μὲν οὖν τῶν Λακωνικῶν, διὰ τὸ πονεῖν τοὺς ἄρρενας μᾶλλον, μακροβιώτεραι αἱ θήλειαι τῶν ἀρρένων· ἐπὶ δὲ τῶν ἄλλων, λίαν μὲν οὐκ ἐπίδηλον· μακροβιώτεροι δὲ ὅμως οἱ ἄρρενες τῶν θηλειῶν εἰσιν. ὀδόντας δὲ κύων οὐ βάλλει πλὴν τοὺς καλουμένους κυνόδοντας· τούτους δ', ὅταν ὦσι τετράμηνοι, ὁμοίως αἵ τε θήλειαι καὶ οἱ ἄρρενες. διὰ δὲ τὸ τούτους μόνους βάλλειν, ἀμφισβητοῦσί τινες. οἱ μὲν γὰρ, διὰ τὸ δύο μόνους βάλλειν, ὅλως οὔ φασι· χαλεπὸν γὰρ ἐπιτυχεῖν τούτοις· οἱ δὲ, ὅταν ἴδωσι τούτους, ὅλως οἴονται βάλλειν καὶ τοὺς ἄλλους. τὰς δὲ ἡλικίας ἐκ τῶν ὀδόντων σκοποῦσιν. οἱ μὲν γὰρ νέοι, λευκοὺς καὶ ὀξεῖς ἔχουσιν· οἱ δὲ πρεσβύτεροι, μέλανας καὶ ἀμβλεῖς.

A hoc eſt, duobus & ſexaginta diebus : quarum catelli duodecim diebus luce carent. Nonnullæ quarta parte anni, hoc eſt, tribus menſibus, ferunt: quarum catelli diebus decem & ſeptem luce carent. Tantumdem temporis canire etiam fœminæ putantur. Menſtrua huius animalis diebus ſeptem mouentur: ſimúlque euenit vt genitale promineat. Verùm nondum per id temporis coitum patiuntur, ſed ſequentibus ſeptem diebus. Tempus enim, quo toto canis libidine tenetur, diebus quatuordecim magna ex parte deſcribitur. Verùm nonnullæ etiam ad ſextumdecimum pruriunt. Purgatio autem, quæ coniuncta partui eſt,
B vnà cum catellis naſcentibus prouenit, craſſo pituitoſóque humore. Redduntur etiam tenuiores à partu: & lac antè diebus quinque, quàm pariant, habent magna ex parte. Verùm nonnullis etiam ſeptem aut quatuor diebus anticipat. Vtile ſtatim, vt pepererint, eſt. Genus Laconicum, poſt coitum diebus triginta, habere lac incipit. Craſſum inter initia omnium eſt: deinde proceſſu temporis tenuius redditur. Craſſius canum, quàm cæterorum animalium, lac eſt, excepto ſcrofæ, ac leporis. Indicium in mammis etiam apparet, cùm ætatem coeundi iam habent. Fit enim perinde ac in hominibus, tumor, in papillis mammarum, & cartilago quædam conſiſtit. Sed
C difficilè id perceperis, niſi habeas vſum rei: carent enim hæc indicia magnitudine. Hoc igitur fœminæ euenire certum eſt: mari nihil eiuſmodi accidit. Crus mares tollentes mingunt, magna ex parte quidem ſexto menſe ætatis, ſed nonnulli vel ſeriùs, octauo ſcilicet menſe id faciunt: atque etiam maturiùs quàm ſexto. Quod autem ſimpliciter dixerim, cùm coire incipiunt, tollunt. Fœminæ omnes conſidentes mingunt. Verùm in hoc etiam ſexu nonnullæ crure elato minxerunt. Parit canis duodecim cumplurimum, ſed magna ex parte quinque aut ſex. Vnum etiam aliquam peperiſſe certum eſt. Laconicæ magna ex parte
D octo pariunt. Coeunt quamdiu viuunt, & mares, & fœminæ. Peculiare generis Laconici eſt, vt cùm laborarint, coire meliùs quàm per otium, poſſint. Viuit in hoc eodem genere mas ad annos decem, fœmina ad duodecim. Cæteri canes maxima quidem ex parte ad annos quatuordecim, ſed nonnulli vel ad viginti protrahunt vitam. Quamobrem rectè apud Homerum, canem Vlyſſis viceſimo anno mori aliqui iudicant. Laconici ſanè generis fœminæ, quia minùs laborant, quàm mares, viuaciores maribus ſunt. At verò in cæteris, etſi non latè admodum conſtat, tamen mares viuaciores ſunt. Dentes canes non

CAPVT XXI.

De coitu, & partu boum, déque maris & fœminæ ætate.

BOs vno initu implet, agitque vehementer, ita, vt fœmina vix tolerans ſuccumbat. ſi fortè cõceptio pererrauerit, viceſimo poſt die marem fœmina recipit. Seniores tauri nec ſæpius quidem fœminam eandem, eodem ſuperueniũt die, niſi ex interuallo. at iuniores & eandem ſæpius cogunt, & pluries petunt, ac ſuperueniunt vigore ſuæ ætatis. Salax minimè inter mares bos eſt. Coit qui vicerit. Cúmque is Venere iam debilitatus languerit, aggreditur victus ille languentem, & plerumque ſuperat. Coire tum mares tum fœminæ anno ætatis primo peracto incipiũt, quoad facultas ſit procreãdi: verùm, quod magna ex parte fit, vel anniculi, vel nacti octauum mẽſem Venerem adeunt. Sed enim quod maximè confeſſum habemus, bimatu generant. Ferunt vterum menſes nouẽ, decimo pariũt. Sunt qui decem totos menſes, exceptis paucis diebus, affirment. Quod autem in lucem præcurrerit hæc tempora, id abortiuum eſt, vitaléque minimè, etiam ſi paulo maturauerit partum: prẹmolli namque imperfectáque vngula prodit. Pariũt ſingulos, geminos raro. Quamdiu viuunt, & coire ſolent, & parere. Viuunt magna ex parte fœminæ annos quindecim, atque etiam mares exciſi. Nonnullis ætas vel ad viginti annos, atque etiam plures, ſi corpore bene habito ſint. Nam exciſos aſſuefaciunt, & duces conſtituunt boum, vt ouium, qui plus tẽporis quàm cæteri, viuunt vſu exercitij, & copia pabuli. Vigent quinquennes maximè. Quocirca Homerum quidam rectè dixiſſe aiunt, Quinquennem taurum, &, Bouis luſtro florentis. Idem namque ſignificari arbitrantur. Dentes bimus emittit bos, nec vniuerſos, vt equus. Vngulas, cùm dolore articulorum laborat, non amittit: ſed pedes tantummodo intumeſcunt vehemẽter. Lac à partu vtile eſt: antè quàm peperit, caret lacte. Quantum lactis prouenerit primum, concreſcens perinde vt lapis dureſcit. Quod ita accidit, niſi aqua admiſceatur. Iuuenca recentior, quàm annicula, non patitur Venerem, niſi oſtento. Iam enim vel quarto ætatis menſe coiſſe perſpectum eſt. Initium coitus plurimis quidem menſe Aprili, & Maio: ſed nonnullæ etiam ad autumnum vſque tempus coeundi deducunt. Cùm plures grauidæ ſunt, & facilè initum patiuntur, nimirum pro ſigno hyemis, & imbrium id accipitur. Menſes & vaccis fiunt, vt equabus, ſed minùs.

CAPVT XXII.

De coitu, & partu equorum, de amiſſione dentium, déque maris, & fœminæ ætate.

EQuus coire incipit bimus, tam mas quàm fœmina: ſed hoc in paucis fit, pullíque eorum ipſorum minores imbecillioréſque ſunt. Quod autem plurimùm, trimatu tam mares quàm fœminæ incipiunt, & proficiunt ſubinde ad prolis præſtantiam, in viceſimum vſque annum. Fert vterum equa menſes vndecim: parit duodecimo mẽſe. Equus non certo dierum numerum implet,

* Fortaſſe, γνῶμα, vel γνώμων. quas voces hac notiores accipi teſtantur veteres Grammatici.

A ſed aliquando vno, aut duobus, tribúſve, aliquando pluribus. Seriùs certè quàm aſinus equam ſuperueniens implet. Coitus non tam laborioſus equis, quàm bubus eſt. Salaciſſimum omnium, tum fœminarum, tum marium, equus eſt, homine excepto. Iuniorum coitus præter ætatem contingit pabuli bonitate, & copia. Pariunt magna ex parte equæ ſingulos, ſed gemellos quoque aliquando cumplurimum procreant. Mula etiam gemellos peperit, quæ quidem pro oſtento accipiuntur. Coire itaque incipit equus vel triceſimo menſe, ſed quoad dignè procreare poſſit, tunc tempus eſt, cùm dentibus mittendis ceſſauit. Verùm iam nonnullos etiam cùm mutant, implere potuiſ- B ſe aiunt: idque fieri ita confirmant, niſi natura ſteriles ſint. Equo dentes quadraginta numero ſunt, quorum primi quatuor menſe triceſimo mutantur, bini vtrimque, ſuprà dico, & ſubter: tum vbi præterea annum compleuerit, quatuor item, modo eodem mittuntur, duo ſuperiùs, totidémque inferiùs: rurſúſque anno altero peracto, ſimili modo quatuor alij mutantur. Quibus iam præteritis annis quatuor, & menſibus ſex, nullus præterea mittitur: quanquam eueniſſe in aliquo certum eſt, vt cùm primis omnes amitterentur: atque etiam in alio, vt cum vltimis omnes, ſed hæc raró. Fit itaque vt equo ferè tempus idoneum maximè ſit ad C procreandum, cùm annum quartum & ſex menſes cõplerit. Seniores equi profectò fœcundiores ſunt, tam fœminæ quàm mares. Equi vel ſuas matres & filias ſuperueniunt, atque tunc perfectum eſſe armentum videtur, cùm parentes ſuam ineunt prolem. Scythæ equabus grauibus equitant, cùm primùm ſe mouerit fœtus: & nimirum eas proficere ad partus facilitatem arbitrantur. Cæteræ quadrupedes iacentes parere ſolent: quo fit vt fœtus obliqui omnium exeant. At verò equa cùm tempus iam edendi appropinquarit, erigit ſe, ſtánſque emittit partum. Vita equorum plurimis ad decimum octauum, atque etiam viceſimum annum: D ſed nonnulli etiam quinque & viginti, atque triginta egerunt. Et, ſi cura diligenter adhibeatur, vel ad quinquaginta protrahitur ætas. Longiſſima tamen vita in pluribus ad triceſimum nonum annum, quod magna ex parte fieri nouimus. Fœmina magna quidem parte quinque & viginti annos viuere poteſt: ſed iam nonnullæ etiam quadraginta vixere. Minus temporis mares viuunt, quàm fœminæ, propter coitum: & qui domi aluntur, minùs quàm gregarij. Fœmina quinquennio finem, tum longitudinis, tum etiam proceritatis ſui corporis recipit: ſed mas ſexennio: poſt, annis ſequentibus totidem creſcit in corpulentiam, & ad viginti vſque E annos pergit proficiens. Verùm celeriùs fœminæ quàm mares, perficiuntur: quanquam in vtero mares quàm fœminæ, citiùs: quemadmodum etiam homines. Quod idem vel in cæteris animalibus, quæ pariant plura, fieri ſolet. Lactare mulum ſemeſtre temporis ſpatium referunt, mox ſugi non pati: vi namque humorem trahi, & cum dolore. Equo autem plus temporis tribuunt. Viget & equus, & mulus à dentium ortu: cúmque prodierint omnes, non facilè ætatem dignoueris. Quamobrem dici ſolet certa ſub ortu, incerta ab ortu. Denique poſt dentium ortum, eo maximè declaratur ætas, quem caninum vocamus: breuior enim hic ſeptennibus eſt, propter fræni attritum, quod ad eum inijcitur: non ſeptennibus maior quidem, ſed non vertice extans adactiore. Iunioribus acutior & procerior eſt. Mas omnibus temporibus init, nec ceſſat, quamdiu viuit. Fœmina etiam quâdiu viuit, initur, nec tempus vllum certum libidinem aufert: ſed ingenium hominis arcet, aut vinculo, aut aliquo huiuſcemodi impedimento: non tamen quouis tempore facto initu, facultas enutriendi quod pepererit, datur. Equum apud Opûta gregarium fuiſſe accepimus, qui annos quadragenta natus poſſet coire: ſed adiumētum quoad ſui pedes priores attollerentur, deſiderabat. Coeundi initium equis in vêre. Non ſtatim à partu equa impletur, ſed intermiſſo tẽpore & meliùs quarto aut quinto anno interpoſito procreat. Omnino, ſi nihil plus detur, vnum tamen interponere annũ, & quaſi nouale facere neceſſe eſt. Equa igitur interpoſito tempore, vt dictum eſt, parit: at aſina continuè parere poteſt. Fit etiam in equorum genere, vt aliæ omnino ſteriles ſint, aliæ concipiant quidem, ſed edere nequeant. Cuius rei indicium aiunt, quòd fœtus circum renes alia quędam ſpecie propemodum renum, ita continet, vt reſciſſis quatuor renes habere videatur. Cùm equa peperit, ſtatim ſecundas deuorat, atque etiam quod pulli naſcentis fronti adhæret, hippomanes dictum, magnitudine minus carica parua, ſpecie latiuſculum, orbiculatum, nigrum: hoc ſi quis prærepto odorem moueat, equa excitatur, furitque agnito eo odore. Quapropter id à veneficis petitur & percipitur mulierculis. Si cũ equa ex equo prægnante coierit aſinus, fœtus iam conceptus corrumpitur. Equorum ducem, vt boũ, nullum cõſtituunt: quoniam equorum natura non ſtabilis, ſed mobilis, procaxque eſt.

CAPVT XXIII.

ASinus, tum mas tum fœmina, triceſimo menſe coire incipit, eodémque tempore dentes mittit priores: ſecundos autem ſexto menſe, atque etiam tertios quartóſque eodem. Gnomonas hos quartos à diiudicanda ætate nuncupant. Sed iam vel annicula aſina concepit, vt perfici proles ac adoleſcere poſſet. Reijcit ſemen à coitu, niſi interpelletur. Quamobrem ſtatim poſt coitum verberant inſectantúrque. Parit duodecimo menſe. Singulatim magna ex parte procreat prolem. Ea namque natura eſt, vt vnum pariat: ſed nonnunquam gemellos etiam edit. Aſinus quidem equi genituram corrumpit, vt dictum eſt: ſed equus aſini minimè, cùm equa iam aſini initu conceperit. Lac grauida habet menſe decimo. A partu die ſeptimo mari iungitur, eóque die iuncta maximè recipit initum, ſed poſtmodum etiam patitur. Solet hæc, niſi priùs quàm gnomonem amittat, pepererit, nunquam poſtea initum recipere. Parere vel in conſpectu hominis, vel in luce nolit, ſed in tenebras ducitur cùm parturit. Si priùs, quàm gnomonem dimiſiſſet, pepererit, parere tota ſua ætate poteſt. Vita aſinis amplior annis triginta, & fœmina viuacior mare eſt. Cùm vel equus cum aſina, vel aſinus cum equa inierit, multò magis abortus conſequitur, quàm cùm vnigenæ inter ſe iungantur: verbi gratia, equa cum equo, aut aſina cum aſino.

A Euenit etiam tempus gerendi vteri, cùm equus cum aſino coierit, maris norma: id eſt, vt quo ſuo ſpatio temporis mas perficitur ſuo in genere, eo etiam fœtus, quem ipſe procreat, abſoluatur: at magnitudine corporis, ſpecie, & viribus, magis fœminæ quàm mari ſimile euadit quod naſcitur. Qua de cauſa non frequenter ita coniungunt, qui curam huic adhibent rei, ſed tempus aliquod interponunt. Non aſinum equa, vt aſina equum, recipit, niſi aſinus ſit, qui equam ſuxerit. CAPVT XXIV.

MVlus ſuperuenire coitéque incipit miſſis dentibus primis: ſed ſeptennis implere poteſt, & iam cum equa coniunctus ginnum procreauit: pòſt deinde ſuperuenire non ſolet. Mula quoque iam facta grauida eſt, ſed non quoad perficeret, atque ederet prolem. In terra Syria ſuper Phœnicem mulæ & coeunt, & pariunt omnes: ſed id ge- C nus diuerſum eſt, quanquam ſimile. Prodeũt, quos ginnos vocant, ex equa, cum in gerendo vtero ægrotauit, more pumilionum in ordine hominum, aut porcorum deprauatorum in genere ſuum, quos poſthumos nuncupaui. & quidem vt pumilio, ſic ginnus modum ſuo genitali excedit. Vita mulis ad annos multos: iam quidam vel octogeſimum annum potuit agere, vt Athenis cùm templum ædificaretur, qui quamuis dimiſſus iam munere per ſenectam, commeans tamen ac obiens iumenta, exhortabatur ad opus: quamobrem decreto à nemine eum arceri à frumentorum aceruis ſancitũ eſt. Seriùs fœmina ſeneſcit, quàm mas. Nonnulli fœminam profluuio vrinæ purgari aiunt: marem, olfa- D ctu vrinæ priùs ſeneſcere. Ortus eorum animalium talis eſt.

CAPVT XXV.

CAmelus fert vterum mẽſes decem: parit ſemper vnum tantummodo: vnipara namque eſt. Separant prolem à parente anniculam. Viuit diu: plus enim quàm quinquaginta annos. Parit in vêre, & lac ſuum vſque eò ſeruat, quò iam conceperit. Tum lac, tum caro cameli ſuauiſſima omnium eſt. Bibitur eius lac ad vnam, menſuram, duabus aut tribus aquæ admiſtis.

CAPVT XXVII.

De elephantorum coitu: déque tempore, quo vterus fertur, & eorum pullis.

ELephantus, tam mas quàm fœmina, incipit coire anno ætatis vigeſimo. Ferendi vteri tempus alij annum & ſex menſes, alij trienniū ſtatuunt. Cauſa quamobrem incertum hoc ſit, quòd non pateat coitus. Parit enitens poſterioribus cruribus, & ſubſidens cum dolore. Pullus editus ore ſugit, non promuſcide: & ſtatim, cùm natus eſt, cernit, & ambulat.

CAPVT XXVIII.

SVes feræ principio hyemis coeunt, vêre pariūt, petentes maximè inuia, prærupta, anguſta, & opaca. Mas cum fœminis cōuerſari dies triginta magna ex parte ſolet. Numerus partus, & tempus ferendi idem atque in vrbanis ſuibus eſt. Vox etiam ſimilis: ſed fœmina vocalior eſt, mas rarò vocem emittit. Mares caſtrati maiores ferocioréſque euadunt: vt ſcitè Homerus fingit, cùm dicat:

Inſtar non bruti ſed dorſi montis opaci.

Caſtrantur, quod recentibus adhuc morbus pruriens incumbit in teſtes, quo atterentes eam partem ad arbores, teſtes extinguunt.

CAPVT XXIX.

De ceruorum coitu, partu, & natura.

CErua plurimùm ſubſidens coit, vt dictum iam eſt: marem enim ſuſtinere non poteſt, ob eius contentiſſimum impetum. Veruntamen aliquando etiam ſuſtinent modo ouium, & ſocias declinant, cùm turgente iam Venere coitum appetunt. Mas non in eadem immoratur, ſed mutat: breuíque interpoſito tempore, aliam atque aliam ſupergreditur. Coitus ab arcturo menſe Auguſto & Septembri. Implentur paucis diebus, & ab eodem multæ. Vterum ferunt octo menſes. Pariunt magna ex parte vnum, ſed nonnullas etiam geminos pepeiſſe perſpectum eſt. Parere iuxta vias maximè ſolent, metu belluarum. Incrementum hinnuli celere. Purgatio cæteris temporibus nulla euenit ceruæ: cùm autem parit, pituitoſo quodam humore purgatur. Ducere ſuum hinnulum ad ſtabula conſueuit. Quem locum ſibi habet refugium, petra diſrupta eſt, vno aditu, vnde defendere ſe, repugnaréque ſolet iis qui inuadunt. Vita eſſe perquàm longa hoc animal fertur, ſed nihil certi ex iis quæ narrantur, videmus: nec geſtatio, aut incrementum hinnuli ita euenit, quaſi vita eſſet prælonga. Monte Aſiæ Elapho nomine apud Arginuſſam, quo loco Alcibiades mortem obiit, ceruæ omnes ſciſſa aure ſunt, qua nota vel alibi, ſi loca mutarint, dignoſcuntur. Et quidem fœtus iam inde à primo ortu in vtero idem contrahit ſignum. Quaterna vbera fœminis, vt vaccis.

Περὶ ἐλάφων ὀχείας, καὶ τόκου καὶ φύσεως.

Ἡ δ' ἔλαφος τὴν μὲν ὀχείαν ποιεῖται, καθάπερ ἐλέχθη πρότερον, τὰ πλεῖστα μὲν * ἐξ ἐπαγωγῆς· οὐ γὰρ ὑπομένει ἡ θήλεια τὸν ἄρρενα πολλάκις, διὰ τὴν συντονίαν· οὐ μὴν ἀλλὰ καὶ ὑπομένουσιν ἐνίοτε ὀχεύειν, καθάπερ τὰ πρόβατα· καὶ ὅταν ὀργῶσι, παρεκκλίνουσιν ἀλλήλας. μεταλλάττει δὲ ὁ ἄρρην, καὶ οὐ πρὸς μιᾷ διατρίβει· ἀλλὰ διαλείπων βραχὺν χρόνον, πλησιάζει ἄλλαις. ἡ δ' ὀχεία γίνεται μετ' ἀρκτοῦρον, περὶ τὸν βοηδρομιῶνα καὶ μαιμακτηριῶνα. κύει δ' ὀκτὼ μῆνας. κυίσκεται δ' ἐν ὀλίγαις ἡμέραις, καὶ ὑφ' ἑνὸς πολλαί. τίκτει δὲ, ὡς μὲν ἐπιτοπολὺ ἕν· ἤδη δέ τινες ὠμμέναι εἰσὶν ὀλίγαι, καὶ δύο. καὶ ποιεῖται τοὺς τόκους παρὰ τὰς ὁδούς, διὰ τὸν πρὸς τὰ θηρία φόβον. ἡ δὲ αὔξησις ταχεῖα τῶν νεβρῶν. κάθαρσις δὲ κατ' ἄλλους μὲν χρόνους οὐ συμβαίνει ταῖς ἐλάφοις· ὅταν δὲ τέκωσι, γίνεται φλεγματώδης αὐταῖς κάθαρσις. εἴθισται δὲ ἄγειν τοὺς νεβροὺς ἐπὶ τοὺς σταθμούς. ἔστι δὲ τοῦτο τὸ χωρίον αὐταῖς καταφυγή, πέτρα περιρραγεῖσα μίαν ἔχουσα εἴσοδον· οὗ καὶ ἀμύνεσθαι εἴωθεν ἤδη τοὺς ἐπιτιθεμένους. περὶ δὲ τῆς ζωῆς μυθολογεῖται μὲν ὡς ὂν μακρόβιον, οὐ φαίνεται δ' οὔτε τῶν μυθολογουμένων οὐθὲν σαφές· ἥ τε κύησις καὶ αὔξησις τῶν νεβρῶν συμβαίνει, οὐχ ὡς μακροβίου τοῦ ζῴου ὄντος. ἐν δὲ τῷ ὄρει τῷ Ἐλαφόεντι καλουμένῳ, ὅ ἐστι τῆς Ἀσίας ἐν τῇ Ἀργινούσῃ, οὗ τετελεύτηκεν Ἀλκιβιάδης, αἱ ἔλαφοι πᾶσαι τὸ οὖς ἐσχισμέναι εἰσίν· ὥστε, κἂν ἐκτοπίσωσι, γινώσκεσθαι. καὶ τὰ ἔμβρυα δὲ ἐν τῇ γαστρὶ ὄντα, εὐθὺς ἔχει τοῦτο τὸ σημεῖον. θηλὰς δ' ἔχουσιν αἱ θήλειαι τέτταρας, ὥσπερ αἱ βοῦς.

ἐπειδὰν δ' ἐμπλησθῶσιν αἱ θήλειαι, ἐκκρίνονται οἱ ἄρρενες καθ' ἑαυτούς, καὶ διὰ τὴν * ὁρμὴν τὴν τῶν ἀφροδισίων, ἕκαστος μονούμενος, βόθρους ὀρύττει, καὶ βρωμῶνται ὥσπερ οἱ τράγοι· καὶ τὰ πρόσωπα, διὰ τὸ ῥαίνεσθαι, μέλανα γίνεται αὐτοῖς, ὥσπερ τὰ τῶν τράγων. οὕτω δὲ διάγουσιν, ἕως ἂν ὕδωρ γένηται· μετὰ δὲ ταῦτα τρέπονται πρὸς τὴν νομήν. ταῦτα δὲ ποιεῖ τὸ ζῷον, διὰ τὸ φύσει λάγνον εἶναι καὶ διὰ τὴν παχύτητα. ὑπερβάλλουσα γὰρ γίνεται τοῦ θέρους αὐτῶν· διὸ καὶ οὐ δύνανται θεῖν, ἀλλ' ἁλίσκονται ὑπὸ τῶν πεζῇ διωκόντων ἐν τῷ δευτέρῳ δρόμῳ καὶ τρίτῳ· καὶ φεύγουσι διὰ τὸ καῦμα καὶ τὸ ἄσθμα εἰς τὸ ὕδωρ. καθ' ὃν δὲ χρόνον ὀχεύουσι, τὰ κρέα γίνεται φαῦλα καὶ δυσώδη, καθάπερ καὶ τῶν τράγων. ἐν μὲν οὖν τῷ χειμῶνι γίνονται λεπτοὶ καὶ ἀσθενεῖς· πρὸς δὲ τὸ ἔαρ, μάλιστα ἀκμάζουσι πρὸς τὸ δραμεῖν. ἐν δὲ τῷ φεύγειν ἀνάπαυσιν ποιοῦνται τοῦ δρόμου, καὶ ὑφιστάμενοι μένουσιν, ἕως ἂν πλησίον ἔλθῃ ὁ διώκων· τότε δὲ πάλιν φεύγουσι. τοῦτο δὲ δοκοῦσι ποιεῖν, διὰ τὸ πονεῖν τὰ ἐντός. τὸ γὰρ ἔντερον ἔχει λεπτὸν καὶ ἀσθενὲς οὕτως, ὥστε ἂν ἠρέμα τις πατάξῃ, ἐκκόπτεται, τοῦ δέρματος ὑγιοῦς ὄντος.

A Cùm mares impleuerint fœminas, ſeparantur per ſeipſi, & propter libidinis graueolentiam quiſque ſolitarius ſcrobes fodit. Fœtet vt hirci. Facieſque eorum nigreſcit aſpergine, vt hircorum. Degunt ita quouſque imber accedat, tum paſcua repetunt. Hæc ideo ceruo accidũt, quia ſalax animal ſuapte natura eſt, atque etiam quia pingui abũdat. Pingueſcunt enim æſtate ſupra modum: quamobrẽ nec currere quidem poſſunt: ſed ſecundo aut tertio curſu capiuntur ab iis qui pedibus inſectantur. Fugiunt etiam in aquas propter æſtum atque anhelitum. Caro eorum libidinis tempore vitiatur, & fœtet perinde quaſi hircorum. Hyeme itaque extenuantur debilitantúrque: vère autem viget, maximè ad curſum. Cùm fugiunt, requiem inter currendum aliquam faciunt, conſiſtentéſque manent, B dum qui inſequitur, appropinquet, tum fugã item arripiunt. Quod ideo facere videntur, quia interiora laborant. Inteſtinum enim tam tenue imbecilléque habent, vt etiam ſi leniter percuſſeris, poſſit rumpi, cute adhuc integra.

CAPVT XXX.

VRſi coeunt, vt dictum eſt, non ſuperuenientes, ſed humi ſtrati. Fert vterum vrſa dies triginta. Parit tum vnum tum etiam duos: ſed cùm pluri- C mùm quinque. Fœtum minimum pro ſui corporis magnitudine edit: quippe quæ minorẽ catto, maiorem mure parere ſoleat. Nudum item, & cæcum: & cruribus propemodum, membriſque aliis plurimis indiſcretum, & rudem. Coit menſe Februario, parit eo tempore, quo latet. Pingueſcit per id tempus tam mas quàm fœmina vehementer. Cùm prolem enutrierit, exit à menſe iam vèris tertio. Hyſtrix etiam latet, totidemque diebus fert vterum, & reliqua facit perinde vt vrſa. Grauidam capi vrſam difficile eſt.

CAPVT XXXI.

LEonem auerſum coire, vrinámque retrò reddere dictum iam eſt. Coit, & parit, non omni tempore: ſingulis tamen annis, vère parit, & magna ex parte geminos, ſed cùm plurimos, ſex catulos: nonnunquam etiam vnum. Quod de leæna fertur, vuluam cum partu emittere, delira fabula eſt, facta ex ea cauſa, quòd rarum genus hoc animalis eſt, nec rationem cur ita eſſet, comperire author illius fabulæ poterat. Rarum hoc enim eſt, nec multis naſcitur locis: ſed Europæ totius ea parte ſolùm quæ inter Acheloum amnem & Neſſum eſt. Parit leæna quoque adeò paruos, vt vix poſt ſecundum E menſem incipiãt ingredi. Leones certè Syriæ quinquies vita pariũt: primùm quinque, poſt vno ſubinde pauciores, deinde ſteriles degunt. Caret leæna iuba: maris hæc propria eſt. Dentes eos tantummodo mutat leo, qui canini vocantur, quatuor, duos ſuperiùs, totidémque inferiùs, idque ſexto menſe ætatis fit.

CAPVT XXXII.

De hyænæ natura, meatibúſque genitalibus maris, & fœminæ.

HYæna colore lupi propè eſt, ſed hirſutior, & iuba per totum dorſum prædita eſt. Quod autem de ea fertur, genitale ſimul & maris & fœminæ eandem habere, commentitium eſt: ſed virile ſimiliter atque in lupis & canibus habetur. Quod verò fœmineum eſſe videtur, ſub cauda poſitum eſt, figura ſimile genitali fœminę, ſed ſine vllo meatu. Sub hoc meatus excrementorum eſt. Quinetiam fœmina hyæna, præter ſuum illud, etiam ſimile vt mas habet ſub cauda ſine vllo meatu: à quo excrementorum meatus eſt, atque ſub eo genitale verum continetur. Vuluam etiam hyæna fœmina, vt cæteræ huiuſcemodi fœminæ animantes, habet. Sed rarò hyæna fœmina capitur. Iam inter vndecim numero, viſam tantùm cepiſſe venator retulit quidam.

CAPVT XXXIII.

LEpores auerſi coeunt, vt expoſitum eſt. retrò enim vrinam reddunt. Coeunt, & pariũt quoquo tempore, dúmque vtero ferũt, ſuperfœtant, & ſingulis menſibus generant: ſed fœtus edunt non vniuerſos. Interpoſitis enim diebus quot res tulerit, peragunt partionem. Habet fœmina lac priuſquam pariat, & à partu continuo repetit coitum, & lactans adhuc concipit fœtum. Lac ſuillo ſimile ſua craſſitudine eſt. Partum non, vt maior ſidipedum pars, cæcum edit.

CAPVT XXXIV.

De coitu, & partu vulpis.

VVlpes ſuperueniens coit. Parit cæcos, vt vrſa, atque etiam infirmiores. Parturiens ita ſecedit, vt rarò grauida capiatur. Cùm partum ediderit, lingua lambendo refouet, & concoquit. Parit, cùm plurimos, quatuor.

CAPVT XXXV.

De partu luporum, felis, ichneumonis, lupi canarij, & lupi ceruarij.

LVpus fert & parit vt canis, tũ tẽpore, tũ etiam fœtus numero. Cæcos etiã generat canis modo. Coit vno tẽpore tãtùm: parit ineũte æſtate. Fertur de eius partu ad fabulam proximè, lupos omnes intra duodecim dies parere. Cuius rei cauſam proferunt fabuloſè, quòd Latonam oberrantem totidem diebus ex Hyperboreis Delum deduxerint ſub ſpecie lupæ, propter metum Iunonis. Sed an tempus hoc pariendi ſit, nondum exploratum habemus. Fertur quidem ſic vulgò, ſed verum minimè eſſe videtur, quale vel illud ferunt, lupos ſemel in vita parere. Feles & ichneumones tot numero pariunt, quot canes, veſcuntúrque eiſdem. Viuunt circiter annos ſex. Lupus item canarius cæcos parit luporum ritu, numero cumplurimum quatuor.

SVnt in Syria, quos mulos appellant, genus diuerſum ab eo quod coitu equæ & aſini procreatur: ſed ſimili facie, quomodo aſini ſyluestres, ſimilitudine quadam nomen vrbanorum accepere. Et quidem, vt aſini illi feri, ſic muli præſtant celeritate. Procreant eiuſmodi mulæ ſuo in genere. Cuius rei argumento illæ ſunt, quæ tempore Pharnacæ patris Pharnabazi in terram Phrygiam venerunt, quæ adhuc extant. Tres tamen ex nouem, quot numero olim fuiſſe aiunt, ſeruantur hoc tempore.

CAPVT XXXVII.

De natura & variis generibus murium, déque pullorum numeroſitate.

MVrium generatio mirabilis præter cætera animalia maiorem in modum eſt, tum numero tum celeritate. Iam enim fœmina prægnante in vaſe miliario aliquando occupata, paulo pòſt reſerato vaſe, muſculi numero viginti & centum reperti ſunt. Mirum etiam percipimus ortum redũdantis agreſtis murium generis. Locis enim compluribus agri, tam inaudito modo oriri ſolent, vt parum ex vniuerſo frumento relinquatur. Tam citò abſumitur, vt nonnulli mediocres agricolæ, cùm pridie metendum ſtatuerint, poſtridie mane cum meſſoribus accedentes ad ſegetem, abſumptam inueniant totam. Interitus autem minimè euenit ratione. Paucis enim diebus omnino abolentur, quanquam ſuperiore tempore homines vincere vel ſuffiendo, vel ſues, vt latibula effoderent, admittendo, non poſſent. Quinetiam vulpes eos venantur, & catti ſyluestres in primis: ſed tamen ſuperare copiam, & celeritatem prouentus nequeunt: nec aliud quicquam omnium vincit, niſi imbres: iis enim quàm primùm intereunt. Terræ Perſicæ parte quadam, mure fœmina reſciſſa, fœtus fœminini prægnantes comperiuntur. Sunt qui vehementer confirment, mures, ſi ſalem lambant, impleri ſine coitu. Ægyptiis muribus prædurus, ferè vt herinaceis pilus eſt. Sunt etiam alij qui erecti bipedes ambulent: habent enim crura poſteriora longa priora breuia. Ortus eorum quoque numeroſus eſt. Sunt vel alia genera murium plura. Sed de iis hactenus.

ARISTOTELIS STAGIRITÆ, de Hiſtoria Animalium,

LIBER VII.

CAPVT I.

De ſignis quæ puerorum ſeminis emiſſionem, puellarúmque viripotentiam præueniunt.

DE hominis generatione, tum prima in vtero, tum poſteriore in luce, & vſque in ſenectutem, quemadmodum ſe habeant, quæ ſuæ naturæ ratione eueniant, loco hoc dicimus. Quæ inter marem & fœminam differentia ſit, & quibúſnam partibus conſtet, antè expoſitum eſt. Mas autem primum ſemen genitale magna ex parte incipit ferre anno peracto bis ſeptimo: ſimul etiam pubeſcere incipit eo tempore, vt ſtirpes ſemen laturas primùm florere Alcmæon Crotoniata ait. Vox item per id tempus mutari in ſonum aſperiorem inæquabiliorémque incipit, quanquam nondum grauem. Neque enim acuta præterea eſt, neque tota æquabilis: ſed ſimilis fidibus incontentis & aſperis, quod caprire denominant. Idque potiſſimùm incidit iis qui rem Veneream incipiunt agere. Iis enim vox tranſit in ſonum virilem. abſtinentibus verò econtrario fit: &, ſi curam adhibeant (quod aliqui faciunt ex iis qui choreis indulgent) vel longo ſeruari tempore ſine magna mutatione poteſt. Mammæ etiam extuberant: & genitale non ſolùm magnitudine, ſed etiam ſpecie proficit. Euenit porrò id temporis, qui iam fricari cõtrectaríque per libidinem cœperint, vt cùm ſemen emittunt, non modò voluptate, verùm dolore quoque afficiantur. Fœminis etiam per id tempus exurgunt vbera, quod frattare dicitur: & quæ menſtrua vocantur, erumpunt: quod ſanguis quaſi occiſi animalis eſt. Quæ autem alba dicuntur, admodum etiam puellis eueniunt, & magis ſi cibo vtuntur humidiori. Hæc incrementum impediunt corporis, & puellam extenuant. Sed menſes tunc plurimis fiunt, cùm iam vbera ad duos digitos prominent: & vox eodem tempore puellarum mutatur in grauiorem. Denique cùm mulier vocis acutioris quàm vir, ſit, tum natu minores acutiùs quàm maiores, ſonant: vt & pueri, quàm viri, acutiùs. Sed vox fœminæ acutior eſt, quàm maris, & fiſtula puellarum acutior quàm puerorum eſt. Fit etiam vt per id tempus cuſtodiri præcipuè debeant: maximè enim ad vſum rei Venereæ incitantur, cùm hæc incipiunt. Quòd ſi iam inde nihil plus commoueri, temperent, quàm corpora ipſa nullo adhuc vſu Venereo, ſed ſponte mutentur, ſequi ſeruaríque temperantia ſolet per ætates ſuperiores. Nam & quæ admodum puellæ concumbunt, libidinoſiores euadunt: & mares ſiue altera parte, ſiue vtraque minùs cauerint, propenſiores eódem efficiuntur. Meatus enim laxantur, reddúntque eo corpus lubricum,

A & ſimul voluptatis, qua olim geſtirent, memoria, deſiderio mouentur præteritæ contrectationis. Prodeunt nonnulli iam inde à primo ortu Natura impubes, infœcundique, propterea quòd partes genitalis fuerint deprauati. Mulieres etiam similiter modo impubes à natiuitate poſſunt creari. Habitus quoque tum marium tum fœminarum mutantur, vt ſint vel ſanitati, vel morbo habiliores: & vel graciles vel pleni, benéque vegeti. Nam à pube ex macilentis craſſeſcunt, euadúntque ſaniores: alij contrà. quod pari modo puellis etiam euenit. Iam enim ea quæ ſanitati alimentóque obſtent, exeunt. at verò quibus contrà anteceſſerit, iis corpora graciliora, & morbis opportuniora redduntur. Excernitur enim de ipſa natura & bene habitis, cùm aut ſemen, aut menſes prodeunt. In puellis item diuerſitas vberum eſt: aliis enim admodum magna, aliis exigua ſunt. Euenit ſanè vt corpora immodicè creſcant, cùm puellæ excrementis redundant. Futuris enim adhuc, & nondum profluentibus menſtruis, quo plus continetur humoris, eo magis efferri, ſurſúmque impelli neceſſe eſt, donec infrà erumpat. Ita- C que quod interim incrementum mammæ acceperint, ſeruant poſtea. Maribus etiam mammæ conſpectiores, & fœminatiores, tum iunioribus tum ſenioribus efficiuntur, qui humidiores, læuiores, nec venulenti ſunt: eorúmque ipſorum iis magis, qui fuſci, quàm qui candidi ſunt. Semen profectò infœcundum vſque ad ter ſeptimum annum eſt, mox prolificum quidem eſt, ſed exigua imperfectáque generant iuniores, & mares, & fœminæ, vt in cæterorum quoque animalium genere plurimis euenit. Sedantur autem, temperantúrque melius, quæ in rei venereæ vſum luxuriant, cum partum multoties exercuerint. Sed poſt annum ter ſeptimum mulieribus quidem opportunè iam procreatio eſt. Sed viris item accedere aliquid poteſt ad prolem perfectiorem. Semina infœcunda ſunt, quæ tenuia: fœcunda, quæ grandinis ſpeciem referunt: eadémque potius marem fœtificant: contrà tenuia, nec globulenta, fœminam gignunt. Mentum etiam maris ea ætate pilis integitur.

De menſtruis mulieris.

PRofluuium autem menſium decreſcēte Luna cōtingit: quamobrem nonnulli cauillo ſexum fœmineum Lunæ tribuunt, quoniam ſimul vt illa decreſcat, & mulier purgetur, móxque repleantur ambæ, eueniat. Paucis menſtrua ſingulis menſibus mouētur: ſed vno intermiſſo plurimis. Faciliùs agitur cum iis quibus breui tēpore, hoc eſt, biduo, aut triduo profluunt, ſed quibus longum protrahitur, diffici-difficilius: laborant enim id temporis. Aliis namque vniuerſim hæc purgatio fit, aliis paulatim. attamen omnibus corpus grauatur, quamdiu effluat humor. Multis etiam cum menſtrua citantur, & eruptioni propinqua ſunt, ſtrangulationes vuluarum ſequuntur, & crepitus, donec erumpãt. Conceptus mulieribus à profluuio menſtruorum ſua natura contingit: & quæ iis careant, ſteriles magna ex parte exiſtunt. Verùm fieri poteſt vt aliquæ etiam ſine eorum profluuio concipiant, videlicet quibus tantum humoris colligitur, quantum iis quæ purgantur, reſtare ſolet: quanquam non tanta copia, vt & foras poſſint profluere. Nonnullæ etiam dum profluunt menſes, concipiunt, poſtea concipere nequeunt: quibus vulua ſtatim à purgatione comprimitur. Sunt quibus prægnantibus etiam menſtrua vſque in poſtremum gerendi tempus eueniant: quibus accidit vt parua pariant, & proles aut minùs vitalis, aut infirma procreetur. Multis etiam deſiderio coitus (quo vel iuuenilis ætatis ratione, vel quia longo tempore abſtinuerint, tenentur) deſcendunt vteri: & menſtrua ſæpe ter in menſe citantur, donec concipiant: quo facto aſcendunt, & ſuo ſitu conſtituuntur. Nonnunquam etſi cætera bene ſe habet vterus, humidus tamen eſt. Reſpuit ſemen genitale, ſi humidus ſit. Omnium autem animalium (vt antè dixi) mulieribus inter fœminas plurima hæc purgatio euenit. Nam iis quæ non pariunt animal, nihil tale mouetur, propterea quòd hoc materiæ ſuperuacuum vertitur in corporis alimentum. Sunt enim nonnulla maribus ſuis maiora: atque etiam aliis in corticem, aliis in ſquamam, aliis in frequentiam pennarum abſumitur. Terreſtribus quoque animal parientibus, in pilos & corpulentiã tranſit: homo enim læuior cæteris eſt: atque etiam in vrinam diuertitur. plurima enim ex cæteris largiùs mingunt, & craſſius. at mulieribus vice eorum quæ dixi, omnium quantum ſuperuacuum ſit, in purgationem menſium vertitur. Quod in maribus quoque ſimili fieri modo percipimus, ſeminis genitalis ratione. Plurimum .n. omnium animalium emittit, comparatione dico magnitudinis ſuæ. Et verò inter ipſos mares, qui humidiores natura ſunt, nec valde carnoſi, plus reddunt: atque etiam plus candidiores, quàm fuſci. Nec ſecus in mulieribus fit: corpulentis enim multum menſtrui excrementi in corporis alimentum tranſit. Et in vſu quoque rei venereæ candidiores ſua natura plus quàm fuſcæ, euaporant. Præparatur hoc amplius vſu ciborum humidorum & acrium.

CAPVT III.

De indiciis conceptionis, & quot dierum ſpatio mas, quot item fœmina in vtero moueatur: déque abortionibus.

INdicium mulierem iam concepiſſe, cùm ſtatim à coitu locus ſiccescit. Fit certè, vt ſi oris, quo concipitur, labra ſunt læuia, inepta ſint ad conceptum: labitur enim, & effluit ſemen. Nec verò ſi craſſa ſunt, commodè vſum præſtant. Sed ſi ad digiti tactum aſperiuſcula, & hærentia ſint, atque etiamſi tenuiora, ita commodè ad conceptionem habent. Talis igitur præparandus eſt vterus, qui concipiat. Quòd ſi facere ne cõcipiat, placet, contrà agendum eſt: nam ſi labra ſint læuiora, Τίνα σημεῖα τοῦ συνειληφέναι τὰς γυναῖκας, καὶ τὰ αὐταῖς μετὰ τὴν σύλληψιν συμβαίνοντα· καὶ περὶ ἐκτρωσμοῦ.

ΓΙνεται δὲ σημεῖον τοῦ συνειληφέναι ταῖς γυναιξὶν, ὅταν εὐθὺς ξηρὸς ᾖ μετὰ τὴν ὁμιλίαν ὁ τόπος. ἐὰν μὲν οὖν λεῖα τὰ χείλη ᾖ τοῦ στόματος, οὐ δύναται συλλαμβάνειν· ἀπολισθαίνει γάρ· οὐδ' ἂν παχέα. ἐὰν δ' ἁπτομένῳ τῷ δακτύλῳ τραχύτερα ᾖ, καὶ ἀντέχῃ, καὶ ἂν λεπτὰ τὰ χείλη, τότε εὐφυῶς ἔχει πρὸς τὴν σύλληψιν. πρὸς μὲν οὖν τὸ συλλαμβάνειν, τοιαύτας δεῖ κατασκευάζειν τὰς ὑστέρας· πρὸς δὲ τὸ μὴ συλλαμβάνειν, τοὐναντίον. ἂν γὰρ ᾖ λεῖα τὰ χείλη,

A οὐ συλλαμβάνει. δεῖ δ' ἐπὰν, ἵνα τῆς μήτρας πρὸ τοῦ πίπτῃ τὸ σπέρμα, ἀλείφουσιν ἐλαίῳ κεδρίνῳ, ἢ ψιμυθίῳ, ἢ λιβανωτῷ, διέντες ἐλαίῳ. ἐὰν δὲ ἑπτὰ ἐμμείνῃ ἡμέρας, φανερὸν ὅτι εἴληπται· αἱ γὰρ καλούμεναι ἐκρύσεις, ἐν ταύταις γίνονται ταῖς ἡμέραις. αἱ δὲ καθάρσεις, φοιτῶσι ταῖς πλείσταις ἐπί τινα χρόνον συνειληφυίαις, ἐπὶ μὲν τῶν θηλειῶν, τριάκοντα ἡμέρας μάλιστα· περὶ τετταράκοντα δὲ, ἐπὶ τῶν ἀρρένων. καὶ μετὰ τοὺς τόκους δ' αἱ καθάρσεις βούλονται τὸν αὐτὸν ἀριθμὸν ἀποδιδόναι τούτων· οὐ μὴν ἐξακριβοῦσί γε πάσαις ὁμοίως. μετὰ δὲ τὴν σύλληψιν καὶ τὰς ἡμέρας τὰς εἰρημένας, οὐκέτι κατὰ φύσιν, ἀλλ' εἰς τοὺς μαστοὺς τρέπεται, καὶ γίνεται γάλα. B ἐπισημαίνει δὲ τὸ πρῶτον μικρόν τε καὶ ἀραχνιῶδες τὸ γάλα ἐν τοῖς μαστοῖς. ὅταν δὲ συλλάβωσιν, αἴσθησις μάλιστα γίνεται ταῖς λαγόσιν· ἐνίαις γὰρ γίνονται πληρέστεραι εὐθύς· μᾶλλον δ' ἐπίδηλος τοῦτο συμβαίνει ταῖς ἰσχναῖς· καὶ ἐπὶ τοῖς βουβῶσιν. ἐπὶ μὲν τῶν ἀρρένων, ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ ἐν τῷ δεξιῷ μᾶλλον περὶ τὰς τετταράκοντα γίνεται ἡ κίνησις· τῶν δὲ θηλειῶν, ἐν τῷ ἀριστερῷ, περὶ ἐνενήκοντα ἡμέρας. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ' ἀκριβοῦν γε τούτων οὐδὲν μᾶλλον ὑποληπτέον· πολλαῖς γὰρ θηλυτοκούσαις, ἡ κίνησις ἐν δεξιῷ γίνεται, καὶ ταῖς ἐν τῷ ἀριστερῷ ἀρρενοτοκούσαις. ἀλλὰ ταῦτα καὶ τὰ τοιαῦτα πάντα, διαφέρει ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ κατὰ τὸ μᾶλλον καὶ τὸ ἧττον. C περὶ δὲ τὸν χρόνον τοῦτον καὶ σχίζεται τὸ κύημα· τὸν δὲ ἔμπροσθεν, ἀδιάρθρωτον συνέστηκε κρεῶδες. * καλοῦνται δὲ ἐκρύσεις μὲν αἱ μέχρι τῶν ἑπτὰ ἡμερῶν διαφθοραί· ἐκτρωσμοὶ δὲ, αἱ μέχρι τῶν τετταράκοντα· καὶ πλεῖστα διαφθείρεται τῶν κυημάτων ἐν ταύταις ταῖς ἡμέραις. τὸ μὲν οὖν ἄρρεν, ὅταν ἐξέλθῃ τετταρακοσταῖον, ἐὰν μὲν εἰς ἄλλο τι ἀφῇ τις, διαχεῖταί τε καὶ ἀφανίζεται· ἐὰν δ' εἰς ψυχρὸν ὕδωρ, συνίσταται ὥσπερ ἐν ὑμενίῳ. τούτου δὲ διακνισθέντος, φαίνεται τὸ ἔμβρυον τὸ μέγεθος ἡλίκον μύρμηξ τῶν μεγάλων· τά τε μέρη δῆλα, τά τε ἄλλα πάντα, καὶ τὸ αἰδοῖον, καὶ οἱ ὀφθαλμοί, καθάπερ ἐπὶ τῶν ἄλλων ζῴων, μέγιστοι. A concipere nequit. Quamobrem nonnullæ, vt ſemen incidat, antè vuluam ex oleo iuniperino, aut ex ceruſa, thureve, excipientes, oleo illinunt. Sed ſi in ſeptimum diem intus permanſerit, conceptum iam eſſe certum eſt: nam quæ effluxiones vocantur, intra tot numero dies fieri ſolent. Purgationes autem accedunt plurimis, cùm conceperint, ad tempus quoddam, ſcilicet triginta dierũ, maximè ſi concepta fœmina eſt: quadraginta, ſi mas. A partu etiam purgationes eodem dierum numero conſequi volunt, quanquam non æquè ita diligenter eueniunt. at verò poſt conceptum, & dies, quos modò dixi, non item ſecundùm na- B turam inferiùs agitur, ſed in vbera tranſitur, & lac efficitur. Cuius nota inter initia exiguo quodam & araneæ propemodum ſpecie apparet in mammis. Cum iam conceperint, ſentiũt præcipuè ſuis ilibus: hæc enim nonnullis ſtatim pleniora efficiuntur. quod iis quæ graciliores ſunt, euidentiùs accidit. Inguina etiam ſentiunt, & conceptui argumento eſſe poſſunt. Mares fœtus magna ex parte circa quadrageſimum diem dextro potius latere mouentur, fœminæ ſiniſtro, circiter nonageſimum. Nihil tamen certi in his affirmari licet: multis enim ferentibus fœminam, motus agitur in dextro, & contrà in ſiniſtro, gerentibus marem. Sed enim hæc & reliqua huiuſcemodi, vt diffe- C runt, eo quo magna ex parte, & magis minúſve accidit, ſic accepimus. Finditur etiam fœtus hoc eodem tempore, cùm antè caruncula informis conſtaret. Effluxiones vocantur, quæ intra ſeptimum diem corruptiones incidunt. Abortiones autem, quæ intra quadrageſimum. Et quidẽ plurimi fœtus intra tot numero dies deprauantur. Mas, qui quadrageſimo die exierit, ſi in quoduis aliud mittatur, diffunditur atque abolctur: ſed ſi in aquam frigidam, cogitur, conſiſtitque, velvti in mẽbranula, qua rupta, fœtus ipſe apparet magnitudine formicæ maiuſculæ, & membra iam inde diſcreta, tum cętera omnià, tum genitalia conſtãt: D & oculi, quemadmodum in cæteris animantibus, prægrandes. Sed fœmina, quæ intra tertium menſem eruperit, indiſtincta eſt: quæ autem quartũm adepta eſt menſem, finditur, & réliquam diſtinctionis effigiem breui tempore accipit. Cum itaque fœtus in vtero formatur, fœmina tardius quàm mas, perfectionem quarumque partium recipit, & ſæpius in decimum menſem, quàm mas, protrahitur. Sed cum in lucem prodierit, fœmina ocyus quàm mas, & accreſcit, & ætate floret, & ſenectute maceratur, & magis quæ pluries pariunt, vt dictum iam eſt.

CAPVT IV.

De iis, quæ à conceptione ad partum vſque mulieribus eueniunt, quóve tempore pariant, quótque vno partu parere poſſint.

Euenit profectò vt mulieres à conceptu corpus totum grauentur, & oculorum caligines, & dolores capitis moueantur. quæ aliis maturiùs, & ferè die decimo accidunt, aliis ſeriùs, prout magis minuſve ex materia ſuperuacua tentantur. Nauſeæ item & vomitus plurimas capiunt, & præcipuè quibus purgationes conſtiterint, necdum ad vbera tranſeant. Aliquæ igitur principio magis laborant, aliæ poſt, cùm iam fœtus pleniùs creuerit. Sæpe etiam multas deſtillatio vrinæ ad poſtremum infeſtat: ſed magna ex parte, quæ marem ferunt, faciliùs exigunt, minuſque pallent: contra quæ fœminam: ſunt enim pallidiores, & grauiùs degunt. Multis etiam tumores exuberationeſque carnis in cruribus incidunt: ſed tamen contra etiam nonnullis contingit. Solent appetitus varij grauidis euenire, citóque commutari: quod picare quidam à pica aue denominant: & ſummum, cùm fœtum ſexus fœminei ferunt, auidiùs appetunt, minuſque re frui iam præſente, quam cupierint, poſſunt: faſtidiunt enim ſtatim, quod modo vehementer appetierant. Paucis contingit vt meliùs habeant, cùm vterum gerunt, ſed præcipuè tunc faſtidiunt, tædióque fatiſcunt, cùm fœtui capillus oriri incipit. Pili congeniti grauidis defluunt, paucioréſque redduntur. Contra, qua parte pilos minimè habere ſolebant, ea magis accipiunt. Plus etiam motus magna ex parte mas in vtero infert, quàm fœmina, & celeriùs prodit. fœminæ enim partus tardior eſt. Dolor etiam ex fœmina continuus, ſed obtuſior: ex mare acer, & longè moleſtior. Quæ paulò ante partum concumbunt, faciliùs pariunt. Parturire interdùm mulieres videntur, cùm tamen tempus non ſit, ſed quoniam fœtus inuertit ſuum caput, ideo initium hoc eſſe parturiendi videtur. Sed cùm cætera animalia omnia ſingulari ac ſimplici modo partum ſuum perficiant (vnum enim pariendi tempus ſtatutum omnibus eſt) homini vni multiplex datum eſt: nam & ſeptimo menſe, & octauo, & nono parere poteſt, & quod plurimum decimo, nonnullæ etiam vndecimum tangunt. Fœtus, qui maturiùs, quàm ſeptimo menſe prodeat, nullo pacto vitalis eſt. Qui ſeptimo, vitalis quidem hic primus exit, ſed magna ex parte infirmior: quamobrem cunabulis ex lana eum obuoluunt, & faſciis alligant. Meatus etiam nonnulli inſiſſi, vt aurium, aut narium, ſæpenumero generantur: ſed accreſcenti articulantur infanti, & demum ſuam formam recipiunt: & pleríque de his quoque ſeptimo natis viuere atque adoleſcere poſſunt. Qui autem menſe octauo naſcuntur, viuere, ac adoleſcere in terra Ægypto poſſunt, & quibuſdam aliis in locis, vbi mulieres fertiliores ſunt, multóſque ſimul facilè & ferunt, & pariunt, etiam ſi monſtroſi ſint. Sed locis Græciæ multi intereunt, nec niſi perpauci ſeruantur. Vnde fit, vt ſi quis ſeruetur, non octauo menſe natus exiſtimetur, ſed mulierem ſui conceptus initium latuiſſe. Infeſtantur maximè mulieres menſe quarto, octauoque. Et ſi vel quarto, vel octauo fœtus perierit, ipſæ quoque magna ex parte intereunt. Itaque fit, ne ſolùm menſe octauo nati non viuant, ſed etiam ipſis emortuis, periculum, quæ pariunt, ſubeant. Simili modo, & qui diuturniores, quàm vndecimo menſe naſci videntur, latere putantur.

A μετὰ δὲ τὰς συλλήψεις, αἱ γυναῖκες βαρύνονται τὸ σῶμα πᾶν, καὶ σκοτοδινιῶσι περὶ τῶν ὀμμάτων, καὶ ἐν τῇ κεφαλῇ γίνονται πόνοι. ταῦτα δὲ ταῖς μὲν θᾶττον καὶ σχεδὸν δεκαταίαις γίνονται, ταῖς δὲ βραδύτερον, ὅπως ἂν τύχωσιν ἔχουσαι τοῦ περιττώματος εἶναι μᾶλλον καὶ ἧττον. ἔτι δὲ ναυτίαι καὶ ἔμετοι λαμβάνουσι τὰς πλείστας, καὶ μάλιστα τὰς τοιαύτας, ὅταν αἵ τε καθάρσεις στῶσι, καὶ μήπω εἰς τοὺς μαστοὺς τετραμμέναι ὦσιν. ἐνίαις μὲν οὖν ἀρχομέναις μᾶλλον πονεῖ τὸ σῶμα, ἐνίαις δὲ ὕστερον, ἤδη τοῦ κυήματος ἔχοντος αὔξησιν μᾶλλον. πολλαῖς δὲ καὶ πολλάκις καὶ στραγγουρίαι γίνονται τὸ τελευταῖον. αἱ μὲν οὖν ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ ῥᾷον ἀπαλλάττουσιν αἱ τὰ ἄρρενα κύου- B σαι, καὶ μᾶλλον μετ' εὐχροίας διατελοῦσιν· ἐπὶ δὲ τῶν θηλέων τοὐναντίον. ἀχρούστεραι γὰρ ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολύ, καὶ βαρύτεραι διάγουσι, καὶ πολλαῖς ἴσχει τὰ σκέλη οἰδήματα καὶ ἐπάρσεις γίνονται τῆς σαρκός. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ' ἐνίαις γίνεται καὶ τἀναντία τούτων. εἰώθασι δὲ ταῖς κυούσαις αἱ ἐπιθυμίαι γίνεσθαι παντοδαπαί, καὶ μεταβάλλειν ὀξέως· ὃ καλοῦσί τινες κιττᾶν· καὶ ἐπὶ τῶν θηλέων ὀξύτεραι μὲν αἱ ἐπιθυμίαι, τυγχάνουσαι δὲ ἧττον δύνανται ἀπολαύειν. ὀλίγαις δέ ποτε συμβαίνει βέλτιον ἔχειν τὸ σῶμα κυούσαις. μάλιστα δὲ πονοῦσιν, ὅταν ἄρχωνται τὰ παιδία τρίχας* ποιεῖν. αἱ δὲ τρίχες, ταῖς μὲν κυούσαις αἱ μὲν σύμφυτοι γίνονται ἐλάττους, C καὶ ἐκρέουσιν· ἐν οἷς δὲ μὴ εἰώθασιν ἔχειν τρίχας, ταῦτα δασύνεσθαι μᾶλλον. καὶ κινήσεις δὲ παρέχεται ἐν τῷ σώματι μᾶλλον ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολὺ τὸ ἄρρεν τοῦ θήλεος, καὶ τίκτεται θᾶττον, τὰ δὲ θήλεα βραδύτερον. καὶ ὁ πόνος ἐπὶ μὲν τοῖς θήλεσι, συνεχὴς καὶ νωθρότερος· ἐπὶ δὲ τοῖς ἄρρεσιν, ὀξὺς μὲν, πολλῷ δὲ χαλεπώτερος. αἱ δὲ πλησιάζουσαι πρὸ τῶν τόκων τοῖς ἀνδράσι, θᾶττον τίκτουσι. δοκοῦσι δ' ὠδίνειν αἱ γυναῖκες ἐνίοτε καὶ μὴ γινομένης ὠδῖνος· ἀλλὰ διὰ τὸ τὴν κεφαλὴν στρέφειν τὸ ἔμβρυον, φαίνεται ὠδῖνος ἀρχὴ τοῦτο γίνεσθαι. τὰ μὲν οὖν ἄλλα ζῷα, μοναχῶς ποιεῖται τὴν τοῦ τόκου τελείωσιν (εἷς γὰρ ὥρισται τοῦ τόκου χρόνος πᾶσιν) ἀνθρώπῳ D δὲ πολλοὶ μόνῳ τῶν ζῴων. καὶ γὰρ ἑπτάμηνα, καὶ ὀκτάμηνα καὶ ἐννεάμηνα γίνονται, καὶ δεκάμηνα τὸ πλεῖστον εἶναι· αἱ δὲ ἐπιλαμβάνουσι καὶ τοῦ ἑνδεκάτου μηνός. ὅσα μὲν οὖν γίνεται πρότερον τῶν ἑπτὰ μηνῶν, οὐδὲν οὐδαμῆ δύναται ζῆν. τὰ δ' ἑπτάμηνα γόνιμα γίνεται πρῶτον, ἀσθενῆ δὲ τὰ πολλά· διὸ καὶ σπαργανοῦσιν ἐρίοις αὐτά. πολλὰ δὲ καὶ τῶν πόρων ἐνίοις ἔχοντα ἄτρητα, οἷον ὤτων καὶ μυκτήρων· ἀλλ' ἐπαυξανομένοις διαρθροῦται, καὶ βιοῦσι πολλὰ καὶ τῶν τοιούτων. τὰ δ' ὀκτάμηνα, περὶ μὲν Αἴγυπτον, καὶ ἐν ἐνίοις τόποις, ὅπου εὔφοροι αἱ γυναῖκες καὶ φέρουσί τε πολλὰ ῥᾳδίως, καὶ τίκτουσι, καὶ γενόμενα δύναται ζῆν, κἂν τερατώδη γένη- E ται. ἐν τούτοις μὲν οὖν ζῇ τὰ ὀκτάμηνα καὶ ἐκτρέφεται· ἐν δὲ τοῖς περὶ τὴν Ἑλλάδα τόποις, ὀλίγα παμπὰν σῴζεται, τὰ δὲ πολλὰ ἀπόλλυται. καὶ διὰ τὴν ὑπόληψιν, κἂν σωθῇ τι, νομίζουσιν οὐκ ὀκτάμηνον εἶναι τὸ * γεγενημένον, ἀλλὰ λαθεῖν αὐτὰς αἱ γυναῖκες συλλαβούσας πρότερον. πονοῦσι δ' αἱ γυναῖκες μάλιστα τὸν μῆνα τὸν τέταρτον, καὶ τὸν ὄγδοον, καὶ ἐὰν διαφθείρωσι τετάρτῳ ἢ ὀγδόῳ μηνί, διαφθείρονται καὶ αὐταὶ ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολύ· ὥστ' οὐ μόνον τὰ ὀκτάμηνα οὐ ζῇ, ἀλλὰ καὶ διαφθειρομένων αἱ τεκοῦσαι κινδυνεύουσι. τὸν αὐτὸν δὲ τρόπον δοκεῖ λανθάνειν καὶ ὅσα φαίνεται τίκτεσθαι πολυχρονιώτερα τῶν ἕνδεκα μηνῶν.

καὶ γὰρ τούτοις ἡ τῆς συλλήψεως ἀρχὴ λανθάνει τὰς γυναῖκας. πολλάκις γὰρ πνευματικῶν γινομένων ἐμπροσθεν τῶν ὑστερῶν, μετὰ ταῦτα πλησιάσασαι καὶ συλλαβοῦσαι, ἐκείνην οἴονται τὴν ἀρχὴν εἶναι τῆς συλλήψεως, δι' ἣν ἐχρήσαντο τοῖς σημείοις. Τὸ δὲ δὴ πλῆθος τῶν τόκων τῆς τελειώσεως, παρὰ τἆλλα ζῷα τοῖς ἀνθρώποις ταύτην ἔχει τὴν διαφοράν· καὶ τῶν μὲν, μονοτόκων ὄντων, τῶν δὲ, πολυτόκων, ἐπαμφοτερίζει τὸ γένος τὸ τῶν ἀνθρώπων. τὸ μὲν γὰρ πλεῖστον, καὶ παρὰ τοῖς πλείστοις, ἓν τίκτουσιν αἱ γυναῖκες· πολλάκις δὲ καὶ πολλαχοῦ δίδυμα, οἷον περὶ Αἴγυπτον. τίκτουσι δὲ καὶ τρία καὶ τέτταρα, περὶ ἐνίους μὲν καὶ σφόδρα τόπους, ὥσπερ εἴρηται πρότερον· πλεῖστα δὲ τίκτεται πέντε τὸν ἀριθμόν. ἤδη γὰρ ὦπται τοῦτο καὶ ἐπὶ πλειόνων συμβεβηκός. μία δέ τις ἐν τέτταρσι τόκοις ἔτεκεν εἴκοσιν· ἀνὰ πέντε γὰρ ἔτεκε, καὶ τὰ πολλὰ αὐτῶν ἐξετράφη. ἐν μὲν οὖν τοῖς ἄλλοις ζῴοις, κἂν ᾖ τὰ δίδυμα ἄρρεν καὶ θῆλυ, οὐδὲν ἧττον ἐκτρέφεται γινόμενα καὶ σῴζεται τῶν ἀρρένων ἢ θηλειῶν· ἐν δὲ τοῖς ἀνθρώποις, ὀλίγα σῴζεται τῶν διδύμων, ἐὰν ᾖ τὸ μὲν ἄρρεν, τὸ δὲ θῆλυ. δέχεται δ' ὀχείας κύοντα μάλιστα τῶν ζῴων γυνὴ καὶ ἵππος· τὰ δ' ἄλλα, ὅταν πληρωθῇ, φεύγει τοὺς ἄρρενας, ὅσα μὴ πέφυκεν ἐπικυΐσκεσθαι, καθάπερ δασύποδες. ἀλλ' ἵππος μὲν, ἂν συλλάβῃ τὸ πρῶτον, οὐκ ἐπικυΐσκεται πάλιν, ἀλλ'* ἓν τίκτει μόνον ὡς ἐπὶ τὸ πολύ. ἐν ἀνθρώπῳ δὲ ὀλίγα μὲν, γέγονε δέ ποτε. τὰ μὲν οὖν ὕστερον πολλῷ χρόνῳ συλληφθέντα, οὐδὲν λαμβάνει τέλος, ἀλλὰ πόνον παρέχοντα, συνδιαφθείρει τὸ προϋπάρχον. ἤδη γὰρ γινομένης διαφθορᾶς, καὶ δέκα συνέβη καὶ δώδεκα ἐκπεσεῖν τὰ ἐπικυηθέντα. ἐὰν δὲ ἐγγὺς ἡ σύλληψις ἐγένετο, τὸ ἐπικυηθὲν ἐξενήνοχε, καὶ τίκτουσιν ὥσπερ δίδυμα γόνιμα, καθάπερ καὶ τὸν Ἰφικλέα καὶ τὸν Ἡρακλέα μυθολογοῦσι. γέγονε γὰρ καὶ τοῦτο φανερόν. μοιχευομένη γάρ τις, τὸ μὲν ἐκ τῶν τέκνων, ἐοικὸς τῷ ἀνδρὶ ἔτεκε, τὸ δὲ, τῷ μοιχῷ. ἤδη δὲ καὶ δίδυμα κύουσά τις, ἐπεκύησε τρίτον. γινομένου δὲ τοῦ χρόνου τοῦ καθήκοντος, τὰ μὲν, τελειόγονα τῷ χρόνῳ ἔτεκε· τὸ δὲ, πεντάμηνον· καὶ τοῦτ' ἀπέθανεν εὐθύς. καὶ ἑτέρᾳ δέ τινι συνέβη τεκούσῃ, πρότερον μὲν ἑπτάμηνον, ὕστερον δὲ δύο τελεόμηνα τεκεῖν· καὶ τούτων τὸ μὲν, ἐτελεύτησε, τὰ δὲ ἐβίωσε. καὶ ἐκτιτρώσκουσαι δέ τινες, συνέλαβον ἅμα· καὶ τὸ μὲν, ἐξέβαλον, τὸ δὲ, ἔτεκον. ταῖς δὲ πλείσταις, ἐὰν συγγίνωνται κυούσαις μετὰ τὸν ὄγδοον μῆνα, ὡς ἐπὶ πλέον μυξῶδες τὸ παιδίον ἐξέρχεται γλίσχρῳ τινί. καὶ τῶν ἐδεσμάτων δὲ τῶν προσφερομένων, περὶ πλέον φαίνεται πολλάκις· τῷ ἁλὶ δὲ δαψιλεστέρῳ χρησαμένων, οὐκ ἔχοντα γίνεται τὰ παιδία ὄνυχας.

ΤΟ δ' γάλα τὸ γινόμενον πρότερον τῶν ἑπτὰ μηνῶν, ἄχρηστόν ἐστιν· ἀλλ' ἅμα τά τε παιδία γόνιμα, καὶ τὸ γάλα χρήσιμον. τὸ δὲ πρῶτον, καὶ ἁλμυρὸν, ὥσπερ τοῖς προβάτοις. μάλιστα δ' ἐν ταῖς κυήσεσι τῷ οἴνῳ αἰσθάνονται αἱ πλεῖσται. διαλύονταί τε γὰρ, ἐὰν πίωσι, καὶ ἀδυνατοῦσιν. ἀρχὴ δὲ ταῖς γυναιξὶ τοῦ τεκνοῦσθαι, καὶ τοῖς ἄρρεσι τοῦ τεκνοῦν, καὶ παῦλα ἀμφοτέροις, τοῖς μὲν, ἡ τοῦ σπέρματος πρόεσις, ταῖς δὲ, ἡ τῶν καταμηνίων.

Latet enim mulieres conceptus initium, ſi cùm antè inflatus fuerit vterus, vt ſæpe accidit, poſt coierint, atque conceperint. Hoc enim principium eſſe ſui conceptus exiſtimant, quod ſimile indicium attulit. Ita multiplex perficiendi tempus pariendique diuerſum homini datum eſt. Et cùm alia ſingulos pariant, alia plures, genus humanũ in ancipiti eſt. Nam quod plurimum, & locis plurimis agitur, mulieres ſingulos ſingulæ pariunt. Sed ſæpe & locis pleriſque geminos etiam, vt in terra quoque Ægypto fieri certum eſt. Pariunt etiam tres, & quatuor. Et quidem locis nonnullis valde ita fit, quod dictum iam eſt, ſed quinque cumplurimum naſcuntur. Iam enim hoc pluribus eueniſſe conſpectum eſt. Et quædam viginti, partubus quatuor edidit: quinos enim ſingulis partubus enixa eſt, maiórque eorum pars enutriri, & adoleſcere potuit. Et cùm in cæteris animalibus gemini nati, etiamſi mas & fœmina ſint, nihilo minus enutriantur, ſeruenturque, quàm ſi mares ambo, aut fœminæ ſint: in genere certè humano pauci gemini ſeruantur, ſi alter mas ſit, alter fœmina. Mulier & equa omnium maximè animalium grauidæ coitum patiuntur: cætera vbi grauida fuerint, fugiunt mares, ea ſcilicet quorum natura ſuperfœtare more leporis recuſat: verùm equa nunquam ſuperfœtat, ſed magna ex parte vnum tantummodo generat. at verò in muliere raro quidem euenit vt ſuperfœtet, ſed factum tamen aliquando eſt. Qui itaque longo poſt tempore ſint concepti, nihil perfici poſſunt: ſed præmaturiùs dolorem, quo ipſi & primus fœtus intereat, mouent. Iam incidit vt facta corruptione duodecim ſuperfœtã puerperia egererentur. at verò ſi proximè à primo conceptu ſecundus ſit factus, abſolui edique poteſt, quod ſuperfœtatũ, vt quaſi gemini naſci videantur: quomodo Herculem & Iphiclem procreatos eſſe fabulantur. Nam id etiã conſtitit adulterâ quadam, quæ alterum ſuo marito, alterum adultero ſimilem peperit. Iam & cùm geminos quædam ferret, tertium ſuperfœtauit: & cùm tempus pariendi iuſtum iam eſſet, primos vitales peperit, tertium quinto menſe eliſit, qui ſtatim mortuus eſt. altera cùm primùm ſeptimo peperiſſet, qui mortuus eſt, mox duos iuſto menſium numero edidit, qui vixerunt. Quædam etiam ſub abortu conceperant, atque alterum abegerunt, alterum continuerunt, pertulerúntque ad partum. Plurimis ſi concubuerint menſe octauo, infans mucore oppletus exit. Eſculentorum etiam, quæ mater comederit, ſæpe gerulus venit in lucem: & ſi ſale immodicè vſa eſt, ipſe ſine vnguibus naſcitur.

CAPVT V.

De lactis bonitate, & malignitate, déque menſtruorum muliebrium fine.

LAc, quod ante ſeptimum menſem contractum eſt, inutile eſt: ſed ſimul infans natalis eſt, & lac eſſe vtile incipit: prius autem ſalſum etiam eſt, vt pecoris. Vino præcipuè cùm vterum ferunt, plurimæ infeſtantur: diſſoluuntur enim, ſi biberint, atque debilitantur. Principium, & finis mulieribus prolis recipiendæ, maribus præbendæ, ſeminis, & menſtruorum emiſſio eſt.

Sed neque cùm incipiunt, ſtatim prolifica ſunt, neque cùm deſinunt, & iam pauciora ſunt, & infirmiora. Quànam ætate incipiant menſtrua, & ſemen, dictum iam eſt. Sed deſinunt plurimis menſtrua circa quadrageſimum annum: quod tempus quæ exceſſerint, iis ad quinquageſimum ſeruantur. Et iam nonnullæ eo tempore pepererunt: ſed vltra hoc tempus nulla poteſt protrahere.

CAPVT VI.

Vſquequo maribus ſit generandi facultas, & de prolis ſimilitudine cum parentibus, vel cum aliis.

MAres plurimi ad ſexageſimum generant: quem ſi exceſſerint, ad ſeptuageſimum vſque procedunt. Et iam quidam annos ſeptuaginta nati genuerunt. Euenit ſanè multis & mulieribus, & viris, vt qui coniuncti inter ſe nequeāt procreare, vbi diſſociati ſe iunxere cum aliis, queant. Quod idē in maris quoque aut fœminæ procreatione nimirum euenire certum eſt. Plerumque enim tum mulieres, tum viri, quamdiu cum eiſdem iunguntur, fœminam tantùm marémve procreāt, ſeiuncti autem contrà. Ætatis etiam ratione immutantur, vt iuuenes inter ſe fœminas generent, ſeniores facti mares, aut contrà. Ratio quoque generandi omnino diſcrimen hoc idem recipit, vt iuuenes nihil procreent, ſeniores iam incipiāt generare. aut contrà, vt qui antè poſſent, pòſt nihil poſſint fœtificare. Sunt etiam aliquæ mulieres, quæ vix concipiant: ſed ſi conceperint, perficiant, atque edant. aliæ contrà, facilè quidem concipiūt, ſed ſeruare non poſſunt. Sunt & viri, qui non niſi fœminam procreent: & mulieres, quæ non niſi marem, & contrà: vt de Hercule fabulantur, qui inter duos & ſeptuaginta liberos, fœminam vnam tantummodo genuit. Quæ concipere nequeāt, ſi vel cura adhibita, aut aliquo caſu conceperint, fœminam magna ex parte pariunt potiùs quàm marem. Multis etiam viris euenit, vt cùm antea poſſent generare, pòſt nequeant, deinde rurſus facultatem recipiant generandi. Gignuntur læſi quoque ex læſis, verbi cauſa, claudi ex claudis, & cæci ex cæcis. Denique ſimiles ſæpenumero in re, quæ præter naturam comitetur, & ſigna habentes ſibi cognata hæreditaria, vt verrucas, vt næuos, aut cicatrices, aut quid aliud generis eiuſdem. Iam tale quid vel tertia prole pòſt regeneratum eſt, vt cùm quidam ſuo in brachio puncti notam haberet, filius non id retulit, ſed nepos, ea corporis parte nigritiem quandam habens confuſam, prodiit. Sed raro hæc eueniunt. Integri autem ex mancis ne gignantur, nulla res obſtat, & ſæpiſſimè ita agitur. Similes etiam aliqui parentibus, aut auis, ſuiſque maioribus generantur: aliqui ſimilitudinis nihil referunt. Redditur etiam vel poſt plures eiuſdem proſapiæ: vt in Sicilia, eius quæ adulterium cum Æthiope commiſerat, filia non colorem patris Æthiopis retulit, ſed qui natus ex hac eſt, is auum Æthiopem regenerauit. Fœminæ magna ex parte matri, mares patri proueniūt ſimiles: ſed fit etiam è diuerſo, vt fœminæ patri, mares matri ſimiles procreentur. Particulatim etiam ſimiles fiunt, vt alia corporis parte ſimiles ſint patri, alia matri. Gemini vel diſſimiles inter ſe nati iam ſunt, ſed plurimi magna ex parte ſimiles prodeunt.

ARISTOTELIS STAGIRITÆ, de Hiſtoria Animalium,

LIBER VIII.

CAPVT I.

De varietate actionum, & victus omnium animantium.

Generatio, & reliqua animalium natura ita ſe habet. Actiones autem, & vitæ, pro moribus victuque differunt. Sunt B enim vel in plurimis cæterorum animalium, veſtigia morum animi humani: quanquam hæc apertiùs in homine diſcernantur. Ineſt vrbanitas, feritas, clementia, acerbitas, fortitudo, ignauia, metus, fidentia, ira, malitia. atque etiam prudentiæ imago ineſt in multis, quemadmodum, cùm de partibus docerem, expoſui. Alia enim eo quod magis minúſve habeant, comparatione hominis differunt: homóque ipſe cum multis aliis animalibus ita diſſidet: quippe cùm aliqua ex his magis in homine habeantur, aliqua in cæteris animalibus latiùs: alia verò differant proportione. Vt enim in homine C ars, ſapientia, prudentia: ſic in nonnullis brutis ineſt vis quædam eiuſmodi altera naturalis. Conſtat hoc ita eſſe plane argumento pueriliſ ætatis, in qua futurorum habituum quaſi veſtigia & ſemina videris: & tamen nihil per id tempus animam hominis differre à beſluarum anima propè dixerim. Itaque nihil remotum à ratione eſt, ſi partim eadem, partim ſimilia, partim ex proportione in cæteris animalibus habentur. Sed adeò de inanimatis paulatim ſenſimque ad animata natura tranſit, vt continuatione ipſa lateat eorum confinium & medium vtriuſnam ſit extremi. Iam ab animantium genere primum genus plantarum eſt, earúmque alia D ab alia differt, eo quod magis vitæ particeps eſſe videtur. Vniuerſum autem genus reſpectu corporum cæterorum, quæ anima vacant, ipſum quaſi animal eſt: at reſpectu animalis, inanime eſſe videtur. Sed enim digreſſus hinc ad animalia continuus (vt modò dixi) procedit. Sunt enim maris nonnulla, quæ ambiges animalne ſint, an planta: hærent enim, & detracta compluta id genus intereunt. Verbi gratia, pinnæ adhærent, vngues euulſi viuere nequeunt: denique genus vniuerſum eorum quæ teſta integuntur, plantæ ſimile reſpectu gradientium animalium eſt. Quin & vis ſentiendi ita habetur, vt aliqua nullum eius indicium præbeant, alia le- E uiter, & perobſcurè ſentire videantur. Nonnullorum natura corporis carnoſa eſt, vt eorum, quæ tubera appellantur, aut vrticæ. at verò ſpongia omnino ſimilis plantis eſt. Cæterùm paruo quodam diſcrimine ſubinde alia præ aliis iam adipiſci vitam motúmque videntur. Quod idem in muneribus etiam vitæ percipere licet. Plantarum enim nullum aliud munus eſſe videtur, niſi quoad ſimilem quæque ſibi faciant alteram, videlicet quæ ſemine oriantur.

Τὰ μὲν οὖν περὶ τὴν [ἄλλην] φύσιν τῶν ζώων καὶ τὴν γένεσιν, τοῦτον ἔχει τὸν τρόπον· αἱ δὲ πράξεις καὶ οἱ βίοι κατὰ τὰ ἤθη καὶ τὰς τροφὰς διαφέρουσιν. ἔνεστι γὰρ ἐν τοῖς πλείστοις καὶ τῶν ἄλλων ζώων ἴχνη τῶν περὶ τὴν ψυχὴν τρόπων, ἅπερ ἐπὶ τῶν ἀνθρώπων ἔχει φανερωτέρας τὰς διαφοράς. καὶ γὰρ ἡμερότης [καὶ ἀγριότης,] πραότης καὶ χαλεπότης, καὶ ἀνδρία, καὶ δειλία, καὶ φόβοι καὶ θάρρη, καὶ θυμοὶ, καὶ πανουργίαι, καὶ τῆς περὶ τὴν διάνοιαν συνέσεως ἔνεισιν ἐν πολλοῖς αὐτῶν ὁμοιότητες, καθάπερ ἐπὶ τῶν μερῶν ἐλέγομεν. τὰ μὲν γὰρ, τῷ μᾶλλον καὶ ἧττον διαφέρει πρὸς τὸν ἄνθρωπον, καὶ ὁ ἄνθρωπος πρὸς πολλὰ τῶν ζώων. ἔνια γὰρ τῶν τοιούτων, ὑπάρχει μᾶλλον ἐν ἀνθρώπῳ· ἔνια δὲ, ἐν τοῖς ἄλλοις ζώοις μᾶλλον. τὰ δὲ, τῷ ἀνάλογον διαφέρει. ὡς γὰρ ἐν ἀνθρώπῳ τέχνη καὶ σοφία καὶ σύνεσις, οὕτως ἐν ἐνίοις τῶν ζώων ἐστί τις ἑτέρα τοιαύτη φυσικὴ δύναμις. φανερώτατον δ' ἐστὶ τὸ τοιοῦτον ἐπὶ τὴν τῶν παίδων ἡλικίαν βλέψασιν. ἐν τούτοις γὰρ, τῶν μὲν ὕστερον ἕξεων ἐσομένων ἔστιν ἰδεῖν οἷον ἴχνη καὶ σπέρματα. διαφέρει δὲ οὐδὲν, ὡς εἰπεῖν, ἡ ψυχὴ τῆς τῶν θηρίων ψυχῆς κατὰ τὸν χρόνον τοῦτον. ὥστε οὐδὲν ἄλογον, εἰ τὰ μὲν, ταὐτὰ, τὰ δὲ, παραπλήσια, τὰ δ', ἀνάλογον ὑπάρχει τοῖς ἄλλοις ζώοις. οὕτω δ' ἐκ τῶν ἀψύχων εἰς τὰ ζῷα μεταβαίνει κατὰ μικρὸν ἡ φύσις, ὥστε τῇ συνεχείᾳ λανθάνει τὸ μεθόριον αὐτῶν καὶ τὸ μέσον ποτέρων ἐστί. μετὰ [γὰρ] τὸ τῶν ἀψύχων γένος, τὸ τῶν φυτῶν πρῶτόν ἐστι· καὶ τούτων ἕτερον πρὸς ἕτερον διαφέρει, τῷ μᾶλλον δοκεῖν μετέχειν ζωῆς. ὅλον δὲ τὸ γένος πρὸς μὲν τἄλλα σώματα, φαίνεται σχεδὸν ὥσπερ ἔμψυχον· πρὸς δὲ τὸ ζῷον, ἄψυχον. ἡ δὲ μετάβασις ἐξ αὐτῶν εἰς τὰ ζῷα, συνεχής ἐστιν, ὥσπερ ἐλέχθη πρότερον. ἔνια γὰρ τῶν ἐν τῇ θαλάττῃ, διαπορήσειεν ἄν τις πότερον ζῷον ἢ φυτόν ἐστι. προσπέφυκε γὰρ, καὶ χωριζόμενα, πολλὰ διαφθείρεται τῶν τοιούτων. αἱ μὲν γὰρ πίνναι, προσπεφύκασιν· οἱ δὲ σωλῆνες, ἀνασπασθέντες, οὐ δύνανται ζῆν. ὅλως δὲ πᾶν τὸ γένος τῶν ὀστρακοδέρμων, φυτοῖς ἔοικε πρὸς τὰ πορευτικὰ τῶν ζώων. καὶ περὶ αἰσθήσεως, τὰ μὲν αὐτῶν, οὐδὲν σημαίνεται· τὰ δ', ἀμυδρῶς. ἡ δὲ τοῦ σώματος ἐνίων σαρκώδης ἐστὶ φύσις, οἷον τά τε καλούμενα τήθυα, καὶ τὸ τῶν ἀκαληφῶν γένος· ὁ δὲ σπόγγος, παντελῶς ἔοικε τοῖς φυτοῖς. ἀεὶ δὲ κατὰ μικρὰν διαφορὰν, ἕτερα πρὸ ἑτέρων ἤδη φαίνεται μᾶλλον ζωὴν ἔχοντα καὶ κίνησιν. καὶ κατὰ τὰς τοῦ βίου δὲ πράξεις, τὸν αὐτὸν ἔχει τρόπον. τῶν γε γὰρ φυτῶν ἔργον οὐδὲν ἄλλο φαίνεται, πλὴν, οἷον αὐτὸ, ποιῆσαι πάλιν ἕτερον, ὅσα γίνεται διὰ σπέρματος.

ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ τῶν ζώων ἐνίοις γὰρ, παρὰ τὴν γένεσιν, οὐδὲν ἔστι λαβεῖν ἔργον ἕτερον· διόπερ αἱ μὲν τοιαῦται πράξεις, κοιναὶ πάντων εἰσί. προσούσης δὲ αἰσθήσεως ἤδη, περί τε τὴν ὀχείαν, διὰ τὴν ἡδονὴν, διαφέρουσιν αὐτῶν οἱ βίοι, καὶ περὶ τοὺς τόκους καὶ τὰς ἐκτροφὰς τῶν τέκνων. τὰ μὲν οὖν ἁπλῶς, ὥσπερ φυτὰ, κατὰ τὰς ὥρας ἀποτελεῖ τὴν οἰκείαν γένεσιν· τὰ δὲ, καὶ περὶ τὰς τροφὰς ἐκπονεῖται τῶν τέκνων· ὅταν δ' ἀποτελέσῃ, χωρίζονται, καὶ κοινωνίαν οὐδεμίαν ἔτι ποιοῦνται. τὰ δὲ συνετώτερα καὶ κοινωνοῦντα μνήμης ἐπὶ πλέον, καὶ * πολιτικωτέρως χρῶνται τοῖς ἀπογόνοις. ἓν μὲν οὖν μέρος τοῖς ζώοις αἱ περὶ τὴν τεκνοποιίαν εἰσὶ πράξεις· αἱ δ' εἰσὶν δ' ἕτεραι, αἱ περὶ τὴν τροφήν. περὶ γὰρ δύο ταῦτα, αἵ τε σπουδαὶ τυγχάνουσιν οὖσαι πᾶσαι, καὶ ὁ βίος. πᾶσαι δὲ τροφαὶ διαφέρουσι μάλιστα κατὰ τὴν ὕλην ἐξ οἵας συνεστήκασιν. ἡ γὰρ αὔξησις, ἑκάστοις γίνεται κατὰ φύσιν ἐκ ταύτης. τὸ δὲ κατὰ φύσιν, ἡδύ. διώκει δὲ πάντα τὴν κατὰ φύσιν ἡδονήν. διῄρηνται δὲ κατὰ τοὺς τόπους. τὰ μὲν γὰρ, πεζὰ, τὰ δὲ, ἔνυδρα τῶν ζώων ἐστί. * διχῶς δὲ λεγομένης ταύτης τῆς διαφορᾶς, τὰ μὲν, τῷ δέχεσθαι τὸν ἀέρα, τὰ δὲ, τῷ τὸ ὕδωρ, λέγεται τὰ μὲν, πεζὰ, τὰ δὲ, ἔνυδρα. τὰ δὲ οὐ δεχόμενα μὲν, πεφυκότα δέ τοι πρὸς τὴν κρᾶσιν τῆς ψύξεως τὴν ἐφ' ἑκατέρου τούτων ἱκανῶς, τὰ μὲν, πεζὰ, τὰ δὲ, ἔνυδρα καλεῖται, οὔτ' ἀναπνέοντα, οὔτε δεχόμενα τὸ ὕδωρ· * τὰ δὲ τὴν τροφὴν ποιεῖσθαι καὶ διαγωγὴν ἐν ἑκατέρῳ τούτων. Πολλὰ γὰρ δεχόμενα τὸν ἀέρα, καὶ τοὺς τόκους ἐν τῇ γῇ ποιούμενα, τὴν τροφὴν ἐκ τῶν ἐνύδρων ποιεῖται τόπων, καὶ διατρίβει τὸν πλείω χρόνον ἐν ὕδατι. σχεδὸν ἅπερ, ὡς ἔοικεν, ἐπαμφοτερίζει μόνα τῶν ζώων. καὶ γὰρ ὡς πεζὰ, καὶ ὡς ἔνυδρα τις ἂν θείη.

A Sic animalium etiam quorumdam nihil muneris præter generationem acceperis. Vnde fit, vt eiuſmodi actiones ſint omnium communes, ſed procedente ſenſu, iam Venerei coitus voluptate vita eorum diſcrepat, atque etiam partus, enutriendæque prolis ratione. Itaque alia ſimpliciter, perinde vt plantæ, officio procreandi funguntur ſuis temporibus: alia in enutrienda etiam prole laborant, ſed cum perfecerint, deſiſtunt, nec vllam inſuper ſeruant ſocietatem. alia, quæ prudentiora ſunt, & plus memoriæ ſortiuntur, ciuilius agunt cum prole. Prima igitur pars vitæ animalium in officio procreandi conſiſtit, altera in alendo. In his enim B duobus ſtudium omnium vitaque verſatur. Cibi autem differunt, potiſſimum ratione materiæ, ex qua ipſa, quæ aluntur, conſiſtunt. Incrementum enim quibuſque ſecundum naturam ex eadem, qua conſtiterint, materia fit. Quod autem ſecundum naturam eſt, id ſuaue contingit: ſequunturque omnia eam voluptatem, quæ ſecundum naturam eſt. Degunt igitur animalia locis diſiuncta: alia namque terreſtria, alia aquatilia ſunt. Quam differentiam trifariàm intelligimus. Aut enim recipiendi aëris, aut aquæ ratione, altera terreſtria, altera aquatilia dicimus: aut quòd apta natura ſunt, ſeruari temperamento alterutro, quanquam aërem aquámve non recipiant: aut etiam quòd ci- C bum petant, verſentúrque vtrobique diutius. Cõplura enim cum recipiant aërem, partúſque faciãt in terra, cibum tamen à locis madidis petunt, verſantúrque in humore partem maximam temporis: quæ ſola vitam ambiguam agere videntur, quippe quæ eadem & velut pedeſtria, & velut aquatica ſtatui poſſint.

CAPVT II.

De victu aquatilium animantium.

D AT eorum, quæ humorem recipiunt, nullum vel pedeſtre, vel volatile eſt, nec cibum ſibi ex terra petit: quanquam multa ſpirabilis pedeſtriſque generis humore gaudent, & ita nonnulla, vt ne viuere quidem diſcluſa ab aquæ natura valeant: vt quæ marinæ teſtudines appellantur, & crocodili, & fluuiatiles equi, & vituli marini, atque etiam ex minori genere teſtudines lutariæ, ſiue mures aquatiles dicti, & ranæ: hæc enim omnia, niſi aliquamdiu ſpirent, intereunt: & parere educaréque ſolent in ſicco. Natura omnium maximè animalium ſuperflua, peculiariſque delphino, & ſi quid aliud tale, vel in cetaceo genere, vel in reliquo aquatili ſit, vt balæna, & E quæcumque fiſtulam gerunt: hoc enim genus nec terreſtre tantùm, neque aquaticum facilè dixerim. Siquidem terreſtre, quod aërem recipit: aquatile, quod aquam, ſecundum naturam eſt: particeps namque eſt vtriuſque, cum & mare accipiat, reddátque per fiſtulam, & aërem per pulmonem: habent enim hoc membrum, & ſpirant. Quamobrem delphinus retibus apprehenſus, breui tempore ſtrangulatur, vt qui ſpirandi facultatem amiſerit: foris verò diutius viuere poteſt mutiens, & anhelans modo cæterorum ſpirantium: quinetiam dormiens roſtrum exerit ſupra mare, vt ſpiret. Sed in vtraque diuiſionis tam contrariorum parte collocari hoc genus abſurdũ eſt.

Quamobrem aquatile genus amplius diſtinguendum videtur, vt alia accipiant, reddántque aquam, ea cauſa, qua ſpirantia aërem, quo refrigerentur: alia, propter cibum. Cùm enim in humore cibum accipiunt, fieri non poteſt, quin ſimul aliquid humoris admittatur: quod admiſſum, quo emittant, inſtrumentum habeant neceſſe eſt. Quæ igitur proportione ſpirationis humore vtuntur, branchias habent: quibus autem per cibum humor illabitur, iis fiſtula in ſanguineo genere data eſt. Mollibus etiam, & cruſtaceis hoc idem adhibitum eſt: nam ea quoque humorem propter cibum accipere coguntur. Sed altero illo modo aquatilia ſunt, temperationem corporis dico, & victum, vt quæ accipiant quidem aërem, ſed in humore ætatem degant: aut quæ accipiant quidem humorem, & branchias habeãt, ſed terram petant, vnde cibum accipiant: quale vnum adhuc tantummodo nouimus, cordulum nomine: hic enim non pulmonem, ſed branchias habet, egreſſúſque cibum petit in terra: & quadrupes idem eſt vt ad ambulandum idoneus. Horum autem omnium natura quaſi peruerſa videtur, ſicvt marium nonnullorum natura fœminam refert, fœminarum marem. Exiguis enim quibuſdam partibus ſuis natura animalium immutata, plurimùm toto in corpore differre videtur: quod latiſſimè in exciſis patet. Particula enim quadam oblæſa, totum animal in fœminam vertitur. Quapropter in prima etiam ortus conſtitutione minimæ magnitudinis quoquam immutato, dummodo ſit principale, efficitur vt alterum mas, alterum fœmina reddatur: atque ſi omnino tollatur, neutrum prodeat. Itaque terreſtre etiam & aquatile eſſe modo vtroque prædicto, parte animalis exigua immutata, poteſt, vt alia terreſtria, alia aquatilia procreentur: & alia vitam ſimplicem agant, alia ambiguam, propterea quòd generatione ſuæ conſtitutionis materia tali participarint, qualem ſibi in cibo aſſumunt. Charum enim cuique, ſuauéque eſt, quod per naturam habetur, vt ſuperius diximus. Sed cùm animalia trifariàm in aquatile & terreſtre diuidantur: aut enim recipiendi aëris, aquæve neceſſitudine, aut corporis temperatione, aut tertio victus ratione: vitæ prorſus diſcrimen pro his diuiſionum membris conſequetur. alia enim temperandi corporis gratia, & victus ratione, atque etiam recipiendi aëris, aut aquæ neceſſitate ita degent: alia temperamenti victúſque cauſa tantùm. Igitur eorum, quæ teſta operiuntur, nonnulla immota alũtur humore dulci, & potulento, qui per ſpiſſa trãſmittitur, cùm tenuior ipſe mari concocto eliciatur, quemadmodum & primo naturæ ortu inſtituuntur. Dulcem autem contineri humorem in mari, atque ita tranſmitti, & percolari conſtat eo experimento, quo ſi ex cerá vas tenui latere finxeris, idque annexa linea in mare demittas inane die ac nocte vna, humoris copiam dulcis intra ſe colliget. Vrticæ piſciculis fortè incidentibus veſcuntur. Os in medio habent, quod in maioribus euidentius eſt. Meatum etiam vt oſtreæ, quo excrementum ſecedat, habent parte ſuperiore. Vrtica enim ipſa quaſi oſtreorum caro eſſe videtur incluſa ſaxo, perinde vt teſta. Patellæ etiam ſecedunt abſoluentes ſeſé, vt veſcãtur. Quæ autẽ mobilia, eadémque carne veſcentia ſunt, iis victus ex piſciculis eſt, vt purpuris: ſunt enim carniuoræ,

A & quidem eſca huiuſmodi capiuntur, quanquam iis etiam, quæ mari pullulant, alliciuntur. Teſtudines marinæ conchulas petunt, habent enim os omnium robuſtiſſimum: quicquid namque in os ceperint, ſiue lapidem, ſiue quoduis aliud, perfringunt, ac deuorant. Exeunt etiam in terram, & paſcunt herbam. Laborant plerumque, & intereunt, quoties innatantes ſiccantur Sole: deferri in gurgitem facilè nequeunt. Hic idem veſcendi modus cruſtaceis eſt: nam ea quoque omniuora ſunt, quippe quæ & lapillos, & limum & algam deuorent, atque etiam ſtercus: vt cancri ſaxatiles. Carnes etiam nimirum appetunt. B Euenit vſu, vt locuſtis polypi ſuperiores ſint, & adeò, vt ſi eiſdem in retibus ſenſerit locuſta polypum, præ metu emoriatur. Congros locuſtæ conuincunt: nam elabi non queunt propter cruſtæ aſperitatem. Congri polypos ſuperant, ſed edere non poſſunt: læue enim & lapſum polypi corpus vſum hoſtis effugit. Mollia vero carniuora omnia ſunt. Paſcuntur locuſtæ venatu piſciculorum circa ſua cubilia, quæ in alto locis aſperis, ſaxoſis, cauernoſiſque faciunt. Quicquid ceperint, ori admouent ſuo forcipe, vt cancri. Incedit locuſta ſua natura antè, cùm nihil metuit, demiſſis in latera cornibus: at vbi metuit, fugit retro, longeque ſua cornua porrigit. Dimicant

C inter ſe more arietum cornibus, quæ extollentes, vibrantéſque, feriunt aduerſarium: ſed vniuerſæ etiam plerumque tanquam gregis collegium viſuntur. Talis viuendi modus eorum eſt, quæ cruſta operiuntur. In mollium genere lolligines, atque ſepiæ, piſces vel maiores euincunt. Polypi conchulis maximè extringentes carunculas veſcuntur. Vnde fit vt eorum cubilia cognoſcant qui venantur, congerie teſtarum. Quod autem nonnulli aiunt, polypum ſeipſum eſſe, falſum eſt, ſed aliqui ſua brachia corroſa habent à congris. Piſces omnes fœturam ſuo tempore deuorãt. Reliqua victus ratio non eadem omnibus eſt. alij enim carniuori tantùm ſunt, vt cartilaginei, vt congri, hiatulæ, thunni, murænæ, lupi, dentices, amiæ,

D cernuæ. Mulli vero & carne veſcuntur, & alga, & concha, & cœno: capitones, cœno: daſquilli, cœno, & ſtercore: ſcarus, & oculata, alga: ſalpa, ſtercore & alga: porrum etiam petit, & cucurbita capitur, quod ei ex omnibus vni euenit. Alter etiam alterum ſui generis edit, excepto mugile, ſed maximè congri. Capito & mugilis ſoli carne omnino abſtinent. Cuius rei argumentum eſt, quod neque in ventre tale quid vnquam habentes capiuntur, neque eſca in eos ex carne vtimur, ſed offa panis. Veſcitur mugilis vnuſquiſque alga, atque arena. Capito, quem aliqui labeonem vocant, litoribus gaudet. alter generis eiuſdem trãs-

E litoranus eſt, qui non niſi mucore veſcitur ſuo: quamobrem ſemper ipſe ieiunus eſt. Paſcuntur limo omnes capitones; quo fit, vt graues & ſordidi ſint. Piſcem ipſi nullum omnino edunt: & quoniam verſari in limo ſolent, efferunt ſe, vrinantúrque ſæpe, vt corporis ſordes abluant.

Oua, fœtúſque eorum à nulla bellua violantur, quapropter copioſè exiſtunt: ſed cùm adoleuerint, tunc à cæteris piſcibus corripiuntur, maximeque ab archano. Guloſus omniũ maximè mugilis eſt atque inſatiabilis, quocirca ventre diſtento graueſcit, & niſi ieiunus ſit, hæret iners. Cùm hic metuerit, caput abſcondit, quaſi corpus totum occultet. Dentex etiam (vt dictum eſt) carne veſcitur, & mollia appetit. Euenit plerumque & huic & hiatulæ, vt cùm piſces minores inſequantur, venter procidat, propterea quod piſcium venter iuxta os poſitus, eſt nec gula ſubeſt. alia igitur (vt dixi) carniuora tantùm ſunt, vt delphinus, dentex, aurata, vt cartilaginea, vt mollia: alia magna ex parte luto viuunt, & alga, & muſco, & eo, quod cauliculum vocant, & enaſcente materie: vt phuca, gobio, omnes ſaxatiles. Phucæ quanquam cætera abſtinent carne, tamen ſquillas ſæpenumero appetunt. Sed alter etiam inuadit (vt dictum eſt) alterum, maiorúmque minores ſunt præda. Argumentum, vt carne veſcantur, eſt, quòd eſca huiuſmodi capiantur. Amia, thunnus, & lupus magna ex parte carne aluntur, ſed algam etiã tangunt. Sargus mulli reliquias ſequitur: nam vbi ille luto excitato abiit, (fodere enim poteſt) hic deſcendit, & paſcitur, imbecillioreſque ne eodem adnatent, arcet. Scarus viſus inter piſces ruminare quadrupedum ritu videtur. Cæteris piſcibus captura minorum à fronte agitur ore, vt ſolent meare: at cartilaginei, & delphini, & omnes cetacei generis reſupinati corripiunt: habent enim os ſubter: vnde fit vt periculum minores faciliùs poſſint euadere, alioqui pauci admodum ſeruarentur: quippe cùm delphini celeritas, atque edendi facultas, mira eſſe videantur. Anguillæ paucæ quædam, certiſque locis veſcuntur limo, atque edulijs, ſi quis apponat: ſed plurimæ dulci humore viuunt. Idque qui viuarijs anguillarijs dant operam, ſeruant, vt quàm maximè pura ſyncerâque ſit aqua: affluens ſemper, & effluens per ripas, vbi viuaria extruunt. Nam niſi aqua ſit clara, breui ſtrangulatæ intereunt: branchias enim habent exiguas. Hinc turbare aquam ſoliti ſunt, qui eas piſcantur. Et quidem in Strymone amne circa Vergilias capiuntur: tunc enim aqua, & lutum aduerſis flatibus inturbatur: alioqui ſatius eſt quieſcere. anguillæ non ſuperfluitant mortuæ, nec ſurſum, vt cæteri piſces, maxima parte efferuntur: ſunt enim ventre exiguo. Pingue in paucis ineſt: plurimæ eo carent. Viuere exemptæ aquis, vel ad diem quintum ſextúmque poſſunt: & Aquilone plures diutiùs durant, Auſtro minùs. Et ſi æſtate de lacu in piſcinam transferuntur, viuere nequeunt: ſed ſi hyeme, facilè ſedis mutationem patiuntur. Nullam denique vehementem mutationem tolerant: & quidem æſtate, etiamſi in frigidam aquam transfers, omnes plerumque intereunt. Quin & ſi exigua in aqua ſtabulentur, pereunt. Quod idẽ & cæteris piſcibus euenit; ſtrãgulantur enim, ſi ſemper eadem in aqua exigua verſantur: quomodo ſpirantia animalia intereunt ſi in aëre exiguo claudantur. Vita anguillis nonnullis vel ad ſeptem octoque annos protrahitur.

Victus fluuialibus etiam tum ex mutua ſui generis præda, tum ex herba, radice, & ſi quid in cœno comperiant. Nocte potiùs paſcere, interdiu ſeccedere in altum ſoliti ſunt. Talis piſcium victus eſt.

CAPVT III.

De victu auium, & quæ carniuoræ, quæ frugiuoræ, quæue omniuoræ ſint: quæ item cibum è terra, quæ ex aquis petant.

IN auium genere, quibus vngues adunci, omnes carniuoræ ſunt. Fruges autē ipſæ, etiam ſi in os indideris, nequeunt deuorare: vt genera aquilarum omnia, milui, accipitres ambo, id eſt, palumbarius, & fringillarius, qui multùm inter ſe magnitudine differunt: atque etiam buteo, qui miluo æquiparatur magnitudine, ſemperque ipſe cernitur: adhæc oſſifraga, & vultur. Eſt oſſifragæ magnitudo maior, quàm aquilæ, color ex cinere albicans. Vulturum duo genera ſunt, alterum paruum, & albicantius: alterum maius, ac multiformius. Nocturnarum etiam nonnullæ aduncis vnguibus ſunt, vt cicuma, noctua, bubo. Specie ſimilis noctuæ bubo eſt, ſed magnitudine non minor quàm aquila. Item aluco, vlula, aſio. aluco maior gallinaceo eſt, vlula compar. Picas vtrique venantur. Aſio minor quàm noctua eſt. Hæc tria ſimili ſpecie conſtant, & carne viuunt. Sunt etiam in genere non adunco, quæ carne veſcantur: vt hirundo. aliqua vermiculos petunt, vt fringilla, paſſer, rubetra, luteola, paris, cuius genera tria ſunt: fringillago, quæ maior eſt, quippe quæ fringillam æquet. alter monticola cognomine eſt, quoniam in montibus degat, cui cauda longior. tertius magnitudine ſui exigui corporis diſcrepat, quanquam cætera ſimilis eſt. Item ficedula, atricapilla, rubicilla, rubecula, ſilua, curuca, aſilus, tyrannus, cui corpus non multò amplius, quàm locuſtæ, criſta rutila ex pluma elatiuſcula, & cætera elegans, cantúque ſuauis hæc auicula eſt. adhæc florus, cui magnitudo quanta fringillæ: & montifringilla, quæ fringillæ ſimilis, & magnitudine proxima eſt, ſed collo cæruleo, & in montibus degit, vnde nomen accepit: tum etiam regulus, & frugilega. Hæc, & reliqua id genus, vermiculis partim ex toto partim magna ex parte aluntur. Spinam appetunt illa, ſpinus, ſiue ligurinus, carduelis, item quæ auriuittis appellatur: hæc enim omnia victitant in ſpinis. Vermem autem, & quoduis aliud animal aſpernatur. Dormiunt hæc, & paſcuntur eodem in loco. alia culicibus gaudent, nec alio magis quàm venatu culicum viuunt, vt pipo, tum maior, tum minor. Vtrumque picum martium vocant. Similes inter ſe ſunt, vocemque ſimilem emittunt: ſed maiorem, qui maior eſt. Paſcuntur ad maceriem aduolantes. Item galgulus, cui magnitudo quanta turturi ferè eſt, color luteus. Lignipeta hic admodum eſt, magnáque ex parte macerie paſcitur, vocem emittit magnam. Incola maximè Peloponneſi auis hæc eſt. Tum verò enumerandus inter hæc eſt culicilega dictus, magnitudine parua quanta ſpinus, colore cinereus, diſtinctus maculis, voce parua, qui & ipſe lignipeta eſt. alia frugibus viuunt, vt palumbes, columbus, vinago, turtur.

Viſuntur ſemper columbi, atque palumbes, ſed turtur æſtate tantùm: hyeme ſe condit: latitat enim ſuo tempore. Viſago autumno potiſſimùm & conſpicitur, & capitur, cui magnitudo maior columbo, minor quam palumbi, eſt. Modus maximè capiendi eam, dum ſe in aquam bibendo propendit. Veniunt ad noſtra loca, cùm iam fecerint prolem. Cætera verò omnia, quæ æſtate accedũt, nidulãtur apud nos, & carne magna ex parte ſuos enutriunt pullos, excepto columbaceo genere. Omnium ferè auium aliæ victum à terra petunt, aliæ à fluuio, aliæ à lacu, aliæ à mari: ſed palmipedes in ipſa aqua partem maximam temporis verſantur, & aliquæ ingurgitantes ſe, quærunt quod comedant. Fidipedes circa aquam: earúmque nõnulliæ terra contentis altilibus veſcuntur, quæ ſcilicet carnem non tangunt. Petit lacus, & fluuios ardeola, & albardeola, quæ magnitudine minor eſt, roſtro lato, porrectóque. Item ciconia, & gauia, cui color cinereus. adhæc, iunco, cinchlus, albicula, tringa, quæ inter minora hæc mauiſcula eſt: turdo enim æquiparatur. Omnibus his cauda motitat: quinetiam calidris, cui cinereus color diſtinctus variè. Præterea genus alcedonum aquas adamat, quod duplex eſt: alterum vocale, arundinibus inſidens: alterum mutum, quod ampliore corpore eſt: vtrique dorſum cæruleum. Trochilus etiam hoc loco ponendus eſt. *Sed apud mare alcedo quoque verſatur, & carulus: necnon cornices litora petunt, & quæ vnda eiecerit animalia, tangunt: nam & his natura omniuora eſt. Tum etiam gauia alba, & fulica, mergus, & rupex, victitant apud mare. Palmipedum grauiores circa lacus & amnes verſantur: vt anas, olor, phalaris, vrinatrix. Adhæc boſca ſimilis anati, ſed minor: & qui coruus appellatus eſt, cui magnitudo, quanta ciconiæ, ſed crura breuiora: palmipes, natánſque eſt, colore niger: inſidet arboribus, & nidulatur in iis, hic vnus ex hoc genere. Item anſer maior, anſer minor, qui gregatilis eſt, & vulpanſer, capella, penelops. Aquila dicta marina, & mare adit, & lacum. Multæ etiam herbis veſcuntur. alites vncæ tum cætera, quæ ſuperare poſſunt, animalia, tum aues aggrediuntur, ſed non ſui generis: carniuoræ ſunt, modo piſcium, qui plerumque ſibi cognatos rapiunt. Genus auium cùm omne potu exiguo cõtentum ſit, tum aduncis nullus omnino vſus bibendi eſt, præterquam pauciſſimis quibuſdam, quæ & ipſæ rarò vtuntur: qualis potiſſimùm tinnunculus eſt. Miluus etiam viſus eſt bibere, quanquam rarò.

CAPVT IV.

De victu ſerpentum, cæterorúmque animalium cortice intectorum.

GEnus animalium cortice intectum, vt lacerti, & reliquæ huiuſcemodi quadrupedes, atque etiam ſerpentes, omniuorum eſt: nam & carnem edunt, & herbam. Serpentes omnium maximè animalium vel cupediæ deditiſunt: ſed deſiderium iis quoque bibendi exiguum, & reliquis, quibus pulmo fungoſus eſt, qualem omnia habent, quæ oua pariunt, & quibus parum ſanguinis eſt. Serpentes vini incontinentes etiam ſunt: proinde viperas aliqui vino cum fictilibus ad ſepes diſpoſito venantur: ebriæ enim capiuntur.

CAPVT V.

De victu lupi, vrſi, leonis, eorúmque quadrupedum, quæ ex lacubus fluuiiſque victum petunt.

QVadrupedum, quæ animal generant, ſylueſtres eædémque ſerratæ dentibus, carne omnes veſcuntur: niſi quod lupos aiunt terram quandam, cùm eſuriunt, edere. Hoc igitur peculiare luporum ſit. Herbas autem non alio tempore tangunt, niſi cùm morbo laborant: C quomodo & canes herba ingeſta, euomunt, atque ita purgantur. Lupi hominem illi potiùs petunt, qui inertes, & vnipetæ quidem ſunt, quàm qui venatores. Quam autem alij glanum, alij hyænam appellant, corpore non minore quàm lupus, eſt: iuba qua equus, ſed ſeta duriore, longioréque, & per totum dorſum porrecta. Molitur hæc inſidias homini. Canes etiam (vomitionem hominis imitando) capit, & ſepulchra effodit, humanæ auida carnis, ac eruit. Vrſus animal omniuorum eſt, quippe qui & fructus arborum, quas conſcendit corpore lubrico, edat, & legumina, & apes, perfringens alueos, & cancros, & formicas. Carne etiam veſcitur: viribus enim ſuis confidens, inuadit non ſolùm ceruos, ſed etiam ſues feros, ſi clàm D repentéque potuerit agere. Taurum aperto Marte aggreditur: conſerta iam pugna ſternit ſe reſupinum, dúmque taurus ferire conatur, ipſe ſuis brachiis amplectitur cornua, ore morſum armis defigit, proſternitque aduerſarium. Ingredi vel duobus innitens pedibus erectus aliquamdiu poteſt. Carnes omnes præmaceratas, & propemodum putres, comedit. Leo veſcitur quidem carne, ritu cæterorum ſylueſtrium ſerratorum, ſed cibo incontinenter admodum vtitur, multáque deuorat ſolida, ſine vllo diſſectu. Mox nihil triduo aut certè biduo edit: ferre enim inediam poteſt, vt qui iam ad multam ſatietatem repletus eſt. Parum bi- E bit, excrementum rarò emittit, tertio die, vel vtcumque accidit egerit, idque durum, aridum, & ſimile vt canis. Flatum etiam alui acerrimum emittit, & vrinam grauiter olentem, vnde fit, vt canes arbores odorentur. Mingit enim crure elato, vt canes, ad ſtipites. Fœdum quoque odorem in cibo relinquit ex ſuo halitu: proſciſſo nāque leone, interiora grauiter olent. Sunt inter quadrupedes, feráſque, quæ victum ex lacu & fluuiis petant. at verò à mari nullum, præterquā vitulus marinus.

Sunt etiam in hoc genere fiber, ſatherium, ſatyrium, lutris, latax, quæ latior lutre eſt, dentéſque habet robuſtos, quippe quæ noctu plerumque egrediens, virgulta proxima ſuis dentibus, vt ferro, præcidat. Lutris etiam hominem mordet, nec deſiſtit (vt ferunt) niſi fracti oſſis crepitum ſenſerit. Lataci pilus durus, ſpecie inter pilum vituli marini, & cerui.

Porphyrio vnus, morſu. Cornigera animalia, tam fera quàm vrbana, & quibus dentes ſerrati non ſunt, omnia fruge herbáque veſcuntur, niſi vehementer eſuriant, ſue excepto, qui minimè herbæ frugúmve appetens eſt, ſed radicum maximè ex omnibus animalibus, quoniam rictu aptiſſimo ad id negotij eſt. *Faciliimè etiam omnium idem hoc animal ad quoduis pabulum aſſueſcit, & celerrimè quoque in pinguedinem proficit pro ſui corporis magnitudine. Sexaginta enim diebus pingueſcit. Quantum autem profecerit, ij cognoſcunt, quibus ea res curæ eſt, vbi ieiunum ad ſaginam conſtituerint. Pingueſcit fame præfatigatus triduò. Pingueſcit hoc animal ordeo, milio, ficu, glande, pyro, cucumere. Sed maximè tum hoc tũ cætera, quibus venter calidus eſt, quiete, immotióne que pingueſcũt. Cæterum ſues pinguiores redduntur etiam cùm in luto ſe volutant. Paſcere gregatim pro ætate velle videtur. Lupo etiam ſus obſiſtere repugnaréque poteſt. Cornua iuniorum tepefacta in cera flectuntur, ducuntúrque facilè quò volueris. Nec pedum dolores ſentiunt, ſi eorum cornua illinantur cera, aut oleo, aut pice.

Πρόβατα δὲ καὶ αἶγες, εἰσὶ μὲν ποηφάγα· τὴν δὲ νομὴν ποιοῦνται τὰ μὲν πρόβατα, προσεδρεύοντα, καὶ μόνιμα· αἱ δ' αἶγες, ταχὺ μεταβάλλουσαι, καὶ τῶν ἄκρων ἀπτόμεναι μόνον. πιαίνει δὲ μάλιστα τὸ πρόβατον τὸ ποτόν· διὸ καὶ τοῦ θέρους διδόασιν ἅλας διὰ πέντε ἡμερῶν, μέδιμνον τοῖς ἑκατόν. γίνεται γὰρ ὑγιεινότερον οὕτω καὶ πιότερον τὸ ποίμνιον. καὶ τὰ πολλὰ δ' ἁλίζοντες, διὰ τοῦτο προσφέρουσιν, ἔν τε τοῖς ἀχύροις ἅλας πολλούς, (διψῶντα γὰρ πίνει μᾶλλον) καὶ τοῦ μετοπώρου τὴν κολοκυντίαν, ἅλας πάττοντες. τοῦτο γὰρ καὶ γάλα ποιεῖ πλεῖον. καὶ κινούμεναι δὲ μεσημβρίας, πίνουσι μᾶλλον πρὸς τὴν δείλην. πρὸς δὲ τοὺς τόκους ἁλιζόμεναι, μείζω τὰ οὔθατα καθιᾶσι.

CAPVT X.

Quibus herbis oues & capræ veſcantur, & de cauſa impinguationis earundem.

E Oues & capræ herba veſcuntur. Paſcere oues ſedulæ, atque ſtabiles ſolent. Capræ loca crebrò permutant, ſummáque tantùm contingunt. Pingueſcit potiſſimùm ouis ex potu: quamobrem æſtate ſalem dare, die quinto ſoliti ſunt, ſingulis centenis ſingulos modios. Sic enim pecus incolume atque pinguius redditur. Frequens igitur ſalis vſus eò pertinet, quando & paleis copiam ſalis admiſcent, vt ſitibundæ plus aquæ hauriant. & autumno cucurbitam ſale contactam afferunt: quod lac etiam auget. Et agitatæ quoque meridie, plus poſtmeridianis bibunt. Fœtis diſtenta vbera pendent, quibus ſalis abundè eſt.

Opimat pecus olea, oleaſter, aphaca, palea, herba, quæ omnia efficaciora ſunt ex ſalſugine reſperſa. Pingueſcunt & hæc pleniùs præfatigata inedia triduò. Aqua ouibus autumno commodior Aquilonia quàm auſtrina eſt: & paſcua ad Solis occaſum ſpectantia proſunt. Itinera, & labores extenuant. Iudicant paſtores ouem validiorem, cùm hybernis temporibus pruinam, quam ſuſceperit, ſeruat. Nam quibus virium minus, parum præ ſua imbecillitate conſtantes, diſcutiunt ſuo motu quantum ſuſceperint. Caro cuiuſque quadrupedis deterior eſt, cùm locis paluſtribus, quàm editioribus paſcit. Sunt porrò frigoris patientiores, quibus cauda amplior quàm quibus porrectior, & glabræ exutiores quàm veſtitiores. Criſpæ etiam algoris impatientes ſunt. Valēt meliùs oues, quàm capræ: ſed robuſtiores capræ quàm oues, ſunt. Ouium, quas lupus occiderit, pelles, ac vellera, & facta ex his veſtis, longè, quàm cætera, aptiora ſunt ad pediculos procreandos.

A πιαίνει δὲ τὰ πρόβατα θαλλὸς, κότινος, ἀφάκη, ἄχυρα, καὶ πόα· πάντα δὲ μᾶλλον πιαίνει ἅλμῃ προσερραμμένα. παχύνεται δὲ καὶ ταῦτα μᾶλλον προλιμοκτονηθέντα τρεῖς ἡμέρας. ὕδωρ δὲ προβάτοις τοῦ μετοπώρου τὸ βόρειον τοῦ νοτίου ἄμεινον, καὶ αἱ νομαὶ αἱ πρὸς ἑσπέραν συμφέρουσι. λεπτύνουσι δ' αἱ ὁδοὶ καὶ αἱ ταλαιπωρίαι. οἱ δὲ ποιμένες γινώσκουσι τὰς ἰσχυρὰς τῶν οἰῶν, ὅταν χειμὼν ᾖ, τῷ τὰς μὲν πάχνην ἔχειν, τὰς δὲ, τῷ μὴ ἔχειν. διὰ γὰρ τὴν ἀσθένειαν κινούμεναι, ἀποβάλλουσιν αἱ μὴ ἰσχύουσαι. πάντων δὲ τετραπόδων τὰ κρέα χείρω, ὅπου [εἰς] ἑλώδη χωρία νέμονται, ἢ ὅπου μετεωρότερα.* εἰσὶ δ' εὐχειμερώτεραι αἱ πλατύκερκοι οἶες
B τῶν μακροκέρκων, καὶ αἱ κολοβαὶ τῶν λασίων· δυσχείμεροι δὲ καὶ * αἱ αἶγες. ὑγιεινότεραι μὲν οὖν οἶες τῶν αἰγῶν· ἰσχύουσι δὲ μᾶλλον αἱ αἶγες τῶν οἰῶν. τῶν δὲ λυκοβρώτων προβάτων, τὰ κῴδια καὶ τὰ ἔρια, καὶ τὰ ἐξ αὐτῶν ἱμάτια, φθειρωδέστερα γίνεται πολὺ μᾶλλον τῶν ἄλλων.

CAPVT XI.

De paſtione, & potu inſectorum.

INſecta animalia, quibus dentes, omniuora ſunt: quibus autem lingua, tantùm humore vndique eliquando ſua lingua veſcuntur: quorum alia omniuora ſunt, quibus guſtus omnium ſaporũ eſt, vt muſcæ: alia ſanguiuora, vt tabani, & aſili: alia ſuccis plantarum, & fructuum viuunt. apis vna nullis putidis aſſidet, nec vtitur alio cibo, quàm dulci. aquam etiam libentiſſimè inde hauriunt, quam ſynceri clariſſimique fontes ſcaturiunt. Talis animalium victus eſt.

CAPVT XII.

De actionibus animalium, & rebus, in quibus eadem verſantur.

ACtio autem, & omne eorum negotium in coitu, procreatione, atque victus ſolertia verſatur: necnon ad frigora, æſtus, mutationes denique temporum pertinet. Ineſt enim omnibus ſenſus natiuus mutationis factæ, frigore, aut calore. Itaque vt homines alij domicilia hyeme repetunt, alij qui amplioris prouinciæ principes ſunt, ſedem pro tempore mutant, vt moram æſtate locis frigidis, hyeme tepidis trahant: ſic bruta, quæ loca poſſunt permutare, faciunt. atque alia ſubſidium in ipſis conſuetis ſibi locis comperiunt, alia peregrè proficiſcuntur. Iam ab autumnali æquinoctio ex Ponto locíſque frigidis fugiunt hyemem futuram. A verno autem ex tepida regione, ad frigidam ſeſe conferunt, æſtus metu futuri: & alia de locis vicinis diſcedunt, alia de vltimis, propè dixerim, vt grues faciunt, quæ ex Scythicis campis ad paludes Ægypto ſuperiores, vnde Nilus profluit, veniunt: quo in loco pugnare cum Pygmæis dicuntur. Non enim id fabula eſt: ſed certè, genus tum hominum, tum etiam equorum puſillum (vt dicitur) eſt, degúntque in cauernis, vnde nomen Troglodytæ à ſubeundis cauernis accepere. Plateæ etiam migrant, & de Strymone amne ad Iſtrum aduolant, prolémque ibi faciunt.

A Abeunt vniuerſæ, ac priores expectant poſteriores, propterea quòd vbi montem ſuperarint, videri priores à poſterioribus nequeant. Quinetiam piſces modo eodem, alij ex Ponto, aut in Pontum tranant, alij per hyemem ex alto in litora teporis gratia veniunt: contrà æſtate ex litore in altum vitantes æſtum diſcedunt. Aues quoque imbecilliores, hyberno & gelido tempore diſcedunt in campos, vt tepore potiantur: æſtiuò autem repetunt montes, vt æſtu careant. Semper quæ imbecilliora ſunt, priùs vtrauis ratione diſcedunt. Iam ſcombri antè, quàm thunni, coturnices antè, quàm grues: altera enim B Auguſto, altera Septembri menſe incipiunt. Sunt profectò omnia pinguiora, quæ de locis diſcedunt frigidis, quàm quæ de calidis: vt coturnices autumno quàm vêre ſunt pinguiores. Fit enim vt ſimul de locis frigidis, & tempore calido diſcedatur. Sunt etiam Veneris appetentiora verno tempore, cúmque ex tepido diſceſſerunt. Sed auium, grues, vt dictum eſt, ex vltimis in vltima abeunt. Volant flatu ſecundo. Quod de lapide narrant, falſum eſt. Lapidem enim eas tenere fulcimento, quem, vbi deciderit, accipi vtilem ad auri probationem aiunt. Palumbes etiam diſcedunt, & liuiæ, nec hybernare apud nos patiuntur: atque etiam turtures, & hirundines: ſed columbæ C manent. Coturnices quoque diſcedunt, niſi paucæ locis apricis remanſerint: quod & turtures faciunt. Volant gregatim tum palumbes, tum turtures, cùm accedunt, & cùm ſuo tempore abeunt. Coturnices cùm ceciderint, ſi ſerenum ſit, aut aquilonium tempus, ſociantur, & proſperè degunt: ſed ſi auſtrinum, moleſtè, propterea quòd parum volant: humidus enim grauiſque auſter eſt. Quamobrem qui aucupantur, auſtrum, non aquilonem obſeruant. Omnino ægrè propter ſui corporis pondus volant. Sunt enim corpore grandiore, quàm ſuis pennis deferri poſſint, vociferantéſque ob eam rem volant: laborant enim quaſi oppreſſæ onere. Cùm hæc adeunt loca, ſi D ne ducibus pergunt: at cùm hinc abeunt, ducibus lingulaca, oto, & matrice proficiſcuntur, atque etiam cynchramo, à quo etiam reuocantur noctu: cuius vocem cùm ſenſerint aucupes, intelligunt parari diſceſſum. Matrix forma perinde ac aues lacuſtres eſt: atque etiam lingulaca, quæ linguam exerit prælongam, vnde ei nomen. Ortus noctuæ ſimilis eſt, pinnulis circiter aures eminentibus præditus, vnde nomen accepit quaſi auritum dicas. Nonnulli vlulam eum appellant, alij aſionem. Blatero hic eſt, & hallucinator, & planipes: ſaltantes enim imitatur. Capitur intentus in altero aucupe, altero circumeunte, vt noctua. E Omnes denique aues vncæ, breui ſunt collo, & lingua lata, aptæque ad imitandum. Nam & Indica auis, cui nomen pſittacæ, quam loqui aiunt, talis eſt, & loquacior cùm biberit vinum, redditur. Gregales ex auibus ſunt, grus, olor, platea, anſer minor.

CAPVT XIII.

De actionibus piſcium, quorumdámque terreſtrium, in fugiendis aduerſis.

PIſcium alij, vt dictum eſt, diſcedunt ab alto ad litus, & contrà de litore in altum, fugientes exuperantias caloris, & frigoris. Sed præſtant pelagicis litorales: quippe qui cibo copioſiore melioréque potiantur. Quà enim Sol ingruit, plura exeunt, vt fit in hortis: nam & lituus niger propius terram oritur, alter ſimilis erraticis eſt. Tum etiam bene ex calido frigidóque temperata ſunt loca maris terrena. Quo fit, vt & caro B eorum piſcium magis conſtet, cùm pelagiorum humida, mollis, ſolutáque ſit. Litorales ſunt dentex, ſcarabeus, cernua, aurata, mugilis, mullus, turdus, draco, pulcher, gobio, atque omne ſaxatile genus. Pelagij ſunt paſtinaca, genúſque omne cartilagineum & congrorum albicantium genus, & hiatula, rubelio, glaucus. Pagri autem, ſcorpiones, congri nigrantes, murænæ, cuculi, ambigunt. Sed diſcrimen horum, diuerſitate etiam locorum ac temporum exiſtere poteſt: vt apud Cretam inſulam gobiones, omnéque ſaxatile genus ſatis pingueſcit. Thunnus etiam poſt Arcturum melior eſt: iam enim eo tempore ab infeſtantis aſili agitatione requieſcit, quæ facit vt ſit in æſtate deterior. Quinetiam maritimis C lacubus genera plura piſcium marinorum gigni apertum eſt, vt ſalpam, auratam, mullum, alios ferè plurimos. Amias etiam in Alopeconneſo reperies: & in Biſtonide lacu plurima genera habentur. Monedulæ, magna ex parte non ſubeunt Pontum, ſed in Propontide tranant æſtatem, & pariunt: hyemem in Ægeo. Sed thunni, limariæ, amiæ, ſubeunt Pontum vere, æſtatémque ibi traducunt: & reliqui ferè plurimi fuſanei & gregatilis generis eôdem tranſeunt. Eſt ſanè plurima piſciũ pars gregatilis, nec vllus grex caret duce. Petunt autem Pontum paſtus gratia, qui vberior & commodior ibi, propter aquarum dulcium admiſtionem, ſuppeditatur. Bel- D luæ quoque magnæ pauciores ibidem ſunt: nam excepto delphino, & phocæna, quam tirſionem interpretor, nihil in Ponto maleficum eſt. Nec delphinus hic magnus eſt, quanquam extrà vbi aliquantum proceſſeris, magni habeantur. Tum itaque victus tum etiam partus gratia Pontum ſubeunt. Sunt enim ibi loca ad partionem aptiora, & humor dulcior ac potulentior fœtum meliùs educat. Sed cùm pepererint, & proles iam adoleuerit, exeunt poſt Vergilias ſtatim: & ſi hyems Auſtrina ſit, tardiùs: ſi Aquilonia, citiùs, propter ſecundi flatus commoditatem: proléſque adhuc parua apud Byzantium capitur, vtpote cùm E longior mora in Ponto non fuerit. Sed de cæteris & cùm adeunt, & cùm exeunt, conſtat. Sarda autem vna cùm adit, videtur, & capitur: ſed exiens nuſquam viſa adhuc eſt. Quòd ſi qua apud Byzantium aliquando capiatur, piſcatores ſua retia luſtrant, propter exitus inſolentiam: cuius rei cauſa eſt, quòd ſolæ ipſæ ſubeunt Iſtrũ amnem: vnde ſiſſo flumine per abditũ terræ meatum defluunt in Adriam ſinum. argumento eſt, quòd ibi contrà euenit quàm in Ponto: exeũtes enim ſemper capiuntur, ſubeuntes nunquam.

CAPVT XVII.

QVadrupedum, quæ animal generant, hyſtrices conduntur, & vrſi: ſed verùm propter frigus, an alia de cauſa, ambigitur. Pinguesſcunt vrſi per id tempus, tum mares tum fœminæ vehementer, vt mouere ſeſe facilè nequeant. Parit etiam fœmina eo tempore, & tamdiu latet, quoad tempus ſit, vt ſuos catulos in apertum producat: quod verno tempore menſe a bruma tertio facit. Sed quod minimum, dies circiter quadraginta latet: ex quibus bis ſeptem ita ſopitur, vt ſe nihilo moueat. Reliquis poſtea pluribus latet quidem, ſed mouetur, & ſurgit. Fœtu grauida vrſa, vel à nemine, vel à pauciſſimis capta eſt. C Tempore ſui latibuli hoc animal nihil edere certum eſt: quippe quod neque exeat, & captum ventre inteſtinóque inani videatur. Narrant eius inteſtinum per inediam ita conniuere, vt adductum propè cohæreat. Itaque vrſum latebram egreſſum, primùm herbam arum dictam deguſtare, vt inteſtinū laxetur & hiet. Glires etiam latent in ipſis arboribus, pingueſcuntque per id tempus vehemēter. Itidem mures Pontici generis. Nonnulla ex iis quæ conduntur, exuunt id quod ſenectus vocatur: quod cutis vltima eſt, & primi ortus operculum. Sed in pedeſtri viuiparo genere de vrſo, qua de cauſa lateat, ambigitur, vt di- D ctum iam eſt. Cortice intecta, maxima ferè ſui parte ſeceſſus ſuo tempore latent: & exuunt ſenectutem ea quibus cutis mollis, nec prædura, & teſtacea quidem eſt, qualis teſtudini (nam & teſtudo inter cortice intecta enumeranda eſt, & mus aquatilis) ſed qualis ſtellioni, lacerto, & præcipuè ſerpentibus eſt. Exuunt enim hæc omnia, tum vere cùm egrediuntur, tum etiam autumno. Vipera etiam exuit tam vère quàm autumno. Cùm ſerpens exuere incipit, ab oculis primùm detrahi aiunt, ita vt obcæcati videantur iis qui rem non intelligunt: tum caput exuitur: glabrum enim hoc omnium antè quàm reliquum corpus apparet: atque vna ferè nocte E & die ſenectus tota exuitur, à capite orſa ad caudam, & cute altera intus ſubnaſcente ipſa remouetur. Vt enim fœtus inuolucro ſecundarum, quo contentus prodierit, exuitur: ſic iſta ſenectute detracta renouantur. Inſecta enim eodem modo exuunt ſenectutem, quibus hoc ſolitum eſt: vt ſilpha, & culex, & ea quorum pennæ vagina continentur, vt ſcarabei: ſed omnia facto iam quod gigni debuerit, exeunt: nam vt partui viuiparo ſecundæ, ſic vermiculariæ proli operculum circumrumpitur. Æquè & apibus, & locuſtis.

Cicadæ

Cicadæ vbi eruperunt, oleis aut arundinibus inſidunt:& cùm rupto operculo exeunt, paruũ quiddam in eo relinquunt humoris, nec multò pòſt volant,& incipiunt canere. Locuſtæ inter marina & gammari exeunt, aut vère, aut autumno poſt partum. Iam captæ aliquæ ſunt locuſtæ, mollem habentes partem ſuperiorem, quòd cruſta iam circumrupta detractáque eſſet: inferiorem autem duram, quia nondum eſſet diſrupta. Non enim ſimilis in his atque in anguibus, exutio fit. Latent locuſtæ menſes circiter quinque. Cancri etiam exuunt ſenectutem, molliores quidem perſpicuè: ſed etiam duriores exuere aiunt, vt maias. Cùm verò exuunt, mollis admodum cruſta ſubnaſcitur: & quidem cancri præ teneritate non ſatis ambulare poſſunt. Exuunt hæc ſæpius anno. Sed quænam lateant, & quo modo, & tempore, atque etiam quæ, & quo tempore exuant ſenectutem, iam dictum eſt.

CAPVT XVIII.

Viuunt autem animalia proſperè non eiſdem temporibus, nec omnibus æquè exuperantiis. Valetudines etiam, & morbi per tempora pro generum diuerſitate variè accidunt, & in totum non eadem omnibus valetudo exiſtit. Iam auibus proſunt ſqualores, tum ad cæteram ſanitatem, tum etiam ad partum, & præcipuè palumbis. at verò piſcibus, exceptis quibuſdam paucis, imbres conducunt. Incommodi contrà auibus anni pluuij ſunt, piſcibus ſicci: quippe cum auium talis natura ſit, vt ne bibere quidem largiùs poſſint ſine detrimento. Aduncæ igitur aues, vt dictum eſt, viuunt, propè dixerim, ſine vllo potu: quod Heſiodus neſciuit: facit enim in narratione obſeſſionis Nini, aquilam augurij præſidem bibentem. Cæteræ aues bibunt quidem, ſed parum. Nec aliud vllum potioni indulget, quod pulmonẽ fungoſum habeat, aut pariat ouum. Cum aues ægrotant, plumæ indicium proferunt: turbantur enim, nec poſituram eandem ſeruant, quam habent, cùm rectè valent.

CAPVT XIX.

Piſcium genus maxima ex parte annis pluuiis bene (vt dictum eſt) viuit: ita enim non modò plus cibi nanciſcitur, verùm etiam omnino pluuio humore iuuatur, vt ea quæ terra gignuntur. Olera enim quamuis rigentur, tamen non tantùm proficiunt, quantum imbre. Quod inde arundinibus etiam lacu prognatis euenit: nihil enim ferè accreſcunt, niſi aquæ pluuiæ incidant. Indicium vel inde accipi poteſt, quòd piſces plurimi petant Pontum, vt in eo traducant æſtatem: facit enim copia amnium loci illius, vt mare ſit dulcius, & cibus largior habeatur, quem iidem fluuij deferant. Subeũt etiam fluuios genera piſcium complura, & præſtant in fluentis & lacubus, vt amia, mugilis. Gobiones etiam pingueſcunt in fluuiis. Denique loca prædita lacus commoditate, piſces poſſident optimos.

A Ex pluuiis autem ipſis æſtiui imbres commodiores ſunt parti maximæ piſcium, & præcipuè cùm ver, æſtas, & autumnus imbribus abundarint, hyems contrà ſerenior fuerit. ad ſummam propè dixerim, cùm bene hominibus annus cedit, tunc & piſcibus feliciter degere contingit. Locis autem frigidis parum vigent. Maximè infeſtantur algore, qui lapidem in capite habent, vt chromis, lupus, phager, vmbra: facit enim lapidis rigor, vt per algorem gelentur, & excidant. Sed cùm plurimis piſcium generibus imbres conducant, mugili tamen, & capitoni, & ei, qui à nonnullis murinus vocatur, nocent. Fit enim vt pluuiis multi ex his de facili excæcentur, ſi modum aqua exceſſerit. B Solet enim per hyemem potiùs capito ita affici: nam oculi eius albeſcunt, & macilentus per id temporis capitur, atque ad poſtremum malo eodem interit: quod nō magis imbrium copia, quàm algore accidere videtur. Iam enim cùm alibi, tum in Nauplio agro terræ Argiuæ, in vadis multis capti ſunt cæci, cùm hyems fuiſſet aſperrima: multi etiam albos habentes oculos capti ſunt. Aurata quoque hyeme laborat: ſed archanas æſtate, cōque tempore extenuatur. Prodeſt coruulis fermè, præter cæteros piſces, annus ſquallens, quòd his quoque ob eam rem commodior eſt, quia per ſiccitatem potius tepor accidit. Loca pro ſua natura genera quæque ſibi habent ad incolumitatem commodiora. C Quod enim natura litorale, aut pelagium eſt, huic ſuo loco pro naturæ deſiderio verſari commodius eſt: quod autem ambigit, id commodè vtroque degere poteſt. Sed ſunt etiam loca quædam ſingulis propria: in quibus rectiùs valeant. Commodiora (quod ſimpliciter dixerim) loca ſunt ea quæ algarum copia ſcatent: pinguiores enim locis his capiuntur, qui multis & variis locis ſolent pabulari. Nam & quibus alga in cibo eſt, abundè paſcuntur: & quibus caro appetitur, plures piſces ſibi reperiunt. Intereſt etiam, Aquilonia ſint, an Auſtrina. Genus enim longum Aquiloniis meliùs viget: D & quidem æſtate loco eodem in Aquiloniis plures longi quàm lati, capiuntur. Thunni & gladij agitantur aſilo, canis exortu: habent enim vtrique per id tempus ſub pinna ceu vermiculum, quem aſilum vocant, effigie ſcorpionis, magnitudine aranei. Infeſtat hoc tanto dolore, vt non minùs interdum gladius quàm delphinus exiliat: vnde fit, vt vel in nauigia ſæpenumero incidat. Thunni omnium maximè piſcium gaudent tepore, & ob eam rem arenam & litora adeunt: per ſumma etiam maris innatant, quo teporis potiantur. Piſciculi autem ſeruari propterea poſſunt, quia ſpernuntur: maiora enim magni ſequuntur. E Sed ouorum & prolis pars magna proinde abſumitur. cùm enim piſces deſiderio teporis loca fœturæ adeant, liguriunt quicquid attigerint. Capiuntur maximè piſces non multo antè quàm Sol oriatur, aut poſtquam occidit, denique circa Solis ortum, aut occaſum. Tempeſtiuè enim iaci tantiſper putatur: quamobrem eo tempore piſcatores ſolent retia tollere: tunc enim maximè viſus piſcium fallitur: quippe cum noctu quieſcant, luce autem iam clariore melius videant. Morbus peſtilēs nullus incidere piſcibus vniuerſis videtur, qualis plerumque hominibus, & quadrupedū, equis, & bubus, & reliqui generis nonnullis accidit, tum feris, tum vrbanis. Ægrotare tamen & ipſi putātur.

Et quidam piſcatores pro morbi indicio capiunt, cùm aliquot extenuatos languentibus ſimiles, & colore immutatos, inter multos pingues ac validos eiuſdem generis ceperit. Marinum genus ita ſe habet.

Quæ fluuialibus & lacuſtribus piſcibus noceant, quóve ingenio iidem capiantur.

FLuuiatile, & lacuſtre, à peſte quidem & ipſum immune eſt, ſed nonnullis morbi incidũnt proprij. Silurus enim canis exortu potiſſimùm (quòd ſublimis innatet) ſideratur, & tonitruo ſopitur magno. Quod & cyprino accidit, ſed leuiùs. Silurus vel à dracone angue, gurgite parum alto ictus interit. Ballero, & tilloni lumbricus canis exortu innaſcitur, qui debilitat, cogitque ad ſumma ſtagni efferri, quà æſtu intereunt. Chalcis, quam æricam appello, vitio infeſtatur diro, vt pediculi ſub branchiis innati quàm multi interimant: quod nulli ex cæteris accidit. Moriuntur piſces verbaſco herba, quamobrem cæteri, fluuiatiles & lacuſtres ea inficientes capiunt: ſed Phœnices marinos etiam ita piſcantur. Sunt qui duobus quoque aliis capiendi generibus vtantur. Quòd enim altos gurgites amnium piſces per hyemem vitare ſolent, (cùm enim aliàs dulcis aqua frigidior ſit, tum vel maximè eius ima algent) idcirco foſſam in fluuium ducunt, quam maceriæ iungentes operiunt, & fœno, atque lapidibus ſtipant, vt quaſi cuniculum faciant, aditu patente ad fluuium, vnde impleatur: tum facto gelu naſſa inde piſcantur. Alterum genus capturæ tale eſt, cuius vſus & hyeme eſt, & æſtate. Medio amne fruticibus, & lapidibus circunſepiunt, vno aditu dato modo oris: tum in eo ore poſita naſſa piſcantur, motis lapidibus. Teſtaceo generi anni pluuij proſunt, præterquam purpuris: cuius rei indicium eſt, quòd ſi amnis in mare fluentis aquam guſtarint, moriuntur eodem die. Viuit purpura extra mare, quæ capta eſt, dies circiter quinquaginta. alit altera alteram, eo quòd ſua teſta gnatum, velvti algam, muſcúmve gerit. Quæ autem pro cibo iis afferunt, ponderis cauſa adhiberi aiunt, vt in libra ſint grauiores. Cæteris ſqualor incõmmodus eſt: nam & pauciora reddũtur, & deteriora. Et quidem pectines tunc magis trahunt rufum colorem. Iam in Pyrrhæo Euripo pectines aliquando defuerunt, non modò propter ferramentum, quo piſcatores abradendo vbertim caperent, verumetiam propter ſiccitates. Cæteris etiam teſtatis imbres conducunt, propterea quòd mare dulcius redditur: ſed frigus facit profectò, ne vel in Ponto, vel in fluuiis gigni poſſint, exceptis biforibus paucis. Genus namque vnifore potiſſimùm rigore induratur, & interit. Aquatile animalium genus ita ſe habet.

CAPVT XXI.

aliàs in aurem decumbit. Putreſcit protinus membrum, & vlcus ſerpit, donec ad pulmonem deueniat, quo tacto, mors ſequitur. Creſcit hoc vitium celeriter, nec poteſt ſus quicquam edere, cùm ita ægrotat, etiamſi quantumlibet ſit morbi incrementum. Curatur à porcariis, cùm malum incipere ſenſerint, haud alio modo, quàm tota parte abſciſſa, qua cœperit. Reliqua duo genera eodem vocabulo nominantur ſtruma, quorum alterum dolor capitis, & grauitas eſt, quo plurimi laborare ſolent: alterum alui profluuium eſt, quod irremediabile incidit. alteri ſuccurritur ex vino adhibito naribus, eóque ipſo dilutis, ſed difficulter eo quoque periculo ſubtrahitur: biduo enim aut quatriduo interitus obuenit. Rauceſcunt potiſſimùm eo anno, quo mõtes abundè tulerint, & pinguiſſimi ſint. Iuuat mora celſi dediſſe in cibatu, & balneum multum & calidum, & venæ ſub lingua ſitæ cultello adacto ſanguinem detraxiſſe. Grandinoſi autem fiunt ſues, quorum crura, & collum, & armi carne conſtant humidiore, quibus partibus vel grandines plurimæ innaſcuntur. Caro dulcior eſt, ſi grandines habet paucas: ſed ſi multas, humida valde, & inſipida eſt. Facilè qui grandent, cognoſcuntur: parte enim linguæ inferiore grandines habentur, & ſi ſetam dorſo euellas, cruorem in radice pili euulſi videris. Pedibus etiam poſterioribus conſtare non poſſunt, qui grãdent. Carent grandine, cùm adhuc lactent. Tolluntur grandines tipha, quæ vel in cibatu vtilis eſt. Sed præcipuè alunt, & opimant ficus, & cicer. Cibus denique non ſimplex, ſed varius, ſagina optima eſt. Gaudent enim ſues pabuli mutatione, quemadmodum & cætera animalia. Tum etiam fieri aiunt cibi varietate, vt partim infletur partim impleatur carne, partim opimetur. Glandes ſuauiter quidem à ſuibus comeduntur, ſed carnem humidam faciunt ſi ſolæ dantur. Et ſi grauidæ glandem copioſiùs ederint, abortum faciunt, vt oues: quibus conſtantiùs hoc glandibus eſitatis accidit. Vnum ex omnibus quæ nouimus animalibus, ſus grandinem concipit.

CAPVT XXII.

Quibus morbis infeſtentur canes.

Canes tribus laborant vitiis, rabie, angina, podagra. Facit rabies furorem, & quæ momorderint, omnia rabiunt, excepto homine. Intereũt canes hoc morbo, & quæ morſa ſunt, excepto homine. angina etiam interimit. Et podagra tentati pauci euadere poſſunt. Rabies camelum etiam prehendit. Elephantos cæteris malis immunes aiunt, inflatione autem alui acriùs infeſtari.

CAPVT XXIII.

Boues gregales morbis duobus tentantur, podagra & ſtruma. Facit podagra vt pedibus intumeſcant: & quamuis non intereant, tamẽ vngulas amittant. Valent meliùs cornibus pice illitis calida. Euenit ſtruma, vt calidiùs frequentiúſque ſpiretur. Quod denique in homine febris, idem in boue ſtruma eſt. indicium morbi, vt demiſſæ aures flacceant, & vt comedere nequeant. breui moriuntur, adapertiſque pulmo inſpicitur putris.

CAPVT XXIV.

Quibus morbis laborent equi gregales, domeſticique: & de morborum indiciis, & remediis, necnon de hippomane, & potu equorum, & boum.

EQuorum gregales morbo immunes ſunt, excepta podagra: hoc enim vno laborant, & plerumque ob id vngues amittunt. Sed amiſſis alij ſtatim enaſcuntur: fit enim vt altero ſubnaſcente vngue, alter amittatur. Indicium morbi, vt alter teſtium dexter palpitet, vel vt paulò citra nares cauum quiddam rugoſumque gignatur. at verò equi domeſtici morbis pluribus obnoxij ſunt. Laborant ileo dicto, id eſt, tenuioris inteſtini morbo: cuius mali indicium, vt crura poſteriora attrahant ad priora, & ita ſummoueant, vt propemodum collidant. Si, vbi antea diebus aliquot ſponte ieiunarint, mox in furorem vertantur, ſanguine detracto iuuantur. Capiuntur etiam rigore neruorum: cuius indicium, venæ vt omnes neruique intendantur, & caput ceruicéſque immobiliter rigeant, rectiſque cruribus gradiantur. Suppuratione etiam equi infeſtantur. Vitium quoque eorum eſt, quod hordeatio dicitur. Cuius indicium, vt palatum moleſtet, & feruentiùs ſpiret equus quàm ex conſueto. Nullum huius mali remedium eſt, niſi ſponte naturæ emendetur. Quod autem lymphati dicitur, tale eſt, vt equus ad tibiæ ſonum quieſcat, & demittat frontem: cùm verò conſcenderis, citetur contentiùs donec retineas. Demiſſus etiam ſemper triſtiſque eſt, ſi rabie tenetur: cuius indicium, vt auriculas demittat ad iubam, ruſſuſque protendat, idque viciſſim factitet. Irremediabile etiam malum, ſi cordis dolore vexatur: cuius indicium, vt latera ſubſidant, & alia præſtringantur. Et, ſi veſica dimoueatur de ſuo ſitu: cuius indicium, ne vrinam reddere poſſit, & vt vngulas cluneſque trahat. Et, ſi paſtinacam deuorarint, cuius magnitudo, quæ verticilli beſtiolæ eſt. (nam morſus muris aranei, vel cæteris iumentis moleſtiſſimus eſt) puſtulæ hoc excitantur, & periculoſior, quem defixerit grauida. puſtulæ enim rumpuntur, ex quo interitus ſequitur. Sed ſi non grauida eſt, non interimit. Quinetiam ea quam alij chalcidam, alij dygnidam vocant, ſuo morſu aut interimit, aut vehementem dolorem mouet. Similis hæc paruis lacertis eſt: ſed colore ſerpentis, quam cæciliam nominant. Denique homines vſu periti totidem ferè morbis equum atque etiam ouem infeſtari, quot hominem, referunt. Interit veneno ſandaracæ & equus, & quoduis iumentum, ſiue veterinum. datur in aqua percolatum. abortum etiam facit equa, odorem ſentiens fungi fumigantis lucernæ extinctæ: quod & mulierum nonnullis accidit. Hactenus de equorum morbis. Quod hippomanes vocant, hæret quidem fronti naſcentis pulli, vt narratur: ſed equæ perlibentes abſtergentéſque, id abrodunt. Quæ autẽ de hoc fabulantur, figmenta muliercularũ, & profeſſorum carminis incantamentorum eſſe, credẽdum potiùs eſt. Emitti etiam ab aqua priùs, quàm pullum, quod pulium dicitur, certum eſt.

Quòd ſi clara eſt, inturbant eam vngulis ſuis, & cùm biberint, lauant ſe totos, lymphiſque potiuntur. Balneum enim omnino hoc animal adamat, & aquæ deditum eſt: quamobrem natura etiam equi fluuiatilis ita conſtat, vt viuere niſi in humore non poſſit. Bos contrà, quàm equus, niſi aqua ſit clara, frigida, atque lympida, bibere nolit.

CAPVT XXVI.

C Elephanti morbis inflatione contractis laborant: quo fit ne poſſint excrementum vel veſicæ vel alui reddere. Ægrotant etiam, ſi comedant terram, niſi ea frequenter vtantur: nam ſi frequenter, nihil ſentiunt mali. Lapides etiam interdum deuorant. Necnon fluore tentantur, quo, cùm vires languerint, curantur potione aquæ calidæ, & cibo fœni melle imbuti: vtrumque enim id ſiſtit profluuium alui. Si per inſomnium feſſi ſunt, armis perfricatis ex ſale, oleo, & aqua, curantur. Cùm humeri dolent, carnibus ſuillis aſſis appoſitis iuuantur. Oleum alij bibunt, alij non. Et ſi ſpiculum in corpore ineſt, eijcitur eo quod biberit, oleo, vt aiunt. Qui autem oleum non bibunt, D iis radix tyrtami decocta in vino datur. Quadrupedum res ita ſe habet.

CAPVT XXVII.

Inſectorum maxima pars eo tempore valet, quo gignitur: videlicet cùm annus talis, quale ver, humidus, & tepidus eſt. Apibus beſtiolæ quædam in alueis innaſcuntur, quæ fauis officiant. Vermiculus item ſpecie aranei, nocet fauis, quem alij clerum, alij pyrauſtam vocant. Hic ſibi ſimilem forma aranei parit in fauo, & facit vt examen æ-E grotet. Obeſt etiam alia quædam beſtiola ſimilis hepiolo papilioni, qui lucernarum luminibus aduolat. Hæc puluerem ſpirando in alueo parit, nec aculeo ab apibus ſtimulatur, ſed tãtùm fumo abigitur. Erucæ quoque naſcuntur in alueis teredines dictæ, quas apes non inſectantur. Ægrotant potiſſimùm, cùm ſylua flores æruginoſos tulerit, atque etiam temporibus ſiccis. Intereunt inſecta omnia tacta ex oleo: ſed celerrimè, ſi capite illito exponantur Soli.

CAPVT XXVIII.
